Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was a integral part of our 2021 QAFL Premiership allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premiership success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach

Crows to finish the season with a win over big birds

by
Nick Smith

Sometimes in life you get what you deserve. Many a football and sporting coach will use this saying to highlight that over the course of a game or a season, there are many opportunities that haven't been taken, and the final wash up sees that generally, everything evens out at the end.

Whilst I broadly agree with this sentiment, you can't help but think that our officials that make important decisions during every match should be able to make the relatively easy call of weather the ball was a goal, or simply it wasn't. I have umpired different sports at different levels and appreciate how difficult at times officiating can be. What I don't accept is that professional umpired who have access to technology, don't use it, to ensure the right decision is made.

I don't completely blame the goal umpire for the Ben Keys behind decision last Saturday night. Whilst the ARC wasn't used to review the decision, surely if they can see that the on-field decision was wrong, they can communicate with the field umpires, and advise them of the error, and the appropriate fix. Whilst I know that all goals are reviewed, clearly the behind was a goal, and the impact this has had not just on the result of the match, but the outcome of the Crows season, and that of other club's challenge for a finals berth, is significant.

The Crows should have kicked more accurately in that last quarter to put the result beyond doubt, I suggest the moment Luke Pedlar was substituted into the game, the Crows started winning contested ball particularly for the center square. The Crows themselves can reflect on where they can improve, but the officials need to ensure this never happens again. The ramifications are otherwise massive.

The Crows will complete their season with a trip to Perth to face the Eagles. The Eagles lifted themselves of the bottom of the ladder with a wonderful win over the Bulldogs at Marvel Stadium. The Eagles have won three matches all season with a percentage of 52.5. It will be a day of celebration for the home side as many premiership players are retiring, including SA boy Shannon Hurn.

Crows to finish the season with a win over big birds (cont'd)

by Nick Smith

The Crows will want to finish the season strongly and head into the preseason break with a sense of purpose and a clear focus on what they need to do, to continue to improve and push into the top 8 for season 2024. There will be plenty of hope and a expedition that finals are a realistic expectation.

The playing group has demonstrated they are not far away. With another preseason and a father son selection (Scott Welsh's son Tyler) in this year's draft, the future is promising both in the immediate and next few years.

Several former club champions have sons within the Crows Academy which is a pool of upcoming talent. Scott Thompson and Simon Tregene a are two past players who have sons that over the next couple of years, could be running out in front of you at Adelaide Oval.

Crows' fans will be dissatisfied with not making finals but pleased with the improvement of the team's competitiveness against the top sides, and the measured improvement of many players. I can't wait for season 2024, It will be a rollercoaster at times, and test our patience, but one of great enjoyment.

Let's hope the playing group can stay injury free over the summer, and that desire to play finals drives them to do all they can, to be playing in September in 2024. Have a great Summer everyone, talk next year. Go Crows.

M TIP Adelaide 29 49 Points.

Port give Freo the heave-ho

by
Liam Sheedy

Port Adelaide has recorded its second consecutive win and defeated Fremantle for the first time at Optus Stadium by 16-points, the victory keeping alive their slim chances of a top two finish heading into the final round of the regular season.

The Cats recorded a 12-point victory to keep their finals chances alive and condemned the Power to their fourth consecutive loss in the process. The margin was tight for much of the contest and Port will take positives out of the match, but it was still a defeat that had severe ramifications as the Power dropped from second to fourth on the ladder.

The Power started slowly with the Dockers kicking the first two goals of the game before Port worked into the contest with the last two goals of the first term. The Power led at half-time and extended their lead to 22 points at three quarter time. Despite some late Fremantle pressure Port Adelaide held on to record an important victory and gain some further confidence before the true test begins in September.

ak Butters may have banked another three Brownlow votes gathering 31 disposals, seven score involvements, three clearances and a classy goal in the opening term. Darcy Byrne Jones, Jeremy Finlayson and Sam Powell-Pepper each booted two goals, the goal kicking radar not quite dialled in for Todd Marshall. The Power defensive half held up reasonably well restricting Fremantle to eight goals from 46 inside 50s. Tom Jonas left the ground in the second term after a head clash but returned and was a more than solid contributor.

Early in the contest, it looked like Luke Jackson was going to prove a handful, but Sam Hayes battled valiantly in ruck and despite not having dominant numbers played an important role as Port won overall clearances. Ryan Burton the main injury concern for the upcoming clash with Richmond, subbed out with a knee injury. The big news this week is Tom Jonas has announced his retirement at the end of the season. Jonas has carved out a very successful AFL career playing over 200 games and captaining the Club. Hopefully he still has another chapter to write.

Crows Flying high

by Wilson McShane

The sun's refuge behind the clouds is finally coming to an end. The grass is hardening, the weather warming, the beaches filling. It can mark only one thing... finals football is almost here. With one remaining game of the home and away season, Adelaide will play Norwood. This match, despite being played by the second and second to bottom side, is set to be a blockbuster.

While Adelaide has secured their top three spot, earning them a double chance in finals, they will be looking to have a seventh straight win on the weekend leading into the finals.

The Crows have never won a SANFL grand final and as such are chasing blood this season. They are the second ranked side and are arguably the most dangerous team in the competition. They are ranked first in the competition for both offense and defence. While their offensive capability has always been in their arsenal, this season their development in defence has allowed them to consistently outplay quality sides.

Further, in the past three weeks the Crows have not lost disposals, disposal efficiency, scoring accuracy or inside 50's. Interestingly, the Crows are willing to concede uncontested marks and clearances (only won one out of the past three weeks).

This indicates that the Crow's high-pressure and offensively effective game, means they prioritise fast movement on the ball as opposed to a controlled style of play. This will make for an interesting game as opposition coach, Jade Rawlings, side is defensively disciplined.

In stark contrast to Adelaide, Norwood have been disappointing in 2023. Despite providing a mid-season resurgence, Norwood's season was ultimately doomed after losing their first eight matches. Fortunately for Redleg's fans they have only lost three of their past nine.

Crows Flying high (cont'd)

by
Wilson McShane

In these nine games, coach, Jade Rawling's has recreated the Norwood of old, a defensively sound powerhouse, as only two teams have kicked over 10 goals against the blue and red. This return to form has been demonstrated by the numbers.

In the past four games, Norwood has had a greater disposal efficiency than their opposition. This is due to the pressure the Redleg's have applied to their opposition as they have won the tackle count three of four weeks.

Conversely, their effectiveness with the ball can be attributed to their controlled style of play as they have had more marks than their opposition three of the past four weeks.

Further, the monstrous seasons Boyd, Rokahr and Kennerly are having has meant Norwood has won the disposal count three of the past four weeks. As such, if the Redlegs can restrict Adelaide's fast ball movement, with their controlled style of play, they stand a chance to upset the competitions in-form team.

The last time these sides met Adelaide were 24-point victors. Although Norwood have no doubt returned to form and launched a late-season revival, Adelaide is playing arguably the best football in the competition. As such, I feel they will be victorious in a hard-fought clash.

Adelaide by 12-24.

ROUND 18: Eagles (6-11) v West Adelaide (3-13-1)

by Jakob Matheson

Woodville West Torrens put on an extremely clinical performance as they ensured that ladder leaders, Glenelg had to wait till the final round of the home and away season, to be crowned minor premiers, after seeing off the visitors by 22 points at Woodville Oval on Saturday afternoon.

The 16.8 104 to 12.10 82 victory gave the Eagles their sixth win of the season in what is dual premiership mentor, Jade Sheedy's last ride, as he, earlier this season announced he would be stepping down at the end of Round 18.

Despite conceding six goals in the 2nd term, and five goals to Lachlan Hosie, the home side were able to turn things around in the second half, booting 8.6 to 2. to come away with the two points. James Rowe had plenty of the football, racking up 34 disposals and 2 goals while also collecting nine marks, eight tackles and seven clearances for the Eagles. Joseph Sinor had 2 possessions including 5 marks. Will Pearce (four), and Max Beattie (three) combined for 7 of Woodville's 16 majors.

Corey Lyons continued his impressive season with another outstanding performance for Glenelg, which included 31 disposals and 10 clearances. Along with Hosie, Hugh Stagg was influential, as always, up forward, collecting 11 possessions and kicking three goals one behind.

Glenelg will now have a chance to lock up and secure the minor premiership with a victory over South Adelaide in the final round of the home and away season, while Woodville West Torrens will be looking to farewell two-time premiership coach, Jade Sheedy in style when they take on cellar-dwellers, West Adelaide next Saturday afternoon.

ROUND 18: Eagles v West Adelaide (cont'd)

by Jakob Matheson

West Adelaide missed a golden opportunity to not finish as wooden spooners in season 2023 when they drew with Norwood at Richmond Oval on Saturday afternoon.

Both teams finished the game level, with West Adelaide kicking 8.6 in the second half, to finish 10.16 6 to Norwood's 11.10 6.

Norwood were leading by as much as 35 points late into the third quarter and early on into the last but were not able to keep control of the contest, as the Redlegs managed to kick 3.3 after half time.

Norwood's experienced midfield quartet consisting of Nik Rokahr (29 disposals), Matthew Nunn (26 disposals), Jacob Kennerley (26 disposals) and Matthew Panos (24 disposals and two goals), did all they could but in the end it ultimately was not enough to be able to collect the two points, which in the end were shared evenly between the two clubs.

Youngster Guy Lok booted three goals whilst Jackson Callow backed up his four goal haul from last weekend with a two goal performance this weekend, which included 20 disposals and eight marks. West Adelaide's Thomas Morrish had a game-high 30 possessions and seven tackles. Kobe Ryan (24 and a goal), Callum Park (23 and one goal) and Joel Stevens (23 and one) were also busy, as always.

The Eagles, despite not being able to make finals this season, will have all the momentum that is required heading into Jade Sheedy's final match in charge, so in saying that. Eagles are almost unbeatable on their home deck.

Prediction Woodville by 30-45 points.

Sturt 13.9 (87) def by Adelaide 16.7 (103)

by Lachy Jones

Despite the controversy surrounding the senior side on Saturday night, the Crows' SANFL side had a great win against fellow premiership hopefuls Sturt to overtake the Double Blues into second position with just one round to play. Sturt have not been lower than second all year until now, dropping a crucial top-of-the-table clash albeit leading at three quarter time at home, before a last quarter flurry of goals by the visitors sent Sturt packing by 16 points. With Adelaide playing Norwood in the final round next week, which looms as a win, the Crows will finish second with an impressive percentage, and Sturt will have to settle for third.

The Crows were much cleaner and effective around the ground, and it made Sturt's high intensity tackling game a non-factor the Double Blues were well below their average tackle count. Jackson Hately continued his strong 2023 campaign with 28 touches, 5 clearances and 8 inside 50's, while exiled senior player Lachlan Sholl had a team-high 29 disposals with inside 50's and 11 marks in a complete performance, including an important last quarter goal to kickstart their run. Lachlan Gollant, Ned McHenry and Josh Smithson each booted three goals to pace the attack, while Jarman Sigal and Tyler Brown had to anchor a severely undermanned ruck department with no Kieran Strachan or Elliott Himmelberg. The brave win without multiple key pieces earns the Crows a well-deserved top two finish, with a premiership firmly in their sights in 2023.

For Sturt, Joshua Hone was pivotal in the first three quarters, kicking five straight to propel the Double Blues into a handy lead, one they completely let slip in a disappointing last term. Amos Doyle dominated the ruck battle with no real opponent, winning 33 hitouts and having 5 clearances and 6 inside 50's, while midfield pair James Battersby (31 disposals) and Tom Lewis (2) matched the Crows' engine room pretty well. James Mathews kicked their lone fourth quarter goal as they ran out of gas, costing them a top two spot and potentially a Grand Final berth.

Sturt's matchup this week against North Adelaide could have massive ramifications on the final standings, but unless Adelaide lose to Norwood, they will have to settle for finishing third after being top for a large portion of the season early.

ROUND 18 PREVIEW

North Adelaide V Sturt

by
Lachy Jones

In terms of implications on the ladder, games do not get bigger than this. The Roosters can control their own destiny this weekend at home and play finals in 2023 with a win. Central District and Port Adelaide play each other in Round 18, meaning a Roosters win will see them overtake the loser of that clash, with all three sides sitting on 8 wins. The Roosters ruined their chances of a guaranteed spot last week with a narrow 58-60 loss to Centrals, giving the Bulldogs hope of playing finals instead of North, but now the equation is simple - if North Adelaide win, they make finals.

Where this game will be won for the Roosters is how Adelaide overcame their deficit against Sturt last week not playing to Sturt's level. The Double Blues want the contested game tackling, forcing stoppages, and working from there. The Crows enabled a free-flowing game to occur in the second half, more to their style of footy, to take the game away from the Double Blues, and North Adelaide may have to follow suit. The Roosters will be hoping for a game similar to their runners-up form from last year to get them into September.

Sturt on the other hand, will be needing a win and an Adelaide loss to get back second position which feels unlikely given the Crows' recent form. At their best, the Double Blues should be able to roll up to Prospect Oval on Saturday and eliminate North Adelaide from finals contention. Their midfield core can match it with any midfield in the league, and their forward line has been firing of late through Josh Hone and Lachlan Burrows. The ruck battle will be telling with Amos Doyle going up against Mitchell Harvey giving first access to their midfielders could be vital for the clearance war.

All in all, the climax of the regular season has come down to Saturday's proceedings of footy. A North Adelaide win will see them play finals footy in 2023, and a loss will keep last years runners up out of finals footy, in what would be a severely disappointing result for the club. Contrastingly, a Sturt win gives them a chance of a top two finish still, and a loss (or Adelaide win) cements them in third heading into September.

Glenelg to bounce back and claim minor premiership

by Austinn Lane

As we enter the final round of SANFL home and away football this week, the results of last weekend have made for the most exciting of finishes. The final round of footy sees top of the table Glenelg Tigers play host to South Adelaide Panthers, who sit three games outside the top five.

Coming off a shock loss away to Woodville-West Torrens last week, Glenelg will be all the more eager to record a victory, one that will claim top spot for the Tigers.

South Adelaide are coming off an absolute nail-biter against Port Adelaide last week, which ended in a draw, ultimately leaving the race for the final 2 spots in the finals wide open.

Glenelg went into the game on the weekend against Woodville-West Torrens needing a win or a draw to claim the minor premiership and would have felt rather confident in walking away with points given their recent form. A goal 46 seconds into the game set the tone for the Tigers, striking panic into the Eagles players and supporters. The response was almost immediate from the Eagles, with two quick goals from Will Pearce settling the nerves, before two more goals established a 3-goal lead for Woodville at the halfway mark of the first term.

The second half of the term was controlled by Glenelg, kicking 3 more goals to 1, including 3 in the quarter from league leading goalkicker Lachie Hosie. A late goal to Woodville left the margin at 6 points after an eventful first term. The second term began in scintillating fashion for the home side, with two quick goals from Max Beattie stretching the lead to 18 points before two minutes had been played. With panic well and truly setting in for the premiership favourites, they soon turned the tables, going on a remarkable 5-goal run to wrestle themselves back into the contest. Two more goals from Lachie Hosie saw his total sit at 5 goals before halftime, before another red time goal to Woodville saw Will Pearce kick his fourth goal for the half, cutting the margin to 13 points at the main break.

Halftime came at a bad time for Glenelg, who had all the momentum going in their favour. This was evident after the third term began, with Woodville-West Torrens kicking the first 3 goals of the quarter to force another lead change, before Luke Reynolds kicked the lone goal for Glenelg in the quarter. With fatigue setting in and inaccuracy playing a factor in the game, a third goal from Max Beattie was the lone goal from the last 5 scoring shots of the term, leaving Glenelg facing a 2-point deficit at the final change of ends.

by Austin Lane

The final quarter began much the same way as the first, with goals to Jimmy Rowe and Troy Men el, extending the lead to 14 points for the Eagles. This ultimately put the game at bed for Glenelg, who needed somewhat of a miracle to come back back from this taking into consideration the amount of momentum that Woodville-West Torrens had in their favour. Without a goal to their name for the first half of the quarter, a coast-to-coast goal to Woodville courtesy of Kade Herbert his first in league footy - seemingly put the game to bed for the Eagles, with the lead now at 21 points.

Eventually, a constellation goal to Glenelg got them on the board, before a second league goal to Kade Herbert left the final margin at 22 points and an emphatic victory for Woodville-West Torrens. Corey Lyons lead the way for the Tigers, finishing with 31 disposals, 6 marks, 6 tackles, inside 50s and 10 clearances in a dominant midfield display. Lachlan Hosie finished with 5.2 from his 14 disposals, including 6 marks, while Hugh Stagg added 3 goals from his 1 touches.

In the earlier game on Saturday, South Adelaide put a halt to Port Adelaide's hopes of claiming finals in the penultimate round, with the match finishing in a split of points. The game began much the way it ended, with both sides kicking 3 goals in the first term, including 2 from Port Adelaide forward Ora io Fantasia and 2 from Panthers forward Ben Shillabeer, with the Magpies taking a 2-point lead into the first break.

The second quarter was gold for the home side, with a -goal to 1 quarter setting up what was set to be an almighty upset. Two goals from Jonti Schuback set up the quarter for the Panthers, before singles from Fitt, Sproule, Freitag, Wilkinson and Gibbs left South Adelaide with a comfortable 35-point lead heading into the main break. The third term was a goal-fest, with 9 more goals piled on in the quarter.

Fantasia opened the quarter with one of his own, taking his total to 3 for the day. Ben Shillabeer then followed through for his third of the day, while Liam Fitt and Damon Freitag kicked goals to take their totals to 2 and 3 respectively for the Panthers. Then with the pressure building, the floodgates opened for the Magpies.

South Adelaide

SAT 26 A G 02 10 PM - Glenelg Oval

Glenelg to bounce back and claim minor premiership (cont'd)

by Austin Lane

They kicked the last 5 goals of the term, including 3 from AFL listed player Frankie Evans, with singles to Jase Burgoyne and Ollie Cheesman, leaving the margin at a manageable 12 points heading into the final change of ends. The final term began the same as the first and third, an Ora io Fantasia goal to cut the lead the to a single kick just minutes into the term.

An immediate goal from Cody Sust levelled the scores early in the term for the Magpies, before Liam Fitt replied for his third of the day. Quinton Narkle and Keegan Brooksby exchanged goals to keep it a see sawing affair for the term, and when trailing by 4 points, a Thomas Scully goal was enough to put Port Adelaide in front with about 8 minutes left to play.

With plenty of opportunity, it just wasn't meant to be a win for either side, with South Adelaide kicking the only two scores for the remainder of the game both behinds to leave the scores at 9 -9 as the final siren blew.

Keegan Brooksby put together a strong performance, having 39 hit outs as well as 1 disposals, clearances, 6 marks and a goal to put his hand up for a best on ground performance. Koby Mutch had game-highs in disposals (30) and clearances (9), while Liam Nye laid a team-high 10 tackles to contribute defensively. Joseph Haines was a wall in defence, having 23 disposals (all kicks) and 10 rebound 50s.

Looking ahead to the weekend, Glenelg look to be the clear favourites in the end-of-season clash, however there are areas where South Adelaide can limit the impact that Glenelg have on the game. Their defence has been reasonably consistent all season and the matchup of Haines and Hosie promises to be nothing short of mouth-watering. The midfield power of the Tigers seems to be too strong on paper, while their small forwards have proven they can turn a game on its head within a matter of minutes this year. With a minor premiership on the line, its awfully difficult seeing Glenelg let another slip through their grasp, especially on their home deck.

Magpies cling on under finals-like pressure

by
Tyler Maund

A finals spot is on the line for Central District and Port Adelaide on Saturday when they clash in the final round of the regular season at Convenience Oval.

The Magpies sit fourth on the SANFL ladder, one premiership point clear of the Bulldogs in fifth, but the loser of Saturday's clash could be pushed out of finals contention if a desperate North Adelaide defeats Sturt at Prospect Oval.

The Bulldogs scraped home against the Roosters last Saturday to win by two-points in a game that carried major implications for finals. Bulldogs ace Harry Grant had a monstrous game featuring 34 disposals and a goal, whilst Justin Hoskin (22 disposals, 20 kicks), Hugo Munn and Aiden Grace (two goals each) were also influential. The Bulldogs were headed in the possession battle and the clearances, but won the inside 50 count comprehensively 46-32. Three consecutive goals got the Bulldogs off to an electric start at Prospect Oval in the first quarter, with Munn kicking his two majors within the opening 11 minutes of the match.

A late first term goal to North Adelaide's Noah Casalini would see Central's margin cut to five-points at quarter time. Harrison Elbrow and Karl Finlay had a large hand in giving the Roosters a two-point lead at half time, with both kicking a goal each but missing multiple opportunities throughout the quarter.

The third quarter saw the Bulldogs score 3.6 from their opportunities inside forward whilst the Roosters were able to kick three goals from only four scoring opportunities, holding a three-point margin at the last change. Goals became scarce in the last term, as Harrison Wigg and Casalini missed opportunities to extend the Roosters' margin, before a goal to Central's Kyle Presbury later on in the term proved to be a match-winner, as the Bulldogs held on for a 8.12-60 to 8.10-58 win.

The Magpies clash with South Adelaide last Saturday ended in a draw, with South Adelaide almost stealing the game in the dying embers. The Magpies dominated the inside 50 count 49-38 but were beaten in all other key areas. It was even performance from many Port players with Trent Dumont (25 disposals), Riley Bonner and dynamo Quinton Narkle (23 disposals, one goal) all strong performers.

Magpies cling on under finals-like pressure (cont'd)

by
Tyler Maund

Ex-Essendon forward Ora io Fantasia was damaging inside 50 kicking four goals, alongside Francis Evans (three goals) and Jed Hagan (two goals). Two goals to Fantasia helped the Magpies to a two-point lead at quarter time, with Panthers player Ben Shillabeer kicking two late goals for the home side.

South Adelaide got off to a fast start in the second term, kicking three goals in-a-row before Jed Hagan kicked his second major of the day, to reduce the margin to 11-points. The Panthers continued to kick away however, dominating the quarter to kick four consecutive goals, with the Magpies trailing by 35-points at half time. The Panthers lead got to a game-high margin of 41-points in the 11th minute of the third term, before an inspired comeback from Port Adelaide saw them kick five of the next six goals before three quarter time, reducing the margin to 12-points at the final break.

Fantasia's fourth goal of the day early in the final quarter reduced the margin to under a kick as the Magpies charged home, outscoring the Panthers 2 -15, but it wasn't enough, with South Adelaide missing opportunities late through Joseph Haines and Kobe Mutch as they threatened to steal the victory.

Saturday's clash between the Bulldogs and the Magpies will be the first time the two sides have met since their Round nine encounter at Alberton Oval, where Port Adelaide won by 23-points. Port Adelaide had a number of dominant performers on the day with Narkle (33 disposals, one goal), Fantasia (four goals) and Jase Burgoyne (2 disposals) all starring in the win. Grant was the standout for the Bulldogs that day with 36 disposals.

Both sides are determined to feature in September, and both very well might, but there may only be room for one if North Adelaide triumph over Sturt on Saturday.

Port Adelaide will bounce back following the disappointment of last week's draw for a crucial win against Central District.

Enjoy A Laugh With Sturt and Carlton Legend on
The Peter Motley Experience Podcast
 Hosted by Paul Rowse from The Laughter Project

This podcast is so funny but most of all I just love my mate Peter Motley. He's my Brother

Michael Graham (The Flash)

What a great story, Peter is a true friend and champion.

We were great team mates together and have so many good memories.

Rick Davies (Jumbo Prince)

What a great friend and a legend Motts is.

Team mates and friends for life.

Craig Bradley (Braddles)
