Despite the win however, it's not enough for Goodwood to extend their season as they sit two games behind the number 5 side with just 1 game remaining.

The first quarter saw Old Ignatians take the lead with a score of 2.4 (16) to Goodwood Saints' 0.3 (3), giving them a 13-point advantage early on.

Despite the pressure, Old Ignatians regrouped and dominated in the third quarter, extending their lead to 7.11 (53) against Goodwood Saints' 5.10 (40), putting them ahead by 13 points heading into the final quarter.

WEST CROYDON BLACKFRIARS OS

PLAYED AT - N/A

NO QUARTER BY QUARTER SCORES DUE TO FORFEIT

West Croydon forfeited their match against Blackfriars OS resulting in an automatic win for Blackfriars OS.

West Croydon were docked premiership points for poor on-field behaviour just two rounds before the finals.

The club had eight premiership points across all senior grades taken from them under the league's Behaviour Rating System after receiving five suspensions in 2024.

The A-grade side hadn't won a game in 2024 and were doomed for relegation. Their loss of 8 premiership points put the A grade at -8 points.

Unfortunately for the B-grade side, they were sitting in fifth spot on the ladder. Their loss of 8 points relegated them from fifth to eighth. This meant the B-grade side couldn't make up the points to play finals.

Therefore both senior men's sides of the club forfeited.

With Para Hills securing a win and a huge percentage boost they overtake O'Sullivan Beach who have led almost the entire season. With this crucial win, Brahma Lodge have secured themselves a spot in the finals.
