Crows secure a close win against the injury odds

Adelaide's Revenge

In a thrilling showdown under the Marvel Stadium roof, Adelaide managed to secure a nail-biting two-point victory over Essendon. Despite being down to just two rotations on the bench, the Crows fought hard and got their revenge on the Bombers from their previous encounters.

Key Players

Ben Keays was a standout performer for Adelaide, scoring five goals throughout the game. His dynamic presence in the midfield and up forward caused problems for Essendon all night. Josh Rachele also played a crucial role, scoring the match-winning goal in the final minute of the game.

Game Highlights

The game was filled with momentum swings, with both teams going on long consecutive goal runs. Adelaide took the lead with eight unanswered goals in the second quarter, only for Essendon to hit back with seven-straight goals of their own. The high-end draftees for the Bombers, including Nate Caddy, Nik Cox, and Harrison Jones, showcased their attacking prowess with seven combined goals.

Injuries and Setbacks

The game was not without its casualties, as Adelaide's Nick Murray suffered a serious knee injury in the first quarter. Despite the win, the sight of Murray being carried off the field was a heartbreaking moment for the Crows. Crows skipper Jordan Dawson, will miss this week's game with concussion protocols.

Dangerous tackles

Confusion again reigned supreme at Marvel Stadium. Both coaches seemed not to know the answers, just like the rest of Australia. We can sense and know that all 18 coaches across the league are frustrated with this rule. The tribunal and MRO have no idea. Sometimes it takes

2 and 3 tribunal appearances to have players' charges thrown out. The whole of Australia, supporters, players and clearly the judiciary is confused.

Final Thoughts

With this victory, Adelaide has broken a streak of four straight losses to Essendon at Marvel Stadium. The win also dealt a blow to Essendon's hopes of a top-four finish. Despite the injuries and setbacks, both teams put on a thrilling display of speed and power, with bodies being thrown on the line in pursuit of victory.

In the end, it was Adelaide who emerged victorious, with their resilience and determination shining through in the final moments of the game. The Crows' ability to weather the storm and come out on top in such a closely contested match is a testament to their fighting spirit and never-say-die attitude.

Port power home to defeat plucky Tigers

Port Adelaide get the job done in one quarter

Port Adelaide powered home against the struggling Richmond Tigers on Saturday night. Despite Richmond's valiant efforts, it was Port Adelaide who emerged victorious, securing a 41-point win. Make no mistake Richmond were plucky and tried their hardest.

King Charles Leads the Charge

One of the standout performers of the night was Port Adelaide's King Charles, who kicked four crucial goals to help his team overwhelm Richmond. After a lean spell in front of the goalposts, King Charles returned to form in spectacular fashion, proving to be a physical presence that the Power desperately needed.

Port Adelaide's Rise in the Ladder

With this win, Port Adelaide climbed back into the top eight, showcasing their potential as a flag contender. Although to win on Grand Final day they would need to play 1000% better than Saturday night.

Key Players Shine

Port Adelaide's success was not just due to King Charles' heroics. Players like Dan Houston, Mitch Georgiades, and Willie Rioli also played pivotal roles in securing the win. Captain Connor Rozee, Brownlow medallist Ollie Wines, and ex-skipper Travis Boak all made significant contributions, showcasing the team's depth and talent.

Richmond's Resilience

Despite the loss, Richmond put up a strong fight, with players like Daniel Rioli, Rhyann Mansell, and Dion Prestia delivering standout performances. The Tigers showed resilience and determination throughout the match, but ultimately fell short against a determined Port Adelaide side.

A Thrilling Matchup

The game was a rollercoaster of emotions, with both teams trading goals and momentum shifts throughout the match. Port Adelaide's dominance in the final term proved to be the difference, as they outscored Richmond by a significant margin to secure the win.

Port Adelaide's Final Quarter Power Surge

After a tight contest in the first three quarters, Port Adelaide unleashed in the final term, booting four goals to none to seal the victory. The team's relentless pressure and clinical finishing proved to be too much for Richmond to handle, as they ran away with the game in the closing stages.

In conclusion, Port Adelaide's commanding performance against Richmond showcased their potential as a genuine premiership contender. With key players stepping up when it mattered most, the Power sent a strong message to the rest of the competition. As they continue their quest for a second flag, Port Adelaide will be a team to watch in the weeks to come.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Adelaide's dominant victory over Roosters

Adelaide's Mid-Season Resurgence

In a decisive 38-point victory over North Adelaide at Prospect Oval, Adelaide continued their mid-season resurgence in the SANFL with their third win in four games. Despite trailing by seven points at half-time, Adelaide delivered a dominant second-half performance, netting nine goals to North Adelaide's two.

Key Players in Adelaide's Success

Dan Curtin played a pivotal role in Adelaide's success, showcasing his versatility in the midfield with 20 disposals, five clearances, and two goals. Alongside Curtin, Harry Schoenberg and Ned McHenry were influential, each amassing 20 and 22 touches respectively. Toby Murray led the forward line with three goals, contributing significantly to Adelaide's scoreline.

Game Recap

Adelaide started strong, capitalizing on a favourable breeze to lead by 18 points at the end of the first quarter. However, North Adelaide responded emphatically in the second term, outscoring Adelaide and securing a seven-point lead at halftime. Nigel Lockyer's set shot after the siren was crucial in giving North the momentum. Despite this, the third quarter saw Adelaide regain control, kicking four goals to North's one and reclaiming the lead.

Adelaide's Strong Finish

Entering the final term with a significant advantage, Adelaide continued their dominance, adding another five goals to secure their fifth win of the season. Captain Jack Madgen was exceptional in defence with 27 disposals, while Oscar Ryan made a significant impact with 23 disposals. The consistent performance across the board highlighted Adelaide's depth and teamwork.

North Adelaide's Inconsistency

North Adelaide's inconsistency was evident as they faltered in the second half, only managing two goals. Despite a strong second quarter, they struggled to maintain their performance throughout the game. Harrison Wigg stood out for North with 29 disposals, while Campbell Combe contributed 26 disposals and a goal. Mitch Harvey was the leading goal scorer for North with three goals.

Looking Ahead

The defeat was another blow to North Adelaide's hopes of climbing the SANFL standings. You'd think that they've blown their chances of playing finals. On the other hand, Adelaide's victory solidified their position and underscored their potential as they continue to build momentum. The team's ability to adjust at halftime and execute a dominant second-half strategy was key to their success. As the season progresses, Adelaide's blend of youth and experience will help them build towards next season.

Bloods give their long-suffering fans hope

Thrilling Turn of Events at Richmond Oval

In a thrilling turn of events at Richmond Oval on Saturday, West Adelaide revitalized their finals aspirations with a commanding 39-point victory over Woodville-West Torrens. This win marked the end of a five-game losing streak, demonstrating the Bloods potential when they perform at their peak.

Early Dominance by Eagles

Initially, the Eagles appeared dominant, taking control of the early stages and establishing a 15-point lead. Their precision and effective ball movement hinted at a challenging day for the Bloods. However, West Adelaide's determination soon surfaced, epitomized by Josh Gore's relentless efforts late in the first term. Despite missing a tough mark, Gore's persistent play, including a critical diving smother and a solid tackle earning a free kick, ignited the Bloods fightback.

West Adelaide Finds Their Rhythm

By the end of the first quarter, West Adelaide began to find their rhythm. The second quarter saw a dramatic shift as they outscored the Eagles 4.1 to 1.3, overturning the deficit to lead by nine points at halftime. The momentum firmly in their favor, the Bloods defense was impenetrable in the third quarter, where they kept the high-scoring Eagles goalless while adding three majors themselves.

Key Players Shine for West Adelaide

Kobe Ryan was instrumental for West Adelaide, showcasing his prowess with 34 disposals, five clearances, six marks, and a goal. His midfield counterparts, Sam Frost and Brady Searle, also played pivotal roles, contributing significantly to the team's overall performance. Callum Park was a standout in defense, effectively cutting off numerous Eagles advances.

Up front, Hamish Ellem was in fine form, kicking three goals, including an impressive checkside finish from the boundary. Jye Sinderberry, Isaac Johnson, and Michael Laudato each contributed two goals, ensuring the Bloods maintained their scoring pressure throughout the match.

Eagles Unable to Sustain Momentum

Despite the Eagles' initial promise, their inability to sustain momentum and break through West Adelaide's staunch defense became apparent. Joseph Sinor led the way for the Eagles with 23 disposals, while Dane McFarlane and Riley Knight provided solid performances.

The Bloods' emphatic performance under coach Adam Hartlett highlighted their potential when they execute their game plan effectively. This victory has injected fresh optimism into their finals campaign, proving they are a formidable opponent when in form. As the season nears its climax, West Adelaide's resilience and determination could see them continue to challenge for a spot in the top five.

Sturt Dominates Early

In a thrilling match at Unley Oval, Sturt showcased their strength and resilience with a hard-fought 20-point victory over Glenelg. The Double Blues got off to a blistering start in the first quarter, surging to a 28-point lead. Josh Hone and Connor McFadyen were instrumental in Sturt's early dominance, with Hone proving elusive for Glenelg's defenders and McFadyen displaying his class with a long-range goal.

Glenelg Fights Back

Despite a slow start, Glenelg found their rhythm in the second quarter, thanks in part to Luke Reynolds becoming a formidable target in the attack. The Bays managed to reduce the deficit to just five points at halftime, setting the stage for a closely contested second half.

Grivell Shines for Sturt

The match remained evenly balanced for much of the third quarter until Oliver Grivell took centre stage. Grivell's dazzling display saw him score three goals in five minutes, breaking the deadlock and ultimately securing Sturt's victory. His fourth goal, which came late in the match, sealed the deal for the Double Blues.

Team Effort Secures Victory

Sturt's victory was characterized by contributions from across the board. Casey Voss impressed with his work rate, covering the ground to take a crucial mark in the final term. Will Snelling made a significant impact in his return after a two-week absence, while James Battersby and Tom Lewis also played key roles in the midfield. Hone and McFadyen supported Grivell's efforts with two goals each, showcasing the depth of Sturt's attacking options.

Glenelg's Efforts Fall Short

Despite a strong showing in the second quarter, Glenelg struggled to maintain momentum throughout the match. Matt Allen and Corey Lyons battled hard in the midfield, while Reynolds was a standout in attack with four goals. Debutant Nick Stevens showed promise with 15 disposals, but the Bays were ultimately unable to overcome Sturt's strong performance.

Sturt's Resilience Shines Through

Sturt's ability to withstand pressure and deliver in crucial moments was on full display in their victory over Glenelg. Their strong start and Grivell's decisive performance secured a valuable win that solidifies their position in the top three. Meanwhile, Glenelg will need to regroup and address areas for improvement as they look to bounce back in their upcoming matches.

Conclusion

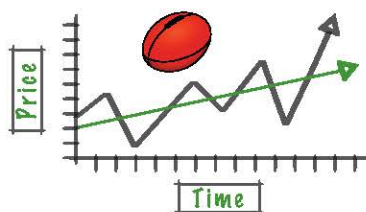

Sturt's comprehensive team performance and Glenelg's inability to capitalize on key moments defined the encounter.

Norwood's victory led by ruckman Harry Boyd

Boyd's Stellar Performance

In a thrilling match at The Parade, Norwood's ruckman Harry Boyd put on a show-stopping performance, leading his team to a commanding 42-point victory over Central District. Boyd, who was awarded the 2022 Jack Oatey Medal, dominated the muddy conditions with an impressive 48 hitouts and 18 clearances, setting a new standard in the SANFL this season. Not only did Boyd excel in the ruck, but he also showcased his skills around the ground, tallying 30 disposals and even setting up a goal for teammate Jayden Gale.

Norwood's Control

From the get-go, Norwood asserted their dominance on the field, maintaining the lead at every quarter break. Their defensive and offensive prowess was evident as they secured 53 inside 50s compared to Central District's 29. Key forwards Jackson Callow and Finn Heard played crucial roles in the forward line, each contributing three goals to the team's victory.

Midfield Excellence

Norwood's midfield was firing on all cylinders, with captain Jacob Kennerley, Matt Ling, and Baynen Lowe all making significant contributions. Kennerley led the way with 22 disposals, while Ling and Lowe added 19 and 18 touches respectively. Their cohesive play and ability to involve their teammates were key factors in Norwood's success.

Central District's Struggles

On the other hand, Central District found it challenging to gain momentum throughout the match. Despite efforts from players like Billy Iles and Harry Grant, they were unable to match Norwood's intensity and precision. Central District's struggles were further compounded by unexpected lineup changes, including Zac Buechner stepping in for Dayne Posthuma due to injury.

Impressive Records

With this victory, Norwood extended their impressive record to 12-2, solidifying their position at the top of the ladder. Central District, although having won four of their previous five matches, remained in fourth place with a 9-5 record. Norwood's blend of defensive strength and attacking efficiency has positioned them as the team to beat in the SANFL this season.

Conclusion

In conclusion, Norwood's dominant performance, led by the exceptional play of Harry Boyd, showcased their strength as a team. Their victory over Central District highlighted their potential for premiership glory and reinforced their status as a force to be reckoned with in the SANFL. As the season progresses, all eyes will be on Norwood as they continue their march towards success on the field.

South sends Port back to the bottom of the cellar

South Adelaide's Flying Start Secures Victory

In a thrilling SANFL clash, South Adelaide emerged victorious over Port Adelaide with a 15-point win at Alberton on Sunday afternoon. The Panthers wasted no time in asserting their dominance, piling on six goals in the opening quarter to take a commanding lead. Led by midfielders Oliver Davis and Hayden Sampson, South Adelaide's fast start proved to be the key to their success.

One of the standout performers for South Adelaide was Corey Grocock, who kicked five goals in a stellar display. Grocock, who was given a second chance at SANFL level after being sent back to Happy Valley two years ago, made the most of his opportunity and played a crucial role in South Adelaide's victory.

Port Adelaide Struggles to Keep Up

Despite their best efforts, Port Adelaide was unable to recover from the early onslaught by South Adelaide. The Magpies, missing a key rotation in the second half due to a concussion to Jed McEntee, struggled to match their opponent's intensity and efficiency. Turnovers and poor shot attempts further compounded Port Adelaide's woes, as they found themselves trailing by as much as 42 points early in the second quarter.

Although Port Adelaide mounted a late surge in the third quarter, closing the gap to 15 points, South Adelaide quickly responded with three quick goals to extend their lead. The Panthers' midfield dominance and early scoring blitz set the tone for a determined performance that ultimately secured them the victory.

Standout Performances

Corey Grocock was the star of the show for South Adelaide, finishing with a five-goal haul along with 11 disposals and five marks. Kobe Mutch led South's disposal count with 24, while Oliver Davis, Hayden Sampson, and Sid Draper also made significant contributions with 23 touches each. Liam Fitt and Eamon Wilkinson added two goals apiece to South Adelaide's tally.

For Port Adelaide, Dante Visentini put in a strong performance with 18 disposals, six marks, a goal, and an impressive 43 hit outs. Will Lorenz also stood out with 25 disposals, five marks, and a goal, showcasing his growing confidence on the field.

South Adelaide's comprehensive win over Port Adelaide was a testament to their midfield dominance and early scoring prowess. The Panthers' victory lifted them off the bottom of the ladder, providing a much-needed boost after a challenging season.
