Swans secure an easy win over the Crows

Sydney Swans Clinch Top Spot

In a commanding display, the Sydney Swans have secured the minor premiership for the first time since 2016 with a convincing 31-point victory over the Adelaide Crows at the SCG.

The Swans, who were already in pole position to finish on top of the ladder, showcased their strength and depth by resting key players and still managing to outclass the Crows with an 18.13 (121) to 13.12 (90) triumph.

Strong Start to Finals Campaign

The Swans will head into the finals series with three consecutive wins under their belt, bouncing back from a mid-season slump that saw them lose five out of six matches.

Former co-captain Luke Parker led the charge with 19 disposals and three goals, proving his importance to the team as they gear up for their 11th finals series.

Key Players Shine

Young gun Errol Gulden was electric throughout the match, finishing with 24 disposals and two goals despite the Crows' efforts to contain him. Captain Callum Mills showed his class with 27 touches in defence, while Nick Blakey and Matt Roberts provided run and drive from the backline.

The Swans' forward line also fired, with Logan McDonald, Joel Amartey, and Hayden McLean combining for six goals.

Swans secure an easy win over the Crows

Crows Struggle to Keep Up

Despite a strong start with five goals in the opening term, the Crows were unable to match the Swans' intensity as the game progressed. Captain Jordan Dawson put in a solid performance with 25 disposals and a goal, but it was not enough to overcome the Swans' dominance.

Key forward Riley Thilthorpe provided a glimmer of hope for the Crows with three goals, showcasing his potential for the future.

Looking Ahead

As the Swans look towards the finals, they will be buoyed by their strong finish to the home and away season. With the minor premiership secured and two home finals on the horizon, they will be a force to be reckoned with in the finals series.

Meanwhile, the Crows will reflect on a season of ups and downs as they aim to build towards a brighter future under coach Matthew Nicks.

Conclusion

The Swans' dominant performance against the Crows has set the tone for their finals campaign and sent a clear message to their rivals.

The Crows are at the other end of the spectrum and they have a long hard summer to overcome a poor 2024 season. After four years of a rebuild, they've gone no-where.

Power with two home finals after taking second

Heartbreak for Fremantle

In a nail-biting final home and away game of the season, the Fremantle Dockers fell short against a determined Port Adelaide team, ultimately missing out on a spot in the finals.

The Dockers had everything to play for, but their hopes were dashed as they struggled to maintain possession under pressure, allowing the Power to secure a 20-point victory.

Powerful Performance

Port Adelaide showcased their strength and skill throughout the game, with key players like Ollie Wines and Jason Horne-Francis leading the charge. The Power's relentless pressure and ability to capitalize on crucial moments proved to be the difference as they secured a second-place finish and a spot in the upcoming finals series.

Blues Clinch Last Finals Spot

Despite the disappointment for Fremantle, Carlton emerged as the beneficiary of the Dockers' loss, securing the final spot in the finals after a rollercoaster Sunday of footy. The Blues will now face a tough elimination final against Brisbane as they look to make their mark in the postseason.

Injuries and Milestones

The win for Port Adelaide came at a cost, with Kane Farrell and Aliir Aliir both suffering injuries during the game.

Power with two home finals after taking second

However, the Power's depth and resilience shone through as they overcame these setbacks to secure the victory.

Looking Ahead

While the Dockers will be left to rue missed opportunities, they can take heart in their fighting spirit and determination. With a young and talented squad, Fremantle will be looking to bounce back stronger in the next season and make a push for the finals once again.

Game Recap

The game started with high stakes for Fremantle, needing a win to secure a finals berth. Despite an early lead, the Dockers were unable to maintain their momentum as Port Adelaide's pressure and efficiency in front of goal proved too much to handle. Key moments from players like Jye Amiss and Nathan O'Driscoll gave Fremantle hope, but ultimately it was the Power who emerged victorious with a clinical display of footy.

Player Spotlight

Logan Evans of Port Adelaide emerged as a standout performer, showcasing his defensive prowess and composure under pressure. The young defender's contributions were crucial in shutting down Fremantle's forward line and securing the win for his team.

In the end, it was a bittersweet result for both teams, with Port Adelaide celebrating their finals berth while Fremantle were left to ponder what could have been.

Norwood dominates Roosters in a crucial win

Norwood Takes Control

In a pivotal match at The Parade, Norwood took a significant step towards securing the minor premiership with a dominant 55-point victory over North Adelaide. The Redlegs came out strong, immediately putting pressure on the Roosters with their superior marking ability. Jackson Callow was the main beneficiary, scoring two goals in the first quarter. Despite a strong start from North Adelaide, Norwood quickly demonstrated why they sit atop the ladder by taking control of the game in spectacular fashion.

Key Players Shine

Onballer Mitch O'Neill collected plenty of possessions, while Pierce Seymour played a crucial role in defence, shutting down the Roosters forward line. Magarey Medal contender Harry Boyd was a standout, likely earning more votes with a match-high 25 disposals, five marks, 12 clearances, and 44 hit-outs. Jackson Callow also impressed with four goals, including two within the first eight minutes of the game.

Norwood's Strong Position

With this win, Norwood is now more than a percentage and two premiership points ahead of their rivals, placing them in a strong position to secure a week off at the start of the finals. The Redlegs continued their momentum in the second half, kicking the first six goals and maintaining dominance in possession throughout the game.

North Adelaide's Struggle

Despite their victory over reigning premier Glenelg in the previous round, North Adelaide now faces a difficult path to finals qualification. The Roosters suffered a significant percentage drop due to the heavy loss against Norwood, compounded by injuries to key players like Campbell Combe and Matt McKenzie. Dyson Hilder worked tirelessly in multiple roles for North Adelaide, finishing with a team-high 18 disposals.

Impressive Performances

Mitch Carroll extended Norwood's lead with a goal just before three-quarter time, while debutant Jack Heard scored his first League goal in his 72nd match. Izaak Twelftree made a late push for the Powerade Breakthrough Player award with three goals from 19 disposals. Tristan Binder, Samuel Morris, and O'Neill each added two goals to Norwood's impressive tally.

Final Thoughts

Norwood's dominant performance against North Adelaide solidifies their position as a top contender for the minor premiership. With only one minor round left in the season, the Redlegs have sent a clear message to their rivals with their standout team performance. On the other hand, North Adelaide has now lost their chance of playing finals after dropping too far behind both Adelaide and the Eagles with percentage.

Glenelg Dominates Panthers in Impressive Victory

Glenelg's Dominant Performance

Glenelg unleashed their frustration on South Adelaide, storming to a dominant 118-point victory at Glenelg Oval. After a heartbreaking one-point loss to Central in the previous round, the Tigers were relentless, building valuable momentum ahead of next Sunday's Elimination Final against the Eagles. In every aspect of the game, Glenelg dominated South Adelaide.

Standout Tiger Performers

Finishing the minor round in fourth place, Glenelg was powered by standout performances from its experienced midfielders. Corey Lyons led the way with 32 disposals and two goals, followed by Matt Allen with 30 disposals, Chris Curran with 28 disposals, and James Bell with 27 disposals and two goals.

Tigers captain Liam McBean was unstoppable, kicking 5.4 from 23 disposals. Riley Holder also continued his impressive development, contributing 22 disposals, and three goals.

Only A Few Panthers Earned Their Keep

For South Adelaide, Oliver Davis ended his season on a high note with 26 disposals, alongside Jonti Schuback, while Kobe Mutch tallied 25 possessions. Panthers big man Damon Freitag kicked two goals as South avoided the wooden spoon, finishing ninth.

Questions Answered After A Month of Scrutiny

Following a week of scrutiny after their narrow loss to Central, the Tigers responded with a performance full of intensity and determination. In their 118-point win, Glenelg displayed impressive teamwork and relentless effort, amassing 43 scoring shots throughout the match. Despite the dominant performance, the win was slightly marred by a potential ankle injury to ruckman Cam McGree, which will be assessed later this week.

Must Come from the Elimination Final to Defend Their Title

The Tigers needed both a victory over the Panthers and a Port Adelaide win over Central to secure a double chance in the finals. While Glenelg fulfilled their part of the equation with a ruthless approach to each contest, their hopes were dashed as Central comfortably handled Port Adelaide.

Team On A Mission

Right from the first bounce, Glenelg played like a team on a mission. They relentlessly attacked the goal in the first quarter, showcasing their tenacity, skill, and a wave of runners. Will Chandler kicked off the scoring with a long-range goal and followed up with an inspired mark and goal in the second term, igniting the home side. Despite a brief resurgence from South Adelaide's Damon Freitag, who kicked two quick goals, the Tigers regained control, piling on 11 consecutive scoring shots to lead by 47 points at halftime.

A conversation could change a life.

Ruthless Doggies Secures Double Chance

Central District Dominates Port Adelaide

In a commanding performance, Central District secured a crucial double chance in the finals with a 68-point victory over Port Adelaide at X Convenience Oval. The Bulldogs handed the Magpies their first wooden spoon since 1900.

A defining second quarter saw Central Districts pile on 6.0 to 0.1, effectively sealing the game as they dominated the contest. Despite registering only nine hit-outs for the afternoon/

Defensive Dominance

Centrals defence was rock-solid, keeping Port Adelaide goalless throughout the second and third quarters. Rebounding defenders Jez McLennan and Rhett Montgomerie were instrumental in shutting down the Magpie's forward entries.

Key Players Shine

Co-captains Jarrod Schiller and Kyle Presbury played influential roles in the Bulldogs victory. However, there is some concern for Magarey Medallist Harry Grant, who left the field in the third quarter after a heavy knock.

Aiden Grace led the scoring for Central with four goals, falling just short of sharing the Ken Farmer Medal with North Adelaide's Mitch Harvey. Beau Thomas and Luca Whitelum also made significant contributions to the Bulldogs' dominant display.

Grant Injury Overshadows Victory

While Central District celebrated their victory, the injury to Magarey Medallist Harry Grant cast a shadow over the win. Grant left the game through injury midway through the third quarter, leaving the Bulldogs with a potential gap in their midfield for the upcoming finals.

Strong Finish to the Season

The Bulldogs' dominant display against Port Adelaide showcased their ability to maintain their game plan and execute under pressure. With their highest score of the season and a solid defensive effort, Central District proved they are a force to be reckoned with in the finals.

Port Adelaide, on the other hand, struggled to match Central's intensity and work rate throughout the game. Despite their efforts, the Magpies were outclassed and outworked by a determined Bulldogs side.

Looking Ahead

As Central District prepares for their finals campaign, they will need to regroup and focus on maintaining their strong form. With key players stepping up and a solid team effort on display, the Bulldogs are well-positioned to make a deep run in the finals and challenge for the premiership.

In contrast, Port Adelaide will need to address their shortcomings and regroup ahead of the next season. With a wooden spoon to their name, the Magpies will be looking to bounce back stronger and more determined in the future.

Sturt claims victory but not the minor premiership

Sturt's Hard-Fought Win

Sturt managed to secure a hard-fought 14-point victory over Adelaide at Thomas Farms Oval, setting the stage for the major round. Despite leading at every break, Sturt's inaccuracy in front of goal hindered their ability to capitalize on their dominance. The final score of 7.18 (60) reflected their missed opportunities, despite a 52-39 inside 50m advantage.

Key Players

One standout player for Sturt was Joel Thiele, who put on an impressive performance with 23 disposals, seven marks, and a goal. Thiele's efforts were crucial, especially on a day when other key players like Will Snelling and James Battersby also made significant contributions. Josh Hone emerged as the only multiple goal kicker for Sturt, finishing with two goals, 18 disposals, and nine marks.

Adelaide's Efforts

Adelaide, needing a win to keep their finals hopes alive, fell just short against Sturt. Despite strong performances from players like Will Hamill, Ned McHenry, and Josh Rachele, Adelaide couldn't overcome Sturt's determined play.

Sturt's Minor Premiership Hopes

Sturt narrowly missed out on securing the minor premiership but will carry a 13-game winning streak into the major round. Their victory over Adelaide solidified their second-place finish at the end of the minor round, setting up a qualifying final against Central District.

Game Highlights

The game saw Sturt dominating possession and displaying their trademark possession game. Players like Joe Thiele and Will Coombas stood out with their performances, while captain James Battersby and Tom Lewis controlled the midfield. Despite some missed opportunities, Sturt managed to maintain their lead throughout the game.

Adelaide's Response

Adelaide put up a strong fight, with players like Will Hamill and Toby Murray showcasing their skills. However, their inability to convert chances into goals ultimately cost them the game. Despite a late surge, Adelaide couldn't close the gap against Sturt's determined defence.

Looking Ahead

As Sturt prepares for the major round, they will be looking to build on their strong performance against Adelaide. With key players returning to the line-up, including star forwards Connor McFadyen and James Mathews, Sturt is poised to make a strong push in the finals.

Conclusion

Sturt will be looking to carry their winning momentum forward and make a strong push for the premiership title. For Adelaide, it's a season of "so close yet so far". Neither the AFL nor SANFL side made finals which would be considered a major disappointment.

Personal achievement but no cigar for Roosters

North Adelaide Roosters Celebrate Victory

Despite the hard-fought 17-point victory over West Adelaide at Prospect Oval the Roosters would be gutted to not be playing finals. The Roosters had a great personal achievement with Mitch Harvey but that didn't satisfy the Roosters faithful who were looking for team achievement and not personal.

Mitch Harvey Clinches Ken Farmer Medal

Mitch Harvey finished the season with 45 goals, edging out Centrals Aiden Grace by three goals. The Prospect crowd gave Harvey a rousing reception, celebrating both his individual achievement and the team's eighth win of the year. This was the first time in 22 years that the Roosters have produced a Ken Farmer Medallist.

Efficiency Leads North Adelaide to Victory

Despite finishing seventh on the ladder, North Adelaide's efficiency was evident as they managed to secure victory despite having 11 fewer inside 50s than West Adelaide. Sam Ramsay, Hughen Wissman, and Ewan Mackinlay played key roles in the win, with Frank Szekely standing out as the top forward for North Adelaide.

North Adelaide Holds Off West Adelaide

In a hard-fought battle, North Adelaide held off a late charge from West Adelaide to secure a 17-point victory. The Roosters began efficiently, nailing their first three shots at goal to take an early lead. Mitch Harvey's three goals in a 10-minute burst helped break the game open for North Adelaide.

Strong Performances from Both Teams

West Adelaide saw strong performances from midfielders Kobe Ryan and Sam Frost, as well as big man Riley Corbett. Despite West Adelaide's efforts, North Adelaide maintained their lead throughout the game, with players like Noah Casalini and Sam McInerney contributing crucial goals.

Coaches' Reactions

Roosters coach Jakob Surjan praised his team's performance, highlighting their control of the ball and ability to take opportunities in front of goal. West coach Adam Hartlett commended his players' effort and performance, noting that they played most of the first quarter in North Adelaide's 50.

North Adelaide's Season

In the end, North Adelaide's victory ended a disappointing season for the Roosters. During the season the Roosters sometimes looked like they were going to be finalists only to put in a poor performance the next week. They have a lot of soul-searching to do over the summer.

West Adelaide's Season

Another year and another season without playing finals for the Bloods. At times they looked good and then they were insipid. There simply was no consistency in their performances.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.
