DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Glenunga vs St. Peter's OC:

The Webb Oval played host to another day at the office for Glenunga, as they comfortably ran over St. Peter's OC to further cement their position at the top of the table, unfortunately perpetuating St. Peter's pain as they sit second to bottom with a winless record so far. Last week, I perhaps jumped the gun again and tipped Glenunga to take the first 100+ point win of the season. At quarter time, an astonishing 50 - 3 lead saw this as a real possibility, and Glenunga's vice skipper Michael McMahon tried to make it a reality, booting 6 on the day. However, a more spirited second half from the St. Peter's defense compiled a relatively positive finish to the game. The finals scoreboard read 124 - 49 as Glenunga continued their terrific start to the 2023 football season.

Brighton Bombers vs Broadview:

Broadview again earned the title of ferociously competitive as their defensive pressure, as well as some wayward Brighton Bombers kicking saw the home side fall 56 points short of the visitors. A first quarter onslaught set the tempo for the day as the Bombers had a goalless quarter compared to a 6 goal term for Broadview. Another 6 goal haul for round as Kobi Russell kicked truly all day long, converting 6 shots for 6 goals with 0 behinds. For the bombers, some set shot practice may be on the menu, as they make the trek next week to come up against a red hot Port Districts. The winner of that matchup will earn an important 3 - 2 record at this point in the season.

Tea Tree Gully vs Goodwood Saints:

Tea Tree Gully officially shake their home deck - hoodoo to deliver a convincing 40 point massacre of the briefly competitive saints. Goodwood started the game impressively, boasting a 19 - 28 lead at the first change, a goalless second term unfortunately not really seeing them get back in the game. Jade Cleeland was the target up forward, having 8 shots on goal for the day. Unfortunately, a 4 goals 4 conversion rate for the day saw his ledger remain a little bit red. For the straight shooting hosts, a match tally of 15 goals 9 proved enough as their forward shared the proverbial chocolates more evenly.

Old Ignatians vs Sacred Heart OC:

Sacred Heart OC have earned 2nd place on the season ladder as they deliver a monumental 98 point victory over the Old Ignatians. For the Ignatians, it wasn't actually all doom and gloom. Indeed, at quarter time they possessed an exciting 5 point lead, unfortunately they would proceed to kick only 1 goal for the rest of the day. This is all while Sacred Heart has an incredible 12 unique goal scorers, as after a quarter time spray, everything clicked into gear, kicking 119 points in the remaining 3 quarters, bringing their match total to 134, simultaneously suppressing the Old Ignatians to 36.

Prince Alfred OC vs Port Districts:

Port Districts have pulled off a tremendous win, as they sink Prince Alfred on their home deck and give the hosts their first home loss of the season. From the get - go Port Districts look right on top, the reigning premiers attack on the ball harder than anyone i've seen this year. Some wins are worth more than the 2 points they earn you, this is definitely the case for Port, as the inevitable inspiration they take from this win will be difficult to surmount for whomever their opponents are next week. For Prince Alfred, a disappointing loss at home will prove a vital reality check for their season, they will be keen to put it behind them and look to next week as they again have a tough challenge against Sacred Heart OC.

Previews

Broadview vs Tea Tree Gully:

An ominous clash for both sides, a win for Broadview will see them tie Tea Tree Gully on win record. Meanwhile Tea Tree Gully can cement a divide in the premiership ladder, keeping themselves in the upper epsilon of teams. The plan is simple for Broadview, pressure pressure pressure! Keeping teams from scoring is well within their wheelhouse, if they can deter the high scoring Tea Tree Gully they will get the win. However, I'm backing the visitors by 22.

Port Districts vs Brighton Bombers:

Port districts are fresh off probably the most impressive win of any team we've seen this season, where Brighton are coming off one of their most disappointing. This tip should be clear cut, but the nature of this season so far indicates that this match sits firmly in the balance. It's hard to look past Port Districts at the moment, a win here would be instrumental in re - awakening this finals contender. Port Districts by 30.

Sacred Heart OC vs Prince Alfred OC:

The only easy thing to tip about this game, is that it is far and beyond the game of the round. This affair will be close, competitive and classy. As each team sits 3 - 1, a will serve to show Glenunga who their deserving competition is at this point in the season. A week ago, I would have locked in Prince Alfred without much of a sweat. But if it bleeds, we can kill it, that will be the thought in the Sacred Heart camp. Frankly, i'm incredibly excited for this one, it's going to be Sacred heart in a ripping 12 point affair.

St Peter's OC vs Old Ignatians:

This match is huge, the result of this match will be beyond important for the sake of each respective team. Both of these sides are fighting for their first win, a loss this weekend would be devastating for either. Where a win could finally get some wind in the sails of the victor. It will be a tale of two halves, Old Ignatians strong in the first, with St. Peter's to come home in the second. Both teams need some table points on the board, the optimist in me says both teams will have them after this match. As I reckon we're set for the first Draw in the 2023 Division 1 football season.

Goodwood Saints vs Glenunga:

After round 1's close win for the Goodwood Saints, I think my vision has been a little tainted. As I've perhaps overlooked how potentially disappointing they have been. This week serves as a genuine opportunity to see how they stack up against very strong competition. Glenunga will travel to Goodwood on saturday, and for me, they will travel home with the points comfortably. It's going to be Glenunga by 45+

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

North Haven 14.11.95 def by Salisbury North 18.11.119

Salisbury North have come up big away from home to continue their unbeaten run to four games. North Haven, who have come off three brutal defeats, have come the closest this week to a win as they have all season. This was evident through their start to the match, having more of the scoring shots and being the better converters. The Hawks this season haven't been the one of the better teams out of the gates to start a match, they have been known to come from behind to collect their wins. This reoccurred as a six-goal quarter turned into a 19-point lead, a firm grip on the match. North Haven had their fair share of chances to cut the margin but were unsuccessful, a three-goal lead going into the final change. Salisbury North were able to cruise home with this one, despite not being as solid as recent weeks defensively, their first game recording more than triple digits was enough to remain in the top two for the rounds ending. Liam Westdijk and Jamie Solly were best for North Haven, up forward William Curnow, and Matthew Reed both bagged four goals. Matthew Claughton, Isiah Glancey, and Cooper Wilson were some of Salisbury North's best, but Malachai Ah Matt should be collecting the umpire's three votes in this match.

Adelaide University 8.7.55 def by Payneham NU 8.8.56

This week's match of the round did not disappoint, a one-point classic which the league leaders were the victors for the fourth week in a row. Adelaide University have won every first quarter they've played in this season, this fast start theme continued this week as they jumped out to a 26-point lead. Having the Falcons right where they wanted them, they couldn't have asked for a better start. The response was just a little better than the start. One of the divisions best attacking teams was absolutely clamped up to the max, a defensive masterclass from Payneham like no other. Payneham were within a straight kick going into half time with full momentum. Going into the third quarter Adelaide Uni replicated their second quarter scoring of just one point. Payneham, albeit sloppy, found themselves ahead by three points, setting up a fantastic ending. Adelaide Uni had more of the chances in the last, but an astounding performance from Payneham through the last three quarters was just enough to remain atop the division for another week. Ben Adams, Stefan Jankewicz and Matthew Nielsen were best for Adelaide Uni. Jed Spence, Tom Wagner and Rudi Tsouvallas were some of the better players that helped Payneham come out on top.

Athelstone 11.9.75 def by Edwardstown 13.7.85

Athelstone collected back-to-back losses after back-to-back victories with a loss at home to Edwardstown. The Towns came out better than the hosts in the opening quarter, leading by five points at the first break. The Raggies were able to bite back in the second quarter taking the lead and going up by 13 points into the main break. Athelstone through the start of the season have been better after the first quarter offensively. Edwardstown were able to at least alter this as they locked down defensively on Athelstone, only conceding one point and taking advantage of this by taking a four-goal lead at three quarter time. The hosts had a small spark heading into the last quarter, narrowing it to ten points which came up short in the end. Christopher Lodovici, Mitchell Grigg and Mitchell Dickeson were best for Athelstone. Toby Case, Matthew Tuck and Alexander Moore were best for Edwardstown.

PHOS 17.10.112 def Henley 7.11.53

PHOS Camden in the last fortnight have turned their season around by recording consecutive wins to build some form into the top five. They have become one of the better teams offensively and this match continued to show why. They took a solid lead at the first break and led wire-to-wire from there. A 25-point lead turned into a nine-goal lead at half time. With the match being put to bed at three quarter time with an 11-goal lead, cruising home to a 59-point victory. The Sharks once again have been unable to convert on the scoreboard by once again not reaching the 10 goals in a game this season. They now fall to 0-4 and sit second bottom only by percentage ahead of North Haven. PHOS now enter the top five and will have their work cut out for them when they travel to Salisbury North next week. Henry Papatolis, Jock van Kempen and Sam Williams were best for PHOS with Jacob Owens booting four. Tim Broadbent, Tom Pillion, and Noah Hannagan were best for Henley.

Rostrevor 8.9.57 def by Golden Grove 19.13.127

Golden Grove have extended their run to three on the trot after winning comfortably away from home. The Burra's were fast out of the blocks by taking a 14-point lead at quarter time. Rostrevor being behind early again had cost them, however this time around they were not able to close the gap, the result was a 180 from the previous week. Golden Grove extended to 31 points after kicking six-goal-two in the second quarter alone. Much like the second quarter, the third quarter treaded water as the lead was kept at 32 points. In the end it was Golden Grove's ability to finish games strong this season which proved to be the huge separator between the two. Golden Grove had smashed the game open conceding only two points in the last as they went on to collect the two points by 70 points. James Butterworth, James Warton, and Daniel McCallum were best for Rostrevor as Patrick Dawson bagged four goals. Lewis Johnston, Joshua William Glenn, and Nick Preston were best for the visitors.

Previews:

Payneham NU v Athelstone

The undefeated Payneham Norwood Union will host Athelstone as they will look to make it five straight. The Falcons have showed early signs that they will be hunting a top spot to get straight back to playing in the top division. The Raggies looked to be in a similar position but have fallen away in the last fortnight with losses to Salisbury North and Edwardstown. Two players to look out for in this game are Liam Davis and Luca Stepic who are towards the top of the goal kicking tally for the division. With tallies of 16 and 15 goals for the season, both have only recorded four goals each in the last two weeks. At home I do believe Payneham should be the better team and prove just too strong in this one. Payneham by 19 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND Golden Grove v Adelaide University

This week's match of the round presents a fascinating matchup between two early top team, both enter this match in different form. The hosts in this game after losing there first matchup have won there last three consecutive matches with the last match being a 70-point smashing. Adelaide University won two of their first four matches and lost to Payneham by a single point in their most recent match, one in which they led comfortably and found difficulties to score after the first term. The Burra's, unlike Adelaide Uni in the second and third quarters last week, have not had difficulties putting points on the board as they lead the division in scoring. Adelaide University have had much success winning their games on the defensive end as they've been one of the better teams in defence. Once again, I will be picking the home team, but not without hesitation as it should be a close one. Golden Grove by 7 points

Henley V Rostrevor OC

Henley once again find themselves in another crucial match for there season as they host Rostrevor in there first meeting this season. The Sharks find themselves in the relegation zone early in the season, 9th by a small percentage. On the flipside, Rostrevor also need a win to separate themselves from the bottom and try to find some form to climb towards a finals spot. These are two very low scoring team so hopefully this game will be close. If there was a player that could put some points on the board for the match, look for Jett Boxer who's kicked nine goals in his last three games including games against Golden Grove and Payneham. For two struggling but desperate teams it is quite hard to pick a winner, but I will favour an upset in this one and pick Henley to collect a win and get on the board for the season.

Henley by 4 points

Salisbury North v PHOS Camden

Salisbury North will host PHOS Camden as they look to continue their form and record a fifth consecutive victory. Victories against Rostrevor, Adelaide University, Athelstone, and North Haven, they find themselves in a top two position before playing some of the better teams in the division. PHOS Camden are finding their feet in the 2023 season recording consecutive victories, albeit against North Haven and Henley, these were perfect form starters to lead into this tough match. Last season PHOS completed the double over Salisbury North including a one-point victory at Salisbury North. In this match I believe it will be high scoring and that Salisbury North will come away with the narrow victory.
Salisbury North 11 points

Edwardstown v North Haven

Another pivotal matchup from both teams is coming into this weekend. Edwardstown have come off a huge win away from home against Athelstone bringing their season to 2-2, another win can push them towards the five. North Haven sits rock bottom of the division, and the desperation needs to start showing. A loss in this match will have them staring at 0-5 and will have them also staring at relegation albeit many games to play. Down back they have really struggled, conceding triple digits in every game. The Towns are expected to record consecutive wins from this match, and I expect them to do so as well.
Edwardstown by 34 points

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

SMOSH West Lakes v GAZA 9.15 vs 6.6

GAZA made the trip to West Lakes knowing it was going to be a tough ask against SMOSH at Home. It was a slow start from both side in the first quarter and it was not until the 17-minute mark in which SMOSH. kicked the first goal. It was an arm wrestle for th e first quarter, but SMOSH managed to kick another two and the margin was 21points It was fortunate for the Eagles that the home side did not have their kicking boots on with nine shots to two in the first and a 22-point lead at the break. In the second the Eagles were inside fifty in the first minute. The result was a behind. The ball came out and there was an indiscretion in which a yellow card was given, and it was 10 mins off for the Gaza player. Not what the visitors wanted especially being Umpire appreciation round. Gaza then scored the first in the second quarter to cut the margin back to seventeen points. It was like circle work for both sides. Gaza kept peppering the goals, but no one could convert. Gaza kept persisting and finally managed a goal through a goal assist from Ben Beioley and Will James finished off. Steven Tahana then goaled, and Gaza were coming the margin at the long break was six points in favour of the home side. It was a scrappy start in the third but a free to the home side through another Umpire descent decision gave SMOASH another major. Will James got one back for Gaza, but the home side responded again and at the 11 min mark it was back to a 14-point margin. A kick across goal almost cost Gaza a goal but they settled. There was not a lot of score forthcoming, but SMOSH managed to break the deadlock and at the last break it was a 22-point lead to the home side. The last started with goal to Gaza through Blake Thomas then another to Matt Beadle and suddenly, the margin was back to ten points. SMOSH then settled and scored another major. They continued to go forward and score goals late in the last and take control. The home side ran the game out and the final margin was twenty-seven points. Best for SMOSH were Mahney, Dalidowicz, Gates, More and Brown. For Gaza C Jones, R Jones, Tuikaba, Hawke and Squires. Goal kickers for SMOSH Mahney 4, Bennett, N Brown, Vanzati, Hemmings and Dalidowicz one a piece Gaza James 2, Tahana, Ley, Beadle and Thomas1 each.

Pembroke v Flinders Park 15.6 vs 9.12

The Kings were taking on a highly fancied Flinders Park and knew they would have a fight on their hands. The visitors came out strong and it was a 14-point lead to the visitors at the first break. Things evened up in the second and the margin had been reduced to three points. In the third the visitors took control, and the margin was out to twenty-five by the last break. The trend continued in the last with Flinders Park maintaining their dominance running out 40-point winners. Best for Flinders Park were J Schwarz , Moschou, Gericke , Comitogianni and N Schwarz and G Thring , A Wilson , Dinham ,Hopkins and Roberts for Pembroke .Major goalkickers for Flinders Park were Comitogianni 4 ,Teague 3 , T Schwarz , Nixon and Hinter 2 , Coleman , Baker one each and for the Kings were Evans 3,Forster and Wilson 2 , M Thring and Green 1 each .

Seaton Ramblers v Scotch OC 10.15 vs 10.7

Scotch made the trip to Seaton knowing it would be a tough game on Seaton's home deck. The visitors jumped out to a 3-goal break at quarter time. Seaton responded with a five goal to two second quarter and at the long break scores were level. The third was a tight tussle again with Scotch holding a 10-point lead at three quarter time. The last was a tight tussle with the home side coming out and scoring three goals but it just was not enough. Scotch getting over the line by eight points. Best for the visitors were Nehme, Renfrey, Kelly , Doyle and Walter and for the home side Vasey , Kasianowicz , Mead , Bondarenko and Guy. Goals for the Scotch Fuss 3 ,Eagleton 2 and 1 each to Cavanagh , Hutchinson ,Merrigan Freeman and Wong for Seaton It was Studham and Kasianowicz 3 each and Tremaine , Kerruish , Mead and Gatt 1 each

Modbury v Unley Mercedes Jets 10.14 vs 10.7

The Jets were heading North East to take on the highly rated Hawks on their home ground. The Jets jumped out to a 24-point lead which could have a been a lot more if they kicked straight. The Hawks responded as expected and the margin at the long break was four points to the Jets. It was a tight third term and at the break the two sides could not be split with fifty-five points each. The last was again an arm wrestle and the Hawks just could not shut down the Jets and the final margin was seven points in a great game of Footy. The best for the Jets Miller, Duval, Heaslip, Starr and Cheesman for Modbury no best players were provided. Goals for the Jets Heaslip, J Miller, E Miller, and Harris 2 each and one each to Tidswell and Farlie. And Modbury not provided.

Westminster OS v Hope Valley 27.13 vs 13.10

The Hope Valley boys were making the trip to Glandore to take on the Dragons who were looking good early into the season. It was a tight first quarter and the visitors had a 6-point lead at quarter time. Hope Valley had a big second quarter and lead by five goals at the long break. In a big third quarter the Hope Valley boys piled on eight goals to blow the game to pieces. The Valley of Hope continued the trend into the last with a 5 goal to 2 quarter blowing the margin out even further and a final margin of 87 points For Hope Valley the Best were Garang , Burford ,Riddle ,Carabott and Maschotta for Westminster McFarlane , Gibson , Blackwell , R Drum and C Drum Goals for the Demons Min 9 , Carabott 6 , Nobes 5 , Maschotta and McDonough 2, Paterson , Packer , Hellmanns one each and for Westminster it was Grosser 3 ,Harms , Ross 2 each and one each to Jennings , Lienert and Cotsaris .

The round ahead Round 5

Flinders Park v Westminster v Flinders Park

Flinders Park is coming off a strong win against Pembroke at Home. With the Schwarz boys playing some good footy it might be hard for the Dragons to stop them on their home ground. The Dragons are coming off a big loss to Hope Valley and will need all their big guns to fire. The evergreen Jeremy Johncock needs another bag, and the Drum boys need to keep the good form going. Flinders Park should win this one. To Win Flinders Park by twenty-seven points.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Pembroke at Kingswood Oval

The Jets have been playing some good footy and knocked off the highly fancied Modbury at Modbury last week. The Jets have a spread of players that can kick goals so they will be difficult to stop. The Kings are coming off a loss to a strong Flinders Park and with the Thring boys up and about and Anthony Wilson on fire it makes for a great game of Footy. It will be a tight one, but I think the Jets will get up – Just. To Win Jets by-six points

GAZA v Scotch OC at Klemzig Reserve

Scotch is coming off a win over Seaton at Seaton last round so they will be confident. Gaza on the other hand went down to a determined SMOSH at West Lakes. It should be a close game of footy and whichever team can play four quarters of footy should win. With the Eagles playing on their home deck, they should just get up. To Win Gaza by three points.

Seaton Ramblers v Modbury at Pedler Reserve

Seaton playing at home again would love to take a big scalp. On the other hand, Modbury are coming off an unexpected loss at Home to the Jets so they will be keen for redemption. Seaton also had a close loss to Scotch a game they thought they should have won. The Hawks are a team chock full of talent and should win easy. To Win Hawks by sixty-five points

Hope Valley v SMOSH West Lakes at Hope Valley Oval

Hope Valley are the premiership favourites now being the only undefeated side in the Div. 3 comp. SMOSH had a good win at home against GAZA which would have given them some confidence. It is hard to go against the team from the Valley of Hope as they have a team full of exceptionally talented players with more to come back. So, Hope Valley to win easy at Home. To Win Hope Valley by Fifty-six points

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Division 4 Round 4 review

Pooraka v Hectorville

The only undefeated team in division 4 flexed its muscles at home this week, and in doing so sent out an ominous warning to the rest of the competition. Hectorville kicked the first goal of the game through David Hamann but that proved to be one of the few positives for their day. Pooraka went "Bang, Bang" directly from the next two centre bounces and it was pretty much one way traffic from there on. Pooraka have impressive depth in the midfield and Matt Rankine, Frank Timpano and Sean Hee continued their good early season form to provide the Bulls with plenty of drive. Their speed of ball movement allowed the elusive Ronald Rankine and tall forward Luke Buckby to kick four goals each. Coach Shane Hickey would be especially pleased with the spread of goal kickers they had with 10 different players hitting the score board. For Hectorville their captain Dan Fairbrother is putting together an excellent season in the Hounds midfield. Only tall forward Jak Goudman-Glasson was able to repeatedly hit the scoreboard. Pooraka eventually ran out 88 point victors.

Lockleys v Mitcham

This game also proved to be a one-sided affair with Lockleys jumping out of the blocks quickly and by quarter time the Demons were 37 points in front and the contest was essentially over. Lockleys love to move the ball quickly and with purpose. This is unsurprising given the potency of their forward line. Their two high profile forwards proved unstoppable with Ben Haren kicking six goals despite regularly hitting up to provide a contest across half forward and Matt McDonough kicking 4. He also received best player honours. Lockleys were also well served by midfielder Josh Fazzalari and Bowen Hosking who has been in Lockleys best in all four games so far. Mitcham were never really in the contest and only tall forward Lucas Spiniello was able to kick multiple goals. He also was given the best player votes for the Hawks. Both Dan Cross and midfielder Harrison Pride battled on manfully also.

Kenilworth v CBCOC

Kenilworth and CBCOC are fighting hard for their position in the middle of the ladder in the early stages of the season, so every win is valuable and in some ways worth double points. Both teams had opportunities in the first quarter, but CBCOC were able to hold a narrow 13-point lead. This however proved to be decisive with the remainder of the game being quite even. The pivotal factor in this game was CBCOC's effectiveness inside 50. High half forwards Ben Simpson and Aaron Marchioro provided excellent targets kicking 4 and 3 goals respectively. Kenilworth spearhead Myles Crump has been quiet in front of goals to start the season but was able to kick three and be in the best players this week. This is a good sign for Crump and for the Kookaburras. Midfielder Jordan Wilson-King continued his excellent early season form and Joel Smith provided plenty of rebound from half back. This result proved to be a bit of a "4 point game" with CBCOC now pushing into the five and Kenilworth looking over their shoulder, and avoiding using the R word.

Walkerville v Plympton

Plympton are proving to be the head scratcher of the 2023 season. Many "experts" (including this author) thought they were the most even team of the 2022 season, and with their impressive recruiting they would be at the top end of the table from the start of the season. Being 2 and 2 after four games is by no means a disaster, but it does mean they have much work to do to stay with the pace setters of the competition. There were two factors that proved to be decisive in this contest. The Walkerville tall forwards Adam Proud and James Boston, and the Plympton inaccuracy in front of goal. Walkerville were well served by midfielder Daniel Reardon and captain Sean Kuerschner while Jackson Davis and running half back Lonnie Hampton were among the best for Plympton. Declan Bayly kicked 6 for the Bulldogs, proving to be a strong spearhead.

Portland v Morphettville Park

Judging by the scoreboard Portland continued their improvement in round four. The final margin was 73 points to Morphy Parks, but considering both captain Nathan Wait and number one ruckman Corey Evans did not play for the under resourced Portland their efforts were meritorious. Morphettville Park decided to start number one ruckman Alex Barns forward and this proved to be a difficult match up for the Portland defence. He was matched up on the undersized Todd Clark early. This also enabled Jack McDermott to get off the leash and kick 7. Their multiple goal kickers were given the best player plaudits. This win keeps Morphy Parks in touch with the pace setters as the premiership table takes shape while Portland is cemented to the bottom of the ladder and will have to do something significant from here on in if they are to avoid being in the conversation for relegation and a 2024 season in Division 5.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Division 5- Round 4

West Croydon vs Kilburn / 9.6 - 60 vs 21.22 - 148

Last week I tipped Kilburn to be a little strong for west Croydon, but not to this extent. If it wasn't for some average kicking in front of goals, this score could have blown out to be so much more. The hawks started the game in reasonable fashion and got themselves in an early shootout with the chics, the scores sitting at 31-38 and had West Croydon trailing by only 7 points at the first break. Unfortunately for the hawks, that was the last time they looked in the game. Kilburn completely running away with it from there, managing to boot 6.7, 4.6 and then another 5.7 to finish off the game and show their dominance yet again. After notching up a decent win the week before, West Croydon will be seriously disappointed with their output this game and need to find ways to bounce back quickly if they are a chance to play finals. Joshy Wills was a shining light for the hawks, booting 5 goals and being named best on ground. Tyrone Milera was also good for the hawks, hitting it straps 4 games in. Kilburn would have struggled to pick best players as they had 21 contributors on Saturday but it was star recruit Corey Solly with a massive bag of 10 goals who stood out above the rest and earning BOG honours! Ray hedland was good once again and among the chics best.

Trinity OS vs Gepps Cross / 9.10 - 64 vs 11.9 - 75

My prediction on this game was absolutely bang on, both teams delivered but unfortunately there can only be one winner. Gepps Cross were down on some key personnel, so if Trinity were ever a chance to knock off the undefeated rams, Saturday was the day! Both teams bringing their best and were stuck in an arm wrestle throughout the entirety of the game, but it was the Rams who managed to bring it together when it counted and run out the game 11 point winners! Bailey Puvogel, Dom Barilla, Owen John & Matthew Perry all kicking 2 goals for the TOSers to give them their best chance of winning, while Cameron Hankinson also played a stellar to be named best on ground. For Gepps Cross Jude Band, star recruit Robbie Young, Graham Hampton and Brodie Polkinghorne all managed to bang home a couple goals each to ensure their team got over the line. Matthew Sawilski stood up when he was needed most and was the rams best player in a thrilling game. Well done to both teams.

Woodville South vs Pulteney / 13.13 - 91 vs 9.8 - 62

This game was the hardest to tip by far on the weekend, could have gone either way it was all about who put their best foot forward come game day. Both teams down from division 4 and sitting on 1 win a piece, finding a drop in division a lot tougher than expected. Pulteney jumping right out the blocks in the first quarter to lead at the first change by an impressive 23 points. The cats needed to find a spark of this game was going to be over before they knew it! Finding a spark is exactly what they did, holding Pulteney to 8 points for the quarter while managing to claw their way right back into the contest booting 4.3 themselves and bringing the margin back to 4 points at the main break. Coming out in the 3rd quarter the supporters from both teams couldn't have asked for a more entertaining game, both teams leaving everything out there and all tied up at 56 a piece heading into 3qtr time. It was the cats who managed to find another gear though and completely running away with this game to finish 29 point winners. Pulteney would be hurting after a tough loss like that, especially after starting so well. Ramah Ahmed starred for the cats earning BOG honours for the first time this year, while Nathan Lornie played a helping hand securing the cats a crucial win. Cabbot Stewart-Browne and Lachlan Kennewell were the 2 stand outs for the blues, both men putting in solid 4 quarter efforts and should be stoked with their output.

Chris Knapp gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Colonel Light Gardens vs Blackfriars OS / 21.13 - 139 vs 12.7 - 79

Both teams coming off the back of tough losses last week, plenty on the line here but it went as expected. First half was back and forth and actually seen the hounds head into the main break 3 points up. Huge for their confidence and belief that they can knock off a top tier team, CLG on the other hand would have been feeling the squeeze and dare say half time seen their coach give them a bit of a wake up spray! If they want to be around the mark like many expect, these are the games they need to be making big statements in. Whatever their coach had to say in the rooms definitely worked, they managed to keep BOS to a single goal during the 3rd quarter while piling on 6 themselves and heading into the last change 27 points up. Last goal was very similar, the Colonel Light big guns really getting ahold of Blackfriars! Adding on another 7 goals to finish the game off in stunning fashion, 60 point winners after trailing at half time. Emmett Wood was the star of the show in his 251st game, booting 5 goals and being named among the best. Star recruit Jack Tape was also a stand out for CLG. At the other end of the ground, Christian Rugari kicked 2 and was easily best on ground for the hounds with some decent help from their skipper Matthew Brincat who kicked 1 himself and did all he could to try get that win. Huge turn around from Colonel Light Gardens, back on track.

Eastern Park vs Elizabeth / 11.13 - 79 vs 11.15 - 81

Statement made and the Eagles are starting to earn some respect across the division. Never thought for a second this is the result I'd be looking at Sunday morning but credit to the boys at Elizabeth, knocking the Demons off on the road is never an easy job. The Eagles flew out the blocks and showed the Demons they were well and truly up for the challenge, leading by 19 points at quarter time. Eastern park started to look a little better throughout the second but again that was quickly shut down, the Eagles extended their lead and went in 27 points up at half time. Eastern Park were staring down the barrel of another defeat, against an opposition they had already penciled in for a win. Did they take the Eagles too lightly? Whatever it was, something big needed to change and quickly. Time for their big game players to stand up, backs against the wall the Demons managed to keep Elizabeth to just 3 points throughout the 3rd quarter while piling on 41 themselves and taking the lead into the last change by 11 points. All the momentum was going their way, finally playing their brand of football and many would have pencilled them in to bring it home from here. Not the Eagles, they had belief and did not leave a single thing out there in the last quarter to run out the game and steal the points back, 2 point victory and one for the ages! Huge win for the Eagles, could be crippling for the Demons. Peter Diedrichsen was instrumental for Eastern Park, skipper of the club and standing up when they needed him most. Robert Kovacic proving too much to handle, kicking another 5 goals to continue his solid form, being the leading goal kicker in the division. Elizabeth again with 21 contributors, well rounded effort from the boys but it was Brandon Ewing and Jarrod Hall standing the tallest after their huge win being named the 2 best players on the ground for the Eagles. Will this loss be the one that comes back to bite the Demons? Only time will tell.

Round 5 predictions

Gepps Cross vs Woodville South

One of the matches of the round. Gepps Cross still undefeated and Woodville South finally starting to hit their straps. Always said heading out to Duncan Fraser Reserve is one of the hardest travels in the division, I think that proves to be too much for the cats this game. Not many teams stack up as well as Gepps, their top end talent would be as good as any in the division, all of them boys firing on the same day would almost be impossible to stop. Although I think Woody South show some ticker during the game, Gepps will be too strong and continue on their undefeated ways. Gepps Cross 30 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Elizabeth vs Trinity

Elizabeth coming off one of the better wins they've had in a few years, Trinity suffering a narrow loss to one of the flag favourites. Both teams should be extremely confident in the football they've been playing, although the results haven't all gone their way. I think a fortnight of unreal footy from the Eagles comes to an end this week, Trinity will be looking to post a huge win after some close losses against some of the top end teams in the division. This is the week to do it, but if the Eagles even get a sniff they are a chance, they will leave 120% out there to ensure another win. Many were quick to write them off but this is a team playing on the same page and working for each other every step of the way. Credit to them but all good things come to an end. Trinity 40+

Blackfriars OS vs Eastern Park

Very tough game to pick. Could go either way. Both teams very far from their best and suffering tough losses in round 4, both teams only managing 1 win to date. I feel like Eastern Parks best and their worst is so far apart, it all depends what team rocks up. Blackfriars always take it to another level on their home deck but not having won a game since round 1, I'm leaning towards the demons for this one. Either way this is a huge game for both sides, a win will keep them around the middle of the pack but another loss will have them 1-4 and sitting in the bottom 2, which is tough to come back from and not good for any teams confidence. Eastern Park 20 points

Kilburn vs Colonel Light Gardens

I predicted both of these 2 teams to be in the top 3 come seasons end, Kilburn have been flawless to date and still remain undefeated. Colonel Light still sitting pretty but have the one blemish on their record to date. This will be a cracking game with finals type atmosphere and plenty of stars on show. The chics have been building every week, all of their recruits are slowly pulling it together and finding ways to work well in securing big wins. I think that continues this week but CLG are going to take it right up to them. Expecting an arm wrestle throughout the day with one of Kilburns big game players to stand up late and get the chics over the line. Kilburn 8 points

Pulteney vs West Croydon

Only having 1 win each to their names makes this a serious danger game considering the week after both teams come up against the 2 top teams in the division. West Croydon produced one of the wins of the year a couple weeks back knocking CLG off on the road but unfortunately couldn't follow it up. Pulteney have been a roller coaster through the first few rounds, been in games most weeks but have fallen away. This game will be decided by what West Croydon outfit rocks up, if they are at their peak like they were a couple weeks back they are capable of posting another huge win. If they rock up thinking it's going to happen, Pulteney will put them to the sword and bring some much needed confidence back into the squad.

Pulteney 25 points

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Smithfield Vs Rosewater

Rosewater hit the road this week and took on Smithfield, two sides that have struggled against top sides early this season, both looking to get their first win of the year. It started off with a solid contest, both sides putting in early efforts, Rosewater were able to get the better of Smithfield, kicking 5 goals to 1 in the opening term and giving them a good head start in a tough game. Rosewater took all their opportunities after the first quarter, full of confidence they left nothing behind and were able to hold back Smithfield's defense and take a commanding lead into the main break. After halftime, Smithfield defended well and stepped up their hard footy, but it wasn't enough to keep Rosewater, who kept piling on the goals and making a statement on the road as they headed for their first win of the year. The Panthers were never letting up, putting their all into every contest with nothing to lose, and made Rosewater work for every goal in the last quarter, but The Doggies were too good and took home a convincing 95 point lead. Rosewater had a number of excellent players during this match, Brock Honson the best afield, also kicking 4 goals. Patrick Hure and Luke Wells were also good in their sides win, Ryan Sard was also good in front of goals kicking 3. There was no shortage of effort left on the park for Smithfield, each player giving their all, Issac Keightley was the best for The Panthers all day and also adding a goal, Nashawn Ferguson a close second with a goal of his own. Jamie Lane booted 2 for Smithfield, Adam Varcoe and Lochie Evans also both kicking a goal each. Anthony Thompson, Tyler Davis and Tyson Evans were amongst the best afield. Another tough loss for Smithfield, as they stand as one of the 3 sides in the competition sitting on no wins, they come up against St Pauls next week another side without a win this season. Rosewater will be thrilled to get their first win on the board, and will take their confidence into their matchup against undefeated Greenacres who are currently flying.

Adelaide Lutheran Vs Brahma Lodge

Adelaide Lutheran played host to Brahma Lodge this week, a tough matchup for Brahma Lodge as they try to get their first win of the season. Adelaide Lutheran weren't holding back at all this week, from the first bounce showing how much damage they can do. They kept Brahma Lodge to just 1 goal in the first quarter, booting 9 goals to put themselves out to a 50 point margin at the first break. After that there was no turning back, booting yet another 9 goals in the second quarter and by half time had a massive 99 point lead. Brahma Lodge stood up their defensive work in the second half, only managing to kick 1 goal but keeping Adelaide Lutheran to just 5 goals in the third term and stopping an onslaught. Once again in the last quarter, Brahma Lodge were able to hold off a large amount of Lutheran's offense but had already given them too much and Adelaide Lutheran came out winning by 154 points. Wil Vaughn was the best afield for Adelaide Lutheran also kicking a goal, Tom Gehling a close second booting 3 goals. Jericho John, George Giannes and Nicholas Norman were also amongst the best players for Lutheran, Jericho John having a day out in front of goals and kicking 8. Dene Steele was good all day for Brahma Lodge, earning best on ground for his side, Beau Mathews and Jacobus Hendriks also amongst the best afield. Jack Cook, Andrew Curyer, Jacobus Hendriks and Tyson Holmes all kicked a goal each for The Tigers. Brahma Lodge fought back hard in the second half and showed they can defend well, but gave up too much in the opening half and let Adelaide Lutheran run over the top of them. They're back at home next week, but have a challenge against a strong Marion side that have been playing top level footy all season. Adelaide Lutheran go on the road next week and take on Central United who have been playing well, coming off a good win, both sides will be in for a tough matchup.

Marion Vs St Pauls

Marion were back on their home deck this week, taking on St Paul's who are desperate for a win. Both sides have been playing well, St Paul's just haven't been able to find the form to get their first win. Marion proved from the start of this matchup, they weren't letting this be an easy contest, booting 6 goals to 1 in the opening term and setting themselves up for a good win. St Paul's wouldn't be put away that easily, booting 4 goals to 3 in the second quarter and fighting to keep themselves close in the contest, and by the main break Mation took a 26 point lead. St Paul's defended hard in the second half, letting a few moments slip past them and letting Marion score a few goals but giving their all to stay in the contest and have a chance in this game. Marion were not letting them come back, keeping St Paul's goalless in the last quarter and shutting the door by kicking another 5 goals, finishing the game 67 point leaders. Despite the scoreline, St Paul's never gave up and fought hard to keep themselves in the game, Marion were just too good at home. Charlton Manning and Johnathan Mitchell were the best for The Rams, Manning booting 2 goals and Mitchell booting 3, Adam Beaumont, Michael Comino-Ewen and Seb Fairlie also fought hard for Marion's win. Mark Cripps was the best up forward with 5 goals. Luke Pitman was the best for St Paul's, Riley Henriks a close second, Sean Gibbs, Mitchell Todd and Anthony Alesiani were also good. Glenn Gibbs booted 2 and was the only multiple goalscorer for St Paul's. Marion take on Brahma Lodge this week, a game they will look forward to and hope to boost their percentage against a struggling side. While St Paul's are back at home and have a big chance at their first win of the season against a struggling Smithfield side.

Greenacres Vs Fitzroy

Greenacres had their toughest game of the season this week, against a solid Fitzroy side who took them on and showed they can match with the best. Fitzroy came with something to prove this game, and booted 3 straight in the opening quarter and kept last year's premiers to just 1 goal. Greenacres fought back in the second quarter, but not without Fitzroy keeping up the pace, both sides not giving an inch, Fitzroy kept their lead and took a 4 point lead into halftime. Both sides put full force into the second half, keeping it a narrow game and both sides defending well, Greenacres were able to keep Fitzroy to just 1 goal in the third quarter, but not without The Lions defending well themselves and only letting Greenacres score 2 goals. With a 3 point lead, Greenacres went into the last quarter ready to end the game and made sure not to give up a loss. Fitzroy continued their strong defense but couldn't keep up with Greenacres, The Dragons booting 5 goals in the final term to take home a 19 point win in a thriller of a game. Blake Rogan was the best afield for Greenacres, leading from the front and dominating all game to take his side to the win, Matt Kemp was also good and kicked 5 goals for Greenacres. Diing Akur, Ricky Smith and Ryan Comyns were also all strong in their sides win. Fitzroy will be devastated that they let this game slip, a much needed win for The Lions in a tough competition. Samuel Ellis was the best afield for Fitzroy, also booting a goal, Daniel Rusby and Harvey Gardner both also good, Joshua Rosenthal was the best in front of goal kicking 3 for The Lions. Greenacres take on Rosewater next week, and will be keen to get a strong win on the board after this close call, and boost their confidence. While Fitzroy take on Salisbury, another tough matchup, with both sides coming off losses and eager for a win.

Salisbury Vs Central United

Possibly the most unpredictable game of the round, Salisbury hosted Central United this week, both sides fighting until the end for a massive matchup. Both sides were prepared coming into this one, with a close opening quarter, both sides giving absolutely everything right from the first siren, at quarter time, Central United going in with a 3 point lead. Once again both sides fought and fought in the second quarter, defending well and keeping this a tight matchup, inaccurate goal kicking cost The Units though, booting 1.6 for the quarter. At the main break it was all tied up and set for a massive second half. Central United fixed up some issues in the third term, but still kicked poorly, kicking 5.6 for the quarter but taking a 22 point lead into the last term, a handy lead in a close game. Another close final term, both sides kicked

2 goals each, but Central United came up just too good and took home a 16 point win. Thomas Porter led from up forward all match, kicking 6 goals in Central United's win. James Bain, Jarrad Upton, Dean Steele and Peter Dempsey all fought hard and played well for The Units. Mitchell Slater was best afield for Salisbury, booting 3 goals, Josh Mann also kicking 3. Blake Stevens, Aeddan Hull, Jai De Bais and Michael Keenihan were all also amongst the best afield. A tough game for both sides, Central United had back home next week to take on Adelaide Lutheran in another tough matchup. Salisbury also take on Fitzroy, another big matchup that will be tough for both teams.

Brahma Lodge Vs Marion

Brahma Lodge back at home this week, taking on Marion. Another tough game for Brahma Lodge, they have struggled to find form against top sides this season, Marion being no exception as a side that has shown it can take on the best. Marion are also coming off a good win at home and will not slow down, fighting their way to the top of the ladder. Brahma Lodge will fight hard as they always do but there's no denying the strength of Marion's side and how dominant they are in this competition, Brahma Lodge will struggle to contest with Marion and should go down by a convincing margin despite them being at home.

Tip: Marion by 100+

Central United Vs Adelaide Lutheran

Central United are back at home after a hard fought win against Salisbury last week, they will be eager to get back home and take on another good side in Adelaide Lutheran who are yet to lose a game. Adelaide Lutheran are also coming off a good 100 point win over Brahma Lodge last week and will be full of confidence, ready to take on a quality side. This could turn out to be one of the best games of the round if both sides turn up and bring their A game there's no telling who will come out on top. Although someone has to win, I think Central United will be buzzing after giving Salisbury their first loss of the year and will look to do the same to Adelaide Lutheran, at home I think they will scrap past and get a close win.

Tip: Central United by 20-30

Fitzroy Vs Salisbury

Two sides desperate for a win after both going down to good sides by narrow margins. Salisbury narrowly lost to Central United last week, and will be looking to redeem themselves after losing their first match of the year, not wanting to let another one slip that easily again. Fitzroy back at home after going down to Greenacres and dominating for a big part of the match will be keen to bring the same pace to this game and get a good win against a quality Magpies side. Another tough game this round, both sides will be out to redeem themselves and not let a second win slip through their hands, I think Salisbury have been playing too well this year and despite having an off game last week, will bounce back and prove they are still up there with the best in the competition.

Tip: Salisbury by 15-25

Rosewater Vs Greenacres

Rosewater are coming off a refreshing 95 point win and their first win of the year against Smithfield last week, back at home this week do doubt they'll be intimidated by the powerhouse that is Greenacres but will be full of confidence after a big win. Greenacres coming off a hard fought win against Fitzroy will not be letting another game get that close again as they continue to prove they're a contender for the premiership this year. Both sides played well last week, Rosewater will be comfortable back at home and beaming full of confidence, but Greenacres have been a strong team for a while now and proved they are one of if not the best side in competition, and won't be letting another side get an easy win against them.

Tip: Greenacres by 75-100

St Paul's Vs Smithfield

Two sides that are struggling and are yet to win a game this year, St Paul's host Smithfield, both sides still keen to get their first win. St Paul's have been playing well so far this year, but have come up against good sides and haven't been able to prove they're form. Smithfield coming back into the league have struggled to find form, they have fought hard every game and left everything out on the field but struggle in a competition that has some quality sides. Both teams will fight hard in this one, and charge their way to try and get a win on the board for season 2023, both showing they are willing to fight to the end regardless of who they come up against. A tough choice on who to tip in this game, I think it will be a close matchup and both sides will fight hard, but St Paul's at home will be keen for their first win.

Justin White gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Round 4 Review

Houghton v Flinders Uni

Prior to my review can I take you all back to my preview on this game last week, "I think the Raiders can keep Flinders to 10-12 goals and manage 12-14 of themselves" Bang on the money!!!!

A three goal to one third term was all that separated Houghton and Flinders, as the Raiders ended Uni's unbeaten run to go 3-1, putting them on the same win/loss record as the other 'Big 4' clubs of the Division. In a tightly contested match Trent Harrison led the way in a best on field display. Usual suspects Kye Vandermoer (4) and Kodi Sparks (4) made the Pleasure Dome all that more pleasurable for the Houghton faithful with eight goals between them, whilst Bradley Anderson (1) was also amongst the best for the victors.

Henshaw and Luke Warland (4) the standouts for a Flinders side that were denied the ability produce that 20+ goal scoreline they've been accustomed to in recent weeks.

Mawson Lakes v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

OSBL made light work of Mawson Lakes, taking control of the game from start to finish, to run out comfortable 68 point winners. Darren King (4) was the best for the home side that are still searching for that elusive first win of the season.

On any normal week Harrison Kaesler, Marcus O'Loughlin and Austin Wurst (9), would have been the talk of the town down south with their respective efforts, but as good as those three were, there was only one man, one amazing milestone that is worth talking about.....

The legend that is Mr TREVOR RIGNEY (5) kicked his 1100th career goal! Yes, that's correct – one thousand one hundred, ELEVEN HUNDRED GOALS!!! And still as dominate as ever! I don't see any reason he cant get to 1200. An outstanding effort Trevor, congratulations.

Mitchell Park v Hackham

In what was a special day at Mitchell Park HQ with Club Legend Craig 'Alfie' Weekley, playing his 450th club game in the curtain raiser, The Lions, inspired by Alfie, kicked their best score for the season and secured the 2 points in a 60-point demolition of Hackham.

Questions were asked but Mitchell Park had all the answers as not only did they get their first win for the year but were able to stay within reach of that all-important 5th position spot.

Ryan O'Leary (1) and Luke Allan (3) played well for the Hawks, but were no match for the might of Jacob Doherty (3), Ryan Doherty, Rhys Clark (4) and Matthew Tassell (4) who all starred in a side that had no passengers.

Ingle Farm v Para Hills

In the other battle of the 'Big 4' Clubs, Ingle Farm handed Para Hills their first loss of the season to claim all important bragging rights with 28-point victory over their local rival. Already stimulated from a C and B grade double, the Rowe Park Rowdy, who may have mistaken this round 4 clash for a Grand Final were treated to an enthralling match between two sides that have little between them, including love. In the end it was Ingle Farm's 3rd quarter display, kicking 6 goals to 1 that did the damage against a depleted Para Hills that played the last quarter with no bench.

Even a triple team wasn't enough to stop Daniel Weetra (6) up forward for the Roos, but with Paul Cree injured early and Lachlan Bowie filling holes down back there just wasn't enough fire power to get them over the line this time.

Devine Payne was Ingle Farms clear best afield, Brandon Rigney (5) as dangerous as always around goals, whilst Bradley Sanderson (5) helped himself to a handful of goals as well. Ingle Farm too strong on this occasion.

Round 5 Preview

Mawson Lakes v Ingle Farm

Warning! Warning! up and about Bulldogs approaching Mawson Lakes area Saturday 20 May. The news doesn't get any better for a Mawson Lakes side who were on the end of a 10-goal thrashing last week. They host Ingle Farm who are no doubt looking for a massive percentage boost against the divisions lowest rank side after their confidence boosting win against Para Hills in round 4.

Darren King, the Saints best player so far this season will need the support from every one of the 21 playing to nullify the likes of Brandon, Tyson, Shayden and Tyrell Rigney. Even if the Rigney's are somehow kept quiet they still have Sanderson and Sandery who know where the goals are.

As much as I'd love to see it (I'd really, really, really love to see it) I don't think this will be the week that Mawson Lakes get their first win for the season. Ingle Farm (begrudgingly) by 71 points.

Para Hills v Mitchell Park

This match could not come at a worst time for Mitchell Park. After all the festivities of their match against Hackham, kicking their biggest total of the year and getting that first win on the board, they now must face a Para Hills side off the back of their first loss of the season, who are intent on making amends. I expect to see a Para Hills side come out all guns blazing and overawe Mitchell Park who unfortunately for them, will be a side in the wrong place at the wrong time. There is no way the Big Reds are going to lose to Ingle Farm one week and then let them jump a game ahead of them on the ladder the next. Para Hills to go 4-1 with a 40-point win.

Hackham v Houghton

Upset of the round on the cards? I'm not sure about that but I do think this game will be closer than most followers of the division think. Houghton deserve to go into this game as favourites, especially after their great win last week. Hackham can close the gap between their best and worst football, I believe they can take it up to the Raiders. The key to victory for the Hawks making it as scrappy as possible, the lower scoring the game the better Hackham's chances. That said I feel Houghton, led by Sparks and Vandermoer will get the job done. Houghton by 34 points.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Flinders University

Trevor Rigney's incredible milestone stole headlines last week and rightly so, a dangerous player that keeps defence on their toes all game. What may have been overshadowed was the fact that Austinn Wurst is back in the line up and back amongst the goals! With 14 goals between last week, I believe this duo, with the help of Fitzpatrick and Kaesler could pull off the upset of the round. OSBL have proven they can match it with the likes of Para Hills when they play their best football (that game without Wurst) and I feel the sugar high they got from last weeks win, albeit against Mawson Lakes has played a few key players into form and that might just see them get the result over Uni. I expect Luke Warland to continue to push for Div 7's leading goal kicker and get himself a fiver, but I'm going to put my neighbours house on OSBL on a season defining win – OSBL by 12 points.
