COACHING TECHNOLOGY

Our software help guide the continual growth of athletes and teams

“iSports was a integral part of our 2021 QAFI Premier League allowing coaches and players access to match statistics, player statistics and video reviews.”

Matt Littlechild - Broadbeach Cats Football Manager

“iSports statistics and coaching software played an integral part in our 2021 AFLW Premier League success. The statistics that we could easily link to game vision helped us with the development of our players.”

Breeanna Brock - Brisbane Lions AFLW CEO

“iSports products helped us grow the groups football knowledge via the coding they provided and also our High-Performance staff's ability to manage players through their software which included monitoring wellness.”

Nick Malceski - Labrador Tigers Coach

Crows to finish the season with a win over big birds

by Nick Smith

Sometimes in life you get what you deserve. Many a football and sporting coach will use this saying to highlight that over the course of a game or a season, there are many opportunities that haven't been taken, and the final wash up sees that generally, everything evens out at the end.

Whilst I broadly agree with this sentiment, you can't help but think that our officials that make important decisions during every match should be able to make the relatively easy call of whether the ball was a goal, or simply it wasn't. I have umpired different sports at different levels and appreciate how difficult at times officiating can be. What I don't accept is that professional umpires who have access to technology, don't use it, to ensure the right decision is made.

I don't completely blame the goal umpire for the Ben Keys behind decision last Saturday night. Whilst the ARC wasn't used to review the decision, surely if they can see that the on-field decision was wrong, they can communicate with the field umpires, and advise them of the error, and the appropriate fix. Whilst I know that all goals are reviewed, clearly the behind was a goal, and the impact this has had not just on the result of the match, but the outcome of the Crows season, and that of other club's challenge for a finals berth, is significant.

The Crows should have kicked more accurately in that last quarter to put the result beyond doubt, I suggest the moment Luke Pedlar was substituted into the game, the Crows started winning contested ball particularly for the center square. The Crows themselves can reflect on where they can improve, but the officials need to ensure this never happens again. The ramifications are otherwise massive.

The Crows will complete their season with a trip to Perth to face the Eagles. The Eagles lifted themselves off the bottom of the ladder with a wonderful win over the Bulldogs at Marvel Stadium. The Eagles have won three matches all season with a percentage of 52.5. It will be a day of celebration for the home side as many premiership players are retiring, including SA boy Shannon Hurn.

Crows to finish the season with a win over big birds (cont'd)

by Nick Smith

The Crows will want to finish the season strongly and head into the preseason break with a sense of purpose and a clear focus on what they need to do, to continue to improve and push into the top 8 for season 2024. There will be plenty of hope and a expectation that finals are a realistic expectation.

The playing group has demonstrated they are not far away. With another preseason and a father son selection (Scott Welsh's son Tyler) in this year's draft, the future is promising both in the immediate and next few years.

Several former club champions have sons within the Crows Academy which is a pool of upcoming talent. Scott Thompson and Simon Tregeneza are two past players who have sons that over the next couple of years, could be running out in front of you at Adelaide Oval.

Crows' fans will be dissatisfied with not making finals but pleased with the improvement of the team's competitiveness against the top sides, and the measured improvement of many players. I can't wait for season 2024, It will be a rollercoaster at times, and test our patience, but one of great enjoyment.

Let's hope the playing group can stay injury free over the summer, and that desire to play finals drives them to do all they can, to be playing in September in 2024. Have a great Summer everyone, talk next year. Go Crows.

Port give Freo the heave-ho

Port Adelaide has recorded its second consecutive win and defeated Fremantle for the first time at Optus Stadium by 16-points, the victory keeping alive their slim chances of a top two finish heading into the final round of the regular season.

by
Liam Sheedy

The Cats recorded a 12-point victory to keep their finals chances alive and condemned the Power to their fourth consecutive loss in the process. The margin was tight for much of the contest and Port will take positives out of the match, but it was still a defeat that had severe ramifications as the Power dropped from second to fourth on the ladder.

The Power started slowly with the Dockers kicking the first two goals of the game before Port worked into the contest with the last two goals of the first term. The Power led at half-time and extended their lead to 22 points at three quarter time. Despite some late Fremantle pressure Port Adelaide held on to record an important victory and gain some further confidence before the true test begins in September.

ak Butters may have banked another three Brownlow votes gathering 31 disposals, seven score involvements, three clearances and a classy goal in the opening term. Darcy Byrne Jones, Jeremy Finlayson and Sam Powell-Pepper each booted two goals, the goal kicking radar not quite dialled in for Todd Marshall. The Power defensive half held up reasonably well restricting Fremantle to eight goals from 46 inside 50s. Tom Jonas left the ground in the second term after a head clash but returned and was a more than solid contributor.

Early in the contest, it looked like Luke Jackson was going to prove a handful, but Sam Hayes battled valiantly in ruck and despite not having dominant numbers played an important role as Port won overall clearances. Ryan Burton the main injury concern for the upcoming clash with Richmond, subbed out with a knee injury. The big news this week is Tom Jonas has announced his retirement at the end of the season. Jonas has carved out a very successful AFL career playing over 200 games and captaining the Club. Hopefully he still has another chapter to write.

Crows Flying high

The sun's refuge behind the clouds is finally coming to an end. The grass is hardening, the weather warming, the beaches filling. It can mark only one thing... finals football is almost here. With one remaining game of the home and away season, Adelaide will play Norwood. This match, despite being played by the second and second to bottom side, is set to be a blockbuster.

by Wilson McShane

While Adelaide has secured their top three spot, earning them a double chance in finals, they will be looking to have a seventh straight win on the weekend leading into the finals.

The Crows have never won a SANFL grand final and as such are chasing blood this season. They are the second ranked side and are arguably the most dangerous team in the competition. They are ranked first in the competition for both offense and defence. While their offensive capability has always been in their arsenal, this season their development in defence has allowed them to consistently outplay quality sides.

Further, in the past three weeks the Crows have not lost disposals, disposal efficiency, scoring accuracy or inside 50's. Interestingly, the Crows are willing to concede uncontested marks and clearances (only won one out of the past three weeks).

This indicates that the Crow's high-pressure and offensively effective game, means they prioritise fast movement on the ball as opposed to a controlled style of play. This will make for an interesting game as opposition coach, Jade Rawlings, side is defensively disciplined.

In stark contrast to Adelaide, Norwood have been disappointing in 2023. Despite providing a mid-season resurgence, Norwood's season was ultimately doomed after losing their first eight matches. Fortunately for Redleg's fans they have only lost three of their past nine.

Crows Flying high (cont'd)

by
Wilson McShane

In these nine games, coach, Jade Rawling's has recreated the Norwood of old, a defensively sound powerhouse, as only two teams have kicked over 10 goals against the blue and red. This return to form has been demonstrated by the numbers.

In the past four games, Norwood has had a greater disposal efficiency than their opposition. This is due to the pressure the Redleg's have applied to their opposition as they have won the tackle count three of four weeks.

Conversely, their effectiveness with the ball can be attributed to their controlled style of play as they have had more marks than their opposition three of the past four weeks.

Further, the monstrous seasons Boyd, Rokahr and Kennerly are having has meant Norwood has won the disposal count three of the past four weeks. As such, if the Redlegs can restrict Adelaide's fast ball movement, with their controlled style of play, they stand a chance to upset the competitions in-form team.

The last time these sides met Adelaide were 24-point victors. Although Norwood have no doubt returned to form and launched a late-season revival, Adelaide is playing arguably the best football in the competition. As such, I feel they will be victorious in a hard-fought clash.

ROUND 18: Eagles (6-11) v West Adelaide (3-13-1)

by Jakob Matheson

Woodville West Torrens put on an extremely clinical performance as they ensured that ladder leaders, Glenelg had to wait till the final round of the home and away season, to be crowned minor premiers, after seeing off the visitors by 22 points at Woodville Oval on Saturday afternoon.

The 16.8 104 to 12.10 82 victory gave the Eagles their sixth win of the season in what is dual premiership mentor, Jade Sheedy's last ride, as he, earlier this season announced he would be stepping down at the end of Round 18.

Despite conceding six goals in the 2nd term, and five goals to Lachlan Hosie, the home side were able to turn things around in the second half, booting 8.6 to 2.7 to come away with the two points. James Rowe had plenty of the football, racking up 34 disposals and 2 goals while also collecting nine marks, eight tackles and seven clearances for the Eagles. Joseph Sinor had 27 possessions including 5 marks. Will Pearce (four), and Max Beattie (three) combined for 7 of Woodville's 16 majors.

Corey Lyons continued his impressive season with another outstanding performance for Glenelg, which included 31 disposals and 10 clearances. Along with Hosie, Hugh Stagg was influential, as always, up forward, collecting 17 possessions and kicking three goals one behind.

Glenelg will now have a chance to lock up and secure the minor premiership with a victory over South Adelaide in the final round of the home and away season, while Woodville West Torrens will be looking to farewell two-time premiership coach, Jade Sheedy in style when they take on cellar-dwellers, West Adelaide next Saturday afternoon.

ROUND 18: Eagles v West Adelaide (cont'd)

by Jakob Matheson

West Adelaide missed a golden opportunity to not finish as wooden spooners in season 2023 when they drew with Norwood at Richmond Oval on Saturday afternoon.

Both teams finished the game level, with West Adelaide kicking 8.6 in the second half, to finish 10.16 76 to Norwood's 11.10 76.

Norwood were leading by as much as 35 points late into the third quarter and early on into the last but were not able to keep control of the contest, as the Redlegs managed to kick 3.3 after half time.

Norwood's experienced midfield quartet consisting of Nik Rokahr (29 disposals), Matthew Nunn (26 disposals), Jacob Kennerley (26 disposals) and Matthew Panos (24 disposals and two goals), did all they could but in the end it ultimately was not enough to be able to collect the two points, which in the end were shared evenly between the two clubs.

Youngster Guy Lok booted three goals whilst Jackson Callow backed up his four goal haul from last weekend with a two goal performance this weekend, which included 20 disposals and eight marks. West Adelaide's Thomas Morrish had a game-high 30 possessions and seven tackles. Kobe Ryan (24 and a goal), Callum Park (23 and one goal) and Joel Stevens (23 and one) were also busy, as always.

The Eagles, despite not being able to make finals this season, will have all the momentum that is required heading into Jade Sheedy's final match in charge, so in saying that. Eagles are almost unbeatable on their home deck.

ROUND 18 REVIEW

North Adelaide 11.7 (73) def by Sturt 15.10 (100)

by Lachy Jones

The Roosters' 2023 campaign came to an end on the weekend with a 27-point loss to the Double Blues; the loss meaning North Adelaide finished in sixth position after 18 rounds of footy. Sturt jumped out to a four-goal lead at quarter time, and that ended up being around the final margin as the home side couldn't recover from the fast start. With Adelaide's loss to Norwood, Sturt jumped back into second and will have a meeting with Adelaide in the first week of finals.

Tom Lewis was the standout for the Double Blues, amassing 31 disposals, 7 marks and 6 clearances, while Casey Voss continued his fine season as a half back flank, recording 24 touches, 11 marks and 9 rebound 50's. Amos Doyle had arguably his best game for the year, with the ruckman gathering 20 possessions to go with a goal and 33 hitouts as he had his way in the ruck against Dyson Hilder and Mitch Harvey. Lachlan Burrows (3.2) again had a productive day up forward.

For the most part, North Adelaide were outmatched in the counting stats, with Campbell Coombe leading the way with 23 disposals, but between him, Andrew Moore (22 disposals, 4 inside 50's), Sam Mayes (19 disposals, 1 goal) and Hilder (14 hitouts, 2 goals) the quartet combined for an astonishing 31 clearances as the Roosters dominated 46-25 in that department. Yet, with 21 more clearances, they could not capitalise on the ample opportunities with the ball cleared forward, as they failed to produce a winning scoreline despite winning the second half – their costly start was the telling point.

After finishing runners up last year with the Magarey Medallist, a revenge season was the predicted outcome pre-season, but through injuries and poor form for large stretches of the year, the Roosters could not replicate their Grand Final berth of 2022 and will have to watch the finals from home this year. Sturt on the other hand, are right in the mix for glory this year, with the second-place finish giving them the coveted second chance. Their Qualifying Final versus Adelaide this week will be a huge one.

FINALS WEEK 1 PREVIEW

Sturt V Adelaide

by
Lachy Jones

Finals footy is underway this week, with the Qualifying Final looming to be a cracking clash. Sturt, who enjoyed a good road win to end the home and away season against North Adelaide, will be entering this clash as the favourites, but their opponents will be reinforced with talent after the last couple weeks of having limited rostered players. Since the Crows' senior side has been eliminated from finals contention, the multiple SANFL-qualified players that had to cover for injuries in the back half of the season will be due to return this week for Adelaide. Players like James Borlase, Mark Keane, Matt Crouch, Lachlan Gollant and Patrick Parnell among others will be back to bolster the Crows in their double-chance matchup, with a meeting against Glenelg in week 2 for a spot in the Grand Final up for grabs.

The Crows love to maintain possession of the footy, with their highly talented midfield able to rack up disposals and get the ball moving. Sturt's gritty midfield match up well with most midfields in the competition, but they will need to muster a herculean effort to keep up with the experience and skill of the likes of Crouch, Hately and co. One thing Sturt will have as an advantage will be Adelaide's lack of continuity in recent weeks, as several players have been in and out of the senior side. Will they be able to recapture their scintillating mid-season form, which included a big win over Sturt?

Burrows and Hone may be in for tough outings on Sunday, as the return of Borlase and Keane will make things difficult back there for the Double Blues forwards, while at the other end, Gollant has been causing headaches recently, while livewire Tariek Newchurch is always a handful to deal with. With Elliott Himmelberg out for the season, it releases a little bit of pressure down that end.

The ruck battle will be interesting, with Doyle coming off one of his better games for Sturt this year, but Kieran Strachan is AFL-calibre when it comes to his ruckwork, so it will be a massive test. All areas of the ground will be of great importance on Sunday, and although the Crows dealt with Sturt earlier in the season, this contest should be as close as it gets. The winner of this match should inevitably earn themselves a spot in the 2023 Grand Final with a double chance up their sleeve. Who wants it more?

Bulldogs to make it two wins in two weeks against Magpies

by
Austin Lane

The home and away season has come to an end and the first week of finals are locked in. The elimination final is a replay of the match played just some seven days prior, Central District Bulldogs and Port Adelaide Magpies. The final is the first match part of a double-header at the Adelaide Oval on Saturday afternoon, with the game beginning at 12:15pm, followed by Sturt and Adelaide at 3:15pm.

The game between these two teams on the weekend was hard-fought and went down to the wire. A late surge from Centrals proved to be the difference, as they ran out winners to claim 4thn place on the SANFL ladder. The match began strongly for the Magpies who entered the match in the top 4, kicking the opening goal in the first three minutes, before inaccurate kicking kept Central Districts in the contest. The quarter was dominated by Port Adelaide, who had 9 scoring shots to 0, but despite not scoring a goal, the Bulldogs were only 22-points down at the first change of ends. The second term started with another Port Adelaide goal, before the Bulldogs proved that there was a preferred end for scoring, as they slotted the next three goals of the term to win the quarter and draw closer at the half, only trailing by 7 points.

The halftime break bought plenty of chatter amongst supporters, with both teams cemented in finals, the fire could have easily been taken out of the game. However, both coaches gave their speeches at the break in hope of firing their sides up in the fight for fourth place. The second half began with a bang, both Port Adelaide and Central Districts were scoring heavy in the third term combining for seven goals in the term. Port Adelaide started the quarter strongly, kicking the first three goals in the opening 10 minutes to jump out to a 25-point lead, putting the pressure back onto the Bulldogs to respond and stay in the contest. Central Districts did just that, kicking two quick goals to cut the margin back to 13 points, before a goal to each side extended the margin at the final break to 15 points, leaving Central Districts with plenty of work to do to not only keep themselves in the contest, but to have any hope of recording a win in the final home and away game.

Again, Port Adelaide began the quarter with a goal to extend the margin to 21 points early, putting tremendous pressure on the Bulldogs to stay with the Magpies in the game. Needing a response, Central Districts found a goal through first year player Shay Linke, before Hugo Munn and Nick Lange kicked truly to both become multiple goal scorers for the game, while also cutting the margin back to 3 points, bringing life to the contest again. An instant reply from Cody Szust gave the Magpies a small amount of breathing room, while they reset and adjusted to gain control of the contest once again.

Bulldogs to make it two wins in two weeks against Magpies

by Austinn Lane

However, it was short lived for the Magpies, who conceded five of the last six goals of the match to watch the game seemingly slip right through their hands, as well as fourth place on the ladder.

Central Districts ran out 15-point winners after a stunning five-goal turnaround in the final term, highlighting the impact that they can have in finals. Harry Grant lead from the front for his side, dominating around the ground. Grant finished with a team-high 29 disposals, 6 marks, 2 tackles and a goal. Jarrod Schiller also had a strong performance for the Bulldogs, finishing with 23 disposals, 5 tackles, 5 clearances, game-high 8 inside-50s and a goal. Nick Lange finished with 3 goals for the Bulldogs, while Shay Linke ended his season on a high with 14 disposals, 7 marks and 2 goals. Jackson Mead had an excellent game for the Magpies, finishing with a game-high 30 disposals, 7 marks, 7 tackles and 5 clearances. Nick Moore also put his talent on display heading into finals, amassing 20 disposals, 6 inside 50s and laying a game-high 9 tackles. Jase Burgoyne did his chances of being recalled no harm at all, finishing with 25 disposals and 6 rebound 50s. Jed Hagan kicked 3.2 up forward, while Orazio Fantasia continued his strong run of form kicking 2 goals of his own.

Looking forward to the elimination final, both teams have a real strong chance of advancing in this finals series. Port Adelaide used their run and carry through handball chains to their advantage on the weekend and really limited the defensive impact of Central District, especially early in the contest. When they didn't have the ball, Port also tackled well and limited the cleanliness of the Bulldogs in the first half. They finished with a +19-tackle count. However, the match can most certainly be won in the midfield. Central District dominated the stoppages on the weekend, winning clearances 34-24. They got their hands to the ball first and had first opportunity at the contest, and this went a long way to them winning the game in the final term.

Whatever the result, it is set to be a cracker at Adelaide Oval come Saturday afternoon.

Crows edge Double Blues in fierce battle

It's crunch time for Sturt and Adelaide as they face off in a Qualifying final at Adelaide Oval on Sunday. It comes only two weeks after their Round 17 encounter, which saw the Crows triumph by 16-points at Wigan Oval in Unley.

by
Tyler Maund

Finishing the season second and third on the SANFL ladder, both sides have had strong campaigns that have seen them remain in top three since Round 4, alongside minor premier Glenelg.

The Double Blues head in to Sunday's final off the back of a 27-point win over North Adelaide, whilst the Crows will be looking to rebound following a disappointing 19-point loss to Norwood last Saturday. Sturt had a plethora of contributors in its win over the Roosters, led by midfielder Tom Lewis who amassed 31 disposals, and Lachlan Burrows and Oliver Grivell who kicked three goals each. Defender Casey Voss also collected 24 disposals, including nine rebound 50s.

The Double Blues were comprehensively beaten in clearances, but won the possession battle 311-284, they were edged in inside 50s 41-44. Sturt controlled its game against North Adelaide from the outset, kicking the opening four goals of the game on its way to a 27-point lead at quarter time. The Double Blues continued to apply scoreboard pressure in the second term, kicking three of the next four goals to stretch their lead out to game-high 37-points, eventually taking a 31-point lead at the main break. The first two goals of the third term saw the Roosters begin to mount a mini revival, trimming the margin to 13-points before a steadying goal to Sturt's Amos Doyle ensured the Double Blues led by 19-points at three quarter time.

The fourth quarter began with both sides unable to hit the scoreboard in the opening five minutes, before Mitchell Harvey started a run of three consecutive goals to the Roosters, reducing Sturt's margin to just one-point. Two final term goals to Grivell proved crucial, as Sturt held its nerve, with four unanswered goals steering the Double Blues to the safety of a 15.10-100 to 11.7-73 win. It wasn't the ideal finish to the season for Adelaide, who were overrun by a spirited Norwood outfit at Coopers Stadium.

Crows edge Double Blues in fierce battle (cont'd)

Luke Nankervis (31 disposals), Billy Dowling (28 disposals, 10 tackles) and Lachlan Sholl (26 disposals, two goals) were all strong performers for the Crows, who had a stranglehold on the game at three quarter time.

Tyler Maund

The Crows lost the disposal count 321-354, the clearances 27-36 but were still able to generate opportunities in their forward half with a 52-40 ascendancy in inside 50s. The Redlegs burst out of the blocks with the opening three goals of the game, setting up a 15-point lead at quarter time. Three goals in-a-row to start the second term saw the Redlegs stretch out to a game-high 30-point margin, before two late goals to Crows' midfielders Jackson Hateley and Sholl reduced the gap to 17-points at the main break. An incredible third term saw the contest flipped on its head, with the Redlegs not registering a single scoring shot for the quarter, as the Crows piled on six goals from nine scoring opportunities to lead by 22-points at the end of the third term. Norwood's Ben Jarvis kickstarted a Redlegs' revival to begin the fourth quarter, as the Redlegs went on to kick seven unanswered goals to set up a see-sawing 19-point victory.

Adelaide's loss against the Redlegs snapped a six-game winning streak for the Crows, whilst Sturt's only loss in the past month of football came against the Crows.

Both sides are one win apiece in their head-to-head battles so far in 2023, with Sturt taking the points in the Round 6 clash at Wigan Oval, 10.6-66 to 8.8-56. The Double Blues and the Crows are two of only three sides to score a win against Glenelg in 2023, with the winner of Saturday's Qualifying final set to take on the Bays who wait in the second Semi-final. The loser will head to the first Semi-final, to take on the winner of the Elimination final, between Central District and Port Adelaide on Sunday. Adelaide will be boosted by the availability of a number of AFL-listed players, including rejuvenated midfielder Matt Crouch, who starred for the Crows in the closing rounds of the AFL season.

It looms as a massive Qualifying final and the ramifications are huge, with a victory providing a shot at Glenelg in the second Semi-final – win there and a spot in the Grand Final is secured. It's a tough one to predict, but the Crows should have too much firepower for the Double Blues, and take their first step toward a Grand Final appearance.

Adelaide by 1-12 points

Enjoy A Laugh With Sturt and Carlton Legend on
The Peter Motley Experience Podcast
 Hosted by Paul Rowse from The Laughter Project

This podcast is so funny but most of all I just love my mate Peter Motley. He's my Brother
 Michael Graham (The Flash)

What a great story, Peter is a true friend and champion. We were great team mates together and have so many good memories.
 Rick Davies (Jumbo Prince)

What a great friend and a legend Motts is. Team mates and friends for life.
 Craig Bradley (Braddles)
