Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

A Showdown for the ages

by
Nick Smith

As I write, the rain is falling in Manchester. It is the only sense of excitement I have had all day. I continue to hope the English rain falls for a few more hours yet, and the terracotta urn remains at Cricket Australia headquarters for a few more years.

I don't want to hear the words brave, or great last quarter, or pushed Melbourne right to the end. Poor goal kicking once again cost the Crows. Twelve scoring shots for a return of 3 goals nine behinds is not good enough or a half of football.

The Crows were never out of the game, the way they Crows play, they were always close enough to trouble Melbourne, and in the end, only four points separated both teams. Despite being 24 points behind at the last change, the last quarter reaffirmed Adelaide's ability to keep fighting, to try and get a positive result. It was too little too late and their third loss in a row means that finals are virtually impossible. Matthew Nicks and his players will be disappointed to miss the finals once again.

With only five rounds to go, the Crows would need to win every game and rely on other results to go their way, to have a sneaky chance of qualifying. Whilst this is possible, reality is, beating Port Adelaide this week, will take a huge amount of effort and focus.

Showdowns are always big games regardless of where each team is on the ladder. For the second time this season, both sides come into a Showdown having lost the previous week. Port Adelaide has lost two matches in a row, for the first time this season.

To make Saturday night even more difficult for the Crows, Izak Rankine and Nick Murray will join Josh Rachele on the sidelines. Rankine and Murray have hamstring and knee injuries respectively. It really opens up the possibility for James Borlase, to make his senior debut, if Max Michalanney needs a longer break.

Nick Smith

Port Adelaide have decided to challenge Wille Rioli's two match suspension. If the suspension is upheld, he will need to be replaced in the side. The Crows can make Port Adelaide's push for a top two finish more difficult. After the showdown, Port Adelaide head to Geelong to play the reigning premiers. Geelong would start favorites and a loss to both the Crows and Cats, could see the Power relinquish second spot to Brisbane.

I have no doubt the Crows will be keen to make Port Adelaide's push for a top two spot as difficult as possible. We all know that anything can happen in Showdown's. The Crows were victorious back in round three. All Australian midfielder Rory Laird may be available for selection which will help the Crows midfield.

For me, Saturday night is about not wasting the last five weeks of the season. The Crows need to continue to play their fast, play on football. Continue to display plenty of pressure and get back to having strong overlap run from their defensive fifty. There are no wasted games in the AFL and the Crows will continue to refine their game plan and invest in their players.

Despite the Crows being down on personal on Saturday night, Showdowns are not just a football game, they are an event. Showdowns are the biggest event in Australian football. I am sure Saturday night won't disappoint. The Showdown tally is Port Adelaide 27 wins and Adelaide 26 wins. Let's hope the tri colours can level the score and paint the town blue, red and yellow.

Highlight of the week:

This week's highlight is Mitch Hinge's mark in the second quarter. It was a critical intercept mark which has become a trademark of Hinge's game as a key back for the Crows.

MY TIP - Port Adelaide: 7 - 19 Points.

Pies pip brave Power

It was predicted to be one of the games of the season. Port Adelaide & Collingwood certainly delivered in a pulsating clash last Saturday night at Adelaide Oval in front of 47,965 fans.

by
Liam Sheedy

Collingwood ultimately won the contest by two points in typical Collingwood fashion, coming from behind at three quarter time but both teams will take plenty of positives out of the match played under high intensity and finals like pressure. The margin was tight for essentially the whole contest, The Magpies leading by three points at quarter time with Port holding a slender seven point lead into the main break.

The Power were superb in the third term but wasteful in front of goal, kicking 3. to 2.1. Failure to capitalise on some golden opportunities kept the door ajar for the Magpies who certainly didn't need a second invitation. For Port, Connor Rozee was superb finishing with 2 disposals, two goals, six score involvements and three clearances. Charlie Dixon and Sam Powell Pepper also kicked two goals, Powell Pepper having a superb season.

Both teams deserve great credit for providing such a great spectacle and you must tip the hat to Collingwood who again found a way to get the job done. Jamie Elliott with ice in his veins kicked the matchwinner with a magnificent set shot from the boundary line. The Power finished with 13 more inside s and three more scoring shots but the Magpies especially in the last term looked cleaner from stoppage as they got their running game going and finished with 6 to 44 clearances for the match. There is not much time to dwell on the result for Por Adelaide with the Showdown this week.

A massive clash as Port looking to shore up second position on the ladder while Adelaide must win to keep its own finals chances alive. Saturday night at Adelaide val the place to be.

Tumultuous Tigers to finish on top

by
Wilson McShane

North Adelaide will play top of the ladder Glenelg this week, in a clash crucial in determining the top five. Both sides are in the top five and have been impressive this season. In fact, both sides have arguably been the most dominant teams in the competition in the past seasons. As such, this game will likely be no aberration as the Roosters are fighting to secure their finals position, while the Tigers will attempt to establish a home final and double chance.

Glenelg have been near perfect this season. They are ranked second in offence, and more importantly, first in defence. If all the other teams this season are like a 2001 ford laser, Glenelg have been like a Ferrari. Explosive. Structurally sound. And unbeatable; the Tigers have been unbelievable. So good, they have only lost two matches this season. Like a Ferrari they have been mechanical in the way they have overcome teams, through winning key areas. In the past six weeks, Glenelg has lost disposals, marks, contested marks, tackles, clearances and inside 50's only once.

Arguably, the number of tackles the Tigers have laid is the most impressive of these stats. Despite having more possession than the opposition most weeks, their pressure is relentless. In their victory against West Adelaide, over half the team laid six or more tackles. This is nearly double the AFL average (3.2 tackles per person).

Further, this pressure has made them a difficult side to score against, hence their defensive ranking. In combination with this, the Tiger's ability to control the play through their marking has made them a threatening side when transferring the ball forward. Through their tall targets of Reynolds, Hosie and McBean, Glenelg has scored fluently in the past month. Therefore, if the Rooster's are to upset Glenelg, they will not only have to match their elite pressure but also counter the Tiger's premier forward line.

Tumultuous Tigers to finish on top

While North Adelaide have not yet reached last years prolific best, where they finished top of the ladder and narrowly lost in the grand final, they have been a relatively formidable side this season. However, they sit fifth and only . per cent above Central Districts, therefore this match is crucial for them.

by Wilson McShane

In the past four weeks, the Roosters have revitalised their season as they have won three of their past four games. In this period, the Roosters have dominated clearances as well as marks. Through Combe (who is averaging 26.2 disposals), Wigg (who is averaging 24.2 disposals) and Gowers, who is having a breakout year, the Roosters strength is undoubtedly their midfield.

At last season s prolific best, this midfield dominance allowed them to overcome sides through their clearances, however; they were able to convert these clearances more effectively into scores, as they were ranked second in offence in 2022, whereas they are ranked only seventh this year. As such, they will need major goal kicking performances from Young, Moore and White if they are to upset the Tigers.

The last time these teams met, Glenelg were 7 point victors. If they are allowed to take excessive uncontested marks and apply their elite pressure, history will repeat itself. Similarly, if Glenelg's forward line is given the opportunity to overpower that of the Roosters, the Tigers will win. Conversely, if Combe and North Adelaide's midfield brigade can simulate some of last seasons form they will be difficult to beat. Nonetheless, Glenelg are the in form side and cannot be tipped against.

Glenelg by 24-36.

Adelaide consolidate top-three with the defeat of Woodville

by Jakob Matheson

A career-best six-goal haul to Lachlan Gollant gave the Adelaide Crows their 10th win of the season as they put the Eagles to the sword in a 17.9 111 to 6.6 42 thumping, running away with the 69 point victory at Maughan Thiemia Oval at the weekend.

The Crows were in the box seat from the get-go booting 7 goals to 1 in the first term to set up the percentage-boosting victory as they strengthen their position inside the top-three.

Led by ruckman Kieran Strachan (25 possessions, one goal and a game-high 13 marks) and midfielder Tyler Brown (35 disposals, two goals and eight clearances), the visitors were way too strong for the home side, who were held to just 1.5 at the main break whilst conceding 11 goals themselves to trail by 60 points.

Despite the heavy defeat, it wasn't all bad news for the Eagles, as former Crow, James Rowe, continued his impressive season amassing a game high 3 possessions including eight marks, eleven tackles and six clearances.

Off season recruit, Connor Ballenden booted two goals from 11 disposals while also taking six marks, for the Eagles, who now fall to five and nine from 14 games and must win all of their remaining fixtures as well as hope the teams above them slip up, if they are to have any chance of playing in September.

Sturt

Eagles

SAT 29 JUL 02:10 PM - Unley Oval

Four on the trot for the Mighty Magpies

by Jakob Matheson

The Magpies are getting hot, winning their fourth match in succession and fifth from their last six outings, with an impressive 19 point victory over early pacesetter Sturt at Alberton Oval on Sunday afternoon, grinding out a 13.73 to 7.12 4 win.

After a very even opening term which saw both sides kick two goals each, Port Adelaide booted a further three goals in the second quarter to take a very slim 3 point advantage into the main break, that lead would then extend out to 14 points at the final change thanks to goals from Quinton Narkle and Tom Scully, with the formers coming at the 1 minute mark of that quarter, which was Port's first goal since the 2 minute mark of the second quarter. Riley Bonner was extremely important in the middle of the ground, as he racked up 22 disposals including a game high 11 marks for the Magpies.

Illie Lord 2 goals from 7 disposals, Tom Scully 2 goals from 10 disposals, Cody Szust 2 goals from 7 disposals, and Nick Moore 2 goals from 11 disposals, and nine tackles combined for eight of Port Adelaide's ten goals, as they now improve to 6 and 6 and sit in fourth place, two games outside of the top three.

Sturt were well led by the usual suspects of Tom Lewis 26 possessions, 13 tackles and six clearances and Casey Cross 27 possessions, seven marks, as well as two goals each from Joshua Hone and Chad Reschke. After kicking 17 goals across three quarters in Round 13 versus South Adelaide, to only manage 7 throughout the entirety of this match, must be a little bit disappointing for coach Marty Mattner, who's team, despite the defeat, is still sitting in 2nd place with an 11 and 3 win loss record. With both Woodville and Sturt coming off of disappointing defeats last time out, they will be equally looking to prove a point as the Hostplus SANFL season reaches the pointy end, and with five games remaining, each one is just as important as the other. The Double Blues can all but certainly lock up the top two with a victory over the Eagles when the two teams meet at Wigan Oval next weekend. This is a must win for both sides and could go either way, but with Sturt returning home, they will prove too strong in this one.

The Eagles on the other hand, can improve to 6.9, keeping their slim finals hopes alive, and, assuming results go their way, could sneak into the top five if they are to cause an upset on the road.

Prediction: Sturt by 15-25.

ROUND 14 REVIEW

Central District 8.10 (58) def South Adelaide 4.9 (33)

by Lachy Jones

A fast start secured a much-needed win for the Bulldogs on Saturday, as the wet conditions played a massive part in the 25-point win. Due to other results, Centrals still find themselves just percentage outside the five, but are in a good position heading into the final few weeks of the home and away season, while the Panthers probably ended their finals hopes with the loss on the weekend.

The Bulldogs shot out to a four goal lead by quarter time, with goals by Lewis Cowham, Luca Whitelum and Beau Thomas within the first ten minutes setting the tone for the contest. Another goal to Whitelum at the 16-minute mark meant a 25-2 start, threatening to put South away early. A Keegan Brooksby goal stopped the rout, and three unanswered goals in the second term brought the margin back to seven points by half time. Unfortunately, Bryce Gibbs' goal to end the second quarter was the last goal the Panthers would kick for the game, as they managed just five behinds in the second half as the weather got worse. Whitelum's two first quarter goals meant he was the sole multi-goalkicker for the contest.

South Adelaide won most counting stats, from disposals (302-255) to marks (94-85), and even held their own at stoppages, doubling Centrals' hitout count and recording five more clearances. But the 47-35 inside 50 win for the Bulldogs was the telling stat, as the ball was just around Centrals' goal more than South Adelaide. For large portions of the contest, however, the game felt neutral, with the Panthers on top at several stages around the ground, but Centrals' opening term proved too much of a mountain for the Panthers to climb.

For the Bulldogs, Billy Iles led the disposals with 2 , with all of them being kicks, to go with marks, 3 inside 's and 6 rebound 's as he sent Centrals forward out of half back. Harry Grant was also influential, and although he didn't win loads of the footy 19 disposals , he pressured hard 11 tackles and won the ball out of the stoppage 6 clearances on several occasions. Jarrod Schiller also had one of his more impactful games for the club, adding 6 clearances and 6 inside 's to give his forwards plenty of opportunity.

The Panthers were led by liver Davis 26 disposals, 9 marks, 6 tackles who battled hard all day, while eegan Brooksby 1 goal, 41 hitouts, 6 clearances dominated his ruck duel with Billy McCormack and Hugo Munn. eteran Gibbs was also among the best with 21 disposals and a goal but couldn't carry his side to a win. The season is all but over for South Adelaide, two games back from the top five with four games to go.

ROUND 15 PREVIEW

South Adelaide v West Adelaide
Flinders University Stadium

by
Lachy Jones

The Panthers host the Bloods in a match that will mean little for the upper echelon of the ladder, but lots for the participating clubs. A little bit of confidence and positivity is all both clubs desire after disappointing 2023 campaigns for the respective sides see them outside the top five, and with little hope of getting back in, with four games remaining.

South Adelaide battled hard for large portions of the contest against Central District last week, but were faulted by a poor start and a goalless second half, costing them a vital upset win. West Adelaide were surprisingly competitive against the ladder leading Tigers, leading for three quarters and holding Glenelg to just one major in the first half, before ultimately running out of gas as the premiership hopefuls showed why they should be where they are in the fourth. Lots of positives can come out of both camps after their efforts on the weekend, but the lack of a full four quarter performance was the overbearing theme for both sides.

South Adelaide controlled the possession game and were the better side out of the stoppages for most of their clash with the Bulldogs, but they lacked any real threat going forward and were unable to score goals for a majority of the game. They will need their attack to step up against the Bloods, who also struggled to score goals. Their intensity and pressure must also be at a high level, as West Adelaide recorded 12 tackles and forced countless stoppages, taking advantage of the conditions to make a scrap of their contest with Glenelg. The game may come down to who wants it more, as cliché as it sounds, and while the skill level may not be at the level of the top clubs, the pressure will be high.

This game could go either way based on recent results, with just one win separating the two sides on the season. Looking ahead to 2024, some wins to end this season could do wonders to the morale of each side, and this matchup is a perfect way to start.

Norwood to continue run of form

by
Austinn Lane

SANFL action continues this weekend at Coopers Stadium with Norwood hosting Central Districts. Both teams played in low-scoring matches last weekend, however only one came away with a win. Norwood played out a hard-fought loss to North Adelaide while Central Districts had the wood over South Adelaide. With both sides sitting outside the finals picture entering round 1, they are both hungry for a convincing victory to keep their finals dreams alive.

Norwood have had a strong run of form in the last 6 weeks, winning 3 games and losing 3 others by respectable margins. This week, Norwood come up against a North Adelaide side that had one equation – win the game or you are at risk of missing finals. The opening minutes of the game saw the ball fly from end to end with no score, putting on full display the hunger and desperation both sides possessed to get a win today. The rapid pace soon saw holes from in the defence of Norwood, who let one slip through and saw North Adelaide kick the opening goal of the game. North Adelaide then doubled their goal tally minutes before the quarter time siren, taking their lead to 11 points at the first change of ends.

The start of the second quarter was again a stalemate, with no side scoring for minutes before two quickfire Norwood goals proved that there was a scoring end on the day. The second half of the term was opposite to the first with the game being controlled by North Adelaide, who also kicked two goals of their own in the quarter to maintain a 9 point lead at the main break. The third quarter was underway, and Norwood come out of the break firing, kicking the opening goal within two minutes to strike fear into their opponents. After plenty of back and forth kicking in the middle part of the quarter, North Adelaide once again broke through the Norwood defence and scored the most crucial of goals just minutes before three quarter time to steady the ship, much like what occurred in the dying stages of the first, with the goal also extending the lead to 11 points heading into the last.

To begin the fourth quarter, North Adelaide controlled the game however couldn't pile on the scoreboard pressure, getting a return of three behinds from their constant repeat inside s, taking the margin to 14 points. The ball eventually made its way down the Norwood end of the ground where at the halfway stage of the quarter, they capitalised on the missed opportunities from the Roosters.

Norwood to continue run of form (cont'd)

by Austin Lane

Back to back goals from the Redlegs saw the lead cut to just two points, and with a world of momentum behind them, they looked destined for another upset win and their fourth of the season. Just minutes later, a clutch goal from Nigel Lockyer saw North Adelaide hit the front with less than five minutes to play, giving the Roosters an point victory, breaking Norwood's hearts in the process.

Despite the loss, Norwood put up a fantastic fight and this was highlighted in some of their players. Nik Rokahr had a game high 33 disposals, while Jacob ennerley had 2 disposals, 6 marks and 7 tackles to put his hand up as the best player on field for Norwood. Matthew Nunn made his presence felt in the middle, having 29 disposals and clearances.

Central Districts entered their game needing a win and provided just that, with a convincing 2 point win over South Adelaide all but keeping them in the fight for the final five, while making the equation all the more difficult for South Adelaide to make finals. The game couldn't have started on a better note for Centrals, kicking the first 3 goals of the game to rocket out to an 1 point lead in the first five minutes, including a first career goal to Beau Thomas in just his second game. Luca Whitelum kicked his second goal of the quarter at the 17 minute mark, before a quick reply saw the first South Adelaide goal of the game from eegan Brooksby, leaving the quarter time margin at 2 points. He second quarter sparked a response from South Adelaide as they controlled the entire quarter, kicking 3 goals to in the term to bring themselves right back into the game, only trailing by 7 points at the main break.

Norwood to continue run of form (cont'd)

by Austinn Lane

The second half saw minimal scoring take place however Central District did kick two goals in the third term to really steady the ship heading into the last quarter, entering the final term with a handy 2 point lead.

A lone goal in the fourth to Centrals player Mani Liddy saw South Adelaide have a goalless second half, as well as Centrals running away with a convincing 2 point victory. Harry Grant put together a complete performance, having 19 disposals and 11 tackles in the midfield. Luce Whitelum finished as the only multiple goal scorer for the game, finishing with 2 goals from his 13 disposals, as well as 6 marks. Billy Iles was prolific down back, having 2 disposals, all kicks, as well as a team high marks.

Looking ahead to the weekend, Centrals look to be the favourites heading into the match after winning their last two games, while Norwood are currently on a 3 game losing streak after winning their only 3 games for the year all in a row. They have been highly competitive in recent weeks, and despite losing they have taken it up to some of the better teams in the competition.

Centrals will have to dig deep and fight hard away from home to ensure they come away with the victory, however they do look to be the better side. This one promises to be one that shapes the finals race dramatically, making it one of the must watch games for the weekend.

Crows mitigate Magpies challenge in SANFL Showdown

by
Tyler Maund

A compelling SANFL showdown awaits, as the third-placed Crows host the fourth-placed Magpies at Adelaide Oval on Saturday.

The Crows have rediscovered their best form in recent weeks to win three in a row, including a statement win over league leaders Glenelg, whilst the Magpies have won four consecutive games, capped off by an impressive 19 point win over second placed Sturt. It looms as a massive day at Adelaide Oval for both the Crows and Port, with the SANFL Showdown shortly followed by the AFL Showdown under lights at 7:1 pm ACST .

An onslaught of 12 unanswered goals saw Adelaide put Woodville-West Torrens to the sword in Sunday's Round 14 clash at Woodville. The Crows kicked the opening goal through Lachlan Gollant, before the Eagles responded with their first goal courtesy of Luke Beecken. Gollant kicked his second of three first quarter goals in the eighth minute of the first term, igniting a run of six consecutive goals that would hand the Crows a 38-point lead at quarter time. Adelaide's momentum continued into the second quarter, kicking another four unanswered goals as the Eagles failed to fire, registering four behinds and staring down the barrel of a 60-point deficit at the main break. Elliott Himmelberg and Tyler Brown added to the Eagles pain early in the third term kicking majors to extend the margin to a game-high 72-points. Two quarters of football had passed to the minute, when finally Daniel Sladojevic kicked the Eagles' elusive second goal, sparking a mini-revival of sorts for the Eagles as they kicked four goals in-a-row to close out the third quarter, reducing the margin to 49-points at three quarter time. Eagle Sam Nicholls kicked his second consecutive goal six minutes into the final term, however it would be the Eagles last score of the afternoon, with the Crows kicking the final four goals to close out a 69-point thumping, 17.9-111 to 6.6-42.

The Crows won the disposal count 36 32 , clearances 4 23 and inside s 1 34. They also converted well inside , operating at 6 efficiency from their shots on goal. Former Collingwood player Tyler Brown starred for the Crows, amassing 3 disposals and kicking two goals, along with young gun Jake Soligo 27 disposals, one goal and ruckman ieran Strachan 2 disposals, 2 hit outs, one goal . Lachlan Gollant was outstanding in front of goal, kicking six goals, alongside Elliott Himmelberg three .

Crows mitigate Magpies challenge in SANFL Showdown

by
Tyler Maund

Port Adelaide found itself entangled in an arm wrestle with Sturt at Alberton Oval on Sunday, before breaking free in the second half to score its eighth win of the SANFL season.

Both sides exchanged goals in the opening term, with scores locked at 2.2 14 to 2.2 14 at quarter time. Sturt got off to the fast start in the second quarter, with Steven Slimming converting to push the Double Blues out to a six point lead within the opening 3 seconds. Goals to Cody Szust and Ilie Lord saw the Magpies wrestle back momentum, before Chad Reschke slotted his second goal of the afternoon to hand the Double Blues back a three point lead.

The swift response game from Port Adelaide's Nick Moore however, as he goaled to help lift the Magpies to a three point lead of their own at half time, they would not be headed from there. Goals quickly became scarce as both sides struggled to hit the scoreboard with great impact in the third term. After Magpie Hugh Jackson missed an opportunity in the opening 3 seconds of the third quarter, four consecutive behinds to the Double Blues saw them only able to level the scores, before Magpie dynamo inton Narkle and forward Thomas Scully converted to give Port Adelaide a 14 point margin at three quarter time. A see sawing fourth term saw Josh Hone spark the Double Blues back to life, the forward kicking two goals to bring the deficit back to eight points. Port Adelaide responded to register the last six scoring shots of the match, including a match sealing goal, on its way to a 19 point, 1 .13 73 to 7.12 4 win.

Sturt owned more possession, winning the disposal count 26 296, however Port Adelaide levelled the clearance battle 31 apiece, and won the inside count 44 37. Jase Burgoyne 24 disposals, Narkle 23 disposals, one goal and Riley Bonner 22 disposals, 19 kicks were the major ball winners for the Magpies, whilst Lord, Moore, Scully and Szust all kicked two goals each. Sam Hayes and Dante isentini formed a valuable partnership in ruck, with 21 hitouts each.

Saturday's SANFL Showdown is an enticing one, with two of the form sides of the SANFL competition clashing on South Australia's biggest stage, Adelaide Oval. Port Adelaide's strong performance over Sturt last weekend is enough to suggest that they defeating them will be no easy feat for the Crows, however the depth and talent of Adelaide's SANFL line up will be a handful for the Magpies to counter. The Crows produced a stirring 2 point win over competition pacesetters Glenelg two weeks ago away from home, and continued that form with their obliteration of Woodville West Torrens last weekend. Back on their home deck this weekend, they will be too strong for the Magpies, but only just. Crows by 11-points

Enjoy A Laugh With Sturt and Carlton Legend on
The Peter Motley Experience Podcast
Hosted by Paul Rowse from The Laughter Project

This podcast is so funny but most of all I just love my mate Peter Motley. He's my Brother

Michael Graham (The Flash)

What a great story, Peter is a true friend and champion.

We were great team mates together and have so many good memories.

Rick Davies (Jumbo Prince)

What a great friend and a legend Motts is.

Team mates and friends for life.
