12 minutes of mayhem leads to Crows downfall

The Game

In a thrilling match against Adelaide at Adelaide Oval, Joel Amartey's incredible nine-goal performance helped Sydney secure a remarkable 42-point comeback victory. Despite trailing by 23 points late in the second quarter, Sydney rallied to win 16.13 (109) to 10.7 (67), extending their winning streak to nine games and solidifying their position at the top of the ladder with a 12-1 record.

Joel Amartey's Dominance

At the start of the game, Amartey was quiet and did not have a single disposal by quarter-time. However, he exploded in the second quarter, scoring four goals, and continued his dominance in the third quarter with another four goals. He finished off his incredible performance with a ninth goal in the final term, ending the game with an impressive 9.1 from 10 disposals. This performance was the best by a Sydney player since Lance Franklin's 10-goal game in 2017. Amartey's previous best was four goals, and this outstanding performance has brought his season total to 31 goals, putting him in contention for the Coleman Medal.

Other Standout Performances

Errol Gulden also had a stellar game for Sydney, recording 35 disposals and 10 clearances, while Brodie Grundy contributed 31 possessions, nine clearances, and 49 hitouts. Despite Adelaide's strong start, Sydney showed resilience and fought back. Amartey's first goal in the second quarter sparked Sydney's comeback, but they struggled with poor entries that favored Adelaide's defenders.

The Comeback

In the final minutes of the second quarter, Sydney corrected their mistakes, allowing Amartej to score three quick goals. By halftime, Sydney had cut Adelaide's lead to just four points. After the break, Adelaide briefly regained control, but Sydney scored six unanswered goals in the third quarter, with four of them coming from Amartej, giving Sydney a 21-point lead heading into the final quarter.

Conclusion

Sydney's victory showcased their resilience and Amartej's exceptional performance, which could be crucial in their pursuit of the Coleman Medal. Despite falling just short of a 10th goal, Amartej's nine-goal effort will be remembered as one of the standout performances of the season. With players like Amartej and Gulden stepping up, Sydney looks poised for continued success in the remainder of the season. The Crows on the other hand were sadly inept when challenged in the third and final quarters.

Port fail once again at their big challenge

Early Goals and Strong Defence

In a thrilling match between the Powers and the Giants, the Powers forward line started strong despite missing key players. Mitch Georgiades and Todd Marshall scored three early goals, while veterans Ollie Wines and Travis Boak put up a tough fight. However, Connor Rozee struggled in his return from injury.

Slow Start for the Giants

The Giants had a slow start under coach Adam Kingsley, going goalless in the first term with seven behinds before Callum Brown finally kicked their first major. Brown quickly added another goal, allowing the Giants to take a seven-point lead at halftime.

Second Half Surge but not a Power surge

In the second half, the Giants maintained control of the game without pulling too far ahead. However, a late surge of goals extended their lead, securing the win. A controversial moment occurred when Toby Greene's goal was overturned after a review, adding to the tension of the match.

Key Storylines

One of the key storylines of the match was Bedford's tagging job on Butters. Starting unexpectedly in the midfield, Bedford held Butters to minimal impact early on, showcasing his versatility and defensive skills. Despite the loss, Port Adelaide's revamped forward line showed promise with Georgiades, Marshall, and Ollie Lord making a return from injury.

Victory for the Giants

Ultimately, the Giants were able to overcome their early inaccuracies and apply pressure across the ground, leading to a crucial victory. This win breathes new life into their season as they aim for a strong finish in the top five.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the Giants' strong performance and ability to adapt to challenges on the field were key factors in their victory over the Power. Fans can look forward to more exciting matches as the season progresses.

No humour for Port supporters

Port once again failed their supporters when it mattered most. Challenging another top team and on the road, has been the Achilles heel for Port over many years. And the Power kicking for goal has been appalling all season. The Power started the season kicking 16.24 against the West Coast Eagles, which was met with a non-serious look from Hinkley. This poor kicking has cost Port at least 2 games this season. Their goal-kicking is disgraceful.

Doggie dominates Panthers in an impressive win

Central Districts Victory

Central District put on a show in the second half of their game against South Adelaide, securing a massive 63-point win at X Convenience Oval. The Bulldogs took control after halftime, scoring 9.4 while holding the Panthers to just 1.4. This win marked their seventh victory of the season.

Standout Players

Despite a late withdrawal from Jez McLennan, his younger brother Louie stepped up with an impressive debut, racking up 16 disposals and six tackles. The Bulldogs midfield, led by Harry Grant, played a crucial role in the win. Grant had 26 disposals, five clearances, 10 tackles, and even kicked a goal. Rhett Montgomerie and Kai Pudney also had strong performances, while Aiden Grace and Jake Gasper each contributed three goals. Beau Thomas showed his worth with 11 disposals, four marks, seven tackles, and two goals.

South Adelaide's Struggles

South Adelaide's defense suffered after co-captain Sam Skinner left the game at halftime due to injuries. Despite laying 101 tackles, they couldn't contain Central District's offensive pressure. Kobe Mutch and Hayden Sampson were notable performers for South, with Liam Fitt chipping in with two goals.

Game Highlights

Central District started strong with Isaiah Dudley scoring a goal just 17 seconds into the game. South Adelaide led by six points at the end of the first quarter but struggled to maintain momentum. Central District's methodical approach in the second quarter resulted in a dominant performance, with costly errors plaguing the Panthers.

Central District's Dominance

Central District's balanced defensive and offensive strategy proved too much for South Adelaide. Their tactical discipline and firepower were on full display, especially in the final quarter. Despite South Adelaide's efforts, they couldn't match Central District's toughness and efficiency.

Tributes and a debut

In a touching tribute, Central District wore black armbands to honor the late Tom Grljusich. Louie McLennan's debut was bittersweet as he missed the chance to play alongside his brother Jez, who was sidelined with an injury.

Overall, Central District's impressive win showcased their strength and skill on the field, while South Adelaide struggled to keep up with their relentless pressure.

Eagles push an inept Crows aside

Eagles Overcome Slow Start

Woodville-West Torrens overcame a slow start to secure a commanding 53-point victory over Adelaide at Adelaide Oval. Despite Zac Bucks opening goal, the Eagles trailed by 15 points at the end of the first quarter as the Crows responded with four consecutive goals. However, the Eagles quickly found their stride, scoring 14 of the next 17 goals to rebound from their previous narrow loss to Central District.

Key Players Shine

The Eagles dominated key statistics, finishing with 20 more inside 50s, 19 more clearances, and 33 more tackles than Adelaide. Midfielder Adam D'Aloia was instrumental in their resurgence, gathering 29 disposals, 11 clearances, and seven tackles. Captain Joey Sinor, returning from a hamstring strain, contributed significantly with 28 disposals and seven clearances. Riley Knight also made a substantial impact, laying 13 tackles and collecting 27 touches. Josh Morris, since returning from Hawthorn, excelled at half-back with 21 disposals and seven marks.

Goal-Scorers

Buck and second-gamer Jack Wheare each kicked three goals, while Max Beattie, Luke McKay, and Pat Weckert added two goals apiece. Adelaide's Zac Taylor fought hard with 26 disposals, and ruckman Reilly O'Brien recorded 21 disposals, five clearances, and 35 hitouts. Luke Pedlar contributed 19 disposals and seven tackles, and first-year draftee Daniel Curtin had 18 disposals.

Adelaide Struggles Without Smith

Adelaide's Brodie Smith, playing his first SANFL match since 2018, initially made a strong impact before suffering a knee injury in the 16th minute. Although Smith did not return, Adelaide's SANFL development coach Matthew Wright expressed confidence that the injury was not severe. Without Smith, Adelaide's defense struggled to withstand the Eagles precise and relentless attacks.

Eagles Dominates

The Eagles multi-faceted offensive approach proved difficult to defend against, allowing them to take control of the game from the second quarter onward. Despite missing James Rowe due to suspension and losing ruckman Jarrad Redden to a hamstring concern after the third quarter, the Eagles midfield remained dominant. Riley Knight's perseverance at stoppages, combined with Sinor's commanding first-half performance and D'Aloia's consistent excellence, were key to their success.

Conclusion

The Eagles clinical execution and ability to share the goal-scoring load underscored their strength as they moved to the top of the ladder. The Eagles' cohesive team play and strategic prowess enabled them to dictate the game's terms, culminating in a well-deserved and emphatic victory over Adelaide. As the season progresses, the Eagles will look to build on this momentum and continue their ascent up the ladder.

Port secures victory in 1000th Alberton game

Magpies Triumph Over West Adelaide

Port Adelaide celebrated a historic milestone at Alberton Oval with a hard-fought 20-point victory over West Adelaide, marking their first win of the season. This win not only ended an eight-game losing streak but also gave Hamish Hartlett his first win as a senior coach at SANFL level, triumphing over his brother Adam, who coaches West Adelaide.

Strong Start for the Magpies

The Magpies got off to a strong start, scoring six goals to one in the first quarter with the help of a favorable breeze. However, they faced challenges in the second quarter as West Adelaide tightened their defense, narrowing the margin to just seven points by halftime. Despite a scoring drought in the second term, Port Adelaide's early lead proved crucial in maintaining their advantage against a determined West Adelaide team.

Efficient Scoring and Composure

In the third quarter, West Adelaide continued to apply pressure but missed crucial scoring opportunities. Port Adelaide, on the other hand, was efficient with their chances, extending their lead to 22 points by the final break. Although West Adelaide fought back in the last quarter, Ports experience and composure under pressure ensured they held on for the win. Key contributions from Jeremy Finlayson, Lachie Jones, and young forward Tom Scully, who scored four goals, sealed the victory for the Magpies.

Key Players Shine

Jordon Sweet dominated in the ruck, collecting 42 hitouts, 15 disposals, and a goal. Finlayson and Jones were influential across the ground, with Finlayson amassing 25 disposals, seven marks, and a goal, and Jones adding value with 18 disposals and seven marks. This comprehensive team performance showcased Port Adelaide's resilience and determination.

West Adelaide's Challenges

West Adelaide faced significant challenges throughout the game, with key players forced off the field due to injuries. Despite their efforts, missed opportunities in the third quarter ultimately cost them the game. Sam Frost and Kobe Ryan put in strong performances, but injuries and missed chances proved to be too much for West Adelaide to overcome.

Looking Ahead

Port Adelaide's victory not only marked a significant milestone but also highlighted their ability to overcome challenges and emerge victorious. Meanwhile, West Adelaide showed grit and potential, indicating a promising future once their squad returns to full strength. This win sets a positive tone for Port Adelaide's future matches and showcases their determination to succeed.
