Modbury v Scotch OC at Modbury Oval

Modbury came out firing in the first quarter, making their intentions clear from the get-go. With a stellar performance, they managed to amass 3.3 (21) on the scoreboard, leaving Scotch OC scoreless in the opening term.

The tone was set for by Modbury as they headed into the second quarter with a comfortable lead. The second quarter saw that Modbury couldn't pull away from Scotch OC, adding just a solitary point to their tally while Scotch kept coming at the Hawks. Scotch OC managed to get on the scoreboard with 2.1 (13) but still trailed behind Modbury going into halftime by 9 points. The scoreboard now read Modbury 3.4 (22) to Scotch OC's 2.1 (13), with Modbury not looking in total control as they did at quarter time.

As the game progressed into the third quarter, both teams fought hard to gain the upper hand. However, neither side could score in the third term. The scores remained tight, with Modbury holding onto their lead with 3.4 (22) against Scotch OC's 2.1 (13) as they approached the final quarter. 9 points were all that separated the two sides at lemon time.

In the final quarter, Modbury sealed their victory with a strong performance, adding two more goals to their tally to finish off the game. Scotch OC battled hard but could not overcome the deficit, ultimately falling short as the final siren sounded. Scotch OC let themselves down by not being able to score in the final half.

Fitzroy v Loreto OS at Sam Johnson Sportsground

Fitzroy took on Loreto OS at Sam Johnson Sportsground. Fitzroy was looking to get on the board for their first win of the season, whilst Loreto was looking to win and keep in touch with the finals.

The game started off with both teams showing determination, but it was Fitzroy who managed to make an early statement, leading by 5 points at the end of the first quarter with Loreto OS 0.1 (1) to Fitzroy 1.0 (6). Could this be the day, the Roys saluted in 2024?

As the game progressed, Loreto OS continued to build momentum, taking the lead as they entered halftime. The scoreboard read Loreto OS 2.1 (13) to Fitzroy 1.1 (7), with the pressure mounting on both teams to deliver strong performances in the second half to get the win. With only 6 points separating the teams, it was still anyone's game.

In the third quarter, Loreto OS displayed their attacking prowess, widening the gap between the two teams and establishing a significant lead. The scores stood at Loreto OS 3.5 (23) to Fitzroy 1.2 (8) heading into the final quarter with a 15-point advantage.

Despite their best efforts, Fitzroy struggled to overcome Loreto OS' strong defence in the final quarter. Both teams fought tooth and nail, but it was Loreto OS who emerged victorious, securing the win with a final score of Loreto OS 3.7 (25) to Fitzroy 1.2 (8). The Roys will lament the fact they could only score 2 points after quarter-time.

Standout performances came from Narelle Henderson, Samantha Edwards, Felicia Mihelios, Kira Warren, and the multi-coloured (hair) Tania Nicholas for Fitzroy, and Annie Green, Hannah Osborn, Jana Ivancic, Amolika Bhatia, and Alice Harris for Loreto OS.

Goal kickers for Fitzroy included Holly McCoy with 1 goal, while Annie Green led the way for Loreto OS with 2 goals, supported by Alice Harris with 1 goal.

In the end, it was Loreto OS' consistency over four quarters that got them over the line

Woodville South v Mitcham at Ledger Reserve

In what was anticipated to be a fierce battle between Woodville South and Mitcham at Ledger Reserve, it was Woodville South who emerged victorious by 21 points. The two teams sit second and third on the ladder and it was a fantastic win for the Cats at home. Any win over a potential finalist is always good to get early in the season.

The final scores read Woodville South 4.6 (30) to Mitcham 1.2 (8), as the home team put on a stellar display for their supporters. Which probably included Jo McPharlin at the bar. She's generally "best on" at the bar.

Woodville South started strongly in the opening quarter, setting the tone for the rest of the match. With a scoreline of 1.2 (8) to Mitcham's 0.2 (2), the home team established an early lead and continued to build on their advantage as the game progressed.

The second quarter saw both teams fighting hard, with Woodville South maintaining their composure to extend their lead to 8 points, holding Mitcham to just two behinds. As the game entered the second half, very little separated the two teams on the scoreboard. But you could get the feeling the Cats had a lot left in the tank.

The third quarter saw Woodville South and Mitcham continue to slug it out with no team gaining a major advantage. Scores were Woodville South's 1.6 (12) to Mitcham's 1.2 (8), putting both sides right in the frame to secure that all-important win.

In the last quarter, Woodville South sealed the deal with a strong performance, adding three goals to their goal tally and ensuring Mitcham had no chance of staging a comeback. The Cat attack finally arrived in the fourth quarter.

The final siren signalled the end of the match, with Woodville South emerging triumphant and a 21-point victory over Mitcham. Woodville South 4.8 (30) to Mitcham 1.3 (9).

For Woodville South, standout players included Memphis Woolmington, Grace Nolan, Emily Cox, Gabriella Ward, and Taylah Pedersen, who all played crucial roles in securing the win.

On the other hand, Mitcham's Grace Henderson, Aisha Scott, Paige Mellor, Sarah Kirsanovs, and Poppy Visvardis showed tenacity throughout the match.

Goal kickers for Woodville South included Gabriella Ward, Carly Rehbein, Taylah Pedersen, and Memphis Woolmington, each contributing to the team's final score.

On the other side, Isabella Jawadi managed to slot one goal for Mitcham, showcasing her scoring prowess in a hard-fought contest.

Edwardstown Saints v Kilburn at Edwardstown Oval

From the opening bounce, it was evident that both teams were eager to make their mark on the game. Both sides sat third and fourth on the ladder and a win here would gain a psychological advantage heading into the back half of the season.

Edwardstown got off to a flying start in the first quarter. The scoreboard reflected their early efforts, with Edwardstown leading 1.2 (8) to Kilburn's 0.0 (0) at the end of the first quarter.

As the game progressed, Kilburn found their rhythm and began to chip away at Edwardstown's lead. Despite their best efforts, Kilburn could not match the Townies intensity, trailing behind at halftime with the scores at Edwardstown 1.4 (10) to Kilburn's 1.0 (6). Whilst only being 6-points the difference Edwardstown seemed to hold the aces.

The third quarter saw Edwardstown shift into another gear, as they continued to build on their lead through accurate goal-kicking. By the end of the third quarter, the scoreboard displayed Edwardstown 5.6 (36) to Kilburn's 1.0 (6). A 30-point margin was significant.

In the closing stages of the game, Kilburn fought back valiantly, determined to narrow the margin and mount a comeback. The Chics kicked two goals in that final term to Townies one, but it was never going to be enough.

However, Edwardstown's unwavering defence and composed ball movement proved too much for Kilburn to overcome. The final siren sounded with Edwardstown emerging victorious with a final score of 6.6 (42) to Kilburn's 3.2 (20). A strong 22-point win to Townies.

In a standout performance for Edwardstown, players Grace Hurley, Tilly Patching, Lisa Payne, Mackayla Harrison, and Kayla Gordon showcased their skill.

Meanwhile, Kilburn players Talana Knaggs, Eileen Collins-Cole, Brooke Faulds, Donna Hill, and Josephine Warrior played well, in the face of a formidable opponent.

Goal kickers for Edwardstown included Kaitlyn Reidl, Mackayla Harrison, Debra May, Grace Hurley, and Kasia Szymaniak each contributing towards their team's victory.

On the other hand, Kilburn's goal scorers included Eileen Collins-Cole, Talana Knaggs, and Tessa Lennon, who fought hard to keep their team in contention throughout the match.
