Inspid Port torn apart by dominant Cats

Geelong has stormed into another preliminary final after dismantling Port Adelaide by 84 points in a brutal qualifying final at Adelaide Oval. The Cats were dominant across the field, showcasing their experience and class to crush the Power, 20.18 (138) to 7.12 (54), moving one step closer to a potential third Grand Final appearance in five seasons.

The victory marks Geelong's ninth preliminary final under coach Chris Scott, with the team delivering a masterclass of finals football that left Port Adelaide reeling. The Power, entering the finals with confidence, were outclassed and outmuscled, particularly in a second-half onslaught that saw the Cats pile on 11 goals to just one in response.

After a competitive first quarter, where Port Adelaide trailed by only three points, Geelong's midfield and forward line took over. Led by the electrifying Max Holmes, who finished with 28 disposals and five inside-50s, the Cats established control early in the second term. Holmes' pace and ball-winning ability set up numerous scoring opportunities for Geelong's forwards, and his influence grew as the game progressed.

Patrick Dangerfield played a pivotal role in the second half, contributing 24 disposals and eight inside-50s, helping his side break the game open. While Port Adelaide's vaunted midfield, including Connor Rozee, Zak Butters, and Jason Horne-Francis, was expected to be a weapon, it was Geelong's depth and experience that shone brightest.

Jeremy Cameron added flair and firepower up forward, booting four goals, including a stunning boundary-line finish in the opening quarter that showcased his talent. The 2022 premiership star was a constant threat, with his ability to create space and finish with precision making life difficult for Port Adelaide's defenders.

Tyson Stengle, Shaun Mannagh, and Gryan Miers were equally damaging in Geelong's forward 50, combining for 10 goals between them.

Inspid Port torn apart by dominant Cats

Mannagh, in just his first AFL final, was particularly impressive, contributing three goals, three goal assists, and 12 score involvements. His pressure and goalkicking nous gave the Cats another weapon in attack, while Stengle added four majors, underlining Geelong's firepower.

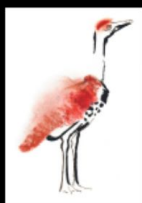

Port Adelaide's night went from bad to worse with the loss of star midfielder Zak Butters, who was subbed out at half-time after a rib injury. Butters' absence left a void in the Power's engine room, and Geelong took full advantage. Despite entering the game with a formidable midfield, the Power struggled to contain the Cats' ball movement and precision kicking.

Port briefly hit the front in the second quarter with back-to-back goals from Willie Rioli and Jed McEntee, but that momentum was short-lived. Geelong responded immediately, kicking five consecutive goals to take a 20-point lead into halftime. From there, it was all Cats, as they dominated possession and looked cleaner and more composed with the ball.

Charlie Dixon's return to Port's forward line did little to lift their scoring output, with the veteran forward failing to register a goal and finishing with just three touches.

Meanwhile, at the other end of the ground, young Geelong forward Shannon Neale capitalized on his opportunity, slotting two goals and justifying his selection over Tom Hawkins, who was left out of the side.

Geelong's defence, missing star Tom Stewart due to illness, held firm throughout, keeping Port's forwards under control. While Mitch Georgiades and Jason Horne-Francis managed to hit the scoreboard early, the Power's tall forwards were largely ineffective as the Cats' backline held its structure and repelled numerous inside-50 entries.

Inspid Port torn apart by dominant Cats

Port Adelaide's finals woes continue, having now lost four consecutive finals matches and facing the daunting prospect of a straight-sets exit. Despite generating 53 inside-50s, the Power struggled to make an impact on the scoreboard and were overrun by Geelong's superior ball movement and composure.

With the win, Geelong moves on to an MCG preliminary final, where they will face either Sydney, Greater Western Sydney, Brisbane, or Carlton in two weeks. The Cats have once again proven that they are a team built for September, and despite the absence of key players such as Hawkins, Stewart, and Cam Guthrie, their new crop of talent has stepped up when it matters most.

For Port Adelaide, the challenge now is to regroup ahead of a do-or-die semi-final, with questions looming over the fitness of Zak Butters and the form of key players. As Geelong eyes another premiership push, Port will need to find answers quickly to avoid another bitter end to a promising season.

Glenelg has a spring in their September "Legs"

Glenelg's Resilience Shines Through

In a thrilling semi-final clash at Adelaide Oval, Glenelg showcased their resilience and depth as they overcame a last-minute injury blow to secure a 31-point victory over a spirited Sturt side. Despite key players missing due to injury, the Tigers dug deep and delivered a strong fourth-quarter performance to keep their SANFL premiership hopes alive.

Last-Minute Drama

The drama unfolded just moments before the first bounce when key defender Will Gould was ruled out due to back spasms suffered during the warm-up. With Gould unable to take the field, Glenelg had to quickly adjust their line-up. Liam Wisdom, who had played in the reserves final the day before, was called up to fill the unexpected void. Despite the setback, Glenelg's backline remained solid, with captain Max Proud leading the defensive unit.

A Tight Contest

The match was a hard-fought battle from start to finish. Both teams traded blows in a fiercely contested first half, with neither side able to establish a significant lead. Sturt looked dangerous early on, with small forward Josh Hone kicking two goals in the opening term. However, Glenelg responded swiftly, with Proud anchoring the defence and Matthew Allen swinging the momentum in their favour.

Final Quarter Dominance

As the game progressed, Glenelg's consistent pressure began to wear down Sturt, leading to crucial turnovers that the Tigers capitalized on. In the final quarter, Glenelg found another gear, outscoring Sturt convincingly to seal the victory. The Tigers' fitness and composure proved to be key factors in the final stages, as they maintained their discipline under pressure while Sturt struggled with errors and turnovers.

Sturt's Disappointment

For Sturt, it was a bitter end to a season that had promised so much. Despite a strong regular season, the Double Blues faltered in the finals, losing both of their matches. Injuries to key players, including Angus Anderson, further complicated matters for Sturt, who struggled to convert opportunities and hold their nerve in key moments.

Glenelg's Confidence Boost

On the other hand, Glenelg will take great confidence from their performance. Overcoming the loss of key players before the match and adjusting their structure on the fly demonstrated their resilience and depth. With a cohesive team effort when it mattered most, the Tigers now turn their attention to the preliminary final with a chance at a grand final berth within reach.

Conclusion

Glenelg's character-filled victory and Sturt's disappointing exit from the finals series highlight the unpredictable nature of sport. As the SANFL finals continue, all eyes will be on Glenelg as they look to build on their momentum and secure a spot in the grand final.

Norwood crushes the Dogs for a tilt at the Flag

Norwood's Commanding Victory

Norwood has punched their ticket to the SANFL grand final with a dominant 59-point victory over Central District in the second semi-final at Adelaide Oval. The Redlegs, who finished as minor premiers, showcased their championship credentials with a commanding performance that highlighted their redhot form heading into the decider.

Game Recap

Despite a slow start where they trailed by eight points at quarter-time, Norwood quickly found their rhythm and took control of the game. The Redlegs slammed through seven unanswered goals in the second and third quarters to firmly seize control of the contest.

By the final siren, Norwood had not only secured their spot in the grand final but also established themselves as the clear favourites to claim their second premiership in three years.

Early Dominance by Central District

The game opened with Central District continuing their impressive form from the previous week's qualifying final win over Sturt.

The Bulldogs early pressure and territory control were evident as they dominated the inside-50 count in the first quarter. However, their early lead would prove to be short-lived as Norwood mounted a comeback.

Norwood crushes the Dogs for a tilt at the Flag

Norwood Takes Control

From the second quarter onward, Norwood flipped the script. Their ability to generate space and use their running game through the middle of the ground left Central District struggling to keep up. The Redlegs' midfield, led by standout performances from players like Billy Cootee and Baynen Lowe, took over the game. Norwood's powerful defence, led by full-back Tom Donnelly, neutralized Central's attacking threats and limited their scoring opportunities.

Impressive Team Effort

Norwood's depth and versatility were on full display as they shared the load with 10 different goalkickers. Big men Finn Heard, Izaak Twelftree, and Jackson Callow played pivotal roles in the forward line, while the midfield controlled the game with their transition and efficiency in front of goal. The Redlegs' defensive structure stood tall, limiting Central District's scoring opportunities and securing their place in the grand final.

Looking Ahead

With Norwood now just one win away from securing their 32nd league premiership, their confidence is sky-high. Having responded to early challenges with a near-flawless display, they enter the grand final as the team to beat, full of belief and momentum.

Central District will need to regroup and prepare for a preliminary final in hopes of keeping their premiership dreams alive after a season of promise.
