And old fashioned 'Slog' as the Crows prevail

Rain Soaked Clash

In a gritty battle at Adelaide Oval, the Adelaide Crows emerged victorious over St Kilda in a rain-soaked clash. The game was a true test of skill and determination as both teams fought to salvage their seasons amidst challenging weather conditions.

Thilthorpe's Heroics

The standout performance of the match came from Adelaide's key forward, Riley Thilthorpe. Making his first start of the season, Thilthorpe proved to be a game-changer as he scored two crucial goals in the final quarter to secure the Crows' victory. His dominance in the forward line was a key factor in Adelaide's success on the night. Considering Thilthorpe only came onto the ground at three-quarter time as the substitute and in appalling conditions for a big man. His performance was all the more meritorious.

Adelaide's Resurgence

The Crows showed resilience and determination throughout the match, with emerging players like Jake Soligo and stalwarts Jordan Dawson and Rory Laird stepping up in the challenging conditions. Their ability to adapt to the wet weather and maintain composure under pressure was instrumental in securing the win for Adelaide.

St Kilda's Struggles

On the other side, St Kilda faced difficulties in finding their rhythm on the field. Despite early success in the first quarter, the Saints struggled to maintain momentum as the game progressed. Players like Nasiah Wanganeen-Milera and Mattaes Phillipou put in solid efforts, but it wasn't enough to overcome Adelaide's strong performance.

Game Highlights

The match saw a back-and-forth battle between the two teams, with Adelaide gaining the upper hand in the second quarter and maintaining their lead until the final whistle. Both sides faced challenges in handling the slippery ball and tough playing conditions, but it was Adelaide who ultimately emerged victorious with a 32-point win.

Game Lowlights - Umpiring

The game was not helped by the umpiring. The umpiring favoured neither side, but the umpires need to look at the conditions in which the game is played. The players, fans and coaches were bewildered by decisions made for dry-weather football when the game was played in sodden conditions.

But as we were told recently “the umpiring has never been better. Between Andrew and Laura, they’ve completely made the umpires untouchable in terms of criticism.

Looking Ahead

As the season progresses, both teams will need to regroup and refocus in order to achieve their goals. For Adelaide, the win over St Kilda serves as a confidence boost and a reminder of their potential moving forward. St Kilda, on the other hand, will need to address their shortcomings and make adjustments in order to turn their season around.

Gold Coast win pushes Power out of the Eight

Suns Break Losing Streak and Maintain Perfect Home Record

In a crucial match with finals implications, the Gold Coast Suns emerged victorious over Port Adelaide, defeating them by 14 points at Metricon Stadium. The Suns' 14.12 (96) to 12.10 (82) win not only ended a 13-year losing streak against the Power but also kept their flawless home record intact for the season.

Suns Keep Finals Hopes Alive with Key Players Stepping Up

The Suns now hold a 9-8 win-loss record, positioning themselves just outside the top eight and keeping their finals hopes alive. Key players such as Noah Anderson and Sam Flanders played pivotal roles in the Suns' success, with Anderson racking up 29 disposals, 11 clearances, and a goal, while Flanders contributed 30 possessions. In the defensive 50, Sam Collins put in a standout performance with commanding intercepts and defensive marks.

Suns deliver after a huge Hardwick spray

A week after coach Damien Hardwick called for his team to "grow the **** up", the Suns delivered, with a ferocious intensity that held Ken Hinkley's men at bay most of the day.

Port Adelaide Faces Setbacks as Suns Dominate Midfield and Defensive Play

Port Adelaide faced challenges from the start, losing players to injuries early on and struggling to match the Suns' midfield and defensive efforts. Despite valiant performances from players like Zak Butters and Dan Houston, the Power couldn't overcome the Suns' dominance in key areas of the game.

Jason Horne-Francis needs to Pull His Head In

A low light for the Power was Jason Horne-Francis who needed to pull his head in after displays of petulance. He could take a leaf out of what Hardwick told the Suns players the week before.

Suns Capitalize on Opportunities and Defensive Pressure

The Suns capitalized on Port's missed chances and effectively transitioned from defence to build a lead in the second quarter. With strong midfield pressure stifling Port's inside 50 entries, the Suns were able to maintain their lead and secure a well-deserved victory.

Conclusion

The Suns' victory showcased their determination and cohesion as a team, while Port Adelaide will need to regroup and refocus if they want to keep their finals aspirations alive. The upcoming clash between the Suns and Greater Western Sydney promises to be another exciting match as both teams vie for a spot in the finals.

Norwood dominates Crows with an impressive win

Norwood's Commanding Victory

Norwood solidified its position at the top of the ladder with a dominant 63-point victory over Adelaide at The Parade. The Redlegs came out strong from the beginning, with Baynen Lowe scoring a goal only moments into the opening term, setting the tone for the rest of the match.

Key Players Shine

Welcoming back skipper Jacob Kennerley from injury, Norwood's squad put on a clinic in the first half, scoring seven unanswered goals. Lowe continued his stellar form, racking up 26 disposals, and three goals. Matt Ling also had an impressive performance with a team-high 30 disposals and best a field honours in our eyes.

Adelaide's Struggles

Adelaide had a tough time finding their rhythm against Norwood's strong defence. They only managed to score one goal until the fourth quarter when Chris Burgess converted. Despite a strong final quarter, where they outscored Norwood, the early dominance by the Redlegs had already sealed their fate. Norwood had the game well and truly won when the Crows outscored them in the final term.

Defensive Dominance

Norwood's ability to clamp down defensively and limit Adelaide's opportunities was crucial to their victory. The Redlegs showcased their depth and versatility, proving themselves, along with Sturt and Glenelg as the team to beat this season.

Curtin Looked the Goods on the ball

Top draft pick Dan Curtin, continued his impressive development since being shifted onto the ball. This is an area where the Crows struggle at the AFL level and Curtin could be given a licence to play in the midfield in the concluding matches of the AFL season.

Post-Match Reactions

Norwood coach Jade Rawlings praised his team's defensive efforts, highlighting their ability to keep Adelaide to one goal until three-quarter time. Adelaide coach Mick Godden acknowledged his team's struggles with scoreboard pressure and missed opportunities.

Conclusion

Norwood's comprehensive win over Adelaide demonstrated their strength as a team and their determination to maintain their position at the top of the ladder. With key players stepping up and a solid defensive performance, Norwood looks poised to continue their winning streak in the season ahead. On the other side of the ledger, the Crows along with their AFL counterpart in Port Adelaide look certain to bring up the bottom of the premiership ladder.

Sturt holds off the Eagles in a thriller

Match Recap

In a thrilling showdown at Maughan Thiem Kia Oval, Sturt managed to secure a narrow eight-point victory against the Eagles, solidifying their position in the league standings. The Double Blues, who were leading by 29 points heading into the final quarter, faced a fierce comeback from the Eagles but ultimately held on for a crucial win.

Sturt's Dominance and Woodville-West Torrens' Fightback

Sturt appeared to be cruising towards a comfortable victory, but the Eagles had other plans. Woodville-West Torrens mounted a strong surge in the fourth quarter, kicking the first four goals of the term to bring the game within reach.

Connor McFadyen stepped up for Sturt with a timely goal to steady the ship, while Max Litster's late effort for the Eagles kept the game on a knife's edge. However, Sturt's defence held firm in the dying minutes to secure the win and maintain their grip on second place in the league ladder.

Key Players and Performances for Sturt

Captain James Battersby led from the front for Sturt with 27 disposals, while Tom Lewis and Sam Conforti also made significant contributions in the midfield. McFadyen was influential up forward with three goals, and Oliver Grivell was instrumental with two crucial goals for the Blues.

Key Players and Performances for the Eagles

For Woodville-West Torrens, Adam D'Aloia was a standout performer, while James Rowe and Jack Where also made valuable contributions. Despite the loss, the Eagles showed resilience and fighting spirit throughout the match.

Couldn't get the job done for the Milestone man

The Eagles couldn't send Luke Thompson off a winner in his 250th game for the club. Thompson has been a loyal servant and wonderful player over many years and a win would have been fitting.

Post-Match Reactions

Sturt coach Martin Mattner praised his team's defensive efforts and ability to withstand the Eagles' late charge, highlighting their impressive winning streak and resilience in the face of adversity. Woodville-West Torrens coach Sam Jacobs commended his players for their fighting spirit and resilience, despite falling short in the end.

The thrilling clash between Sturt and Woodville-West Torrens showcased the competitive spirit of both teams and set the stage for an exciting finish to the season as Sturt continues to push towards the finals and the possible minor premiership.

Central District holds off a determined Westies

In a thrilling showdown at the Elizabeth Oval, Central District narrowly secured a six-point victory against West Adelaide. The Bulldogs led at every interval and extended their advantage to five goals early in the fourth quarter. However, West Adelaide mounted a determined comeback, kicking the next four goals consecutively to bring the game within a single kick late in the final quarter.

Nobody at the ground saw this late charge coming from Westies and most thought the more polished Doggies would cruise home on a very special day for Central District fans.

Despite the surge from West Adelaide, Central District managed to hang on, with their defence holding firm in the closing minutes to secure their ninth win of the season. The victory was even more special as the Bulldogs celebrated their 60th anniversary in the SANFL.

Key Players and Performances

Central District's Harry Grant who's the reigning Magarey Medallist was arguably best on the ground with 27 disposals, while Kade Dittmar also made a significant contribution with 21 touches. Mani Liddy played a pivotal role in the victory, amassing 19 touches, along with two important goals.

Doggies key Forwards

Aiden Grace was the leading goal scorer for the Bulldogs with three goals, supported by Isaiah Dudley and Hugo Munn who each added two goals. That man Liddy as we've already mentioned booted two.

For the vanquished

West Adelaide's Kobe Ryan put in a stellar performance, collecting 32 touches while Brady Searle recorded 24 touches. Cullum Park also played well for the Bloods. While up forward Josh Gore and Hamish Ellem both slotted home two sausage rolls.

Game Analysis

Central District started the match strongly, maintaining a steady lead throughout the first three quarters. Their midfield dominance, led by Grant and Liddy, allowed them to control the tempo. However, West Adelaide found their rhythm in the final quarter, mounting a late comeback led by Isaac Johnson and Josh Gore.

In the end, Central District's defensive tenacity and composure under pressure proved to be the difference as they held off West Adelaide's late charge. The victory keeps Central District in the hunt for September action, while West Adelaide's showed spirit after some very poor performances of late.

While Central District has a strong likelihood of playing finals, they haven't the talent to win the premiership or play in the grand final.

Port Adelaide Stuns Glenelg with Upset Victory

Port Adelaide's Back-to-Back Wins

Port Adelaide pulled off a surprising upset with a 14-point victory over Glenelg at Alberton Oval, securing their second consecutive win. The win came as a shock to many, as Glenelg is the reigning premiers and a formidable opponent.

Key Players and Moments

Port Adelaide's experienced AFL players, Willie Rioli and Esava Ratugolea, played crucial roles in the team's victory. Rioli scored three goals as an elusive forward, while Ratugolea contributed with 15 possessions and took six marks in defence. Both players would be looking at recalls to the senior side this week after they've proven to be over their injuries. Magpies skipper Nick Moore also made a significant impact. It was a good final-quarter goal from Moore that put the game out of the Tiger's grasp.

Glenelg's Comeback Attempt

Despite Port Adelaide's lead, Glenelg made a late push to narrow the gap. It was all in vain, however. A goal from Hugh Ferrari in the final minutes secured the victory for Port. Cody Szust and Murphy Short led the way for Port Adelaide with their strong performances, along with Rioli and big Esava.

Statistical Dominance

Glenelg had significant advantages with inside 50s, clearances, and marks, but still couldn't get the job done. Despite missing big man Cam McGree, Glenelg fought hard in the ruck with Riley Holder matching it with Port's rucks. James Bell, Billy Stretch, Max Proud, and Matt Snook were good for the Bays.

Willie Rioli's Impact

Willie Rioli's return to the field after a long absence was a game-changer for Port Adelaide. His three goals and leadership on the field were instrumental in Port's victory. Coach Hamish Hartlett praised Rioli's performance and highlighted his contribution to the team.

Port Adelaide's Resurgence

Port Adelaide's win against Glenelg marked their third victory in five games, showcasing their mid-season resurgence. Despite a slow start to the season, Port Adelaide has shown improvement and determination in recent matches.

Glenelg's Missed Opportunities

Glenelg's dominance in key statistical categories did not translate into a win, as they struggled to convert their chances into scores. Coach Darren Reeves acknowledged Port Adelaide's efficiency and ability to capitalize on their opportunities.

Conclusion

No one except ardent Port supporters gave them a chance against the reigning premiers. Glenelg may well rue this lost opportunity against one of the bottom-placed clubs to secure a victory. With every game crucial to take the minor premiership and the double chance, this could be one that got away.

Roosters accuracy woes nearly cost them

Hard fought match but inaccuracy nearly cost North

In a hard-fought match at Victor Harbor, the North Adelaide Roosters managed to hold on for an eight-point victory over the South Adelaide Panthers. Despite dominating inside 50s, the Roosters struggled with poor accuracy in front of goal, finishing with a score of 9.18 (72) to the Panthers' 10.4 (64). If the Roosters are to play finals this season, they won't be able to have 27 scoring shots and still win.

North Adelaide's Control and Inaccuracy

Throughout the game, the Roosters seemed to have control, but their inability to convert scoring chances kept the Panthers in the game. Despite their numerous opportunities, North Adelaide's poor accuracy nearly cost them the match.

South Adelaide's Resilience

On the other hand, the Panthers capitalised on their chances and maintained pressure on the Roosters throughout the game. South Adelaide's young talent, Phoenix Hargrave, made an impressive debut by scoring a crucial goal in the final quarter. He looked composed throughout the game and certainly didn't look out of place at league level.

Key Players and Performances for North

The North Adelaide's skipper put in a fantastic performance. Alex Spina, was the standout performer, and best on the ground with 27 disposals and 13 marks. Campbell Combe also had a stellar game with 32 disposals. Mitch Harvey and Frank Szekely provided the necessary firepower up front, each kicking two goals to secure the victory.

Key Players and Performances for South

For South Adelaide, Sid Draper continued his impressive form. Elliot Dunkin and Oscar Clavarino also put in solid performances. All three players ensured the Panthers stayed with the Roosters until the final siren.

Final Thoughts

The game remained competitive from start to finish. North Adelaide's ability to control the ball and create scoring opportunities ultimately proved decisive, despite their inaccuracy. South Adelaide's precise finishing kept them in the game, but they couldn't complete the comeback.

This victory is crucial for North Adelaide as they aim to secure a place in the finals. South Adelaide will need to work on their consistency and conversion rate to climb up the ladder in the upcoming rounds. The Roosters' ability to overcome their scoring woes and secure the win showcases their determination and potential to play in September.
