Crows to make finals march

What a performance from the Crows last Saturday night. Showdown 54 was always going to have a say in how both Adelaide teams would launch into the final four rounds of the season.

by Nick Smith

For the Crows, it was four excellent quarters and confirmed despite key players missing from the match, the Crows have the talent and are good enough to mix it with the better sides. I can't ever remember a season where the Crows have beaten the second placed side twice, lost to the top side twice by a combined margin of 3 points, and lost to the fourth placed Demons by four points. Add those three losses to their current nine victories, the Crows are sitting pretty in fifth spot, and knocking on the door of a double chance.

You can't rewrite history, but what you can do is learn from it, and develop strategies to ensure winning close games becomes a habit. Taylor Walker was excellent and continues to push Charlie Curnow in the race for the Coleman medal. The skipper Jordan Dawson was magnificent, and Matt Crouch was very effective at stoppage. Wayne Milera from half back was impactful and his ability to hit that last target when the Crows were entering inside 50 was first class and a testament to his hard work, to get back to playing the footy, all Crows supporters know he can play.

Mark Keane debuted for the Crows in the Showdown. (Had played 5 games for Collingwood previously) He was an inclusion for Nick Murray. He did a superb defensive job on Charlie Dixon who had very little impact on the game. Keane is a very agile defender, who in time, will be a great addition to the Crows backline and provide ongoing run from the back line.

With Jordan Butts getting injured early, Josh Worrall kept Todd Marshall scoreless and ineffectual. Luke Nankervis in only his second game was involved in some important contests which started a chain of attacking play from the back line. Overall, 23 players all contributed on the night. This is the most pleasing outcome of the game. It doesn't get any easier this week with the Gold Coast Suns coming to town. The Suns accounted for the Crows in Darwin earlier this year, despite the Crows having a 6-goal lead early in the second quarter.

Crows to make finals march (cont'd)

by Nick Smith

The Suns upset their Queensland rivals last week with an impressive 41-point win over the Lions. The Suns were excellent and can't be underestimated. The Crows would have learnt from their Darwin disaster and no doubt will want to return the favor.

Every game is an elimination final for the Crows, if they are to sneak into the finals, they simply must keep winning. The result went their way on Saturday night. Let's hope the sun doesn't set on their season, this Saturday afternoon.

Highlight of the week:

Taylor Walker joins an elite group with 7 goals in a showdown. More impressive was his goal that he kicked to the Riverbank end. He was awarded a free kick, went to play on via corridor, cut back to his left and from 50, kicked a drop punt on his left foot which went straight through the middle.

It was the goal of the night, and again highlights that you don't need to kick goals by trying to kick a banana. Walker and Darcy Fogarty have beautiful goal kicking techniques. I would suggest other forwards around the competition watch Saturday night's game, it will help them immensely. Walker needs 3 more goals for a career total of 600. Let's hope he can reach that milestone in front of a home crowd.

MY TIP – Adelaide: 13 – 29 Points.

Crows dismantle pitiful Power

by
Liam Sheedy

The Adelaide Crows has smashed a disappointing Port Adelaide by 47 points in Showdown 54 and handed Port Adelaide their third consecutive loss in the process.

The Power were disappointing from the outset and never truly looked in the contest with Adelaide leading from start to finish. The Crows led by two goals at quarter time and extended the lead to 29 points at the main break and really the margin should have been greater with a flat Port outfit completely out of sorts. The third term was a movie the Port faithful has seen before. Dominating the inside 50 count but not able to make any inroads on the scoreboard. The last term was party time for Adelaide kicking five goals to keep their slim finals chances alive. Taylor Walker superb with seven goals and a well-deserved recipient of the Showdown Medal in the comprehensive victory.

There were very few winners for the Power on the night. Francis Evans kicked four goals and ak Butters gave 100% effort as he always does but the Power midfield was swimming against the tide with Adelaide completely on top in clearances and contested possession. The major talking point out of the game the head clash between Aliir Aliir and Lachie Jones in the second term. Jones was subbed out of the game with a migraine while Aliir surprisingly made his way back onto the field after what appeared a clear case of concussion. Both players will miss the upcoming clash with the Cats after being placed under the official concussion protocols.

This outcome reflects extremely poorly on the club and at the very least Port Adelaide can prepare for a significant fine. The concussion saga will continue to make headlines and on-field Port desperately needs to avoid a four-game losing streak against Geelong at GMBHA Stadium this Saturday night, a ground they have traditionally struggled at. We are now in August, which may also mean an announcement around the future of Ken Hinkley is imminent.

Tumultuous Tigers to finish on top

by Wilson McShane

North Adelaide will play top of the ladder Glenelg this week, in a clash crucial in determining the top five. Both sides are in the top five and have been impressive this season. In fact, both sides have arguably been the most dominant teams in the competition in the past 5 seasons. As such, this game will likely be no aberration as the Roosters are fighting to secure their finals position, while the Tigers will attempt to establish a home final and double chance.

Glenelg have been near perfect this season. They are ranked second in offence, and more importantly, first in defence. If all the other teams this season are like a 2001 ford laser, Glenelg have been like a Ferrari. Explosive. Structurally sound. And unbeatable; the Tigers have been unbelievable. So good, they have only lost two matches this season. Like a Ferrari they have been mechanical in the way they have overcome teams, through winning key areas. In the past six weeks, Glenelg has lost disposals, marks, contested marks, tackles, clearances and inside 50's only once.

Arguably, the number of tackles the Tigers have laid is the most impressive of these stats. Despite having more possession than the opposition most weeks, their pressure is relentless. In their victory against West Adelaide, over half the team laid six or more tackles. This is nearly double the AFL average (3.2 tackles per person).

Further, this pressure has made them a difficult side to score against, hence their defensive ranking. In combination with this, the Tiger's ability to control the play through their marking has made them a threatening side when transferring the ball forward. Through their tall targets of Reynolds, Hosie and McBean, Glenelg has scored fluently in the past month. Therefore, if the Rooster's are to upset Glenelg, they will not only have to match their elite pressure but also counter the Tiger's premier forward line.

Wilson McShane

While North Adelaide have not yet reached last years prolific best, where they finished top of the ladder and narrowly lost in the grand final, they have been a relatively formidable side this season. However, they sit fifth and only 0.08 per cent above Central Districts, therefore this match is crucial for them.

In the past four weeks, the Roosters have revitalised their season as they have won three of their past four games. In this period, the Roosters have dominated clearances as well as marks. Through Combe (who is averaging 26.2 disposals), Wigg (who is averaging 24.2 disposals) and Gowers, who is having a breakout year, the Roosters strength is undoubtedly their midfield.

At last season's prolific best, this midfield dominance allowed them to overcome sides through their clearances, however; they were able to convert these clearances more effectively into scores, as they were ranked second in offence in 2022, whereas they are ranked only seventh this year. As such, they will need major goal kicking performances from Young, Moore and White if they are to upset the Tigers.

The last time these teams met, Glenelg were 57-point victors. If they are allowed to take excessive uncontested marks and apply their elite pressure, history will repeat itself. Similarly, if Glenelg's forward line is given the opportunity to overpower that of the Roosters, the Tigers will win. Conversely, if Combe and North Adelaide's midfield brigade can simulate some of last seasons form they will be difficult to beat. Nonetheless, Glenelg are the in-form side and cannot be tipped against.

Glenelg by 24-36.

Adelaide consolidate top-three with the defeat of Woodville

by Jakob Matheson

A career-best six-goal haul to Lachlan Gollant gave the Adelaide Crows their 10th win of the season as they put the Eagles to the sword in a 17.9 111 to 6.6 42 thumping, running away with the 69-point victory at Maughan Thiem Kia Oval at the weekend.

The Crows were in the box seat from the get-go booting 7 goals to 1 in the first term to set up the percentage-boosting victory as they strengthen their position inside the top-three.

Led by ruckman Kieran Strachan (25 possessions, one goal and a game-high 13 marks) and midfielder Tyler Brown (35 disposals, two goals and eight clearances), the visitors were way too strong for the home side, who were held to just 1.5 at the main break whilst conceding 11 goals themselves to trail by 60 points.

Despite the heavy defeat, it wasn't all bad news for the Eagles, as former Crow, James Rowe, continued his impressive season amassing a game-high 38 possessions including eight marks, eleven tackles and six clearances.

Off-season recruit, Connor Ballenden booted two goals from 15 disposals while also taking six marks, for the Eagles, who now fall to five and nine from 14 games and must win all of their remaining fixtures as well as hope the teams above them slip up, if they are to have any chance of playing in September.

Four on the trot for the Mighty Magpies

by
Jakob Matheson

The Magpies are getting hot, winning their fourth match in succession and fifth from their last six outings, with an impressive 19-point victory over early pacesetter Sturt at Alberton Oval on Sunday afternoon, grinding out a 10.13 73 to 7.12 54 win.

After a very even opening term which saw both sides kick two goals each, Port Adelaide booted a further three goals in the second quarter to take a very slim 3-point advantage into the main break, that lead would then extend out to 14 points at the final change thanks to goals from Quinton Narkle and Tom Scully, with the formers coming at the 18-minute mark of that quarter, which was Port's first goal since the 25-minute mark of the second quarter. Riley Bonner was extremely important in the middle of the ground, as he racked up 22 disposals including a game-high 10 marks for the Magpies. Ollie Lord (2 goals from 7 disposals), Tom Scully (2 goals from 8 disposals), Cody Szust (2 goals from 7 disposals), and Nick Moore (2 goals from 11 disposals, and nine tackles) combined for eight of Port Adelaide's ten goals, as they now improve to 8 and 6 and sit in fourth place, two games outside of the top-three.

Sturt were well-led by the usual suspects of Tom Lewis (26 possessions, 13 tackles and six clearances) and Casey Voss (27 possessions, seven marks), as well as two goals each from Joshua Hone and Chad Reschke. After kicking 17 goals across three quarters in Round 13 versus South Adelaide, to only manage 7 throughout the entirety of this match, must be a little bit disappointing for coach Marty Mattner, who's team, despite the defeat, is still sitting in 2nd place with an 11 and 3 win-loss record. With both Woodville and Sturt coming off of disappointing defeats last time out, they will be equally looking to prove a point as the Hostplus SANFL season reaches the pointy end, and with five games remaining, each one is just as important as the other. The Double Blues can all but certainly lock up the top-two with a victory over the Eagles when the two teams meet at Wigan Oval next weekend. This is a must-win for both sides and could go either way, but with Sturt returning home, they will prove too strong in this one.

The Eagles on the other hand, can improve to 6-9, keeping their slim finals hopes alive, and, assuming results go their way, could sneak into the top-five if they are to cause an upset on the road.

Prediction: Sturt by 15-25.

ROUND 14 REVIEW

Central District 8.10 (58) def South Adelaide 4.9 (33)

by
Lachy Jones

A fast start secured a much-needed win for the Bulldogs on Saturday, as the wet conditions played a massive part in the 25-point win. Due to other results, Centrals still find themselves just percentage outside the five, but are in a good position heading into the final few weeks of the home-and-away season, while the Panthers probably ended their finals hopes with the loss on the weekend.

The Bulldogs shot out to a four-goal lead by quarter time, with goals by Lewis Cowham, Luca Whitelum and Beau Thomas within the first ten minutes setting the tone for the contest. Another goal to Whitelum at the 16-minute mark meant a 25-2 start, threatening to put South away early. A Keegan Brooksby goal stopped the rout, and three unanswered goals in the second term brought the margin back to seven points by half time. Unfortunately, Bryce Gibbs' goal to end the second quarter was the last goal the Panthers would kick for the game, as they managed just five behinds in the second half as the weather got worse. Whitelum's two first quarter goals meant he was the sole multi-goalkicker for the contest.

South Adelaide won most counting stats, from disposals (302-255) to marks (94-85), and even held their own at stoppages, doubling Centrals' hitout count and recording five more clearances. But the 47-35 inside 50 win for the Bulldogs was the telling stat, as the ball was just around Centrals' goal more than South Adelaide. For large portions of the contest, however, the game felt neutral, with the Panthers on top at several stages around the ground, but Centrals' opening term proved too much of a mountain for the Panthers to climb.

For the Bulldogs, Billy Iles led the disposals with 20, with all of them being kicks, to go with 8 marks, 3 inside 50's and 6 rebound 50's as he sent Centrals forward out of half back. Harry Grant was also influential, and although he didn't win loads of the footy (19 disposals), he pressured hard (11 tackles) and won the ball out of the stoppage (6 clearances) on several occasions. Jarrod Schiller also had one of his more impactful games for the club, adding 6 clearances and 6 inside 50's to give his forwards plenty of opportunity.

The Panthers were led by Oliver Davis (26 disposals, 9 marks, 6 tackles) who battled hard all day, while Keegan Brooksby (1 goal, 41 hitouts, 6 clearances) dominated his ruck duel with Billy McCormack and Hugo Munn. Veteran Gibbs was also among the best with 21 disposals and a goal but couldn't carry his side to a win. The season is all but over for South Adelaide, two games back from the top five with four games to go.

ROUND 15 PREVIEW

South Adelaide v West Adelaide
Flinders University Stadium

by
Lachy Jones

The Panthers host the Bloods in a match that will mean little for the upper echelon of the ladder, but lots for the participating clubs. A little bit of confidence and positivity is all both clubs desire after disappointing 2023 campaigns for the respective sides see them outside the top five, and with little hope of getting back in, with four games remaining.

South Adelaide battled hard for large portions of the contest against Central District last week, but were faulted by a poor start and a goalless second half, costing them a vital upset win. West Adelaide were surprisingly competitive against the ladder leading Tigers, leading for three quarters and holding Glenelg to just one major in the first half, before ultimately running out of gas as the premiership hopefuls showed why they should be where they are in the fourth. Lots of positives can come out of both camps after their efforts on the weekend, but the lack of a full four-quarter performance was the overbearing theme for both sides.

South Adelaide controlled the possession game and were the better side out of the stoppages for most of their clash with the Bulldogs, but they lacked any real threat going forward and were unable to score goals for a majority of the game. They will need their attack to step up against the Bloods, who also struggled to score goals. Their intensity and pressure must also be at a high level, as West Adelaide recorded 128 tackles and forced countless stoppages, taking advantage of the conditions to make a scrap of their contest with Glenelg. The game may come down to who wants it more, as cliché as it sounds, and while the skill level may not be at the level of the top clubs, the pressure will be high.

This game could go either way based on recent results, with just one win separating the two sides on the season. Looking ahead to 2024, some wins to end this season could do wonders to the morale of each side, and this matchup is a perfect way to start.

Norwood to continue run of form

by
Austinn Lane

SANFL action continues this weekend at Coopers Stadium with Norwood hosting Central Districts. Both teams played in low-scoring matches last weekend, however only one came away with a win. Norwood played out a hard-fought loss to North Adelaide while Central Districts had the wood over South Adelaide. With both sides sitting outside the finals picture entering round 15, they are both hungry for a convincing victory to keep their finals dreams alive.

Norwood have had a strong run of form in the last 6 weeks, winning 3 games and losing 3 others by respectable margins. This week, Norwood come up against a North Adelaide side that had one equation – win the game or you are at risk of missing finals. The opening minutes of the game saw the ball fly from end to end with no score, putting on full display the hunger and desperation both sides possessed to get a win today. The rapid pace soon saw holes from in the defence of Norwood, who let one slip through and saw North Adelaide kick the opening goal of the game. North Adelaide then doubled their goal tally minutes before the quarter time siren, taking their lead to 11 points at the first change of ends.

The start of the second quarter was again a stalemate, with no side scoring for 8 minutes before two quickfire Norwood goals proved that there was a scoring end on the day. The second half of the term was opposite to the first with the game being controlled by North Adelaide, who also kicked two goals of their own in the quarter to maintain a 9-point lead at the main break. The third quarter was underway, and Norwood come out of the break firing, kicking the opening goal within two minutes to strike fear into their opponents. After plenty of back and forth kicking in the middle part of the quarter, North Adelaide once again broke through the Norwood defence and scored the most crucial of goals just minutes before three-quarter time to steady the ship, much like what occurred in the dying stages of the first, with the goal also extending the lead to 11 points heading into the last.

To begin the fourth quarter, North Adelaide controlled the game however couldn't pile on the scoreboard pressure, getting a return of three behinds from their constant repeat inside 50s, taking the margin to 14 points. The ball eventually made its way down the Norwood end of the ground where at the halfway stage of the quarter, they capitalised on the missed opportunities from the Roosters. Back-to-back goals from the Redlegs saw the lead cut to just two points, and with a world of momentum behind them, they looked destined for another upset win and their fourth of the season. Just minutes later, a clutch goal from Nigel Lockyer saw North Adelaide hit the front with less than five minutes to play, giving the Roosters an 8-point victory, breaking Norwood's hearts in the process.

Norwood to continue run of form (cont'd)

by
Austinn Lane

Despite the loss, Norwood put up a fantastic fight and this was highlighted in some of their players. Nik Rokahr had a game-high 33 disposals, while Jacob Kennerley had 25 disposals, 6 marks and 7 tackles to put his hand up as the best player on field for Norwood. Matthew Nunn made his presence felt in the middle, having 29 disposals and 8 clearances.

Central Districts entered their game needing a win and provided just that, with a convincing 25-point win over South Adelaide all but keeping them in the fight for the final five, while making the equation all the more difficult for South Adelaide to make finals. The game couldn't have started on a better note for Centrals, kicking the first 3 goals of the game to rocket out to an 18-point lead in the first five minutes, including a first career goal to Beau Thomas in just his second game. Luca Whitelum kicked his second goal of the quarter at the 17-minute mark, before a quick reply saw the first South Adelaide goal of the game from Keegan Brooksby, leaving the quarter time margin at 25 points. He second quarter sparked a response from South Adelaide as they controlled the entire quarter, kicking 3 goals to 0 in the term to bring themselves right back into the game, only trailing by 7 points at the main break.

The second half saw minimal scoring take place; however Central District did kick two goals in the third term to really steady the ship heading into the last quarter, entering the final term with a handy 20-point lead. A lone goal in the fourth to Centrals player Mani Liddy saw South Adelaide have a goalless second half, as well as Centrals running away with a convincing 25-point victory. Harry Grant put together a complete performance, having 19 disposals and 11 tackles in the midfield. Luca Whitelum finished as the only multiple goal scorer for the game, finishing with 2 goals from his 13 disposals, as well as 6 marks. Billy Iles was prolific down back, having 20 disposals, all kicks, as well as a team-high 8 marks.

Looking ahead to the weekend, Centrals look to be the favourites heading into the match after winning their last two games, while Norwood are currently on a 3-game losing streak after winning their only 3 games for the year all in a row. They have been highly competitive in recent weeks, and despite losing they have taken it up to some of the better teams in the competition. Centrals will have to dig deep and fight hard away from home to ensure they come away with the victory, however they do look to be the better side. This one promises to be one that shapes the finals race dramatically, making it one of the must watch games for the weekend.

Norwood by 13-24.

Crows mitigate Magpies challenge in SANFL Showdown

by
Tyler Maund

A compelling SANFL showdown awaits, as the third-placed Crows host the fourth-placed Magpies at Adelaide Oval on Saturday.

The Crows have rediscovered their best form in recent weeks to win three in-a-row, including a statement win over league leaders Glenelg, whilst the Magpies have won four consecutive games, capped off by an impressive 19-point win over second-placed Sturt. It looms as a massive day at Adelaide Oval for both the Crows and Port, with the SANFL Showdown shortly followed by the AFL Showdown under lights at 7:10pm (ACST).

An onslaught of 12 unanswered goals saw Adelaide put Woodville-West Torrens to the sword in Sunday's Round 14 clash at Woodville. The Crows kicked the opening goal through Lachlan Gollant, before the Eagles responded with their first goal courtesy of Luke Beecken. Gollant kicked his second of three first quarter goals in the eighth minute of the first term, igniting a run of six consecutive goals that would hand the Crows a 38-point lead at quarter time. Adelaide's momentum continued into the second quarter, kicking another four unanswered goals as the Eagles failed to fire, registering four behinds and staring down the barrel of a 60-point deficit at the main break. Elliott Himmelberg and Tyler Brown added to the Eagles pain early in the third term kicking majors to extend the margin to a game-high 72-points. Two quarters of football had passed to the minute, when finally Daniel Sladojevic kicked the Eagles' elusive second goal, sparking a mini-revival of sorts for the Eagles as they kicked four goals in-a-row to close out the third quarter, reducing the margin to 49-points at three quarter time. Eagle Sam Nicholls kicked his second consecutive goal six minutes into the final term, however it would be the Eagles last score of the afternoon, with the Crows kicking the final four goals to close out a 69-point thumping, 17.9-111 to 6.6-42.

The Crows won the disposal count 360-320, clearances 40-23 and inside 50s 51-34. They also converted well inside 50, operating at 65% efficiency from their shots on goal. Former Collingwood player Tyler Brown starred for the Crows, amassing 35 disposals and kicking two goals, along with young gun Jake Soligo (27 disposals, one goal) and ruckman Kieran Strachan (25 disposals, 28 hit outs, one goal). Lachlan Gollant was outstanding in front of goal, kicking six goals, alongside Elliott Himmelberg (three).

Crows mitigate Magpies challenge in SANFL Showdown

by
Tyler Maund

Port Adelaide found itself entangled in an arm wrestle with Sturt at Alberton Oval on Sunday, before breaking free in the second half to score its eighth win of the SANFL season.

Both sides exchanged goals in the opening term, with scores locked at 2.2-14 to 2.2-14 at quarter time. Sturt got off to the fast start in the second quarter, with Steven Slimming converting to push the Double Blues out to a six-point lead within the opening 30 seconds. Goals to Cody Szust and Ollie Lord saw the Magpies wrestle back momentum, before Chad Reschke slotted his second goal of the afternoon to hand the Double Blues back a three-point lead.

The swift response game from Port Adelaide's Nick Moore however, as he goaled to help lift the Magpies to a three-point lead of their own at half time, they would not be headed from there. Goals quickly became scarce as both sides struggled to hit the scoreboard with great impact in the third term. After Magpie Hugh Jackson missed an opportunity in the opening 30 seconds of the third quarter, four consecutive behinds to the Double Blues saw them only able to level the scores, before Magpie dynamo Quinton Narkle and forward Thomas Scully converted to give Port Adelaide a 14-point margin at three quarter time. A see-sawing fourth term saw Josh Hone spark the Double Blues back to life, the forward kicking two goals to bring the deficit back to eight-points. Port Adelaide responded to register the last six scoring shots of the match, including a match-sealing goal, on its way to a 19-point, 10.13-73 to 7.12-54 win.

Sturt owned more possession, winning the disposal count 268-296, however Port Adelaide levelled the clearance battle 31 apiece, and won the inside 50 count 44-37. Jase Burgoyne (24 disposals), Narkle (23 disposals, one goal) and Riley Bonner (22 disposals, 19 kicks) were the major ball winners for the Magpies, whilst Lord, Moore, Scully and Szust all kicked two goals each. Sam Hayes and Dante Visentini formed a valuable partnership in ruck, with 21 hitouts each.

Saturday's SANFL Showdown is an enticing one, with two of the form sides of the SANFL competition clashing on South Australia's biggest stage, Adelaide Oval. Port Adelaide's strong performance over Sturt last weekend is enough to suggest that they defeating them will be no easy feat for the Crows, however the depth and talent of Adelaide's SANFL line-up will be a handful for the Magpies to counter. The Crows produced a stirring 20-point win over competition pacesetters Glenelg two weeks ago away from home, and continued that form with their obliteration of Woodville-West Torrens last weekend. Back on their home deck this weekend, they will be too strong for the Magpies, but only just. Crows by 11-points

Enjoy A Laugh With Sturt and Carlton Legend on
The Peter Motley Experience Podcast
 Hosted by Paul Rowse from The Laughter Project

This podcast is so funny but most of all I just love my mate Peter Motley. He's my Brother

Michael Graham (The Flash)

What a great story, Peter is a true friend and champion.

We were great team mates together and have so many good memories.
 Rick Davies (Jumbo Prince)

What a great friend and a legend Motts is.

Team mates and friends for life.
 Craig Bradley (Braddles)

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was an integral part of our 2021 QAFI Premier League allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premier League success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”
