Tea Tree Gully v Prince Alfred OC at Pertaringa Oval / 18.8-116 vs 9.12-66

Tea Tree Gully exploded right from the first whistle, setting an electrifying pace and snatching the early initiative. Their dominance was unmistakable in the opening quarter, as they soared to an impressive 7.0 (42) lead over Prince Alfred OC's 3.3 (21), dazzling with both offensive flair and defensive solidity.

Entering the second quarter, Tea Tree Gully steadfastly clung to their advantage, ensuring they went into the halftime break with a 20-point cushion. At the main interval, the scoreboard read 10.2 (62) in Tea Tree Gully's favour against Prince Alfred OC's 6.6 (42), underlining their sharpshooting accuracy and ability to dictate the game's rhythm.

As the teams returned to the field for the second half, Tea Tree Gully continued to impose their will, widening their lead with a strong showing in the third quarter. By three-quarter time, the scores showed Tea Tree Gully ahead at 15.4 (94) while Prince Alfred OC trailed at 9.7 (61).

In the final quarter, Prince Alfred OC tried to mount a comeback attempt, yet Tea Tree Gully's cool-headedness in high-pressure moments ensured their path to victory remained untroubled.

The match concluded with Tea Tree Gully triumphing at 18.8 (116) to Prince Alfred OC's 9.12 (66). A big 50-point win to the boys from Pertaringa.

St Peters OC v Brighton Bombers at St Peters College / 9.14-68 vs 8.4-52

The clash between St Peters OC and the Brighton Bombers was a tremendous contest from the get-go, St Peters OC seized control, lighting up the scoreboard with 3.3 (21) in the first quarter while leaving Brighton languishing with no score.

The second quarter saw St Peters OC pressing their advantage, marching into halftime with a substantial lead, 5.5 (35), over Brighton's 3.1 (19). The Bombers were left scrambling to catch up. The Saints had a significant 16 point lead at the long break.

In the third quarter, despite a push, the Brighton Bombers couldn't bridge the gap. St Peters OC kept their foot on the gas, boosting their tally to 8.11 (59) against Brighton's 3.2 (20) as the final quarter loomed. The 39 point lead of St. Peters was always going to be too much for the Bombers to catch up.

Brighton came flying home, kicking five last quarter goals. But the margin was always too much to make up. St Peters OC weathered Brighton's last-ditch efforts, clinching the match with a final score of 9.14 (68) to 8.4 (52). A fantastic 16-point win.

The best players on the field saw stellar individual displays, with Edward Allan, Jonnie Read, Henry Stewart-Ratray, Tom Facy, and Cormac Dwyer standing out for St. Peters OC. On the Bombers' side, Jarman Sigal, Scott Nerlich, Chris Broadbent, Finlay Bennett, and Jack Plenty were forces to be reckoned with.

Sacred Heart OC v Port District at Sacred Heart / 5.18-48 vs 16.5-101

This promised to be a top-class game. Sacred Heart OC were along with Glenunga undefeated before the game. Port District had won three and lost two. The game being played at the Sacred Heart middle school and the form of SHOC pointed to the old collegians starting a solid favourite.

But that's not how the game panned out. Port District led after at every stage. Dizzies seemed to have found their ruthless ball-hunting skills, that's has evaded them so far this year. Their attack on the ball was first class and more importantly, their return going inside forward 50, was exceptional.

Sacred Heart OC will rue their appalling goal-kicking. Having 23 scoring shots to 21 and losing by 53 points tells the difference. Being able to execute under pressure was a standout for the Magpies.

The final scores were Sacred Heart OC 5.18 (48) who were defeated by Port District 16.5 (101) Better players for both sides included Elijah Laube, Alex Cailotto, Seb Kerrish, Bradley Noble, and Tom McDermott shining for Sacred Heart OC, while Mitchell Gaffney, Scott Lycett, Preston Cockatoo-Collins, Nash Haynes, and Cooper Gaffney showcased their talent for Port District.

Goal kickers for Sacred Heart OC included Seb Kerrish and Ethan Moore with 1 each, Bradley Noble, Jackson Fox, and Ned Brooks with singles.

Payneham NU v Broadview at Payneham Oval / 7.21-63 vs 10.10-70

This was an important game in the scheme of the season. Both sides are in similar positions on the ladder and both are looking to play finals. This was essentially a 4 point game. In the first quarter Payneham NU, however, managed to seize a slender 4-point lead, wrapping up the first quarter with Broadview standing at 3.3 (21) compared to Payneham NU's more peppered scoreline of 3.7 (25). This narrow margin set the stage for a riveting contest.

Rolling into the second quarter, Broadview found their rhythm, turning up the heat and demonstrating their prowess. By halftime, they had constructed a commendable advantage, registering 6.8 (44) on the scoreboard. Payneham NU was not far behind on 4.11 (35). The lead was 9 points in favour of the Tigers. The Falcons braced themselves for an attempt to turn the tide in the second half.

The penultimate quarter became a showcase of determination from both camps. Payneham NU clawed their way back, slicing through Broadview's defences. As the final quarter loomed, Payneham NU had nosed ahead with a tight 7.18 (60) to Broadview's 7.10 (52), promising a last quarter where either side could win. The Falcons should have been more in front if their forwards could kick straight. 25 scoring shots to 17 showed their inside-50 dominance.

Both teams delivered a relentless contest in the final term, but ultimately, it was Broadview that held their composure under the intense pressure, clinching a hard-fought victory. The final scores settled at Broadview, 10.10 (70), and Payneham NU, 7.21 (63). A 7-point win to the mighty Tigers.

Payneham NU despite the loss boasted standout performances from Anthony Giannini, Matthew Nunn, Grant Catalano, Blake Dodson, and Samuel Scrimgeour. Not to be outdone, Broadview's stars were Steven Jackson, Cooper O'Leary, Henry Baker, Jack Fergus, and Lewis Saint.

The goal-scoring heroes for Payneham NU featured Nicholas Kelly with two, alongside individual contributions from Giannini, Nunn, Tyler Sparkhall, Brad McKenzie, and Harrison Viney.

Broadview's scorers included Johnny Boras with three, Cooper O'Leary with two, and single goals from Kobi Russell, Hamish Ralph, William Reid, Jack Fergus, and Campbell Mulheron.
