Crows to make it two in a row over rising Suns.

The Crows returned to their brilliant best last Sunday evening. Four solid quarters of football enabled the Crows to record a hard fought 17-point win over second placed Brisbane.

Despite the difficult conditions, the Crows had winners all over Adelaide Oval. I ak Rankine played his best game for the Crows. He scored 2 goals of his own and had 23 disposals. This is an outstanding return for the Crows' small forward. Some commentary experts ranked him as best on ground.

by
Nick Smith

It really was the Rachele and Rankine show across the half forward line for the Crows. Both players were dominant inside forward 50. They were ably supported by Riley Thilthorpe, Taylor Walker and Jake Soligo. The Crows defense was under extreme pressure all night. The Lions amassed 66 inside 50's which is well above their season average of 57. To restrict the lions to only 10 goals from those 66 entries, is a great reflection on how the team defense of Adelaide, work together to create turnovers, and apply pressure to opposition forwards.

Adelaide's disposal efficiency was heavily criticized after their loss to the Bulldogs. Pleasingly, this was much better against the Lions with 70 percent of Adelaide's disposal hitting a target. Brisbane was restricted to just 63 percent. Luke Pedler was influential throughout the match. Not only did he start the scoring for the crows, but he also kicked a goal in the last quarter under pressure, to seal the win for his team. What we are now seeing with the Crows is a real hardness at the contest, and a desire for two way running. The Crows look fit and have looked fit since round one. Their lack of injuries and ability for players to back up each week is a testament to Darren Burgess and the high-performance team.

The Crows head to Darwin to play the rejuvenated Suns. The Suns defeated the Bulldogs last weekend in Darwin, so the Crows will need to be prepared for a contest, and humid conditions.

Charlie Ballard and Jack Lukosius and in brilliant form and will be wanting to continue their strong form, to make the Suns Darwin trip, two wins from two games. Despite the effort and resilience of the Suns, the Crows have only been defeated twice by the Suns in their 16 matches. The fast attacking footy the Crows are playing is on par with Collingwood, and the Crows should account for the rebuilding Suns. It will be the first time I ak Rankine plays against his former club. The Crows could also be strengthened by the return of Mitch Hinge, and Brodie Smith.

The Crows are two games away from the mid-season bye, which will provide relief for the players as they attack the second half of the season. Winning in Darwin is critical, if the Crows want to challenge for a place in September. To all Crows fans, don't book September Holidays just yet, things are getting exciting.

Highlight of the week:

I really enjoyed watching Riley Thilthorpe take a couple of important contested marks in the first quarter. It was his first game back since Mother's Day, and he needed to hit scoreboard early.

Hit it he did. The Crows hit the front after his second goal, and never looked back. He did well as the second ruck to Riley O'Brien, which makes his position in the side even more valuable.

MY TIP – Adelaide – 8-29 Points.

Power tame Tigers

The Port Adelaide winning streak has been extended to an equal club record eight games after a hard fought 10-point victory over Richmond at the MCG.

The Power started strongly in blustery conditions booting five goals to one before Richmond fought back in the second and third terms to close the margin to eight points at the final change.

In an emotional day for the Tigers in their first match since the departure of Damien Hardwick they continued to provide a fierce contest in the last term, but the Power showed great resolve to bank four points and move into outright second on the AFL ladder.

Tim Taranto was the best player on the ground. The Richmond midfielder gathered 34 disposals and kicked four goals, but the Power midfield still held their own with the Power winning clearances and contested possessions.

Six Port Adelaide players registered 20 disposals or more. Zak Butters again best for Port finishing with 32 disposals, a goal, four clearances and six score involvements.

The makeshift Power forward-line for another week missing a host of players spread the load with 10 individual goal kickers. Back on the Adelaide Oval home deck this week to face Hawthorn the Power will have Skipper Tom Jonas available from suspension. Travis Boak, Charlie Dixon and Todd Marshall will also be potential inclusions.

Port Adelaide has now won five games this season by under two goals and five wins have come against teams currently sitting inside the top eight which has historically been a concern.

Just maybe there is something different about the 2023 version of Port Adelaide.

Norwood will make the trek to Convenience Oval this Saturday to take on Central Districts. Both teams sit outside the top five, however the Dogs have looked promising, beating North Adelaide, Adelaide and West Adelaide. In stark contrast, Norwood have lost every game this season, suffering what can only be described as a premiership hangover. In season 2022 Norwood were a defensive powerhouse, with a brute attack on the football. This has disappeared in season 2023, while the Dogs have a look in their eyes that they mean business. As such, this match is set to be one to watch. Can Norwood revive last seasons form Or will the Dogs continue their competitive nature and overcome the wooden spooners

by
Wilson McShane

Central Districts have not played finals since 2017. Fortunately for Doggies fans, their club posts a genuine threat if they can make it to September as Centrals sit one spot outside the top 5, having won three games. This is set to eclipse last year's horror season, where the Dogs won only four matches. This success has largely been due to the Dogs attitude that they are never out of a game. For example, Centrals have lost disposals, disposal efficiency, tackles and scoring accuracy three out of the last four weeks. Yet, they have won inside 50's three out of the past four weeks. As a result, Centrals largest losing margin this season has been 26-points. This has been a major improvement as their biggest losing margin at the same time last year was 98-points. Coach, Paul Thomas' strength has largely come through his sides defence. In 2022 Centrals were ranked eighth in defence. This season they are ranked fourth. Through Kendall, Illes and Buechner, Centrals have been able to repel the ball out of their defensive half and transition it forward into the hands of Grace and Munn.

While Centrals have been ultra-competitive this season, Norwood have not. In 2022, Norwood won 12 matches in the home-and-away season, as well as the grand final. This season, Norwood have been dismal. They have not won a game and have an average losing margin of 33. Their strength last season was their defence (number one ranked team). This year, they are the second worst defensive team in the competition. Likewise, they were ranked fourth in offense last year, whereas they are now comfortably the worst offensive team. Fortunately, for premiership coach, Jade Rawlings, his side has progressively improved. In the last three weeks, Norwood's average losing margin has dropped to 14. In addition, the Redleg's have won clearances every week (in this period) and disposals, disposal efficiency and inside 50's two out of three weeks. However, Rawlings will be disappointed in his sides inability to apply elite pressure onto the opposition, as Norwood has had less tackles than their opponents for the past four games. This has meant opposition sides have been able to control the ball (Norwood have had less marks than the opposition every game this year) and therefore score, due to the lack of pressure (opposition sides have had a higher scoring accuracy than Norwood six out of the last seven matches).

If Norwood are to win this match, they will need to rectify their lack of pressure. Conversely, Centrals will have to uphold theirs. Unfortunately for Dogs fans, I feel Norwood's continual improvement will see them hungry for an upset win. Having played in every final's series since 2016, the cliché you cannot keep a champion team down for long has never been truer. As such, I feel Norwood will win this match, despite Centrals impressive start to the season. Norwood by 1-12.

Woodville West-Torrens continue to climb up the ladder in 2023.

Round 8 of the SANFL sees Woodville West-Torrens travel to Alberton Oval to take on Port Adelaide on Sunday June 4th at 2:10pm. The Eagles are currently on a two-match win streak and would be looking to improve that and make it three in a row if they can become victorious away from home.

by Jakob Mathieson

The Eagles last weekend travelled to Richmond Oval and defeated West Adelaide by 56 points in a 14.10 94 to 5.8 38 triumph. The visitors kicked four goals to one in the opening quarter to take a commanding 21 point lead into the first break, which all but set the tone for how the rest of the match would play out as the home side were unable to capitalise being held to only 3 behinds will conceding 4 goals themselves to give the Eagles a comfortable 45 point lead at halftime, with the scores being 1.4 10 to 8.7 55 to Woodville.

Former Crow, James Rowe, had a terrific game up forward for the visitors finishing with 3.2 and 26 possessions as well as 6 marks and 112 ranking points. The 23-year-old received plenty of help and support around the ground from his teammates as Riley Knight (28 disposals and six clearances) and Adam D'Aloia (27 disposals) were magnificent in the midfield combining for 55 possessions between them. Eagles skipper, Joseph Sinor, who was also the SA State captain, continued his excellent run of form racking up 24 possessions, a game-high 14 tackles and a goal.

West Adelaide's Callum Park, who is playing more of a rebounding defender type role this season, continues to lead the way, statistically, as he finished with 25 disposals and acting captain, Isaac Johnson finished with 21 possessions and 9 marks for the hosts.

Despite showing a lot of fight and spirit in each previous outing, this has to be one of West Adelaide's most disappointing defeats so far this season under first year mentor Adam Harlett, who is now sitting 8th with a two and five win-loss record after 7 rounds.

The Bloods will now travel to Ingle Oval as they face a tough test against the unbeaten ladder leaders, Sturt, who were able to hold on and claim a huge victory away from home downing the Panthers by 2 points in Round 7.

For the Eagles, this victory sees them improve to 3 and 4 and has them currently sitting inside the top 5 with only percentage separating them from both Central and Port Adelaide, whom they face next weekend.

Speaking of Port Adelaide, they travelled to Prospect Oval on the weekend to take on last season's runners-up in North Adelaide, who despite allowing two goals in the final 2 minutes of the game, held on to claim a thrilling eight-point victory.

The 15.10 100 to 14.8 92 triumph happened thanks in large part to reigning Magarey Medalist, Aaron Young and a mammoth five-goal haul to Bob Quinn Medalist, Noah Casalini, as the Roosters, on multiple occasions in the second half, looked to break the game open but were never able to as the plucky, but persistent Magpies, coached by former Richmond AFL player, Tyson Goldsack, kept coming and midway through the final term, cut the deficit to within 7 points.

Both the Roosters and Magpies kicked 5 goals each in the second quarter as the visitors were able to maintain a slight 7 point lead heading into the sheds at the main break.

SANFL

Port Adelaide

Eagles

Alberton Oval - 4 Jun 2.10pm (Sunday)

Despite winning the third quarter by 16 points, having kicked 4.7 to Port's 2.3, the Roosters were never able to well and truly put this game to bed so to speak as they only led by 9 points at the final change, despite dominating possession in almost all categories in that quarter.

North's Aaron Young found some of his 2022 form as he produced his best game of the season to date, racking up 30 possessions, 12 clearances and kicking 2 goals to claim best afield honors. Dyson Hilder (12 disposals and 4.1) and Noah Casalini (16 and 5.2) combined for 9.3 from 28 disposals, with the latter kicking three of his five when it mattered most, in the final quarter.

by Jakob Mathieson

Trent Dumont continues to improve each and every week as he collected 25 possessions and kicked a goal for the visitors.

The victory sees North improve to 4 wins and 3 losses as they bounced back from a very disappointing defeat against Glenelg the week before. North now look ahead to next week where they will host a struggling South Adelaide outfit who went down in heartbreaking fashion by 2 points to unbeaten Sturt at Noarlunga Oval on the weekend.

The Magpies suffered their 4th loss in seven games and sees them sit 1 game and percentage out of the top 5 with a massive game against the inform Eagles at home to come.

The Eagles will be looking to continue their great start to the season as they aim for their 4th win of the year against the Magpies in Round 8.

My prediction: Eagles by 15

ROUND 7

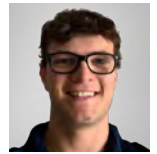

South Adelaide 7.7 (49) def by Sturt 7.9 (51)

The Double Blues remained undefeated on the weekend, rallying in the third quarter to snatch a 2-point win on the road against a competitive Panthers' outfit. South Adelaide seemed unfa ed by Bryce Gibbs' extended absence in the first half, building a handy two goal lead at the main change, but a four goal third term by Sturt got the game back on their terms, as they established a 6-point lead heading into the last quarter. In an absolute battle of a last term, there was only one goal kicked, to South Adelaide, while Sturt registered two vital behinds which ended up being the final margin.

Lachlan Burrows was clinical up forward for the Double Blues, kicking 3.0 while also pinch-hitting in the ruck for 9 hitouts, while Casey Voss had arguably his best game for the year with 24 disposals, 11 marks and 10 rebound 50's. But the standout was Tom Lewis, who battled all game long in the midfield, tallying 20 disposals and laying an absurd 21 tackles as he consistently gave Sturt opportunities to get the ball forward.

South Adelaide executed their gameplan well for the most part, beating Sturt at their own game winning the possession and tackle counts and they outscored the ladder leaders in three out of the four quarters, however that one discrepancy in the third was enough to cost the Panthers an upset win.

Mitch O'Neill was at his best with 25 disposals and 10 tackles, while Zach Sproule was their best option up forward with three goals of his own. While the loss is disappointing as they had it on their terms for a majority of the game, the Panthers should not go away disheartened they took it to the best team in the competition and, although they are 2-5 will be around the mark come finals time in 2023.

ROUND 8

Sturt v West Adelaide

Wigan Oval, Sunday 4th June, 2:10pm

Sunday's clash at Wigan Oval sees the Double Blues, riding a seven game unbeaten streak, host a struggling West Adelaide, who are fresh off a 56-point drubbing by the Eagles at home last week.

Off the back of consistent performances from their engine room, fuelled by Tom Lewis, James Battersby and Patrick Wilson among others, Sturt have enjoyed a perfect start to 2023 and have their eyes set on a premiership come September. Their obstacle this week in the Bloods should be a game the Double Blues take care of at home, and might be a necessary percentage boost as Glenelg (6-1) and Adelaide (5-2) both have the edge in percentage if Sturt were to drop a game or two.

With quite a young line-up, West Adelaide have struggled to get their hands on the footy of late, losing 269-368 in the disposal count to Woodville-West Torrens last round. With Sturt's game style possession heavy as well, it could spell another large discrepancy in those totals come Sunday. If the Bloods are to pull off the upset, they need to limit the impact of Sturt's hungry midfielders. If the ball is congested, the Sturt midfielders are elite at applying pressure and winning the footy. Playing an uncontested brand of footy, with short lead-up kicks and spacing the ground, would be a way to combat this relentless style. Unfortunately, the Double Blues' experience throughout their line-up may prove too difficult to overcome for the young Bloods.

At home, Sturt should dispose of West Adelaide in comfortable fashion, and as we approach the midway point of the season, these wins against lower clubs will prove telling as the Double Blues will need every point of percentage they can muster in order to stay ahead of the Tigers and Adelaide surely Sturt can't stay unbeaten forever, can they Round 8 of the SANFL heads down to Stratarama Stadium in Glenelg to host what is anticipated as the matchup of the round. The in-form Glenelg Tigers host the third place Adelaide Crows in a match that has all the makings of a classic, with the winner taking the reigns for number one contender to league leaders Sturt. After losing the opening game of the season, Glenelg have won six in a row to charge into second spot on the SANFL ladder to end round 7, while the Crows have a 5-2 record after dropping a game two weeks ago however sit third on the ladder. We have been ever so lucky with the amount of top three battles so far this season, this one may just be the best of the lot.

by Austinn Lane

Glenelg had a strong and gutsy win last week against an eager Central District side, scraping across the line by 9 points come the final siren. Glenelg started strong taking a 3-point lead into the first break, mainly due to an inaccurate quarter from Centrals, finishing with one goal from their seven scoring shots. The second quarter indicated that there was a favoured end for scoring at the ground, with Centrals scoring two goals to Glenelg's one behind in the second, giving Glenelg a 8-point deficit heading into the main break. It only took 90 seconds to generate a response after halftime, with Lachlan Hosie kicking a goal to open the third quarter and bring Glenelg within two points early on, followed by two goals from young forward Matthew Coulthard to give the momentum to the Tigers. Two more goals for the quarter saw Glenelg surge to a 15-point lead heading into the final term, with Central District having the scoring end to finish the game. After a standoff to begin the quarter, Centrals eventually kicked the opening goal some eight minutes into the quarter to bring it to single digits, bringing a collective roar around Convenience Oval, before following it up with another just minutes later to leave the margin at three points with over half the quarter to play. While the Centrals fans were cheering on their boys, the Tigers fans were sitting on the edge of their seats chewing fingernails, fearing the game would soon slip out of their grasp. Enter the hero for the day, Matthew Coulthard. A handball from Liam McBean allowed Coulthard a clean snap at goal, sinking the hearts of Centrals fans as Glenelg fans rose from their seats. It was only halfway through the quarter however, the game was played between the 50 metre marks for the remainder, with not another scoring shot for the whole game, resulting in a season defining win for Glenelg, Matthew Coulthard finished with four goals from his eight disposals. Luke Partington led the team in disposals (36) and marks (8), in what was a strong performance across half-back. Matthew Snook was prolific in the midfield, collecting 27 disposals of his own while having 8 marks and 10 tackles to cap off an all-round performance.

Adelaide bounced back strong on the Friday Night stage after a close loss to Sturt two weeks ago, defeating a struggling Norwood outfit by 24 points. The first quarter was a tight contest with neither team recording a goal in the opening term, with the Crows winning the behind battle, leading 3-1 at quarter time. The struggle for the Crows continued into the second quarter, with a further five behinds being recorded to bring their total to 8 behinds for the half. Norwood however found their kicking boots in the second, kicking three goals straight to take a 5-point lead into halftime after the Crows recorded their first goal late in the quarter. After a rev up about their kicking, the Crows come out and opened the scoring with a major at the six-minute mark to get the side back on track. The Crows kicked two more majors for the quarter to record the only goals in the quarter and take a handy 13-point lead heading into the last term. All hope was knocked out of Norwood in the opening two minutes, with Lachie Gollant kicking a goal to open the quarter. If they had any slight glimmer of hope, it would all be lost by halfway through the quarter with two more Crows goals, extending the lead beyond five goals. Just minutes later, two quickfire Norwood goals saw some hope restored amongst fans around the stadium that the impossible may just be possible, but a late Sam Berry goal put the game to bed, with the Crows running away 24-point winners. Lachie Gollant had a big night, finishing with 21 disposals and 7 marks.

It could have been made a bigger night had he kicked straighter, also recording 2.3 for the evening. Harry Schoenberg continues to put his hand up for senior side selection week in and week out, recording 29 disposals, 6 tackles, 5 inside 50s and 4 clearances on route to his best a-field performance. Sam Berry had a strong game in the middle with 25 disposals, 8 clearances and a goal as he also pushes for a senior side recall. Matt Crouch led the team in disposals (30), pairing it with 6 tackles and 5 clearances.

by Austinn Lane

Looking forward to the weekend, the Tigers do have the home ground advantage, however it is possible they go in as underdogs against a strong Adelaide outfit. The Crows have some elite midfield power and often get the upper hand on their opponents in the middle. That looks to be the case this week, but Glenelg certainly have the players who can bring their top effort game style and punish the Crows with strength through the middle. Glenelg have one of the stronger forward lines in the competition with names such as Matthew Coulthard, Lachie Hosie and Liam McBean, who can all hurt the Adelaide defence with their smooth skills and elite goal kicking. They also have their star Luke Partington down back who has been prolific all season. The Crows can win by utilising their tackling pressure around the ground, creating that extra perceived pressure on the Glenelg players as they have done in majority of their games this season. Whatever happens weather wise on Saturday afternoon, just know that it will be a cracker of a game down in Glenelg.

North Adelaide overcome stubborn South Brilliant

North Adelaide host a desperate South Adelaide side intent on snapping a five game losing streak in Sunday's round eight clash at Prospect Oval.

The Roosters responded following back-to-back losses with an eight point victory over a spirited Port Adelaide last Saturday, whilst the Panthers' season continued to go from bad to worse with a nail-biting two point loss to competition pacesetters Sturt.

by
Tyler Maund

Roosters ruckman Mitch Harvey led from the front early in his side's arm wrestle with the Magpies, kicking the Roosters' first two goals of the game as they trailed by six points at the first break. It was a tight contest throughout, with a game-high margin of just 13-points separating the two sides shortly before Roosters star Aaron Young kicked truly to trim the margin back to six on the half-time siren.

Despite not capitalising on all of their opportunities, the Roosters outscored the Magpies 31-15 in the third quarter to take a nine point lead into the final change. Three last quarter goals to AFL Mid-season Draft hopeful Noah Casalini ensured that the Roosters withstood any late charge from the visitors, as they held on to claim their fourth win of the season and consolidate their spot in the top five of the ladder.

Although the winning margin was only eight points, North Adelaide controlled most key areas of the game, dominating possession 372-290 and winning the clearances 36-28.

The Roosters also had nine more tackles than the Magpies despite owning more of the football. A plethora of players starred for the Roosters in their win, highlighted by an immense performance from former GWS Giant Noah Casalini, who finished the day with five goals in a match-winning role.

Tall forward Dyson Hilder (four goals) also produced a season-best performance, as the two forwards combined for nine majors. Just as impressive was midfielder Aaron Young, collecting 30 disposals including two goals and 12 clearances. It was an even spread of ball-winners for the Roosters, who had five players record over 25 disposals.

South Adelaide

Prospect Oval - 4 Jun 2.10pm (Sunday)

South Adelaide was a fast starter in its match against an all-conquering Sturt side, kicking the first three goals of the game to skip out to an 18-point margin early on. The Panthers led by seven points at quarter time, and held a 12-point advantage at half-time before the Double Blues grinded them down in the second half. Sturt kicked four goals to one in the third quarter, and despite South Adelaide keeping them goalless in the final term, were able to hold on to a two point lead.

by
Tyler Maund

The Panthers threatened to steal the game late as Ben Heaslip looked to send them deep inside forward with 50 with seconds remaining, but a match saving tackle from Sturt's Casey Voss thwarted any danger of a late challenge. It was a frustrating loss for coach Jarrad Wright's side who looked set to cause an upset for most of the afternoon.

The Panthers won the disposal count 304-256 and also edged the Double Blues in tackles 103-100 whilst splitting forward entries 37 apiece.

Former West Coast midfielder Mitch O'Neill led the way for the Panthers with 25 disposals and 10 tackles, whilst forward Zachary Sproule continued his great form since arriving from GWS with three goals.

Kobe Mutch (24 disposals, eight marks), Eamon Wilkinson (18 disposals, 13 tackles) and Damon Freitag (two goals) also played pivotal roles in the tight loss. Every match is beginning to loom as a must win now for a South Adelaide side that is sitting at 2-5 and ninth on the ladder entering round eight.

The last time these two sides met it was an incredibly even contest that went down to the wire, with Ben Heaslip kicking the winner for the Panthers to hand them a two point win. Both sides were arguably deserving of a victory last weekend, but unfortunately for the Panthers it was only the Roosters that were on the right side of the equation when the final siren sounded.

Similar performances this week will see a great contest at Prospect Oval, but North Adelaide may just be building into some form off the back of so many strong performances from key players. With its forward line firing and back on the winner's list, the Roosters will be too strong for the Panthers this week.
