Geelong secures thrilling victory over Crows

Geelong Fights Back to Claim Victory

In a thrilling match-up, Geelong managed to secure a crucial five-point win over Adelaide. The Cats were faced with a tough challenge as Adelaide took the lead early in the final quarter. However, Geelong's Jeremy Cameron stepped up, scoring six goals to help his team clinch the win.

Unlikely Hero Emerges

Geelong's Lawson Humphries emerged as an unlikely hero, scoring his first AFL goal to help seal the victory for the Cats. Despite a scare from Adelaide, Geelong managed to hold on and secure the win at GMHBA Stadium.

Key Players Shine

Geelong's Tom Stewart, Patrick Dangerfield, and Tanner Bruhn were instrumental in the team's victory, with impressive performances on the field. Shaun Mannagh and Tyson Stengle also made significant contributions, with Mannagh scoring two goals and Stengle finishing with 20 touches and a goal.

Scare for Geelong

The win was somewhat overshadowed by a potential injury to Geelong's Sam De Koning, who suffered a right knee injury during the match. Following the match, Geelong's coach Chris Scott expressed confidence that Sam De Koning's injury was not serious, alleviating fears of a potential ACL injury. Scott also praised Tyson Stengle for his performance after a challenging week.

Lawson Humphries could be the man who takes Geelong to September

Geelong's Lawson Humphries with his first AFL goal gave the Cats the win. Without the win, Geelong would be sitting precariously in eighth position on the ladder and not fifth.

Looking Ahead and why Lawson Humphries goal was so important

The win leaves Geelong in third place on the ladder, setting up an exciting clash with Fremantle next Saturday at Optus Stadium. The Dockers in Perth is not an easy task.

Adelaide's Performance

Despite the loss, Adelaide put up a strong fight, with players like Riley Thilthorpe, Josh Rachele, and Taylor Walker showcasing their skills on the field. Crows' coach Matthew Nicks commended Rachele for his standout performance and highlighted areas for improvement in future matches.

Clearances and Inside-50s

Nicks acknowledged that Adelaide struggled in clearances and inside-50s during the match, which ultimately impacted their ability to secure a victory. The team will be looking to address these areas in their upcoming games to improve their performance.

Conclusion

Geelong are not secure in the eight and must keep winning to play in the finals. Whilst the Crows must try different options, especially in their midfield.

Power slaughter an insipid Swans

Port Adelaide Crushes Sydney in Top Four Clash

In a stunning display of dominance, Port Adelaide decimated Sydney in a thrilling match that saw the Power soar to a 112-point victory. From the opening bounce, Port Adelaide asserted their authority, holding the ladder leaders scoreless in the first term and surging to a commanding 71-point lead before the Swans could even notch a score.

Powerful Performance by Port Adelaide

Led by young guns Mitch Georgiades and Willie Rioli, who both kicked four goals each, Port Adelaide's forward line was firing on all cylinders. Willem Drew shut down Swans' ball magnet Chad Warner, limiting him to just 19 touches, while also leading the game with 32 disposals. Ollie Wines, Zak Butter, and Jason Horne-Francis provided strong support, ensuring Port Adelaide's midfield dominance.

Swans Struggle to Keep Up

Sydney, reeling from five losses in their last six games, found themselves outmatched by Port Adelaide's relentless pressure. Despite efforts from Hayden McLean, who scored two goals, and Errol Gulden, who led with 25 disposals, the Swans were unable to match the Power's intensity.

Longmire's reaction

After the game, Sydney coach John Longmire expressed his disappointment in his team's performance, labelling it as "utterly unacceptable." Longmire acknowledged the Swans' recent decline in form and emphasized the importance of competing and fighting in every game.

Hinkley's reaction

On the other side, Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley remained level-headed, refusing to get carried away with the massive victory. Hinkley praised his team's effort but emphasized the need to stay focused and not get ahead of themselves.

Looking Ahead

With their third consecutive win, Port Adelaide now sits in third position and has a chance to climb even higher on the ladder, albeit unlikely with Sydney's huge percentage. This week they face the Demons at the MCG with the Dees fighting for survival as they must win to stay alive. Then Port have a home "Showdown" against the Crows and a tough road trip against the Dockers at Optus Oval in Perth.

Sydney, on the other hand, will need to regroup and bounce back from this crushing defeat as they prepare to face Collingwood at the SCG.

In Conclusion

Port Adelaide's dominant performance against Sydney showcased their potential as a top contender in the AFL. With a well-rounded team and strong momentum, the Power are a force to be reckoned with as they continue their push towards the finals.

SANFL

LAST WEEK'S REVIEW OF THE BIG SANFL CLASH

North Adelaide Roosters kept their SANFL season alive with a commanding third-quarter surge, overcoming Glenelg with a decisive 28-point win at Prospect Oval. Trailing by four points at halftime, the Roosters turned the game around with a clinical and efficient performance in the third quarter, laying the foundation for their vital triumph.

Despite minimal differences in key statistics, North Adelaide's precision and composure under pressure were the defining factors. The Roosters managed to convert their opportunities, scoring six unanswered goals while holding Glenelg to just four behinds during the pivotal third quarter.

Mitch Harvey was instrumental in the Roosters' resurgence, showcasing his accuracy in front of goal. Harvey kicked three of his five goals during the third quarter, extending his lead in the Ken Farmer Medal race. His sharp-shooting was a highlight, as North Adelaide capitalized on Glenelg's missed chances. Glenelg, in contrast, struggled with accuracy, recording eight consecutive behinds and failing to make the most of their forward entries.

The victory brought North Adelaide level with Woodville-West Torrens on the SANFL ladder, both teams now holding seven wins. The Roosters also gained valuable percentage points with their comprehensive win, enhancing their finals hopes.

North Adelaide's victory was a team effort, with multiple players contributing significantly across the ground. Keenan Ramsey, typically a forward, excelled in a defensive role, leading the team with 19 disposals. Harrison Wigg and Campbell Combe were also influential, gathering 18 and 17 disposals respectively.

Dyson Hilder's versatility was on display as he played multiple roles for the Roosters, finishing with 16 disposals, six marks, eight tackles, and eight clearances. The Roosters' ability to adapt and utilize their players in various positions was a key element of their success.

While Harvey led the goal-scoring, he was supported by Nigel Lockyer, Sam McInerney, Frank Szekely, and Jed Dignan, each contributing two goals to the Roosters' tally. This balanced attack proved too much for Glenelg, who despite having 18 more inside 50 entries, were unable to capitalize, ending with a wasteful 10.15 (75).

Glenelg's defensive unit saw solid performances from Max Proud, who collected a team-high 22 disposals and eight marks, and James Bell, who added 20 disposals. Matt Allen also worked tirelessly through the midfield, finishing with 19 disposals.

A bright spot for Glenelg was the composed performance of Nick Stevens in defence, who, in just his third game, gathered 19 disposals and seven marks. Luke Reynolds also reached personal milestones, kicking four goals in his 150th league game to reach his 200th career goal, while Cole Gerloff recorded 13 disposals and five tackles in his 100th game.

Despite Glenelg's missed opportunity to secure a top-three spot, North Adelaide's victory keeps their finals aspirations alive as the SANFL season enters its critical final rounds.

Sturt Continues Dominant Run with Victory Over Central, Eyes Top Spot

Sturt's relentless push for finals success continued with a commanding 34-point victory over Central District at Unley Oval, securing their 11th consecutive win and a guaranteed double chance in the upcoming finals. The win, which saw Sturt lead at every break, places them just behind ladder-leaders Norwood on percentage, with both teams sharing identical 13-3 records.

The Double Blues, who haven't tasted defeat since early May, showcased their trademark efficiency and defensive strength, frustrating Central District throughout the match. Despite the Bulldogs' best efforts, they were unable to keep pace with Sturt's clinical execution, particularly in the forward line, where Connor McFadyen proved a handful for defenders. McFadyen finished the game with five goals from 10 scoring shots, adding to his growing reputation as a key figure in Sturt's premiership quest.

Midfielder Will Snelling was again at the forefront of Sturt's dominance, gathering 31 disposals and 12 clearances in a standout performance. His ability to control the midfield battle, combined with captain James Battersby's consistent output, allowed Sturt to maintain the upper hand in clearances and inside 50s, areas where Central District struggled to make an impact.

The victory also highlighted Sturt's ability to adapt and share the workload, with several key players rested or managed ahead of the finals. Veteran defender Guy Page and midfielder Tom Lewis were notable absentees, yet the Double Blues showed no signs of slowing down, continuing their ruthless brand of team defense that has made them the competition's hardest team to score against.

Central District, meanwhile, had their moments but were ultimately outclassed, as their struggles against top-tier teams continued. Despite recording 10 wins for the season, the Bulldogs have yet to secure a victory against any of the current top three sides, a record that will be put to the test again in their upcoming clash with Glenelg.

Sturt's ability to consistently pressure their opponents into turnovers and capitalize on mistakes was evident from the outset. The Double Blues jumped out to an early lead, kicking the first three goals within the opening 10 minutes and never looked back. Central District managed to steady the ship temporarily but was unable to bridge the gap, falling behind by as much as 38 points in the third quarter.

In defense, Sturt's backline, led by the likes of Will Coomblas and Zac Becker, was rock solid, effectively shutting down Central District's forward entries and keeping the Bulldogs to limited scoring opportunities. Rebounding defender Flynn Perez also played a key role in launching attacks from the back half, adding to Central's frustration.

With finals on the horizon, Sturt is peaking at the right time. Their current form has positioned them as one of the favorites for the premiership, with their eyes firmly set on securing the minor premiership and home-ground advantage throughout the finals. Meanwhile, Central District will need to regroup quickly as they face a must-win match against Glenelg to keep their double chance hopes alive.

For both teams, the stakes couldn't be higher as the SANFL season reaches its climax.

Norwood Regains Top Spot with Commanding Victory Over South Adelaide

Norwood solidified its position at the top of the ladder with a comprehensive 55-point triumph over South Adelaide at The Parade on Saturday. The Redlegs, coming off a rare defeat in Round 16, responded in emphatic fashion, ensuring their minor premiership hopes remain firmly in their control with just two games left in the regular season.

From the opening bounce, Norwood showcased why they have been a dominant force all season. The Redlegs stifled South Adelaide's attack, allowing only one goal in the first half while building an insurmountable 51-point lead by halftime. The Panthers, who had shown good form in recent weeks, were simply no match for the relentless pressure and clinical execution of Norwood.

Key to the Redlegs' dominance was their control of the clearances, winning a staggering 56-22 advantage in that department. Jack Oatey Medallist Harry Boyd was instrumental in this effort, delivering one of his finest performances of the season. Boyd's 30 disposals, 16 clearances, and 54 hit-outs set the tone for Norwood, as he consistently provided first use to his midfielders, who took full advantage of his ruck dominance.

Billy Cootee and Matthew Ling were among the beneficiaries of Boyd's work, each gathering 21 disposals and helping to drive Norwood forward. Baynen Lowe continued his impressive run of form, adding 2.3 from his 20 disposals as he pushed forward from the midfield to provide an additional scoring threat.

However, it was emerging forward Izaak Twelftree who stole the show with a career-best performance. Twelftree was a constant menace inside the forward 50, finishing with a perfect six goals from six marks and 21 disposals. His accuracy and ability to find space in a congested forward line were pivotal in Norwood's comprehensive victory.

South Adelaide, for their part, struggled to match the intensity of their opponents. Despite a brief surge in the second quarter, where they lifted their pressure and contested work, the Panthers were unable to sustain it against a well-drilled Norwood side. Elliot Dunkin was the Panthers' leading disposal-winner with 17 touches, while young gun Phoenix Hargrave showed promise with 15 disposals and two goals in just his fourth league appearance.

Liam Fitt, a consistent performer for South Adelaide, also managed two goals but found opportunities hard to come by as Norwood's defense held firm. The Redlegs' backline was resolute, ensuring that South Adelaide never got within striking distance after the early onslaught.

Norwood's victory not only keeps them ahead of Sturt in the race for the minor premiership but also sends a strong message to the rest of the competition as finals approach. The Redlegs' ability to rebound from a loss with such authority highlights their determination to secure the top spot and the crucial advantage of a first-week bye in the finals.

With just two rounds remaining, the battle for the minor premiership is set to go down to the wire, but on current form, Norwood appears well-positioned to finish the regular season on top. Meanwhile, South Adelaide will need to regroup quickly if they hope to make an impact in the finals, with their next match looming as a must-win.

Adelaide claims Neil Kerley Memorial Trophy

Adelaide's Strong Second Half Secures Victory

Adelaide put on a dominant performance in the second half to secure a commanding 68-point victory over West Adelaide at Adelaide Oval. The Neil Kerley Memorial Trophy was on the line, and the SANFL Crows made sure to claim it with a convincing win. The game, which was played as a curtain-raiser to the Crows' AFL clash against the Western Bulldogs, saw Adelaide overcome a tight first half to completely dismantle West Adelaide after halftime.

Lachlan Gollant Leads the Charge

The turning point of the game came in the third quarter when Adelaide unleashed a relentless assault on West Adelaide. Forward Lachlan Gollant was the star of the show, delivering a masterclass in front of goal. Gollant was awarded the Neil Kerley Memorial Medal for his best-on-ground performance, finishing with an impressive eight-goal haul. His accuracy in front of goal was unmatched, converting every opportunity that came his way.

Adelaide's Midfield and Forward Pressure Key to Victory

Adelaide's midfield and forward pressure were crucial in their victory over West Adelaide. The Crows outplayed their opponents in key areas, recording 58 inside 50s compared to West Adelaide's 33. This dominance provided Gollant and the other forwards with numerous scoring opportunities. First-year draftee Charlie Edwards had a breakout game, showcasing his potential at the SANFL level with 31 disposals, nine clearances, and a goal. Experienced campaigners Harry Schoenberg and Brodie Smith also played pivotal roles in driving the Crows' momentum.

West Adelaide Struggles to Keep Up

For West Adelaide, it was a disappointing outcome after a competitive first half. Despite the efforts of players like Callum Park and Brady Searle, the Bloods were unable to match Adelaide's intensity and skill level. Josh Gore was the only multiple goal-kicker for West Adelaide, as they struggled to find avenues to goal against a dominant Adelaide side.

Adelaide's Statement of Intent

Adelaide's emphatic win not only secured them the Neil Kerley Memorial Trophy but also served as a statement of intent as they look to continue improving. The Crows' ability to dominate the second half and turn a tight contest into a rout highlighted their growing confidence and form as the season progressed. Meanwhile, West Adelaide will need to regroup quickly to address the issues that saw them overwhelmed by Adelaide's onslaught after halftime.

Port dominates Eagles, securing a crucial win

Port Adelaide's Commanding Win

In a thrilling showdown at Alberton Oval, Port Adelaide showcased their dominance over Woodville-West Torrens, securing a crucial 44-point victory. The Magpies, fueled by the celebration of their 1994 premiership anniversary, displayed grit and determination throughout the match, leaving the Eagles' finals hopes in doubt with their sixth consecutive loss.

Early Adversity and Dominant Response

Despite facing an early 14-point deficit at the end of the first quarter, Port Adelaide rallied in the second term, completely shifting the momentum in their favour. Outscoring the Eagles by 26 points in the second quarter, the Magpies turned the tables and entered halftime with a 12-point lead.

Defensive Dominance and Forward Pressure

Port Adelaide's defensive prowess was on full display as they tightened their grip on the Eagles, allowing only four behinds in the third quarter. With relentless forward pressure, the Magpies limited Woodville-West Torrens' scoring opportunities, ultimately pulling away in the final term with five goals to seal their victory.

Key Players and Standout Performances

Will Lorenz emerged as a standout player for Port Adelaide, showcasing his skills with 21 disposals and two goals. Tom Anastasopoulos and Hugh Jackson also played pivotal roles, each contributing 23 disposals to keep the Magpies in control. Tom Clurey anchored the defence with 20 disposals and seven marks, while Cody Szust continued his impressive form with 18 touches and two goals. Developing forward Tom Scully made his presence felt with three goals, supported by Ollie Lord and Lorenz with two goals each.

Eagles' Struggle and Shining Lights

For Woodville-West Torrens, the loss dealt a critical blow to their finals aspirations. Sam Rowland led the Eagles with 22 disposals and five marks, while Josh Morris provided stability in defence with 19 disposals. Despite efforts from James Rowe and Joey Sinor, the Eagles were unable to overcome Port Adelaide's dominance, with Connor Ballenden and Nathan Barkla contributing two goals each.

Looking Ahead

As the regular season nears its conclusion, Port Adelaide will draw confidence from their commanding performance as they aim to avoid finishing at the bottom of the ladder. Meanwhile, Woodville-West Torrens faces a challenging road ahead, needing to regroup quickly to keep their finals hopes alive amidst fierce competition.

Conclusion

Port Adelaide emerged victorious over Woodville-West Torrens, solidifying their chances of avoiding the wooden spoon. While the Eagles are reeling.
