TEAM TALK with JORDAN

That Elusive Flag

Over the past number of years, intrigue has increased around Lance “Buddy” Franklin’s huge move from Hawthorn to Sydney on a record 9-year deal worth roughly a million a year. Many would say that Franklin’s career at Sydney has been a failure due to the fact that he hasn’t won a flag with them. Many others have said that he’s only gotten better, and his individual resume has propelled him well into the conversation of one of if not the game’s greatest player. Franklin however, still one won two premierships with his old club so measuring his success at Sydney can only go so far because will always say “well at least he’s won a flag”. There have been many players who have been hailed as some of the greatest players of all time but have never won a premiership. Players such as Nick Riewoldt, Patrick Dangerfield, Nathan Buckley, Matthew Pavlich and Robert Harvey just to name a few. All of these players have an amazing list of accolades with multiple times All-Australians, Brownlow’s and even Norm Smith’s with Nathan Buckley famously winning the award in the 2002 Grand Final where he captained Collingwood to a heartbreaking loss to Brisbane.

by
Jordan Sennett Perez

There is often the conclusion that these players are almost underrated in a way when comparing them to a player who might not be as gifted as a footballer but is incomparable when it comes to winning premierships. Take Luke Hodge for example, a stalwart of the Hawthorn Football Club one of the best players the game has seen especially when it comes to finals. His resume speaks for itself, 2 Norm Smith medals, 4 premierships and 3 of them as captain. That aside and looking at him as just a pure footballer, Hodge does not come close to someone like Robert Harvey. Harvey, with back-to-back Brownlow’s, 8 All-Australians and a number of other individual awards, but no premierships, not a single one. The only time Harvey came close to winning a flag was in 1997 against the Adelaide Crows in which his team (St Kilda) lost after leading for most of the afternoon. He then came agonisingly close in 3 losing preliminary finals before retiring at the conclusion of the 2008 season. Nathan Buckley and Nick Riewoldt both played in successive losing Grand Finals and both were captains of their respective teams. Both were phenomenal players in their own right but at times get overlooked when in the conversation of the game’s greatest players that of course includes premierships. Luck does play a part too like a player such as Joel Selwood who has evolved into a fine player and one of the best of the modern era but has also been fortunate to play in a team which has regularly challenged for the premiership and by just his fourth year of playing, he had already played in 3 consecutive grand finals winning 2. The question mark will forever hang over players listed above as the big zero in the list of premierships won unfortunately outweighs all of their individual achievements. Many of them have said that they would trade all of their awards for a flag just one, just to experience what it’s like actually winning a premiership. That being said premierships should not be the only way to measure if a player is good or not. Footy is a cruel and tough game though and winning premierships is that much harder.

West Wonder

Riley Thilthorpe remember that name. He may well be one of the best debutants in many years.

There is always a lot of hype and expectation of young players taken high in the end of season AFL Draft. There is a high percentage of top 2 draft picks that make it to playing afl and over 90% of them will play on average will play more than 100 games.

The Adelaide crows in 2020 used their first draft pick, number 2 pick of the draft to secure the young 18 year old Riley Thilthorpe from West Adelaide. Riley at 202cm tall is a highly versatile player having played 12 games for West Adelaide in ruck, on the wing and as a key forward. He is very quick and agile for his size and also has great speed. making him a asset to any team.

It is always a big risk to talk about a player after just a debut game. They can be very nervous not perform at their best or have an off day and go onto be a Great of the game. The opposite is also true they can go out have a brilliant first game and never get close to a repeat performance for the rest of their playing career.

Riley debuted on the weekend against Hawthorn in Launceston. Expectations were high and his first quarter performance was average at best. However it was not long into the second quarter and everyone new the name Thilthorpe as he kicked three goals in quick succession showing great athletic skill in both the air and on the ground. He ended the game with an Adelaide Crow club record of 5 goals on the debut. Five goals on debut is obviously impressive, but well short of the most ever goals on debut which was also against the Hawthorn Football Club in 1949 when John Coleman kicked an incredible 12 goals.

The 5 goal haul obviously has drawn attention but the way he moved around the ground and his marking ability were the major standouts I think of his performance. There was the obvious question before the game how he would fit into the team being a ruck/forward player with O'Brien in the team in the ruck position and winning the club best and fairest award at the end for 2020. However Thilthorpe is still a young maturing player and probably not suited at this stage until he develops further to ruck duties and playing him in the forward line for now at least appears to be the perfect fit.

After one match there is still a long way to go to see if he will live up to expectations of the number 2 draft pick but he is definitely on his way with what he has shown so far. One mark he took in front of goals was like a mark of another full forward who also played for West Adelaide he debuted for the Crows in 2012 had only 5 disposals and kicked 1 goal 3. His name was Tony Modra.

Amato's 5th Quarter

Another season of Mediocrity coming for the Blues?

Every pre-season we seem to hear the same thing on repeat, the most boring of broken records.

'Carlton were just a little off in some key areas last season which cost them important games.'

'If they didn't lose those two or three close games they would have made the finals.'

'If Player A and Player B got a good run with injury, that would have been the difference.'

'This is definitely the year it all comes together.'

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

Six rounds in, they are once again in that familiar average 13th position with a disappointing 2-4 start, having won against fellow-mediocre and inconsistent Gold Coast and Fremantle but failing against premiership-contenders Richmond, Port Adelaide and Brisbane as well as arch-rival Collingwood. With games against the undefeated Western Bulldogs and Melbourne in the coming weeks, it is likely Carlton will be facing a 2-6 figure, possibly even 2-7 with a questionable game against Essendon also coming.

Their effort could not be questioned, but the execution is poor majority of the time. Despite being ranked sixth for Inside 50s (336 average), and having 57 against Port Adelaide in round 5, producing only nine goals. Rushed kicks, fundamental skill errors and bombing high, floating balls to outnumbered targets are killing them week after week.

With so many first-round draft picks on their list; Charlie Curnow, Harry McKay, Jack Silvagni (Father-Son), Jacob Weitering, Paddy Dow, Sam Petrevski-Seton and Sam Walsh, many of these names with multiple pre-seasons under their belt, the time would surely have arrived. But once again, as often is the case with Carlton, they continue with the 'give them time' excuses.

Currently sit third in the AFL for clearances, they have performed 'okay' in patches, but hardly enough to be considered genuine finals contenders. Granted, they haven't had the greatest luck on the injury front, with best-22 members Charlie Curnow, Jack Martin, Nic Newman and Zac Fisher out for the foreseeable future, but every club has injuries and it seems once Carlton has one player from their best side out, they see this as an excuse for not performing. Too much midfield pressure is placed on Patrick Cripps, who while still collecting his fair share of the football (26 possessions average), he does not seem as threatening as he has in previous years.

Amato's 5th Quarter

Another season of Mediocrity coming for the Blues?

While the young brigade do perform as well as they can, their experienced heads are simply either past their prime or just not performing in general. Marc Murphy is not playing well enough to remain in the team, at the ripe age of 33 the best has clearly past him. He averages 14 possessions and has little influence on the result. Levi Casboubt has played every game as Carlton's go-to man in the forward line, yet has only scored four goals at a woeful 36% accuracy from eight possessions (average). He doesn't even look threatening.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

Carlton are not exactly terrible, their best 22 in theory looks a damaging side capable of performing consistently, but they are far from elite. They simply do not control the ball and use it efficiently. This is proven in the three major key performance stats, which never lie.

Average Possessions: 9th
Average Goals: 11th
Average Marks: 8th

If things don't change soon, David Teague could be in a spot of bother sooner than anyone expected.

The Clemente Code

The power of youth

Currently in the AFL, we are witnessing a significant change, a change in the classical players that have had all of us footy enthusiasts/spectators stranded on our couches and glued to our television screens. The great players of the last 10-15 AFL seasons are unfortunately becoming seasoned in age and gained wisdom as they are passing on the torch to young guns who have risen.

by
William Clemente

It is an exciting time for football as we are weathering a transitional phase, we are getting a small taste and preview into what our great game could look like in the future. The past couple of seasons have seen the empathic entrances and births of exciting young talents; for example, Matt Rowell, Max King, Zak Butters, Sam Walsh and Bailey Smith, to name a few.

The past 10-15 seasons has seen the AFL be dominated by some of the greatest players to step on a football field such as Gary Ablett Jnr, Lance Franklin, Patrick Dangerfield, Scott Pendlebury, Dustin Martin and Nat Fyfe. Players such as Ablett Jnr have hung up their boots, but the other great veterans mentioned are entering the twilight periods of their illustrious careers. These players are still considered the peak level that are currently existing in the game as they are still inputting great influence for their teams. However, they are playing the roles of veterans as they are taking a back seat, guiding the kids and letting them lead the way

Many clubs in the AFL are beginning transitional phases in their squad developments and some clubs are extremely benefiting but others are yet to reap rewards. Port Adelaide are a prime example of a current top performing club who are embracing the power of youth. They possess great young talents such as Zak Butters, Conor Rozee and Xavier Duursma as they are fielding 12 players between the ages of 18-21. Port Adelaide are certainly one of the favourites to conquer the flag and their embracement of young talents, nursed by star veterans such as Travis Boak and Robbie Gray is benefitting the club in the present and will continue to benefit them in the future.

The Gold Coast Suns, who are still young to the competition are continuing their approach of grooming young players. The Suns contain several young talents in their camp such as Matt Rowell, Izak Rankine, Ben King and Jack Lakosius; 18 players listed between the ages of 18-21 and the youngest squad age average of 23.7 years. The Adelaide Crows who are currently conducting a rebuild are looking to the stars of tomorrow with the youngest squad age average also of 23.7. Adelaide's emerging players such as Lachie Scholl, Jordan Butts and newly introduced Riley Thilthorpe are being mentored by Adelaide veterans Taylor Walker, Rory Sloane and Daniel Tahlia.

All clubs in the AFL are possessing young exciting talents who will bring our great game forward, and clubs such as Port Adelaide, Gold Coast and Adelaide are primarily forming their squads with youth who are being guided by senior veterans. Geelong has the oldest list in the AFL with the average squad age of 25.3 are not embracing youth to build a future legacy. With pre-season recruits of Jeremy Cameroon, Isaac Smith and Shaun Higgins, it illustrates that Geelong are preparing for the present and not the future. They must bring a flag to Kadinia Park in the next couple of seasons to make it worthwhile.

It is a transitional phase for the AFL. We are beginning to farewell some of the great footy entertainers of the past decade. Several clubs are loading their squads with youthful talent and their senior veterans are guiding them in the right direction. Without a shred of doubt, the young talents we are currently witnessing will birth a new and exciting era of Australia's game.

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT...
HERE'S WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY!

I've used many fish oil additives in my burley mixes over the years and this one is the best by far. Irrespective of tide movement or bite times it stimulates the fish into a feeding frenzy and provides a superior catch in record time, every time. Can't recommend these products enough - I'm truly impressed!

PETER C., SOUTH AUSTRALIA

This little oil is liquid gold! Since changing from tuna oil I've been catching more and I use it for everything now, hooks, reels, sinkers & my boat trailer. ALEX M., QUEENSLAND

We had great results over the 2 days we bagged out on whiting on both boats on day one but also caught Travally sweep salmon and Squid which were our target species. Day 2 was a dodge tide so not best conditions for fishing, but we did get whiting and more squid on that day. We did a test and between 2 boats over same reef structure one used the oil the other didn't and both had their own berley stream and the boat using the oil in the berley and bait did get more fish in far shorter time. Great weekend lots of fish and we all say Thank you! ANTHONY & THE BOYS, PT. VIC

Just had a nice trip away, garfish went nuts using the oil, we cleaned up. Quite impressive we had them swimming around our legs using the oil they were quite keen on it! SHANE, FISHINGSA MAGAZINE

THE DIVISION 1 Match Previews

Rostrevor OC vs Prince Alfred OC / 11.7-72 vs 11.15-81

Prince Alfred have ended Rostrevors unbeaten run in a late steal to run out 9 point winners. The first quarter saw the home side come out in front after kicking four to PA's three goals to lead by 3 at the first break. The second was the same tune with Rostrevor kicking two more goals to extend their lead to 7 points at the end of the second. The third quarter changed the complexion of the game, PA came out swinging kicking four goals and seven minors to lead the home side by 17 points at the third break. After the final break Rostrevor prepared a final push to keep their unbeaten streak alive but unfortunately, it wasn't enough as Prince Alfred kicked three goals to see out the home side and secure an important win away from home. It was A. Jonas and D. Reinbrecht who were great for Rostrevor and T. Brinsley and J. Trengrove were out of this world for the away side.

Adelaide University vs Unley Mercedes Jets / 11.16-82 vs 6.5-41

AU came out on top at home against a struggling Unley, seeing off the away side by 41 points. The game started one-sided with the home side kicking three goals in the first quarter to lead by 15 at the end of the first. The second was more of the same with Adelaide doubling their score and leading by 28 at the main break. The third saw Unley try and claw back into the game but were again out scored by the home side, who were looking to bounce back from their loss to Rostrevor last week. They saw the fourth quarter out confidently to win the game by 41 and hopefully put their season back on track. K. Martin was very strong for the home side, with W. McGowan kicking 4 goals in an impressive performance for AU. O. Cheesman and J. Earl were strong for the away side in a disappointing loss for the away side.

St Peters OC vs Goodwood Saints / 13.10-88 vs 13.8-86

St. Peters ran away surprise winners in a very impressive win against the Saints at Caterer Oval on Saturday. Things seemed to be business as usual for the away side in the first outscoring a very resilient St Peters to lead by 19 at half time. But it was the home side who showed their ability in the third kicking five goals to Goodwoods two to have a slender 2 point lead going into the final break of the game. With the scores so close and both teams desperate to claim the win, the game opened up and saw an uncanny balance yet to be seen in the game so far, with both teams scoring two goals and two minors to see the game out with St Peter running away slight winners by 2 points. J. Mcleay showed his class kicking 7 for the same in an inspiring performance. A. Parrella and A. Skara were influential for the away side but unfortunately unable to inspire the win for their side.

Brighton Bombers vs Payneham NU / 7.12-54 vs 11.13-79

The Bombers looked slow at home going down to Payneham by 25 points on the weekend. The game started poorly for the home side failing to put away crucial chances kicking 9 points and then conceding 5 straight goals to go in to the first break down by 15. The second quarter saw the game slow with the away side slightly extending their lead kicking the only goal on quarter to lead by 27 at the main break. The second half saw the home side find their kicking boots but it wasn't enough to keep Payneham away who stacked on the pressure to lead by 34 at the third. Payneham were able to comfortably see out at late surge from the Bombers to end the game victors by 25 points. H. Boyle was yet again superb for the home side but unable to affect the score line greatly. N. Jolly C. Bower were electric in helping their team to a fantastic victory against tough opponents.

Port District vs Tea Tree Gully / 12.14-86 vs 9.11-65

Port district have secured a huge win at home seeing off Gully by 21 points on the weekend. The game started in favour of the away side kicking three goals and holding a slender lead of 7 points going into the first. But the second quarter saw Port turn on the gas kicking 6 unanswered goals to take the lead at halftime by 18. The third came and saw Port continue to control the game kicking a further three goals and extending the lead to 46 at three-quarter-time. A very strong late surge was made by Gully but it was too late for the away side who despite kicking five goals in the final term went down by 21 points. J. Gaffney and S. Davidson were phenomenal for the home side helping them to a well needed win at home, while Z. Mckay and I. Hewson were diamonds in the rough in an unfortunate loss for Gully.

This week in Division 1

Goodwood Saints vs Rostrevor OC / Goodwood Oval

This week we see the Saints host Rostrevor. Goodwood will look to bounce by after a narrow loss on the weekend, especially being at home you expect the side to make amends and move forward quickly. Rostrevor will also be looking to bounce back from their first loss of the season but will have tough opponents to do battle with.

Personally, i see this going to the wire with Rostrevor running away slight winners by 10 or less.

Unley Mercedes Jets vs Brighton Bombers / Kingswood Oval

Unley will host the Bombers this week and will look to finally claim their first scalp of the season. However, this won't come an easy task with the Bombers looking to bounce back after suffering a loss to Payneham last week. Bombers have only won one game this year and will be licking their lips this week hoping to help Unleys poor form continue. I see this game being a blow out to the away side who will run away 30+ point winners.

Prince Alfred OC vs Adelaide Uni / Park 9

PA host Adelaide Uni this week in what has the makings of a good game. Prince Alfred beating a strong side in Payneham last week will look to build on their form and collect another big scalp. Adelaide Uni, who started the year strong, have struggled to find that same form in their last few match ups and will look get back to their best against the current top side. I see the home side taking this one by 20+ points.

Payneham NU vs Port District / Payneham Oval

Payneham play host the Port on the weekend with both sides hoping to capitalise on good wins from last week. Although port looked the better side last week Payneham have shown more consistency and will match up nicely in this game. A win for Port will see them go even with Payneham on the table and will help get their season back on track. I see the home side running away 12 point winners.

Tea Tree Gully vs St Peters OC/ Ray White TTG Oval

Gully will Host St Peters as the home side will look to reply after a disappointing loss last week. St. Peters claimed a big scalp in the Saints last weekend and will want to continue that form going into the weekend. Gully who has struggled to only get a win this year will hope to stand their ground at home and claim their first big scalp of the year. I see a surprise win for Gully here running away 10 point winners.

Match Previews

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Broadview 17.10 (112) def Athelstone 4.20 (44)

In one of the worst displays of goal kicking for the season, Athelstone cost themselves a chance at victory on Saturday as they fell to Broadview by 68 points. Despite having just three more scoring shots than the visitors, Broadview were able to capitalize on their chances and dominated the scoreboard for much of the game en route to the big win. The win sees Broadview jump to 2-1, in a good position to start the year, while Athelstone fell behind the 8-ball at 1-2, needing a big win this week to avenge their poor kicking at goals.

Henley 17.10 (112) def Scotch 10.8 (68)

Equal ladder-leaders Henley continued their hot start to the season, advancing to 3-0 off the back of a 44-point statement win over the visiting Scotch. Both teams were fairly accurate in front of goals, with the home side just creating more chances for themselves. The game was never really close, as Henley controlled the tempo for most of the game and enjoyed a seven-goal win which has seriously put them in premiership contention early on. The visitors, Scotch, fall to 0-3, with a lot of work to do to turn their season around.

Seaton 11.12 (78) def by Salisbury North 13.8 (86)

With both sides winless coming into this clash, it was only a matter of time before one club kickstarted their season, and in a close contest, it was the visiting Salisbury North who won. Counting on inaccuracy from the home side, Salisbury North made the most of their opportunities to win a tight encounter by eight points on the road, to maybe bring some life into this Hawks' outfit. The Ramblers will once again be left to rue their chances in front of goal, having two more scoring shots than the visitors in the loss. The 0-3 start doesn't add much promise to this Seaton squad, as they fall even further behind the current finalists after three rounds.

Sacred Heart 5.5 (35) def by Glenunga 16.13 (109)

They came and they conquered... again. Glenunga have dominated on the road once again as they annihilated a promising Sacred Heart outfit by 74 points. Held to just five goals for the entirety of the contest, the home side struggled to get going all game and were punished by the early flag favourite Glenunga, who are in seriously good form. A 3-0 start sees them tied for first on the ladder, and they haven't looked like losing yet. Sacred Heart sit middle of the pack with a 1-2 record, and they will be looking to forget this game moving forward.

Plympton High & Camden 15.16 (106) def Old Ignatians 12.15 (87)

The third team to start the season 3-0, Plympton High & Camden, enjoyed a three-goal win over Old Ignatians, pushing the visitors to the outer of the finals race at 1-2 after three rounds. In a game headlined by inaccurate kicking, it was the home side who held on in a great contest, with both sides registering more behinds than goals. Old Ignatians' both losses have been narrow, meaning with a couple more things falling their way they could easily be 3-0, showing that the competition runs deeper than just the top three undefeated sides in 2021.

This week in Division 2

With three rounds down, there is a clear indication of the good teams and the bad teams, so heading into round four there may be some easier picks to make, given recent form.

Plympton High & Camden host Athelstone this week, with the Phantoms equal top after three rounds and the Raggies around the middle of the pack at 1-2. I expect a Phantoms' win on Saturday, as they have looked good through three rounds of action, and this week should be no different. Athelstone have been inconsistent with their form, and until they find some consistency I'm not giving them much of a chance on the road this week.

Old Ignatians (1-2) and Seaton (0-3) will go head-to-head this week in a game that could define each club's season. A loss this week for the Ramblers and their season is almost over, as 0-4 is a big hill to climb, whereas for Old Ignatians, who have been very competitive even in losses, need a win here to stay in the finals' hunt. At home, I think Old Ignatians should take care of business, leaving an unfortunate start for Seaton.

This next matchup could be the closest of the round, with both sides coming into this clash at a 1-2 record. Sacred Heart make the trip to Salisbury North, who recorded their first win last week. With some momentum in their camp now, they have a great opportunity to close in on a finals spot after round four, if they can defeat Sacred Heart at home this week. However, Sacred Heart, who were embarrassed last week at the hands of Glenunga, will be looking to bounce back to keep their season alive, so there is a lot to play for this week. I predict Salisbury North to win by about three goals.

At 0-3, another loss could see them kiss goodbye their 2021 season already, but they will firmly believe that a good performance can win Scotch a game of footy. And this week, they have that opportunity at home, albeit it will be a tough opponent in Broadview, who are sitting at 2-1 and in pretty good form early. They demolished Athelstone at home this past week, so with plenty of momentum they will be tough to stop, especially by a team that has won no games so far this year. I think Broadview will win fairly easily on Saturday, and Scotch will join the Ramblers at the bottom of the ladder once again.

Finally, it's the matchup of the round. Two undefeated teams, looking to continue that unbeaten start and set up a finals spot nice and early. Glenunga, who haven't really been challenged yet, host Henley, who apart from round one's first half against Old Ignatians, have been pretty dominant also, setting this contest up to be a cracker. I can't pick a definitive winner on paper, but I'll give the edge to Glenunga based on the fact they are the home team. Nonetheless, this should be a great game, and it could go either way for the two form sides of the competition.

Jacob Matheson gives his match previews for this weeks matches

THE DIVISION 3 Match Previews

Edwardstown v Westminster

Edwardstown remain undefeated after a see-sawing, come-from-behind victory over Westminster at Edwardstown Oval last Saturday. After trailing by seven points at quarter-time, Westminster kicked five goals to two in the second term to take a 12 point lead in to the main break. The Dragons then extended their lead out to 20 points at three quarter time on the back of a three goal to two quarter. It looked like Westminster were on track to record their second win of the season. However, the final term belonged to Edwardstown as they managing to boot five goals to one, to record a five point victory 11.12 78 to 10.13 73. Westminster's Blake Read tried hard all-day and Aaron Fielke continued his good early season form, booting 2 goals, bringing his total up to 12 for the season. For the home side, Joshua Holiday booted 4 goals, while Kane Mulvaney and Danyle Pearce were important in their side's win.

Golden Grove v Portland

Struggling Portland Thunder played host to reigning premier Golden Grove at Port Reserve last Saturday. As expected Golden Grove were to strong all over the ground and handed Portland their third consecutive thrashing of over 150 points as the Kookaburras kicked 31.17 203 to 4.8 32 on their way to a very comfortable 171-point victory. The victory keeps Golden Grove undefeated along with Flinders Park, North Haven and Edwardstown. As for Portland, they fall to 0 and 3 and find themselves cemented to the bottom of the ladder. Golden Grove had winners on every line with Joshua Ingram (3 goals) and Mitchell Payne the standouts. Michael Walters (6 goals) and Chad Barmby (5 goals) made the most of their opportunities in the percentage boosting victory. Whilst Luke Greenleese booted 2 of his side's 4 goals and Tyson Friend was again Portland's best.

Gaza v Modbury

Modbury travelled to Klemzig Oval on Saturday and came away with a very impressive 10-point victory as they claimed their first win of the season, 12.11 83 to 10.13 73. The Eagles kicked 4 goals to 3 in the opening term to lead by 8 points at quarter time, but that would be the only time Gaza would be in front as the Hawks set-up the win with an impressive 7 goal second quarter. The victory sees the Hawks move equal with their opponents at 1-2 for the season. Brayden Lauder was impressive for the Eagles, booting 4 goals in the defeat, whilst team-mate Jackson Elmes on the back of a 9 goal haul last week was again busy kicking 2 goals. For the visitors, Daniel Kaipara continued his stellar start to the season with a 5 goal haul and for the second week in a row was the Hawks best player.

North Haven v Plympton

Winless Plympton travelled to Largs North Reserve to take on undefeated North Haven. The Magpies continued their strong early season form and soundly took care of Plympton beating them 23.11 149 to 3.5 23 in what was a 126-point victory. North Haven currently sit second and are one of four undefeated teams. The Magpies had multiple avenues to goals, with star recruit Jack Foster along with Thomas Sandercock and Travis Natt all kicking four goals. Kurtis Phillips was again busy as was Ross Merrett as the Magpies were just too strong the lacklustre Bulldogs, who now sit in 8th position and are still looking for their first victory of the season. Lonnie Hampton and Kieren Nelson were the best for Plympton.

Flinders Park v CBC Old Collegians

Ladder leaders Flinders Park returned home to take on CBC Old Collegians who were looking to register their first win of the year and get their season going, that however was not the case as Flinders Park ran away 65 point winners in a 18.11 119 to 7.12 54 victory. After a tight tussle early, Flinders Park kicked 4 of the last 5 goals of the first quarter to open up a 20 point lead. An early highlight was CBC's Laurence Kenmore who leapt over two Flinders Park players and took a strong pack mark that is surely an early candidate for Mark of the Year, Kenmore would finish the match with 3 goals and was named amongst the best players for CBC. Leading at every change, Flinders Park had the game under control all day and finished in style kicking 7 goals to 2 in the final term to add some extra percentage. CBC would be ruing some missed opportunities in the third quarter as they kicked 1-6 ending any hope they may have had of getting back into the game. Jaimie West and Daniel Blythe kicked three goals each for the home side and Dane Brand along with Samuel Madigan were a few of the standouts for the Dolphins.

This week in Division 3

Golden Grove v North Haven

Undefeated North Haven travel to Harpers Field when they take on in-form and fellow undefeated, Golden Grove on Saturday afternoon in what is set to be an instant classic that is sure to also be a very entertaining and high-scoring affair between the two teams, who are both coming off of impressive victories. Expect this to be a close game that could potentially be a preview for the finals come September. It is a very difficult decision, but the gut feeling is that Golden Grove will walk away victorious in front of the home crowd and hand North Haven their first defeat of the season. Both teams are coming off of massive 100+ point victories over Portland and Plympton, respectively.

Golden Grove by 5 points.

Modbury v Portland

The Hawks registered their first victory of the season last weekend when they defeated Gaza by 10 points in a thrilling victory away from home. This weekend they return home to face a struggling Portland outfit who are yet to record a victory and are currently sitting last. The Thunder's fairytale return to Division 3 has not been a very kind one through 3 rounds and this coming week does not look any different.

Modbury will be looking to record back-to-back victories for the first time in 2021 and will be looking to go 2 and 2 after 4 rounds. Modbury by 100 points.

CBC Old Collegians v Gaza

After a 65 point defeat to top of the table Flinders Park, CBC Old Collegians return home to East Parklands to face a Gaza outfit coming off a heartbreaking 10 point defeat to Modbury. If CBC are any chance to register their first victory of the season they will need to find their kicking boots as inaccurate kicking has been a regular feature for CBC so far this season. Gaza has also had their fair share of inaccurate goal kicking it may well have cost them from being 3-0. Gaza will be looking to bounce back from their lost at home and register their second win of the season. On paper Gaza look to be a bit stronger than CBC and should win this one comfortably. Gaza by 45 pts

Westminster v Flinders Park

Next up, top of the table Flinders Park travel to Eagles Drone Oval at Glandore to face a Westminster outfit looking to end Flinders undefeated streak. Westminster would be stinging from the heartbreaking loss to Edwardstown after leading by 20 points at three quarter time. They will be hoping to upset the more fancied Flinders Park in front of their home fans. Flinders Park are coming off an impressive 65 point victory over CBC where they never looked troubled. They currently sit atop of the ladder with a massive percentage of 78%. Flinders Park won't want to take the luckless Westminster lightly or they may find their perfect start will come to an end. Flinders Park by 14 pts

Edwardstown v Plympton

The final match of Round 4 sees undefeated Edwardstown travel to Plympton Oval to take on winless Plympton. Edwardstown are coming off an impressive come-from-behind 5 point victory over Westminster last week whilst Plympton were totally outplayed by North Haven to the tune of 126 points. Edwardstown will be looking to continue their early season form and remain undefeated with a victory. Whilst Plympton will need to find something special in front of their very vocal home fans or they will be looking at an 0-4 start and a very long season ahead. Edwardstown by 20 pts

Walkerville v Pembroke OS

Walkerville has consolidated its spot at the top of the ladder, defeating Pembroke OS by 18 points to become the only undefeated side remaining in Division Four. In front of their home crowd the Cats were inaccurate early, kicking 1.6 to allow the Kings a six-point quarter time lead before a five goal to one second term put Walkerville firmly on top at the main break. The Kings tried to rally in the third term, but the Cats stood firm to take a 19-point lead into the final quarter and holding onto the buffer to ensure victory. Adam Proud and Adam Law both contributed three goals apiece for the Cats, while Paul Spillios and Tyler Wagner both starred in the win. For the visitors Alex Forster continued his strong form with six goals, taking his season tally to 25 while Izaak Twelftree offered support with three of his own. Ben Williams also battled valiantly for the Kings, who will look to bounce back against Gepps Cross this weekend.

Woodville South v SMOSH West Lakes.

Woodville South have pulled off a heroic comeback victory to defeat SMOSH West Lakes by six points at The Stable Oval. After starting the round at the bottom of the table, following two heavy defeats Woodville jumped out of the blocks early to take a 16-point lead at quarter time. However, the next two quarters belonged to the Lions who regained their composure to take a 15-point lead into the final quarter. But in an incredible final term, Woodville piled on six goals to two to snatch victory, kicking the winning goal with barley a minute left and giving their fans renewed hope for the season. Cameron Bell was best afield for Woodville, kicking three goals while Samuel Clark also stood tall, kicking six goals to lead an extremely accurate forward line. For the Lions Cohen Mattner kicked four goals and Christian Bock three while Rhys Lovering and Ethan Abbot both starred in the loss. Both sides go into round four with a 1-2 record with SMOSH traveling to Hope Valley and Woodville hosting ladder leader Walkerville.

Morphettville Park v Hope Valley.

Morphettville Park have produced a stunning second term to defeat Hope Valley by 26 points in front of their home crowd at Kellett Reserve. After conceding seven goals to two in the first term and trailing by 33 points at quarter time the Roos blitzed their opposition, kicking ten goals to one and taking a 23-point lead into halftime, a 56-point turnaround. The Demons challenged in the third term, cutting the lead to a single goal at three quarter time but were unable to carry their momentum into the fourth, missing early chances before Morphettville kicked away again, recording six goals to three to secure the victory. For the Roos Dane Thompson kicked four goals while Matthew Wolfenden and Kye Dean kicked three apiece. Benjamin McConnell and Cory Gregson also starred in a win that lifts Morphettville to third on the ladder. For the visitors Lee Duggan and Jayke Hellmanns kicked four goals each while Lucas Harney was best afield in a loss that leaves the Demons seventh on the ladder and desperate to bounce back against SMOSH West Lakes this weekend.

Pulteney v Mitcham.

Mitcham have come away from Morgan Oval with a crucial two points, defeating Pulteney by 19 points in a tightly fought contest. After a tight first half saw the Hawks lead by just nine points at the main break, a three goal to one third term from Mitcham gave the Hawks a bit of breathing space and a 23-point lead at the final change. The Blues had their opportunities in the final quarter but were unable to fully take advantage of their scoring opportunities as the Hawks cruised to their second win of the year. Maxwell Smyth continued his strong goalkicking form for the Hawks, snagging six while Lachlan Paddick recorded three majors in a best on ground performance. For the visitors Tyson Currie lead the goalkicking with three majors and James Tripodi battled hard in the loss.

Pulteney will hope to bounce back and stop their losing streak when they travel to face winless Kilburn this weekend while Mitcham play host to Morphettville Park in a crucial top four battle.

Gepps Cross v Kilburn.

Kilburn are the only team in division four without a win yet this season after going down to Gepps Cross by 48 points at Duncan Fraser Reserve. The Rams jumped out of the blocks early to take a 26-point lead into quarter time before Kilburn fought back to cut the lead back to 14 points at the main break. However, a wasteful third term from the Magpies allowed Gepps Cross to extend the lead to six goals at three quarter time before six goal final term from the Rams secured the victory. Daniel Mason and Tyson Polkinghorne were best afield for the Rams while Lachlan Matthews and James Clark-Rantasa both kicked five goals against the hapless Kilburn defence. For the visitors Rhys O'Keefe kicked three majors, while Marcus Linsen and Jackson Ryan Fought hard in the loss. Kilburn will be desperate for their first victory of the year when they face a Pulteney side who has come off of two successive defeats.

This week in Division 4

Mitcham v Morphettville Park.

Mitcham and Morphettville Park square off in an enthralling top four matchup at Thomas Farms Oval. Both sides sit at 2-1 and will be looking to use this game to cement themselves towards the top end of the ladder. Both sides won their matchup comfortably last week and this game looks like it will go down to the wire. I expect the home ground advantage and a strong showing from spearhead Maxwell Smyth will be just enough to see the Hawks get over the line. Mitcham by 7 points.

Kilburn v Pulteney.

Kilburn will look to record their first win of the year as they host Pulteney at Blair Athol Reserve. The Magpies have been uncompetitive all season, their best performance coming in round one when they lost to Pembroke OS by 45 points. They come against a Blues side who after winning round one have suffered consecutive losses to Hope Valley and Mitcham. However, Pulteney's class should be too much for the Magpies and I expect them to bounce back strongly and take the two points. Pulteney by 27 points.

Pembroke OS v Gepps Cross.

Pembroke OS will look to bounce back from last weeks loss to ladder leaders Walkerville when they face off against Gepps Cross at Haslem Oval. They face a Rams outfit fresh off of a 48-point win over Kilburn. The key to this game is Alex Forster who has kicked 25 goals over the first three rounds, an average of over eight goals a game. Shut him down and Gepps Cross should be well on the way to victory. However, this is easier said than done and I expect the Kings to take the lessons they learnt from last weeks loss and run away with a comfortable victory. Pembroke OS by 26 points.

Woodville South v Walkerville.

Walkerville will look to continue their unbeaten start to the season when they travel to The Stable Oval to face a Woodville South team, rejuvenated by their heroic comeback win against SMOSH West Lakes. Walkerville have been comfortable winners in all three rounds so far, their closet result being their 18-point win over Pembroke. While Woodville were able to snatch a victory last weekend, and will no doubt come out firing early I expect Walkerville to be way too strong and remain undefeated. Walkerville by 53 points.

Hope Valley v SMOSH West Lakes.

Hope Valley and SMOSH West Lakes face off in what will be an intriguing battle at Hope Valley Oval., Both sides are 1-2 and desperate to make their way into the top five. Hope Valley were undone by a last quarter push from Morphettville Park while SMOSH West Lakes were stunned by Woodville South, suffering a six-point defeat despite leading by 15 points at the final change and have more scoring shots. I expect SMOSH to be fired up for this contest, jump out the blocks early and hold out a late Hope Valley push in what should be a thrilling contest. SMOSH West Lakes by 11 points.

Eastern Park v Lockleys

Reigning premiers Lockleys remain winless in 2021 after a loss at the hands of Eastern Park at Dwight Reserve by. A blistering start from both teams saw a combined 13 goals kicked in the first term. Eastern Park kicked eight of the thirteen, taking a 17-point lead into the quarter time break. Lockleys tried but failed to reduce the lead in the second quarter as both teams kicked two goals and four behinds each. A tidy third quarter from Lockleys worried Eastern Park as their lead was reduced to eight points in the third term. Eastern Park surged away from Lockleys in the last quarter, kicking five and restricting the visitors to two goals. A. Burgoyne and B. McMullen booted three each for Eastern Park, while on the other side, C. Mickan kicked four and was well supported by S. Ascoli who had two for Lockleys. Z. King and M. Fregona led the way for Lockleys, but were unable to thwart the likes J. Alderson and P. Diedrichsen for Eastern Park.

Salisbury v Hectorville

Salisbury mean business in 2021 after a huge win against Hectorville at home. The margin may have only been 22 points, but the confidence the Magpies will gain from the win is what makes the win so monumental. Hectorville controlled the game early, getting out to a 13-point lead at quarter time. Salisbury had to wait until the second quarter before they could celebrate their first goal, as both defences held strong. The game started to open up in the second, as Salisbury booted three to bring the margin to four points at half time. Salisbury's impressive backline held Hectorville to a solitary behind in the third quarter as the Magpies piled on some scoreboard pressure, kicking three goals. Hectorville fought back in the last quarter with two goals, however this wasn't enough to trouble Salisbury, as they kicked another three goals to extend their winning run to two games. Salisbury's L. Shirley was the only man to kick more than one goal, putting two on the board. L. Broadbent and J. Combe were Hectorville's best, meanwhile J. Howden and R. Nicholson starred for Salisbury.

West Croydon v Fitzroy

West Croydon beat Fitzroy convincingly at Fawk Reserve, snatching their first win of the season from the Lions, running out 48-point victors. West Croydon set the tone early, booting six goals in the opening term, whilst Fitzroy managed two. The fast start would prove too much to overcome for Fitzroy, as they failed to regain any control of the game. A three goal second quarter gave Lions fans hope, as Fitzroy slowly ate away at the West Croydon lead. Fitzroy started the third quarter 15-points behind and were well within closing distance, but another six-goal surge from the Hawks blew them out of the water. West Croydon asserted their dominance in the second half, piling on another five goals in the last quarter extending their lead out to 44 at the end of the match. The West Croydon defence held Fitzroy to three goals in the last term, a huge improvement on their previous outings. West Croydon were led by T. Lane and A. Deng, whilst B. Adams and D. Camac shone for Fitzroy.

Colonel Light Gardens v Kenilworth

Kenilworth handed Colonel Light Gardens their first loss of the season after an emphatic six-goal win at Streetfleet Park on Sunday. Kenilworth took control of the game early, putting four goals on the board in the first quarter. Colonel Light Gardens were unable to register a goal, instead kicking five behinds. Colonel Light Gardens' horror start was too much to overcome, despite their best attempts in the second quarter where they closed the distance to three goals at half time. Kenilworth's defence once again held strong, containing the Lions to one goal and three behinds, whilst piling on five goals at the other end. S. Currie's four and M. Crump's three saw them earn second and third best respectively for the Kookaburras, as they nearly matched S. Scott's efforts who looks to be in scintillating form. S. Vivian starred for the Lions along with N. Patterson and A. Brugioni who both kicked three.

This week in Division 5

Hectorville v Eastern Park

Eastern Park will travel to Daly Oval this Saturday, where they'll look to continue their recent run of form. They currently sit in the middle of the ladder after an inconsistent start. Hectorville's form has been far more consistent however, they are yet to prove themselves against higher quality opponents. This game is poised to be anyone's to win, but I'll think Hectorville will have the edge at home. Hectorville by 17 points.

Fitzroy v Salisbury

Fitzroy remain winless after three rounds and sit bottom of the ladder, meanwhile visitors, Salisbury, have started the season in great form. Fitzroy appeared to be building towards some sound form before their Round 3 loss and I can't help but feel that a win against 0-2 West Croydon wouldn't launched their season. Salisbury's hunger and form should overwhelm Fitzroy. Salisbury by 36 points.

Lockleys v Pooraka

The Lockleys slump has continued into Round 4, as the Demons look to register an inaugural win for season 2021. They'll face Pooraka at Lockleys Oval this week, with Pooraka coming off the bye undefeated. Lockleys look to be building form and have shown their class in patches throughout the season. Sustaining this class for four quarters looms as their biggest challenge. Both of Pooraka's wins this year have been dominant and I expect them to continue this form as they look to remain undefeated. Pooraka by 34 points.

Kenilworth v West Croydon

West Croydon's Round 3 win against Fitzroy was impressive in that they looked to have improved majorly on both their defence and accuracy in front of goal. They'll play home side Kenilworth at Simonds Park on Saturday, who come off a comfortable win against Colonel Light Gardens on Sunday. Kenilworth have proven themselves against quality opposition but have also shown they are prone to lapses. Whoever can sustain their class for four quarters will win this one. Kenilworth by 15 points.

THE DIVISION 6

Match Previews

Lachlan Dand gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Elizabeth v Mawson Lakes

Elizabeth have won their third straight game to start the season with a 71-point victory at Argana Park against the continuously struggling Mawson Lakes. The game was controlled from start to finish by the wayward home side, who kicked 16 goals, however also registered 20 behinds in the 116-45 victory. The game was set up mainly in the second term, with a seven goal to two quarter setting the match up. The Eagles were led up forward by Jarod Clinton who booted six goals and claimed four votes in a dominant performance. John Owen was also very good for the home side claiming best on ground and hitting the scoreboard with two majors. For the visitors, inclusion Lars Allen-Bays gathered all the votes and was closely supported by Matt Hendry who worked hard all day. Oscar Richards also worked tirelessly up forward and was rewarded with two goals.

Blackfriars OS v St Pauls OS

In what many touted as the match of the round at St. Dominics Oval between two premierships contenders, it was the visitors, St. Pauls who moved to 0-3 with a gutsy 31-point victory where they led all day. Riley Henriks was once again very dominant up forward with four goals and was joined by Thomas Schlicker who kicked four for the second straight week. Nikolas Papaioannou also booted three, while Jordan Liseno was prolific through midfield in a best on ground performance, while Joseph Adamo was also very good in the win. For the losing side, Andrew McWhirter provided a strong threat up forward slotting four, while Dylan Richardson returned to goal scoring form with two of his own. Samuel Clarke & Giuseppe Velotti were sensational throughout the midfield and did not lower their colours at any stage of the game. St. Pauls are looking to avenge last seasons grand final defeat and currently find themselves second on the ladder.

Para Hills v Ingle Farm

Ingle Farm have claimed their first victory of the season with a nail biting nine-point victory against Para Hills at The Paddocks, who have unfortunately slumped to 0-3 to start the season. It was a high scoring contest and the Bulldogs set the tone with a six-goal opening term before the Kangaroos slowly clawed their way back into the contest. This game needed someone to provide a goal threat, and it was teenage sensation Cooper McKenzie who kicked four goals, which proved to be the difference. Cody Catchpole also continued a strong start to the season, kicking three goals and was strongly supported by Devin Payne who booted three of his own. The Milera name is big in Ingle Farm, and Jamahl did the reputation no harm with an unbelievable performance. For the Kangaroos, Steven Willment continued a strong start to the season with five majors and was followed by Daniel Weetra who also kicked two goals. Lynton Power & Aaron Mendrin backed up last weeks best on ground performance with another strong game.

Marion v Trinity OS

Trinity have absolutely stunned Marion with a brilliant four quarter effort, which earned them a 17-point victory on the road at Sturt Oval. Trinity started the game with a solid opening term and held a 28-point lead at the opening break. However, from there, Trinity really flexed their muscles and led by 42 points with one quarter remaining. Bradley Matters was terrific for the visitors, claiming best on ground and booting a goal. Matters was supported by Domenico Barilla who was also terrific with two goals as Trinity had seven individual goal-kickers. Patrick O’Dea was valiant in the loss with a best afield performance, while ex St.Kilda player Terry Milera didn’t lower his colours as he continued his form of the previous week with four majors.

This week in Division 6

Ingle Farm v Blackfriars OS

Blackfriars will be looking for their second win of the season in a must win game as the season begins to gradually slip away from the Hounds. Standing in their way will be a confident Ingle Farm side as they are coming off their first win of the season and return home in front of their loyal supporter base. Prediction: Blackfriars OS by 11 points.

Trinity OS v Para Hills:

Trinity will be looking for their third win of the season in what should be an easy win in Gawler for the Lions. Trinity OS have relied heavily upon their midfield in the early part of the season, which should run riot for a strong win. A loss would see Para Hills slump to 0-4 and leave the Kangaroos in a significant relegation battle so it is an important game for both sides.

Prediction Trinity OS by 52 points.

Mawson Lakes v Rosewater

Mawson Lakes will be at home for the first time this season and will face Rosewater who will be fresh off the bye. The Bulldogs will be relying heavily upon their sides veterans who have started the year in very good form. It is a must win game for Mawson Lakes who have started the season the exact opposite to what was planned. Unfortunately for Mawson Lakes, I expect Rosewater to be strong, and some significant soul searching for the Mozzies. Prediction: Rosewater Bulldogs by 41 points.

St Pauls OS v Elizabeth

In what could be an early preview of the Grand Final based on current form, St. Pauls take on Elizabeth at the glorious Thebarton Oval in what should be a cracking contest. Elizabeth will be facing their toughest test yet against the flag favourites who should be too strong in a game that will go down to the wire. Prediction: St. Pauls OS by 5 points.

THE DIVISION 7 Match Previews

Greenacres vs Houghton

An all too familiar summery autumn day was again on full display Saturday at Edward Smith Reserve when Houghton travelled there to face the Dragons. The first half was full of contrasts while at times Houghton had the better of the play, they continually wasted the ball going forward while Greenacres made the Raiders pay on the counterattack and probably could find themselves fortunate to be in front by 4 points at half time. The 3rd quarter was an arm wrestle again until Greenacres kicked 3 unanswered goals going into the break which gave them a handy 20-point lead with the final term leaving all to play for. Houghton continued to waste the ball forward and when the Dragons rebounded off half back once again to kick the first goal of the quarter it seemed to break the Raiders and Greenacres went on to record an impressive victory. Ben Bamford had a day out and with Eisner and Gibson allowed to run free the Dragons did as they pleased and won by 62 points blowing Houghton away from Greenacres in an impressive fashion.

Flinders University vs Brahma Lodge

Brahma Lodge travelled across Adelaide to Flinders University Saturday in sunny and perfect conditions for football to try atoning for the previous week's defeat and could not of asked for a better response early with a first half that put Flinders under pressure on the scoreboard and with ball in hand. Scott Timpano, Mendez and Curyer got the ball to the forwards who made good use on the scoreboard giving the Tigers an 8-goal lead midway through the 3rd quarter. Flinders slowly adjusted to handle the Brahma Lodge pressure, but the damage had already been done on the scoreboard even after 3 late goals in the 3rd quarter still leaving the Crabs a huge ask in the last quarter which never looked likely. Huge response from the Tigers and ended up winners by 23 points after always having the game in their control.

Hackham vs OSB Lonsdale

A gorgeous sun-baked Hackham Oval welcomed the Lions for their round three encounter with the mighty Hawks. First half was a competitive struggle around the ball with both teams' midfielders getting plenty of it but the OSB Lonsdale boys of Baker, Trembath and Morris executing in front of goals far more clinical than the Hawks who had their share of opportunities as well. The Lions led by 26 points at half time. After the break, Hackham again wasted numerous chances while the Lions made full use of theirs and when OSB Lonsdale kicked unanswered goals 10 mins into the last quarter the game was theirs if not for the battling Hawks who never gave up fighting the game out to the end, but the wayward goal scoring had already cost them dearly. OSB Lonsdale by 16 points and some positives showing for both teams

Central United vs Mitchell Park

The honour of playing on Anzac Day was given to Central United and Mitchell Park on Sunday at Mofflin Reserve. Central United were in full display right from the start with their switch and run from half back opening up a 36-point lead at half time. Olszewski was best on ground, Lane and McIntyre combined for 9 goals and with the Doggies ball use from half back dominating the contest. Mitchell Park lost Brandon Walczak early and it didn't help with a rotation down and his drive missing. The competition is showing Mitchell Park can match it for periods but need to maintain effort for longer once again. In the end though Bulldogs won convincingly by 61 points and continue to prove the early benchmark

This week in Division 7

Houghton vs Central United

Round 4 and the pecking order of Division 7 is taking shape slowly. 3/4 last week predictions and picking with my heart cost me a perfect round. Houghton last week were put to the sword against the Dragons and dropped off sensationally giving up the last 10 goals of the game in the last 40 mins and would need to find some better ball use this week. The Bulldogs have started season 2021 in amazing style dominating last week's Anzac Day contest vs Mitchell Park and proving to be a powerhouse already. Lane and McIntyre again on fire in forward half but an injury to Lane may make him an notable exclusion in this game. Houghton needing to respond on a disappointing week and a firing Bulldogs outfit looking to again show Division 7 the improvement they've made in the off season makes for a hot contest. Bulldogs on their first 3 rounds can't be picked against.

Central United by 25-36

Brahma Lodge vs Hackham

Hackham Hawks will set off across the state Saturday to face the Div. 7 2020 Premiers on their home deck after the Tigers bounced back in fashion last week against the Crabs. Hackham were more than competitive last week vs the OSB Lonsdale and if they executed in the forward half probably could've snatched a historic win. O'Leary, Shaw and Cross all midfield players that took the eye across the day. Brahma dominated against Flinders during the first 2 and a half quarters last week across the ground and announced themselves back as the major threat in season 2021. With Steele and others to return this week into an already dominating midfield I expect the Tigers to have a handy win at home and start to assert themselves in season 2021.

Brahma Lodge by 49-60

Greenacres vs Mitchell Park

The Mighty Dragons are breathing fire to start the first 3 rounds of season 2021 announcing themselves as a major player in this division. Ben Bamford's game last week was exceptional, but he wasn't alone with Gibson, Eisner, Howcroft, Copley and co destroying the Raiders in 45 minutes of scintillating football. Mitchell Park coming off the Anzac Day battle vs the Bulldogs and back to back 10 goal defeats will again have to face another worthy opponent and need to find some midfield depth to match the Dragons. Lees and the Doherty boys need to find time and space but I'm unsure that Greenacres will give them that opportunity. Greenacres to flex their muscle once again.

Greenacres by 61-72

Adelaide Lutheran vs Flinders University

Round 4 and last year's grand finalist Adelaide Lutheran are still without a victory albeit they had the bye last week. They host the Crabs who last week felt the full fury of Brahma Lodge and took a majority of the contest before they could handle the pressure but slowly worked into the game although giving up an 8-goal lead midway through the 3rd quarter. The last 45 minutes for Flinders though showed they also are improved in season 2021 and with some handy forwards that may cause trouble. A battle of the tallies with which side can win the air game. Flinders have more attacking weapons in Matthews and B Pinder I would think but after 3 games the season still is only early and lots will be taken out of this game and a contest both sides eagerly await.
