Power surge stuns the Hollywood Hawks

Port Adelaide secured a dramatic victory over Hawthorn in a nail-biting semi-final, winning by three points and earning a spot in the preliminary final against Sydney. The Power bounced back from a heavy defeat the previous week to edge out the Hawks in a thrilling contest, eventually triumphing 11.9 (75) to 11.6 (72) at Adelaide Oval.

Ken Hinkley's men showed resilience, standing firm in the face of late pressure from the Hawks. The game could have swung Hawthorn's way had skipper James Sicily not hit the post with a crucial long-range set shot. Esava Ratugolea's timely intercept of Hawthorn's last push forward sealed the result, much to the relief of the home crowd.

This contest was fiercely fought from the outset, with both teams showing a commitment to the pressure and physicality expected of finals football. The post-match atmosphere was charged, as Hinkley and Sicily exchanged words following the final siren, just as the teams lined up to honor Luke Breust in his 300th game. This tense exchange added a dramatic subplot to an already enthralling night.

Port's victory propels them into their fourth preliminary final under Hinkley, with the coach now just one win away from his first-ever Grand Final appearance with the club. It was a crucial win for Hinkley, who would have faced significant scrutiny had Port exited in straight sets.

The Power's finals curse against Hawthorn was finally broken, having lost to the Hawks in two prior finals—by the same narrow margin of three points in 2014 and 2001.

The Power's triumph was built on relentless pressure and effort, with key contributions from both seasoned stars and emerging talent.

Power surge stuns the Hollywood Hawks

Jase Burgoyne was exceptional in the half-back line, registering 25 disposals and a goal, while Logan Evans and Willie Rioli also played significant roles in keeping Port's momentum alive. Rioli's lively performance in the forward half (15 disposals and two goals) gave Port the spark they needed at crucial moments.

Young key forward Mitch Georgiades was another standout for Port, booting three goals and proving a constant threat in attack. He found himself well-supported by Jason Horne-Francis, whose hard running and burst from stoppages kept Hawthorn's defenders under pressure throughout the contest. Horne-Francis was forced to push forward in the latter stages of the game due to cramping, but his influence was telling, as he also added a goal to his name.

Zak Butters, playing after concerns over bruised ribs the previous week, showed he could handle the heat of finals footy. Despite starting the game on the bench, the vice-captain finished with 17 disposals, laying eight critical tackles and providing physicality around the contests. His performance demonstrated his resilience and leadership, particularly when the game was on the line.

The Power's intensity from the outset was evident as they dominated the early stoppages and brought fierce pressure to Hawthorn, forcing errors and winning key contests.

Captain Connor Rozee set the tone with an early tackle and was involved in the chain of play that led to the opening goal, kicked by Rioli. From there, Port continued to apply pressure, going into the first break with a 13-point lead.

Power surge stuns the Hollywood Hawks

However, Hawthorn soon found their footing, thanks to some contentious umpiring decisions that handed the Hawks scoring opportunities. Mabior Chol and Dylan Moore both took advantage of those calls, with Moore receiving a 50m penalty to reduce the margin to four points. The Hawks fought back to take the lead for the first time in the third quarter, with Nick Watson leading the charge, finishing the night with three goals.

But Port Adelaide held their nerve in the final term. Burgoyne and Horne-Francis both kicked clutch goals, and Georgiades added another vital set shot to give the Power the edge. Despite Hawthorn's late push, including near-misses from Sicily, Port's defensive pressure held strong, ensuring a memorable victory for the home side.

This win solidifies Port Adelaide's season and sets up an exciting clash with Sydney in the Preliminary Final this Friday at the Sydney Cricket Ground. The question now is whether Hinkley's men can continue their momentum and push towards a Grand Final berth.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.

Glenelg dominates Dogs to secure Grand Final berth

Glenelg's Victory in the Preliminary Final

In a thrilling showdown at Adelaide Oval, Glenelg secured their spot in the SANFL Grand Final with a commanding 38-point victory over Central District. The Tigers, who last tasted premiership success in 2019, booked a showdown with minor premiers Norwood after a hard-fought battle against the Bulldogs.

A key storyline heading into the match was the return of forward Lachie Hosie, who had been sidelined for over three months following knee surgery. Hosie wasted no time making an impact, kicking four goals and showcasing his importance to the Glenelg team.

Glenelg's Strong Start

Glenelg dominated the opening quarter, kicking the only three goals of the term despite playing into a slight breeze. Hosie's early goals set the tone for the match, with his sharpness in front of goal proving crucial for the Tigers.

Central District's Fightback

Central District, led by the impressive Isaiah Dudley, fought back strongly in the second quarter, cutting the margin to just seven points at halftime. The Bulldogs continued to press in the third quarter, getting within a point of Glenelg before the Tigers responded with three quick goals to regain control.

The Final Quarter Surge

The final quarter saw Glenelg take control, with young gun Archie Lovelock and Cole Gerloff extending the lead with crucial goals. Despite Central District's efforts, Glenelg's dominance in the final term sealed the victory and a place in the Grand Final.

Key Players and Performances

Lachie Hosie's return was instrumental in Glenelg's victory, with the forward kicking four goals in a promising comeback. Liam McBean also played a key role up forward, finishing with four goals of his own.

In the midfield, Matthew Snook led from the front with a game-high 25 disposals, while James Bell and Corey Lyons also made significant contributions. Defensively, Oscar Adams and Max Proud stood firm against Central District's attacks, helping secure the win for Glenelg.

Looking Ahead to the Grand Final

Glenelg's confidence is high as they prepare to face Norwood in the Grand Final, with the Tigers aiming to avenge their loss in the 1982 decider. With key players back in form and a strong finals run behind them, Glenelg will be looking to claim their second flag in five years.

The Doggies year in 2024

Central District showed positive signs of growth despite the loss, improving on last year's fourth-place finish. The Bulldogs will be looking to build on their performance and come back stronger next season.

In what promises to be a highly anticipated Grand Final clash, Glenelg and Norwood will battle it out for SANFL supremacy, with both teams hungry for premiership success. As the excitement builds, all eyes will be on Adelaide Oval as the two powerhouse clubs go head-to-head for the ultimate prize.

SANFL GRAND FINAL

NORWOOD GLENELG

2:30 PM AT ADELAIDE OVAL

Heading into the SANFL Grand Final, Glenelg and Norwood present an intriguing matchup, and there are several key factors that could shape the outcome of this contest.

Here's a breakdown of what to expect and a prediction based on the teams' form and strengths.

Key Factors to Watch:

1. Glenelg's Momentum:

Glenelg is coming into the Grand Final with momentum after winning through from the Elimination Final, similar to what North Adelaide did in 2018. Their ability to handle pressure, as shown in their tight Preliminary Final win over Central District, gives them a psychological edge. The return of Lachie Hosie, who was prolific in his comeback match, adds firepower to an already dangerous forward line. Their midfield, led by Matthew Snook and Corey Lyons, is in excellent form, and they have a versatile forward setup with Liam McBean capable of stepping up as well.

2. Norwood's Defence:

As minor premiers, Norwood has been the most consistent team all season, with a rock-solid defence and a disciplined structure. Their defensive work, which has been a hallmark of their campaign, will be tested against Glenelg's dynamic forwards. How Norwood contains Hosie, McBean, and Will Chandler will be critical. If they can limit Glenelg's scoring opportunities, their balanced game plan could carry them through.

SANFL GRAND FINAL

NORWOOD GLENELG

2:30 PM AT ADELAIDE OVAL

3. Midfield Battle:

Norwood boasts a strong midfield themselves, and the clash in the center will likely decide the game. Both teams have hard-running midfielders capable of winning clearances and driving the ball forward. Glenelg's ability to win contested ball and clearances will be crucial to giving their forwards good supply. If Norwood can disrupt that flow and take control of the stoppages, they'll give themselves a strong chance to keep Glenelg at bay.

4. Experience vs. Pressure:

Glenelg has a core group of experienced finals players, including Liam McBean and Jack Oatey Medallist Matthew Snook, which gives them an advantage in handling the big stage. However, Norwood's overall consistency across the season suggests they have the composure and tactical nous to handle high-pressure situations, especially if they can dictate the pace of the game early on.

Prediction:

Given Glenelg's momentum and the way they've responded to challenges throughout the finals, they have a genuine shot at taking the title, especially if their midfield continues to dominate and Hosie, McBean, and Chandler combine effectively up forward.

However, Norwood's defensive strength, coupled with their season-long consistency, might just give them the edge in a tight contest.

SANFL GRAND FINAL

NORWOOD GLENELG

2:30 PM AT ADELAIDE OVAL

Final Prediction:

Norwood by 13-24 points. While Glenelg has proven themselves as a resilient and dynamic finals team, Norwood's balanced structure, disciplined defense, and ability to control the tempo of the game should see them hold firm and secure the premiership in a hard-fought contest.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment.

Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding, and keeping a job.
