DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Old Ignatians vs Port Districts

The gorgeous Karen Rolton oval played host to an emphatic Port Districts win as they bounced back and got their first points on the board in the 2023 season. It was unfortunately another forgettable day for the Old Ignatians, as they managed only 8 scoring shots to an incredible 35 scoring shots from the visitors, resulting in a significant 23 - 105 end score. Despite being the biggest margin of the round, this result almost does the hosts a service, as Port Districts 14 goals 21 yields some room for improvement for them, as well as significant warning signs for the Old Ignatians. This is the second consecutive high score conceded by the Ignatians. This week epitomized by an exciting 6 goal haul from crafty forward Tom Gray, who also earned BOG accolades this week.

Brighton Bombers vs St. Peters OC

The straight shooting Brighton Bombers have given their big home crowd a terrific win to jump start their season and send St. Peters to a rough 0 - 2 start. Following last week's demolition at the hands of Glenunga, and sitting in last place after round 1, the bombers seemed the underdogs as the competitive St. Peters had a point to prove after their poor round 1 showing. However, a relentlessly competitive first 3 quarters, and terrific forward line kicking proved enough to chalk up their first win of the season. St Peters ended the first quarters trailing by merely 2 points, even leading the scoring shots by 3. However, Brighton would follow this up with 2 incredibly competitive quarters of football. At 23 scoring shots a piece, St Peters were reminded of the age old adage, good kicking is good football. This proved accurate as the 16.7, 103 Bombers took an important victory against the 11.12, 78 St. Peters OC.

Tea Tree Gully vs Glenunga

Another game this round that shows how difficult this competition will be to tip, came courtesy of a deconstruction of Tea Tree Gully, as Glenunga followed up their terrific round 1 performance with more of the same. The exciting top of the ladder clash saw both teams eager to make their good start to the season a great one. For the Glenunga Rams, they did just that, bombarding the previously untested Tea Tree Gully defense, as a second quarter onslaught quickly silenced the home crowd of Tea Tree Gully. For Glenunga, Abaina Davis, Nicholas Egarr, Samuel Parsons, all provided very strong performances without getting on the scoreboard. They come up against the so far unimpressive Old Ignatians in round 3, an exciting prospect for the Rams as they could start their season with a strong 3 - 0 record.

Sacred Heart OC vs Broadview

After coming off the most competitive games of round 1, this game would be a fascinating gauge of where a lot of teams stand early in this season. This should breed a great deal of excitement for Sacred Heart OC, as the encouraging 74 point mauling of Broadview will give them the necessary reassurance they need to get their season back on track. As for Broadview, their incredible round 1 shock could not be replicated despite the efforts of Ben Manning, who put together a gutsy performance in an otherwise disappointing showing. They will be determined to compete against a strong Prince Alfred OC lineup in round 3 to show the rest of the competition that round 1 was not a flash in the pan.

Prince Alfred OC vs Goodwood Saints

Prince Alfred OC has made a statement to the rest of division 1 football. That traveling to their home ground and being competitive will prove a monumental task for any team who attempts it. Indeed, this was the case for the Goodwood Saints. Whom were coming off a fantastic round 1 victory to continue their winning ways of 2022. This competitiveness wasn't to be seen for a long, grueling 3 quarters for the saints, with an abysmal 0 goals 7 streak not being broken until midway through the fourth term. Only managing 2 goals for the match, it was a defensive masterclass from the Prince Alfred OC back six. Credit to Lochlan Charlton, who was defensively reliable for the full 4 quarters. Unfortunately for the saints, the game was realistically over very early in the second quarter, the 47 point halftime difference margin ballooning to an 80 point victory for the men in red.

Round 3 Previews

Goodwood Saints vs Brighton Bombers

My early tip for game of the week takes these two teams that I think are on relatively level pegging. Each team having a competitive win and a disappointing loss to their name, the win this week will be equally important to each of these respective teams. As all clubs will agree, a 2 - 1 start to the season looks a lot better than a 1 - 2 start. Despite the home ground advantage, a very disappointing 2 goal game for the Saints encouraged me to back to Brighton Bombers by 12 this week.

Glenunga vs Old Ignatians

The two completely different ends of the spectrums for these two teams, with the ladder leading Glenunga taking on the bottom of the table Old Ignatians at their home deck. I fear it might be a long day in the office for the Old Ignatians, whose defense have performed lacklusterly in the first two rounds, and will be tested harder than any of the previous games. I'm going for a bold call for this one, I'm confident that Glenunga can put together the first 100+ point win of the season.

Port Districts vs Sacred Heart OC

I think ominous might be the best word to describe this clash. Each team sits 1 - 1 at this point in the season, each with a heartbreaking loss, followed by an emphatic victory. It could be argued that this is a lock for the game of the round. But I get the sense this could be an uncharacteristically one sided affair. For that reason, I'm going to go with a Comfortable Port Districts victory by 33 points.

Broadview vs Prince Alfred OC

Although I've previously stated that Prince Alfred will be primarily strong at home, I believe that round two's performance deserves to be rewarded with a convincing tip this week. Despite Broadviews impressive round 1 performance, a big loss to Sacred Heart OC in round two could spell a worrying round 3 encounter against the in for Prince Alfred OC. I'm going with Prince Alfred by 7 goals.

St Peters OC vs Tea Tree Gully

Yet another game that proves difficult to tip in this division - a trend I'm starting to notice - will ensure my tipping record never gets too impressive. Each of these teams coming off considerable losses in round two, the 1 - 1 Tea Tree Gullys will venture to St Peters OC. Where, in a close affair until the last 10 minutes, St Peters will chalk up their first win of the year. Defeating Tea Tree Gully by 17 points.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Golden Grove v PHOS Camden

Golden Grove secured their first win of the season with a convincing 121 – 61 victory over PHOS Camden at Camden Oval. Camden found themselves down early at the wrong end of a 10 point deficit at the end of the first quarter however they weren't without scoring opportunities kicking 3 goals 4 behinds to Golden Grove's 5 goals 2. Camden looked to make a comeback at the end of the half kicking four goals to Golden Grove's three, leaving PHOS within just one goal. Many expected PHOS to come out and protect their home ground in the second half, however Golden Grove dominated allowing only one PHOS goal for the remainder of the game. Golden Grove pulled away to an extensive lead kicking 6 goals in the third and 5 in the fourth winning the game by a comfortable 60 point margin. Interesting to see if the percentage gained by Golden Grove will be of importance come finals. Will Papatolis kicked three goals for PHOS and James Reuther kicking 2. Harrison Cook, Declan Grant and Matthew Jacquier also chipped in with one goal each. For Golden Grove, Wyatt Patterson top scored with an impressive 7 majors. The dominant win also saw another 6 goal scorers for Golden Grove with Kane Blades kicking 4, Jed Banwell 3 and Joshua William Glenn with 2. Michael Cavallaro, Joshua Ingram and captain Cameron Shenton also scored 1 goal each. Best on ground for PHOS went to Jock van Kempen and Golden Grove unsurprisingly went to Wyatt Peterson. PHOS will be looking to gain their first win of the season next week while Golden Grove look to rise up the ladder facing Henley.

Adelaide University v Salisbury North

Salisbury have won their second consecutive game defeating Adelaide University in a tightly contested match by 12 points played at University Oval. Adelaide University took control over the game leading the entire first half and entering the break with an 8 point lead. Salisbury came out of the half looking like a different team however kicking 6 goals in the third quarter to Adelaide Uni's 2. Salisbury were able to hold off Adelaide Uni with both teams kicking 2 goals in the final quarter. Adelaide Uni certainly had an opportunity to win this game however some inaccurate kicks for goal leading to 12 behinds led to their defeat. Jordan O'Brien kicked 4 goals for Salisbury followed by Jake Johansen with 3. Best players for Salisbury included Domenico Costanzo Jake Burrows, Jake Johansen Jordan O'Brien and Jamie Jones. Nicholas Schofield won best on ground for Adelaide Uni kicking four goals with Nicholas Adams also playing hard in the tightly contested loss. Salisbury will look to remain undefeated on the season next week with Adelaide University looking to bounce back from a tough loss.

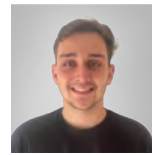

Athelstone v North Haven

With North Haven's sizeable injury list it was no surprise that Athelstone took this game convincingly winning by a whopping 95 point margin. Missing their gun midfielder as well as coach Ryan McInerney with a torn ACL North Haven are expecting to return to a competitive level of play around round 5 or 6. Athelstone came out the gate strong finishing the first quarter 35 points ahead of the weakened Magpies squad. They continued to pile onto their sizeable lead scoring 6 goals in the second and 5 goals in the third. The Magpies managed to prevent a 100 point thrashing however scoring a pair of goals in the second third and fourth quarters. Three players for Athelstone scored 3 or more goals with Luca Stepic winning best on ground kicking 7, Captain Luke Rander with 5 and Liam Duffield with 3. Some positives for North haven were the couple of goals kicked by Matthew Sharpe and the strong performance from Anthony Laurencic. The percentage boost for Athelstone will be sure to play in their favour come finals as they move to the top of the leader board. North Haven will be looking to scrape together a win or two by round 5 or 6 in order to compete for a top 8 position on the ladder

Henley v Payneham NU

Payneham moved to the second spot on the ladder following their dominant 105 to 50 point win over the still winless Henley squad at Henley Memorial Oval. Payneham were on top from the first quarter kicking 6 goals 2 to Henley's 2 goals 2. Payneham continued to pile on the points throughout the remainder of the match adding 5 goals in the second and three in the third before finishing with 2 goals in the fourth. Henley simply had very little to answer with in terms of scoring. The final score for the match was Payneham 16 goals 9 defeating Henley 7 goals 8. Liam Davis took out best on ground thanks to his 7 goals scored, followed by Harrison Viney's 5 goals. Other notable performances for Payneham included Tom Wagner, Theo Theodorakopoulos and Thomas Altomare. Noah Hannagan fought hard for his team kicking two goals and a number of disposals however it wasn't enough to keep his team in the contest dropping them to number eight on the ladder. Payneham sit at the second spot behind Athelstone with both teams gaining huge percentage boosts due to their winning margins.

Rostrevor OC v Edwardstown

Rostrevor obtained their first win of the season with a well fought win over Edwardstown who were looking to record their second win. The game was tightly contested through the end of the first quarter with Rostrevor kicking 2 goals 2 (14) and Edwardstown 2 goals 1 (13). Rostrevor expanded on their lead towards the end of the second half going into the major break a goal ahead. It appears that Edwardstown just didn't have the legs to keep up with Rostrevor going into the second half however with Rostrevor kicking 4 goals in the third quarter to Edwardstown's 0. Despite Edwardstown making an effort to come back in the fourth kicking 3 goals of their own they simply were unable to answer on the defensive end allowing Rostrevor to equal them for the quarter. The game finished with Rostrevor winning by a margin of 27 points. Jett Boxer lead the way scoring wise finishing with 4 goals for Rostrevor followed by Stefan Lanzoni with 2. Best on ground for Rostrevor were strong efforts from, Kane Cini, James Butterworth, James Warton, Ryan Lymn and Will Mead. Phil Hopton did his best to try and get Edwardstown over the line with two goals however falling short. Both teams will look to take their second wins of the season going into round 3.

Previews

Edwardstown v Adelaide University

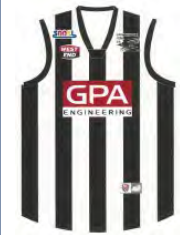

Both teams come into this match after disappointing losses to their opponents in round 2. Both teams appeared to struggle with coming out a bit lacklustre following the half time break, they should both be looking to bring the same intensity showed in the first half of their last matches and improve by continuing this throughout the game. Adelaide Uni have the most to gain out of a victory here which could possible place them within the top three and I believe this will get them over the top in what should be a tightly contested game.

Adelaide University by 14 points.

North Haven v PHOS Camden

Both bottom of the table teams will be looking to take their first wins of the season. North have a very lengthy injury list which will result in them being short-handed going into this matchup. This matchup is the perfect opportunity for North to try and steal a win to leave them in a better position for finals when they are at full health near round 5 or 6. PHOS should also be looking to take advantage of a weakened North side and get their season on track with a win. Expect another North loss due to the other team simply being available.

PHOS by 24 points.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Golden Grove v Henley

Golden Grove are coming into this game on the back of a dominant win against a weaker PHOS team and should look to continue their momentum in their round 3 matchup. Henley however will be looking to get their first win of the season after a disappointing performance in round 2. With Henley also falling short during round 1 a win during round 3 is crucial in order to get their season on track. Expect Golden Grove to come out strong and ride their confidence from round's win against a underperforming Henley squad.

Golden Grove by 34 points.

Payneham v Rostrevor

Both teams will be looking to come into this match hot off their wins during round 2. Payneham are coming off a dominant win against a weaker Henley side which could result in them coming a bit slow out the gates expecting another easy victory. Rostrevor however are coming off a more contested win against Edwardstown and should look to take advantage of what could potentially be a complacent Payneham squad. Expect a tightly fought four quarters between the two teams and whoever brings the intensity early to finish on top.

Payneham by 12 points.

Salisbury North v Athelstone

With both teams yet to take a loss for the season it will be a battle to see who remains undefeated following their matchup. Despite Salisbury coming off a tight win against Adelaide University that matchup could have ended a very different way with some better goal kicking from Adelaide Uni. Athelstone likewise despite the thrashing over North Haven kicked fairly poorly and should look to improve on this against what appears to be a weaker Salisbury defence. Expect a tight contest with Athelstone's goal kicking accuracy potentially being the deciding factor.

Athelstone by 14 points.

The round ahead Round 3

GAZA v Hope Valley at Klemzig

The Demons are going well and look to strong for the Eagles. The Eagles have a lot to play for being the Past Players Day. But with Hope Valley coming off a strong win against Seaton and the Eagles going down to the Dragons its looks like a win to the Valley of Hope.

Hope Valley by twenty points.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Scotch OC at Kingswood

The Jets seem to be playing themselves into some form after losing their first-round game to the highly fancied Hope Valley Demons. Scotch is up against a formidable team and may find it difficult at the Jets Home ground. In a close tussle the Jets should get up.

To Win Unley Mercedes Jets by thirty-six points

Pembroke v Westminster at Haslam Oval

This should be a great game of footy with The Dragons coming off a big win against Gaza and the Kings going down to a strong Modbury If Forster and Levicki can get going it might be a hard challenge for the Demons. Kings in a good game of footy

To Win Pembroke by thirty-four points.

Seaton Ramblers v SMOSH West Lakes at Seaton

Seaton are coming off a loss to a highly fancied Hope Valley whilst SMOSH went down to a strong Unley Jets outfit. SMOSH will be keen to get a win but playing at Seaton may be a big task for the visitors.

To Win Seaton by ten points

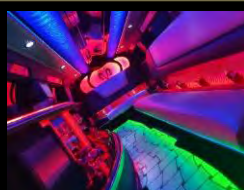

Flinders Park v Modbury at Flinders Park

In a top of the table clash the Hawks will be keen to win away. Flinders Park is coming off a big win against Scotch and would be feeling good. The Hawks are looking extremely good and should get the biscuits.

To Win Modbury by twenty six points

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Division 4 Round 2 review.

Morphettville Park v Walkerville

This game promised to be a battle of the big men. Alex Barns for Morphettville Park and Adam Proud for Walkerville will give opposition trouble with their size and mobility throughout the season. Their battle proved pivotal to the result of this closely fought encounter. Both teams also had influential forwards. Adam Proud returned to the Walkerville team after missing round one and proved to be a formattable spearhead kicking 5 goals and David Hankin continued his good early season form for his new club. His brother Nick gave much midfield drive to Morphy Parks throughout the contest. Strong defender Alex Jarnevic received best player honours for Walkies. This result means that Morphies are right amongst the early pace setters and Walkies have some ground to make up if they are to keep pace with the top five.

Lockleys v Hectorville

After both recording wins in their opening game since coming up to Division 4 Lockleys and Hectorville were looking to make it two from two to provide them with a good spring board into the season. No doubt Lockleys two forwards with AFL experience Ben Haren and Matthew McDonough will provide opposition coaches with sleepless Friday nights. Haren proved to be a key player in this game by both leading up to give Lockleys a target as well as kicking four goals for the game. That being said Lockleys, will be pleased with their ability to share the goals around having 10 different goal scorers for the game. Hectorville were well served by their two captains in the midfield Daniel Fairbrother and Seth Powell. If Lockleys had of kicked straight the margin may have been even greater.

Kenilworth v Pooraka

Both teams had their fair share of opportunities in this game. Pooraka started the quarters well and Kenilworth would wrestle back control as each quarter progressed. Both teams had plenty of scoring shots but undoubtedly Kenilworth will rue a goal kicking accuracy percentage of 36%. That being said, Pooraka were not particularly accurate either. Shane Caputo proved to be the go to for Kenilworth with five goals while Ronald Rankine was dangerous (as usual) with four gals of his own. Sean Hee and Liam Paulson were best for Pooraka while Mitchell Williams and Shane Caputo were given the awards for Kenilworth. Pooraka are still a work in progress but with two wins from two games look to be one of the pace setting in Division 4 this year.

Plympton v Mitcham

The addition of former Woodville West Torrens big man Peter Hoban will most certainly provided Plympton's forward line with an extra dimension. Coupling his presence with that of Lachie Stoddard and formidable half forward Tim Dunkley, Plympton will have many options to goal. That being said Mitcham, jumped the dogs on their home ground to lead by three goals at quarter time. By half time Plympton had wrestled back control and by three quarter time there was only one point between the teams. The good structure of Plympton proved to be a pivotal factor in the last quarter and their evenness all over the ground will no doubt be a factor for the remainder of the year. Plympton held Mitcham goal less in the last quarter while piling on five goals of their own to run out comfortable winners in the end. Brett Connor was awarded best player honours for Plympton while Olly Pride continued his good early season form for Mitcham.

Portland v CBCOC

If the results of the first two rounds are any indication it could be a long year for the Thunder. They were unable to score in the first quarter of their game against the old Collegians from Christian Brothers. It was the usual suspects in the best players for Portland with newly appointed captain Nathan Wait being awarded best afield while his brother Jayden and Dale Laslett were once again amongst the awards. The two Raymond boys, captain Matt and Sam were the best performers for CBCOC. Key forward Brett Simpson proved a difficult match up for the undersized Portland defence kicking six in a dominant display. This result leaves CBCOC atop the ladder after two rounds while Portland are in tenth and looking to improve next week.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Round 2

Colonel light gardens VS Elizabeth / 22.18 - 150 vs 8.6 - 54

Travelling out to Mortlock Park and coming up against an extremely confident CLG was always going to be tough going for the eagles, which means the result is exactly like many expected. An 8 goal to 2 first term set the tone for the day and unfortunately for the eagles it was too big of a task to claw their way back in! Although improving on their score last week, there wasn't much else going for the travelling team. Their best quarter for the day (same as last week) come in the last of the game where they managed to kick 3 majors and give their crowd a little to cheer about. Colonel Light stayed consistent throughout the day and broke the 100 point mark for the second week in a row! Their fire power up forward is going to cause some headaches for opposition teams throughout the season. This week it was Isaac Glasgow stepping up and kicking 6 goals earning himself best on ground honours. He had a partner in crime in their skipper Nicholas Patterson who kicked 4 goals himself and proved to be too strong in the air for Elizabeth. Jaylen Dunk was best on ground for the eagles, Jayden Alderson also stood up but they are going to need a bit more help going forward if they plan on registering their first win any time soon.

Trinity OS vs Kilburn / 11.9 - 75 vs 12.12 - 84

This game was an absolute belter! Seen the chics travelling up to trinity college and giving the tossers their first real test in well over a full season of football. For kilburn, they were looking to add another win to the board and bring them back down to reality. Trinity were well and truly up for the challenge as they went into the first change leading the chics by 5 points! Second quarter kilburn started working well together and managed to take the lead back heading into the main break! 3rd quarter was an arm wrestle yet again, trinity were finishing well in front of goals and straight kicking seen them take the lead back again, heading into the last quarter a point up and setting this game up for one hell of a finish! Kicking 4 goals in the last wasn't enough for the tossers as kilburns big guns stood up and secured their second win of the year, kicking 6 goals in the last and running the game out 9 point winners! Trinity should take huge confidence from this game knowing they can match it with top tier teams in the division, kilburn taking a sigh of relief after being down at 3 quarter time for the second week in a row. They will reset this week hoping to keep their winning streak going. Cam matters was best on ground for the home team, expect to see his name plenty more throughout the year. Dom barilla once again proved to be a handful up forward and slotted another 3 to give trinity every chance of winning! For kilburn it's no surprise that their big name players stood up when it mattered, star ruckman Nick Pearce giving his boys first use all day was among their best. Scotty Galbraith was on the end of a lot of them taps, caused havoc through the middle and kicked 2 goals himself. What a game!

Woodville South vs West Croydon / 10.17 - 77 vs 6.7 - 43

This was one of the tougher games of the round to pick, both coming off the back of a round 1 loss and not knowing much about woody south I thought this game could go either way. West Croydon being the travelling team would have rocked up confident, but the Woodville south faithful were out in full force in support of their men trying to secure that first win of the season. Not registering a goal in the first quarter really hurt the hawks as they trailed by almost 4 goals heading into the second! They fought their way back into the contest and instead it was the cats who were kept goal less in the second term and had the margin under 2 goals heading into the main break. West Croydon out scoring woody south in the 3rd term, bringing the margin back to under a kick and setting up the last quarter for a serious finish! Unfortunately the fairy tale for the hawks was put to rest as they seemed to run out of legs and let the cats run all over them in the last quarter, booting 5 goals to the hawks 1 and sealing their first win in division 5. It wasn't easy going but woody south will be happy to get away with that one taking some big positives into round 3 but probably should have won by more and their goal kicking will be a big focus this week. The hawks will be disappointed they let that game slip and their fitness was exposed on the weekend being ran over in the last, big week on the track coming up! After not playing last season, the cats would have been stoked with the return of Kyle Hanel as he stood out on Saturday and won himself best on ground honours for the first time this year. Jack O'Neil also stood up and played a huge part in getting the boys over the line. For the hawks, big man Kurtis Phillips dominated in the ruck all day and gave his team the best chance of winning the game. Jacob Sumner was another who left it all out there and will be chomping at the bit to get back out there next Saturday hoping for his teams first win of the season.

Blackfriars OS vs Gepps Cross / 10.13 - 73 vs 11.16 - 82

Nobody would have tipped this game to be as close as it was, been plenty of talk about Gepps Cross and how well they've recruited in the off season to be one of the favourites for the flag. Blackfriars after narrowly missing relegation last season obviously wanted to build on that and after winning round 1 then putting on a performance like they did on Saturday, not only are they building but they have become a danger team in this division. Jumping out the blocks in the 1st quarter, the home team led gepps by 15 points, some poor kicking by the rams in front of goal left the door wide open. A 6 goal second quarter had Gepps cross regain the lead but poor kicking still had this game right in the balance. The 3rd qtr was neck and neck, 3 goals a piece and Blackfriars gaining some confidence they are every chance to win this game on their home deck against one of the flag fancies. Falling just short at the final hurdle, going down by 9 points the hounds were extremely disappointed. Once again, poor kicking in front of goals cost them the game as they registered 1 goal and 7 behinds in the last quarter, keeping gepps cross to just 1.1! Disappointing finish to an absolute cracker game, Blackfriars have every reason to hold their heads high but some work to be done on the track to see they can finish games on a stronger note and kick the goals when they matter. Gepps would be feeling relieved after that game but starting the season 2-0 have put themselves in the box seat yet again. For the home team, another big man in Matthew Brincat standing up when it mattered most almost pulling his team across the line, he had some help up front from Henry Baker who booted 3 goals for the hounds. The reigning Div 5 medalist Daniel Mason was awarded best on ground for Gepps, he's started the season in unreal form! Their second former AFL player in Robbie Young stood up this week showing his class across the ground and playing a huge part in taking home the points!

Eastern Park vs Pulteney / 20.19 - 139 vs 12.11 - 83

I was lucky enough to head out to Dwight Reserve and watch this game live on the weekend. Always a tough travel heading out there taking on the demons on a smell deck but for the first half of it, Pulteney were more than up to the challenge! Both teams losing their first game, there was plenty on the line and both coaches were quick to address that pre game. Eastern park started very slow and pulteney were using the ball well through the middle of the ground giving their forwards awesome delivery and every opportunity to hit the score board. Heading into the first change 11 points up, pulteney were gaining confidence and the demons needed to do something to change the momentum! It was like a different team come out in the second quarter, the demons started hitting the contest hard and winning some good contested footy to start swinging things in their direction. Their star players started gaining some momentum and heading into the main break 4 points up they could sense it was theirs for the taking!

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Exactly like I predicted last week, eastern parks top end talent started to flex their muscle after half time and it was too much for pulteney. The demons pressure on the ball carrier and tackling in the second half was intense, the bigger bodies on a small ground proving too much and pulteney just never looked in the game again. After kicking 5.2 in the first quarter, they only managed another 7 goals for the game and once again bad kicking in front of goal let it get away from them! In saying that, Eastern Park kicked 19 behinds themselves but luckily their midfield gave them plenty of opportunity and ended up with almost 40 scoring shots. Ian Williamson was clearly the best player on the ground and would have collected the 3 votes from the umpires, kicking 6 goals while spending majority of his time in the middle of the ground! Rob Kovacic played deep and could have snagged himself a huge bag but inaccurate kicking in front of goal seen him finish the day with 6 goals and 5 behinds, missing some real easy shots on goal so no doubt he will be working on that this week! For Pulteney, Josh Giddings and Nick Worrall were the clear stand outs across 4 quarters where a few of their team mates seemed to disappear after half time! Good win for the demons and Pulteney with another tough game this week, will want to turn that around to get their first win!

Round 2 predictions

Pulteney vs Trinity OS

Pulteney still winless after coming down a division last year, come up against a trinity outfit that managed to win an undefeated flag last season, earn themselves promotion and currently sit 1-1 after taking it right up to one of the flag favourites for this division on the weekend! Trinity should be full of confidence heading out to park 20 this saturday, and the pulteney boys should be doing everything in their power to turn their current form around. After watching them play on the weekend, I can't see the game plan pulteney have in place stacking up against a young, fit, running side in trinity! It's a long way back being 0-3 with some tough games to come so they would be hoping it all comes together this week. Expect trinity to be 2-1 after this round and right in the mix to play finals in division 5

Trinity 30 points

Colonel Light Gardens vs West Croydon

This is another game that I can only see going one way. Colonel light have flown under the radar to date but after 2 strong performances I think everyone is starting to realise they can be serious contenders if they keep this up! West Croydon are yet to register their first win of the year but have had a tough draw to start after coming up a division last season, still missing some of their key players hasn't helped but they've had opportunities to win both of their first 2 games and it's been their fitness + accuracy in front of goal that's let them down. Back to back away games for the hawks won't help the cause, especially considering CLG are playing their second game in a row at home! Expect Colonel light to get the job done and be sitting pretty at the top end of the table after 3 wins

CLG 40 points

Elizabeth vs Blackfriars OS

The eagles will be looking forward to getting back on their home deck after a poor performance last week, but it's not going to be an easy task coming up against Blackfriars who have put together 2 seriously good performances. Both these teams were at opposite ends of the scale last season - The hounds only just avoiding relegation, the eagles narrowly missing finals. The tides have well and truly turned though! Blackfriars will be heading into this game confident and ready to make a statement. I can see 2 or 3 of their forwards getting a hold of the eagles to produce another blow out and putting themselves in a strong position at 2-1. Knowing alot of the Elizabeth boys personally, I know they aren't enjoying the position they are in and will want to change that quickly! Unfortunately for them, I don't think they have the cattle at the moment after losing majority of their A grade from last season, it looks like a long year ahead.

BOS 60+

Gepps Cross vs Eastern Park

Travelling out to Duncan Fraser reserve has always been one of the tougher trips in football, the gepps cross boys play their ground as well as anyone in the competition! Currently sitting 2-0 makes it an even tougher trip for the demons. If I know these boys though, this is the game that would have been circled in their calendars from the get go and they will be doing everything in their power to get up and about ready for a battle this Saturday. After registering their first win on the weekend and playing the tough inside football they are known for, they know they are going to have to double that effort and intensity this weekend if they are any chance of knocking gepps off. I don't see gepps being worried about this game at all, they have class all around the ground and their game plan is second to none in this division! I think the game will start at a high intensity and be back and forth throughout the first half, after that I can see the class shining through for gepps and they will run away with the game, making another big statement.

Gepps Cross 40+

Kilburn vs Woodville South

This week will see Woodville south travelling out to Blair Athol Reserve to face the undefeated kilburn. After winning their first game on the weekend, the cats will be up and about. Even though the chics are sitting 2-0, they've looked vulnerable at times and been in losing positions at some stage in both of the first 2 rounds! Luckily their team has stars across every line and have stood up when it's been needed most to secure the 2 wins. Woody south need a big week on the track and to improve on their accuracy in front of goal if they are any chance this weekend. Kilburn, after a massive recruiting spree in the pre season are still finding their best mix within the team! This is the week it all clicks in my eyes, I can't see them losing at home against the cats and they will hope to post their first massive win for the year, putting themselves in a strong position at the top end of the table.

Greenacres Vs Central United

A tough contest out at EJ Smith Oval this week, as two top sides go into battle in what was set to be a massive game. As expected it got off to a tight start, both sides not giving an inch and putting up a fierce battle, at the end of the first term it was all level at 16 a piece. The second quarter was much the same, both sides giving a brutal effort, Greenacres were able to get a slight edge on The Units and by halftime, had a narrow 5 point lead. The second half Central United stepped it up a level, getting a large amount of the ball in the third quarter, but inaccuracy cost them, booting 2.6 for the quarter and once again tying up the game at three quarter time. They headed out for the final term to give it one last hit, both sides giving it a solid effort, but they're inaccurate kicking ended up costing Central United, not kicking a goal in the last quarter and going down by 16 points. Ricky Smith was the best for Greenacres, Ethan Robinson also good in a gutsy win for The Dragons while up forward Matt Gibson, Jack Mau and Blake Rogan all kicked 2 each. Greenacres head to Smithfield next game, another chance to get a good win on the road while Central United are back at Mofflin Reserve to take on Fitzroy.

Adelaide Lutheran Vs Rosewater

Adelaide Lutheran took to their home deck in round 2 and hosted Rosewater, hoping to back up a good performance last week. Rosewater coming off a hard loss to Salisbury at home in the season opener started from the first bounce looking lively, giving Lutheran a tough fight in the opening quarter, Rosewater only trailing by a goal at the end of the 1st quarter. Lutheran chose to take it up a step in the next quarter and kicked 5 goals to Rosewater's 1, to give themselves some more breathing room at halftime. It was a tight and tough contest after the main break, Adelaide Lutheran only managed to kick 2 more goals as Rosewater defended well and kicked another goal of their own. Rosewater were able to add one more goal in the last quarter, while Adelaide Lutheran kicked another 5 goals to seal the game and come home with a good 63 point win. Ashley Goodall had an outstanding performance for Adelaide Lutheran, earning himself best afield while also kicking 4 goals, Alex Lillecrapp also performed well, Jericho John kicked 5 goals in his sides win. Tregan Gates kicked 2 in what was a tough day for Rosewater, Luke Wells and Patrick Hure were amongst the best for Rosewater also. Adelaide Lutheran have set themselves up perfectly in the opening 2 rounds of this season, taking home a couple easy wins and getting some good percentage on the ladder. They take on St Pauls next week in what will be their biggest challenge yet. For Rosewater it will only seem to get harder, they're back at home next week but taking on arguably one of the flag contenders in Marion.

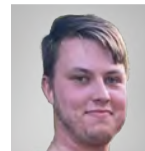

Marion Vs Smithfield

A tough day out for Smithfield, taking on Marion down at their home ground. Although it may not reflect it on the scoreboard, Smithfield brought the heat all game, and fought hard, showing some excellent plays all day against a hostile Marion outfit. Always a tough matchup when facing Marion at home, and this was no exception, The Rams dominating from the opening bounce and kicking 9 goals in the first quarter. They didn't show signs of slowing down, Smithfield fought back and kicked 3 goals straight in the second quarter, but Marion were able to add on another 8 goals and take a strong lead into the main break. The Panthers held down their defense much tighter to start the second half, keeping Marion to just 5 goals in the 3rd quarter. Marion stepped back up in the last quarter and booted another 8 goals to secure a dominant win at home. Seb Fairlie and Bailey Stanborough were the best afield in the win for Marion, Patrick O'Dea was good in front of goal kicking 6. Despite the loss there were many good signs for Smithfield, all players putting their head and heart on the line in what they knew would be a hard match. Kevin McGrath, Jamie Hibbett and Adam Varcoe were all able to kick a goal each for Smithfield, Varcoe also amongst the best players. Swedenson and Saivanson Hanuman were the best Smithfield, Issac Keightley and Caleb Hagenbucher were also good. Marion heads on the road to take on Rosewater next week in what should be another good win for them this season. Smithfield are back at home for the next 2 weeks, but their hard start to the season doesn't end, taking on reigning Division 7 Premiers in Greenacres.

Fitzroy Vs Brahma Lodge

Fitzroy were out to make a statement this week, back at home after a good win on the road against St Pauls last week, they looked ready and firing from the first bounce against Brahma Lodge this week. Brahma Lodge were able to show a bit of fight in the opening quarter, booting only trailing by 3 goals at the first break. But The Lions were ready to put the foot down, and piled on another 6 goals in the second quarter, keeping Brahma Lodge to only 1 point for the quarter and giving themselves a commanding lead going into halftime. All systems firing for Fitzroy in the second half, showing no remorse for The Tigers and kicking 7 goals, keeping Brahma Lodge to just 1.2 in the 3rd quarter. Brahma Lodge looked defeated, they weren't able to counter attack on Fitzroy in the last quarter, once again going goalless and going down to Fitzroy by a massive 136 points. The standout for Fitzroy was James Ellis, booting a massive 8 goals in what was a stellar performance around the ground, Aron Asfaha and Jason Beveridge were also good for Fitzroy booting 2 goals each. Despite the loss, good signs showed for Brahma Lodge, Mitchell Nivison booting 2 goals, while Brandon Planegger and Adam Shelly and Jack Cooke played good games also. Fitzroy face their biggest challenge yet this season next week, taking on Central United up at Mofflin Reserve, hoping to get another good win on the board and prove their here to play this season. Brahma Lodge also have a tough game next week, back at home back taking on Salisbury, in what could be a good test to get back on the winner's table against a quality side.

Salisbury Vs St Pauls

Salisbury hosted their first game at home for the season, in what turned out to be a good hard fought win for The Magpies. A tight first quarter showed both sides playing good footy, Salisbury were able to get a slight jump on St Pauls, taking a 2 goal lead into the first break. St Paul's fired straight back in the second quarter, booting 3 goals and keeping Salisbury to just 1 goal, going into half time it was all tied up and set for a massive second half. Salisbury put their foot on the pedal, coming out of the main break, they kicked another 5 goals and defended well to keep St Paul's to just 1 goal and getting themselves some breathing space before going into the last quarter. The Magpies put everything they had on the table in the final term, kicking another 3 goals and keeping St Paul's goalless in what was a gutsy win. Luke Puddy added another 4 goals after a good performance last week. The Magpies were led by young guns Brodie Brooks, Harry Wheeler and Jai De Bais who showed courage in a good win. Good signs for St Paul's they fought hard but went down to a better side on the day, Anthony Alesiani and William Keynes were the best afield for St Paul's, Ben Lennon booted 3 goals. St Paul's have a good test next week against Adelaide Lutheran at home, in what could be one of the matches of the round. Salisbury take on Brahma Lodge on the road and will hope to get a strong win to boost their confidence.

St Paul's Vs Adelaide Lutheran

St Paul's back at home this week will be super eager to get their first win of the season. After a tough loss to Fitzroy in round one and then going down to Salisbury on the road this week, they have had the chance to take on some inform sides and showed great signs against both opponents. They take on Adelaide Lutheran who are on a roll so far against 2 up and coming sides in Rosewater and Smithfield, this would be their biggest test of the season and help boost their confidence against the top sides later in the year. Both sides have a lot to offer, both have great squads and could have the chance to dominate if they get the game on their terms. Although Adelaide Lutheran have been playing a good brand of footy, I think St Paul's will be too strong and hungry for a win against a quality side, add the fact that they're at home and I think they'll have the legs to get over the line. Tip: St Paul's by 12-24

Smithfield Vs Greenacres

Smithfield have had a tough run to start the season after coming back into the league, going up against last year's grand finalists in round 1 and now the premiers in round 3. A tough ask for Smithfield this week, Greenacres have shown in the first 2 rounds they can match the best in Division 6, beating 2 top sides in the opening rounds and will be full of confidence heading into this matchup. Smithfield will no doubt put up a tough fight and put their heart on the line as they always do, they're tough to go up against especially with their home crowd. But Greenacres are on fire and so far putting up an excellent season. Smithfield's first 2 games were tough losses but never gave up and fought hard till the end of each match, this game will be no exception and regardless of the result will be a stepping stone for them. Greenacres are too strong at the moment, and despite Smithfield's determination will dominate in a tough contest. Tip: Greenacres by 50-60

Central United Vs Fitzroy

One of the best matchups of the round takes place at Mofflin Reserve this week, with both sides having had a good start to the season. Central United will be wanting to get back for their loss last week against a strong Greenacres side, after a good win against Brahma Lodge in Round 1, they've proved they have a quality side. Fitzroy also took on Brahma Lodge last week, with a similar result as The Units when they faced them in round 1, making this a good contest that could go either way. Both sides have shown up with strong performances but this will be a test both sides know will be a massive boost this year. As good as both sides are, Central United are very strong at the home deck, and can put on a blistering performance with the help of their supporters which I think will get them over the line this week. Tip: Central United by 1-12

Brahma Lodge Vs Salisbury

Brahma Lodge have dropped some form to start of this season, although going up against strong sides in Fitzroy and Central United they have shown signs of good performances against these good sides. Salisbury have shown good form this season, with plenty of young talent in their senior side they have a good squad and will look to get a confidence booster on the road against Brahma Lodge. Brahma Lodge never back down from a tough contest and no doubt will not give an inch, they love playing at home and give their all regardless of the side they come up against. Salisbury will be tough for The Lions this week and will get over the line but not by a big margin, expecting a tough contest all match. Tip: Salisbury by 24-35

Rosewater Vs Marion

Not a great start to the season for Rosewater, going down in the first couple matches. They take on a solid Marion side that are coming off a big win against Smithfield and will be eager to back it up again this week on the road. Rosewater has a lot of talent across their grades, they always play well at home and show plenty of skill and effort in each matchup, giving Marion something to worry about. On the other hand Marion have come off a big first win for the season and will not want to slow down after going down to Greenacres in round 1, they'll be taking all their games by the horns in an effort to make their mark as a top team in the division. Rosewater will be out to play and go into this matchup with nothing to lose, throwing their all at a tough Marion side. But I don't think it will be enough, and expect Marion to dominate in a morale booster for The Rams. Tip: Marion by 75+

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

DIV 7 ROUND 2 REVIEWS

HOUGHTON V PARA HILLS

A dominate second half display saw Para Hills leave "The Pleasure Dome" with another 2 points in the bank and a high interest rate return on their new found confidence. Travelling to arguably the hardest away ground in the Division, the Big Reds were able to break free from Houghton's strong hold, kicking 10 goals to 5 in the second half.

For Houghton, usual suspects Kodi Sparks (3) and Kye Vandermoer (3) were dangerous around goals, whilst Jayden Woodcock was the standout around the ground.

Young Guns Connor Reid and Cooper Underwood (1) continued their great start to the season supported by Braden Hart (2) and Mohammed Keita. Undeniably it was Jason Hay (2), best on ground who led from the front in what was a deserved win for the Big Reds.

HACKHAM V MAWSON LAKES

Coming off a disappointing Round 1 defeat, Hackham soared as a proud eagle does, bouncing back with a 72 point win over Mawson Lakes. Mawson lakes, who were definitely in it at quarter time could have taken a lead into the first break had they been more accurate. A six goal to none second quarter put the game out of reach as the Hawks got their season on track with a first up home win.

Anthony Jenkinson (1) and Cliff Morris were great and Justin Hastings (3) kept up his end of the bargain but unfortunately support was limited.

Best afield Dylan Skuse along Luke Allan (3) and Jeremy Cross (2) worked tirelessly all day and were rewarded with a win for their efforts. Glenn Draper (5) and Bailey Howe (3) also happy to wet their beaks up forward.

OSB LONSDALE V INGLE FARM

After a tight contest the week prior, Ingle Farm were not in the mood for another one as they handed O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale a 105 point home defeat. The Bulldogs led at every change and finished the game off in emphatic fashion with a 7 goal to 1 last quarter.

Jye Leake, Trent Grosser held their own for a disappointed OSBL, Trevor Rigney (2) the best of the Lions in front of the big sticks.

For Ingle Farm sharp shooter Terrel Rigney (6) had the ball on a string and no doubt 3 votes. Daniel Coscia, Cody Catchpole and Daniel Tanczos all did the hard yards and reaped the rewards! Not to be outdone Maurie Sandery (6) matched Rigney for 6 goal haul of his own.

MITCHELL PARK V FLINDERS UNIVERSITY

Flinders Park showed early that they are an offensive force to be reckoned with, kicking 20+ goals for the second week in a row as they made light work of Mitchell Park. With 14 goals themselves Mitchell Park had no trouble finding the big sticks, they just over powered by the Flinders Park juggernaut.

Adam Haime (6) was the focal point for Mitchell Park picking himself up a six pack. Travis Doyle the stand out for the losing side along with Matthew Tassell who has kept his form going from the week prior.

Anthony May (1) was exceptional around the ground for Flinders whilst '5-goal-phobics' Nick Rantanen (4), Bayley Pink (4), John Mason (4) and Shaun Brown (4) all put on a clinic around the goals in an awesome (foursome?) display.

DIV 7 ROUND 3 REVIEWS

PARA HILLS V O'SULLIVAN BEACH LONSDALE

OSB Lonsdale travel north to face a Para Hills side in form and ready to keep momentum going. OSB Lonsdale should not be taken lightly especially after coming off such a demoralizing loss, but this Para Hills team is confident, not cocky and will respect their opponent. I find it hard to see how the Lions can handle a Roos forward line that is firing on all cylinders at the present. While Daniel Weetra is an obvious target up forward, Coach Craig Forby has an arsenal of midfielders in Travis, Underwood, Van Ristell and inspirational skipper Lynton Power who all know how to find a goal when required. Bailey Spackman v Trevor Rigney could be one to watch, the jet back flanker up against the dangerous forward. – Para Hills by 36 points.

FLINDERS UNIVERSITY V HACKHAM

In the Southern Suburbs Showdown, Flinders Uni will be keen to mark their territory and keep their high power scoring machine up and running. That said Hackham found their mojo up forward last week with 18 goals of their own, so we know they are more than capable of bringing the heat. Hackham Captain Jeremy Cross and Star Player Luke Allan will need to bring their 'A' game (which is pretty much a given) but will also need an all-round team effort to get past Flinders' potent forward line. With the weather forecast looking wet, wet, wet, I still feel it in my fingers and toes that Todd Andrews men, whilst they wont kick 20 goals, will kick enough to get them over the line against their local rival – Flinders University by 21 points.

MAWSON LAKES V HOUGHTON

Interesting game this one at the Lakes. If it's played at Houghton this week you put your house on the Raiders. Mawson Lakes current form suggests you make that same bet regardless, but a week is a long time in footy and it is only Round 3 so I may a fool to right Mawson Lakes off so quick. Being so early in the season teams are still trying to figure out their best 21. Cliff Morris and Justin Hastings are obviously in the Lakes best 21 and will go a long way to helping get their side over the line. I'm just not convinced their form at the moment can handle the likes of the Vandermoers, Woodcock and Sparks. Houghton are the stronger side on paper but this isn't Fantasy Football, that said I just can't see Mawson Lakes getting the W. But I wish them well. Houghton by 50 points.

INGLE FARM V MITCHELL PARK

Ingle Farm host a Mitchell Park side who were very unlucky to lose a game last week in which they had 25 scoring shots kicking 14. In this competition 90+ points will see you to victory more times than not. Terrel Rigney will be the one to watch! Coming off a 6 goal haul last week he'll no doubt be hungry for more of the same at the Kennel as will Maurie Sandery who also took a bag of 6 home with him last week. Jie Martin (Ingle Farm) and Patrick Kluth (Mitchell Park) are both due for a big one for their respective clubs. Upset of the round, Mitchell Park by 4 points.
