Swans secure an easy win over the Crows

Sydney Swans Clinch Top Spot

In a commanding display, the Sydney Swans have secured the minor premiership for the first time since 2016 with a convincing 31-point victory over the Adelaide Crows at the SCG.

The Swans, who were already in pole position to finish on top of the ladder, showcased their strength and depth by resting key players and still managing to outclass the Crows with an 18.13 (121) to 13.12 (90) triumph.

Strong Start to Finals Campaign

The Swans will head into the finals series with three consecutive wins under their belt, bouncing back from a mid-season slump that saw them lose five out of six matches.

Former co-captain Luke Parker led the charge with 19 disposals and three goals, proving his importance to the team as they gear up for their 11th finals series.

Key Players Shine

Young gun Errol Gulden was electric throughout the match, finishing with 24 disposals and two goals despite the Crows' efforts to contain him. Captain Callum Mills showed his class with 27 touches in defence, while Nick Blakey and Matt Roberts provided run and drive from the backline.

The Swans' forward line also fired, with Logan McDonald, Joel Amartey, and Hayden McLean combining for six goals.

Swans secure an easy win over the Crows

Crows Struggle to Keep Up

Despite a strong start with five goals in the opening term, the Crows were unable to match the Swans' intensity as the game progressed. Captain Jordan Dawson put in a solid performance with 25 disposals and a goal, but it was not enough to overcome the Swans' dominance.

Key forward Riley Thilthorpe provided a glimmer of hope for the Crows with three goals, showcasing his potential for the future.

Looking Ahead

As the Swans look towards the finals, they will be buoyed by their strong finish to the home and away season. With the minor premiership secured and two home finals on the horizon, they will be a force to be reckoned with in the finals series.

Meanwhile, the Crows will reflect on a season of ups and downs as they aim to build towards a brighter future under coach Matthew Nicks.

Conclusion

The Swans' dominant performance against the Crows has set the tone for their finals campaign and sent a clear message to their rivals.

The Crows are at the other end of the spectrum and they have a long hard summer to overcome a poor 2024 season. After four years of a rebuild, they've gone no-where.

Power with two home finals after taking second

Heartbreak for Fremantle

In a nail-biting final home and away game of the season, the Fremantle Dockers fell short against a determined Port Adelaide team, ultimately missing out on a spot in the finals.

The Dockers had everything to play for, but their hopes were dashed as they struggled to maintain possession under pressure, allowing the Power to secure a 20-point victory.

Powerful Performance

Port Adelaide showcased their strength and skill throughout the game, with key players like Ollie Wines and Jason Horne-Francis leading the charge. The Power's relentless pressure and ability to capitalize on crucial moments proved to be the difference as they secured a second-place finish and a spot in the upcoming finals series.

Blues Clinch Last Finals Spot

Despite the disappointment for Fremantle, Carlton emerged as the beneficiary of the Dockers' loss, securing the final spot in the finals after a rollercoaster Sunday of footy. The Blues will now face a tough elimination final against Brisbane as they look to make their mark in the postseason.

Injuries and Milestones

The win for Port Adelaide came at a cost, with Kane Farrell and Aliir Aliir both suffering injuries during the game.

Power with two home finals after taking second

However, the Power's depth and resilience shone through as they overcame these setbacks to secure the victory.

Looking Ahead

While the Dockers will be left to rue missed opportunities, they can take heart in their fighting spirit and determination. With a young and talented squad, Fremantle will be looking to bounce back stronger in the next season and make a push for the finals once again.

Game Recap

The game started with high stakes for Fremantle, needing a win to secure a finals berth. Despite an early lead, the Dockers were unable to maintain their momentum as Port Adelaide's pressure and efficiency in front of goal proved too much to handle. Key moments from players like Jye Amiss and Nathan O'Driscoll gave Fremantle hope, but ultimately it was the Power who emerged victorious with a clinical display of footy.

Player Spotlight

Logan Evans of Port Adelaide emerged as a standout performer, showcasing his defensive prowess and composure under pressure. The young defender's contributions were crucial in shutting down Fremantle's forward line and securing the win for his team.

In the end, it was a bittersweet result for both teams, with Port Adelaide celebrating their finals berth while Fremantle were left to ponder what could have been.

Tigers are formidable predators in September

Glenelg's Commanding Performance

In a thrilling display of skill and determination, Glenelg dominated the Elimination Final against Woodville-West Torrens, securing a resounding 71-point victory at Adelaide Oval.

From the opening bounce, the Tigers set the tone with their sharp ball movement and relentless pressure, leaving the Eagles struggling to keep up.

Early Dominance and Setbacks

Glenelg wasted no time asserting their dominance, kicking five of the first six goals and controlling the contest from the outset. James Bell was a standout performer for the Tigers, driving his team forward with his precise ball delivery and crucial clearances.

However, the Eagles suffered a significant setback early on when captain Joey Sinor was forced off the field due to injury, leaving a void in their structure that they struggled to fill.

Midfield Brilliance and Forward Firepower

Throughout the match, Glenelg's midfield trio of Corey Lyons, Matt Allen, and Cole Gerloff worked tirelessly to maintain their team's dominance. Lyons led the way with his ball-winning ability, while Allen showcased his versatility with three goals.

Up forward, Will Chandler and Luke Reynolds were a constant threat, combining for six goals and causing headaches for the Eagles' defence.

Tigers are formidable predators in September

Glenelg's Finals Aspirations

With this commanding victory, Glenelg now looks ahead to the next stage of the finals with confidence and momentum on their side. Despite facing a tough road to the grand final, the Tigers have shown that they have the firepower and determination to go all the way. Their performance against WoodvilleWest Torrens serves as a warning to the rest of the competition that Glenelg is a force to be reckoned with.

Retirements and Legacy

As the Eagles reflect on their season-ending loss, they bid farewell to club stalwarts Jarrad Redden, Luke Thompson, and Matthew Goldsworthy, who announced their retirements. Despite the disappointment of the defeat, the contributions of these veterans were acknowledged, with their leadership and commitment leaving a lasting legacy at the club.

Looking Ahead

As Glenelg prepares for the next stage of the finals, they do so with a renewed sense of purpose and determination. With key players firing on all cylinders and the team playing with confidence, the Tigers are poised to make a deep run in the finals and challenge for the SANFL crown.

The road ahead may be tough, but Glenelg has shown that they have what it takes to overcome any obstacle in their path.

Bulldogs' Epic Comeback

Central District Overcomes Early Deficit

In a thrilling turnaround, Central District secured a remarkable 11-point victory over Sturt in the Qualifying Final, overcoming a 30-point deficit early in the third quarter to book their spot in the Second Semi-Final.

The Bulldogs, playing without their injured star and Magarey Medallist Harry Grant, showcased resilience and determination to a win that looked unlikely for much of the match.

Sturt's Early Dominance

Sturt appeared to be in control, leading by five goals just minutes into the second half. The Double Blues dominated the early proceedings, with Central struggling to find the scoreboard. It wasn't until the 11th minute of the third quarter that Aiden Grace finally broke through with Central's second goal of the match, sparking what would become a ferocious comeback.

Central's Resurgence

Grace's goal seemed to ignite the Bulldogs, who piled on the last seven goals of the game while keeping Sturt scoreless in the final quarter. Central's defensive pressure intensified, and their ability to win crucial contests all over the ground turned the tide in their favour.

Bulldogs' Epic Comeback

The Bulldogs charge was capped off by a standout final term, where they overran their tiring opponents, registering 51 inside 50s to 36 by the final siren.

Young gun Dyson Sharp was instrumental in Central's revival, gathering 21 disposals, five clearances, and ten tackles while adding a clever soccer-style goal. His composure and work rate in the midfield were crucial as the Bulldogs clawed their way back into the match.

Sharp's efforts were complemented by the hard-running Kade Dittmar, whose 19 disposals and 12 clearances provided the Bulldogs with a much-needed drive out of the stoppages.

Rhett Montgomerie was a rock in defence, consistently intercepting Sturt's forward forays and helping to stifle their scoring opportunities in the second half.

His 18 disposals and eight marks were vital as Central's backline tightened up, giving their midfield and forwards the confidence to push forward with greater intent.

Aiden Grace's Heroics

Grace, the spark for Central's resurgence, played a pivotal role in the final term. He started the surge by delivering a pinpoint pass to Jai Larkins, who slotted a crucial goal to bring the Bulldogs within striking distance.

Bulldogs' Epic Comeback

Grace then followed up with a long bomb from 48 meters to trim the margin to just seven points, before slotting a tricky dribbler from the boundary to reduce the deficit to one.

Sturt's Missed Opportunities

For Sturt, it was a case of missed opportunities and faltering in the face of intense pressure.

Despite the best efforts of Will Snelling, Tom Lewis, James Battersby, and Steven Slimming, the Double Blues were unable to maintain their early dominance.

Their inaccuracy in front of goal and inability to stem Central's momentum ultimately proved costly.

Looking Ahead

The Bulldogs now advance to their first Second Semi-Final since 2011, where they will face Norwood, while Sturt must regroup quickly for a clash with Glenelg in the First Semi-Final.

ALL SHEARING NEEDS FOR FARMERS AND SHEARERS

The advertisement displays a collection of shearing-related products. On the left, there is a teal hoodie and a pink and blue singlet. In the center, there are several cans of Lister's shearing products: 'FIERCE' (Super Shear), 'BRUTAL' (Super Shear), and 'REAPER' (Super Shear). Below these are 'DOMINANT WOOL PRESS' and 'WIDEGRIND' products. To the right, there is a blue electric shearer, a pair of shearing boots, and a large orange shearing machine. The background is a gradient of green and yellow.
