DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 1 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

Goodwood Saints vs St. Peter's OC:

A ripping contest at Goodwood Oval has given St. Peter's their upset win of the year, as they officially ended Goodwood's finals hopes with a gutsy 14 point win on the road. Goodwood took control of the game early, leading by as much as 18 points at halftime in a competitive affair.

From there, the enthralling back and forth nature of the game benefited the straighter shooting St. Peter's OC. A tied game at 3qt set up an exciting 4th term. While Goodwood had more scoring shots, they will rue the fact that they resulted with 0 goals 5 in the final quarter. St. Peter's 3 goals 1 enough to solidify a fantastic victory away from home.

Broadview vs Glenunga:

We were treated to another fantastic game in Round 15 as finals smokey Broadview put together a fantastic performance against the ladder leading Glenunga, but fell short by mere 4 points at home. Despite their significant distance from each other on the ladder, this match was anyone's game.

Especially in the 4th quarter, where Broadview kicked 2 goals in 3 minutes to take the lead, before Beau Schwarze was the hero for Glenunga as he kicked truly on the full time to sink the home team in an absolute thriller. Each team will take a lot from this game. If Broadview get on a run, there very well could be another matchup between these sides come September.

Fraser Edginton gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Prince Alfred OC vs Old Ignatians:

The Old Ignatians would not have looked forward to this match as this game pitted the 2nd place Prince Alfred against the all but wooden spooners in Old Ignatians. The first quarter was a reasonably competitive affair, both teams getting on the scoreboard early and playing high pressure football.

Unfortunately, from there it was as to be expected, Prince Alfred outscored the visitors 64 - 10 in the second term to ice the game. However, the Old Ignatians did put together a good third term, scoring as much as the hosts in an encouraging moment. In the end, it was Prince Alfred OC by 98 points.

Port Districts vs Tea Tree Gully:

Port Districts got their mojo back in a convincing home performance against a Tea Tree Gully lineup desperate to get a W on the board. The day started out strongly for the hosts, as they kicked truly and took a 24 point lead into the first break.

This margin continued to grow, as Port proved that good kicking is good football, ending their day at 19 goals 8, 122. Beating the 5th placed Tea Tree Gully by 44 points, despite them wallpapering over some cracks in the 4th quarter.

Sacred Heart vs Brighton Bombers:

Our final game of the round provided exactly what was prescribed last week, a match that would be fiery early with Brighton bringing it to the highly competitive Sacred Heart OC lineup, before pure class and high scoring potential from the home team would lock Brighton out for the remainder of the match.

I thought Brighton were far more competitive than the scoreboard displays, as a 91 - 38 scoreline does not do them justice in what were trying conditions.

DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 1 - ROUND 16 PREVIEWS

St. Peter's OC vs Broadview:

At home, after a gutsy win on the road last week, this is the exact kind of game that St. Peter's OC could take away with an impressive victory. However, with finals on the line, and after impressing me a lot last week, I'm baking Broadview by 35.

Old Ignatians vs Goodwood Saints:

For me, this serves as Old Ignatians last real chance to get an elusive victory on their ledger for the season. It will naturally be an uphill battle, and not really one I back them in. I'm going Goodwood by 41.

Brighton vs Prince Alfred:

Brighton get a real litmus test against the 2nd places Prince Alfred OC, as they need to earn an upset victory to stake a real claim for the top 5. However I just don't think even they could get it done at home, I'm backing Prince Alfred OC by 8 goals.

Glenunga vs Port Districts:

By far and beyond the game of the round, the top place Glenunga will take on a Port Districts lineup with a bit of swagger in their step. While I think it will be a hot contest, not backing Glenunga would be criminal. So i am, by 22 points.

Tea Tree Gully vs Sacred Heart OC:

This is Tea Tree Gully's last chance to hold on to the top 5, the simply need to win. And to finally get a win over a top 4 team, something that has eluded them all season thus far. Unfortunately, I'm gong with Sacred Heart OC by 40+

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 2 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

Edwardstown v Salisbury North

Salisbury came out on top in a much needed win over Edwardstown to put them tied with 2 other teams for 4th on the ladder. Both sides got on the scoreboard early with Salisbury kicking 4 goals in the first quarter while Edwardstown kicked 3 of their own.

Both sides then looked to want to take the lead going into the half time break with each team bringing their goal count to 6 and just 1 additional point from Salisbury giving them the slight advantage. With a tight game on their hands and finals just a couple weeks away Salisbury were up for the challenge and kicked 5 goals in the third and keeping Edwardstown to just 1. Salisbury held a 20 point lead going into the fourth and weren't looking to give Edwardstown any chance of coming back as they poured in another 6 goals before the final siren rang.

The match finishes with Salisbury winning 17 goals 5 - 107 to Edwardstown 8 goals 14 - 62. Domenico Costanzo and Jacob Russo shined for the winning side to get their team over the line while Ben Homburg did his best in the loss for Edwardstown.

Payneham v North Haven

Despite a scare throughout the first 3 quarters of the game from North, Payneham have been able to come through with the win over the weekend. North came out strong in the first taking the early lead after kicking 4 goals 2 and limiting Payneham to just 2 goals 4. Payneham then worked their way back in the second ensuring that no more than a point separate the two sides going into the major break.

The half time siren rang with North just holding on to a 45-44 point lead. It was more tightly contested footy up until the fourth quarter with each team fighting for different reasons, Payneham hoping to inch closer to the top of the table and North attempting to put some respect on their name after a less than stellar start to the season. The fourth quarter started with North still holding onto the lead however by just 4 points.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Samuel Cannadine

gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Payneham v North Haven (cont'd)

Unfortunately for North, Payneham proved why they were second on the ladder kicking 4 goals in the final quarter while North weren't able to kick any. The game concluded with Payneham winning 83-59. Jed Spence kicked 3 goals and found himself in best on ground as well as Theo Theodorakopoulos, Max Wagner, Patrick Sanzo and Matt Di Virgilio. For North Lindsay Thomas did his best kicking 4 goals as well as a strong around the ball performance from Mark Rowe.

Rostrevor v PHOS Camden

Rostrevor have come out on top in an absolute thriller between the two sides over the weekend with 4 extremely tightly contested quarters of footy being decided by just 7 points. The game started with Rostrevor finding themselves unprepared for the way PHOS were ready to come out the gates firing on all cylinders. PHOS kicked 4 goals in the first and limited their opponent to just 1. Despite the strong first quarter Rostrevor found their footing in the second kicking 5 before the half time siren rang and bringing it to just a 1 point game in PHOS' favour.

Both teams continued to find many scoring opportunities with PHOS struggling with accuracy. Despite their struggles kicking for goal, PHOS' 3 goals 6 for the quarter was enough to keep them within a goal of Rostrevor's 4 goals 1 for the quarter. It was an extremely tight game all the way through and the final quarter didn't disappoint with Rostrevor kicking 2 goals 1 in the final quarter of play to PHOS 1 goals 2 and giving Rostrevor the hard earned 79-72 victory. Stefan Lanzoni kicked 3 in the crucial win which has Brough their team to tied fourth on the ladder while Jock Van Kempen put in his best effort in the crushing loss for PHOS.

Golden Grove v Athelstone

Unfortunately for the rest of the league, Golden Grove has continued to prove why this seasons flag is theirs for the taking with a dominant win over Athelstone over the weekend. Athelstone remained without a goal at the conclusion of the first quarter while Golden Grove didn't look back after kicking 4 goals of their own. They then piled on the scoreboard with an additional 7 goals before halftime and just in time for Athelstone to kick their first goal of the game. Both sides went into halftime knowing this game was over as Golden Grove enjoyed a 63 point lead. Throughout the second half it was more of the same from Golden Grove as they kicked 11 more goals before the final siren rang.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

For Athelstone they did manage another 3 majors before the end of the match however it wasn't enough to recover from what was a crushing loss. Charles Ashcroft kicked 6 goals for the winning side while Cameron Shenton shined with the ball for the winning Golden Grove side. Mitchell Grigg attempted to keep his team in the game however was outdone by a much stronger squad.

Henley v Adelaide University

In the battle to see who would break their streak of poor performances first Adelaide Uni have broken their large losing streak with a win over Henley. Adelaide took the win kicking 11 goals 10 - 76 for the match while Henley kicked 9 goals 7 - 61. A captains effort from Mitchell Marini saw him kick 3 goals and find himself in best on ground alongside teammates, stefan jankewicz, Lucas Di Sotto, Oliver Reilly and Ben Adams. For the losing side, Patrick Hillard, Josh James, Lachlan Sheffield, Tom Pillion and Cody Egel did their best but came up short.

Salisbury v Payneham

Both sides are looking to prove they have what it takes to be serious contenders come finals time. Payneham are sitting fairly comfortably at second while Salisbury sit in an interesting position tied with two other sides for fourth. In their last matchup Payneham was able to win by just 2 points. Im predicting an upset this week with Salisbury fighting for their spot in the finals and simply wanting this win more. Salisbury by 14

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Samuel Cannadine

gives his match previews for this weeks matches

PHOS Camden v Edwardstown

Edwardstown are in a bit of an uncomfortable situation sitting at 7 and some very strong teams above them. PHOS on the other hand have proven they are contenders and will be looking to cement their spot in final and their spot in the top 3 on the ladder. Expect PHOS to win this one fairly comfortably as they take advantage of a struggling to stay afloat Edwardstown side.

PHOS by 28

Adelaide University v Rostrevor

Despite getting their first win in over 10 weeks last round Adelaide Uni have yet to show they can win against the stronger teams this season. With Rostrevor being one of the sides tied for fourth they will be looking to take advantage of this matchup and move into a more comfortable position on the ladder. Expect a one sided outing much like their last matchup. with the stronger side coming out on top.

Rostrevor by 50

North Haven v Golden Grove

North have showed some fight in recent weeks as they look to fight to not finish at the bottom of the ladder. Unfortunately for them they come up against the undeniable strongest team in the league coming off a good win against another competing Athelstone side. Expect Golden Grove to dominate this game and cement their spot as the number 1 side in the comp.

Golden Grove by 80

Athelstone v Henley

Despite Athelstone's string of poor performances as of late they can use this week as a way to bounce back coming up against a very much struggling Henley side. Henley helped break Adelaide Uni's 10+ losing streak last week likely cementing them as the weakest team in the comp at the moment with North finding their feet. Expect Athelstone to take advantage of the weaker matchup and take that number four position on the ladder.

MENS DIVISION 3 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

GAZA V Modbury 21.17 vs 4.7

The Hawks ventured down North East Road to take on the Eagles who have not registered to many wins but have been competitive. In the first, it was the Eagle jumping out of the blocks with the first goal. It came from a mark and goal from Bieoley. The Eagles got the next clearance, but it was the Hawks that took the ball forward with no result. The game was being played between the two fifty areas until the game was held up when an ankle injury to Kaipara was dealt with. He was in immense pain and was assisted from the field.

Modbury worked the ball back into their fifty with no success. A snap for the Hawks for the minor score only but they were pressing. Then it was the Eagles working the ball back into their fifty with no luck. The Hawks back line was holding up well until Newton Eatts had a snap for Gaza and they had their second. It went back to the centre for the restart and appeared that Darcy Pisani had sustained a knee injury and left the field. It was not as bad as appeared and he was strapped up and returned to the field of play. Then there was a free to Coles and he converted and gave the Hawks their first. From the re start it was another goal to Coles from a mark inside fifty and the Hawks had their second in a matter of minutes. Immediately after the restart it was Coles again and he marked and kicked his third. It was followed by another inside 50 a snap and the Hawks fourth. The Eagles managed to get the ball to Bieoley from a Grantham pass but he could not finish off. The Hawks took the ball the length of the ground and Buckerfield marked but could not convert just on quarter time margin fourteen points.

Gaza started the second with a clearance, but it was the Hawks taking the ball inside fifty in which Helyar marked but it was a minor score. From the restart Verity marked and goaled and the margin was twenty-one points. From the next centre play it was the Eagles winning it again, but the Hawks ran it in off their half back line and it was a mark and behind to Phillips. The Eagles were under siege and continued to repel the Modbury attack as they peppered the goals. Eventually it was another to Verity margin twenty-five. A turnover from the Hawks saw Ridding with a shot on goal but he too could not convert. A free down the ground saw Hawks score another major followed by another to Phillips and it was getting ugly for the Eagles. Newton Eatts managed a behind just on halftime but the margin was forty at the long break. The start of the third and it was the Eagles with the first clearance again, but the Hawks moved the ball down the ground coming off their half back line again getting it to Verity who put it through. From the restart, the Hawks got the clearance for no score. A turnover by the Eagles saw the Hawks have a shot on goals for a minor score.

From the next clearance Modbury went in again and Verity marked and goaled. Then continued to attack and Watson then kicked a behind and straight t after the restart he goaled. The Eagles then worked it into their fifty, but it came straight out and suddenly Murphy was having a shot on goal. The result a minor score. Watson then marked again and goaled followed by another goal and the Hawks were well in control. From the centre clearance the ball went into The Eagles 50 and Beioley marked and goaled It was the Eagles first since the 5 min mark of the first quarter. At three quarter time it was the Visitors by seventy-two points. In the start of the last both sides worked the ball up and down the ground, but it was the Eagles with the first for the quarter form a snap from Rigney. Then it was the Hawks turn with a mark and goal to Cluse. Gaza pushed the ball forward again, but it was the Hawks backline being stoic and setting up a lot of the play for the on ballers. It was then a free and twenty-five metre penalty and Verity goaled again. The ball went back in again and it was Phillips turn this time to score a major.

The Hawks were dominating through Murphy, Coles, McNaughton, Watson, The Pisani brothers, Verity, Buccini and Cluse. Their fire power up front without Kaipara shows they will go deep into September. DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

With three rounds to go there is still 8 teams that can (technically) make the final 5. Division 4 continues to through up surprising results and just about all teams can win on any given day.

CBCOC v Hectorville

Positions on the premiership table would have suggested that CBCOC should have had a comfortable win in round 15 when they hosted Hectorville. The hounds had other ideas. After a tight but high scoring first quarter where both teams kicked 4 goals, the Dolphins gained the ascendancy to lead by 13 points at half time. To Hectorville's credit they fought back in the second half to outscore CBCOC by 6 goals to 3 to run out 7 point winners. Jack Poole kicked his first goals for the year and ended up with 4 for the Dolphins and Aaron Marchioro chimed in with 3. He has been a consistent avenue to goal for CBCOC this year. Jak Goudman-Glasson once again started back but was moved forward and hit the score board with 3 goals. For both teams got considerable drive from their consistently performing midfields. The two Raymond's Sam and captain Matt for CBCOC and the co-captains Dan Fairbrother and Seth Powell for Hectorville. In next week's games CBCOC come up against a desperate Walkerville who are still in the hunt for finals, while Hectorville will pencil in a win against Mitcham.

Mitcham v Pooraka

This match pretty much went according to the script from the first bounce. By quarter time Pooraka were already 5 goals in front and they remained on cruise control for the rest of the game. Tall forward Lucas Spiniello kicked 2 goals for the Hawks while Luke Buckby proved a difficult match up with a 5 goal haul. It appears that the Bulls are preparing to peak at just the right time of the year and their best players all contributed well. Luis Timpano, captain Frank Timpano and Sean Hee also played well. With a pleasing look to the future Pooraka coach Shane Hickey also had four under 17 players in his team. This will no doubt have been valuable experience for these boys. No doubt Mitcham will continue to fight hard in the final 3 games despite their relegation being assured and they will have to be at their best against a Hectorville team that is still fighting for a final 5 spot while Pooraka will not be looking to take their foot off the gas as they take on Morphettville Park.

Craig Smith gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Portland v Walkerville

Walkerville were able to build their percentage in their game against Portland. This may well prove crucial in the final calculation for major round spots. It also proved to be an opportunity for leading goal kicker James Boston to kick a bag and so he did finishing with 8 goals. Nick Gillard also kicked an impressive 5. The leading goal kickers also filled the best player awards for the Walkies. For Portland Jake Neade kicked three drifting forward from the midfield and also was the Thunder's best player. Bailey Salvemini and club stalwart John Kondellos were also good players. If Walkerville are to figure in September they will probably need to get over Lockley's next week while Portland face a considerable challenge against Lockleys.

Morphettville Park v Kenilworth

Kenilworth kept their genuine finals hopes alive with a win against Morphettville Park. Kenilworth jumped out to an early lead and were 15 points in front at quarter time. The roos hit back in the second quarter and by half time the difference was only 5 points. Kenilworth's inaccuracy in front of goal no doubt contributing. Five goals to three after half time enabled the Kookas to run out 3 goal winners. Guiseppe Nirta and Myles Crump were the major goal scores for Kenilworth with three each while Jed Jenkins was Morphy Parks only multiple goal kicker. Morphy Parks were once again without key play maker Nick Hankin but were well served by Brinley Duggan and Tim Kidney. Nick Chesser continued his good form for Kenilworth, as did Joel Smith. Morphettville Park are virtually in last chance saloon and must win next week in a challenging encounter with the Bulls, while Kenilworth will like their chances against Plympton.

Plympton v Lockleys

It looks like Lockleys have come out the other end of their form slump. And just in time too as they sharpen up for their finals tilt. They proved to be too good for a Plympton team still fighting hard for a finals birth. Lockleys were 11 points up by quarter time and the remainder of the game was close but Lockleys never really looked like being headed. Pleasingly for them Sam Ferguson is proving a significant path to goal and he kicked 5. He was well supported by the consistent Ryan Langcake. For Plympton Jason Binns kicked 3 and was also among his teams best players. For Lockley's Cam Bosman is having an excellent season as is speedster Nathan Batley. Next week is a big game for Plympton as they take on Kenilworth in a key game for final five positions while Lockley's will look to boost percentage as they take on Portland.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 5 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

Pulteney vs Kilburn / 7.12 - 54 vs 20.17 - 137

One of the premier teams in the division in Kilburn, travelled out to Pulteney on the weekend to take on the blues who sit just outside the top 5. Kilburn would have been eager to bounce back after a loss last week, getting their season back on track before finals. Pulteney needed to claim a big scalp if they were any chance of making the 5. The game started in favour of the blues as they were able to hold the chics to just 7 points and take a 16 point lead heading into quarter time. The momentum was very quick to change after the first break as Kilburn piled on 7 goals and 8 behinds in the second quarter to take a commanding 22 point lead into half time. Third quarter was once again played on Kilburn's terms as some of their star players had complete control of the game ensuring the boys posted another big win. It was the last quarter where majority of the damage was done, the chics booting another 9 goals and running out the game 83 point winners. Knew it wouldn't take long for Kilburn to bounce back and a win like this is exactly what was needed. Best players for Pulteney included Jesse Whinnen who booted 5 goals out of his teams 7 in a solid performance up front. The skipper Alex Forbes was also among the best for the blues. Kilburn had plenty of players stand out on Saturday but it was a couple of big men standing out above the rest! Rhys Okeeffe was named best on ground while Corey Solly booted another 6 goals to be leading the division and get himself another nod in the best players.

Gepps Cross vs West Croydon / 12.10 - 82 vs 9.11 - 65

Gepps Cross still sitting undefeated at the top of the ladder, I can't see them dropping the minor premiership from here. West Croydon have put together a strong season to date and are in contention for the finals but will need to be at their very best if they want to give it a decent shake. This contest was a belter through the entirety of the day, West Croydon stuck right with the ladder leaders not wanting to give an inch in hopes of keeping their finals hopes alive. At the end of the first quarter it was just a single point separating the squads in favour of Gepps Cross. Second quarter was similar but the rams started putting on score board pressure and extended their lead to 11 points heading into half time. West Croydon were throwing everything they had at Gepps Cross, it was going to take something special if they were a chance to come back and win this one. After half time both teams took their game to yet another level, going back and forth through the quarter exchanging blows to try secure the points. Gepps Cross once again extended their lead but it was only out to 13 points, still anyones game from here.

Chris Knapp gives his match previews for this weeks matches

The hawks knew what was at stake and gave their absolute best, but unfortunately it wasn't enough as Gepps across ran out the game to be 17 point winners and remain undefeated. Daniel Mason and Dom Barry were the stars for the rams, both having stellar seasons and will play huge roles come finals time. For West Croydon it was star recruit Ari Rigney and big man Kurtis Phillipps named among the best.

Eastern Park vs Colonel Light Gardens / 13.7 - 85 vs 13.18 - 96

Eastern Park will be kicking themselves for a long time after letting this one slip. A serious chance to avoid relegation if they claimed a scalp here, after leading for majority of the day they would be filthy at themselves. Colonel Light have always struggled to play at Dwight Reserve but with how well they've been going this year I assumed they would account for the demons easily. Eastern Park got the jump nice and early and were leading by 20 points at quarter time, winning the football on the inside was playing a huge part for the demons. The second quarter seen plenty of goals being kicked from both sides but CLG couldn't close the gap and the demons extended their lead to 24 points heading into half time. Colonel Light had some work to do in the second half but it definitely wasn't out of reach with the caliber of players they had running around. Slowly chipping away during the 3rd quarter they managed to out score the demons and bring the demons lead back to 14 points at the last change. Eastern Park had put in a body of work throughout the game so far but knew it wasn't going to be easy holding on. Colonel Light coming out during the last quarter slamming on another 6 goals to run out the game as 11 point winners. A margin that could have been much bigger had they kicked straight, registering 18 behinds. The game that got away from the demons and has sent them down to division 6 next season. Ian Williamson showing his class once again, kicking 5 goals and winning plenty of footy through the middle of the ground when on the ball. Alex Tuckwell was also solid yet again for the demons. CLG had Jack Tape and Kye Dean to thank for the victory, both lads had huge impacts on the game and will look to continue that form through to finals.

Blackfriars OS vs Trinity OS / 9.7 - 61 vs 14.14 - 98

Blackfriars hosted Trinity this time round but the result very similar to the first time these clubs met. Some wayward kicking kept the hounds in the game for parts of the day but in the end the class of the Trinity boys still secured them a nice 37 point victory. The TOSers to control of the game from the first bounce, kicking 5 goals throughout the first quarter to gain themselves a nice 20 point lead at the first change.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Blackfriars struggled to score through the first half only posting 3 goals and 3 behinds to trail by 29 points at half time. After half time both teams had good moments, some poor kicking in front of goal on behalf of Trinity had the game a lot closer than it should have been. Kicking 3 goals and 4 behinds which still extended their lead but definitely left the door wide open for Blackfriars if they could pull it together. The margin 39 points heading into the last change, almost out of reach for Blackfriars at this stage but stranger things have happened. The hounds saved their best quarter for last, banging home 4 goals but unfortunately that wasn't enough as Trinity were hitting the score board just as frequently and were able to secure a 37 point victory. Trinity are still in the race for a double chance so this is a good win by the boys. Blackfriars best players on Saturday included their skipper Matt Brincat, he's been instrumental for the hounds all year. Henry Baker was also solid and deserved to be among the best. Trinity OS had a few stand outs but none better than Ryan Roberts and Harrison Smith, both lads playing their best game for the year.

Elizabeth vs Woodville South / 11.13 - 79 vs 7.9 - 51

Although both of these teams find themselves towards the bottom of the ladder, there was plenty riding on this game as the relegation zone was still wide open. An Elizabeth win would guarantee them a place in division 5 next season, a loss would have them right in the mix to be heading down. A Woodville South win would have made things a lot more interesting and had 4 teams all battling it out over the last few weeks to avoid the bottom 2. The eagles got the jump early and made it hard for the Woodville lads to play themselves into the game, leading by 14 point at quarter time Elizabeth were definitely up for the challenge. The second quarter was much closer and Woody South started to play themselves into the contest, booting 4 goals and pegging to margin back to 10 points at half time. Neither team was going to roll over knowing what was on the line, making this contest even more enjoyable for everyone watching. Elizabeth come out fired up during the 3rd quarter and took complete control of the game, all the momentum was going their way and they made the most of it. Keeping Woody South goal less and extending their lead to 29 points before the last break. It was going to take something special from here, the eagles boys could feel victory on the horizon. The cats come out throwing everything they had at Elizabeth in the last quarter but it simply wasn't enough! The eagles holding on to win by 28 points and pencil themselves in for division 5 next year. Huge win and the boys celebrated the fact. Daniel Richards and Jayden Alderson stood out for Elizabeth above the rest, both being named among the best. For Woodville South it was Ramah Ahmed and Jay Rich playing one of their better games for the year, unfortunately there wasn't enough support from the rest of their team.

Kilburn vs Gepps Cross

This is the game we've all been waiting for. Gepps Cross still undefeated in the division and took the chics to the cleaners the first time these teams met. Kilburn have been on a roll since the last time they played, posting some huge victories across the division and finally getting their full team on the park. I believe this is the grand final preview and both teams will sense that come Saturday. Finals like atmosphere and huge occasion for both clubs, for the chics it's a chance at redemption and to show the division they are the team to watch out for. For Gepps Cross it's the opportunity to keep an undefeated streak alive, to put the rest of the critics to rest and to show they are a class above every team in the competition. Gepps have had some closer games over the last month which may have taken a toll on some of their boys. Kilburn always rise to the occasion when their backs are against the wall.

Kilburn- 10 points

Colonel Light Gardens vs Pulteney

CLG are sitting pretty right now in 3rd position and I think one more win this weekend will all but secure that for them. Pulteney still have a chance to play finals after a slow start but will need to claim a big scalp along the way to secure that. No better opportunity than this Saturday but heading out to Mortlock Park is never an easy task. CLG picked up a few boys late and they are having an impact straight away which has helped massively. Although the blues have been in good touch in the second half of the season, I think the task at hand will prove to be too big for them. Colonel Light have put together one hell of a midfield, which has complemented their already strong forward line. I can't see them dropping this one at home knowing what's on the line.

CLG- 30 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Trinity OS vs Eastern Park

For Trinity there is still plenty to play for, sitting in 4th position after coming up last season and if a few other results go their way they are every chance to finish in the top 3. They need to keep winning these games and turn them into percentage boosters. Eastern Park on the other hand are playing for nothing but pride, sitting bottom of the ladder and staring down the barrel of division 6. For a team that still had plenty of hope after losing majority of their squad last season, it's been extremely disappointing to see the downfall of the demons this season. Trinity will be too classy on the outside of the contest and will cut Eastern Park to bits through the middle of the ground. The way they move the footy will prove to be too hard for the demons bigger bodied players to keep up. Although I don't think they will just roll over, I expect this game to be a big victory in favour of the TOSers. Trinity OS- 50 points

West Croydon vs Elizabeth

West Croydon currently sit a game clear in 5th position with some handy percentage behind them. Finals are right on the horizon and after coming up from division 6, that's a huge achievement for a team nobody gave a chance. Elizabeth are in the middle of the table and it's almost impossible to make finals from here given their draw, but their win last week and booked them a place in division 5 next season which is a another huge victory for them given the influx of players they lost last season. West Croydon have started to get a few players back and are growing stronger each week, these are the games they need to post big victories in heading towards finals to get the boys confidence up and show everyone they are a contender come crunch time. Although Elizabeth have been playing with some serious heart and have upset a few teams along the way this season, I can't see this week being one of them times. West Croydon to big, to strong, to good. West Croydon - 40 points

Woodville South vs Blackfriars

At one end of the table we've got a couple of the top teams going head to head in a crucial clash. At the bottom of the table we've got another couple of teams doing the same in a game just as important to both clubs. With Woody South and Blackfriars both still in danger of relegation, this Saturday looks to be the most important game of the season for both teams. Although the hounds have a game in hand over the cats, I think they have the tougher draw on the way home and if percentage comes into play it becomes very dangerous. I can see the loser of this game heading down to division 6 with Eastern Park, something neither club will want. Huge week on the track for both clubs, knowing exactly what's on the line. If Woody South are any chance of winning this game they need to find a way to stop the Blackfriars skipper in Matthew Brincat who has been almost unstoppable this season no matter who he's come up against. Gives his team first use in the middle and runs his opponents off their feet. Stop him and they will win this game. Blackfriars OS - 15 points

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 6 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

St Paul's Vs Rosewater

Rosewater were on the road this week with a big matchup against St Paul's. A great start from St Paul's early in the match, holding their own in front of goal and booting five straight in the first quarter to get a good roll on the match. Rosewater were able to show glimpses of good plays throughout the first half, but couldn't hold down St Paul's who performed well, at half time holding a 39 point lead. Both sides came out after half time looking to make a contest and attacked hard, St Paul's continued to dominate the game but not without Rosewater making them earn every ball. Rosewater were able to run out the end of the game well, keeping St Paul's to just a goal in the last term but ultimately couldn't get enough to get the win and St Paul's ran away with a 19 point win.

A great well rounded performance from St Paul's starting early and getting a good lead, Taylor Charlton, Riley Henriks and Thomas Ahern were the best afield for St Paul's, Ben Lennon was also amongst the best with five goals.

For Rosewater, Jayms Bleeze, Darnell Breen and Michael McInerney were there best with Ty Geertsen booting three goals.

A great performance and win for St Paul's, they will use their confidence as they go into a matchup with Greenacres next week, while Rosewater take on Brahma Lodge.

Brahma Lodge Vs Smithfield

Brahma Lodge hosted Smithfield this week in what was set to be a great matchup. Smithfield were able to get an early start in this match, they booted four goals in the opening quarter to Brahma Lodge's one and gained heaps of confidence for the second term.

After the first break, Smithfield once again turned up the heat, dominating all around the ground and with a solid effort took a 51 point lead into half time. Brahma Lodge showed glimpses of light in the third quarter with a couple goals but Smithfield kept dominating and keeping the game on their terms. A final eight goal quarter was enough for Smithfield to put away their second win of the year with a massive performance, they came home with a 113 point win.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

A great performance by Smithfield, showing their talent and skills as the much better side, Nashawn Ferguson was the best afield for Smithfield with a dominating performance, Daniel Brockman, Anthony Thompson and Adam Varcoe all giving their all also, Darrell McIntyre also amongst the best with six goals, and Kevin Mcgrath putting up four of his own.

For Brahma Lodge, Brodie Norman, Andrew Curyer and Adam Shelly were the best on the day, with Christopher Ryan booting three goals.

A great performance from Smithfield showing that they have the talent and skill to perform well, they take on Central United next week, while Brahma Lodge take on Rosewater.

Salisbury Vs Greenacres

Salisbury and Greenacres go head to head in a big match at Salisbury Oval this week. Salisbury got off to a ripping start in the opening stages of this match, taking advantage of Greenacres and dominating the first term.

Not long after in the second quarter, Greenacres showed their skill and fought back to gain back the lead, at half time they were up by just three points. The third term was an absolute domination from Salisbury, working Greenacres all over the ground and gaining a handy lead, setting up a big final quarter. Greenacres fired back in the last quarter, dominating most of the term but just falling short in the end, Salisbury taking home a 2 point statement win.

Mitchell Slater helped carry Salisbury to this great win, earning best afield and booting five goals, Steven Osborne, Aeddán Hull, Corey Pryor and Joshua Lee all also amongst the best.

Unlucky for Greenacres who just let this one slip away, David Ward, Josh Adey and Braden Stewart were their best.

A massive win for Salisbury making a statement on the completion, they take on Adelaide Lutheran next week with no signs of slowing down, while Greenacres will look to get back on the winners list with a win against St Paul's.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Central United Vs Marion

Central United looked to march their way up the ladder with a good contest against Marion this week. An even battle early on, both sides fighting back and forth in the opening quarter, neither side giving an inch, Marion had the slight advantage at quarter time by two points. Both sides continued to play well in the second term, Marion being able to get more opportunities and took their chances, leading at the main break by 22 points. A big third quarter saw Marion increase their lead and dominate most of the quarter to get their side closer to home. Five more goals in the final quarter capped off the game with a 73 point win for Marion.

A great performance particularly in the second half for Marion, Shane Harvey, Tim Stewart and Zac Angel lead the way in getting their side the win, Tim Stewart also booting 6 goals.

For Central United, Mark Garner, Benjamin Russell and Peter Dempsey were their best.

Another great win for Marion as they continue to cement their spot as the favorites to win the flag, they take on Fitzroy next week while Central United take on Smithfield.

Fitzroy Vs Adelaide Lutheran

Adelaide Lutheran were on the road as they face a tough challenge in Fitzroy this week. Fitzroy started well, getting their hands on the ball early and doing damage early in the match to cause Adelaide Lutheran to play catch up all game. A great first half, as Fitzroy once again came out in the second term and dominated to gain a 29 point lead at half time.

Adelaide Lutheran had a big third term to get the game back in their sights, narrowing the margin to just five points.

Fitzroy but the pedal down in the final quarter to seal the game but not without Adelaide Lutheran fighting back, Fitzroy just scraping in and taking home a seven point win.

MENS DIVISION 6 - ROUND 16 PREVIEWS

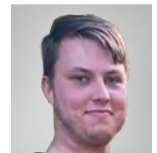

Rosewater Vs Brahma Lodge. Brahma Lodge are on the road this week against Rosewater who are hunting for a solid win. Rosewater have had a good run throughout this season, having some good wins and proving their form against some quality sides. Brahma Lodge have a chance to show some promise in these later games of the season, taking it up too Rosewater will give them some confidence and send them into next season. I think Brahma Lodge will give Rosewater a good fight, but Rosewater should get the win convincingly. Tip: Rosewater by 100+

Greenacres Vs St Paul's. Greenacres will be eager to get back onto the winners list as they take on St Paul's at home this week. Possibly another tight game, these two sides drawing last time they played, Greenacres won't be looking to let St Paul's get that close again, after a hard loss last week they will make sure it is a sure win. St Paul's proved last time they come up against Greenacres they have a good side that can play well, they will need to adapt well and play that little bit harder to get the win over Greenacres this time. I think it will be a tough game, but Greenacres havent let two in a row slip this season and I think will come out firing, securing the win early. Tip: Greenacres by 40-50

Adelaide Lutheran Vs Salisbury. Adelaide Lutheran are at home against Salisbury this week, in what would be a tough challenge for them. Salisbury are coming off a magnificent win against Greenacres last week and will be keen to keep a roll going heading into finals, they have the skill and will be clear favorites for the win in this matchup. While Adelaide Lutheran have played well throughout the year if they can play at their best and give Salisbury a run for the money they will be able to keep their momentum and jump up the ladder. I think Salisbury despite being on the road will come out swinging, and get a solid win. Tip: Salisbury by 60-70

Smithfield Vs Central United. Smithfield are back at home this week, taking on Central United. Smithfield played good footy throughout their last encounter with Central United, but couldn't get the job done with The Units being a bit too strong for them. Central United will also be looking for some good wins to secure a place in the finals and get some motivation with just a few games left for the year. Smithfield have been building and have gotten better as the season continues, I think they will get close to Central United but may just knock them off. Tip: Smithfield by 10-20

Marion Vs Fitzroy. Marion are back at home to take on Fitzroy this week, two top sides who have played great all season. Marion have dominated all season, they have been the team to beat alongside Greenacres and show no signs of slowing down, they will be looking ahead at finals and eager to get some good wins on the board before getting there. Fitzroy have also played well all year but dropped off at times, if Marion are able to take advantage of them and play to their strengths they should get a good, solid win. I think Fitzroy will put up a big fight but in the end Marion should come home with a convincing win. Tip: Marion by 80-90

Ingle Farm v Para Hills

Ingle Farm have continued their 2023 domination over local rivals beating Para Hills convincingly by 65 points. Ingle Farm were red hot from the start with 12 scoring shots in the 1st quarter but kept the door ajar for their opponents kicking 4.8.

Para Hills were unable to match the work rate of Ingle farm and by 3 quarter time were staring down the barrel of a triple digit loss, down by 72. To Para Hills credit with no bench, they were able to outscore the Bulldogs, Ingle Farm coasting in the last quarter, making sure they finished the match unscathed.

A Grade debutant Josh Stroud impressed with 3 goals for Para Hills. Ingle Farm's Devin Payne and Mason Pitt were both treated for leather poisoning after the game as the best two players on the field.

Houghton v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

An impressive 7 goal 1st quarter set Houghton up for a surprise victory over O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale. Houghton, who have enjoyed high scoring wins against some of the leagues lower placed sides turned it on against the Lions kicking 20.8 for the day. OSBL were unable to get back on even terms with Houghton's scoreboard pressure insurmountable.

Celebrating his 200th game, Adam Rigney was OSBL's best, Trevor Rigney (6) and Austinn Wurst (4) amongst the goals as per usual.

Nathan Hall and Connor Harlin (7) put in best afield performances, whilst skipper Jake Martin delivered again with 4 majors.

MENS DIVISION 7 - ROUND 15 REVIEWS

Mitchell Park v Flinders University

Mitchell Park started well but were unable to keep up with Flinders Uni, the Crabs winning by 36 points and leapfrogging their opponent into 5th place. In what was billed as a mini final, Flinders Uni regrouped after quarter time kicking 5 goals to nil in the 2nd term to lead at halftime. From there Flinders remained in control winning the all-important contest.

Mitchell Park were lead well by skipper Brandon Walczak who toiled hard all day. Shaun Brown, Cooper Henshaw and Stephen Anderson were the pick of the bunch for Flinders whilst Nick Rantanen (4), Luke Warland (3) and Greg Pinder (3) kicked truly.

Mawson Lakes v Hackham

The leagues two lowest placed sides faced off in an entertaining shootout that saw Mawson Lakes defeat Hackham by 25 points. With both sides struggling throughout the season to kick big scores, the fans at this one was treated to 37 goals, Mawson Lakes just that little bit cleaner around the ground and more accurate around goals than their opponents on the day.

Hawks B&F favourite Luke Allan turned in another big performance for his side kicking 9 majors, his best tally for the season. Unfortunately for him and the Hackham faithful it wasn't enough to get them over the line. For the Saints, skipper Jake Tonkin and Anthony Jenkinson kicked a lazy 8 each to power their side home for their second win of the season, moving them ahead of bottom placed Hackham on the ladder by 1 point.

O'Sullivan Beach v Ingle Farm

For those who read my articles (Thanks Mum!) you'll know that I never have a bad word to say about OSBL. The club culture, team spirit, their fight, the two-prong forward attack of Rigney and Wurst, there's a lot to like about them. So, I say this with the upmost respect, Ingle Farm will be too strong for them this week. I honestly just don't see anyone going all day with the likes of Devin Payne and Mason Pitt, this duo goes a long way to helping Ingle Farm get the ball into their forward 50 for fast and consecutive goals. It is there that the Rigney's and Sanderson's can score effortlessly. If you don't have the tank to go with a lot of the Ingle Farm players you are going to struggle to get it into your forward 50, no matter how good your forwards are. It pains me to say but the Bulldogs are just too strong. Ingle Farm by 24 points.

Para Hills v Houghton

Last time these two met, Para Hills came away with a clinical 51-point win. The star of the show, Daniel Weetra booted 9. Para Hills were on their merry way having only lost the one game to Ingle Farm; Houghton came in off the back of a 3-game losing streak. With the Roos having lost to rivals Ingle Farm last week and Houghton having a decent win against OSBL, this game should make for good viewing. Did Houghton catch OSBL on a bad day? Or was last week's win the start of a serious finals tilt? Time will tell. All eyes will be on Daniel Weetra, just 8 goals away from the magical 100. Para Hills have played to good this season to not be favourites for this match. Para Hills by 38 points.

Hackham v Mitchell Park

A real important game for both sides this one, for any chance to jump back not the top 5 Mitchell Park are going to need to win this and hope Flinders Uni slip up in one of the last two games. Hackham will be keen to play for pride and the hope of jumping off the bottom of the ladder. Hackham will need a big score to get over the top of Mitchell Park and whilst they kicked 16 last week, I'm not sure Mitchell Parks defence will allow them the same luxury. Mitchell Park by 16 points.

Flinders Park v Mawson Lakes

Like the Hackham v Mitchell Park game, Flinders Uni and Mawson's are playing for the exact same prizes. A win to Flinders Uni will all but solidify their place in the finals, a win for Mawson Lakes will ensure they don't finish bottom this season. As impressive as Mawson Lakes were, I don't see them going the distance with Flinders Uni, they might go with them until Halftime, but the Crabs will eventually run away with it. Flinders Uni by 36 points.
