Port Adelaide Clinches Top-Four Spot

Port Adelaide has secured a top-four spot in the AFL standings with a 22-point victory over their archrivals, Adelaide Crows, at Adelaide Oval. However, the win was marred by a controversial incident involving star defender Dan Houston, who now faces the possibility of a lengthy suspension that could jeopardize his participation in the upcoming finals.

The match, which ended with a score of 11.14 (80) to 8.10 (58) in favor of Port Adelaide, was intense and fiercely contested, as expected in the heated Showdown rivalry. The pivotal moment came in the third quarter when Houston delivered a high bump to Adelaide's Izak Rankine, knocking him out cold. Rankine had to be assisted off the field on a medical cart, and it was later confirmed that he had suffered a concussion.

The severity of the hit and the resulting injury to Rankine means that Houston is likely to be referred directly to the AFL Tribunal. If found guilty of rough conduct, the All-Australian defender could face a multi-week suspension, putting his involvement in Port Adelaide's finals campaign at risk. With the finals just around the corner, this potential suspension could not have come at a worse time for the Power, who rely heavily on Houston's defensive prowess.

Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley expressed concern for Rankine's well-being in his post-match comments but was careful not to speculate on the outcome of the Tribunal's decision. "Thoughts are with Izak first and foremost, and hopefully he's OK. Dan is a very, very fair footballer. Split-second decisions unfortunately are right or wrong. We'll let the people make those decisions that need to make those decisions," Hinkley said.

Despite the controversy, Port Adelaide delivered a strong performance to lock in a top-four finish, ensuring a double chance in the finals for the fourth time in five seasons.

Port Adelaide Clinches Top-Four Spot

Zak Butters was instrumental in the victory, amassing 42 disposals and 10 clearances, while Connor Rozee contributed 28 disposals and nine clearances. Jason Horne-Francis also had a significant impact, with 23 disposals, eight clearances, and two goals.

The win was a much-needed boost for Port, snapping a three-game losing streak against the Crows and leveling the all-time record between the two South Australian teams at 28 wins apiece.

The Power dominated the clearances, winning 52-38, which was a key factor in their ability to control the game, especially in the second half.

Adelaide, who led by 6.6 to 4.9 at halftime, struggled to maintain their momentum in the second half. The Crows were held goalless in the third quarter and were outscored seven goals to two after the main break.

Coach Matthew Nicks acknowledged that his team failed to manage their emotions following the Houston-Rankine incident, which contributed to their downfall.

“It was a pretty good lesson for us in what it looks like when emotions are high and adrenaline is pumping,” Nicks said. “Every person in the stadium would’ve felt it. We weren’t quite able to contain ourselves.”

Adding to the drama, Adelaide’s Josh Rachele stoked the rivalry pre-match by making provocative comments about Port Adelaide supporters, suggesting they “don’t have many teeth.” Rachele continued to antagonize the Power fans during the game, celebrating a second-quarter goal by taunting the crowd.

Port Adelaide Clinches Top-Four Spot

Port Adelaide will now turn their attention to the final round of the regular season, where they will face Fremantle at Optus Stadium. With seven wins from their last eight games, the Power will be looking to carry their strong form into the finals. Meanwhile, Adelaide, who will be without Rankine for their final match against Sydney, will be playing for pride as their season draws to a close.

The looming suspension for Houston adds a significant subplot to Port Adelaide's finals campaign, with the potential absence of one of their key players casting a shadow over their aspirations for a deep run in September.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Norwood dominates Roosters in a crucial win

Norwood Takes Control

In a pivotal match at The Parade, Norwood took a significant step towards securing the minor premiership with a dominant 55-point victory over North Adelaide. The Redlegs came out strong, immediately putting pressure on the Roosters with their superior marking ability. Jackson Callow was the main beneficiary, scoring two goals in the first quarter. Despite a strong start from North Adelaide, Norwood quickly demonstrated why they sit atop the ladder by taking control of the game in spectacular fashion.

Key Players Shine

Onballer Mitch O'Neill collected plenty of possessions, while Pierce Seymour played a crucial role in defence, shutting down the Roosters forward line. Magarey Medal contender Harry Boyd was a standout, likely earning more votes with a match-high 25 disposals, five marks, 12 clearances, and 44 hit-outs. Jackson Callow also impressed with four goals, including two within the first eight minutes of the game.

Norwood's Strong Position

With this win, Norwood is now more than a percentage and two premiership points ahead of their rivals, placing them in a strong position to secure a week off at the start of the finals. The Redlegs continued their momentum in the second half, kicking the first six goals and maintaining dominance in possession throughout the game.

North Adelaide's Struggle

Despite their victory over reigning premier Glenelg in the previous round, North Adelaide now faces a difficult path to finals qualification. The Roosters suffered a significant percentage drop due to the heavy loss against Norwood, compounded by injuries to key players like Campbell Combe and Matt McKenzie. Dyson Hilder worked tirelessly in multiple roles for North Adelaide, finishing with a team-high 18 disposals.

Impressive Performances

Mitch Carroll extended Norwood's lead with a goal just before three-quarter time, while debutant Jack Heard scored his first League goal in his 72nd match. Izaak Twelftree made a late push for the Powerade Breakthrough Player award with three goals from 19 disposals. Tristan Binder, Samuel Morris, and O'Neill each added two goals to Norwood's impressive tally.

Final Thoughts

Norwood's dominant performance against North Adelaide solidifies their position as a top contender for the minor premiership. With only one minor round left in the season, the Redlegs have sent a clear message to their rivals with their standout team performance. On the other hand, North Adelaide has now lost their chance of playing finals after dropping too far behind both Adelaide and the Eagles with percentage.

Woodville West Torrens soar over Panthers

Woodville West Torrens Dominate South

In a thrilling showdown at Noarlunga, Woodville West Torrens showcased their dominance with a commanding 57-point victory over South Adelaide. Despite a shaky start to the season, the Eagles came out firing on all cylinders, led by standout player Jimmy Rowe.

Rowe Shines in Eagles' Victory

Jimmy Rowe was the star of the show, delivering a stellar performance with 29 disposals, seven clearances, and a game-high four goals. His energy and skill on the field were instrumental in securing the crucial win for the Eagles.

Eagles Take Control

The first half of the game was closely contested, with both teams battling it out in challenging windy and slippery conditions. However, the Eagles managed to maintain a slim lead at halftime. In the second half, they turned up the heat and dominated the game, kicking 13 goals to secure a much-needed victory.

Woodville West Torrens Eye Finals Spot

With their finals hopes firmly in their own hands, Woodville West Torrens are now focused on securing a spot in the finals. A win against Norwood in the final round will guarantee their place in the finals, but coach Sam Jacobs is emphasizing the importance of playing their best football regardless of the outcome.

South Adelaide Struggles

On the other side, South Adelaide faced another disappointing loss, leaving them in a tough battle to avoid the wooden spoon. Despite strong efforts from players like Elliot Dunkin and Sid Draper, the Panthers were unable to match the Eagles' dominance on the field.

Woodville West Torrens' Strong Performance

The Eagles' confidence-boosting win against South Adelaide not only snapped a six-game losing streak but also solidified their position in the top five. With key players like James Rowe, Joey Sinor, and Connor Ballenden stepping up, the Eagles are looking strong heading into the final round of the season.

Woodville West Torrens Secure Fifth Spot

With their impressive victory over South Adelaide, Woodville West Torrens have taken a major step towards securing fifth spot at the end of the minor round. Their dominant performance and valuable percentage boost have put them in a strong position as they aim to keep their finals contenders at bay.

Looking Ahead

As the season draws to a close, Woodville West Torrens are focused on maintaining their momentum and finishing strong. With their sights set on a finals berth, the Eagles are determined to continue their winning ways and make a mark in the upcoming playoffs.

Blues dominance continues with 12 straight

Sturt Extends Winning Streak

Sturt's winning streak continued at Richmond Oval on Saturday as they secured their 12th consecutive victory by defeating West Adelaide. This winning streak, not seen since 1978, has solidified Sturt's position as a top contender with the 57-point win.

Sturt Levels with Norwood

With this 14th win of the season, Sturt has levelled with Norwood at the top of the ladder, both holding a 14-3 record. Sturt is trailing by just 0.2 percentage points, setting up an exciting final round where the minor premiership and the first-week bye in the finals will be decided.

Coach's Perspective

Coach Martin Mattner praised his team's performance in the tough conditions, emphasizing the importance of not only winning but also improving their percentage.

Key Players Shine

Sturt's midfield trio of James Battersby, Tom Lewis, and Will Snelling stood out in the heavy conditions, showcasing their skills with a combination of disposals, clearances, and tackles. Steven Slimming and Sam Conforti also made significant contributions to the team's success.

West Adelaide's Struggles

West Adelaide faced their eighth loss in nine games, highlighting their challenges in maintaining consistency throughout the season. Despite some positive performances, the Bloods faltered in the second half, unable to match Sturt's intensity and skill.

Coach's Assessment

West Adelaide coach Adam Hartlett acknowledged the need for improvement in key areas, particularly in their forward 50 entries. While praising his team's effort, Hartlett emphasized the importance of recruiting top-end players to strengthen their squad for future seasons.

Sturt's Minor Premiership Hopes

Sturt's dominant display against West Adelaide has kept their minor premiership hopes alive as they draw level with Norwood at the top of the ladder. With a crucial final-round match against Adelaide looming, Sturt is determined to secure the top spot and secure a first-week bye in the finals.

Better Performances for the Blues

Will Snelling's standout performance against his former team was decisive. James Battersby, Tom Lewis, and Sam Conforti also played key roles in Sturt's victory.

Better Performances for the Bloods

West duo Sam Frost and Kobe Ryan tried all day with Frost racking up 36 disposals, and Ryan finished with 29 disposals. Josh Gore kicked half of his team's goals with 2.

Conclusion

Sturt's impressive winning streak and strong performances have solidified their position as a top contender in the SANFL. With the minor premiership up for grabs in the final round.

Doggies secures vital victory against Tigers

Central District's Remarkable Comeback

In a thrilling match at X Convenience Oval, Central District pulled off a remarkable comeback victory against Glenelg. Trailing by 29 points early in the third quarter, the Dogs showed incredible character to erase the deficit and secure a one-point win. This victory has put them in third place on the ladder with one round remaining, edging them closer to securing a double chance in the finals.

Key Players Shine

Aiden Grace was instrumental in Central District's victory, kicking three crucial goals, including two in the final quarter. His ability to weave through traffic and deliver in critical moments was a game-changer for the team. Harry Grant also stood out with nine clearances, while Kai Pudney and debutant Dyson Sharp made significant contributions to the win.

Glenelg's Setback

For Glenelg, the loss was a significant setback as they missed out on a chance to secure third place on the ladder. Their inability to close out the game in challenging conditions and lapses in urgency raised concerns for the team heading into the finals. Despite some standout performances from players like Ben Ridgway, the Tigers were unable to hold off Central District's late surge.

Coach Reactions

Central District coach Paul Thomas remained calm at halftime, making adjustments and instilling confidence in his players to turn the game around. On the other hand, Glenelg coach Darren Reeves expressed frustration at his team's lack of desperation and inability to maintain control of the game.

Looking Ahead

With one round remaining, Central District is in a strong position to secure a double chance in the finals with a win against Port Adelaide. Glenelg, on the other hand, will need to regroup and secure a victory against South Adelaide to have a chance at claiming third place on the ladder.

Tribute to Ken McMahon

Central District players wore black armbands in honor of Ken McMahon, one of the club's founders who recently passed away. This tribute added an emotional element to the team's victory and highlighted the strong sense of community within the club.

Conclusion

Central District's victory against Glenelg gave them confidence they can beat anyone after coming from behind to beat the reigning premiers. No one would have predicted a Doggies win halfway through the match. Glenelg still has a chance to claim third place if they can defeat the Panthers down at the Bay, but they will also need Port Adelaide to beat Doggies at X Convenience Oval.

Crows crush cross-town rivals in the Showdown

Adelaide Crows Secure Convincing Victory

In the showdown between Adelaide and Port Adelaide, the Crows emerged victorious with a dominant performance. Led by the impressive Tyler Welsh, who kicked five goals, the Crows crushed Port Adelaide by 77 points at Adelaide Oval. This win marks the Crows' sixth victory in their last seven games, putting them just outside the top five by percentage.

Welsh Shines in Career-Best Performance

Tyler Welsh, the son of former AFL Crow Scott Welsh, celebrated his 18th birthday in style with a standout performance. Chris Burgess also kicked four goals. Welsh led the charge for the Crows as they outplayed Port Adelaide in all areas of the game.

Adelaide's Path to the Finals

With their sights set on securing a spot in the finals, the Crows know that they must continue their winning streak. Their upcoming match against Sturt will be crucial in determining their fate. A victory against Sturt, combined with some favourable results from other matches, could see the Crows clinch fifth place.

Port Adelaide's Struggles Continue

Port Adelaide faced another disappointing defeat at the hands of their rivals. With their eyes set on avoiding the wooden spoon, Port Adelaide must regroup and come back stronger in their next match against Central District. Coach Hamish Hartlett expressed his disappointment in the team's performance, highlighting the need for improvement in key areas.

Adelaide Crows Eye Fifth Spot

Following their impressive victory over Port Adelaide, the Adelaide Crows are now in contention for fifth place on the SANFL League ladder. With their sights set on overtaking Woodville-West Torrens, the Crows are focused on building momentum heading into the final round.

Key Players Shine for the Crows

Veteran players like Brodie Smith and young Billy Dowling showcased their skills in their victory over Port Adelaide. Young talents like Chayce Jones and Charlie Edwards also made significant contributions, highlighting the depth and talent within the team. With players like Tyler Welsh stepping up and delivering career-best performances.

Conclusion

The Adelaide Crows' dominant performance against Port Adelaide has put them in a strong position to secure a spot in the finals. With key players stepping up and delivering standout performances, the Crows are ready to take on their next challenge and continue their winning streak. As the season draws to a close, all eyes will be on the Crows as they aim to secure fifth place on the ladder and make a push for the finals.
