REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 1 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Tea Tree Gully vs Brighton:

Tea Tree Gully kicked off the Penultimate round of the footy season with their second very convincing win in as many weeks with an important 72-point win against the Brighton Bombers, ending their season in the process. Skipper Blake Penney was instrumental in Tea Tree Gully's victory, leading 26 - 10 at the first change. Brodie Latham finished his day with BOG honors after a brilliant 6 goal performance.

The story of the day however is however is Brighton's horribly wayward kicking. 2 goals 13 at the end of the day would be incredibly disappointing, not most of all after they kicked 0 goals 9 in the second half... This is not the way their season deserved to fizzle out, however they are now out of the finals race, and look forward to their final game of the season next week. Barring something colossal next week, Tea Tree Gully sit fantastically poised for September action.

Glenunga vs Prince Alfred OC:

This riveting top of the table clash has solidified your Minor Premiers for the 2023 division 1 season! Glenunga shot out of the blocks and put themselves in terrific stead in the first half, leaving themselves to absorb the strong second half that Prince Alfred brought to that match. As both of these teams will likely be going deep in September, it is incredibly likely that we will see this matchup again at some point during the upcoming month, another skill fest such as his will be yet another exhilarating display. For this match, Glenunga ran away 27-point victors to secure the top of the ladder for this season. However, I say with confidence that come finals, these kinds of matches will be incredibly difficult to predict, and could go either way.

St. Peter's OC vs Sacred Heart OC:

Sacred Heart OC bounced back from last week in a huge way, solidifying a top 3 finish on the premiership table, as they hold off a valiant hosting St. Peter's lineup. It was Sacred Heart to shoot out of the blocks, keeping the hosts goalless in the first quarter while slamming home 3 majors of their own. For Sacred Heart OC next week, the ultimate challenge awaits next week, a most exciting of litmus tests will really help us to gauge where the top 3 stand going into September. For the visitors, this week will feel long, as it's actually their first taste of defeat in a month of football.

Fraser Edginton gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Old Ignatians vs Broadview:

I prescribed last week that I wanted the Old Ignatians to bring a more competitive performance for this week, especially as the start. Relatively speaking, they did exactly that for the first half, kicking a respectable 5 goals 2

However, the second half turned into a bit of an onslaught, the visitors seeing the necessity of a massive percentage boost required for this week, as they trail Tea Tree Gully by a mere 1.49% on the table, setting up an incredibly exciting last round of the Football season. An incredible 18 goal second half for Broadview will need to be replicated next week to make up this gap, however this kind of performance just about earns a September berth.

Goodwood Saints vs Port Districts:

Port Districts have managed to hold in despite a valiant last quarter effort from the scrappy, but highly impressive Goodwood Saints. Of whom, we also unfortunately say goodbye to for the 2023 season. In a relatively low scoring affair, Port Districts home 9 goals 12 (66) proved enough by the absolute nearest of margins, as they got up by 1 point in the end to earn an incredibly thrilling win.

Although this win is very impressive, the fatigue is noticeable in this team, they now have one week to shake their nerves before September if they are to make a splash. Goodwood have look well and truly improved in recent weeks, alas they will not be playing football past next week.

DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 1 - ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Prince Alfred vs Tea Tree Gully:

One of the two matches that will shape the top 5 for the final time this year. Indeed, if Prince Alfred win, they will lock in 2nd place and a home second chance final. However, if they win by ENOUGH, Tea Tree Gully's percentage will drop below Broadview's. What a week we are in for! I'm going with Prince Alfred by 48.

Sacred Heart vs Glenunga:

This Exciting game likely won't make a difference to the makeup of the finals; however, this could very well be a preview FOR a final. This match will be enormous for Sacred Heart, as there is world, they end in 2nd place if a few results go their way. However, Glenunga are the no. 1 seed for me. And I am backing them for 5 goals+

Broadview vs Goodwood Saints:

Broadviews finals hopes are no longer completely in their own hands, their only chance is for them to win by a significant enough margin they will have a chance at finals. However, the way Goodwood look right now, it's no easy feat! I'm backing Broadview by 30.

Brighton vs Old Ignatians:

A game that has absolutely no finals ramifications, but acts as the last chance for each of these teams to taste some victory in 2023. I really really want it to be the Old Ignatians, But I simply have to tip Brighton, and will by 41 points.

Port Districts vs St. Peter's:

Another match that will have very little impact in the composition of September, however I am keen to see this result. Port Districts look fatigued and will need to work hard to get over a St. Peter's OC lineup that have demonstrated incredible improvement in recent times. I'm going Port Districts by 31 points.

MENS DIVISION 2 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Athelstone v Adelaide University

Adelaide Uni have put up a good fight against Athelstone who currently sit 4th on the Adelaide Footy League ladder however it was Athelstone taking the victory by just 9 points. Both teams hit the scoreboard nicely in the first quarter with Athelstone kicking 3 goals 4 and Adelaide Uni following just short with 2 goals 3 to give Athelstone the early lead. Athelstone were then able to pull away slightly after they followed up their 3 goals in the first quarter with another 3 heading into the half time break.

Athelstone were also able to keep Adelaide Uni to just 2 once again giving them a 14-point lead. Adelaide Uni attempted to start a comeback in the third quarter however Athelstone were able to match every goal and then some. The fourth quarter started with Adelaide Uni on the wrong end of a 21-point deficit, however they weren't ready to give up just yet. Adelaide Uni were able to keep Athelstone without a major score for the entire final quarter while also kicking 2 of their own.

Despite Adelaide's strong final quarter, Athelstone were able to hold on to the lead and avoid what would have been an embarrassing upset loss. Skipper Luke Rander led the way with 4 goals for the winning side with Connor O'Brien, Mitchell Grigg, Dominic Sangermano and Luca stepic all turning in solid performances to get their team over the line. Mitchell Marini and Ben Adams did their best however Athelstone proved too strong in the end.

Edwardstown v Golden Grove

Golden Grove are continuing to march their way to a spot in the grand final with a dominant win over Edwardstown last week extinguishing any Edwardstown finals hopes. It was pure dominance from the moment the first quarter started with Golden Grove coming out to a flying start kicking 6 goals 6. Edwardstown were left in the dust as they only added 1 goal to their total.

With the game seemingly decided by the end of the first quarter Edwardstown did manage to win the second quarter of play kicking 2 goals 4 to Golden Grove's 1 goal 3 however they were still on the wrong end of a 29-point margin going into the half time break. Golden Grove weren't too happy with their effort in the second and looked to make up for that in the third quarter coming out and kicking 5 goals and keeping Edwardstown to just 2.

This was the final nail in the coffins as Edwardstown simply weren't able to keep up after the third quarter concluded. Golden Grove went on to kick an additional 5 goals while Edwardstown failed to add to their score throughout the final quarter. Golden Grove took the win 118-35. Joshua Glenn and Jed Banwell both kicked 3 goals, while Jarrod Corgrove took out best on ground for his efforts in the win. Aaron Anderson showed some good fight to defend his teams home ground however Golden Grove once again proved to be the better side on the day.

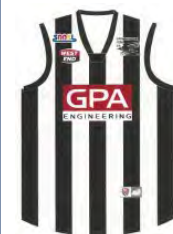

Salisbury North v Henley

Salisbury have just come away with the win against Henley potentially keeping their season alive, Henley didn't go down without a fight however with a final quarter comeback nearly getting them the win. It was an evenly matched first quarter with Salisbury kicking 3 goals 2 and Henley 2 goals 2 giving Salisbury the early 1 goal lead. Salisbury were then able to pull away slightly kicking 3 goals in the second and only allowing Henley to kick 2 of their own.

Salisbury went into the major break enjoying a 17-point lead. Salisbury took off in the third however coming out of the break ready to put this game to bed. Salisbury kicked 5 goals in the third and kept their opponents to just 3 scoring opportunities where they converted on 2 of them. With a 36-point margin separating the teams, Salisbury were certainly ready to cruise through the final quarter to the much-needed win.

Henley however, found their footing in the final term, whether it be to Salisbury taking their foot off the gas or simply wanting it more. They went on to kick 7 goals in the quarter and limiting Salisbury to just a couple. Despite the late surge Henley fell short by just 5 points.

The game concluded with Salisbury just securing the win 88-83. Jake Johansen led the way on the scoreboard with his whopping 6 goals while Jordan O'Brien shined with the ball for the winning side. Jack Hawks put in a solid effort attempting to keep his team in the game however it wasn't enough to get them over the line.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

PHOS Camden v Payneham

PHOS have upset the number 2 on the ladder Payneham in a nail-biting game that saw them take home the win by just 3 points. PHOS took the early lead kicking 3 goals in the first quarter while Payneham came out the gates slow adding just 1 major to their total before the conclusion of the first quarter.

Payneham bounced back in a major way however as they came out looking to take the lead going into half time. Payneham were able to shift the momentum kicking 6 goals in the quarter and holding PHOS to just 2 in the quarter. Payneham now held the lead as the halftime siren rang by 13 points. both teams came out of half time looking to take the game for themselves and PHOS looked to retake the lead with a few good goals throughout the quarter. Payneham were able to kick 2 for themselves which set the game up for a thrilling final quarter of play with Payneham leading by just 7 points.

It was ultimately PHOS' defensive pressure and ability to get on the scoreboard in the final quarter that saw them come out on top. They kicked 1 goal as well as 6 behinds to give them the lead while Payneham only managed 2 behinds. PHOS' lead was secured as the siren rang with the score reading 64-61. Finn Betterman, Michael Virgin, Sam Williams, Tom Pearce and Adam Scholz all carried their weight to get their team over the line. For Payneham Blake Dodson, Tom Wagner, Harrison Viney, Mack Haynes and Jed Spence all played well despite the disappointing loss.

Rostrevor v North Haven

Rostrevor have secured a much-needed win to remain in the top 5 with this win just keeping them above Salisbury who have a higher percentage than them. Rostrevor came out strong looking to put the game away early with 5 quick goals in the first quarter. North did their best to keep up however coming slow out the gates led to just 1 scoring opportunity for the first quarter resulting in a goal.

Rostrevor continued to cruise along with another 3 goals before half time while North found their footing a bit with 3 of their own. Rostrevor held a comfortable 29-point lead going into the half as they looked to take the win in a crucial game for their finals hopes.

North showed signs of a comeback in the third quarter as they kicked a couple of goals and held Rostrevor to just 1. North had a task on their hands going into the final quarter of play as they were on the wrong end of a 37-point margin.

As it would appear, this game was too crucial for Rostrevor to let it slip away, with the win being what they needed to remain above ladder rivals Salisbury they pulled through with 4 goals in the final quarter to give them the win 90-53.

Thomas McCormack and Stefan Lanzoni led the way on the scoreboard for the winning side being responsible for 9 of the teams 13 goals. Jamie Solly attempted to keep his team above water with 6 on the other end however came up short.

MENS DIVISION 1 - ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Athelstone v Rostrevor

Both sides are playing this game to keep their season alive. With Salisbury needing just a win to equal the loser, percentage may be what decides whose season continues and whose ends prematurely. For Athelstone they currently hold a lower percentage than Salisbury so they should be looking to take secure this win and a spot in the finals. With both sides coming off fairly easy wins against weaker teams, expect Rostrevor to come out fighting had for their season to continue.

Rostrevor by 13

Henley v North Haven

With both sides season coming to an end after this round both will be looking to finish on a high. With North being unable to avoid finishing bottom of the ladder there isn't much riding on this match aside from a positive finish to the end of the season. With North taking their last matchup and finding some better form as of recent expect them to secure the win here.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Payneham v Edwardstown

After a disappointing loss last round, Payneham have a good opportunity here to secure a good win and gain some momentum as they go into finals. Despite a surprisingly close game in their last meeting, expect Payneham to come through with a fairly one-sided win.

Payneham by 32

Adelaide University v PHOS Camden

PHOS has an opportunity this week to break into the top 2 on the ladder as Payneham are coming off loss and a loss would see them drop to 3. PHOS should use this matchup as a good opportunity to gain serious momentum going into finals and a percentage boost could also be the difference between a 2 or 3 finish. Expect PHOS to come out strong and win every quarter of this match.

PHOS by 54

Golden Grove v Salisbury North

Unfortunately for Salisbury their season relies on a win against the unanimous best team in the competition this season as well as Rostrevor losing their match to Athelstone. In Salisbury's favour one of Golden Grove's only two losses this season come from their previous matchup where Salisbury upset the number 1 side by 13 points. Despite what will for sure be a desperate do or die performance from Salisbury, Golden Grove are unlikely to make the mistake of underestimating them again and will look to put this one away early.

Unley Jets v GAZA 11.15 vs 5.8

The Jets along with Modbury are the form teams of the competition and it's easy to see why. Right from the start they had the Eagles on the ropes. After the first clearance to the advantage of the Eagles they went into their 50 and Beioley but couldn't convert. The Jets then took it back down the ground into their 50 and goaled. The Eagles again took the ball back into their 50 for just a behind. Then it was the Jets carrying the ball into their 50 and result was a behind. The pressure was immense with neither team getting an advantage. The Eagles went in again for a minor score. A turnover across the halfback line gave The Jets a goal through Sutcliffe. They then went in again and a behind was the result. Unley was peppering the goals with no success. The ball was up and down the ground with very little scoring. At the first break it was the home side by 13 points.

The Eagles got the first clearance in the second with Ridding getting on top in the ruck. They took the ball inside 50 and Beioley marked and goaled. The Eagles cleared again and took the ball inside 50 but the Jets repelled it taking it down the ground and Tidswell marked and goaled. The Eagles cleared again, and the ball went into Jones hands but a behind was the result. Gaza went back in to their 50 again and Beioley marked and goaled. The next clearance went to the Jets for no result. The Eagles did the same. The Jets then took it back down the ground and a behind was the result. On the restart, the Eagles took the ball away again, but the Jets won the ball back down the ground and Sutcliffe marked and goaled again. Both teams were tackling hard and fair in a pressure packed quarter of footy. Gaza moved the ball into their 50 again and a great tackle by young Will James gave him a holding the ball free and he finished with a goal. The Jets held the ball in their 50 a turnover by the Eagles saw Ben Ianniello goal. The Jets went in again one more time before the break for a behind.

At the long break, it was a lead of 15 points to the home side. The Jets got a quick clearance at the start of the third and it was goal to Michael Khabbaz. The Jets went back in again and a mark and goal to Sutcliffe placed the visitors under pressure. Gaza managed to get into their 50 but a mark and clearance by Duval set the home side up again but they couldn't convert. Unley had all the play, and the Eagles were struggling to penetrate the defence of Unley. A turnover by the Eagles saw the ball get into the hands of Heaslip and another goal was on the board. The Eagles were under extreme pressure as the Jets continued to attack. The home side took the ball back into their 50 and Heaslip marked and goaled again. The home side got the next clearance and went inside for another behind just before the break.

Chook Greer gives his match previews for this weeks matches

The margin had blown out to 44 at the last break. The Eagles were held scoreless for the quarter with Duval superb. The last started with a clearance again by the Eagles and they went into their 50 but the Jets took it straight back out. At this point Heaslip marked again but could only manage a behind.

Gaza then took the ball down the ground which saw Beioley mark and pass to Allocca but only a behind was registered. The Eagles maintained possession of the ball and another free to Allocca and he was having another shot on goal for another behind. The Eagles would be disappointed that they didn't get a goal in these two passages, but they continued to push. Eventually a mark and handball to Beadle and the long shot at goal was true. The margin was 36 and the Eagles may have thought they may have a chance with all the scoring at the start of this quarter. Gaza then went in again and a mark and goal to Allocca had the visitors were up and about. The clearance saw the Eagles going again and a sharp pass from Jarret to Stevens and they were having another shot on goal. The result just a behind. Unley took the ball back down the ground and Sutcliffe marked and behind was the result.

On the restart, Sutcliffe managed to mark again and this time he goaled. From this point it appeared the game was done and dusted with a 36-point lead. Another clearance by the home side saw Wark mark and another behind was the result. The ball re circulated and Sutcliffe marked and goaled again. Both sides then registered behinds as the margin in the end was 43 points to the Jets. Best for The Jets were Duval, Salt, Adams, Sutcliff and J Ianniello for Gaza Ridding, Fulton, Gill, Sandland and Likouresis. Goal kickers for Unley not listed and Gaza Beioley 2 and singles to Beadle, Allocca and James.

Westminster v Seaton Ramblers 12.9 vs 11.14

The Dragons were keen to get a win to see if they could starve off relegation. Both teams started well with five goals apiece with score level at the first break. In the second Seaton kicked a couple goals to the Dragons 1 and the lead at halftime was 5 points at the long break. In the third it was a couple goals each and the lead was 10 points to the visitors. It was set up for a cracker of a last quarter and the Dragons started their charge by kicking 4 goals to Seaton's two with the home side getting home by a solitary point. In the first round Seaton got up by a point so they turned the tables. Best for Westminster were Weckert, Drum, Harms, Soloman and Francis. Best for Seaton Studham, Rochester, Bondarenko, Mead and Rugari. Goal kickers for the Dragons Grosser 3, Johncock and Weckert 2 and singles to Cotсарis, Lienert, Grima, Drum and Malcom. For Seaton Rugari, Matz, Scott and Warren 2 and singles to Mead, Studham and Kasianowicz.

In the second it was a low scoring affair with the home side kicking 1 goal to the visitors none to increase their lead to 16 points at halftime. MENS DIVISION 3 - ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Unley Mercedes Jets v Seaton Ramblers at Kingswood

Seaton are safe from the relegation zone so they will be playing for the upset win. The Jets are coming off a 7-goal win against the Eagles and are hoping for an upset in the Hawks game to seize top spot. It will be highly unlikely that Seaton will get the win it is just a matter of how much by the Jets.

Unley Mercedes Jets by Sixty - Six points.

Scotch OC v Westminster OS at Scotch College

The Dragons are sitting in the relegation zone, but a win here will see them go past the Lions and save themselves. It will be tough as the Old Collegians need the win to make the five and hope the Kings lose. Scotch have not been playing to bad and they may just have the cattle to get this one at home. Scotch should win but so will the Kings which means they will finish sixth.

To Win Scotch Twelve points

SMOSH West Lakes v Modbury at West Lakes

The Hawks are just going through the motions preparing themselves for the finals. The Lions on the other hand out of the woods with relegation being a chance if they lose and the Dragons win. Unfortunately, the Hawks have too much fire power and will win this one easy.

To Win Modbury by Sixty-Five points.

Hope Valley v Pembroke at Hope Valley

The last time these two sides met at Coopers stadium it was the Kings by nine goals. The Demons have had abit of a form slump recently and would be keen for a win to have any chance of getting third place back. On the other side the Kings need to win to stay in the five and hope that Scotch do not win. This will be a great game of footy and will be close. At home, the Demons may have an advantage. The Kings need all their best players on the field for this one. The Kings in a real close one.

To Win the Kings by six points

GAZA v Flinders Park at GAZA

The Eagles will be looking forward to the bleak season to finish whilst the Reds are up and about. Flinders Park will be far too good and will win easy.

To Win Flinders Park by Seventy-Two points

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 4 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Walkerville v Mitcham

There is nothing more dangerous in football than a team with nothing to lose. And so it proved to be in this round 17 game of Division 4 football. Mitcham are already assigned to relegation but somehow found the motivation to get over a Walkerville team in all likelihood lacking in that area also. It was a tightly fought first quarter with Walkerville heading to the first break 1 point in front. By half time Mitcham had wrestled back the momentum to be 8 points in front.

The game was still in the balance at three quarter time with the Hawks still 7 points to the good. A 7 goal to 3 last quarter saw them run out a comfortable 35-point winner in the end. Youngster Toby Gabrisch has played every senior game this year and this is a pleasing sign for Mitcham's future. He kicked 3 goals and was among the best players. Defender Dylan Matteucci continued his outstanding season and was given best player honours for Mitcham. For Walkerville their three key goal kicking forwards were once again among the goals with Adam Proud kicking 3 and James Boston and Kick Gillard kicking 2 each. Sean Kuerschner strengthened his case as one of the favourites for the league medal by once again being a prolific possession winner in the Walkerville midfield.

Both teams will be looking to take big scalps in the last game of the year. Both face teams tuning up for finals action. Walkerville take on Lockleys and Mitcham face CBCOC in the last game.

Kenilworth v Lockleys

Lockleys appears to have regained their mojo just in time for the run to the finals. After a tight first quarter it managed to control the game and eventually run out a comfortable 23-point victor over a competitive Kenilworth team. The margin may have been even higher if not for the Kookas fighting hard to outscore Lockleys by 2 goals in the last quarter.

For Kenilworth, Giuseppe Nirta once again proved to be a strong avenue to goal and ended the day with 6 while tall forward Frazer Goodes kicked 3 and was also awarded best player. Shaun Clarke was also given some plaudits for his job on the dangerous Ben Haren who ended up kicking 4 and provided a strong target in the forward half for Lockleys. So too did Sam Ferguson who contributed with 3 goals also.

Craig Smith gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Ruckman Cooper Seekamp provided a strong presence at the many stoppages that were inevitable in the drizzly conditions.

Lockleys will have the opportunity for a final tune up before the major round when they come up against a competitive Walkerville team in round 18. They could still theoretically lose the double chance but will be buoyed by the fact that their destiny is in their own hands. Kenilworth will in all probability have a moral (and percentage) boosting win against Division 5 bound Portland to finish off their season.

CBCOC v Morphettville Park

It would have been interesting to be a "fly on the wall" at the quarter time huddle to hear what CBCOC coach Brett Simpson said to his team. Whatever it was it appeared to work. At quarter time Morphettville Park had scored 3 goals to 2 and were ahead by 7 points. That proved to be virtually the end of their scoring. They only kicked 3 behinds in the second quarter and were held scoreless for the entirety of the second half.

This is an impressive defensive effort from the Dolphins. They were able to kick more than 100 points themselves. Important forwards coach Simpson kicked 4 and Aaron Marchioro kicked 3. Marchioro's athleticism makes him a difficult match up and will no doubt be a handful on the firm (and bigger) grounds that will most likely confront them come finals time. CBCOC's drive came from their midfield led by Oliver Stenchlik and captain Matt Raymond, while strong midfielder Liam Toohey was fighting a losing battle without the aid of key midfield partner Nick Hankin.

CBCOC should not be surprised by the challenge that Mitcham will bring in round 18 while Morphettville Park will be looking to finish the season in a good fashion when they come up against finals bound Hectorville.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Hectorville v Plympton

A heavy Daly Reserve (particularly in the middle) greeted the players for this important clash between two finals bound teams. Plympton were without some key playmakers for this contest. Neither ruck man Stuart Taverner nor the highly skilled Curtly Hampton played. The early going was an arm wrestle. Hectorville then kicked three goals in a row through their two tall forwards. One by Jake Klingbiel and two through Luke Broadbent. Plympton were a little undersized in their back half and it looked like the twin towers of the Hounds were going to prove to be a handful all day. By halfway through the second quarter, it appeared that Hectorville were in control. Importantly and a little against the trend of the game Plympton kicked the last three goals of the second quarter to only be 10 points down at half time. This proved to be a critical period of the game. After half time Plympton gained the momentum and kick 5 goals to 3 to run out a tight 5-point winner. Ruckman Connor Oxton was able to take advantage of Taverner's absence to be an influential contributor and was awarded best player. Interestingly Plympton ruck man Declan Bayly was awarded his team's best for his lone hand in the ruck. Nathan Caruso was also rewarded for the defensive role he did on key Hectorville play maker Daniel Fairbrother. Plympton were able to share the goals around, but Jason Binns' 2 goals was critical. Hectorville will look to regain some confidence next week when they come up against a Morphettville Park team with little to play for while Plympton will get a clear idea of where they stand going into the last month of the season when they host the Bulls at Plympton oval.

Pooraka v Portland

First versus tenth is generally an easy result to predict and at times the score can get a little ugly. And so it proved to be as the Thunder ventured to Lindlom Park on Saturday. It was an 8 goal to 4 first quarter and a 7 goal to 2 second quarter. Pooraka were 55 points in front at half time. They could have been forgiven for taking their foot off the gas at this point. But an extraordinary 13 goal to nothing third quarter saw the scoreboard blow out considerably. The final margin was 154 points and reflects the true gulf between the top and bottom teams in this division. The key goal scorers for Pooraka feasted on the opportunities they were given. Luke Buckby kicked 10 and Ronald Rankine kicked 6. Unsurprisingly Buckby was also among the best players that were led by impressive ruck man Logan Mulady. Pooraka cannot lose top spot so this coming week will provide an interesting dilemma for Shane Hickey. They play a Plympton side that they may come across in a final also. Full throttle or rest and hold back? The rest in the first week of the finals may also be a contributor to the Bulls final selection decisions for this game. Portland will have one last chance to post a win as the welcome the Kookas to the Thunderdome.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 5 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Woodville South vs Trinity OS / 16.12 - 108 vs 5.5 - 35

Before the game Saturday, Woodville South were still in danger of being relegated as they come up against a Trinity outfit still in contention for a double chance come finals time. Both of them outcomes have gone right out the window as Woody South probably caused the upset of the season. The first quarter of this game seen Trinity take control early and be leading the home team by 3 point at the first change. That was the last time the TOSers looked in this game even slightly as the cats come out and blew them right out of the water for the remainder of the game. The second quarter seen Woody South kick 3 majors and a couple of behinds to lead Trinity by 11 points heading into half time.

Although on the score card it still looked like anyone's game for the taking, the cats had different plans and nobody could have picked what was to come throughout the next half of football. Woody South come out and played their best quarter for the season to date, slotting 7 goals to stretch their lead right out to 56 points before 3qtr time. Although their goal kicking was impressive, it was the defensive efforts team wide that set up the win. Managing to keep Trinity completely scoreless during the 3rd quarter was the match winner without a doubt. Woody South continued on the same path throughout the last quarter, booting another 5 goals compared to Trinity's 2 and once again further stretching their lead out to 73 points as they ran out the game. Huge win for the cats and a seriously disappointing effort from Trinity only a couple weeks out from finals. Dylan Gaylard played his best game for the cats on Saturday being named best on ground. Jaydn Gagliardi was also a stand out for Woodville south and will look to carry that form into next week. For Trinity it was Joshua Ebbs and Lachlan Barker that stood out for the travelling team, but with minimal help from the rest of the boys, they never stood a chance.

Pulteney vs Elizabeth / 16.10 - 106 vs 12.5 - 77

A clash that didn't have much upside for either team unless other results fell a certain way, it was a credit to both clubs the way they handled themselves and still put on a show for the members from each club. Bragging rights for the winner was the only thing on the line before they face each other again next season in division 5. Pulteney didn't waste any time taking control of this game, posting 5 majors throughout the first quarter and carrying a handy 19 point lead into the first break. Elizabeth come hard in the second quarter and looked much better but they couldn't stop the bleeding as the blues piled on another 5 goals to extend their lead out to 32 points at half time.

Chris Knapp gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Elizabeth needed to do something and quickly before this game became out of reach for them. As the 3qtr started you could sense the eagles had a different mind set, they started playing team first football and the score board pressure was handling itself. Elizabeth had kicked 5 goals and found a way to get themselves back into the match, only 17 points separated the teams before the last break. The comeback win was shut down quickly as Pulteney once again took control of the game and booted another 4 goals to seal the win. The blues run out the game as 29 point winners, well deserved. Koby Lynch-Evans was best on ground by far for Pulteney, solid effort considering he's missed so much football this season. Cameron Smith was also solid, named among the best and kicking 3 goals to go with it. For the eagles it was Daniel Richards and Stephen James who stood out above the rest, getting some reward for their efforts.

Kilburn vs Blackfriars / 29.23 - 197 vs 8.7 - 55

Look away now if you don't want to read about the massacre that took place out at Blair Athol Reserve on Saturday afternoon. Kilburn put on an absolute clinic and they have come together at this right time of the year, unfortunately it was at the expense of the struggling Blackfriars OS team. Right from the word go the chics had complete momentum and looked on track for another huge win. Booting 7 goals and 9 behinds during the first quarter to lead by 44 points at the first break. After knocking off the undefeated Gepps Cross side last week, Kilburn looked to carry that strong form into this weeks game and hopefully into finals.

The second quarter was their quietest of the day but they still managed to extend their lead out to 56 points as they cruised into the half time break. Blackfriars had absolutely no answers for the star power of Kilburn, there were too many players having an impact to be able to focus on just one or two of them. Things were about to get even worse for the hounds. Kilburn coming out after half time booting another 9 goals and once again pushing out their lead to a whopping 106 points before the 3rd quarter come to an end. The chics had already registered over 40 scoring shots for the game but their efficiency in front of goal wasn't great at this stage. Although a miracle comeback was well and truly out of reach, Blackfriars needed to find a way to get some respect back on the board during the last quarter.

The hounds had their best quarter of the game but still couldn't stop leaking goals as the chics slotted home another 9 goals and run out the game as 142 point winners. What a win leading into finals and extremely disappointing for Blackfriars as they now have a do or die clash against the 5th placed west Croydon if they want a chance at avoiding relegation.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Corey Solly was the star of the show, booting another 10 goals and pretty much crowning himself the divisions leading goal kicker for the season. Michael Howson wasn't going to be outshone though as he finished with 10 goals himself and showed the division why he's going to play a huge part in the chics premiership hopes come finals time. Blake Jordan and Giuseppe Vellotti were both named in the best for Blackfriars in a disappointing day for the club.

Colonel Light Gardens vs Gepps Cross / 15.12 - 102 vs 16.12 - 108

In a battle between a couple of the top teams in the division, this game did not disappoint at all. Being a couple weeks out from finals, both clubs had plenty to prove as they are both a serious chance of going all the way this season. Gepps were coming off the back off a huge loss to rivals Kilburn last week, while CLG were looking to make it 8 in a row on their charge towards the finals. It was CLG who got the jump early and looked on top of the Gepps Cross boys, kicking 5 goals in the first quarter and taking a very handy 17 point lead into the first change. The rams looked a bit rattled, suffering their first loss of the season last week the boys still looked out of touch but it was only a matter of time before the class of this Gepps Cross outfit shone through.

A huge second quarter from Gepps seen them claw their way back into the contest and even hit the lead right before half time. Kicking 5 goals in the second term and taking a 6 point lead into the main break. We had a serious game on our hands here and neither team was going to roll over, finals football like atmosphere. The third quarter was an arm wrestle of sorts and both clubs had good moments throughout, but Gepps Cross managed to do enough to extend their lead out to a couple of goals heading into 3qtr time. Game was still right in the balance and with another half an hour to play out, it was hard to pick a winner at this stage. The final quarter of the day didn't disappoint for a second, both teams throwing everything they had at each other and the quarter seen 11 goals kicked between the teams. Entertaining for everyone watching, even more so for the Gepps across faithful as they held on to win the game by 6 points.

Heart break for CLG but they should be extremely proud of their efforts, carry that into the finals and there's no reason they can't be there that final game of the year. Matthew Ramsey and Kye Dean were both outstanding for CLG, 2 of the clubs new recruits who will play huge parts throughout the finals series. Absolutely no surprises at all to see Dom Barry once again named best on ground for Gepps Cross, my pick for the medal this season and the key to the rams premiership hopes. Last years division 5 medalist, Daniel Mason was also huge on Saturday for Gepps Cross.

West Croydon vs Eastern Park / 23.10 - 148 vs 18.5 - 113

One team poised to play finals this season, the other team destined for division 6 next year. Would have been very easy for the demons to just rock up and go through the motions, letting West Croydon run all over them and have an easy win. Credit to Eastern Park though because it was in fact the complete opposite.

I was lucky enough to get out to this game on Saturday and watch the battle these clubs had, a very high scoring and entertaining game from both sides. The first quarter seen 16 goals kicked between the teams, both playing a very attacking brand of football and leaving the other side open to score freely.

West Croydon just doing it better at this point in time as they took a 16 point lead into the first change. Tyrone Milera was having a huge impact through the middle of the ground and Eastern Park just couldn't find an answer to stop him. The margin blew out a little during the second quarter as the run of the West Croydon boys was proving to be too much for the demons and some of their bigger bodies. 28 points was the margin at half time but with the way both clubs were scoring, that margin seemed much smaller. Eastern Park addressed a few things during half time in hope of stopping the run of a couple of star hawks, whether they could make it happen was a different story. West Croydon come out of half time still full of life, knowing their run and carry was ripping the demons apart was a huge confidence boost as they found another gear during the third term and started putting the demons to the sword. Nothing Eastern Park talked about during the break was happening and their heads started to drop. Llewellyn Milera was putting his class on display across the half back line, almost seemed untouchable out there and set up a lot of the attacking play for his team mates.

The margin blew out to 42 points heading into 3qtr time, almost impossible to come back from here for the demons. The last quarter was pretty even between the sides but the damage was done already, West Croydon had guaranteed themselves a spot in the finals this season and Eastern Park had one week left in division 5. The hawks run out the game as 35 point winners and should be proud of their efforts after coming up from division 6 this season. Llewellyn Milera was named best on ground for the hawks in one of the better performances I've seen in a division 5 game. Tyrone Milera was also among the best in his first game back for a while, his class on the inside of the contest will be huge for the hawks come finals time. Ian Williamson was the clear stand out for the demons, booting 6 goals as a midfielder earning himself another best on ground. Ben McMullen played one of his best games for the year in his 150th game for the club, also among the best.

MENS DIVISION 5 - ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Eastern Park vs Woodville South

In a game that is basically a dead rubber for both clubs, it will be interesting to see the approach from both teams. Eastern Park have had their most disappointing season in close to a decade, something everyone involved at the football club will look to change next year. Woodville South have battled hard all year but just couldn't string enough wins together to find themselves a finals position. Division 6 will be the lowest the demons have been since well before my time and will need to put in a mountain of work this off season if they want to change that in the coming years. Woodville South will enjoy another year in division 5 but have a bit of work to do if they look to challenge for a finals spot next year.

Woodville South - 30 points

Blackfriars vs West Croydon

Blackfriars currently sit in the relegation zone and unless they can pull of a miracle, they will be heading back down to division 6 next year. West Croydon currently sit 5th and are a game behind Trinity on the ladder. If they can pull off a big win here to boost their percentage, they will be praying CLG put trinity to the sword this week so the hawks can hopefully jump them and earn themselves a home final. Both clubs have plenty to play for but I can't see West Croydon dropping this one with what they've got on the line. Watching them on Saturday I honestly think they can cause some upsets come finals time and if all their star players can get on the same page, I can see them going deep into finals. I expect the hawks to put on a clinic this Saturday and hopefully snatch a home final against trinity the following week.

West Croydon - 60 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Gepps Cross vs Pulteney

All Gepps Cross need to do on Saturday is simply win and they will wrap up the minor premiership in a season that's seen them drop only 1 game. Pulteney with not much to play for but a bit of pride and to maybe rain on the Gepps Cross parade. The rams have had an outstanding year and deserve to finish on top of the ladder, their recruiting drive has paid off massively as they added some serious talent to an already star studded line up. The way the team has come together is a credit to their coaching staff and has showed on the field for majority of the year. Pulteney haven't been as fortunate after coming down from division 4. Their good has been good enough to match it with the best, but their consistency has hurt them throughout the year. They will look to go again next year after a big pre season and hopefully adding a few decent recruits to their line up in hope of pushing for finals. Gepps Cross - 40 points

Trinity OS vs Colonel Light Gardens

The last time these clubs met it was an absolute nail biter that seen Trinity kick a goal after the siren to win the game. One for the ages from 2 clubs destined for a string finals series. CLG can't move up or down from 3rd position, they've played a strong brand of footy throughout the year and have been rewarded for their efforts with a double chance. Trinity come up from division 6 after an undefeated premiership last season, to jump a division and make finals again is another massive effort and one everyone at the club should be proud of. They need to win this game to pencil in a home final the following week against West Croydon. Very interesting game the week before finals especially given the result last time the clubs met. CLG will look to rectify the loss last time and carry some strong form into the finals. CLG - 15 points

Elizabeth vs Kilburn

Elizabeth have proved a lot of people wrong this season and not many tipped them to even win a game. Claiming a few scalps on their way, they've got themselves in a position to stay up next season and avoid relegation. Kilburn have showed throughout the year why they fancied themselves for a division 5 flag, the body of work that was put into the club over the off season in their 100th year has proved to be crucial. It's no surprise to see them exactly where they are on the ladder and I expect them to be playing in a grand final this season. I don't think we've seen a team in division 5 with as many big names as the list the chics have put together, going to be hard to stop. Unfortunately for Elizabeth they've got their toughest game yet to finish off their season, I can see this one turning real ugly from the start. Kilburn will be ruthless and keep their foot on the throat charging towards finals. The eagles will be keeping a close eye on the Blackfriars game, because if the hounds can pull off a miracle win, it may just send Elizabeth crashing down to division 6 next year. Kilburn - 120 points

MENS DIVISION 6 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Marion Vs Adelaide Lutheran

Marion are at home this week against Adelaide Lutheran as they look to get a big boost heading into finals. Marion burst out of the gates as they booted seven first quarter goals and held Adelaide Lutheran scoreless as they were eager to get this game on their terms early. Adelaide Lutheran struck back in the second term with a few goals but Marion kept the heat and were able to kick another five goals, heading into halftime 63 point lead. Coming out of halftime Marion kept proving they were the better team and kept Adelaide Lutheran playing catch up, as they booted yet another five goals and kept Lutheran scoreless yet again.

The final quarter Marion turned the heat down and eased off, still putting another few goals on the board and ending with a convincing 119 point victory. A great performance all around as Brodie McHugh earned best afield for Marion, Patrick O'Dea was great in front of goal as usual with seven majors and Jaxon Russell was also good. For Adelaide Lutheran, James Zubrinich and Matthew Sukkel were the best and Rowen Miegel was their best in front of goal with two goals. Great win for Marion who are quite prepared for finals, they Salisbury in the final home and away game for the season next week. Adelaide Lutheran takes on Greenacres.

St Paul's vs Central United

St Paul's take on Central United at home this week, in a tough matchup for both sides on the verge of finals. St Paul's started well early, keeping Central United goalless for the opening term and kicking three goals to get a handy lead at the first break. Central United were quick to strike back in the second term as they took it up to St Paul's, both sides fighting it out well. At half time, St Paul's were in front by just a goal. Another solid effort from both sides in the third term as they both fought it out for the win, St Paul's were able to hold on despite the pressure building from Central United.

With the game on the line, Central United came out with an absolute firing last quarter, kicking eight goals to put themselves in the lead and hold on for the game, eventually winning by 31 points. A terrific last quarter performance from Central United to get the win, Mark Garner was the best for The Units, Ben Russell continuing his great form with second best, Thomas Porter and Dean Steele both kicked three goals each in their win. For St Paul's Luke Pitman was their best, Thomas Ahern a close second with three goals of his own. A great comeback win from Central United, they take on Rosewater next week while St Paul's take on Brahma Lodge.

Rosewater Vs Fitzroy

Rosewater had a tough contest as they took on Fitzroy at home this week. A great opening quarter saw Rosewater get well ahead of Fitzroy at the start of the game, kicking four goals to one and setting themselves up early in the match. The second quarter Fitzroy kicked into gear and kept Rosewater scoreless, kicking four goals of their own and were able to get out ahead of Rosewater by 8 points at the main break. Another great quarter from Fitzroy saw them get even further in front as they tired to make amends for their poor first quarter, continuing to gain a good lead.

Fitzroy kept chipping away in the last quarter and were able to outscore Rosewater, and come home with a 43 point win. A great win for Fitzroy, Daniel Rusby, Hunter Dwyer and Cain Smith were their best, Joshua Rosenthal also amongst the best with six goals. While for Rosewater it was Michael McInerney and Jackson Morrish who were best afield, Jason Kouba booting four goals. A good win for Fitzroy after a poor start, they take on Smithfield next week, while Rosewater have Central United.

Smithfield Vs Salisbury

Salisbury are on the road as they take on Smithfield this week. Smithfield started off defending well against Salisbury, but not without the dominance of Salisbury's side who got out to a seven goal lead at the first break, a handy lead for the match. A huge eleven goal second term set the tone for the match ad Salisbury were out to prove they are a premiership contender. They lead by 108 points at halftime. Smithfield performed well in the third term, booting a couple goals and defending well against a much stronger side, Salisbury booted eight goals in the third term. The best quarter performance for Smithfield came in the final term as they showed their attitude of never giving up and keeping Salisbury to just four goals, also booting a few of their own. Salisbury ending the game with a 161 point win.

A great performance from Salisbury who are slowly making their statement as flag contenders, Mitchell Slater was by far the standout for Salisbury, performing well all around the ground nad booting a massive 14 goals, Joseph Williams and Jackson Thompsom were also good on the day. For Smithfield, Daniel Brockman was their best, Dion Lucas and Darrell McIntyre also playing well, Issac Keightley was the best in front of goal with three goals. A great performance from Salisbury, one of the sides to best as they head into finals and fight for their shot at a flag.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 6 - ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Salisbury Vs Marion

Salisbury are back at home this week as they take on Marion in the final home and away round, a massive matchup. Salisbury have showed great form all season, currently sitting second and knocking on the door for a flag, they have a big task ahead of them as they look to knock off Marion. Marion have had a fantastic season, only losing the one game against Greenacres, they have come back with force and proven they are the team to beat this season. A massive matchup that could go either way, both sides have played well all year and could potentially go head to head in the last game of the season, I think both sides will fight hard but I think Salisbury will pull off an upset and get the win at home.

Tip: Salisbury by 10-20

Fitzroy Vs Smithfield

Fitzroy are back at home to take on Smithfield in the final match, looking for a big boost before finals to get their momentum going. Smithfield have had a tough year coming back into the league, but have done so with great games and proven they will never give up regardless of the opponent. Fitzroy have had a great year and will amp up for finals as they get ready to fight for a spot in the big dance against the best in the competition. I think Smithfield will give all they have in their last game of the season, and will take it right up to Fitzroy on their home deck.

Tip: Fitzroy by 1-10

Brahma Lodge Vs St Paul's

Brahma Lodge take on St Paul's in their last game of the season, both sides not making finals and fighting for pride for the end of the year. St Paul's have had an up and down year but have shown glimpses of great performances throughout the year and taking it up to some top sides. Brahma Lodge have had their toughest year in a while and will look to next season as they drop down a division to take on division seven. I think St Paul's will give all they have in their final match to set themselves up for next year and come back stronger with a big win.

Tip: St Paul's by 100+

Adelaide Lutheran Vs Greenacres

Greenacres are on the road looking to gain back some form before finals and look to make it back to back flags. Greenacres have dropped off a bit since last season, but still had a dominant season nonetheless, a big win a week before finals can really set them up for a big finals series. Adelaide Lutheran are fighting for their spot in finals with Central United, a win against Greenacres can potentially seal their spot and see them have a chance at going well through the finals series. I think both sides will give it a good shit but Greenacres will be too strong and come home with a good win. Tip: Greenacres by 40-50

Central United Vs Rosewater

Rosewater are on the road as they look to take on Central United. Central United are another side fighting for a spot in the finals, a win this week can nearly seal their chance and see them head into a finals series with some momentum and a chance at going far. While Rosewater season is now over, there is no doubt they have proved they have a quality side that will go well next season and take their game to the next level. Both sides have a lot to play for despite Rosewater not being able to make finals, I think they'll put up a good fight but Central United will come home with a good final win and secure themselves in the finals race.

Tip: Central United by 20-30

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 7 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Ingle Farm v Houghton

Ingle Farm started slow but were able to account for a rampaging Houghton, defeating the Raiders by 57 points. Houghton went into the first break full of confidence with a handy 14-point lead but were shell shocked mid game as Ingle Farm kicked 14 goals to 4 in the 2nd and 3rd quarters, which in the end determined the final score. Devin Payne (3) and Jie Martin (5) along with skipper Daniel Tanczos all impressed for the league leaders. Trent Harrison and Jake Martin (3) the standouts for Houghton.

Houghton will now put this performance behind them and focus their attention on Para Hills as they look to get their premiership tilt back on track. Ingle Farm will rest the first week of the finals as Minor Premiers, congratulations Ingle Farm.

Para Hills v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

Para Hills were in control from start to finish as they defeated O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale by 39 points. It was a tail of two halves for Para Hills who were trying too hard to get the ball to champion forward Daniel Weetra for his 100th goal. Having kicked 4.8, Para Hills went into the half time break with a 17-point lead and a goalless Weetra but were miles ahead of their opponents over the ground.

After halftime, the Big Reds played a more organic brand of football, Daniel Weetra kicking his 100th early in the third, with the pressure off of everyone Para Hills were able to kick 8.4 in the second half, Weetra finishing the day with 5.

Ryan Fitzpatrick and Harrison Kaesler were solid for OSBL, my man Trevor Rigney getting a taste of what the victors had to go through the week prior.

MENS DIVISION 7 - ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Mitchell Park v Mawson lakes

Needing a win to be any chance of making the finals, Mitchell Park did all they could, beating Mawson Lakes by 27 points. After going goalless in the first term, the Lions steadied the ship to take a 7-point lead into the major break. Albeit inaccurate, Mitchell Park were able to keep the pressure on Mawson Lakes both around the ground and on the scoreboard, kicking 6.8 to Mawson's 3.6 in the second half.

Darren King (2) and Anthony Jenkinson (1) who've arguably been the Saint's top performers this season put in strong performances. For the Lions, captain Brandon Walczak lead from the front as he has all season with a best on ground performance, Jordan Christall the leading goal scorer with 3 majors.

Unfortunately, the win was not enough to give Mitchell Park a finals birth as other results did not go their way, the Lions finishing an agonising half a game outside of the 5.

Flinders University v Hackham

Flinders Uni have kicked over 100 points for the third week in a row, recapturing some early form on their way to a 76-point victory against Hackham. In a must win game, Flinders Uni looked shaky at quarter time but were able to compose, heading into the last change with a comfortable 31-point lead.

The Crabs turned on the jets in the final term with a scintillating 11 goals blowing Hackham's chances of a comeback out of the water.

Robert O'Leary and Patrick Ganly toiled hard for the Hawks who will finish in last position in what has been a tough season. Luke Warland (4), Scott Friend and Shaun Brown (2) all starred for the Crabs who will now face O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale in an elimination final next week.

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

MENS DIVISION 7 - FINALS ROUND 1 PREVIEWS

Para Hills v Houghton

This shapes up to be a final for the ages, Para Hills had the advantage over the Raiders in their first two matches this season, but Houghton surprised a lot of people two weeks ago stealing a victory at Para Hills. Like most wins for Houghton this season the pressure lies with skipper Jake Martin, not only does he hit the scoreboard but his work up the ground is invaluable as the sides best option and ball mover.

Even with the result going against them last time they met, Para Hills have had a season that makes them deserved of the favourites tag. Para Hills by 30 points.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Flinders University

I can't see this one going anyway but OSBLs. There is a clear line between the top 4 sides of this competition and the others, regardless of whether they were playing Flinders University or Mitchell Park both are respectfully making up the numbers and are no match for OSBL. The Lions will look to get out of this match with a comfortable victory with no injuries, turning their attention quickly to the second week of finals. OSBL by 38 points.
