Defining success for an AFL team is usually determined by which team wins the premiership in any given season. Based on that statement, seventeen teams fail each season. I would like to think that winning the premiership is ultimate glory, however teams can still have success without adding to the trophy cabinet.

Adelaide has recorded its eighth win of the season, which equals season 2022. So, whilst they will win more games than last season. Another sign of improvement is percentage, and the Crows currently have the third highest percentage of any top 8 side. This demonstrates their ability to defend and score heavily when attacking. Any football observer would agree the Crows have improved and can certainly shape the finals as we enter the final third of the season. The Crows head to Marvel Stadium and face an Essendon side that is fighting for a finals spot, just like Adelaide. The Bombers are coming off a heart breaking after the siren goal against Port Adelaide, which saw them lose by 4 points. Any football fan would agree that losing is hard to accept, but losing after the siren hurts even more.

Only percentage separates the two sides on the ladder. The Crows need to demonstrate that they can win big games away from Adelaide Oval. North Melbourne were competitive for a half. The Crows then destroyed the Kangaroos across all major areas. Izak Rankine was excellent with a handful of goals, Darcy Fogarty and Taylor Walker were also major contributors. The game went to script as expected. The only disappointment was the concussion suffered by Jordan Butts. He will miss the trip to Marvel Stadium. This may open the door for James Borlaseto make his debut. Matthew Nicks knows his team are good enough to match it with the best side in the competition. If his team can bring a high level of intensity and play with quick ball movement, there is no reason the Crows can't win their second game of the season, away from Adelaide Oval. Crows ruck man Riley O'Brien will have a huge task with Scott Draper a possibility of returning from a hip complaint. Draper is a very mobile ruck man who loves to push forward and kick a goal. It was pleasing to see O'Brien kick two goals of his own last weekend. His goal from outside fifty meters was magnificent and should give him some confidence when it comes to goal kicking. The Crows are an exciting team to watch. Given there will be no weather concerns at Marvel Stadium, expect the Crows to play on, once in possession of the ball. This promises to be a high scoring, hard running match.

Highlight of the week:

There were many highlights last weekend. Rankine kicked five goals, his best return for the season. What I enjoyed the most was the very first goals of the game from Lachlan Murphy. He took the ball in the middle of Adelaide Oval and had to use his pace to evade a North opponent. He kicked for goal and dribbled through the first of 21 goals for the Crows.

A special mention must go to Riley O'Brien for his hit out to Izak Rankine in the first quarter. It was a great piece of ruck craft to allow Rankine to receive the hit out, run forward from a stoppage, and kick the goal.

MY TIP – Adelaide: 7 – 19 Points.

Houston the hero

Win, lose or draw it always felt like it was going to be considered a great week for Port Adelaide before the ball was bounced with the news that Miles Bergman had signed a two-year contract extension. The new deal tying the classy Victorian to Alberton until at least the end of 2025.

by
Liam Sheedy

If the above news was exciting, then what transpired last Saturday Night at the MCG raised the excitement levels to a whole never level.

Pre-game the Power was challenged by the late withdrawal of ruckman Scott Lycett whose absence opened the door for Dante Visentini to make his AFL debut. It was not ideal circumstances for the 20-year-old, but Visentini battled hard and will certainly take positives out of his first experience at AFL level.

The first term Port Adelaide looked slick and largely incontrol of the contest, but some wayward kicking saw Port take only a five point-lead into the first change. As conditions worsened over the next two quarters, the game developed into an arm wrestle which saw the Bombers hit the front to take a nine-point lead into the final break. The Power responded superbly and put the foot down with the first four goals of the final term to establish what looked to be comfortable margin before three quick Essendon goals saw the Bombers retake the lead with less than two minutes on the clock.

Enter the hero. As Essendon desperately tried to scramble the ball out of defence with the final siren imminent, a haphazard kick was marked by Dan Houston who was left with the opportunity to win the match after the final siren. Houston was probably best on ground for the Power finishing with 32 disposals, four clearances, five score involvements and of course that magical moment, the match-winning goal from 55 metres out to secure a famous victory.

Next up for Port Adelaide is Gold Coast at home Saturday night. The Suns were extremely disappointing last week and will be looking to respond.

The AFL media always seem to have a Senior Coach under the spotlight and now the blowtorch is on Stuart Dew. The Suns are playing to keep their season alive but at the Adelaide Oval, Port Adelaide should be too strong and extend that winning streak to lucky 13.

Superior Sturt

by
Wilson McShane

Sturt will play West Adelaide this Saturday in a clash between the second (Sturt) and second to last (West Adelaide) ranked sides. Both teams have lost two of their last three games, including disappointing losses in last round. As such, a win for both these sides is crucial to both establish Sturt's position as a top two side and help West Adelaide potentially launch an unlikely finals birth.

West Adelaide have not played finals since 2015. This season seems it will not be an aberration as they sit on the same number of wins as the bottom side. In fact, the Bloods have not won more than three games in a season for five years. Their weakness lies in their defence. They are the worst defensive team in the competition. Disappointingly for Bloods fans, they were the worst defensive team in the competition last year and the year before that. So when will the pain stop? Unfortunately, for West Adelaide fans it seems they will have to wait a bit longer until they have success. Despite having more marks than the opposition every game in the past three weeks and winning disposal efficiency twice in three games, the statistics are alarming. In this three-week time frame, they have lost disposals, tackles and clearances every week and inside 50's two out of the past three weeks. Further, the Bloods have not won clearances once this season, and have only had more inside 50's than their opposition twice, conceding on average the most a game. This means due to their midfield inferiority, teams have exposed West Adelaide, as the 6-6-6 rule allows forwards one-on-one opportunities. Subsequently, coach, Adam Hartlett, will have to amend this clearance battering if his side is to win this weekend.

The last time these sides met, Sturt were 4-point victors. The Double Blues will be hoping to recreate this, this weekend. However, while Sturt are second on the ladder, their last month of football has been unconvincing. They are ranked fourth in offence and third in defence. They have also lost two of their last three matches, including last week's loss to bottom of the ladder, Norwood. Interestingly, in their wins, since round six, their average win-margin is eight points. This is reflected by their statistical inferiority in the past six weeks as they have only won disposals once in the past six games and have won marks, tackles, and disposals twice in the same period. Sturt's shining light has been their midfield dominance as they rarely lose clearances with Battersby, Voss and Wilson all having commanding seasons. These key poor performance indicators, generally suggest that a side is doing poorly, therefore it is surprising the Double Blues have had the success they have had. This underlines that despite statistical inferiority, Sturt's innate ability to win key moments is allowing them to win games.

Although West Adelaide have been relatively uncompetitive this season, they pose a major threat to Sturt as they could potentially derail their season. Conversely, it is pivotal Sturt win to avoid losing to the two bottom sides in consecutive weeks and jeopardising their season. As a result, the outcome of this match is more impactful for the Double Blues, therefore I think they will overcome the Blood's in a close match. Sturt by 1-12.

Do not write off the Reigning Premiers just yet

by Jakob Matheson

After losing their first eight matches, Norwood did not get a win until their ninth contest. Jade Rawlings men have since then responded, by stringing together three consecutive victories, with the latest being a 29-pointer against Sturt at Unley Oval on Sunday. The 9.5 59 to 3.12 30 triumph is the Redlegs third win in succession and sees them now just two wins outside of the top five, despite still sitting bottom of the table as they look to continue to gain some momentum towards what could be a very unlikely finals run.

The Double Blues kicked two goals to one in the opening term to lead by 5 points at the first change, in what was tough and heavy conditions at a muddy Unley Oval. The visitors would then, thanks to a goal from 100-gamer, Declan Hamilton, inside the first minute of the second quarter, take a slight 1-point lead, then the home side would kick five behinds in a row, including two from set shots, to get within four points, then a fabulous goal on the run from fourth-gamer Jake Cresswell, who kicked the first of many of his career, gave the visitors the two-point advantage at the main break.

Marty Mattner would be disappointed with his crew's efforts, especially in the second quarter which saw Sturt collect 17 inside 50s to the Redlegs' 6 and not being able to capitalise, despite the early dominance. Early on in the third term, Sturt had three consecutive shots on goal and they each ended up out of bounds on the full. At the 3-minute mark of the third quarter, the hosts kicked their third and final goal of the game, and first since the 21-minute mark of the first term.

Nik Rokahr continues his impressive season with another strong performance, collecting 25 disposals, including six tackles and three clearances. In-form, premiership defender, Pierce Seymour was a rock down back as he racked up 20 possessions along with 6 marks. Declan Hamilton, Matthew Panos and Connor Mclean kicked 2 goals each, while first-year midfielder, Matt Ling had 20 touches as well.

Still without injured Tom Lewis – who would have had a field day, thriving in the heavy conditions – Sturt's Casey Voss (24 disposals and 11 marks) and Jared Dakin (24 possessions and 6 clearances), combined for 48 disposals between them, and Patrick Wilson had 18 himself.

Despite sitting 2nd with a win-loss record of 9 and 2, the Double Blues will be frustrated with themselves and the inability to convert as they not along registered 13 more inside 50 entries than their opponent, but they also only managed to kick three goals from 15 scoring shots, one more than their opponent, who kicked nine goals from 14 scoring shots.

Glenelg look as primed and ready for the premiership as ever before.

by Jakob Matheson

After losing in Round 1 to Sturt, Darren Reeves' men down at The Bay have now won 10 matches in succession, with a commanding 63-point victory at the weekend over a really competitive Central District outfit. The 18.12 120 to 8.9 57 rout, sees the Tigers as a clear premiership favourite in season 2023.

Lachlan Hosie (17 and 4 goals), Luke Reynolds (16 and 4 goals), Liam McBean (13 and 3 goals), and Matthew Allen (27 and 3 goals), combined for 14 of Glenelg's 18 goals as they overran the Bulldogs on their home deck at Stratarama Stadium.

The hosts were challenged by the Dogs at times throughout the match, who, four minutes into the second term, hit the front, thanks to Marcus Barreau's second goal in as many minutes. The four-point lead early in the second quarter for Centrals was the only time they would be in front as the Tigers would respond in rapid fashion, taking a 21-point lead into the halftime break and then increasing that to 30 points at three-quarter-time. Then after a massive seven-goal to two fourth quarter, the game was well and truly put to bed.

Glenelg defenders Darcy Bailey (35 disposals), Max Proud and Jonty Scharenberg (23 disposals and 10 marks each), were excellent down back, as were the midfielders, led by Luke Partington (31 disposals), Billy Stretch (27 disposals), Matt Snook (24 disposals) and Corey Lyons (22 disposals).

For Central, Harry Grant continued his impressive season, collecting 27 disposals, seven tackles and seven clearances, while in defence, Billy Iles collected 23 disposals and 11 marks. Aiden Grace and Nick Lange joined Marcus Barreau in kicking two goals each in the defeat.

With Sturt losing, the Tigers are now one game clear in top spot with a win-loss record of 10 and 1 and will look to collect their 11th consecutive victory when they travel to the Parade and do battle with Reigning Premier Norwood, who will be full of confidence and belief after such a horrific start to the season.

The Redlegs will need to find a way to be able to stop the likes of Hosie, McBean, Allen and Reynolds if they are to have any chance of securing what would be an upset victory. Despite having won three on the trot, Glenelg will prove too strong in this one.

ROUND 11 REVIEW

North Adelaide 10.6 (66) def Adelaide 7.15 (57)

by
Lachy Jones

The Crows shot themselves in the foot with their kicking at goals, as the Roosters caused an upset that could shake up the proceedings come finals' time. It was a must win game for North Adelaide, who had found themselves with just three victories from their first nine games prior to this contest, and their fourth and easily most impressive win keeps them within reach of a finals' appearance. While the Roosters tallied more disposals and had more marks, it was the Crows who won every impactful statistical category, having more hit outs, clearances and inside 50's, which led to six more scoring shots. However, Adelaide's woeful accuracy in front of goal, not too dissimilar from the senior side's biggest problem this year, cost them a much-needed win which would have kept them in contention with the top two.

The Roosters were bolstered by a huge opening term, with six different players snagging their first six goals to lead 39-9 at the first change. TariekNewchurch (3.0) led the fightback in the second quarter with two majors himself, as the Crows closed the gap to 15 at half time. Both teams scored 2.3 in the third to keep the margin the same at the final break, and the last quarter was a matter of the home side holding on while the Crows had repeat entries inside 50 and repeat scoring shots, but a 1.6 last quarter cost Adelaide the comeback win.

It was a game littered with AFL talent and experience across both sides, and the senior players stepped up when required.

Former Crow Harrison Wigg was instrumental for the home side, recording 33 disposals to go with 8 marks and 5 rebound 50's, while his running mate off half back Alex Spina was equally as integral with 29 touches, 9 marks and a game high 9 rebound 50's. Ex-Swan and Magpie Jesse White was also dominant around the ground as a ruckman and as a key ball winner, amassing 22 touches of his own to go with 12 hit outs and 7 clearances, doing it all to get his side over the line.

Senior player Matt Crouch was among the Crows' best once again, tallying 36 disposals, 6 clearances and 5 inside 50's, pushing Adelaide forward from every stoppage. Experienced trio Sam Berry (24d, 7m, 5t), Jackson Hatley (1g, 24d, 8i50's) and Patrick Parnell (23d, 8m, 3r50's) assisted Crouch, but the experience mattered little to the final result as the Crows registered their third loss of the season to sit at 7-3 after ten games, two games behind second placed Sturt but two games clear of fourth placed Central District. They must get more out of out-of-form Lachlan Gollant, who could only manage the 7 disposals, and Shane McAdam, who had just the 9 touches. Both forwards have been in and out of the senior side in the last couple years but are struggling to get games of late, and their SANFL form can be a factor for that.

ROUND 12 PREVIEW

Central District V Adelaide

by
Lachy Jones

A highly anticipated top four clash this Saturday sees the Bulldogs host the Crows for Round 12's clash at Nuriootpa Oval. Both sides are coming off disappointing losses and will be looking to bounce back, but the Crows have more margin for error than Central District do with Adelaide still two games clear of their next closest competitor. Still, neither side will be looking to lose two consecutive games, especially as we close in on the back end of the season heading into finals.

The Bulldogs were thumped around the ground in all aspects against ladder leading Glenelg, losing the disposal count 409-302 and losing 125-83 in marks. The Tigers were able to contain possession of the footy for large portions of last week's game, and the game stayed on their terms. Central District cannot allow the Crows the same space and possession, as the ample experience Adelaide boast will take advantage of the allowance of possession footy. Centrals must make the most out of their chances they create going forward, as the Crows will not kick as bad as they did last week again. Ryan Pickering will have his work cut out for him with the league-best ruck duo of Kieran Strachan and Elliot Himmelberg awaiting on Saturday, while the Bulldogs back six will be working overtime to contain the talented Crows forward line, especially if Lachlan Gollant and Shane McAdam can recapture some form, partnered with Tariek Newchurch's dangerous presence inside forward 50.

On paper, Adelaide's list far outweighs the talent Centrals' boast, so it will be the Bulldogs' work ethic and continuity that will give them the edge over the finals' bound Crows. A win this week will go a long way to securing a finals' spot for Central District, but the task could not be harder.

Woodville Oval - SAT 08 JUL 12:40 PM

Woodville vs Port Adelaide

by
Austinn Lane

Round 12 begins down at Kia Oval with a match that can truly shape the finals race. Woodville West-Torrens Eagles take on Port Adelaide Magpies in a game that can make and break both sides chances of appearing in finals. Woodville are sitting one game outside of the top 5, however are on a 3-game losing streak, whereas Port Adelaide currently sit in the top 5 but have had some struggles as of late, going 2-2 in their last 4 matches. Both sides have the potential to win this game and cement their name in the conversation for a final's contender.

Woodville faced a fierce South Adelaide side last round and went down in a tight, hard-fought contest to leave both teams on equal points one game outside of the top 5. The match started rather positively for the Eagles, kicking the first goal of the game through former AFL player James Rowe, which was immediately answered with a goal from Keegan Brooksby, who finished with two first quarter goals. After a strong start, inaccurate scoring hurt Woodville towards the end of the quarter as South piled on the goals to take a 4-point lead into the first break. The second quarter began an even contest with the ball played mostly between the two 50 metre arches. South kicked 3 behinds before another goal to James Rowe which saw the lead cut to a solitary point. The second half of the quarter was all South Adelaide though, scoring 4 goals to one after the Rowe goal to take a commanding 20-point lead into the main break.

The third quarter was a much more even quarter, with a response from Woodville evident across the ground. Ben Shillabeer kicked his 3rd goal for the game in the quarter, while Lachlan Hayes also kicked his first career goal for South in the quarter, which was South extend their lead to 27 points entering the final quarter. Unfortunately for Woodville, the game was lost off of their own boot. A dominant quarter had their supporters hoping for the miracle comeback to be pulled off, however 1.6 in the quarter severely cost their side a much needed and gutsy come from behind victory. The final margin was 18 points in favour of South Adelaide, however Woodville left plenty of points out on the field in a loss that would take some days to recover from. Continuing his strong run of form, James Rowe produced a team-best performance, amassing 21 disposals, 6 marks, 7 tackles and 2 goals to lead his side. Max Beattie finished with 3 goals from his 18 disposals to join Rowe as the only multiple goal kickers for Woodville. Luke Brecken lead the side in disposals, finishing with 28 along with a game-high 10 rebound 50s.

by Austinn Lane

Port Adelaide escaped with a win after a tough match against West Adelaide, to leave them inside the top 5 and well and truly in the hunt for finals. The match started rather evenly, with both sides going goal for goal for the majority of the quarter, before two goals to Nick Moore saw Port Adelaide establish a lead just before quarter time, to enter the break with a 13-point lead. The lead was immediately reduced to nothing after quarter time, with West Adelaide kicking the first 4 goals of the quarter to cement a handy lead more than halfway through the quarter. Port Adelaide responded late with two goals to even it up at halftime at 46 apiece, including a 3rd goal from Nick Moore. The crowd at Alberton Oval knew they were about to witness a classic match between the two, and the third quarter only confirmed that. Port began the third term in scintillating form, kicking the first three goals to cement a strong lead at the half mark of the term. However for the second time in the match, the second half was dominated by West Adelaide who also kicked 3 goals of their own, including a first of the season for star player Callum Park. At the end of the exciting quarter, Port Adelaide took the slimmest of leads into the final break, just two points. The quarter started in nail biting fashion for the wrong reasons.

Between the teams there were 6 behinds kicked before the first goal in the quarter. Port Adelaide kicked 3 of the first 4 goals to run away with a big enough lead to confirm a win, in a game that had high intensity, excitement and strong performances from both sides, but port ultimately winning by 10 points. Nick Moore produced a best afield performance, finishing with 19 disposals, 11 tackles, 5 clearances and 3 goals to lead port to a strong win. Sam Hayes won the battle of the rucks, having 41 hitouts along with 19 disposals. Xavier Duursma also put his hand up for AFL selection, kicking 2.1 from his 18 disposals, along with a team-high 7 marks. Both sides would be eyeing off a season altering win this week in order to make their goal of making finals easier. Port Adelaide look almost certain to gain back Quinton Narkle who has been enjoying his footy in the SANFL this year, which will certainly boost their midfield strength for the do or die clash. Woodville haven't had a great record at home this season, however this week looks like the perfect week to get back in the winner's circle and make a play for a top 5 position with the teams around them also having tough matchups.

Roosters roll Panthers to continue finals push

by
Tyler Maund

South Adelaide hosts North Adelaide this Saturday at Flinders University Stadium, with both sides determined to make it back-to-back wins.

The Panthers remain just one win outside of the top five on the ladder, whilst the Roosters can claim a top five spot of their own with a victory against the Panthers. South Adelaide returns home this weekend following a successful trip to Woodville where it defeated Woodville-West Torrens by 18-points at Maughan Thiem Kia Oval on Saturday. It saw the Panthers snap an unpleasant run of form that had seen them win only one of their past eight matches. After trailing the Eagles by two-points in the nineteenth minute mark of the first quarter, a flurry of five goals saw the contest break open, with the Panthers taking a four-point lead into quarter time courtesy of a goal to small-forward Liam Fitt.

The Eagles fought back in the second quarter through goals to former Adelaide Crows forward James Rowe and Max Beattie before the Panthers piled on five unanswered goals either side of half time, stretching out the margin to a game-high 33-points late in the third quarter. A goal to forward Will Pearce gave the Eagles hope heading into three quarter time as they trimmed the margin back to 27-points, but the Panthers withstood everything the Eagles threw at them in the fourth quarter, holding the Eagles to one goal and claiming a 8.10-58 to 11.10-76 victory.

The Panthers owned the football, with a 285-339 advantage in disposals and also held a slight advantage in the clearances 33-38. The Eagles finished the game with more forward entries 40-36, but weren't able to convert them into scoring opportunities, with the Panthers finishing the game with 21 scoring shots, three more than the Eagles 18. Former Adelaide Crow Oliver Davis led the way for the Panthers with 29 disposals and seven tackles, whilst Mitch O'Neill (25 disposals), Kobe Mutch (24 disposals and seven clearances) and Darnell Tucker (24 disposals) also found plenty of the football. Forward Ben Shillabeer had a strong impact kicking three goals along with Keegan Brooksby, Liam Fitt and Ben Heaslip who also finished with two goals.

It was impressive performance from North Adelaide last Sunday, defeating a wasteful third-placed Adelaide Crows by nine-points at Prospect Oval. The Roosters kicked away to a fast start in the opening term, with former Brisbane and Port Adelaide player Sam Mayes converting the first of four consecutive goals for the Roosters.

Crows forward Tariek Newchurch goaled to bring the margin back to 16-points in the 21st minute mark however majors to Jack McCann and Jesse White saw the Roosters take a 30-point lead into quarter time. North Adelaide was never headed from there, despite the Crows having ascendancy for significant portions of the game. Midfielder Charlie Dinning kicked the only goal for the Roosters in the second quarter, whilst Newchurch continued to be a threat for the Crows up forward, kicking his second and third goals for the game as the Roosters took a 15-point lead into half time. Ball magnet Jackson Hatelogyot the Crows off to the right start with a goal shortly after half time before both sides wasted opportunities going forward.

Roosters roll Panthers to continue finals push (cont'd)

Crows forward Lachlan Gollant looked to hand Adelaide the momentum when he converted to trim the margin back to three-points midway through the third term, however consecutive goals to Roosters forward Nigel Lockyer ensured North Adelaide had a 15-point buffer at the final change.

by
Tyler Maund

Roosters enigma Frank Szekely goaled to push the margin out to 21-points at the beginning of the fourth quarter but it was from then on that the Crows owned the game. The Crows had the next seven scoring shots, but failed to capitalise, with Gollant's second major of the afternoon their only goal in the final quarter as the Roosters recorded a 10.6-66 to 7.15-57 win.

North Adelaide edged Adelaide in the possession battle 396-374 but lost both the clearances 28-30 and inside 50s 45-52. The Roosters had less scoring shots 16-22 but were more accurate inside forward 50, which ultimately proved to be the difference in the end.

Ex-Adelaide Crow Harrison Wigg starred for the Roosters, collecting 33 disposals alongside a strong performance from captain Alex Spina (29 disposals). Sam Mayes (27 disposals) and Harrison Magor (26 disposals) were also among the major ball-winners.

The Roosters had eight individual goalkickers from their ten goals scored, including multiple goalkickers Nigel Lockyer and Frank Szekely. The last time these two met was round eight earlier this season, where South Adelaide won by 27-points at Prospect Oval.

If the Roosters want to reach another Grand Final this season, the time to launch their season is now, and following a strong performance against the Adelaide Crows last weekend, the Roosters will be too strong for the Panthers on Saturday.
