Crows hold upper hand over inaccurate Port

In an exhilarating Showdown clash at Adelaide Oval, the Adelaide Crows emerged triumphant with a solid 30-point win over their city counterparts Port Adelaide. This marked the third consecutive victory for the Crows in this intense rivalry, reinforcing their upper hand with a final tally of 12.6 (78) to 5.18 (48).

Right from the outset, the Crows took charge of the game, setting the pace and maintaining their lead throughout the encounter. Port Adelaide's attempts to exert early pressure fell short as Adelaide showed remarkable composure and discipline, which were key to their victory.

A significant aspect of the match was the Power's lack of precision in goal-kicking, evident in their poor 2.14 score after the first quarter. Meanwhile, the Crows showcased impeccable finishing skills, effectively seizing scoring opportunities to extend their lead during the game.

Izak Rankine of the Adelaide Crows was pivotal, contributing three goals and two assists that were crucial in defining the tempo of Adelaide's offensive play. He remained a persistent menace to Port Adelaide's defences.

Jake Soligo also shone brightly for the Crows, earning the Showdown Medal for his incredible efforts which included 27 disposals, 14 contested possessions, four clearances, and 10 tackles. Soligo's performance was fundamental to Adelaide's midfield control, laying the groundwork for their success.

Port Adelaide had notable individual performances despite the defeat, with Zak Butters excelling with the highest disposals in the game at 33, reflecting his unwavering effort and determination. Yet, injuries, particularly captain Connor Rozee's hamstring issue at three-quarter time, hindered the Power's overall performance.

The collective effort from the Crows was also a defining characteristic of their triumph, with players across all parts of the field contributing significantly. Taylor Walker made a lasting impression with two key goals and exceptional leadership on the field. Defenders Mark Keane and Josh Worrell stood tall against the Power's forwards, creating a formidable defensive line for the Crows.

Adding emotional weight to the Crows' victory was the retirement of club icon Rory Sloane earlier in the week. While Sloane's presence was missed, his influence was palpable as the team banded together for a notable win in his honor.

Post-match, Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley faced the music, issuing an apology to the fans for opting to play Connor Rozee despite fitness doubts. His acknowledgment of this oversight underscored a commitment to accountability within the coaching realm.

Ultimately, Showdown 55 was not only a celebration of a club legend but also a display of Adelaide Crows' resilience and skill. This win fortified the team's confidence as they look forward to upcoming challenges, with high spirits following an emphatic performance against their most formidable adversary.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Thrilling 8-point victory for the Eagles

STURT v EAGLES AT UNLEY OVAL

A remarkable showdown unfolded at Thomas Farms Oval, where Woodville-West Torrens delivered a stunning performance, securing an eight-point triumph over Sturt in what was a riveting contest. The match gained additional attention as it marked Blues captain James Battersby's 200th Hostplus SANFL League game, setting the stage for an action-packed event.

Guided by the strategic mind of new coach Sam Jacobs, the Eagles epitomized tenacity and poise. They mounted an incredible comeback from a significant second-quarter deficit, clinching the win against all odds. Even without pivotal figures such as Riley Knight, Luke Thompson, Max Beattie, and Troy Menzel, the team's depth shone through. Seasoned players Joseph Sinor, James Rowe, and Connor Ballenden stepped up, complemented by the rising stars Adam D'Aloia, Josh Morris, Zac Buck, and Luke McKay.

Facing a determined Sturt side, keen to celebrate Battersby's landmark appearance, the Eagles maintained their composure. Their unwavering determination was key to their hard-fought victory, reinforcing their position as serious contenders in the league.

Sturt showcased resilience but struggled to keep a consistent pace throughout the encounter. A robust third-quarter effort spearheaded by Lachie Burrows, who notched six goals, wasn't enough to stave off a late-game resurgence from Woodville-West Torrens, who took charge in the decisive moments to claim the win.

Exceptional individual performances were abundant. Adam D'Aloia impressed with his commanding presence on the field, tallying 29 disposals, six clearances, and ten tackles. Eagles captain Joseph Sinor was inspirational, accumulating 25 disposals, 12 tackles, and eight clearances. Will Snelling was a standout for Sturt, amassing 37 disposals, six clearances, and five tackles, with Casey Voss contributing 27 disposals and eight marks.

Ultimately, this match underscored the collective strength and unity of Woodville-West Torrens, serving as a stark reminder of their gritty resolve. As for Sturt, they are left to reassess and rejuvenate after coming so close yet falling short. With the SANFL season continuing to unfold, both teams will undoubtedly leverage this experience, looking to further their ambitions and chase glory on the playing field.

Ugly Bays win by 27-points at Noarlunga

SOUTH ADELAIDE v GLENELG at UNLEY OVAL

In a mistake riddled contest at Flinders University Stadium, Glenelg triumphed over South Adelaide with a decisive 27-point victory. The Bays, despite grappling with issues in front of goal, managed to come out on top in a challenging match.

The game commenced with Glenelg asserting dominance in terms of 50m entries, yet they could not capitalize on these opportunities, ending the first quarter with a marginal lead. The absence of pivotal players like Lachie Hosie due to injuries intensified the need for others to rise to the occasion. Forwards Liam McBean and Luke Reynolds, despite facing staunch resistance from South Adelaide's defenders, played a key role in the final quarter breakout, which was instrumental in sealing the win with vital goals.

Midfielder Matt Snook's exceptional play, especially in the initial half, was a significant factor in Glenelg's success. His efforts were well-supported by teammates Matt Allen and Chris Curran. The match also saw promising starts from debutants Jake Walker, Will Stockman, and Hunter Window, who all made a positive impact.

On the other side, South Adelaide's co-captains, Jake Summerton and Sam Skinner, put on a defensive masterclass, tirelessly combating the persistent onslaught from Glenelg's attacking line. The younger contingent of the South Adelaide team also showed commendable bravery and dedication, attributes that did not go unnoticed by their coach, even as the team grappled with injuries.

The match was not without its share of struggles and mistakes from both sides. However, Glenelg's ability to seize critical moments was the differentiator, ensuring their victory. This encounter underscored the fiercely competitive spirit of the league and the significance of determination in clinching wins.

In conclusion, while both Glenelg and South Adelaide encountered various hurdles and displayed moments of inaccuracy, it was Glenelg's tenacity and ability to capitalize on pivotal plays that ultimately granted them the triumph. This victory not only reflects the team's resilience but also serves as a testament to the league's competitive essence and the value of perseverance in achieving success.

A conversation could change a life.

Perfect 5-0 start for the unbeaten Redlegs

NORTH ADELAIDE v NORWOOD AT PROSPECT OVAL

Norwood's relentless pursuit of perfection in the SANFL season persisted as they edged out North Adelaide by a slender nine-point margin at Prospect Oval, keeping their unbeaten run intact. The Redlegs launched an early onslaught that saw them take control with the first four goals, underscored by Baynen Lowe's quickfire goal just 30 seconds into the fray. This whirlwind start propelled Norwood to a healthy 26-point advantage at the quarter-time break.

North Adelaide managed to regroup and narrow the gap to ten points by the main interval, but failed to capitalize on scoring opportunities, a theme that was particularly evident in the third quarter. The Roosters amassed 17 entries inside-50 yet could only muster a meager 2.7 scoreline. In stark contrast, Norwood operated with a clinical edge to keep the scoreboard ticking over in their favor.

The match's intensity peaked in the final stanza when Mitch Harvey spurred North Adelaide's hopes with a goal that trimmed the deficit to just two points. But Norwood displayed composure under pressure, and it was Jake Cresswell who delivered the decisive blow, kicking the goal that cemented their victory.

Coach Jade Rawlings lauded his players for their steadfast spirit, highlighted during North Adelaide's ascendancy in the third term. Despite notable absences, such as Jacob Kennerley, Matt Panos, and Jackson Callow, Norwood's midfield stepped up, with Harry Boyd orchestrating the game's rhythm. Boyd, who amassed 19 possessions, 11 clearances, 45 hit-outs, and an important goal, was the driving force behind Norwood's sustained excellence.

On the other side, North Adelaide's prospects diminished further with Keenan Ramsey sidelined due to an ankle injury. Campbell Combe shone for the Roosters through his dogged performance, comprising 26 disposals, 14 tackles, and 11 clearances, but his team's inefficiency in front of goal proved detrimental.

Doggies march on to the top of the ladder

WEST ADELAIDE v CENTRAL DISTRICT AT RICHMOND

Central District's undefeated run in the SANFL marched on impressively with a 21-point triumph against West Adelaide at Hisense Stadium. This victory cemented their place at the peak of the standings, sharing the top spot with Norwood, boasting an impeccable record of five wins and no losses.

Dominating from the beginning and never looking back, the Bulldogs demonstrated their signature disciplined approach throughout the match. Despite West Adelaide's late rally, Central District showcased their mettle, standing firm against the challenge to claim the win.

Their on-field leader, Captain Jarrod Schiller, was exceptional, contributing three goals from his tally of 15 possessions. The attacking duo of Aiden Grace and Nick Lange also played a key role, chipping in with two goals apiece. The team displayed a collective effort, indicating less dependence on the talents of 2023 Magarey Medallist Harry Grant, who nonetheless made a significant impact with 22 disposals. Teammates Kai Pudney and Nick Lange provided ample support in the midfield.

Although they came up short, West Adelaide were not without merit; they began to find their rhythm later in the game but were let down by early turnovers. Kobe Ryan, with 20 disposals, and Sam Frost were instrumental in igniting the late surge that offered hope to their fans.

In an exciting moment for both teams, the match welcomed new talent with Central District's Jack Callinan showing promise with seven touches, while West Adelaide handed debuts to club junior Judd Hansen and experienced player Alex Morgan, who managed to score in the last quarter.

The contest between the teams reached its zenith at Richmond Oval, where Central District faced tense moments, especially in the last stretch. Clinging to a 35-point lead as the final term commenced, the Dogs withstood an onslaught from West Adelaide, who refused to go down without a fight.

Key to Central District's success was their composure under pressure, a quality lauded by coach Paul Thomas who spoke highly of his team's maturity. Once again, Harry Grant stepped up, flanked by the reliable trio of Pudney, Schiller, and Lange.

West Adelaide's coach Adam Hartlett noted the team's initial lack of momentum but commended the resurgence in the latter stages. Even though it wasn't enough to secure a win, the Bloods' display hinted at their potential, with Kobe Ryan, Sam Frost, and Will Patton making notable contributions.

Moving forward, Central District aims to keep up their dominating form, while West Adelaide seeks to recover from this setback, focusing on the positive takeaways as they continue their campaign in the Hostplus SANFL League.

Crows far too classy for Port in Showdown

ADELAIDE v PORT ADELAIDE AT THE ADELAIDE OVAL

Adelaide stamped their authority early in the latest chapter of the storied SANFL Showdown, overpowering Port Adelaide with a decisive 41-point triumph at the historic Adelaide Oval. The Crows hit the ground running and made their intentions clear, hammering through the first five goals without hesitation. Lachie Gollant was the spearhead of this early surge, putting through five majors by only the second quarter's 11th minute.

The team's seamless passing and constant push to advance the ball pressured the Magpies at every turn, ensuring that Adelaide was always a step ahead.

In just his third match post-injury, Harry Schoenberg proved instrumental for Adelaide, racking up 27 touches, eight marks, four clearances, and adding a goal to his stats sheet, helping cement a dominant lead by halftime. Chris Burgess wasn't far behind in influence, hitting the scoreboard three times from within the 50m arc, part of an 11-goal barrage unleashed by the Crows in the first half of the game.

Youths Billy Dowling, Sam Berry, and Jay Boyle didn't shy away amid the thrilling contest, each making meaningful contributions to the team's midfield control. Charlie Edwards, a first-year draftee, continued to make his mark with 19 disposals and a goal, affirming his valuable spot on the main stage.

Port Adelaide, despite recording six more inside 50ms, found it challenging to replicate Adelaide's intensity or execute with similar scoring precision. The Magpies, now in the grips of a five-game losing streak to initiate the 2024 season, saw the gap widen to 64 points at one stage late in the third term.

Taking charge for Port Adelaide, captain Nick Moore was relentless, pairing his 20 tackles—a testament to his tenacity—with 21 possessions and six clearances. The experienced Jeremy Finlayson stood tall in the forward line, notching up four goals alongside significant stats of 24 disposals and eight marks.

Cody Szust thrived in his time rotating through the midfield, topping his team's charts with 31 possessions and six clearances. Josh Sinn brought composure and poise off half-back with 29 touches, although the team overall struggled to create enough chances to claw their way back into contention.

This emphatic Showdown win brings Adelaide up to equal footing with Port Adelaide—each now boasting ten victories in their head-to-head encounters—underscored by a performance that reinforces their status as heavyweights in the SANFL arena. With this blend of skill and willpower, the Crows have made clear they are a formidable presence in the league.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.
