Tigers end the Crows 2024 finals aspirations

Richmond's Dominant Performance

Richmond pulled off a stunning upset against Adelaide with an eight-point victory at Adelaide Oval. The Tigers were trailing by just a point at halftime but turned the game around with a six-goal third quarter. This win ended Richmond's eight-game losing streak and marked their first victory since round three. On the other hand, Adelaide, who had high hopes for the season, now finds themselves struggling with only four wins in 13 rounds.

Richmond's Grit and Determination

The key to Richmond's success in this match was their grit and determination. Led by captain Toby Nankervis and standout players Liam Baker, Noah Balta, and Shai Bolton, the Tigers displayed a level of desperation that has been building up over the past few weeks. Their efforts paid off as they managed to outplay Adelaide in crucial moments and secure the win.

Key Players and Performances

Noah Cumberland led the charge for Richmond with three goals, while Seth Campbell, Rhyan Mansell, and Kamdyn McIntosh each added two. Veteran players like Jayden Short, Tim Taranto, and Baker were relentless around the contest, while Balta and Tom Brown proved to be solid in defence. Richmond's early pressure and work rate stunned Adelaide, allowing them to take control of the game from the start.

Adelaide's Struggles

For Adelaide, this loss is another setback in a season that has failed to gain momentum. Despite commendable efforts from Jordan Dawson and Luke Nankervis, the team lacked synergy in moving the ball forward. Richmond's intensity and pressure proved to be too much for the Crows to handle, as they struggled to keep up with the Tigers' pace and energy.

Game Highlights

Richmond held a 22-point lead at the final change and managed the game expertly in the remaining minutes, shutting down any attempts by Adelaide to make a comeback. Despite early fourth-quarter goals from Adelaide, Richmond stayed competitive and secured the win. This victory not only revitalizes Richmond's season but also raises questions about Adelaide's ability to make an impact in 2024.

Conclusion

In conclusion, Richmond's dominant performance against Adelaide showcased their determination and hunger for success. With key players stepping up and delivering when it mattered most. Adelaide, on the other hand, will need to regroup and find ways to bounce back from this defeat in order to salvage their season.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Centrals have a win for the ages

Central District broke their three-game losing streak with a dramatic six-point victory over Woodville-West Torrens at Woodville on Saturday. Despite trailing at every break, the Bulldogs showcased extraordinary resilience, particularly in a gripping final quarter, to secure the win.

The game started with the Eagles in control, scoring four of the first five goals and establishing an 18-point lead midway through the first term. Central District fought back, narrowing the gap by halftime, but missed several opportunities. By the end of the third quarter, the Bulldogs had reduced the deficit to five points, setting up an intense final term.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Nicholas Lange tied the game with a crucial goal. The Eagles quickly equalized, but Central responded with a coast-to-coast play from the kick-in, resulting in a goal from skipper Jarrad Schiller. The Eagles had several chances to reclaim the lead, but missed shots, including an open-goal dribbler from Zane Williams, left the door open for Central. In the final minute, Isaiah Dudley secured a loose ball and ensured the Bulldogs' victory.

Key players for Central included Jez McLennan, who amassed 28 disposals and nine marks, playing a vital role in intercepting the Eagles' attacks and setting up forward plays. Billy Iles was also instrumental in defense, while Harry Grant made a significant impact in his return from a knee injury, finishing with 26 disposals and seven clearances.

The Eagles had standout performances from young midfielders Zane Williams and Adam D'Aloia. Williams collected 27 disposals, and D'Aloia added 25 disposals and 10 clearances. Connor Ballenden was the most effective forward, scoring three goals and taking four contested marks. Their efforts helped the Eagles build a 15-point lead by the first break and stay ahead until the final minutes.

The intensity of the game heightened in the second quarter when Central lost co-captain Kyle Presbury to a calf injury. Despite this setback, the Bulldogs fought back, with the lead changing hands multiple times in the third quarter, setting the stage for a thrilling final period. Central controlled the territory battle in the second term and showed remarkable resilience by winning crucial contests.

This victory firmly places the Bulldogs inside the top five, a significant achievement for coach Paul Thomas. The team's determination and ability to adapt under pressure were evident, promising an exciting continuation of the season as they aim to maintain their position among the top sides.

The Eagles, despite their strong start, were unable to capitalize on their opportunities in the final term. Their missed chances and fundamental breakdowns allowed Central to secure a memorable win. The close defeat meant the Eagles missed a chance to join the top of the table, highlighting the competitiveness and unpredictable nature of the season.

Overall, Central District's victory underscored their competitive spirit and resilience, marking a turning point in their season as they broke their losing streak and secured a crucial win.

Panthers turn around early season defeat by Crows

South Adelaide secured a thrilling seven-point victory over Adelaide at Flinders University Stadium, overcoming bouts of inaccuracy and a late surge from the Crows. This win marked a significant turnaround from their earlier season defeat, where they had squandered a substantial lead against the same opponent.

Elliott Dunkin and Kobe Mutch were pivotal for the Panthers, each amassing 31 disposals. Mutch was particularly prolific in the first half, racking up 24 disposals to help South Adelaide establish a solid foundation. Hayden Sampson and Oliver Davis were influential in the midfield, while co-captain Jake Summerton provided crucial stability in defense.

Adelaide started strong with Zac Taylor scoring a remarkable goal after a two-bounce run from behind center, putting the Crows ahead at quarter-time. South Adelaide responded with debutant Bailey Pilmore kicking a goal with his first touch, swiftly followed by fellow newcomer Sam Hindes, who also goaled with his second kick. Teenager Tom Wheaton contributed by converting his first league goal, giving the Panthers a narrow lead at halftime.

The Panthers extended their lead to 28 points in the third quarter, thanks to consecutive goals from Wheaton and Damon Freitag. However, Adelaide's Lachlan Gollant reduced the margin with a goal just before the three-quarter-time siren, keeping the Crows within striking distance.

Adelaide's dominance in the center square was evident, with Reilly O'Brien collecting 20 disposals and 32 hit-outs following his AFL omission. Luke Pedlar also impressed with 26 disposals and nine clearances. Despite their midfield superiority, the Crows struggled with skill errors across half-forward, allowing South Adelaide a significant advantage in inside-50s (42-25) by the final break.

In the fourth quarter, Adelaide capitalized on O'Brien's tap supremacy, reversing the trend with an 18-4 advantage in inside-50 entries. The momentum shifted when Steve Burton scored his maiden SANFL goal, reducing the gap to eight points. South Adelaide managed to steady themselves with Finn Emile-Brennan kicking a crucial goal against the run of play, becoming the fifth debutant to score in the game. Charlie Edwards added a consolation goal for Adelaide after the siren, but it was insufficient to bridge the gap.

South Adelaide's victory underscored their resilience and ability to handle pressure, particularly during Adelaide's late push. The Panthers' coach acknowledged the challenge of maintaining composure, especially when leading 6.12 at three-quarter time. Missed scoring opportunities kept Adelaide in the game, but the Panthers' capacity to create these opportunities was a positive takeaway.

The performance of Reilly O'Brien was a standout for Adelaide, dominating the ruck and providing his teammates with numerous chances. Despite their rebound effectiveness, the Crows frequently turned over possession, allowing South Adelaide to capitalize. Luke Pedlar's increased role in the midfield and Nick Murray's return from injury were also notable.

Overall, this hard-fought victory demonstrated South Adelaide's determination and ability to seize key moments, marking a crucial win in their season.

Blues push Redlegs to the limit

Sturt's Strong Finish

In a thrilling match at Thomas Farms Oval, Sturt secured a solid 28-point victory over Norwood. The game was characterized by strong defensive play from both teams, resulting in a low-scoring affair until the final quarter when Sturt managed to break the deadlock.

Sam Conforti's Major Impact

The scores were tied early in the fourth quarter when Sturt's Sam Conforti made a significant impact by scoring two goals in quick succession. The first goal came from a turnover by Norwood, followed by a skillful snap after a clever dodge. Conforti almost scored a third goal shortly after but narrowly missed a difficult boundary shot. Additional goals from Aaron Anderson and Lachlan Burrows in the same quarter solidified Sturt's lead, ending with a dominant 4.5-to-nil final term and moving them up to third place on the ladder.

Key Players

Defensively, Casey Voss led a strong backline for the Blues, while the midfield trio of Will Snelling, James Battersby, and Tom Lewis effectively countered Norwood's ruck advantage, especially Harry Boyd. Snelling contributed with 27 disposals, eight tackles, and five clearances, Battersby added 21 disposals, seven tackles, and seven clearances, and Lewis provided 20 disposals, 13 tackles, and five clearances.

Game Highlights

Sturt's performance was boosted by a supportive public holiday crowd. Jared Dakin's goal after the first quarter's siren gave Sturt a slight edge, and they continued to control the game in the second quarter despite Norwood's resilient defense, which kept the damage to just an eight-point deficit at halftime.

In the third quarter, Norwood briefly took the lead with Jackson Callow's third goal, but they were unable to score again from that point onward. Sturt's defense held firm, and the one-point lead that Norwood carried into the final quarter proved insufficient. Sturt took advantage of a strong northerly wind in the fourth quarter to dominate play.

Throughout the last three quarters, Sturt maintained control of the inside-50s with a commanding 46-20 ratio and won the clearances 24-13 after halftime. Norwood's struggles were compounded by the loss of Baynen Lowe and Henry Nelligan to ankle injuries in the second half, further hindering their performance.

Conclusion

Overall, Sturt's ability to capitalize on key moments and their strong defensive and midfield performances were crucial in turning a close contest into a comfortable win, showcasing their potential as they move up the ladder. The game was a testament to Sturt's resilience and determination, securing a well-deserved victory over a tough opponent.

Epic Showdown between two old foes

A Thrilling Match-Up

Once upon a time, in the land of SANFL Football, two fierce rivals, Glenelg and North Adelaide, clashed in an epic showdown on King's Birthday. The game was a nail-biter, with both teams giving it their all and the Bays now sit top of the ladder. The Tigers and the Roosters fought tooth and nail, showcasing impressive skills and determination. Ultimately it was the Tigers who won a great game by 12-points.

The Turning Point

As the game reached its climax, the score was tied, and tensions were high. But then, in a moment of brilliance, Glenelg found an extra gear in the final quarter. Matt Allen scored two crucial goals, and Chris Curran led a staunch defense that ultimately led the Tigers to victory by 12 points.

The Rollercoaster of Momentum

Throughout the match, both teams experienced moments of triumph and despair. North Adelaide started strong, scoring four quick goals, but Glenelg fought back with determination. The game was a thrilling back-and-forth contest, with no clear winner until the very end.

The Heroes of the Field

Players like Liam McBean, Matt Snook, and Riley Holder showcased their skills and determination on the field. Despite facing challenges, they never gave up and continued to push forward. Each player made significant contributions to their team's performance, showing true sportsmanship and resilience.

For the Vanquished

North Adelaide had several standout performers, with captain Alex Spina excelling with 14 rebound 50s. Harrison Wigg, Harrison Magor, and Lockyer were all fine contributors.

The Decisive Moment

In the final quarter, Glenelg managed to pull away, thanks to the strong breeze at their backs. Matt Allen's exceptional performance, along with key goals from other players, secured the Tigers' victory. Despite North Adelaide's best efforts, they couldn't withstand Glenelg's relentless push towards the finish line.

The Triumph of Glenelg

In the end, Glenelg emerged victorious, solidifying their position as ladder leaders. Their strong defensive play, effective midfield work, and timely goal-scoring were key factors in their success. The Tigers' depth and determination shone through, proving that they were a force to be reckoned with in the world of Australian Rules Football.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

- Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

- Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

- SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.
