Some Izak razzle and dazzle gets the Crows home

Rankine's Dazzling Performance

Izak Rankine put on a show as he led the Adelaide Crows to a surprising 16-point victory over Greater Western Sydney at Adelaide Oval. The Crows ended a three-game losing streak and kept their season hopes alive with a final score of 13.16 (94) to 12.6 (78).

First Half Domination

Rankine was on fire in the first half of the game, racking up 21 disposals, seven inside 50s, five clearances, seven score involvements, and kicking 2.2 by halftime. His outstanding performance helped the Crows score seven goals in the second quarter, turning a 12-point deficit into a commanding 33-point lead.

Game Recap

Adelaide started strong with Ben Keays scoring the first two goals. However, GWS fought back with a four-goal burst, taking a 6-point lead. The Giants extended their lead in the second quarter, but the Crows quickly turned the game around. Rankine, Taylor Walker, and Darcy Fogarty led a remarkable comeback, scoring seven consecutive goals in just 20 minutes. By halftime, the Crows were in the lead with 9.9 (63) to 5.0 (30).

Strong Defence and Offence

Despite GWS's efforts to catch up, Adelaide's defence, led by Jordan Dawson and

Mitch Hinge, held strong. Fogarty and Walker continued to pressure the Giants' backline, maintaining the lead.

Final Quarter

In the final quarter, GWS tried to make a comeback with goals from Toby Greene and Jesse Hogan, but the Crows responded with goals from Fogarty and Billy Dowling to secure the win.

Final Thoughts

Adelaide's victory was a much-needed boost for the team as they aim to build momentum in the second half of the season. On the other hand, GWS missed an opportunity to climb up the ladder, dropping to ninth place. Tom Green and Lachie Whitfield put in strong performances for GWS, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Crows' dominance.

Conclusion

Rankine's stellar performance and the team effort from Adelaide secured a well-deserved victory, while GWS will need to work on consistency to secure their spot in the top eight.

What could have been

If only the Crows had played like this all season, they would not be sitting towards the bottom of the ladder. Their best has been brilliant and their worst has been abysmal. They need to get some consistency between their best and worst performances.

Port show ticker after last week's horror show

Port Adelaide's Defence Shines in Close Win

Port Adelaide managed to secure a narrow victory over St Kilda, winning by just two points in a fairly average match for skills. The game was tense, but the quality of the game was poor. The Power's defence, led by players like Aliir Aliir and Brandon Zerk-Thatcher, played a crucial role in preserving their lead and ultimately securing the win.

Strong Start for Port Adelaide

The game began with a strong first quarter for Port Adelaide, as they went on a four-goal run to take the lead. Zak Butters' brilliant centre clearance and running goal set the tone for the Power's performance. The second quarter was tight, with both teams trading goals to level the scores at halftime.

Errors and Missed Opportunities

The third quarter saw both teams struggle to convert their opportunities into goals, with a long scoring drought lasting 19 minutes. St Kilda's Jack Sinclair made a critical error that led to a goal for Port Adelaide, extending their lead heading into the final quarter. Despite a late comeback attempt by St Kilda in the last quarter, they were unable to overtake the Power.

Port Adelaide's Inconsistencies

While the win was important for Port Adelaide, it also highlighted some inconsistencies in their performance. The team will need to address these issues as they aim to make a strong push in the latter part of the season. The victory over St Kilda provides a much-needed confidence boost for the Power as they look to replicate their success from the previous season.

In Conclusion

In summary, Port Adelaide's narrow victory over St Kilda was a hard-fought result for the Power. The strong defensive efforts of players like Aliir Aliir and crucial goals from Logan Evans and Jeremy Finlayson were key in securing the win. Despite a valiant effort from St Kilda, missed opportunities and errors ultimately cost them the match. The same could have been said for Port Adelaide if they lost also. The game was error-riddled.

Why do Port Wait to "Do It for Ken"

Last season Port waited until coach Ken Hinkley was under siege. While this win was only a single win, it showed what the players can do for their coach when their mind is set on winning. The question is. Why wait until the situation becomes desperate?

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Crows give a command performance over Bays

Adelaide Crows Shine in Victory

The Adelaide Crows put on a show-stopping performance as they defeated reigning premiers Glenelg by 39 points at Stratarama Stadium. With 15 AFL-listed players on their team, the Crows were led by standout performances from veteran Brodie Smith and returning ruckman Kieran Strachan. Riley Thilthorpe also made a triumphant return from a knee injury, scoring three goals in his comeback game.

Strong Start for Adelaide

Thilthorpe teamed up with Lachlan Gollant and Chris Burgess to form a powerful forward line. Gollant led the charge with four goals, while Burgess added three goals to the scoreboard. Adelaide got off to a strong start in the first quarter, leading 6.1 to 1.2, thanks to some accurate kicking and a favorable breeze. Their efficiency in front of goal proved crucial as they secured their third win of the season.

Key Players Shine

Smith played a pivotal role in setting up plays in the first half, finishing with 26 disposals. Strachan, fresh from AFL duties, made a significant impact with 18 disposals, 11 marks, and 41 hit outs. Burgess impressed with 18 disposals, nine marks, and three goals, while Harry Schoenberg also contributed solidly with 17 disposals.

Glenelg Struggles

Despite Chris Curran's 150th game milestone, Glenelg struggled to match Adelaide's efficiency and accuracy. The Tigers missed several scoring opportunities and failed to capitalize on their chances. Corey Lyons stood out for Glenelg with 19 disposals, five clearances, and eight tackles, supported by James Bell and Brad McCarthy with 17 disposals each.

Adelaide's Dominance

Adelaide's dominance was evident from the start, with Gollant scoring the first three goals of the game. The Crows continued to extend their lead, finishing the first half with a 30-point advantage. In the third quarter, Adelaide pulled further ahead, scoring six of the first seven goals to put the game out of Glenelg's reach.

Impressive Victory

Adelaide's comprehensive performance showcased their potential as a strong team. Their efficiency, cleanliness, and relentless work rate secured a convincing victory over Glenelg. The Crows' fit and firing squad proved to be a formidable force in the competition, leaving Glenelg to ponder missed opportunities and inefficiencies in a crucial match.

North secures vital victory to keep finals hopes alive

Roosters Triumph Over Eagles

North Adelaide managed to keep their finals hopes alive with a crucial 23-point win against Woodville-West Torrens at Prospect Oval, finishing with a score of 69-46. The Roosters closed the gap to just two wins behind the fifth-placed Eagles with a determined performance in wet and muddy conditions.

Strong Performance Despite Slow Start

Although North Adelaide did not score a goal in the first quarter, they dominated Woodville-West Torrens in clearances (43-26) and inside 50s (53-27). The Roosters took the lead when Tariek Newchurch scored a goal in the third quarter and extended their advantage in the final quarter by scoring 3.4 compared to the visitors' 1.1.

Standout Players

Campbell Combe excelled in the slippery conditions, racking up 38 disposals, 14 clearances, 11 tackles, and six marks in a stellar performance for North Adelaide. Harrison Magor also had a strong game with 30 disposals, while Blayne O'Loughlin and Sam Ramsay contributed with 23 touches each. Sam McInerney was the only Rooster to score multiple goals, including a memorable snap from the boundary line in the final quarter.

Notable Performances from Eagles

Eagles defender Josh Morris continued his impressive form with 25 disposals and six marks, while Joseph Sinor and Luke Thompson each collected 19 disposals. Luke McKay stood out for the Eagles with two goals, including a spectacular finish from a snap after executing a brilliant smother.

Key Factors in North Adelaide's Victory

North Adelaide's win was crucial for their finals aspirations, especially after close losses to Sturt and Glenelg. The Roosters controlled territory throughout the game but struggled to convert scoring opportunities, particularly in the first quarter when they kicked five behinds.

In the second half, North Adelaide capitalized on their dominance around the ball and controlled the tempo of the game.

The Roosters' strong defensive efforts, including tackling and smothers, were key to their victory. Despite Eagles ruckman Jarrad Redden's dominance in the tap work, North Adelaide outperformed Woodville-West Torrens in other statistical categories.

North Adelaide's comprehensive performance showcased their potential as they strive to break into the top five, demonstrating their ability to rise to the occasion in challenging conditions.

Doggies blitz Port with a 6 goal third quarter

Central District's Strong Third Quarter

In a thrilling match at Alberton Oval, Central District secured a 25-point victory over Port Adelaide, thanks to a powerful six-goal third quarter. Trailing by two points at halftime, the Bulldogs surged ahead with a dominant 6.1 to the Magpies' 0.3 in the third term, establishing a 32-point lead by the final change. Despite Port Adelaide's spirited efforts in the fourth quarter, they were unable to bridge the gap, and Central secured the win with a final score of 10.9 (69) to 6.8 (44).

Efficiency in Attack

Central District demonstrated remarkable efficiency in their attacking 50, making the most of fewer opportunities compared to Port Adelaide. The Bulldogs had 10 fewer inside 50 entries and 33 fewer handballs but capitalized on their chances with precision. Aiden Grace and Hugo Munn each scored three goals for the visitors, while Isaiah Dudley and Tyson Richard contributed two goals apiece.

Key Players Centrals

Magarey Medallist Harry Grant led Central with 19 disposals, six clearances, and eight tackles, providing crucial midfield strength. Kai Pudney and Billy Iles were also prominent, gathering 19 and 18 disposals, respectively. Grace, with his 15 disposals and eight marks, was a constant threat, including a memorable goal from well outside the 50m arc.

Key Players Port

Port Adelaide's ruckman Dante Visentini was a standout performer, recording 19 disposals, seven marks, five clearances, a goal, and an impressive 44 hit-outs. Murphy Short and Dustin Launer also made significant contributions, with Short adding 18 disposals, 10 tackles, and a goal, while Francis Evans tallied 15 disposals and 2.3 in front of goal.

Recap

The game began with Port Adelaide showing strong intent, dominating possession but failing to convert opportunities into significant scoreboard pressure. They managed just one goal in the opening term, courtesy of Cody Szust. In contrast, Central District struggled to find their rhythm early, going goalless in the first quarter despite having the wind advantage.

Central's turnaround came in the second and third quarters, where they demonstrated their class under pressure. Grace's two long goals early in the third quarter gave Central momentum, and Munn's accurate reading of the wind resulted in a highlight reel goal.

Conclusion

Central District's victory lifted them into the top three, solidifying their position with seven rounds remaining. Port Adelaide's performance, though improved, highlighted the gap they need to close to compete consistently with the league's top teams.

Legs secure a gritty win over the Panthers

Resilience in Challenging Conditions

In a tough match at Flinders University Stadium, Norwood came out on top against South Adelaide, showing their strength in difficult circumstances. The Redlegs, who are currently leading the ladder, faced a strong challenge from the Panthers throughout the game.

Early Struggles

Even though Norwood had more possession, inside 50 entries, and clearances, they had trouble scoring goals at the beginning of the game. They only had a narrow seven-point lead heading into the final quarter. But thanks to great performances from Baynen Lowe and ruckman Harry Boyd, Norwood was able to turn things around.

Key Players for Norwood

Lowe was amazing in the midfield, getting lots of disposals, while Boyd did more than just his ruck duties. In the final quarter, Boyd's clearances helped Norwood take control of the game and win by 39 points. Callow, Seymour, Graham and Donnelly were also serviceable for the Redlegs

Key Players for the Panthers

Mutch, Dunkin, Skinner, Wheaton and Davis were all valiant in a losing cause.

Turning Point

Norwood really stepped up in the final quarter, scoring 5.2 efficiently while keeping South Adelaide from scoring at all. Alec Wright even scored his first SANFL League goal, showing Norwood's dominance in the game.

South Adelaide's Efforts

South Adelaide fought hard but couldn't keep up with Norwood's intensity, especially with injuries affecting their team. Players like Elliot Dunkin and Kobe Mutch played well, but Norwood was just too strong in the end.

Game Highlights

The first half was tense with lots of stoppages and tackles in the slippery conditions. Norwood showed their ability to handle tough situations and raise their game when it mattered most, proving why they are at the top of the ladder.

Looking Ahead

As the season goes on, Norwood's ability to adapt and succeed in tough situations shows that they are serious contenders for the championship. Coach Jade Rawlings called this win one of the team's best this season, showing their determination to overcome challenges every week.

Final Thoughts

Norwood's win over South Adelaide demonstrated their strength, resilience, and ability to take control of the game when it counts. They along with Sturt and Glenelg appear to be the only clubs capable of taking home the premiership cup on the last Saturday in September.

Sturt dominates the Bloods to claim top spot

Sturt Takes the Lead

Sturt took the lead in the SANFL ladder with a big win over West Adelaide. They finished with a score of 10.10 (70) to 3.7 (25), keeping the Bloods to just three goals. Sturt is now in first place, but Norwood could take the top spot with a win against South Adelaide.

Sturt's Strong Performance

Sturt dominated the game from the beginning, keeping West Adelaide from scoring in the first and third quarters. They also controlled the game with more inside 50s and marks, and they put pressure on West Adelaide with more tackles.

Key Players

Captain James Battersby led the team with 26 disposals, five clearances, and seven tackles. Will Snelling also had a great game with 25 disposals, nine clearances, and 11 tackles. Tom Lewis added 20 disposals, 12 tackles, eight clearances, and a goal. James Mathews scored three goals to make a big impact.

Sturt's Strong Defence

Sturt's defence was solid, especially in the third quarter when they didn't allow West Adelaide to score. The midfield trio of Battersby, Snelling, and Lewis controlled the game with their strong play.

West Adelaide's Struggles

West Adelaide had a tough time finding support for their top players. They struggled to score and couldn't keep up with Sturt's strong performance. They have now lost 17 games in a row to Sturt. At times this year, West Adelaide appears to have improved, but then they put in a shocking performance like against Sturt and we wonder if they've improved at all.

Sturt's Dominance

Sturt continued to dominate the game, with Lewis scoring a great goal to extend their lead. Even without Flynn Perez, who was injured, Sturt showed their talent and consistency on the field.

Conclusion

Sturt's win over West Adelaide showed the difference between top teams and those struggling to keep up. West Adelaide will need to improve dramatically to compete with the best teams in the league. Sturt is now at the top of the ladder and ready to defend their position as the season goes on.
