Fraser Edginton gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Broadview vs Tea Tree Gully:

Tea Tree Gully kicked off the most exciting round of the footy season so far with an exhilarating 12 point win over an again competitive Broadview. Skipper Blake Penney was instrumental in Tea Tree Gully's explosive start, leading 6 - 31 at the first change. However, wayward kicking from the visitors saw Broadview claw their way back into the game, trailing by a mere 2 points at half time, and taking the lead right on the three quarter time siren. With the game in the balance, a 3 goal to 1 last quarter got Tea Tree Gully over the line. For the Gullians (If I may coin that term), a hard fought and contested win will continue to put wind in their sails as they sit pretty with a 4 - 1 record early in the season. Broadview again remained competitive all day, forcing the visitors to grind out a victory instead of allowing their free flowing, high scoring footy to get the job done for them. Unfortunately however, the hosts will sit outside of the top 5 for the week, as they will need to address their scoring to continue to improve as a team.

Port Districts vs Brighton Bombers:

A classic at Lards! Port Districts in front of a big home ground have produced the most intoxicating win of the season so far. Their 11 goals 14 proved just enough to edge the Bombers by the very barest of margins. The first 1 point win of the season brought courtesy of a fantastic all round performance from Cooper Gaffney, as well as an exciting forward line display from Kenneth Karpany. Brighton provided a ripping contest all day, leading the match at every change bar the final siren. This match would decide which team sat with a positive record after round 5 and who would sit negatively. Sadly for the bombers, they slump to 2 - 3 as Port Districts win 2 on the trot and really start to click their season into gear. Watch this space, footy fans, Port Districts are looking very good right now.

Sacred Heart OC vs Prince Alfred OC:

Prince Alfred bounced back from last week in a huge way, solidifying second place on the premiership table, as they hold off a valiant 4th quarter comeback from Sacred Heart OC and keep themselves in terrific stead early in the year. For Prince Alfred, it was Tyson Brazel to do all the heavy lifting in the forward line, slotting 4 goals in his return to the lineup to hold half the teams total tally. However, these 8 goals proved enough as Sacred Heart were held to only 6 goals 9 on the final siren. For the hosts, this week will feel long, as it's Prince Alfred to seize their opportunity to keep 2nd place on the ladder.

St Peters vs Old Ignatians:

St. Peters came out swinging in this bottom of the ladder clash, and will be satisfied with the points as they ensure the Old Ignatians are now the only winless team in the league after round 5. It was Charlie Allan playing some career best footy who slammed home 5 majors to impose his authority on the game. That almost served enough to beat the visitors himself, as they were kept to an unfortunately measly 5 goals 7. Now branded with an 0 - 5 start to the season, Old Ignatians continue to have their backs forced against the wall, a disappointingly uncompetitive Saturday afternoon for them see's them rue a chance at a victory.

Goodwood Saints vs Glenunga:

Goodwood Saints have wallpapered over some cracks late in the game to end a captivating round of footy, as they go down 50 - 74 as Glenunga continue to rack up wins in 2023. The scorecard unfortunately does Goodwood a world of favors, an abysmal 2 goals 6 at 3 quarter time ensured the game was all but finished with a quarter to go. Some fast scoring and hard running in the last produced an important 5 goal quarter for their confidence. Despite a potentially ominous last quarter, Glenunga continue to be an incredible football outfit, sitting comprehensively on top of the ladder after round 5.

Fraser Edginton gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Previews:

Brighton Bombers vs Sacred Heart OC:

A couple of teams each coming off heart wrenching losses in their own right, the Bombers' going down to the bitter end, where Sacred Heart were kept at bay for most of the day. Sacred Heart should get up, but it certainly feels a precarious match up. Suffice to say, each team need the win for their respective positions. Unfortunately for the bombers, they will continue to fall away from finals as it will be Sacred Heart by 25.

Old Ignatians vs Prince Alfred OC:

A long week in football has turned into a long 5 weeks so far for the Old Ignatians. Sadly, I fear this may be extended by another week as they meet another strong opponent. Fortunately, they tend to show glimmers of real competitiveness against tougher teams. I predict a red hot first quarter, but for PAC to run out 70+ point victors.

St. Peters OC vs Goodwood Saints:

Coming off their first win for the season, I am positive that St Peters OC will be absolutely full of steam coming into this one. Hence I am anticipating a pretty red hot affair early on in the match. Despite how much I really want to believe in the fairytale, it will be Goodwood to run away with this one. Despite a horrid first 3 quarters, they did still get within 4 goals of an untouchable Glenunga lineup. I'm backing Goodwood by 32 points.

Tea Tree Gully vs Port Districts:

The main event for round 6 of Division 1 football takes Port Districts on the long drive over to Tea Tree gully. Each team served up a very satisfying performance last week, and will be content with where they sit on the ladder. However, I said this week to watch the Port Districts space, and I'm intent on putting my money where my mouth is. It's going to be Port districts in an upset and another close affair, winning by 9 points.

Glenunga vs Broadview:

The final game of the round will take the perpetually competitive broadview, and give the, the ultimate challenge. Glenunga are simply a far cleaner lineup, but I think could be surprised by the scrappy and hard fighting nature of the visitors. They will run out winners, I am sure, however I think there could be some early wobbles for Glenunga. They will take it by 37.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Payneham 6.9.45 def by Athelstone 10.9.69

Athelstone have handed Payneham their first loss of the 2023 season as they climb to the top of division two. Both teams have now won four of the last five with Athelstone winning every game on the road. The Falcons started the match very slowly and found no way into the match. It was Athelstone's defensive stands that gave them the lead by 13 points at the first break. This was maintained at half time by 11 points as the Falcons failed to convert on the scoreboard. The Raggies had their chances to finish the game at three quarter time, but their bad kicking kept Payneham in it. Ultimately, they were still ablet to get up and win the match by four goals. Mitchell Grigg was once again one of Athelstone's best players along with Jack Wood, Jake Westover, and Jed Russell. Tom Wagner, Brett Ancell and Liam Davis were best for Payneham.

Golden Grove 10.22.82 def Adelaide Uni 4.4.28

Golden Grove have stamped their authority on this division with a huge victory over Adelaide University at home. The match started with the Burra's leading from the outset as they took a 13-point lead at quarter time. Golden Grove continued their momentum to take a 23-point lead at half time, Adelaide University struggled to find any sort of offensive rhythm. Only one goal was scored in the second half with seven points scored, the Burra's were locked in defensively. The only reasoning for not being an even bigger victory was if Golden Grove could kick straight. Eight goals 14 at three quarter time followed by 10-goals-22 at full time. A nine-goal victory propels the Burra's into the top two as Adelaide Uni fall to three and two sitting fourth. Mitchell Payne, Joshua William Glenn, and Michael Cavallaro were best for Golden Grove. Stefan Jankewicz, Jesse Boag, and Ben Adams were best for Adelaide Uni.

Henley 6.4.40 def by Rostrevor OC 20.10.130

Rostrevor dominated away from home to put their season back on track as they smashed the Sharks at Henley. A dominating performance from the outset as they led the opening quarter by four goals, putting big points on the board early. The lead was slightly extended to 27 at the main break with ROCS exploding in the second half going forward. In the third quarter they had kicked four goals to Henley's one as they got out to a 46-point lead. The woes of the Sharks continued and amplified in the fourth quarter as the deficit got out to 90 points as the Sharks yet again took enough tough blow to sit uncomfortably in ninth position. They are now in the five after a rollercoaster start to the season. James Lean, Harry Sibley and Tom Pillion did their best efforts for Henley. Patrick Dawson collected the votes as he booted a division game high of 11 goals absolutely dominating along with James Butterworth, Dylan Fitzsimons, and Hugh Strickland for ROCS.

Salisbury North 11.12.78 def by PHOS Camden 12.11.83

At Salisbury North a classic matchup took place as PHOS Camden held on late to snatch the four points away from home. This close match started right from the outset as a seven-point margin separated the two teams at quarter time. PHOS had separated themselves from the hosts as they doubled their scoring and locked down the Hawks in the second quarter which proved big in the outcome of the match. Salisbury North tried as best they could to make up the ground and fight their way back into the match, but they only trimmed the lead to 21 points. The Hawk had switched gears and tried to win the match, which they had had every chance to in the last quarter having eight scoring shots to two. PHOS' work earlier in the match was just enough to get over the line as they move to sixth on the ladder. The Hawks with their penalties now are two games behind Edwardstown in seventh. Domenico Costanzo, James Loneragan and Matthew Claughton were the best or the hosts. Henry Papatolis, Will Papatolis and Samuel Inglis were some of PHOS' best as James Reuther booted five for them.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Edwardstown 16.9.105 def North Haven 7.4.46

North Haven has once again fallen this week to Edwardstown at home. They continue right at the bottom of the division behind Henley by percentage and the relegation zone by a win. Right from the first bounce it was the Towns who looked to capitalised on North Haven's woes. They claimed a three-goal lead kicking five goals to two. In the second quarter the scoring dried up for both sides only a goal each and as much as North Haven needed to turn the tides in their favour, it just wasn't to be. Edwardstown extended the lead in both the last two quarters, 25 points at three quarter time turned into 59 points at full time. The Towns sit now equal fourth with these consecutive wins, only 7th by percentage. Aaron Anderson, Josh Schiller, and Brad Horgan were best for the victors. Matthew Searcy, Liam Westdijk and Andrew Smithson were best for the visitors.

Previews:

Adelaide University v Henley

Adelaide University this week will host the winless Henley Sharks as the Sharks will be looking to record their first victory of the season. Adelaide Uni have come off consecutive losses the last fortnight, a narrow loss to Payneham and a smashing against Golden Grove. They will also be looking to regain some form, particularly in a week where Athelstone and Golden Grove will face each other, they will have the opportunity to climb over one of them. Henley are sitting tight due to being in the relegation zone and must be playing desperate to give themselves chances to climb outside the bottom two. Unfortunately, in the Sharks' case I cannot see them collecting their first victory. Adelaide University by 49 points

PHOS Camden v Rostrevor OC

Another enticing matchup between two prominent teams looking to push for top five spots. Currently both sitting at three wins and two losses both with different runs of form, PHOS have won their last three on the trot beating North Haven away comfortably, Henley at home comfortably and a huge win away at Salisbury North. Rostrevor's last two weeks have been a 180 on each other, a 70-point loss at home to Golden Grove and then a 90-point road win at Henley. A tight matchup where PHOS will be looking to put points on the board which they've been quite good at, and Rostrevor will be looking at stopping it as they've been good at. A very hard game to pick a winner for, but in this fixture, I will be picking the hosts narrowly. PHOS Camden by 9 points

Salisbury North v Edwardstown

Edwardstown will travel to Salisbury North as they will attempt to win three in a row this weekend. Salisbury North have dropped to one and four on the year inclusive of their penalties last week was their first loss exclusive of penalties to PHOS Camden. The Hawks now have plenty of work to do this season as they have lost the results of those first three games only one game outside of the relegation zone. Edwardstown have the ability to move into the top five with a win which will move them to four and two for the season. Despite how the ladder looks currently, Salisbury North can still be a quality team in this division and do some damage as they look to gain ground on the rest of the division. It will be hard to look past them in this match. Salisbury North by 23 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Athelstone v Golden Grove

This week's match of the round features an early season first versus second matchup. Both teams have won four out of their first five matches. Athelstone had come off a fantastic victory over Payneham away from home last week. Golden Grove come off a smashing win at home over Adelaide University recording 32 scoring shots. The two best teams at both ends of the ground, the Raggies are second in scoring and first in defence and Golden Grove are first in scoring and second in defence. The winner of this matchup will be the clear division leader heading into the rest of the season. It is a hard game to pick no doubt, it is however hard to go against Golden Grove who are the form team of the division winning the last four straight. Golden Grove by 13 points

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

North Haven v Payneham NU

Payneham will travel to the winless North Haven this week as they look to regain some form. The Falcons were handed their first loss of the season as they went down to Athelstone at home, they will be needing this match to make a gain on percentage and collect a win. North Haven obviously needs a win to be able to make their way out of relegation zone, they remain winless and potentially could lose touch of getting out of the bottom two. In this matchup there is not much to think about when picking a winner, the Falcons should collect a win and quite comfortably. Payneham NU by 68 points

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

GAZA v Scotch OC 12.9 vs 8.6

Scotch ventured to the home of the Eagles knowing they would have a massive challenge on their hands. The game started as a battle of the defences. The first score of the game came at the 10-minute mark and it was a minor score to the Eagles. On the rebound Scotch went inside their fifty for no result. The Eagles took the ball back into their fifty with Dylan Ridding kicking the first for the game. At the 14 Minute mark Ridding marked and goaled for his and the Eagles second. He followed up with another shot, but it was a minor score. Gaza continued to work into the fifty and it was not long before Ben Beioley the teams third. Gaza had another opportunity through Thomas, but the ball was turned over and Scotch took the ball down to their goals and scored their first. At the first break it was the home side by twelve points. It was an arm wrestle for the first 5 minutes of the second, but it was King from Scotch who got things underway after a lightning pass from Winter – Irving. The margin was back to six points and Scotch were coming. The visitors kicked the next two and were now up by six points. Scotch scored another and the margin was twelve before Gaza responded through Matt Beadle. Scotch continued to attack and at the long break it was fourteen points in favour of the visitors. The Eagles came out of the blocks fast in the third and went inside fifty but could not convert through Ridding. Scotch rebounded and went down and scored their seventh for the game. The margin was nineteen points but with a quick response from Gaza Beioley kicked true and it was back to thirteen. The game then tuned into a battle of the defences with no score for both sides for a period of ten minutes. Scotch finally broke the deadlock and scored a major and were applying the pressure on the home side. Beioley then marked and goaled in the dying seconds of the third and the margin at the break was thirteen points. The last started at a furious pace with both side keen for the win. Both sides were going into their fifty with no success. It was finally Gaza through Ridding who marked and goaled for his third. The home side had the margin back to nine and looked like they were closing. Scotch responded again and within a matter of 2 mins the margin was back to nineteen. Gaza responded with another major and the margin was fourteen. Scotch was holding up well defensively and scored another two goals before the end of the last. Scotch eventually ran out victors by twenty-seven points. Best for Scotch were Doyle, Winter – Irving, Kelly, Walter, and Vandenberg. For Gaza Tuikaba, Tahana, C Jones, Karr, and R Jones. Goal kickers for Scotch S King 3, J King, Wong, Kitto 2 and singles to Jolly, Walter, and Freeman and for Gaza Beioley 3 Ridding 3 and Beadle and Jarrett one each.

Flinders Park v Westminster 17.9 vs 13.13

Flinders Park have been one of the form sides at the early stages of the season. It was even start in the first with home side hanging to an 8-point lead at the first break. It was a similar pattern in the second and the Dragons could not get any closer and the margin was fourteen points The visitors came out strong it was a 14-point lead to the home side. After the long break Flinders Park kicked another six to the Dragons 4 and the margin at three quarter time was out to twenty-four points. In the last both sides kicked two goals each with the final margin to the home side was twenty points. Best for Flinders Park were Abbott ,T Schwarz , Schultz , Fairall and N Schwarz .and the Dragons it was Cotsaris .Harris, Ross , Lienert and Craig Major goalkickers for Flinders Park were Teague 5 , Blythe , N Schwarz and Schulz 2 and singles to Comitogianni , Nixon , T Schwarz , Abbott , Baker and Hinter 1 for the Dragons it was Harms 7 , Lienert , Johncock 2 McFarlane and Jennings 1 each .

Seaton Ramblers v Modbury 14.11 vs 11.8

Modbury was the fifth team to travel to Seaton this season. Being one of the fancied teams the Hawks would have thought it would not be a tough game. Seaton had different Ideas moving to a sixteen-point lead at the first break. The Hawks bounced back with a six goal to zero quarter and a nineteen-point lead at halftime. In the third the home side kicked five goals to the visitors two and only trailed by two points. The Hawks took control in the last with four goals and a margin of twenty-one points on the final siren. Best for the visitors were Pisani, Stewart, Watson, Coles, and Kaipara and for the home side Guy, Mead, Buchanan, Kasianowicz and Kerruish. Goals for the Hawks Watson 5, Kaipara 4, Verity 2 and singles to Maunder, Coles, and Wood. for Seaton It was Buchanan 3 Kasianowicz 2, Studham 2 and Gatt, Kerruish, Fitkides and Paddick 1 each.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Pembroke 17.14 vs 6.11

The Jets were coming off a big win against the Hawks the previous week and would have fancied their chances at home. The Jets jumped out to a five-goal lead at the first break. The Kings fought back in the second bringing the margin back to twenty-one at the long break. The Jets kicked another five in the third and the margin was forty-eight at three quarter time. The last was all the Jets again kicking four goals to the Kings 3 and the margin at the final siren was sixty-nine points. The best for the Jets Armiento, Sutcliffe, Miller, Cheesman and A Khababz for the Kings Duffy, Slade. G Thring, Carruthers and Thompson Goals for the Jets Sutcliff 7, Miller 3 and singles to Pedler, Cheeseman, A Khababz, Ianniello, Armiento, E Miller, and Heaslip. And Pembroke Forster 2, T Evans, M Evans, Green and Wilson 1 each.

Hope Valley v SMOSH West Lakes 22.11 vs 5.3

The Hope Valley boys were playing in front of their home crowd and did not disappoint. SMOSH were coming gutsy win against Gaza last week and would have fancied their chances. In a close first quarter it was four goals to two with the home side with a 12-point lead. The second quarter was a total domination by the Demons with eight goals to one and a margin of fifty-six points at halftime. The third was a little closer with the Lions one to four and the lead at the last break was seventy-three points. The last was all the Demons as they blew the Lions away and the winning margin 110 points. Best for Hope Valley were Dowling, Nobes, Riddle, Grieger and Hunt. And for SMOSH Ginever, Dorian, Vanzati, Gates and Moore. Goals for the Demons Nobes 7 Min 4, Carabott 2, Maschotta 2 Hellmanns 2 Grieger, Brunoli, Dowling, Burford, and Paterson one each and for the Lions it was one each to Gates, Moore, Sorokovsky, Danaher and Vanzati.

The round ahead Round 6

Westminster v SMOSH West Lakes at Glandore

Westminster is coming off a competitive game against Flinders Park and would fancy themselves at Home. SMOSH on the other hand copped a big loss from The Valley of Hope. This could be a close game but The Dragons at home should have enough to get over the line. Westminster by Twenty-Six points.

Modbury v GAZA at Modbury

The Hawks are up and about and are coming off a good win against Seaton at Seaton. On the other hand, the Eagles have been competitive for three quarters in most games but have dropped off in the last. Playing at home the Hawks should get the biscuits, but the Eagles will take the fight up to them. To Win Hawks by Forty points

Seaton Ramblers v Pembroke at Seaton

This game will be a cracker with both teams performing well at this early stage but not getting the rewards. Seaton playing at home are hard to beat and this may just give the edge against the Kings. The visitors have the talent and could pinch it but Seaton in a close one. To Win Seaton by Ten points.

DIVISION 3

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Flinders Park v Unley Mercedes Jets at Flinders Park

This will be the match of the round with two form sides going head-to-head. Flinders Park is sitting third on the ladder while the Jets are one point below them sitting fourth. The Jets had a big win over the Kings while Flinders Park had a competitive game against Westminster. It will be hard to knock off Flinders Park at home, but The Jets might just get over the line in a close one. To Win the Jets by Six points

Scotch OC v Hope Valley at Scotch College

Scotch is coming off a good win at GAZA and if they can carry that form into this game at home, they may take it up to the Demons. The Demons have a strong forward line with Min and Nobes up front which will be difficult to contain. The Demons should be too strong in this one. To Win Hope Valley by Sixty points

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Round 5 Division 4

Mitcham v Kenilworth

The first half of this game was tight. Mitcham looked good early with their willingness to switch the play with confidence on their home ground. Mitcham kicked the first goal but after some toing and froing Kenilworth hit back. At quarter time Mitcham were one point in front and at half time the scores were still very close with Kenilworth holding a one straight kick advantage. In the second half Kenilworth took control and kicked 8 goals to three to run out comfortable 33 point winners. For Kenilworth strongly built forward Guiseppe Nirta kicked an impressive 6 goals and was also awarded best player honours. Shane Caputo also chimed in with 3 goals. That takes his tally to 10 from the 5 games that have been played. For Mitcham Max Smyth was once again in the goals kicking four. With a pleasing eye to the future young Kai Wilson received best player plaudits for the Hawks. This could prove to be an important away win for Kenilworth as it keeps them in touch with the top 5.

Morphettville Park v Lockleys

Lockleys showed they are far from a one man team with an impressive win over Morphettville Park without their major spearhead Ben Haren. After some pushing and shoving at the first bounce Lockleys forward Sam Ferguson marked strongly to kick the first of his 3 goals. He followed up shortly after with his second and Lockleys were able to control the game from then on and were never headed. Both teams had opportunities but Lockleys ran out 3 goal winners at the finish. Alex Barns once again started forward and kicked 2 goals for Morphy Parks and Nick Hankin was once again in the best players. He is having an excellent season as a hard inside midfielder. Half forward Liam Toohey also performed well for the kangaroos. The Lockleys brains trust would also be pleased with the spread of goal kickers. This win means that Lockleys sit atop the division 4 ladder and are flying early in their rookie division 4 year.

Plympton v Portland

The early season woes continued for the Thunder. Plympton oval has certainly not been a happy hunting ground in the past few years, and their difficulties continued in round 5. It was 7 shots a piece in the first quarter and Portland will rue their poor conversion in front of goal. Plympton welcomed tall target Peter Hoban back into the team he proved to be a difficult match up kicking 3 goals as did Lonnie Hampton despite starting in his usual spot at half back. Jamie West was the best player for Plympton providing them with plenty of drive. Nathan Caruso also continued his good form. For the Thunder evergreen Dale Laslett was best afield in a more comfortable position for him across half back. Club stalwart John Kondellos also played well. Plympton's early season form has been a little patchy but they are well and truly in the mix with the top 5 while Portland appear to be struggling in this grade.

Hectorville v Walkerville

The battle of the "villes" proved to be a tight affair. The difference between the two teams was rarely more than a goal and both teams had 17 scoring shots. Hectorvilles superior conversion proved to be the difference in the game. Jak Goudman-Glasson was once again a significant focal point for the hounds, and he ended the game with 4 goals. He now has 13 goals for the year. While at the other end co captain Sean Kuerschner and consistent spearhead Adam Proud both kicked three for the Cats. Hectorville's best were Liam Ryan off half back and midfielder Alex Rantoulis. Both provided significant drive while Walkies other co-captain Adam Law as judged their best. This loss placed Walkerville in a precarious early season position and keeps Hectorville in touch.

CBCOC v Pooraka

There is no longer an undefeated team in division 4 with CBCOC having an impressive upset victory against Pooraka. The CBCOC coaching staff had clearly done their homework and chose to put a hard tag on Pooraka ball magnet Frank Timpano. Timpano still showed his quality to be awarded best player honours. The game was up for grabs at three quarter time and it was CBCOC who outlasted to run out 22 point winners. Key forward Tyson Sarunic and Ronald Rankine both kicked five for their respective teams. Former Adelaide University defender Jack Strange gave constant rebound from across half back and Jonty Rutai was also impressive when he went into the ruck. For the Bulls Anthony Kube also performed well at half back. This loss has evened up the competition with three teams now 4 wins and 1 loss.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Gepps Cross vs Woodville South / 16.15 - 111 vs 9.4 - 58

Woody South travelled out to Duncan Fraser Reserve to take on an undefeated Gepps Cross side but still full on confidence off the back of a big win last week. The cats started off the game in strong fashion kicking 3 goals and leading the rams by a goal at quarter time, there was some belief around the group that they could be the ones to hand Gepps their first loss of the season. A little bit of tough love from the rams coach at quarter time seen the boys come out firing, booting 7 goals in the second term and taking a commanding 3 goal lead into the main break. Woody south were trying to find another gear quickly but besides the first quarter, this game was played completely on Gepps terms. Outscoring them in every quarter besides the first and once again putting the division on notice. Shane Faulkner played a stellar for the home team, while another one of their star recruits in Anthony Burgoyne, showed his class up forward booting 5 goals. For Woody South it was Dylan Gaylard and Tyler Wall-Waddell named their best 2, fighting hard all day but unfortunately that wasn't enough.

Elizabeth vs Trinity OS / 7.7 - 49 vs 15.13 - 103

Heading out to Agarna Park this week seen a couple of old rivals going head to head in a must win clash. Elizabeth producing their absolute best over the last fortnight coming away with 2 big wins against decent outfits while Trinity have been serviceable without results going their way since round 1. Both teams knew what was on the line and were ready from the outset, starting the game in a fast paced fierce fashion. Both teams full of young up and comers, playing on a big ground, it was always going to be about who can get the jump and withstand the fast paced game style of their opposition for longer. In this case it was Trinity who looked a class above for majority of the day and ran out the game 54 point winners. Brandon Ewing and Morgan Sumner both continued their strong form for the eagles, once again being among the best. While one of their new recruits in Bradley Kersten was named best on ground after kicking 6 goals. For the TOSers Owen John booted another 5 goals in a well rounded performance and Bradley Matters stood tall playing a pivotal role getting the boys over the line.

Blackfriars OS vs Eastern Park / 14.12 - 96 vs 11.11 - 77

In a game that was going to have a serious impact for both teams seasons, sitting one win a piece, this one did not disappoint. An arm wrestle from the get go, with some tough footy being played in the winter conditions. The difference was only one point heading into quarter time with Eastern Park leading the way. Considering the conditions, goals were still flying through and was looking like somewhat of a shoot out. Second quarter was very similar to the first, back and forth with no team wanting to roll over. The demons managed to stretch their lead out to 4 points at the main break but lost some key personnel in the first half which looked like it was going to come back and bite them. After half time Blackfriars started to play the game on their terms, restricting the Parkers to only 9 points while piling on 20 themselves and taking a 7 point lead heading into the main break. Carrying to many bigger bodies was starting to have an impact on Eastern Park, their ability to run out games was a huge weakness and teams in the division can sense that. The last quarter was much like the 3rd, Blackfriars having their way with the Demons and running out the game 19 points winners. Massive win for the Hounds and a very costly loss for the Demons. Ben sanders was instrumental for the home team being named best on ground while Callum Marchetto booted 5 goals to ensure their second win of the season. Eastern Parks experienced campaigners stood up on the weekend with Bruno O'loughlin and Matthew Paul being named among the best, but it's going to take some of their younger less experienced players to start playing well if they want to salvage their season. With not much depth and some big injuries to key players, things aren't looking great down at Dwight Reserve.

Chris Knapp gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Kilburn vs Colonel Light Gardens / 19.13 - 127 vs 7.11 - 53

Highly anticipated game between 2 of the top teams in the division, expect them both to be there at the business end of the season. Unfortunately for Colonel Light though, Saturday was all kilburn and the massive score line shows. Losing by over 10 goals will put a massive dent in the confidence of CLG, especially considering they are tipped to be one of the top teams in the division. Missing some key players hurts but will them players coming back be enough to bridge the 74 point gap? Kilburn have really hit their straps over the past few weeks, I find it hard to see a team that's going to be able to match them this season but looking forward to seeing their match up against Gepps Cross in a couple of weeks. Star players across every line and still more to come back into the team, everyone down at chic park can sense they are on the verge of something special and if they keep this up there's nothing stopping them! Corey Solly is in unreal form, kicking another 7 goals on the weekend to make it 17 in the last fortnight. Alex brackstone was named best on ground for the chics, another returning player who's having a big impact on the playing group. For Colonel Light Gardens it was yet again Stirling Phipps-Parsons being named best on ground, he's been unstoppable to date being named in the best players every game this season. Teams need to start looking at ways to stop his impact. Isaac Glasgow is another who's featured regularly in CLGs best players, booting another 4 goals on the weekend taking his tally to 16.

Pulteney vs West Croydon / 13.12 - 90 vs 13.11 - 89

Match of the round by far! An absolute thriller and both teams should be stoked with their output. Another couple of teams that only had one win under their belt before the weekend, knew there was plenty to play for and a real good chance to kick start their season. It was Pulteney who come out the blocks hardest in the first quarter kicking 4 goals and 5 behinds to lead the hawks by 13 points at the first change. The hawks jumped out of first gear after quarter time and took it right up to the blues but some wayward kicking seen them still trailing by 3 points at the main break. There was some sort of game going on here and one that was looking like going down to the wire. Again West Croydon looked the better side throughout the third quarter, booting another 5 goals and setting themselves up for an epic win, leading Pulteney by 10 points at the last change. It was going to take something special to swing this result as all the momentum was with the hawks. That was exactly what happened, the blues finding yet another gear to over run West Croydon in the last, kicking 4 goals and 6 behinds to finish off 1 point winners! What a finish and some heart break for West Croydon. Best players for Pulteney were Sheldon Currie who finished up with 4 goals and Josh Giddings who put in a massive 4 quarters to help his team get over the line. For West Croydon Joshua Harris continued his strong form kicking another 6 goals and being named best on ground. With another solid performance from Dion Doolan who kicked 4 himself and showed his class around the ground.

Round 6 predictions

Trinity OS vs Blackfriars OS

Couple of old scholars teams battling it out to remain in finals contention. Both with a couple of wins each, both coming off the back of solid wins last week. Blackfriars are a hard in and under side, while Trinity love running the ball and breaking lines. I predict this game to be an absolute belter but think Trinity run away with it and start carving their way into a top 5 finish. Trinity OS - 20 points

Colonel Light Gardens vs Eastern Park

These teams are currently at opposite ends of the scale, CLG sitting 3rd and have had some big wins across the first 5 rounds. Eastern Park have looked in almost every game but continue to fall away

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

when it matters most and only have one win under their belt, second to bottom on the ladder. The massive difference between the clubs is depth! Down at Colonel Light, the reserves are in a strong position second on the ladder. The demons reserves are yet to win a game and have barley registered scores in some of their losses! With key personnel missing for the Parkers, I just can't see them winning this game. CLG to flex their muscle and have a huge win against a struggling Eastern Park outfit. Colonel Light Gardens - 45+

Kilburn vs Pulteney

Kilburn are really starting to hit their peak and with more A graders to come back into the side, I can't see them dropping off any time soon. Pulteney have struggled to date with only a couple of wins under their belt, luckily for them it's a close division so they remain in contention for a top 5 finish. The blues won't trouble Kilburn out at Blair Athol Reserve, Corey Solly to kick another 5+ and the chics to post another huge win! Kilburn - 60+

Woodville South vs Elizabeth

Both these teams suffered huge losses last week and remain on two wins each. Elizabeth had a big fortnight claiming two decent scalps before being brought back to reality last week. Woodville South have been a roller coaster, been smashed in all three of their losses but then posted decent wins in the two games they've won. If that form is anything to go by, after the belting they copped on the weekend, I expect them to bounce back with a big win this week and push the Eagles further down the ladder. Woody South - 20 points

West Croydon vs Gepps Cross

The hawks remain at the bottom of the ladder after gaining promotion last year. Gepps Cross remain undefeated after narrowly missing a grand final last season. Although the hawks have showed glimpses of class and being a serious contender in the division, their ability to run out games and finish off the hard work has extremely disappointing. Gepps on the other hand have showed week in and week out why they expect to be there at the business end, showing the division exactly what it takes to be a serious contender. I have Gepps a class above almost every team in this division which is why I don't think the hawks stand a chance on the weekend. Gepps Cross - 50 points

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Brahma Lodge Vs Marion

Brahma Lodge took on Marion at home this week, a tough game that was always going to be tough for The Tigers, coming up against a tough Marion side that have been on fire so far this year. Brahma Lodge didn't start off great, only managing 1 behind in the opening quarter, and couldn't defend the force of Marion, as The Rams came to play and kicked 8 goals in the first quarter. The second quarter wasn't any better for Brahma Lodge, Marion continued to put the hammer down and added another 10 goals to their score, at the main break, Marion took a massive 116 point lead. Brahma Lodge struggled to keep up with the quality that Marion were playing, still goalless by the end of the third quarter, but defended reasonably better after the second half, keeping Marion down to just 6 goals in the third quarter. It took until the last quarter for Brahma Lodge to finally kick a goal, they kept defending well but Marion still kept running, booting another 7 goals and running out 197 point winners. A range of stars shining for Marion in this matchup, Bailey Stanborough was the best on ground, and kicked a goal. Mark Cripps and Seb Fairlie were close seconds for best afield, while Sam Streng and Adam Beaumont were also good in their sides win. William Cavallo and Tim Stewart were both good in front of goal, kicking 5 goals each, Charles Fleetwood booted 4 goals. Not much to celebrate for Brahma Lodge, but they had some stars shine through and show good signs, Jacobus Hendriks, Brandon Plannegger and Beau Mathews were the best for Brahma Lodge. Mitchell Nivison was the lone goal scorer for The Tigers. Marion takes on Central United at home next week, a tough matchup that will be a test for them. While Brahma Lodge have a shot at their first win when they take on Smithfield.

Central United Vs Adelaide Lutheran

A tough contest at Mofflin Reserve this match, with Central United taking on Adelaide Lutheran. Two top sides in the competition are out to prove they are here to play. Central United got off to a ripping start, booting 3 goals to 1 in the first quarter and setting themselves up for a good game in front of their home crowd. But the second quarter showed Adelaide Lutheran counter attack, keeping The Units to 1 goal and kicking 3 goals of their own, evening up the contest and going into halftime only down by 2 points. Adelaide Lutheran defended well in the second half, but couldn't capitalize on the scoreboard, not kicking a goal in the third quarter, Central United kicked 3 goals in the third quarter to take a 23 point lead into three quarter time. Adelaide Lutheran fought hard in the last quarter, kicking a goal but inaccuracy caused didn't help them, finishing 5.10. While Central United ran away and kicked 5 goals, ending up with a 44 point win. A great performance from Central United, with Mark Garner, Rory McMillan and Benjamin Russell all putting in a substantial effort in their side's win. Benjamin Taylor and Dean Steele were also good. Thomas Porter was the best in front of goal for The Units with 4 goals. Brayden Abbott, Steven Evans and Rory McMillan all kicked 2 goals each. Unlucky for Adelaide Lutheran, who couldn't fight hard enough for the win this week, Tom Gehling was the only multiple goalscorer for Adelaide Lutheran, Markus Mader and Ashley Goodall were the best afield. A good win for Central United as the push further up the ladder, they take on the second placed Marion next week in another tough matchup. Adelaide Lutheran take on Fitzroy at home, a chance to get back a win after Fitzroy's Draw with Salisbury this week.

Fitzroy Vs Salisbury

Fitzroy took on Salisbury at home this week, looking for a big win after a tough loss to Greenacres last week. A tough matchup from the first bounce, Fitzroy came out firing and were eager to get on the board early, but Salisbury kept fighting and stayed right behind Fitzroy, The Lions taking a 9 point lead into the first break. Fitzroy kept working hard throughout the second quarter and got up to a handy 30 point lead at the main break, although accurate goal kicking could have sealed the match. Salisbury came out after halftime and fought back hard, blitzing Fitzroy and keeping them goalless in the third quarter, and taking a 2 point lead going into the final term. Fitzroy had many opportunities to seal the game but couldn't kick straight, which potentially cost them the game, both sides fought hard in the last quarter, kicking 4 goals each but in the end nothing could separate them. The match ending in the first dramatic draw for the season. Both sides fought hard all day, Fitzroy keeping the momentum for the first half before Salisbury fought back in the second half, Fitzroy's best players for the day were Nathaniel Forby, Dylan Darley and Patrick Skeer. Patrick Skeer was also the best in front of goal for The Lions with 3 goals. A disappointing result for Salisbury after a hard fought comeback, Shayne Scanlon was the best for Salisbury, while Nathan Duncan and Michael Keenihan were also up amongst the best players. Nathan Duncan also booted 4 goals, while Josh Mann kicked 3. A tough result for both sides, one of the games of the season and both sides looking to get a win next week to redeem themselves. Fitzroy have a tough matchup against Adelaide Lutheran next week, while Salisbury take on the undefeated Greenacres in another hard game.

Rosewater Vs Greenacres

Rosewater hosted the top side in Greenacres this week, a tough ask for them coming up against the best side so far in the comp. From the first quarter both sides started well, Rosewater the major underdogs in this game took it up to Greenacres and stayed right with them. Greenacres took a 12 point win into the first break. Rosewater continued to play well in the second term, defending Greenacres well and keeping them to just 1 goal, setting up for a big second half. Greenacres stepped on the gas in the third term, keeping Rosewater goalless and booting 5 goals to get a solid lead going into the final quarter. Once again Greenacres showed why they are the best side in the competition, keeping Rosewater to just 1 goal and booting another 4 to run away with a 48 point win. A massive effort for Rosewater, playing so well against the top team in the competition, and never giving up until the end. Jackson Morrish and Daniel Clarke were the best for Rosewater, Michael McInerney also very good, while Damien Newchurch kicked 2 goals. Lachlan Price, Ricky Smith and Kostandinos Georgiadis were the best in a good performance for Greenacres. Matthew Taylor was the best goalkicker for The Dragons booting 5 goals. A good win for Greenacres after Rosewater came out playing well in the first half, they'll take on Salisbury next week in hopes to keep their undefeated run going. While for Rosewater they take on St Paul's after they had their first win of the season last week.

St Paul's Vs Smithfield

St Paul's took on Smithfield at home this week, and played a magnificent game, getting a great win for their first of the season. St Paul's took their opportunity to grab their first win right from the first bounce of this match, kicking 10 goals in the opening quarter and getting a great start to the match. Smithfield were quick to recover and bounced back reasonably in the second quarter, keeping St Paul's to 4 goals while kicking 3 of their own and making it difficult for St Paul's, but still taking an 11 goal lead into the second half. St Paul's stepped it up again in the second half, kicking 8 goals in the third term to get a substantial lead and set themselves up for a big win. Smithfield got back onto the scoreboard in the last quarter, kicking 2 goals, but couldn't hold back St Paul's as they kicked another 9 goals and ran away with a huge 160 point win. A big first win for St Paul's, with many players playing well. The biggest standout was Ben Lennon, playing well up forward and kicking a club record 15 goals, while Riley Henriks and Nikolas Papaioannou were also good in their team's win, Papaioannou also kicking 5 goals. Another tough loss for Smithfield, but they continue to show great signs, Adam Varcoe working hard all day and earning best afield, Anthony Thomason and Issac Keightley also amongst the best. Issac Keightley and Tyrell-Michael Weetra both kicked 2 goals each. Another tough loss for Smithfield, they take on Brahma Lodge next week, a real chance at getting their first win. While St Paul's take on Rosewater.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Round 6 Previews

Adelaide Lutheran Vs Fitzroy

Adelaide Lutheran takes on Fitzroy at home this week, a tough matchup that will be a good contest for both sides. Both sides are coming off losses and will be eager for a win, making it a must win match for both sides as they fight to get higher on the ladder. Adelaide Lutheran went down to Greenacres last week after playing well all game and keeping up with them they'll have some confidence after coming close to the top side. While for Fitzroy, they're coming off a draw with Salisbury, a disappointing outcome after dominating for much of the game and will be keen to make up for that with a good win against Fitzroy. Tip: Adelaide Lutheran by 20-30

Greenacres Vs Salisbury

Greenacres host Salisbury this week, both sides will be wanting a good win after rough matches last week. Greenacres got the win against Rosewater last week, but didn't play at their best and let The Doggies get close throughout the match, while Salisbury are coming off a draw and will be itching to get a win back on the road. Greenacres have been the side to beat all year, not losing a match all year although coming close a couple times. Salisbury have had a great start to the season and will be ready for a fight on the road, but it will be a big ask for Salisbury to get the job done against the top side at their home deck. Tip: Greenacres by 25-35

Rosewater Vs St Paul's

Two sides that have struggled to find form this season, Rosewater host St Paul's hoping to get another good win. After a massive win against Smithfield, St Paul's will be full of confidence to get a win on the road, and start getting their season on a roll. Rosewater have struggled to get a win this season, only currently on one win, but playing gold brands of footy throughout the season so far. This will be a tough contest, Rosewater plays well at home but can't get the job done against tougher sides, this will be a good tough contest for them. While St Paul's are coming off a good win and full of confidence, they have a chance to grab a second win in a row. Tip: St Paul's by 30-50

Marion Vs Central United

Marion takes on Central United this week, a great test for both sides. Marion have been a powerhouse so far this season and have proven themselves against good sides, while Central United have had on and off games so far, playing well in many games but not to their best, they are now starting to find some form. This will be a gold test for Central United to get them a good win against a quality side and show they can match with the best in the league. For Marion, they have been on a roll this year, currently sitting second only behind Greenacres who are yet to win a game. A tough matchup that will be an interesting outcome. Marion seems too strong at the moment as they continue a great run of games. Tip: Marion by 12-24

Smithfield Vs Brahma Lodge

Smithfield and Brahma Lodge have continued to struggle all season, both sides coming up against good sides and always fighting hard. Smithfield are coming off a big loss to St Paul's, another side that has struggled this year, while Brahma Lodge took on Marion last week, and also took a massive loss. Both sides will take all they can into this match, in a chance to get their first win of the season. A tough match for both sides, both hungry for a win, I think it will be a tough matchup.

Tip: Smithfield by 10-20

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Mawson Lakes v Ingle Farm

A disappointed and somewhat disappointing Mawson Lakes were handed a hefty HECS debt as Ingle Farm handed out football lesson winning by massive 112 points, thus boosting their percentage in what is a see-sawing top 4 at present. Whilst reading the scores on paper, one could be excused for thinking the Saints didn't arrive on field until quarter time, as the Bulldogs piled on 8.3 goals to no score in the opening term. A two goal apiece second quarter was the closest Ingle Farm got to a contest all game, in the second half things returned to one way traffic in an all too easy day at the office. Anthony Jenkinson (3) again stood out as the lone star for Mawson's but unfortunately his efforts around goals weren't enough to put a dent in the Bulldogs armour. Jack Delchau (1) and Mason Pitt dominated around ground whilst Big Bad Bradley Sanderson(9) took care of the goals, Star Devin Payne (5) chiming in with a handful himself. Ingle Farm too strong for the Division's bottom side.

Para Hills v Mitchell Park

Para Hills, measured and clinical, were in cruise control all day as they ended Mitchell Parks unbeaten run of 1 in a row with a 65 point win on home soil. Inaccuracy around goals could have made the Lions bad day – terrible, but in the end a steady 4 goals a quarter effort was all that was required to get the win. Rhys Clark (3) kicked his average goals per game quota for Mitchell park, Jai Thompson the best for the losing side. The big Reds welcomed back Inspirational Captain Lynton Power and Bull Cooper Binks into the fold with both playing exceptional games, best afield Daniel Weetra (10) did as Daniel Weetra does, kicking his highest bounty for the season so far, whilst the ever reliable Jason Hay helped himself to a couple of snags as reward for his hard work around the ground. Future HOF Cooper Underwood continued his great form with another gut busting display owning the wing at EXP Realty Oval.

Hackham v Houghton

A tested Houghton steadied the ship in the second half of this to secure an important 20 point win against the spirited Hackham. The Raiders could have had the game on ice a lot earlier had they kicked better in the first quarter. After keeping their opponents goalless in the opening quarter they themselves were unable to capitalise kicking 1.4. After fighting back in the second quarter, Hackham where again held scoreless in the third which ended up being the difference when the final siren sounded. Dylan Skuse was the Hawks best, Jarrad Collison (3) their leading goal scorer. Cameron Evans and Nathan Collier were the best for the Raiders, Key Forward Aiden Pitt (3) found himself back in familiar territory picking up three majors as the Raiders enjoyed the long trip home with a win under their belt, more importantly an away win.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Flinders Uni

OSBL came very close to getting the win over Flinders Uni in a thrilling encounter down at Morphet Vale Oval. Coming off a big win the week before OSBL were close all game, but Flinders, who've been good the first 4 rounds, were able to hold them away just enough to squeeze out a hard earned 10-point win. Jesse Meekins an Austin Wurst (3) competed all day for the Lions as did the rest of the OSBL lads, Flinders on the day just that little bit better. Todd Andrews and Sean Brown starred for Flinders, helped along by another bag for Vice Captain Luke Walton, taking his impressive goal tally for the season to 23.

Round 6 Preview

Mawson Lakes v Mitchell Park

A loss against the Saints would make things very hard for Mitchell Park to keep in touch with the top half of the table, early call? Maybe, but given Mawson's form so far and the probability that most sides, especially those in the top half will take the points against the struggling Saints, a loss here would be very damaging. Skipper Brandon Walczak would be imploring his boys for a better effort than the one they put up against Para Hills and more like the one against Hackham the week prior. Let's call a spade a spade here, and I say this with no disrespect, Mawson's are struggling this season, but there have been glimpses even against Ingle Farm last week that they can hold their own. The problem currently is they don't have the ability to sustain their best efforts for long enough, thus they fall out of games. Anthony Jenkinson and Darren King have carried the can for Mawson's all season and they'll need the other 19 to come along with them for the ride if they are going to get that elusive first win for the season! After a massive loss last week, we are going to see one of two possible Mawson Lakes outfits – a demoralised one or spirited one. Call me a footy romantic but I love a great storyline! Which is why I am backing Mawson Lakes to win by 11 points.

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Houghton vs O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

Houghton are back at home after grinding out a 20 point win the week prior, no doubt confident enough in their ability that they can get the job done over OSBL. After just falling short against Flinders Uni last week, OSBL know they'll need to bring all of that and a little more if they are going to secure a victory against Houghton. A win for OSBL keeps them in more than in reach of a top four position and more importantly would give them the confidence to take a few more big scalps as the season progresses. If you love goal kickers like I do, you'll have your eye on Aiden Pitt (Houghton) v Austinn Wurst (OSBL) the two main forwards for each team, both capable of kicking a bag on their days. I expect Houghton to be too strong for OSBL. Kye Vandermoer and Kodi Sparks to play an important part in getting the Raiders over the line – Houghton by 20 points.

Flinders University v Para Hills

Flinders Uni started the season kicking a truckload of goals and impressing early. Whilst they are on the same ledger as the other big teams at 4-1, the goals have dried up and the wins haven't been as big. Some will say it was their favourable draw in the first 3 rounds, others will say the weathers turned wet. I'm of the opinion that Flinders would have kicked 20 plus against all those opponents regardless what round they were played, they just happened to be the first 3 rounds. Every time one of these big 4 sides play each other, the opportunity presents itself to the winner to assert themselves as a leader of the pack, this match up is no different. Luke Warland, Bayley Pink, Cooper Henshaw and Shaun Brown all pose threats to the Big Red's plans of victory, keeping Warland quiet will help the Roo's cause greatly. On the other side Flinders will have a plan to quell the Divisions best forward, Daniel Weetra like every side he's played against has, a task easier made than applied. After an acute bout of leather poisoning in his right hand Pendlebury-Clone Terry Van Ristell is ready to dominate the inside ball and unleash Para Hills dangerous run and carry. I want a shoot-out, my prediction - 10 goals between Warland and Weetra for their respective sides. Para Hills by 17 points.

Hackham v Ingle Farm

Hackham face the mammoth task of hosting the up and about Ingle Farm in what could be a long day for the Hawks. Ingle Farm will go to Hackham without most of the Rowe Park Rowdy behind them but will have enough on field to get the job done. Luke Allan has been outstanding for the hawks this season it needs to be noted, but the Hawks are just not at the Bulldogs level, the only question here for Hackham is – Honorary Loss? Or Demolition? Trust me when I say this, I would love nothing more than to see Hackham take the Bulldogs down a peg and steal a win (all in good jest Ingle Farmers!) that's from the heart! My head says it won't happen. Devin Payne is on fire at the moment, Sanderson has a taste for the goals and will be keen for another feast, oh! and then you have Terrell Rigney to contend with also, tough ask Hawkers, but I wish you well. Ingle Farm by 75 points
