Amato's 5th Quarter

Who Will Be The Sixth 400-Gamer?

In what has been a difficult time for the game in the previous two weeks, with COVID-19 once again causing havoc on the AFL Season, it was a weekend of celebration for the great Shaun Burgoyne. On Saturday night, 'Silk' became the fifth player in the game's 163-year history to reach the 400-game milestone, and the first Indigenous player to notch the quadruple century.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

For just five players to reach this incredible achievement in almost two centuries goes to show what is required; a strong work ethic, dedication, resilience and a hint of good luck with health and injury along the way.

There are many players currently in the league who are somewhat within striking distance of the 400 game mark. However, with form issues, injury concerns and the possibilities of game-time and/or positions on lists being compromised in the future due to rebuilding and money-saving, some are more likely than others.

I have identified three players who are the most likely to reach that elusive 400 game milestone;

1. David Mundy

Current Games Played: 347

Games Required: 53

For so long many out of Perth would barely give David Mundy a mention, but now the Victorian-born midfielder is certainly up there as one of the finest footballers to ever come out of a Western Australian club. From his first season in 2005, Mundy has held an unquestionable position in Fremantle's best 22 and has rarely disappointed. A best and fairest in 2010 and All Australian in 2015, and a selection in Fremantle's 2013 Grand Final are among his greatest achievements on field. At the age of 35, the former captain is playing as well as ever, averaging 25 possessions, five clearances and four tackles, all of which are considered above average for AFL standard. For David Mundy to reach 400 games, he would need to play majority of this season's remaining games at least two more full seasons, a final or two would help boost those games up. It seems far-fetched, but if he continues at the rate he is now... why couldn't he?

Only seven games away from over taking Matthew Pavlich's club record for most games played.

2. Joel Selwood

Current Games Played: 325

Games Remaining: 75

The captain of the Geelong Football Club has been the epitome of hard work, dedication, and an unbelievable success rate. Since debuting in 2007, where he won the NAB Rising Star award, he has played in five Grand

Amato's 5th Quarter

Who Will Be The Sixth 400-Gamer?

Finals, won four Premierships, three best and fairest awards, six All Australians and four times the most courageous player, he has also only ever missed the finals on one occasion in 2015. Only once in his fifteen seasons has he played less than 20 games a year, he has been able to escape serious injury for so much of his career and has never been dropped.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

However, Selwood's courage to go back with the flight of the ball and unflinchingly dive into packs has resulted in concussions and head injuries. His biggest strength is also his biggest weakness, and this is the only concern in not reaching 400. With Geelong's premiership window wide-open for the next few seasons and with Selwood form still certainly apt to remain in the side, he would certainly be expected to at least get very close.

For Joel Selwood to reach 400 games, he would need to play until at least another three seasons, playing at least 20 games every campaign. By that stage he would be 36 years old, if he stays injury free and avoids anymore concussion issues, there is absolutely no reason it cannot happen.

3. Dustin Martin

Games Played: 258

Games Remaining: 142

This one may, but should not, come as a surprise. While Dustin Martin still has at least six seasons plus a few finals required to reach 400, he has proven to be one of the most consistent and durable players we have seen... possibly ever.

Since debuting for the Tigers in 2010, Martin has never played less than 20 games in a season. From round one 2010, he has always been one of Richmond's most important players and a main stay in the midfield. He has avoided injury through most of his career and become one of the greatest players in the game's history. Three premierships, three Norm Smith Medals and a Brownlow Medal put him in the elite category in every sense. Football is his life, he loves the game of there does not seem to be any obvious reason why he would give the game up until he exhausts everything he has, and he still has many years to come with a lengthy contract not expiring until 2024, which would be expected to be extended.

For Dustin Martin to reach 400 games, he would need to play until at least 2027. At this stage he would be 36 years of age and I cannot see any reason why this is an unrealistic prospect. He is arguable in career best form, tearing up the midfield with his strength, ability to shake players of and that powerful, penetrating kick.

The Clemente Code

Over-officiating is killing our game!

Australia's great sport of football is a treasure as it is a game that has uniqueness, packed with flare and excitement. However, our beloved league, the AFL has been coming under scrutiny for various reasons in recent years and over-officiation has most definitely become a much-heated debate amongst pundits and spectators.

by
William Clemente

I believe in the law, rules are extremely necessary across all fabrics in our society and footy is included in this but, the game has currently reached a level where strict officiation of the rules has been affecting the quality and potential of AFL fixtures. Many games we have viewed thus far in season 2021 have still been injecting us spectators with pure adrenaline and keep us glued to our seats biting our nails. Round 10 at the Adelaide oval between the rebuilding Adelaide Crows and premiership contenders, Melbourne was an example of fine AFL football, but once again, umpire performance was reviewed.

Umpire discrepancies continues to be a problem in the AFL. I and I'm sure many others are fed up of hearing of umpire complaints after every fixture that is played. Too much attention is put on how the men in green shirts and short shorts do their business on the field. On two occasions this season, the AFL have announced publicly after the conclusion of a round that the umpires have made a mistake. For example, the umpires should have paid a mark to Geelong's Jeremy Cameron in the dying minutes against Sydney in round seven and Adelaide's Nick Murray should have been penalised with a deliberate in the dying seconds against Melbourne in round 10. Both mistakes potentially altered the results of these games.

Currently, we are not seeing any consistency from our umpires on the field. A theoretical truth we have witnessed countless times this season is one hold in the ball given down the field and then a couple of minutes later two hold in the ball tackles are not given. The amount of inconsistency we are seeing from umpires is staggering and it is leaving a bitter taste in the mouths of all involved in footy, most especially, spectators.

It is a very conflicting situation; a lot of pressure is being put on umpires, but I do not believe that this is the solution to our problem. I strongly believe that constant pressure and bombardment on umpires is creating the over-officiation the is killing the spirit of footy and making many AFL games mundane.

As we know, the AFL have been extremely strict and conservative with concussions and rightly so, but this has most definitely has plagued the minds of umpires and influences decisions. Gold Coast's Nick Holman was sent to the tribunal by umpires for a dangerous tackle, this was a reprehensible decision as Homan's tackle was perfectly legitimate. Adelaide's David McKay was also sent to tribunal for an illegal bump when it was a player going in hard to a ground ball contest. Rightly, both incidents were cleared at the Match Review Panel (MRP). Umpires are being too cautious, and their decisions are seemingly trying to eradicate the natural hardness and physicality which makes our sport great and unique.

After viewing round 16's contest between Adelaide and Brisbane at the Adelaide Oval, it highlighted that there are major inconsistencies with one of the biggest components of the game, the hold in the ball. Also, as we have seen across many games throughout the season, the deliberate out on the full has been extremely inconsistent.

Umpires are being extremely inconsistent this season and it is more evident now than previous seasons. It is simple, it is being over-officiated. Constant rules changes and politics behind concussions are influencing umpires negatively. They are leaving a sour taste in our mouths as the fabrics of footy are being forgotten in their decisions. Maybe reform in umpiring is required.

Thinking into results

The power of our mind, creates our future!

You become what you think!

Have you ever stopped to think why we do the things we do?

We become so focused on working, that we forget about our dreams we forget to create a life.

For a long time I thought, working hard, pleasing everyone around me, listening to what everyone else wanted for me, was the right thing to do, (after all it was what I was taught to do).

I thought I was happy, then came the realisation, I was making everyone around me happy (but me). I was always tired, didn't take care of my own needs, it was the way I was taught, not to dream!

I've worked as a Zookeeper, Vet nurse, Personal trainer, Nutrition coach, & without a doubt I loved it all, but I felt like something was missing....

I wanted more, I wanted to leave MY mark on the world a LEGACY!

My heart desired a life of nature, animals, abundance, joy, fun, traveling family & freedom, but I wanted to look after myself too.

I didn't want to just be going through the same motions everyday, I was done, but I was terrified to take a leap...

Everyday I'd see others living out their dreams, their desires, traveling to beautiful places working all over the world, loving the life they lead....

The only thing that was stopping me was me. I had to get out of my own negative mindset....SO I did!

We have been programmed to think a certain way, from ideas & thoughts from previous generations, our environment, that we have lived in our whole lives.

Stop living the life you don't want & start living the life you do want, we are powerful human beings, we were put on this earth to grow to create.

I will show you how to catapult your life & live your wildest dreams, reset your mind. I will guide you through a simple 12 step process, that will literally change your life, in every way.

I know because I have been there & it has changed my life. I now live the life I have always dreamed.

Let's do the same for you. You will look back on your life & won't recognise yourself. Your beliefs, your thoughts & desires will change.

Allow your mind to be set free! Change the way think, change your life!

So what are you waiting for, let's together kick start you life. I believe in you, it's time you did too. LET'S GO!

Together we can breathe & let go of anything.

Welcome to your new life!

THE DIVISION 1 Match Previews

Brighton Bombers vs Port District / 8.4-52 vs 9.9-63

Port have secured a big win against the bombers away from home, seeing them off by 11 points in a thriller. Port started the game strongly, kicking three goals in the opening quarter to take a slight 5 point lead into the first break. the second saw the game stay even, with both sides kicking two goals, but the Maggies managed to still extend their lead to 8 at the main break. after the big break the game started to flow in favour of the away side, who kicked another two goals and conceded only one to extend their lead to a game high 15 points at the last interval. the Bombers attempted a late push in the final quarter kicking three goals to the away sides two, but ultimately fell just short by 11 points. it was B. McDonnel and O. Carthy who stood out for the Bombers, but it was T. Heffernan and L. Proude who stamped their authority on the game and helped their side to an all important win.

Goodwood Saints vs Adelaide University / 21.24-150 vs 5.9-39

The Saints have absolutely smashed the Blacks with little to no mercy, seeing them off by a crazy 111 points at home. The game started fairly even considering the ultimate score line with both sides finding goals in the first, but the home side were still too strong early on, kicking four goals to take a lead of 14 points into the first break. The second is when we saw the true dominance begin, with the home side kicking another three goals and conceding none to take their lead out too 37 points at the main interval. Goodwood certainly were feeling themselves at the halftime break, as they game out beaming with confidence, kicking a further six goals to extend their lead to 71 at the last break. The game seemed well and truly out of reach for the Blacks and it seemed to show in the final quarter, with the away side conceding a further eight goals too ultimately see out the game by 111 points, in a truly extraordinary performance. S. Jankewicz and B. Adams were solid in an otherwise disappointing performance for the Blacks, while N. Homburg and T. Anderson were amazing enough to stand out in a very strong side.

Prince Alfred OC vs Unley Mercedes Jets / 21.10-136 vs 6.6-42

The Reds had no surprises while seeing off a bottom placed Unley by 96 points at home. Unley needed to start this game strongly if they were to trouble the league leaders, but unfortunately for Jets fans, a fast start was no where to be found. The home side kicked three goals in the opening quarter and conceded none to take a commanding lead of 19 points at the first break. After the first break the away side managed to find goal but it was almost in vein as the Reds still out scored them kicking five goals to three to take their lead out too 30 points at the main interval. The Reds started running away with it in the third, kicking six more goals to take their lead out to a very dominant 50 points going into the final quarter. The home side managed to unrelentingly score in the final quarter, kicking a further seven goals to see out the game by 96 points and retain top position. A. Khabbaz and J. Khabbaz were both impressive for the Jets but it was L. Charlton and W. Dalwood who influenced the game beyond the reach of the Jets.

Payneham NU vs St Peters OC / 9.18-72 vs 8.7-55

Payneham have managed a BIG win at home this week, seeing off the Saints by 17 points. Payneham seemed to struggle out of the gate, kicking seven behinds and conceding two goals to face a deficit of 7 points at the first break. The Falcons managed to Claw their way back into the game in the second, kicking three goals and conceding just a point to flip the deficit and lead by 16 at the main break. The third saw both sides go blow for blow, with both sides kicking three majors for the lead to be taken down to just 14 points at the final break. Both sides again were very even in the last quarter but ultimately the missed chances on goal for Payneham paid off as they ran away 17 point winners. J. Higgins and J. Read were both impressive for the away side, while S. Baulderstone and S. Barnett inspired their side to an all important win in the context of their season.

Tea Tree Gully vs Rostrevor OC / 11.7-73 vs 6.16-52

Gullies will be beaming with joy after another huge win against tough opponents, this time a 21 point win at home to Rostrevor. The game strangely started heavily in favour of the away side, who after some impressive forward pressure found themselves ahead by 14 points at the points at the first break. The home side managed to claw their way back into the game in the second, kicking three goals and conceding just two behinds to steal a lead of 4 points going into the main break. Gullies continued their high press in the third, kicking a further two goals to take their lead out to 13 points going into the last quarter. The home side were just too strong for Rostrevor, who attempted a late comeback to no avail, ultimately going down by 21 points in a tough loss. It was D. Reinbrecht and C. Jordan who were very good for the away side, but it was B. Penney and J. Persinos who stood out amongst the rest in a very impressive home performance.

This week in Division 1

Brighton Bombers vs Rostrevor OC

Brighton play host the Rostrevor next week and will hope to bounce back after suffering a close loss last week. They come up against a side who up until last week were in solid form and will want to recapture the lightning in the bottle. Both sides seem to have a fair bit to play for in the last few weeks of the season, but despite the home ground advantage, I see Rostrevor running away 18 point winners.

Goodwood Saints vs Unley Mercedes Jets

The Saints host the Jets next week as they hope to continue their run into final weeks of the season, and luckily for the Saints, they come up against bottom of the table Unley. Because of recent form and the home ground advantage I see this going to the Saints by 34.

Port District vs St Peters OC

St Peters have to travel to too hot to handle Port this week as they look to bounce back after a rare loss last week. Port are coming off a big win so the task won't be easy for the away side. The Saints have been very solid on the road so far this season and I can see that trend sticking around. St Peters by 11 points.

Payneham NU vs Adelaide University

The Blacks have to travel to Payneham this week after suffering one of their biggest losses of the season last week. They come up against a side who will be buzzing with confidence after seeing off a very decent side last week. Two teams in completely contrasting form will be interesting to observe, but ultimately I see this going in favour of the Falcons by 26 points.

Tea Tree Gully vs Prince Alfred OC

Gullies play host to the Reds this week after a big win last weekend, the team will be certainly hoping to continue that form, but come up against the strongest team in the comp in the Reds. Although Gullies are at home, it's hard to see the Reds losing anywhere in Australia right now, because of that, Reds by 31 points.

Lost Labels Wine Company

Lost Labels Wine Company was established with a focus to support choice wineries here in South Australia. We believe that the best wines exist in cellar doors and not always on retail shelves. These wines are sometimes from boutique, lesser known wineries, or more popular and trending wineries – but our job is to find these lost labels and bring them to you!

Our online store allows winemakers to showcase their products by sending wine DIRECT TO YOU as there is nothing better than knowing that your wine is coming directly from the cellar door.

Finding Lost Labelled wines allows us to offer our customers quality wine and amazing prices.

THE DIVISION 2

Match Previews

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Plympton High & Camden 8.3 (51) def by Henley 8.14 (62)

The Sharks have pulled off one of the wins of the season as they travelled to Plympton High & Camden and knocked off the Phantoms in a narrow 11-point victory. Needing to win to give themselves every chance to play finals, Henley locked horns with the home side for much of the contest, before breaking the shackles in the last term to claim the vital road win. The win sees Henley sit a game clear in fifth place, with a win or draw next week securing a finals spot. Joel Harvey-Friel kicked three goals for the winning side, while Sean Baker was named best on ground.

Seaton 8.9 (57) def by Scotch 19.22 (136)

In the battle of the bottom feeders, Scotch produced one of the highest totals of the season, demolishing Seaton by 79 points. The visitors dominated from the get-go, getting out to a four goal lead at quarter time before extending that lead to past fifty at the main break. An inaccurate 4.11 in the last quarter preventing this contest from being a 100-point drubbing, as Jonathon Lagonik, Sean King and Max Marslen all kicked four goals each. Hugo Walter claimed best on ground honours.

Athelstone 8.14 (62) def by Sacred Heart 9.12 (66)

Sacred Heart came from behind to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat on Saturday, overcoming a 15-point three quarter time deficit to win by four points on the road. Athelstone were determined to snag the upset win, and looked to do so through three quarters, but a fourth quarter collapse saw the visitors rally to win narrowly and equal them with the Phantoms in second place. Henry McAuliffe was the best player for his side for the second time in three weeks, while also leading all goalkickers on the ground with three. The Raggies, while eliminated from finals contention, can hope for a strong finish to 2021 next week in the last round.

Salisbury North 16.9 (105) def Old Ignatians 11.8 (74)

With a slim chance at finals on the line prior to the round commencing, Salisbury North were clinical against Old Ignatians, kicking accurately en route to a 31-point win at home. Unfortunately for the home side, Henley's upset win against the Phantoms means that the Hawks are eliminated from finals contention, with just one round remaining to determine finalists and Salisbury North sitting a win and a half behind Henley. Nonetheless, they left it all out on the field on Saturday and were led by Bradly Hood (5 votes) and Jake Wagner (4 goals). Old Ignatians cannot lose fourth place, but their current form will not bode well in September, and they have one round to turn it around before finals.

Glenunga 17.7 (109) def Broadview 7.11 (53)

The Tigers finals chances hang by a thread with one round remaining, after falling to the top side Glenunga by 56 points. The loss saw Broadview's percentage drop lower than Henley's, meaning they have to win next week and hope Henley lose and drop enough percentage for the Tigers to reclaim fifth position. The Rams have been nearly faultless in 2021 so far, dropping just the one game and are primed to take home the premiership. Ten different goalkickers shaped Glenunga's game, which was aided by a six goal to one second term that blew the game open. Thomas Beard (Glenunga) and Josh Sheppard (Broadview) were their teams' respective best players.

This week in Division 2

It has all come down to this. After seventeen rounds, most of the ladder has been finalised. Glenunga will finish top, and the Phantoms, Sacred Heart and Old Ignatians will round out the top four, with positioning within that four still to be determined. However, that elusive fifth and final finals spot is up for grabs, with Henley and Broadview jockeying for the position, and based on matchups this week, it is Henley's to lose.

After last week's big loss, Broadview find themselves staring down the barrel of a 'what could've been' 2021 season. They are staring at a Mount Everest sized challenge this week. They must win against second placed Plympton High & Camden and hope Henley lose to bottom-placed Seaton, which seems almost out of the realms of possibility. The Phantoms are fresh off an upset loss and will be looking to make amends heading into September, so this will be almost Broadview's toughest game all year.

Henley are primed to play finals in 2021. They have returned to form at the right time, toppling the Phantoms on their hunting ground last week to claim fifth spot, and they face a depleted Seaton outfit who just lost to Scotch by 79 points. All the Sharks have to do is win, or draw, and they will finish fifth, and all signs are pointing towards a finals berth for Henley.

It is a potential finals matchup this week with ladder leaders Glenunga travelling to Old Ignatians to take on the fourth placed side. In the warmup to finals, both sides will be looking to take some much needed momentum into September, so it should be a good contest. I expect Glenunga to win on the road, however.

Athelstone and Salisbury North play off in a now meaningless contest, after both sides were eliminated from finals contention last week. The Hawks are in scintillating form after their big win against Old Ignatians last week, so expect a similar output this week, while the Raggies were also competitive against Sacred Heart. For a game that has no bearings on finals, this contest should be a good one.

Lastly, Scotch host Sacred Heart in a game that could determine second place. If Plympton High & Camden lose, and Sacred Heart win or draw, the latter will jump into second place heading into finals. But it won't be as easy as it looks on paper, as Scotch are coming off their biggest win of the year after kicking 136 points on 41 scoring shots in last week's trouncing of Seaton. Except another good contest to round out the home and away season for 2021.

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT... HERE'S WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY!

I've used many fish oil additives in my burley mixes over the years and this one is the best by far. Irrespective of tide movement or bite times it stimulates the fish into a feeding frenzy and provides a superior catch in record time, every time. Can't recommend these products enough - I'm truly impressed!

PETER C., SOUTH AUSTRALIA

This little oil is liquid gold! Since changing from tuna oil I've been catching more and I use it for everything now, hooks, reels, sinkers & my boat trailer. ALEX M., QUEENSLAND

We had great results over the 2 days we bagged out on whiting on both boats on day one but also caught Travally sweep salmon and Squid which were our target species. Day 2 was a dodge tide so not best conditions for fishing, but we did get whiting and more squid on that day. We did a test and between 2 boats over same reef structure one used the oil the other didn't and both had their own berley stream and the boat using the oil in the berley and bait did get more fish in far shorter time. Great weekend lots of fish and we all say Thank you! ANTHONY & THE BOYS, PT. VIC

Just had a nice trip away, garfish went nuts using the oil, we cleaned up. Quite impressive we had them swimming around our legs using the oil they were quite keen on it! SHANE, FISHINGSA MAGAZINE

Jacob Matheson gives his match previews for this weeks matches

THE DIVISION 3 Match Previews

Flinders Park v North Haven

North Haven remain on top of the ladder after a stirring 79-point victory on the road against Flinders Park at Flinders Park over the weekend. The 21.14 140 to 7.19 61 display sees the Magpies ensured the minor premiership for 2021. Josh Smithson led the way early on for the visitors, kicking the opening two goals of the match to help the Magpies take a 23-point lead into quarter time. Flinders Park, had its opportunities in the first quarter but could only manage to kick one goal from seven scoring shots. North Haven extended their lead out to 57-points at half time after piling on six goals to zero. Josh Smithson had three goals to his name up to half time and Mark Rowe, who kicked two in a minute, also had three himself. Dakota Nixon kicked Flinders Park's only goal in the first half. Things didn't get anything better after half-time for Flinders Park as North Haven continued on their merry way and by the mid way point of the final term had opened up a hundred point lead. Late goals to the Reds help add a little respect to the score line. Daniel Blythe finished with three of the Red's seven goals, whereas for North Haven, Mark Rowe (six goals) and Josh Smithson (four goals) combined for 10 of the 21 goals kicked. North Haven were dominate in every factor and deserved the victory. However, for Luke Ivens and his troops, their in ability to convert, especially early in the contest ended any real hope they might have had. With the defeat, Flinders Park now fall to 11-6 and sit in fourth spot and have lost three matches in a row since the statewide lockdown and find themselves in real danger of falling out of finals contention altogether if they were to lose in the final round of the season. North Haven, on the other hand, have won seven games in a row, and are clearly the in-form team of the competition. Mark Rowe's six-goal haul was enough for him to be named best on ground. Dakota Nixon was named as Flinders best player on the ground.

Golden Grove v Edwardstown

Golden Grove have sewn up a top-two finish with a 53-point victory over Edwardstown at Harpers Field over the weekend. The 18.15 123 to 10.10 70 result sees the Kookaburras guaranteed to finish in second position and a probable match-up with Gaza in week one of the finals. Golden Grove got out to a four goal lead early in the first term and never really looked back adding a further six goals in the second term to lead by 52 points at the main break. An eleven goal to three first half was all Golden Grove would need as the game was well and truly over at half time. The third term was a more even contest as eight goals were kicked, with both sides kicking four goals each with Edwardstown winning the quarter by four points to reduce the margin to 48 with one quarter left to be played. Brayden Shaw (six) and Judd Morris (four) were excellent for the home side as they combined for 10 of their teams 18 goals kicked. Jack Horgan (three) and Andrew Hyland (three) combined for six of Edwardstown's ten goals as they now fall to 8 and 9 having lost 3 of their last 5 and 9 of their last 13 since they began the season 4-0. Rickey O'Loughlin (Edwardstown) and Samuel Rentsch (Golden Grove) were named their respective teams best players.

Westminster v Portland

Westminster improves to 5-12 after a massive percentage-boosting 208-point victory over tenth placed Portland at Port Reserve on Saturday, winning 33.19 217 to 1.3 9. Aaron Fiekle was the main standout with his second eight-goal haul of the season against the Thunder, bringing his total to 47 with one round left to play. Carl Grosser and Blake Read kicked five goals each while Riley Wilsdon snagged six as the Dragons recorded their biggest score of the season. The win all but ensures that Westminster will survive another season in division 3 as they have a game and a massive percentage gap on Plympton heading into the final round. For Portland the season doesn't get any better as they fall to 0-17 and have now conceded 30 or more goals in a game this season eight time. After nine goals last week, this is Portland's second time they have been held to only one goal in a game this season with John Kondellos as the sole goal scorer for the Thunder. On a positive note, Max Buckley was named the best player, while Brock Mcfarlane was best on ground for Westminster.

Gaza v Plympton

Finals bound Gaza picked up their seventh win in a row after downing Plympton by 36 points at Klemzig Oval on the weekend. The 13.11 89 to 8.5 53 victory is Gaza's twelfth on the season and see them sit in third position one game and percentage clear of Flinders Park. In a tight first half, the Eagles and Bulldogs were closely matched with the home side leading by only five points at quarter time before the visitors were able to level the scores at 26 apiece going into half time. A 5-goal performance by Benjamin Beioley set up a massive six-goal to zero third quarter as the Eagles were able to kick away after half time finishing with a nine goal second half while also managing to hold the Bulldogs to four final quarter goals. Todd Culley booted three goals for Gaza in the victory. Tyran Hill was Gaza's best player and Brayden Hayes was the best for Plympton who was well supported by a three-goal haul to Heath Deer. For Plympton, it is their thirteenth defeat of the season and they would now require a miracle to avoid relegation as they sit a game and over five percent behind eight placed Westminster with one game to come. As for Gaza they meet North Haven next week as they prepare for a likely match-up with Golden Grove in the finals.

Modbury v CBC Old Collegians

Round 17 concluded with Modbury running away with a 25-point victory at Modbury Sports Reserve against CBC Old Collegians on Saturday afternoon. The 15.5 95 to 10.10 70 result sees Modbury improve to 10-7 and still with a slim chance of making finals and leap frogging a slumping Flinders Park should results go their way. In what was a tightly contested first half, the Hawks led at quarter-time by four points before the Dolphins fought back to cut the deficit to one point at half-time. Modbury started to get on top in the second half kicking seven goals to three to secure the victory. Modbury's Liam Verity now has 12 goals in his last two matches after recording back-to-back hauls of six goals bringing his season total to 50. It was also his fifth game where he has kicked five goals or more on the season. Dan Horsnell and Daniel Kaipara were the only other multiple goal kickers in the game for the Hawks with them each kicking two goals. Timothy Dacey was as excellent as he has been all year and his efforts were so good that he was named the best player for the Hawks, his first for of the season. Zac Butler (three goals) and Oliver Megins (two goals) were the only multiple goal scorers for the Dolphins who now fall to 6-11. Matthew Raymond's efforts didn't go unrewarded as, for the fourth time in 2021, he was named the Dolphins best.

This week in Division 3

As we enter the final round of the Division 3 season, in what has been quite possibly one of the tightest and closest seasons in terms of 1st to 5th. The results from 2 of the 5 matches this week could still determine who plays who and where in the first week of finals beginning on Friday September 3rd.

Westminster v Modbury

Westminster return home to Eagle Drones Oval at Glandore for their final game of season 2021 when they take on Modbury. The Hawks are coming off of a 25-point victory of CBC Old Collegians at Modbury Sports Reserve last round and will be looking to register their eleventh victory of the season. The Hawks can still play finals but first must win and then hope that Edwardstown defeat Flinders Park. Should the Hawks miss the finals they can look back at their patchy start to the season where they lost their opening two games and have had play catch-up with the top teams even since. Westminster are coming off a big victory themselves, having soundly defeated lowly Portland by 208 points to register their fifth win of the season, whilst also going along way to ensure they remain in division 3 for 2022. The last time these two sides met, which was back in Round 7, it saw Modbury run out 59 point winners. For Modbury, destiny may not be in their own hands, but they must do their bit and win.

Modbury by 54 points.

CBC Old Collegians v Golden Grove

Having locked in second spot last round, Golden Grove travel to East Parklands to take on CBC Old Collegians when the two meet for the final minor round game of 2021. The Kookaburras were victorious last round, downing Edwardstown by 53-points and will be looking to have one last tune up before finals as they prepare to defend their title. The Dolphins will be looking to finish the season on a high, as disappointing performances over the last fortnight. Back in Round 7 when these two sides last met, Golden Grove ran rings around CBC, winning by 125 points. Golden Grove are the clear cur favourites heading into this one. Golden Grove by 73 points.

Portland v Plympton

Plympton return home to Plympton Oval to welcome Portland. Both teams are coming off of defeats, with Plympton losing to Gaza by six goals after sticking with them and even leveling the scores at halftime, whereas the Thunder were held to only one goal the entire match as they were soundly beaten by Westminster to the tune of 208 points. A win for Plympton will be their fifth as they look to end what has been a very disappointing season on a high. For Portland, a victory will be their first of the season and their first in over a year in what can only be described as a rather disappointing campaign. Besides last week, the two weeks prior to that Portland had been improving and had managed to kick 15 goals across two games with their nine goals kicked in round 16, the most they have kicked all year. Last time these sides met was back in Round 7 which saw Plympton win by 120 points. Plympton enter this match as the favourites and will look to bounce back and end their season with a win.

Plympton by 120 points.

Flinders Park v Edwardstown

It all comes down to this, it's quite simple really, a win for Flinders Park and they will finish fourth and will be playing finals, but if they lose and Modbury win, then a once promising season will come to very abrupt and disappointing finish for the Reds. The fourth placed Flinders Park will travel to Edwardstown Oval to take on sixth placed Edwardstown with knowledge that they must win. The Reds will be looking to bounce back after being totally outplayed in all aspects of the game by rampant North Haven, as they were defeated by 79 points. Edwardstown, on the other hand, will be looking to improve to 9-6 and finish their season on a high, having entered this match having lost the last 3 games, including a 53-point defeat at the hands of Golden Grove last week. After starting the season off on the back of four straight wins, Edwardstown have lost their way and will be desperate for a win and to set a foundation for 2022. Last time these two sides met was back in Round 7 at Flinders Park when the home side won by 10 points in a Saturday thriller under lights. Over the last two weeks Flinders Park have been destroyed in centre clearances and will need to reverse this, if they hope to climb out of their recent form slump. Despite that, they go into the game slight favourites and should be able to get the job done and gain some much-needed confidence heading into finals.

Flinders Park by 16 points.

North Haven v Gaza

The final round of the home and away season ends with what could possibly be a Grand Final Preview between the two in-form sides of the competition. North Haven, who are coming off of a massive 79-point victory over Flinders Park on the road last week will return home to Largs North Reserve to face a gritty Gaza side who, just like the Magpies, have won their last seven games including a 36 point victory over Plympton at Klemzig Oval last week. A win for North Haven will see them improve to 16-2 having already claimed the minor premiership last round. A win would see them head into to the finals with all the momentum and the red-hot premiership favourites. While, a victory for Gaza would silence any doubters and see them full of confidence heading into the second Preliminary Final against Golden Grove. North Haven have been the dominate team for most of the season and this was on full display last week against Flinders Park, while Gaza may not have been as dominate, however they have shown plenty of grit and the ability to fight and scape to the very end. The last time these two played against one another was in Round 7 when the Magpies walked out Klemzig Oval, 19 point winners after trailing early in the last quarter. While both sides are ensured of finals, momentum heading into finals is huge and neither side will want to drop this one, so you can expect this to be a tight contest, that will go down to the wire. This has all the hall marks of a traditional match of the round and potentially challenge for match of the year status. North Haven are the favourites in this one, only because of home field advantage, but do not count out Gaza, they are strong and will be looking to dampen the momentum of North Haven all the while, continuing their own.

North Haven by 2 points.

THE DIVISION 4 Match Previews

Kilburn v Hope Valley

Hope Valley have kept their slim finals hopes alive, dismantling Kilburn by 113 points at Blair Athol Reserve. Needing as much percentage as possible to try and move into fourth spot, the Demons shot out of the blocks to take 64-point lead into halftime and a six goal to one third term saw the lead extend to 97 points at three quarter time. Kilburn showed some fight in the final term, but it was not enough to stop the Hope Valley onslaught. Jayke Hellmanns was the star for the Demons, bagging ten goals while Jai Kovatseff put through four goals in his second A grade game of the season. William Riddle and Ben Carabott were once again amongst the Demon's best in a win that sits them less than 1% below fourth placed SMOSH West Lakes. For Kilburn, Jacob Manson was the sides only multiple goal scorer with two majors while Brayden Ley was best afield in another dirty day for the Magpies who are now certain to finish with the wooden spoon. Hope Valley will need another big win when they host Mitcham and will also be hoping for a massive upset when Kilburn travel to face SMOSH West Lakes.

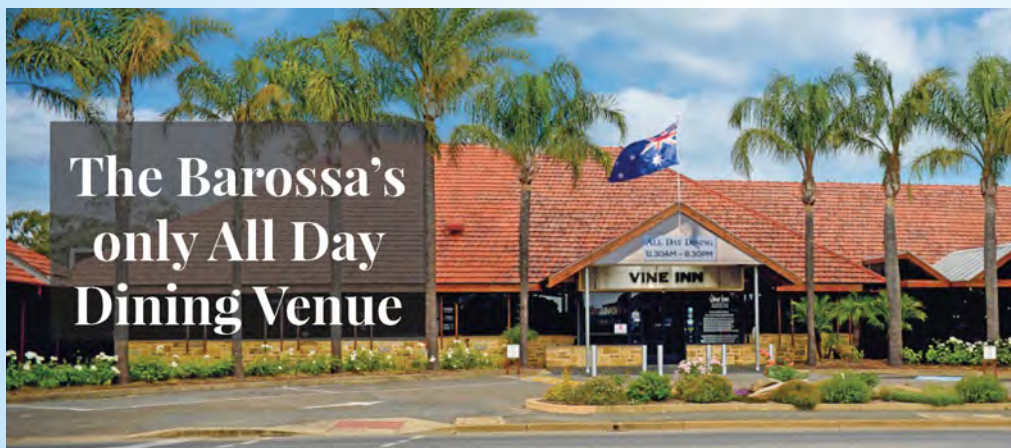

Pembroke OS v SMOSH West Lakes

SMOSH West Lakes have one foot in the finals after upsetting ladder leaders Pembroke OS by 21 points at Haslam Oval. The match started perfectly for Pembroke as Alex Forster calmly slotted his 100th goal of the season in front of a vocal home crowd. Despite the early momentum the Lions kept up with Pembroke, even taking a slender three-point lead into quarter time. The arm wrestle continued in the second term before the Lions broke the game open in the third term, kicking four goals to one and taking a 18-point lead into three quarter time. In a tense final term, the Kings had their moments, but SMOSH were just too strong, clinching a win that leaves them just one win away from a finals berth. Austin Mahney once again hit the scoreboard for the Lions with four goals and received plenty of support from Cohen Mattner's three goals. Rhys Lovering was strong, and Sam Fairclough continued his strong run of form in his sides fifth win in the last six rounds. For the Kings, Alex Forster was held to four goals while Heath Rusby and Charles Canney both battled hard in the loss. Pembroke travel to face Morphetville Park while SMOSH welcome Kilburn as they try to secure the last spot in the finals.

Mitcham v Woodville South

Woodville have kept their chances of staying in Division Four alive, officially ending Mitcham's season with a 24-point victory at Thomas Farms Oval. After a low scoring first term saw just one goal apiece, Woodville took control in the second term, kicking three goals to one and taking a 15-point lead into halftime. the Third term was another arm wrestle as the Hawks reduced the lead to two goals and looked on top after kicking the first two goals of the final term to retake the lead. However, from there it was all Woodville as the visitors kicked five of the last six goals of the match to secure a crucial victory. Camreon Bell was once again the standout for Woodville as the star forward managed five goals alongside a two-goal effort from Jackson Hames. Jake McCulloch and Nicholas Mitzithras both delivered outstanding performances in Woodville's fifth win of the year. For Mitcham, Maxwell Smyth booted home four goals while Lachlan Hall and Lachlan Robert both tried their best but could not stop another disappointing loss for a Hawks outfit who will be disappointed with the way their season ended. They will hope to go out on a good note when they travel to face Hope Valley while Woodville host Gepps Cross with the loser being relegated to Division Five.

Walkerville v Morphettville Park

Morphettville Park have missed a golden opportunity to make claim at the minor premierships, going down to Walkerville by 32 points at Walkerville Recreation Ground. Seemingly out of form the Cats started strong, kicking five goals to two and taking a 22- point lead into quarter time. The Roo's hit back in the second term to tighten the contest and reduced the lead to just two points in the third term before Walkerville once again broke away to take a three-goal lead into the final change. The Roo's challenged early in the final term but it was to no avail as Walkerville ran away with the win in what will be a semi-final match up in two weeks time. Adam Proud returned to form with a five-goal performance while Benjamin Walter and Paul Spilios put through two goals apiece. Tyler Wagner impressed while Daniel Woolford was once again best afield for the Cats. For Morphettville, Kye Dean and Matthew Duldig both kicked three goals while Corey Gregson and Lewis Lean were once again amongst the Roos's best. Morphettville Park will welcome Pembroke OS in a top of the table clash while Walkerville will hope to back up their strong performance when they travel to face Pulteney.

Gepps Cross v Pulteney

Pulteney have snapped an eight-game losing streak and lifted them out of relegation danger, defeating Gepps Cross by nine points at Duncan Fraser Reserve. In an exhilarating first half the Blues got out to a 26-point halftime lead before the Rams hit back, kicking six goals to one in the third term to retake a four-point lead. With the winner safe from relegation, both teams struggled to take full advantage of their opportunities in front of goal with the Blues doing just enough, kicking three goals to one to ensure they remain in Division Four for another season. Alex Forbes put through five goals for Pulteney while Mitch Tippet (3 goals) and Brad Sipek (2 goals) both hit the scoreboard. Samuel Czabayski impressed, and Damien Hill delivered a strong performance in the win. For Gepps Cross, Phillip Disibio and Jarred Clark-Rantasa both put through four majors while Daniel Mason backed up his strong performance last week with another magnificent outing. Gepps Cross travel to face Woodville with the winner staying in Division Four for another season while Pulteney will look to finish their season off strongly when they hoist Walkerville.

This week in Division 4

Hope Valley v Mitcham

Hope Valley welcome Mitcham to Hope Valley Oval, the Demons finals hopes still alive by the barest of margins. To make finals, Valley need to win and hope SMOSH West Lakes somehow lose to Kilburn or make up a percentage gap of around seven goals on the fourth placed Lions. The last time the two teams faced off the Hawks recorded a 27-point win but with the season on the line I expect the Demons to get a strong win and give themselves a chance at finals action. Hope Valley by 31 points.

Morphettville Park v Pembroke OS

Morphettville Park and Pembroke OS face off in a top of the table clash at Kellett Reserve. Both teams are coming off disappointing losses, with Morphettville unable to take advantage of Pembroke's loss to give themselves a shot at the minor premiership. Morphettville would need a massive victory to overtake the King's on percentage and it seems near impossible in what should be a tightly fought contest. Look for a goalkicking masterclass from Alex Forster as Pembroke get up in a close one. Pembroke OS by 7 points.

Pulteney v Walkerville

Pulteney host Walkerville at Morgan Oval with the Blues fresh off a nine-point win that snapped an eight-game losing streak and saved them from relegation danger. Walkerville have also come off a strong win against Morphettville Park as the Cats look to regain some of their early season form before their finals campaign. The last time these two sides met it was Walkerville that got up by 11-points and in a game that does not mean much for Pulteney I expect the margin to be much greater this time around. Walkerville by 41 points.

Woodville South v Gepps Cross

Woodville South and Gepps Cross meet at The Stable Oval in a contest that will decide who remains in Division Four for the 2022 season. Both teams sit equal on points and the loser will join Kilburn in dropping down to Division Five. The two sides come into the matchup in different veins of form with Woodville getting a strong win over Mitcham while Gepps Cross went down to a struggling Pulteney side. The last time these two sides met Gepps Cross got a 5-point win in a thrilling contest but this time around I expect Woodville South to get up and save their season. Woodville South by 13 points.

SMOSH West Lakes v Kilburn

Everything is on the line for SMOSH West Lakes as they welcome Kilburn to West Lakes Shore Oval. The equation is simple for the Lions, win by a comfortable margin and SMOSH is finals bound after a strong second half of the season. They don't get a much better opportunity than against the wooden spoon bound Kilburn who are coming off their fourth loss of 100 points or more against Hope Valley. The last time these two teams met it was a 71-point win the way of the Lions and coming off a win against ladder leaders Pembroke it is hard to see this result going any other way as the Lions book their spot in finals. SMOSH West Lakes by 91 points.

West Croydon v Lockleys

The dismal West Croydon run has continued, after Lockleys walloped them by 152 points. Lockleys climbed up to third on the ladder, remaining in touch with ladder leaders Pooraka and Eastern Park. The win was a statement victory for the Demons, as they announced themselves as a genuinely dominant team, never giving their opponents a sniff all day. Lockleys came out early and dominated, completely controlling the tempo. They managed to pile on eight goals, meanwhile West Croydon could only respond with two. The second quarter was much of the same story, as West Croydon struggled their way through. The Hawks had limited chances but failed to capitalise on these, registering only three behinds for the quarter. The second half was identical to the first, as Lockleys continued to apply heavy scoreboard pressure.

M. Ransom booted seven to outshine his teammate S. Gatis who kicked six. L McDonald was all class for the Demons, dictating play and finding plenty of the Sherrin.

Fitzroy v Eastern Park

Fitzroy's season has come to a disappointingly winless end, as Eastern Park handed them a 112-point defeat. The Lions were spirited all day but lacked polish with the ball. A slow start was highly costly, as Eastern Park asserted their dominance early. The Demons held the Lions goalless in the first quarter before booting eight second quarter goals to storm out to a 77-point lead at half time. Fitzroy played a far more intense brand of football in the third quarter, holding Eastern Park to three goals. The Demons wrestled back most of their momentum in the final term, as they kicked five straight to finish on a strong note. The margin could have been far less if the Lions had been more precise in front of goal, as they finished the day with 3.8. K. Sumner kicked a five-goal bag for the Demons and was well supplied by N. McIver through the middle. The win sees Eastern Park hold down second spot.

Pooraka v Salisbury

Salisbury have bombed out of finals contention after a devastating loss against Pooraka by 131 points. The Magpies were never within reach of the Bulls, who were on an absolute roll. The Bulls had all the momentum, even at the first bounce. Pooraka booted seven majors to Salisbury's one to surge ahead early. Scoring slowed in the second quarter for the Bulls however, Salisbury failed to make any in-roads into the margin, kicking four behinds for the quarter. Pooraka quickly played themselves out of this second quarter slump, booting nine in the third term, meanwhile Salisbury were held goalless again. Pooraka continued their dominance in the fourth quarter to run out an impressive win in what will certainly send a message to the other sides as finals approaches fast. L. Buckby sees himself sitting atop the leading goalkickers list after a seven-goal bag, meanwhile F. Timpano continued his commanding form for the Bulls.

Colonel Light Gardens v Hectorville

Hectorville have sent shockwaves around the division after a massive upset against the out-of-form Colonel Light Gardens, running out 22-point victors. The Lions slip to fifth on the ladder, equal on points with third and fourth, although their percentage is not favourable. The final round of the season is poised to be a thriller. The Hounds are very much a spirited team but unexpectedly started the game complacent. The Lions edged ahead of the Hounds by 21 points by the quarter time rolled around, with the home side looking very comfortable. The Hounds lifted in the second term, reducing the deficit to 16 points at half time. Hectorville really turned it on for the third quarter, booting the first three of the quarter before adding another two goals after a single Colonel Light Gardens major. The Hounds led by 11 points at the final break and had all the momentum going into the fourth quarter. They continued to surge, kicking another three goals to put the Lions' finals hopes into shambles. L. Kent showed out for the Hounds meanwhile L. Falco led the forward line with an impressive six majors.

This week in Division 5

Eastern Park v Pooraka

The clash between Eastern Park and Pooraka has shaped up to be match of the season, especially in the context of the season. The winner of this one will claim top spot and will face off against fourth in the first week of finals in the revised format. The brand of the football both sides play is high intensity and high scoring as demonstrated by the fact these two have registered the most points for in the division. When they met earlier in the season, the match was free flowing and high scoring as the Bulls rolled the Demons by a comfortable margin of 31 points. I expect the Demons to be absolutely relishing this opportunity and will get out to a lightning start early. Pooraka won't ever lie down though, and I think they'll peg them back and eventually, run over the top of them to claim top spot. Pooraka by 22 points.

Lockleys v Kenilworth

Lockleys and Kenilworth will be playing for their spot in finals when they meet this Saturday, with a win guaranteeing a top four position. The pair currently both sit in the top four, with Lockleys third and Kenilworth fourth, although they are both level on points with Colonel Light Gardens who have a favourable fixture this weekend. This should be a cracking match, with both sides having everything to play for. Lockleys have simply been top quality after their shaky start and will be hoping to string together another top-notch four quarter performance. The Kookaburras have easily been the most entertaining side this year, playing out multiple thrillers and scoring a mixed bag of results. The Kookaburras are always a bit of a wildcard and Lockleys' recent form slump against the better oppositions leaves tippers with a very hard decision. Ultimately, this game will come down to composure and I think the Demons will be the calmer of the two sides. Lockleys by 3 points.

Salisbury v Colonel Light Gardens

Colonel Light Gardens have it all to do in their final match of the regular season against Salisbury, with the Lions sitting outside of the top four by percentage.

against Salisbury, with the Lions sitting outside of the top four by percentage. The Lions had a scintillating run of form through the middle part of the season, where they knocked off some of the competition's best sides, catapulting themselves to the top of the ladder. A recent dip in form has cost them dearly, as in two weeks they've slipped from first to fifth. A win should guarantee them finals footy however, a win against Salisbury will certainly be a tough ask. The Magpies have been quite inconsistent but have shown flashes of greatness. Salisbury's loss in their last fixture ruled them out of finals so they'll be hoping to shake up the division and crush the Lions' hopes of finals football. The Magpies are a very well drilled, defensive unit and this resilience could really trouble the attacking-minded Colonel Light Gardens. This another tough matchup and it could really go either way, especially considering how close the reverse fixture was, with four points proving the difference. The Lions have been far more consistent this year and I think their desperation to continue their season beyond this week will carry them over the line.

Colonel Light Gardens by 8 points.

Hectorville v West Croydon

Hectorville and West Croydon will go into the weekend with little to play for, as both sides will be unable to move up or down the ladder. The game will be a consolation, an opportunity to finish the season on a good note. Hectorville have been right around the mark in recent weeks, scoring huge upsets against Pooraka and Colonel Light Gardens, whilst getting agonisingly close to Kenilworth. The Hounds are up and about and will run over the top of this West Croydon outfit if the Hawks are even slightly complacent. West Croydon have offered little resistance to their opponents in recent weeks, losing by an average margin of 157 points. The Hawks can play some classy football but lack the heart and desire of a truly threatening team. They will likely get rolled again, especially since the Hounds have their tails up. Hectorville by 112 points.

THE DIVISION 6 Match Previews

Elizabeth v Trinity OS

Elizabeth have rounded out their minor season with yet again a stellar display against Trinity, with a ten-goal win, capping off an unbeaten season. In the first versus second clash, the game was expected to be a tight one and it lived up to hype in the first half. The margin was just two points at quarter time and would only be extended to seven points at the main break. However, Elizabeth took full control in the second half as they've done all year, with a five goal to one third term backed up by an eight goal to four quarter, helping them to run out as 60-point winners. There was an even spread of goalkickers for Elizabeth throughout the day, however, none performed better than Kurtis Shaw and Stephen James each kicking four goals as Elizabeth had nine individual goal kickers throughout the afternoon. Usual suspects Jarrod Upton and Blake Mitchell found lots of the ball and were key to the win yet again, leading the votes for their side along with Shaw. Meanwhile, for the Lions, Alistair Walling was the focal point up forward booting three goals, while Stefan Cavallaro and Cam Hankinson fought valiantly all day earning best afield for their side. The loss leaves Trinity in a real battle for second place with St. Pauls in their semi-final preview next weekend.

Mawson Lakes v Marion

Mawson Lakes have claimed their second win with a thrilling four-point victory over an inaccurate Marion side. The match started well with four goals apiece and just a three-point lead to Marion standing between the two sides. In the second quarter, Mawson Lakes played their best football of the season, piling on seven goals to three, allowing them to hold a 17-point lead at the main break. The Rams were extremely costly in the third term recording ten behinds, however they did also kick three goals to one to hold a four-point lead at the final break. The final quarter was a tight tussle with three goals to two as the Saints did enough with the support of their home crowd, recording win number two in season 2021. Daimon Barrow was electric for Mawson Lakes with four goals, while Ben Durrant also played his best game of the season with three majors. Jason Mattner and Chris Haydon also found plenty of the ball, while Jack Parfitt's breakout season also continued with an outstanding effort. For the Rams, Tim Stewart tried his best up forward for his side with five goals, and Bryan Sienes also kicked two, along with several individual goal-kickers. Brett Schultz fought valiantly for his side, while Liam Kerrison also fought hard in the defeat. Mawson Lakes are already confirmed for relegation, while Marion could potentially fall somewhere between fifth and seventh in the final round.

Para Hills v Rosewater

Rosewater have secured their safety in division six for next season, on the back of a 20-point win over fellow relegation battlers Para Hills at The Paddocks. Rosewater was forced to come from behind to win this clash after trailing by two goals at the first break. In the second quarter, Rosewater kicked into gear and and piled on five goals to one and hold a 14-point lead at the main break. The third quarter was a tight tussle and with the margin under three goals the game was there for the taking, before Rosewater controlled play and ran away victors in a gutsy win. Both Jackson Morrish and Josh Mulady were the keys to victory for the Bulldogs with three apiece, as well as Daniel Warren and Khaleb Warren each kicking two. Forward Eric Rigney was the best for the Dogs as he proved a presence and despite only kicking one goal, took some important marks around the ground, while midfielder Scott Friend followed closely as he continues upon his hot streak of form, gathering second best for his side. For the Kangaroos, Dan Weetra was the spearhead of the attack with five goals, as Steven Willment also kicked four, doing everything possible to give their side victory. Lynton Power also fought valiantly in the defeat, however it wasn't enough, as the Kangaroos now have a must win clash in the final round of the season to secure their safety in division six for season 2022.

St Pauls OS v Ingle Farm

St Pauls have given themselves a serious chance at a top two finish in season 2021, following a stunning twelve goal win to send Ingle Farm further into a relegation battle in their final round matchup against cellar dwellers Mawson Lakes. The first quarter was very low scoring with a two goal to nil quarter in favour of the home side. The second quarter appeared to be far freer flowing as they kicked four goals to two to hold a 28-point lead at the main break. The third quarter followed the trend of the previous quarter and held a 40-point lead at the final change. However, it was the final quarter where St. Pauls took full control with seven goals to two to run away 72-point victors in front of their home fans at Thebarton Oval. Ben Lennon was the star of the show for the home side as he booted six goals, with Matt Pedlington the only other individual goal-kicker for the victors, with two majors. Both Riley Henriks and Nikolas Papaioannou continued their terrific form and were pivotal to the victory, while Andrew Kambach was also brilliant for his side. For Marion, both Cody Catchpole and Jamahl Milera made the most of their opportunities with two each while both Daniel Coscia and Dan Tanczos staked their claim for their sides Best & Fairest awards, fighting hard in the defeat.

This week in Division 6

Rosewater v Blackfriars OS

In a clash that has no major finals or relegation implications, Rosewater will complete their season by welcoming Blackfriars to Eric Sutton Oval who are fresh off the bye in their final game of the home and away season before facing Elizabeth in the first week of the finals next week. I expect a big win for Blackfriars on the eve of finals, in what should be a confidence boosting victory.

Prediction: Blackfriars OS by 51 points.

Ingle Farm v Mawson Lakes

Ingle Farm have a must win clash against Mawson Lakes this week, in what currently shapes up as a division seven preview. Ingle Farm will need to win big to have any chance at securing safety as well as needing Marion to have a big win over Para Hills which would send them into the relegation zone. I predict Ingle Farm to end up being relegated, however, they should give it a red hot go and come away big winners in front of their home crowd at Rowe Park.

Prediction: Ingle Farm by 66 points.

Marion v Para Hills

Marion has the opportunity to claim fifth spot on the ladder for season 2021 when they take on Para Hills who have everything to play for on Saturday Afternoon at Sturt Oval. As previously mentioned, a big win for Ingle Farm and a big loss for Para Hills could remarkably see them fall below the Bulldogs and be relegated to division seven for 2022. I expect Marion to claim victory, but not by enough to send the Kangaroos into the relegation zone in what will be the final clash for the season for both sides.

Prediction: Marion by 38 points.

Trinity OS v St Pauls OS

In a top four clash, second and third will be decided when Trinity welcomes a red-hot St Pauls side to its fortress in Gawler in what is the match of the round. Both sides have had incredibly similar seasons, currently sitting with three losses and just 0.33 percent separating the two sides. It is effectively a finals preview for next week as no matter the result these sides will face off in next week's cutthroat semi-final. I expect the Lions to win in a tight clash which could perhaps see some players rested before next week's final.

Prediction: Trinity OS by 4 points.

THE DIVISION 7 Match Previews

Adelaide Lutheran vs Central United

With the onset of spring just upon us the ladder leading Doggies from Central United ventured into the city to take on Adelaide Lutheran Doggies in an important dog fight for the 2 points on the doorstep of the finals in what was perfect conditions for football. The first quarter with some real heat on the ball carrier meant for a game of pressure and trying to get it forward as quickly as you can type battle and Adelaide Lutheran more than matched the contested ball situations thru Ashley Goodall and Corey White in the midfield of their higher ranked opponent giving them a slight 13 point lead on the scoreboard but more importantly gave them belief they can compete. The 2nd quarter was again a fast pressure style that both teams made errors with ball in hand and turnovers costing them on the rebound and when the half time siren sounded only 6 points separated the sides. After half time Central United evened the scores that seemed to help the contest to go to another level again and execution of ball skills from Lutheran to get the ball to the tall forwards in Rowan Miegel and Sam Braidwood who took their opportunities and set up a 24 point 3/4 time lead which was always going to make them hard to beat from there, and while Mark Garner, Brayden Abbott and Shaun Gatto battled hard for Central United they seemed to lack the potency when they went forward with an injury to forward Darrell McIntyre giving Lutheran the ball across half back which they used effectively to continue to score and run out surprisingly 42 point winners in the end and all but secure themselves a finals spot.

Flinders University vs Greenacres

Flinders University's miracle of making finals was to be a difficult task and facing the Greenacres side in the form they have been in recent weeks always meant a fast start was key to success and with the pressure of the Dragons testing the Crabs from the start Flinders' turnovers once again hurt them. Greenacres are always dangerous with ball in hand and made better use with the ball once again giving them a 23 point lead at quarter time and with the same pattern emerging in the 2nd quarter the game as a contest was all but over by half time as the Dragons had opened up 49 point lead but it was more the way they completely shut down the Crabs ball movement which gave no indication of a comeback. Paul Merritt, Jack Mau, Ben Clarke and Aaron Hudson the Dragons with the recognition but it was a full team defensive effort that the Crabs couldn't break down and by 3/4 time a 66 point margin. Douglas Hudson, Blake Trigg and Jake Bradley kept battling away all day for Flinders but they were never really in the contest from the start as Greenacres completely owned the match running out winners by 77 pts and finally finishing Flinders thoughts of finals.

Hackham vs Houghton

A beautiful winter's day at Hackham with almost near perfect conditions for football as Houghton travelled to secure 2 points while trying to qualify for finals also needing a big win to help percentage and other results to go their way. All was on track early as the Raiders midfield took control of the contest and kicked clear by 25 points at quarter time. Quarter time break meant the Hawks were able to sort their midfield structures out and become more competitive in the 2nd term and with the hard running Luke Allan, Jeremy Cross and Jarred Shaw all lifting their work rate the Hawks become more balanced making it an arm wrestle for the 2nd quarter and an even contest with both sides getting their share of possession. Houghton were 24 point half time leaders and with work to do in the 2nd half they again started well again after the break and with clearances seemingly all their way through the work of Dylan Brooks and Kodi Sparks and while captain Matthew Sharpe led his team well across half back it went on to set them up for a 39 point 3/4 time lead. Hackham continued to battle the game out in the last quarter with Hawks Thomas Wilson finishing with 3 goals the Raiders kept the Hawks always at an arm's length away throughout the last quarter although unable to pile on the goals like they would've liked to get the percentage booster still happy to run out winners by 47 points, But with a win by Adelaide Lutheran it may well of put a nail in the Raiders season for 2021.

OSB Lonsdale vs Brahma Lodge

OSB Lonsdale hosted the Brahma Lodge Tigers on Saturday at Lonsdale and with results in season 2021 the way they have been the Lions competing for the victory was always a difficult argument to make with personnel and availability of players stretched to maximum capacity already add in they were up against a fully energetic running Brahma Lodge side and with a warmer winters day than normal on offer for players and spectators the Lions actually began the match competitively enough although at quarter time the Tigers led by 34 points without really raising a sweat and similarly in the 2nd qtr when the tigers had extended their lead out to 65 points without really getting out of first gear and Lonsdale with John and Mark Andrews and Nicholas Woda battling away hard for their side appeared to be competitive enough although 11 goals down at half time kept the teams apart. Brahma Lodge knowing their first half was below their intensity and pressure they've shown this season lifted and with midfielders Jackson Thompson and Dene Steele winning majority of possession Jack Scott and Eric Mendes up forward were able to execute more efficiently in a 10 goal to nil quarter more like the Tigers we know and 129 point 3/4 time lead which meant the game fizzled out and the Tigers run amok in the last quarter while to Lonsdale's credit they were able to hit the scoreboard at least a few times and get some reward for effort. Brahma Lodge coasting in for a 181 point victory and tuning up nicely with finals around the corner.

This week in Division 7

Unless OSB Lonsdale find a core group of players available for Saturday the finals outlook appears settled as Adelaide Lutheran set up their season with a massive victory against Central United signalling all 4 teams in the finals can potentially become 2021 Division 7 premiers.

3/4 predictions and Lutheran with probably the upset of the year to date as they announced themselves as contenders 2 weeks out.

Match of the Round

Brahma Lodge vs Mitchell Park

A 4 point Mitchell Park win last time these 2 teams played in round 7 and with the Tigers a week away from finals and Mitchell Park needing to win this game and hope for a Lonsdale miracle to help their chances another cracking contest is in the making at Brahma Lodge oval this Saturday. An 181 point tune up victory for the Tigers last week and with their run and pressure style it always put themselves in the contest. Player/ Coach Dene Steele and Jackson Thompson in the midfield will again be looking to get the game on their terms at contested ball situations and give Forwards Eric Hem-Mendes and Jack Scott first opportunity to put scoreboard pressure on for their side and the Tigers are always dangerous with a head of steam and momentum for any opponent to stop. Mitchell Park can't be distracted by what they need to happen in other results and just concentrate on the mammoth task at hand, which they have already shown once this year and that they can beat the Tigers and through the experience of Brandon Walczak and Adam Halime to guide them and key players Angus Mugg and Jay Butler-Chaseling to win contested ball situations the Lions have shown in patches throughout season 2021 they can match it with any opponent but consistency in effort and availability of players sees them teetering on the edge of finals qualification and will need all hands on deck this week and a fellow Lions pride to roar. 50/50 matchup and tough contest with a slight leaning towards home side.

Brahma Lodge 13-24

Greenacres vs Hackham

Surprisingly looking at the ladder the results when last time these 2 teams played was only 7 points the difference the Dragons way but with finals a week away and Greenacres in red hot form Hackham better come to play at Edward Smith Reserve Saturday to match that competitive effort. First season is amateurs and the Hackham Hawks would be delighted in their decision to make the move over to the Adelaide Football League when you consider the onfield results and the competitiveness of their A grade and although it's still a work in progress the foundation of a football club with substance is there for the mighty Hawks to build upon in future seasons to come. Luke Allan and Jeremy Cross deserve to be mentioned once again for the unbelievable seasons both of them have had and along with a core group of other senior players should be proud of season 2021 and with some more additional help in the off-season could definitely further improve next season on a competitive 2021. A Dragons side which is full of talent and match winning playmakers Matthew Gibson, Ben Bamford, Jack Mau and Paul Merritt just a few that can become damaging given time and space not to mention others. Their poise and execution with ball their major strengths for them and recent weeks have been going from strength to strength taking all before them. A week away from finals for the Dragons and last game of the year away from home for Hawks meaning one team with a substantial more to play for meaning Greenacres will win.

season 2021 and try test themselves against the ladder leading Doggies a week away from finals after a hiccup last week they would want to rectify on the eve of finals action. Bailey Cantlon, John Mason, Joel Williamson and Blake Trigg the better performers this season for the Crabs and again need big contributions from them and others to be able to match the doggies at contested ball situations which as always is crucial to the outcome of any match, this being no different. Central United showed last week they do have efficiencies and with the loss of a few players through injury not ideal with 1 week until finals, the pressure is on the respond this week and get back to winning form. Adrian Mar,k Mark Garner and Brayden Abbott the midfielders the Doggies will be looking too get possession first and give their forwards scoring opportunities. At home and off a defeat expecting a response from Central United this week.

Central United 61-72

Adelaide Lutheran vs OSB Lonsdale

A 50 point Adelaide Lutheran win against OSB Lonsdale in Round 7 and with the way the ladder sits at the moment it could be considered the most important match in this division albeit for the fact that the Lions have been uncompetitive in the back half of the season and I haven't got a reason why Lonsdale should see this week as any different and therefore hard to make a case that Brayden Fiedler and Tyson Smith Lonsdale's best 2 young players will have enough depth around them this week to be competitive after battling away gallantly without any real reward all season and a shame to see a club go through results like they are currently but with sometime in the off season to restructure things hopefully 2022 can be more competitive for the mighty Lions. Adelaide Lutheran on the other hand have hit form at the right time of the year for them and with midfielders Andrew Wilson and Ashley Goodall supplying a potent forward line in recent weeks of stalwarts Rowan miegel and David Hodges using his craftiness around goals giving them scoreboard pressure against their opposition they've been able to be more consistent in their performances and need to win this game to secure a finals spot which I can't see them letting slip. Adelaide Lutheran to win big and charge into the finals with some real momentum and further develop more system about their play setting up a huge opportunity in season 2021 of success.
