DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 1 REVIEW

Payneham 9.7 (61) def Prince Alfred 8.7 (55)

Payneham began their 2022 campaign in the right column on Saturday, holding off a brave Prince Alfred outfit by six points after the visitors clawed their way back from four goals down to nearly snatch the road win. The home team started with a bang opening up a 21-point half time margin that looked secure, until a stunning third quarter turnaround levelled the scores with a term to play, before the eventual single digit victory gave Payneham the result they were after. Ben Sawford, Matt Nye and Jacob Campbell were among the winning side's best on the day, while Harrison Viney kicked four goals to steady the ship. For the visitors, Mitch Larsson, Sam Buckham and Jack Trengove were vital but couldn't quite get their side over the line.

Brighton 11.8 (74) def Goodwood 8.16 (64)

The Bombers opened up the season with the premiership points as they made the most of their chances in front of goal to win by ten points against an inaccurate Saints side. The home side can count their lucky stars as the visitors kicked sixteen behinds that proved pivotal in the closing result of this game. The tone of the game was set in the first half as Goodwood kicked 1.10 to Brighton's 4.4 at half time, and they never recovered from there. Thomas Welsby led all scorers with three goals for the home side, while Jordan Weetra and Justin Evans were also instrumental for the Bombers. Goodwood were led by Oliver Johnson and Nicholas Burgess, and will walk away from this contest thinking they should have won had they kicked straight.

Tea Tree Gully 15.8 (98) def Old Ignatians 12.8 (80)

A huge last quarter surge by the home side saw Tea Tree Gully overrun Old Ignatians on Saturday, after the Gullies trailed by fourteen points and staring down the barrel heading into the final quarter of play. Both teams started strongly with things locked away at quarter time, before the visitors opened a fifteen-point half time advantage and some breathing room before the home side flexed their muscles in a blistering final term display. Tyler West booted four goals while Alex McKay and Peter Persinos added three each for Tea Tree Gully, while Ryan Spittle and Jordan Persinos were also crucial for the 18-point victors. Bradley Jones and Domonic Grant both kicked three for Old Ignatians, while the visitors were aided by the performances of James Kennedy and Hugh Ferrari.

Port District 10.5 (65) def Glenunga 3.3 (21)

It was a dominant round 1 performance for Port District as they kept Glenunga goal-less in the second half to run away 44-point winners on Saturday. With just four points the difference at the main break, this contest loomed to be a close finish, before the home side piled on seven unanswered second half goals to put this one to bed. The big win sees Port District carry all the momentum into round 2, with their match going exactly how they would have wanted it to off the back of a long preseason. Benjamin Goold and Jason Nyskohus were the home side's best, while Dale Pearce slotted three goals in the win. For the visitors, there was not much to write home about, but the performances of Samuel Parsons and Thomas Bielby were among their teams' best in their dismal start to 2022.

St Peters 24.14 (158) def Rostrevor 11.7 (73)

In what started out as a good contest turned into a blowout as St Peters dismantled the visiting Rostrevor by 85 points on Saturday. The away team actually led this one at quarter time by four points but seemed to peak too early as from that point forward it was all the home side. Rostrevor booted six of their eleven goals in that opening term to St Peters five, with just the five goals for the remainder of the game as opposed to St Peters nineteen the telling difference. Jake Sutcliffe netted his first bag of the season with five goals for the winning team, while Mason Neagle, Lachie De Cesare and Jordan Lockwood were all dominant. Will Mead and Mitchell Carroll helped carry the load for Rostrevor in what was otherwise a disappointing start to their campaign.

ROUND 2 PREVIEW

Tea Tree Gully v Port District

Round 2 opens up with a clash of two unbeaten teams, who both showed class in their respective season opening wins. Tea Tree Gully left it late to overpower their opponents, with a last quarter barrage giving them breathing room, while Port District held their opponents to a zero-goal second half, leaving them with a comprehensive victory at home. This should be a good contest, with both sides carrying momentum over, but the Gullies will be tough to stop at home as they look to gain an early advantage among this tough division 1 crop.

Glenunga v St Peters

Glenunga were beaten badly last week by a strong Port Districts side, but at home this week they have a chance to avenge their poor performance. Unfortunately, it will not come easily at the hands of the early leaders St Peters, who were a class above in their dominant round 1 victory. The home ground advantage gives Glenunga a slightly better chance, but the result could be eerily similar if St Peters continue their scintillating form.

Rostrevor v Brighton

It was a tale of two different Rostrevor sides in round 1 – the one that was leading at quarter time, and the one that was outscored by fourteen goals from that point forward. Home this week, Rostrevor will need to tap in to that side that was competitive last week if they are to escape the 0-2 start, and they will have their work cut out for them against a charging Brighton side that held strong at home last week. Although, the Bombers cannot continue to rely on their opponents' poor accuracy in front of goals.

Prince Alfred v Old Ignatians

Prince Alfred were narrowly beaten on the road last week, which leaves us with promising signs that they can get the job done at home this week. Their third quarter performance against Payneham last week almost changed the game for them, and four quarters like that one should see them record their first win of the year this week against an Old Ignatians in the same boat at 0-1. They were strong for three quarters of their performance against Tea Tree Gully but let it slip in the final term which ultimately led to the loss. The first win of the season is up for grabs for both teams this week, so there is a lot to play for.

Goodwood v Payneham

Lastly, Goodwood host Payneham in what should be another good game of footy. Payneham narrowly won at home and will be looking to build from that performance, while Goodwood should have won based on their number of shots on goal. Another 1.10 half will not cut it against a 1-0 Payneham, so the home side will need to perfect their goalkicking if they are to move to 1-1 this week.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

PHOS Camden v Salisbury North

PHOS Camden have started their season in fine style, defeating Salisbury North by 35 points in front of their home crowd at Camden Oval. After a tight first half saw the Phantoms take an eight-point lead into the main break they completely blew the Hawks away in the third term, kicking six goals to two and setting up an unassailable 48-point lead. Declan Grant was the main target up forward for the Phantoms with four goals while Henry Papatolis, Will Thomas and Dylan Strickland all put through two majors. Dylan Morton was best afield and Todd Lewis also strong in the impressive win for a Phantoms side that came into the season as one of the premiership hopefuls. For the Hawks, Dion Lawlor and Jake Wagner both kicked two goals while Jake Burrows and Paul Driemann both battled valiantly in defeat. Salisbury North will look to turn their fortunes around when they host Athelstone while PHOS will try and continue their winning ways when they travel to take on Broadview.

North Haven v Unley Mercedes Jets

North haven has continued their winning ways from last season with the recent Division Three premiers defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 50 points at Largs North Reserve. It was dream start for the Magpies who went ahead within the first 30 seconds of the game through a Kyron Dixon goal as the home side kicked five goals to two in the first term to take a 17-point lead into the first change. North Haven continued to surge with a six goal second term giving the Magpies a 46-point halftime lead. Despite a much tighter second half the Jets were never able to make any inroads into the deficit as they slumped to a disappointing loss in their first game in Division Two since being demoted from Division One after just one win in the 2021 season. Jamie Solly (four goals) and Brett Pedersen (three goals) led the way for the victors while Ed Curnow and Ryan McInerney also impressed in the win. For Unley, Nick Wark booted three goals in a spirited performance while Alistar Salt and Jacob Earl tried their hearts out in the loss. Unley will be desperate for a win when they host Sacred Heart OC on Saturday North Haven will head to Gaza full of confidence that they can back up their strong performance.

Adelaide University v Athelstone

Athelstone have started their season off strongly, defeating the recently relegated Adelaide University by 73 points at Park 12 University Oval. After a tight first term the Raggies exploded, kicking seven goals to two and taking a 35-point lead into the main break. The onslaught continued in the second half with Adelaide University being held to just one goal for the entire half as Athelstone continued to dominate the contest on their way to an emphatic victory. Luca Stepic was the star for Athelstone with four goals while both Daniel Clause and Aaron Stewart both put through three goals apiece. James Davies was strong, and Christopher Lodovica starred in an important win for the Raggies who will be looking to push for finals after a disappointing six-win season last year. For Adelaide University, Russell Jensen and Will Warrick both stood out in what was otherwise a disappointing day for a team looking to bounce back after last year's relegation. Adelaide University will look to open their account when they host Henley while Athelstone will head to Salisbury North full of confidence.

Henley v Gaza

Gaza have stood strong to hold off Henley by two points in a thrilling contest at Henley Memorial Oval. Gaza jumped out the blocks early with a four goal to one first term before the Sharks hit back in the second term to level the scores at the main break. The Eagles took a two-point lead into the final change and opened up the final term strongly kicking the first two goals to take what would be a vital break on the scoreboard. Henley charged home, kicking three of the last four goals, but they were unable to get the job done as Gaza stood firm. Benjamin Nason kicked three goals for the Eagles, with Josh Ralph and Dylan Ridding both contributing two goals each. Darren King and Matthew Beadle also impressed as Gaza got off to a terrific start in Division Two after being promoted last season. For Henley, both Nathan Bowles and Maddy Hayes impressed in a disappointing loss for a Henley team that just missed finals last season. Henley will hope to get on the winners list when they travel to face Adelaide University while Gaza hosts North Haven in an enthralling contest

Sacred Heart OC v Broadview

Broadview have held off a late Sacred Heart charge, defeating the Old Collegians by two points at Sacred Heart Senior School Oval. Broadview were unstoppable in the first half, the Tigers kicking seven goals to two and taking a 36-point lead into the main break. However, Sacred Heart hit back in the third term, kicking four goals and reducing Broadview to a solitary point as they cut the margin back too just eight points at the last change. The final term consisted of just one goal between the sides, belonging to Sacred Heart as both sides peppered the big sticks. Sacred Heart will be ruing their missed opportunities with two missed shots in the dying minutes including a kick after the siren that fell short. For the victors, Nathan Gordon kicked three goals while Hamish Ralph and Joshua Sheppard kicked two apiece. Jaxen Wilson was strong, and Xavier Gotch was adjudged best afield in the win. For Sacred Heart, Tristan Carcuro kicked three goals and Alex Cailotto fought hard in a loss that will leave Sacred Heart ruing their missed opportunities. They will be looking to turn their fortunes around when they travel to face Unley while Broadview will be looking to build on their first half when they host PHOS Camden

Previews

Unley Mercedes Jets v Sacred Heart OC

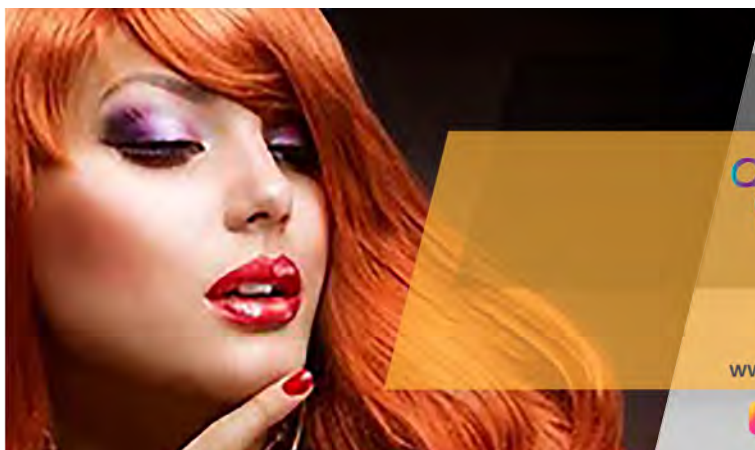

The Unley Mercedes Jets host Sacred Heart OC, desperate to put out a stronger showing and get their first win of the 2022 season. The Jets were deplorable in their Division Two debut, going down by 50 points against North Haven in a game that was over by half time. They come up against an Old Collegians team that fell just short against Broadview, despite having eight more scoring shots. Sacred Heart certainly looked the better team on the weekend, and I believe if they fix up their goal kicking, they will get the job done as they look to start their push towards another finals campaign Sacred Heart OC by 32 points.

Broadview v PHOS Camden

PHOS Camden travel to face Broadview, looking to continue their winning ways after their strong win over Salisbury North. The win was based off a dominant second half and the Phantoms will be hoping they can continue that onto this weekend. On the flipside, Broadview had a second half to forget against Sacred Heart, almost coughing up a six-goal halftime lead. While both sides got the round one win, PHOS Camden looked a much more threatening outfit and I expect them to record their second win of the season. PHOS Camden by 27 points.

Salisbury North v Athelstone

Salisbury North welcome Athelstone to Salisbury North Oval, looking to bounce back from their disappointing their disappointing loss to PHOS Camden. The Hawks were competitive for three quarters against the Phantoms but a shocking third term put them completely out of the contest. They come up against an Athelstone side that sent a message to the competition with a thumping 73-point victory over Adelaide University that put them top of the ladder. The Raggies looked ominous, and Salisbury North will need to be at their absolute best to get their first win of the season. Athelstone by 27 points.

Gaza v North Haven

Gaza and North Haven meet at Klemzig Reserve with both sides looking to record their second win of the season. North Haven dominated their first half against Unley Mercedes Jets on their way to an emphatic victory while Gaza just held off Henley in an extremely tight contest. I think this matchup will be the closest of the round with Gaza's home crowd just helping them get over the line. Gaza by 11 points.

Adelaide University v Henley

Henley travel to Park 12 to take on Adelaide University with the Sharks hoping to get onto the winners list after their devastating two-point loss at the hands of Gaza. They come take on an Adelaide University side that sits bottom of the ladder after their disappointing thrashing at the hands of the Athelstone. While I expect Adelaide University to respond after their shocking round one performance Henley look like they are too strong and should take this matchup out. Henley by 24 points.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS:

Westminster OS vs Flinders Park

Flinders Park have started life in division three in fine style with a win over Westminster on the road at Glandore Oval. Flinders Park started the game on fire and held on for a thrilling eight-point victory, continuing their good form after a strong finish to season 2021. Justin Hardy proved why he was such an important addition to the Reds side with six goals, in a best on ground performance. Daniel Blythe also proved very important to the win with three majors of his own. Schwarz brothers Nic and James showed why they were marquee signings from SANFL clubs, a class above with clever disposal all afternoon. Theodosi Cotsaris showed his class as Westminster's best and was very unlucky not to be on the winning side, walking away with best-on-ground honours for Westminster in the 79-87 loss.

Golden Grove vs Scotch OC

Desperate to avenge last season's preliminary final defeat, Golden Grove returned home to Harpers Field on Saturday afternoon in style, recording a whopping 95-point victory. The Kookaburras recruited heavily during the off-season, and targeted big name forward Lewis Johnston, who in his first game, did not disappoint. Johnston booted five goals and collected four votes and wasn't alone in kicking goals. Wyatt Patterson, Jed Banwell and Shane Walker all kicked three majors, with Chad Barmy and Lachlan Borg also kicking two apiece. Barmby was voted best-on-grand in the 20-goal onslaught, getting plenty of footy and being rewarded on the scoreboard. For Scotch, Sean King, and Archie Morgan both proved to be strong targets up forward with two apiece in the defeat, as they face a long road back after a big round one loss. Golden Grove's experience should hold them in good stead for the remainder of the season, and with a strong side, it's hard not to see them challenging for promotion come season's end.

Morphettville Park vs SMOSH West Lakes

SMOSH West Lakes have avenged last season's disappointing grand final defeat with a hard fought 12-point victory against Morphettville Park at Kellett Reserve. The match was close all afternoon, before SMOSH pulled away for a 101-89 win. Adam Mahney was superb in the opening game of the season with a best afield match. Mahney found plenty of the football and got himself on the scoreboard with a match-defining goal. Elsewhere, Nathan Brown and Ben Nash also were vital to the win, continuously driving the ball forward and creating opportunities for their teammates. Chris Barns was incredibly unlucky not to be involved in the winning side, starting his season in spectacular fashion with a remarkable seven goal effort. Dane Thompson and Kane Godlevsky also fought hard in the defeat, winning plenty of the ball and proving vital cogs in the Kangaroos side.

Modbury vs CBC OC

After missing out on finals football by just one game last year, Modbury were desperate to start the season well in their clash with CBC Old Collegians at Modbury Oval. The Hawks dominated the game from start to finish and ran out with a 67-point victory in front of a big home crowd as they look to take the next step to finals in 2022. Headlines from the match will surround superstar Modbury forward Liam Verity, following his five-goal display, with Ned Buckerfield providing a healthy hand with three of his own. Nathan Hearing and Brad Rogers also didn't go unnoticed in the win with contributions all over the field, including having an impact on the scoreboard in the Hawks' onslaught. For CBC, key forward Cail Harris proved a healthy target up forward, kicking three majors. Jonah Burns and Anthony Watkins were valiant in defeat, in what was a tough afternoon, with Modbury running out winners 113-46.

Seaton Ramblers vs Edwardstown

After a disappointing 2021 season, Edwardstown headed to the recruitment table, and reaped the rewards in round one, recording a 41-point victory over Seaton on the road. On the road at Pedlar Reserve, Edwardstown knew it was imperative to silence the big crowd and went about doing so in outstanding fashion. Edwardstown started the game on fire, and showed no signs of slowing down, running out big victors. Edwardstown fans can largely thank forward Oliver Ebert for the victory, Ebert kicked four goals, with Jake Harrap and Joshua Holyoak also kicking two goals each. Meanwhile, for Seaton, Cameron Buchannan, and Rocco Rugari each kicked two goals, attempting to keep their side in it despite the little supply. Edwardstown will take a lot of confidence, beating a quality opposition team away from home, and walking away with the 97-56 win.

PREVIEWS:

Edwardstown vs Morphettville Park

On the back of a big win over Seaton in round one, Edwardstown will play their first home game of the season when they take on Morphettville Park. The Kangaroos tasted defeat in their opening game, going down by 12 points. If Edwardstown can start well, it's tough to see them losing this one at home.

Prediction: Edwardstown by 44 points.

Flinders Park vs Golden Grove

With both sides coming off a round one victory, Flinders Park is set to host the Kookaburras at Flinders Park Oval. With some strong round one performances on both sides, both sides should be full of confidence coming into the matchup. Ultimately, Golden Grove have a better side, and should be victorious in this one.

Prediction: Golden Grove by 23 points.

Westminster OS vs SMOSH West Lakes

On the back of a loss, Westminster will be raring to go for their second home fixture in a row when they take on SMOSH West Lakes at Glandore Oval Reserve. With SMOSH holding on for a thrilling 12-point triumph last week, confidence should be high for the boys from West Lakes. In the match of the round, I expect a close clash.

Prediction: Westminster OS by 8 points.

Seaton Ramblers vs CBC OC

With both sides coming off heavy defeats in round one, both also have a major point to prove in the round two match at Pedlar Reserve. With Seaton coming off a home defeat, they will be desperate to win as many games as possible on their home turf. CBC are on the road for the second week in a row and will be desperate to take confidence into their home fixtures.

Prediction: Seaton Ramblers by 15 points.

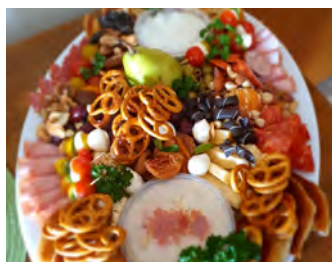

Scotch OC vs Modbury

Scotch couldn't have started the season much worse, falling to Golden Grove by 95 points in a round one from hell. Meanwhile, Modbury couldn't have started much better, claiming a 67-point win over CBC on opening weekend. However, both sides face different circumstances this week, Scotch to play at home, and Modbury set to travel. I expect Modbury to continue their strong form, with Scotch needing to regain some confidence.

Prediction: Modbury by 52 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Review:

Hope Valley 9.21-75 def by. Pembroke OS 12.8-80

Pembroke have escaped a first-round loss and have managed to hold on to a narrow five-point victory, away against Hope Valley. The Demons will be licking their wounds, after a horrible goal kicking display on Friday night. Dominating the scoring shots 30 to 20, the Demons were behind wire to wire in the division's opener. At the quarter time break it was somewhat an even game, with Pembroke having the early ten-point advantage. The Kings were able to extend their lead going into the main break. Leading by 17 points, five-goals, one to two goals, six for that quarter, the Demons hurt themselves. The last break saw the kings struggle to build a comfortable lead. A three-goal lead was just enough for Pembroke to hold onto a late surging Hope Valley team. In the lat quarter alone, the score was one goal eight to one behind in Hope Valley's favour. Last year's league highest goal scorer, Alex Forster, slotted six goals as his goal kicking form continues over, and may be enough to earn himself three votes. Patrick Levicki and Oliver Harms also stared in the victory. Machok Garang, Jayke Hellmanns and Jamie Dowling were some of Hope Valley's better players for the night. This one will hurt the Demons, but it is clear what they will be working on during the week.

Pooraka 18.8-116 def Woodville South 10.11-71

Pooraka have extended their stellar form from there premiership season last year, with a 45-point victory over Woodville South. The Bulls broke-even early on with the Cats finding troubles to be effective on the scoreboard. The second quarter was completely dominated by the home team, scoring nine goals to two, to extend their lead to seven goals at the big break. The second half was low scoring from both sides, but the damage was already done by the eventual victors taking the two points and ending the round in second. Some of Woodville-South's standouts for the match were Patrick Binnion, Tyler Wall-Waddell and Lochie Barreau. Next week for the Bulls, they travel to Pulteney to try and continue their good form and stay towards the top of the ladder early on. The Cats will host Hope Valley in a match where no one will want to start their season 0-2.

Plympton 11.10-76 def Mitcham 10.8-68

This match was one of if not the best matchup of the round for this division. This game was tight all the way from the first bounce in which the Bulldogs led from wire-to-wire. The match started with the Hawks missing opportunities in front of goals, kicking one goal four to three goals two, Plympton had a ten-point lead. This lead grew slightly by the Dogs with both teams booting three goals a piece in the second quarter, where the margin was 14 points at the big break. Mitcham narrowed the margin slightly in the third, but not fully taking advantage of a wobbly kicking quarter by Plympton. The final term saw the Bulldogs hold off a surging Hawks outfit and winning the game by eight points. A match where the margin wasn't more than three goals at the end of a quarter shows you how even of a matchup this was. Zac Peake kicked four goals and was one of Plympton's best in the victory, along with Lachie Stoddard, Hamish Williams, and Brodie McLeod. Despite the loss, some of the Mitcham's better efforts came from, Moses Milsom, Will Hooper and Josh Watt. Both teams face tough away battles next week. The Bulldogs travel to Pembroke to face the back-to-back minor premiers of this division who were lucky in their first-round matchup. The Hawks face a determined Walkerville team who will be upset with the way they lost. Neither of these teams will want to be winless after round two because of the way they lost there round one matches.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Portland 16.11-107 def Pulteney 7.8-50

It was a breakthrough round for Portland who recorded their first win in almost two and a half years. They did it in some style too, winning by the biggest margin of all the games in the division and being top after round one. It is quite a story. Pulteney were disappointing through the first three quarters of this game. They will be disappointed with how they started this season, three goals down at quarter time and 23-points down at half time. The third quarter was where the game was broken open. Five goals five to no score in favour of Portland, who put the game to bed well and truly. The last quarter was fairly even but the margin was too great for the Blues to overcome. Former North Melbourne and Port Adelaide player, Lindsay Thomas, booted six goals to dominate this match. Tyson Friend, Bradley Traeger and former Port Adelaide and North Adelaide player, Jake Neade, were apart of the better players for Portland. For the Blues Damien Hill, Joshua Giddings, Zac Sipek were some of the standouts for the losing side. So far so good for Portland in division four, they will look to carry their form against a potential tougher outfit in Kenilworth. Pulteney will need to regroup fast, they face the division five premier, Pooraka, coming off a comfortable win.

Walkerville 14.13-97 def Kenilworth 18.9-117

Kenilworth earned themselves an upset victory in an away opener against Walkerville. A match that most thought that Walkerville would have taken out, through the first half of this game, it was trending that way. The Cats got out early leading the first break by two goals which was there highest scoring quarter of the game. Going into the half, the score remained close with Walkerville holding a 13-point lead, in a high scoring game through the first half. The Kookaburra's made some adjustments and came out and completely turned the game on its head. Eight goals to two in the third quarter which was enough to hold a handy lead. The last quarter Kenilworth did enough to hold that lead steady, with the cats having a wasteful quarter in front of goals. Adam Proud for the Cats and Myles Crump for the Burra's both booted five each for the game. Tom Sinclair, Tate Manning, and Michael Makris were also standouts for Walkerville. Sam Scott, Travis Whittle and Isaiah Place were also handy for the Burra's in getting the first-round victory. This one will hurt for the Cats as they will look back on the third quarter that lost them the game. In what is expected to be a competitive division, it's hard starting the season on the back foot. Both teams have tricky matchups going into next week. Walkerville will be desperate to get there first win as will Mitcham when they face each other at Walkerville Oval this Saturday. Kenilworth will be hosting another round one winner in Portland who were extremely dominate.

Previews:

Pembroke OS VS Plympton

The Bulldogs will travel to Haslam Oval to try and continue to build form for the season. Both teams doing just enough in their first-round matchups to claim the two points. The Kings will be wanting to finish out games far better then how they did Friday night. Some would consider them lucky after being dominated in scoring shots, but bad kicking is bad football by Hope Valley. The bulldogs held off a tough Mitcham team in their first game, leading wire-to-wire in one of the matches of the round. I believe that last year's minor premiers of this division, will be able to put an even better foot forward and come out on top against Plympton.

Pembroke OS Kings by 13-24 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Woodville South V Hope Valley

The Cats will host the Demons in a pivotal round two matchup. Woodville South are coming off a tough first round loss, away against Pooraka. A game in the end, in which they were comfortably beaten by superior Bulls team, on the day. The Demons were wasteful in front of goals, in the division opener against Pembroke. Nine-goals 21, cost them deeply in a five-point loss, a game in which some would say, they should have won. A 0-2 start for any team is tough then to get things going for the rest of the season. Which is why I believe both teams will be up and about. I believe that the Demons will be better in front of goals this week and get there first win on the board.

Hope Valley Demons by 13-24 points.

Pulteney V Pooraka

Division five premiers, Pooraka, made a statement in there round one victory against Woodville South. This week they will be looking to extend this run by travelling to Pulteney in there round two matchup. The Blues were the worst performing team of the round, going down to Portland, by 57 points, who were the embarrassment of the entire league last season. After facing a division three side from last season, they face the division five premier and I believe they will find issues finding form in this game. I believe Pooraka will be the division leader, after this round.

Pooraka Bulls by 37-48 points.

Walkerville VS Mitcham

Walkerville will host the Mitcham Hawks in a pivotal round two matchup. Both sides narrowly going down and will be disappointed being so close. The Cats led the majority of their game but had one bad quarter where the game was lost for them. The Hawks stayed close to Plympton but never got a run on to take a lead and see the game out. This certainly looks to be an intriguing matchup, one of which will have a few worrying signs come out of it, for the side that doesn't take the two points. The team that will climb the ladder will be Walkerville, who I believe will tough it out and run away with the win.

Walkerville Cats by 13-24 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Kenilworth VS Portland

Kenilworth and Portland will face off in what I believe will be the match of the round. Both teams coming off statement wins to get there 2022 campaigns going. The Kookaburra's had a strong third quarter that won them the game on the road against a strong Walkerville outfit. Portland had a commanding win against Pulteney, which was dominated from the outset. Is it an overaction to believe Portland could be a force in this division? It certainly wouldn't be if they backup there round one performance, with a performance as good, against a better outfit. Despite this, I believe on their home deck, Kenilworth will be on the better side of this close encounter.

Kenilworth Kookaburra's by 1-12 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Hectorville vs Lockleys 9.18-72 vs 8.11-59

Lockleys travelled to Daly Oval to face Hectorville on Saturday to kick-start their campaign for 2022. It was hard fought day out for both sides but the Hounds come out on top in front of their home fans. The first quarter saw the Hounds dominate possession early on and get two goals on the board while only conceding the one to take a 7 point lead into the first break. The second saw the Demons do their best to shorten the deficit, but the Hounds created too much going forward and although struggling in front of goal, their 2.7 saw them extend their lead to 11 points at half time. The fight back came for the Demons in the third as they kicked three and only conceded two to bring the margin down to just 4 points going into the final break. This clash had to come to an end eventually and the Hounds made sure it was in their favour kicking 3.5 in the final quarter to see out the game as 13 point winners and start their campaign strongly. J. Goudman-Glasson had a belter of a game for Hectorville kicking 5 goals! With C. Kent, M. Williams and T. Egglestone being crucial for the Hounds. C. Seekamp, N. Batley and B.Hosking being the stand out players for the Demons.

Elizabeth vs Blackfriars OS 12.9-81 vs 11.10-76

Blackfriars opened their campaign with a trip to Argana Park on Saturday and played out an absolute belter, that would have had fans and players on the edge of their seat. The game started pretty heavily in the favour of the home side who managed to kick five goals and only concede two to take a 19 point lead into the first break. Blacks started to chip away at the deficit in the second manging to marginally outscore the Eagles to bring down the lead to 14 points. The third saw Blacks start to dominate the play a little more and managing four goals while conceding only two to narrow the lead to just 3 points going into the final break with fingernails and teeth at the ready. Both sides come out swinging and had a hard fought and physical quarter both kicking two goals each, but it was the Eagles who managed to just see out the game as 5 point victors! M. Summer, S. James and A. Schlink where stellar for Eagles while it was G. Vellotti, F. Marafioti and P. Hogan who were influential for the away side.

Salisbury vs St Pauls OS 9.9-63 vs 12.8-80

The Saints travelled to Salisbury Oval to open their season with a bang and that they did seeing off a very resilient Magpies team away from home. The first quarter showed the quality of the duel we were likely to see with both sides scoring four goals, to both go into the first break on 25 points. The Saints continued their fine form in front of goal kicking five and only conceding two to take a lead of 16 points into half time. In the third Salisbury started to fight back kicking three to close the deficit to just 7 points going in to the final quarter. The sustained pressure of the Saints proved too much for the home side to handle managing just 1 point in the final quarter, to ultimately to lose the game by 17 points to a strong St Pauls side. A. Mills, J. Williams and M. Odegaard were the stand outs for Salisbury whereas it was J. Wurfel, T. Girgolas and T. Soulsby who influenced the Saints to victory.

Kilburn vs Gepps Cross 10.10-70 vs 20.12-132

Kilburn had a tough day out to start their season off, after going down comfortably at home to a strong Rams side. The Rams came out charging in the first quarter kicking eight goals but conceding five to take a high scoring lead of 19 into the first break. The second saw the home side shorten the deficit after kicking three and only conceding two to only trail by 14 going into half time. The third saw both sides struggle in front of goal, with Gepps Cross kicking the only goal of the quarter along with a bucket or two of behinds, to extend their lead 21 points and get a strong foothold on their opponent, going into the last quarter. This is where the away side turned on the gas at Blair Athol Reserve kicking a further nine goals in the quarter the see out the game as a 52 point smashing on away turf. It was M. Linsen, J. Davidson and R. Hedland who were outstanding for the home side, while D. Mason, L. Carvell and G. Hampton who were paramount for their side in an impressive away win.

Colonel Light Gardens vs Eastern Park

10.15-75 vs 13.11-89

Gardens started their campaign at home on Saturday but unfortunately fell short to a very strong performing Eastern Park. The game started with the away side quickly taking scoreboard control of the game kicking three goals to take a 16 point lead into the first break. The second saw the home side gain some ground on their opponents outscoring them and bringing the margin to just 5 points at the half time break. Easties really started to show their class in the second half, as the away side kicked four goals and conceded just two in the third quarter to extend their lead to 22 points going into the final break. Gardens had a late fight back in the fourth but the deficit was too great to overcome and ended up falling short by 14 points after a strong performance from both sides. N. Warde, J. Andrews and J. Van Kempen were the standouts for the home side on Saturday and it was N. Mciver, A. Tuckwell and S. Mansell who really turned it on to get thier side a strong away win for round 1.

Next week

Kilburn vs Lockleys – Blair Athol Reserve

Kilburn host the Demons next week as they look to bounce back after a tough loss, although, their opposition Lockleys didn't fair much better away from home last week and will be looking to set their season on track with a win this week. With both teams suffering losses I see this game being a thriller as both teams want to stamp their authority on the league as soon as possible. My tip is Kilburn by 10 points, purely because of the home ground advantage, could go either way.

Gepps Cross vs Colonel Light Gardens

Gardens travel to Gepps Cross next week in hopes to rectify their narrow loss on the weekend to Eastern Park. They come up against what seems a very strong Gepps Cross side after handing out a 50 point beating away from home. With last weeks results in mind and the home ground advantage, I see Gepps Cross marching out 20 points winners.

Eastern Park vs St Pauls OS

Eastern Park play host to the Saints at Dwight Reserve this week as they look to continue their form from round one, as they ran away narrow victors this weekend away from home. They face a St Pauls who come out on top against Salisbury in round one. With both teams coming out on top in round one this could be game of the round, but due to their performance last week alone, I have to go Eastern Park by 17.

Blackfriars OS vs Hectorville

The Hounds travel to St Dominics Oval to face the Blacks next week after a strong performance saw them narrowly win at home this weekend. But they come up against a strong Blacks side at home who narrowly missed out on a win this weekend in a nail biter that went to the wire. This will be another close game with choosing the winner being a simple coin flip, however, I see the Hounds getting up by 7 this week.

Salisbury vs Elizabeth

Salisbury look to bounce back after a disappointing loss this weekend, playing host to Elizabeth who are coming off a good win against a strong side in Blackfriars. This game is a tough one to call early on in the season with one narrowly winning and the other performing well but falling short, but I dont like sitting on the fence, I see Salisbury holding strong at home and winning by 13 points.

ROUND 1 REVIEWS:

Ingle Farm v Trinity OS

Trinity were able to get the jump early in the first at Rowe Park, getting off to a 4 goal lead by the end of the first quarter. Ingle Farm tried to work their way back into the game but Trinity kept the pressure up all day to cruise home to a 50 point victory on the road. M.Bennetts was one of many to help his side to the win, while up forward H.Smith booted 3 goals. The Bulldogs had some shining lights in R.Cocchetti and J.Abdulla as their best, and L.Pickford kicking 3 of his own for his team, some positives looking forward to their game against Central United next week. Good signs for both sides in the first round.

Brahma Lodge v Marion

An arm wrestle In Brahma Lodge as they took on Marion. The Rams came flying out in the first two quarters with ten goals to Bramah's six, but a rev up at half tile got the Brahma Boys pumped as they came out and kept Marion to just three goals for the next half. The Rams were able to put up a monstrous fight in the last quarter with T.Stewart kicking straight all day to finish with five goals and help his team hold onto the game and win by ten points. H.Elkins for the Rams and I.Bellman for the Tigers fought hard all day for their respective sides and earned themselves the best on ground for their teams.

Central United v West Croydon

West Croydon started off their Division Six campaign with a bang after coming down from Division Five from last season, playing well all day against Central United. T. John-Wanganeen kicked 4 to help his side to the perfect start with R.Foley and M.Vaskelainen getting the honors as best on for the hawks. Central United will be eager to get a win after going down at home. The positives for the Units are J.Perna-Hague and A.Frith kicking 2 for their side and B.Abbott playing hard for his side's best on ground.

Para Hills v Fitzroy

Para Hills made the trip to Renown Park to take on newcomers to division six in Fitzroy, and after playing well all day were able to come away with a win in the first round. Fitzroy also pushed hard all day but weren't able to get over the Reds. J.Kelly was a standout for Para Hills in their win earning best or ground and booting two goals while J.Pietrantonio and D.Weetra also played a handy part, Weetra was also strong up forward with four goals of his own. For Fitzroy D.Miller was a straight kick, putting through 3 goals and H.Rusby getting best on ground.

ROUND 2 PREVIEWS

Rosewater v Trinity OS

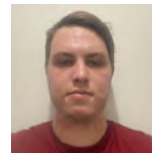

After missing round one with a Bye, Rosewater would be itching to get out in round one at their home deck and get a win. After a big win against Ingle Farm, Trinity will be hoping to use their momentum to go 2-0 and really get their season rolling.

Tip: Trinity by 25-36

David Hocking gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Let me introduce myself my name is David HOCKING and having played for TTG, Gepps Cross and Risdon in the Spencer Gulf Football League, I have umpired at both Senior and Junior Levels, and I have coached Junior Football with the Pooraka Football Club. This season I have been given the privilege to Report on the D7 matches for the 2022 season.

Hackham v Mawson Lakes

The game was played at Hackham Oval, and Mawson Lakes appeared to be suffering from Jet lag travelling from Mawson Lakes to Hackham, as the home side started out of the blocks well and had a respectful 3 goals one to 1 goal 1 having first use of the breeze. When Mawson Lakes had use of the breeze, they could only manage 2 points with the breeze, whilst Hackham managed 1 goal 2 behinds into the breeze. After half time Mawson Lakes obviously recovered from the jet lag and performed much better and were able to put up a better game for the spectators outscoring Hackham in the last quarter. Hackham eventually winning by 32 points.

Greenacres v O'Sullivan Beach

Another game where the travelling team O'Sullivan's Beach seem to suffer from jet lag with Greenacres starting fast out of the blocks and kicking 6 goals 5 behinds in the first quarter and set themselves up for a big win. Greenacres seemed in total control in the first half kicking 13 goals to 5 goals. After half time it appeared that O'Sullivan's Beach were only acting as witches hats as the Greenacres machine went on their merry way and eventually running out victors by 89 points, this win will provide the team with confidence for the rest of the season.

Adelaide Lutheran v Houghton Districts

This was a hard-fought game with the visitors up by 1 point at the ¼ time break kicking 5 goals 1 to Adelaide Lutheran 5 goals, unfortunately Houghton kicked with the breeze and their defense was not up to the task and allowing Adelaide Lutheran to match them goal for goal in the first quarter, with loose checking of opponents. After the first quarter Adelaide Lutheran stepped up a gear and continued to score freely. The half time spray obviously worked a treat and in the ¾ quarter the defense held up with and restricted Adelaide Lutherans scoring opportunities, with the defense for Houghton Districts standing firm and reducing what could have been a blow out to a lose which the coach can take heart from. Nothing should be taken away from Adelaide Lutheran as they set the game up in the first half finishing the game with a 30-point victory to get their season off with a win.

Flinders Uni v Michell Park

Now I have to write about the match of the round in my opinion with gladiators from both sides fighting valiantly and with a great deal of heart. This game appeared to be evenly matched, and it would be the survival of the fittest with numerous score line changes during the game. First, we had Flinders Uni kicking with a 3-4 goal breeze in front at the first quarter and then Michell Park had the breeze and at half time were leading by the narrowest of margins 1 point. Both teams slugged it out after half time with Flinders University going into the ¾ huddle with a 19 point lead would this be enough to satisfy their supporters with a win, but they didn't count on Mitchell Park overrunning them in the last quarter, Flinders ran out of steam and allowed the Parkers to come from 19 points down to eventually win the game by less than a kick in fact the margin was only 5 points and it was a great spectacle of a game which I feel would have both camps feeling confident of the season ahead.

David Hocking gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Next Week's games

Mawson Lakes v Adelaide Lutheran

Mawson lakes after the jet lag problem of last week and now playing at home against a team who had a win in their first game, it will be interesting to see how if things can turn around after a stellar 2nd half last week and can control the game at home. It will be interesting how Adelaide Lutheran perform away from home, I always feel that until the teams have played at least 4 rounds before you can start to see a pattern and which clubs will be playing off in the finals at the end of the year but I will stick my neck out and predict an Adelaide Lutheran victory I just feel that they have the players in the middle and up forward to win this game.

Houghton Districts v Mitchell Park

Mitchell Park has to do the travelling this time and we will see if their fitness will help them to run over the Raiders at home. There seems to be quite a deal of travelling with the clubs in D7 this season and the travelling seems to have bothered teams travelling in the first round. The Houghton defense seemed suspect in the first round and improved in the second half to reduce the Adelaide Lutheran scoring the Raiders defense will have to stop the Mitchell Park running game and they wont be able to leave it until after half time to play their defensive game as Mitchell Park proved that last week their fitness was able to bring about a victory. Again, I think I will stick my neck out and select Mitchell Park to win but it won't be easy.

Flinders Uni v Greenacres

Greenacres have to come up against a tougher opposition this week in Flinders Uni who lost in a hard-fought match against Mitchell Park. Greenacres game was relatively easy, and they had winners all over the ground will over confidence bring them down or are they the real deal. Time will tell whether or not they can continue on their winning way or will it be the dreaded jet lag that brings them down, they can't afford to start slowly with Flinders Uni the Centre line players will have to feed the forwards constantly and the defense will have to restrict the opposition players from scoring to win this game. After their big win last week, I will stick with the travelling team to win but I don't believe it will be by the 89 points last week and it will be a lot closer.

O'Sullivan's Beach v Hackham

O'Sullivan's Beach are playing at home this week against another southern side Hackham and unfortunately after they received a thorough hiding by Greenacres I don't see things changing this week, unless they had players who were not interested in travelling to Greenacres to play I don't see much changing this week for the Lions, I just don't feel they have the players to compete at this level and I feel that the Lions will be holding up the rest of the ladder, I hope they prove me wrong only time will tell I think the Hawks will be too strong.
