Hawks soar while the Crows were deplorable

Hawks Fantastic Victory

In a thrilling match at the Adelaide Oval, the Hawthorn Hawks showcased their dominance with a resounding 66-point victory over the Adelaide Crows. Led by coach Sam Mitchell, the Hawks have staged an impressive comeback after a slow start to the season, now boasting an 11-8 record and making a strong push for a finals berth.

One-Sided Affair

After a competitive first quarter where Adelaide briefly held the lead, the Hawks unleashed a relentless onslaught, scoring 13 unanswered goals to turn the game into a one-sided affair. The Hawks' defensive unit was rock solid, keeping Adelaide scoreless for most of the second half until the Crows managed to sneak in two late goals.

Standout Performances

Midfield dynamo Will Day was a standout player for the Hawks, showcasing his skill and composure throughout the match. Connor Macdonald also had a stellar performance with 28 disposals and two goals. The duo, along with Jarman Impey and Karl Amon, played crucial roles in driving the Hawks forward and providing attacking thrust from the back half. Jai Newcome also made his presence felt with his physicality around the contest.

Scoring Spread

Hawthorn's scoring spread was impressive, with 11 different players hitting the scoreboard. James Sicily celebrated his 150th game with two goals, while Mabior Chol impressed with two goals and seven marks, especially in the second half.

Adelaide Struggles

Despite a solid performance from Taylor Walker, who managed three goals, the Adelaide Crows found it challenging to match Hawthorn's intensity and skill level. Players like Jake Soligo, Lachlan Sholl, and Rory Laird gathered plenty of possessions but didn't have enough helpers.

Coach's Disappointment

After the game, Adelaide coach Matthew Nicks expressed his disappointment with his team's performance, highlighting the absence of key players like Jordan Dawson and Izak Rankine. Nicks emphasized the need for more experience and development within the squad as they look towards the future.

Game Highlights

The Hawks started the match energetically, with Luke Breust leading the charge by scoring two early goals. Despite a brief period of ascendancy from Adelaide in the first quarter, the Hawks quickly regained control and never looked back. A stunning goal from Will Day in the second quarter exemplified Hawthorn's growing dominance, as they extended their lead and sealed the comprehensive win with a scoring avalanche in the final quarter.

Conclusion

The Hawthorn Hawks put on a masterclass performance against the Adelaide Crows while Adelaide were deplorable.

The Power surge past a tiring Blues

Port Adelaide Makes a Comeback

In a thrilling match at Marvel Stadium, Port Adelaide staged an impressive comeback to defeat Carlton by 14 points. Trailing by 31 points in the second quarter, the Power showed grit and determination to turn the game around and secure a crucial victory.

Key Players Shine

Mitch Georgiades led the charge for Port Adelaide with three goals, while Willem Drew and Connor Rozee also made significant contributions with their performances on the field. Despite a strong start from Carlton, the Power's resilience and teamwork ultimately proved to be the difference in the game.

Carlton's Early Dominance

Carlton got off to a strong start, with Sam Walsh and Charlie Curnow leading the way for the Blues. However, their momentum was halted by Port Adelaide's strong defensive efforts in the second half, limiting Carlton to their lowest score of the season.

Turning Point

The turning point in the game came when Port Adelaide began to control the tempo and play with more cohesion. Their improved performance in the second half allowed them to chip away at Carlton's lead and ultimately secure the win.

Looking Ahead

With a tough match against ladder-leader Sydney on the horizon, Port Adelaide will face another challenging test as they continue their push towards the finals. Despite facing tough competition, the Power remain confident in their abilities and are determined to prove themselves as one of the top teams in the league.

Coach's Perspective

Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley praised his team's resilience and determination in the face of adversity. He emphasized the importance of playing tough and working together as a unit, highlighting the growth and development of key players like Zak Butters.

Final Thoughts

As the season progresses, Port Adelaide will continue to focus on improving and fine-tuning their game in preparation for the finals. With a strong belief in their abilities and a desire to succeed, the Power are ready to take on whatever challenges come their way as they strive to achieve their goals in the AFL.

The ARC in action and they got it right

Byrne-Jones kicked the ball off the ground towards the goal line late in the last quarter. The ball hit the goal umpire's foot, causing it to cannon into the goalpost. It was rightly deemed a goal, putting Port Adelaide 14 points up and Carlton up against it.

A conversation could change a life.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Panthers fight back to defeat Bloods

Remarkable comeback

In a crucial showdown at Noarlunga Oval, South Adelaide staged a remarkable comeback to secure a 21-point victory over West Adelaide. The Panthers' win not only lifted them above bottom-placed Port Adelaide but also significantly improved their chances of avoiding the wooden spoon with three games remaining in the season.

The game was a gritty affair, characterized by errors and missed opportunities from both teams. South Adelaide struggled to find their groove in the first three quarters, as West Adelaide's defence, led by Liam Delahunty, kept them at bay. However, the Bloods failed to capitalize on their defensive efforts, allowing the Panthers to mount a comeback in the final quarter.

Heading into the last term, South Adelaide was trailing but showed resilience and determination. Key players like Hayden Sampson, Kobe Mutch, Sid Draper, and Jonti Schuback stepped up, dominating the midfield and applying relentless pressure on West Adelaide's defence. Their efforts paid off as the Panthers outscored the Bloods significantly in the final quarter to secure the much-needed victory.

South Adelaide coach Jarrad Wright commended his team's ability to perform under pressure and praised their efforts in the final quarter. On the other hand, West Adelaide coach Adam Hartlett expressed disappointment with his team's performance, particularly their decision-making and ball use under pressure.

South Adelaide Continues Winning Streak Against West Adelaide

In a solid 21-point victory over West Adelaide at Flinders University Stadium, South Adelaide secured consecutive wins for the first time this season. The Panthers pulled away in the final quarter, scoring five unanswered goals to clinch their fourth win of the 2024 campaign.

The midfield proved to be the difference-maker for South Adelaide, with standout performances from Hayden Sampson, Kobe Mutch, and Oliver Davis. Eamon Wilkinson and Phoenix Hargrave were pivotal in the forward line, while Corey Grocock continued his impressive form with three goals.

Despite the loss, West Adelaide showed promise with strong performances from key players like Kobe Ryan, Sam Frost, and Luke Redfern. However, South Adelaide's midfield dominance and forward structure proved too much for the Bloods to handle.

Conclusion

South Adelaide's composed and clinical display in the final quarter showcased their growing confidence and cohesion as a team. The Panthers will look to build on this momentum in their upcoming fixtures, while West Adelaide will need to regroup and address their shortcomings to challenge the top sides in the competition.

Sturt secures tenth consecutive win

Hard-Fought Battle

Sturt continued their winning streak by defeating Port Adelaide with a 23-point victory. The Double Blues faced a tough challenge from a determined Magpies side.

Slow Start and a Strong Finish

The game started off evenly, with both teams struggling to find their rhythm in the first quarter. Port Adelaide took an early lead, but Sturt's midfield, led by Will Snelling, gradually took control of the game. Despite facing a strong defence from the Magpies, Sturt managed to break through and put points on the board.

Josh Hone was a standout player for the Blues, scoring four crucial goals and proving to be a constant threat inside 50. Despite facing challenges, Sturt's attack managed to find a way to navigate through Port Adelaide's defence.

Resilience and Adaptability

The game saw some injury setbacks for Sturt, with key players Oliver Grivell and Daniel Fahey-Sparkes leaving the field early on. However, Sturt's depth and resilience shone through as they adapted to the changing dynamics of the game. Their defence held firm against Port Adelaide's advances, keeping them within striking distance.

As the game entered the final quarter, Sturt's superior fitness and tactical adjustments came into play. The Double Blues surged ahead, taking advantage of the wind and Port Adelaide's fatigue. Key moments, such as Joe Thiele's incredible goal and Will Coomblass' critical defensive plays, helped seal the win for Sturt.

Sturt's Dominance and Top Contender Status

Despite a strong start from Port Adelaide, they couldn't maintain their momentum and were ultimately overwhelmed by Sturt's intensity and execution in the final quarter. The victory keeps Sturt hot on the heels of Norwood at the top of the ladder.

Overall, it was a solid team performance from Sturt, who overcame early adversity and executed their game plan effectively. The win not only extends their winning streak but also solidifies their position as one of the top contenders in the competition.

Sturt's Victory Over Port Adelaide

In another exciting clash at Thomas Farms Oval, Sturt secured a hard-fought 23-point victory over Port Adelaide. Despite a slow start, the Double Blues asserted their dominance in the final quarter, outscoring the Magpies with a four-goal burst while restricting their opponents to just two behinds.

Josh Hone's performance was instrumental in Sturt's victory, with the crafty forward kicking two crucial goals in the match-defining fourth quarter. Will Snelling and key recruits Sam Conforti and Flynn Perez also played key roles.

Port Adelaide put up a strong fight, with players like Will Lorenz and Cody Szust impressing in the midfield battle. However, they were unable to match Sturt's intensity and execution in the final quarter, ultimately falling short in their efforts.

Sturt's victory not only solidifies their position at the top of the table but also highlights the depth and versatility of their squad. As they continue their push for a top finish, Sturt will look to maintain their winning form and build on their success throughout the season.

Central Districts Comeback Victory

In a thrilling showdown at X Convenience Oval, Central Districts staged an impressive comeback to secure a crucial 12-point victory over North Adelaide. Trailing by three goals at the final break, the Bulldogs unleashed a dominant fourth-quarter performance, scoring seven unanswered goals to clinch the win. Aiden Grace and Isaiah Dudley were instrumental in the Bulldogs' surge, combining for five goals in the final term. Despite North Adelaide's Mitch Harvey's valiant efforts with five goals, the Roosters were unable to withstand Centrals' relentless pressure.

Key Players and Performances

Aiden Grace showcased his forward prowess with three goals, while Isaiah Dudley's two goals added to the Bulldogs' momentum. North Adelaide's Mitch Harvey's five-goal haul was a standout performance, but it wasn't enough to stop Central Districts' comeback. Harry Grant and Wilson Barry sealed the victory for the Bulldogs with late goals in time-on, highlighting the team's resilience and determination.

Impressive Defensive Efforts

Central Districts' midfield and defensive efforts were crucial to their resurgence. Despite being outperformed in disposals and clearances, the Bulldogs capitalized on their opportunities. Billy Iles was solid in rebounding from the backline, while co-captain Kyle Presbury's return from injury provided a boost. However, the victory was marred by a suspected knee injury to wingman Kade Dittmar, who had to leave the field before halftime.

North Adelaide's Standout Performers

Despite the loss, North Adelaide had standout performers in Sam Ramsay and Campbell Combe. Ramsay collected 25 disposals and added a goal, while Combe's defensive work was notable with 11 tackles and eight clearances. The Roosters will need to regroup and address their areas of weakness, particularly their inability to maintain pressure in crucial moments.

Looking Ahead

The Bulldogs' comeback victory keeps them in contention for a top-three finish, showcasing their potential and depth as they head towards the business end of the season. For North Adelaide, the loss serves as a setback in their quest for consistency. Both teams have plenty to ponder as they continue their campaigns, with Central Districts gaining confidence from their ability to perform under pressure and North Adelaide needing to address their late-game issues.

Conclusion

The thrilling finish between Central Districts and North Adelaide was a testament to the unpredictable nature of sports competition. The Bulldogs' resilience and determination paid off with a memorable victory, while the Roosters will need to regroup and refocus as they strive for a finals berth.

Bays SNOOKer Legs as their champ celebrates

Glenelg Captain Liam McBean Leads Tigers to Upset Win

In a crucial showdown at the Bay, Glenelg captain Liam McBean delivered a standout performance, guiding his team to a significant 34-point upset victory over ladder leaders Norwood. McBean, a triple Ken Farmer Medallist in his debut season as skipper, showcased his scoring prowess by kicking six goals, including the Tigers' first five, in a low-scoring affair.

The victory marked a turnaround for Glenelg, who had been struggling with consecutive losses under coach Darren Reeves. Despite a slow start that saw Norwood dominate early on, the Tigers showed resilience and composure, with McBean's stellar performance proving pivotal in establishing control by halftime.

Glenelg's Team Effort Shines in Victory

At the break, Glenelg held a narrow lead, but they surged ahead in the third quarter, outscoring Norwood and showcasing impressive defensive efforts to keep the Redlegs goalless in the second half. The Tigers' midfielders, including Corey Lyons and Matthew Snook, played key roles, while defenders Chris Curran and Max Proud were crucial in the victory.

The win was particularly special as it coincided with celebrations of Glenelg's 2019 premiership win. Their intense pressure across the ground and dominance in key areas like clearances and inside 50s were instrumental in snapping Norwood's winning streak.

On the other side, Norwood coach Jade Rawlings expressed disappointment with his team's performance, acknowledging Glenelg's strong showing. The Redlegs will need to regroup and address their midfield and forward issues moving forward.

Matthew Snook's Milestone Game Highlights Glenelg's Dominance

In a celebration of Matthew Snook's 200th game, Glenelg delivered a commanding victory over Norwood, showcasing their relentless approach to the contest. The Tigers' pressure and cohesive team play were evident as they outperformed Norwood in key areas, with Liam McBean's standout performance leading the way.

Snook, typically industrious, was crucial in the midfield battles, while the defense led by Curran and Proud provided a steady platform for transition play. Young talents like Hunter Window and Nick Stevens also made notable contributions, highlighting the depth within the Glenelg squad.

Overall, Glenelg's comprehensive team effort and tactical discipline were key to their victory, reaffirming their potential as a formidable force in the competition. The Tigers will look to build on this performance as they push towards the finals, while Norwood will need to regroup and address the areas exposed in this encounter.

Crows keep finals hopes alive with a gritty win

Four wins from their last five for the Crows

In a crucial clash at Maughan Thiem Oval, the Adelaide Crows showed their determination and resilience as they secured a hard-fought 16-point victory over Woodville-West Torrens. The win, their fourth in the last five games, has kept their finals hopes alive and put them in a strong position in the race for the final five.

Game Recap

The Crows started slowly but managed to hold a slender six-point lead at halftime. Josh Worrell, returning from injury, was instrumental in their resurgence with an impressive performance, tallying 30 disposals and nine marks. His composure and skill in defence were crucial in turning the tide in Adelaide's favour.

Woodville-West Torrens, on the other hand, struggled to capitalize on their opportunities, particularly in the third quarter where they squandered four consecutive scoring chances. This allowed Adelaide to maintain their narrow advantage heading into the final term, where they ultimately sealed the match with a decisive burst.

Lachlan Gollant set the tone for the Crows in the last quarter with an early goal, followed by crucial contributions from development players Tate Coleman and Jay Boyle. Boyle, who was a standout in the midfield, collected 25 disposals, nine tackles, and five clearances, showcasing his versatility and work rate.

Tyler Welsh delivered the finishing blow with a spectacular 50-meter set shot from the boundary, effectively putting an end to the Eagles' resistance and highlighting his potential as a future star.

Key Players Adelaide

For Woodville-West Torrens, captain Joseph Sinor led by example with 29 disposals, four clearances, and eight tackles. Luke McKay also put in a solid performance with 28 disposals and six tackles, although his inaccuracy in front of goal proved costly for the Eagles.

Key Players Eagles

Adam D'Aloia and Josh Morris provided valuable support with their contributions, but the Eagles were unable to match the intensity and polish of the Crows, especially in crucial moments of the game.

Dream of playing final football for the Crows

Adelaide's victory has put them in a strong position to challenge for a finals berth, marking a remarkable turnaround from their earlier form this season. The Eagles, on the other hand, will need to regroup and find a way to halt their losing streak.

The Crows' blend of youth and experience proved to be too much for Woodville-West Torrens on the day, with their structured play and ability to convert opportunities ultimately making the difference in a hard-fought contest.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

- Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

- Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

- SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.
