DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

DIVISION 1 GRAND FINAL REVIEW

Payneham 6.11 (47) def by Old Ignatians 11.12 (78)

A massive road win from Old Ignatians sees them string together a couple impressive performances to keep them with the pack after four rounds. The 31-point win was a statement victory, one in which they led at all changes and were fairly accurate apart from a 1.5 last quarter. Will Abbott continued his excellent season with another best afield performance for the winning side, simultaneously leading all goal scorers with three, while Brad McKenzie (3 goals) and Max Wagner were Payneham's best, with the loss slumping them to bottom place on percentage.

Tea Tree Gully 9.10 (64) def by Rostrevor 12.13 (85)

The upset of the round occurred at Pertaringa Oval on Saturday as the struggling Rostrevor side pulled off an incredible second half performance to stun the previously unbeaten Tea Tree Gully outfit by 21 points on the road. It was seemingly smooth sailing for the Gullies at half time when they led by 20 points, with a fourth consecutive win looming, before a remarkable second half collapse saw the home side manage just two goals to Rostrevor's eight to completely shift the game. Nicholas Murphy booted five goals for the visitors, while Dylan Reinbrecht was stellar as Rostrevor gained some much-needed momentum to get their season rolling. The shellshocked Gullies remain equal first on points but will need to avenge this disappointing home loss next week.

Prince Alfred 8.5 (53) def by St Peters 12.15 (87)

The now equal ladder leaders flexed their muscles in a big way on Saturday, taking care of Prince Alfred on their own deck by 34 points in a dominant display. Apart from a five goal third quarter from the home side, St Peters were barely challenged, and had it not been for inaccuracy in front of goal this could have been a much larger deficit. Jock McLeay booted six goals to set the tone for the winning side, while Jesse O'Brien and Toby Schulz were also pivotal. With just the one win on the season, Prince Alfred sits equal bottom and will need to find something soon before their season slips away.

Goodwood 15.9 (99) def Port District 11.10 (76)

Goodwood stopped a rampant Port District squad dead in their tracks on Saturday, humbling the in-form visitors by 23 points. Port District jumped to an early lead at quarter time, holding the Saints goal-less while scoring three of their own, and still held an eleven-point half time lead, but were run over the top by the home side in the second half, conceding ten majors as Goodwood picked up their second win of the year. Nicholas Burges joined the goalkickers this week with five of his own, while Mason Ellis and Nick Favretto helped change the game for the Saints. Daniel Passaniti was Port District's best, who now sit fourth and with the pack on four points.

Glenunga 12.11 (83) def Brighton 7.7 (49)

The Rams have completely turned their season around in the last fortnight with two vital wins, including Saturday's 34-point win over the visiting Bombers. An inaccurate first quarter kept the away team in it early, but from that point forward Glenunga were just clinical, never really faulting en route to the classy home win, their second victory on the trot. A win would have seen Brighton join the ladder leaders Tea Tree Gully and St Peters, but alas their 2-2 record sees them sit amongst the pack after a month of footy. It was business as usual for Michael McMahon (4 goals) and Zac Smith (5 votes) who aided the big win for Glenunga.

ROUND 5

Glenunga v Tea Tree Gully

The matchup between the Rams and Gullies this week looms as the game of the round and could easily go either way. Tea Tree Gully were shellshocked on their home turf last week and are proven beatable, but will be hungry to avenge that loss this week on the road against a surging Glenunga side that have won two in a row and are in scintillating form. At home, the Rams will go in with serious momentum, but the Gullies have been very good thus far in 2022 so it is very hard to pick a winner.

Port District v Payneham

Port District were trounced last week at the hands of the Saints, putting an end to their good run of form. Back at home this week, Port District should enjoy an easier opponent in Payneham, who have struggled to put together a full four-quarter performance as of yet. An upset is always on the cards, but I think Port District should get back to their winning ways at home this week.

St Peters v Goodwood

Both sides are coming off impressive wins last round, with St Peters dominating on the road and Goodwood coming from behind at home to gain some momentum. It will be very tough for the Saints walking onto St Peters home park, but their recent form suggests they are a chance. Still, I think the home advantage plays a big factor here, and St Peters should hold strong a claim top spot.

Rostrevor v Prince Alfred

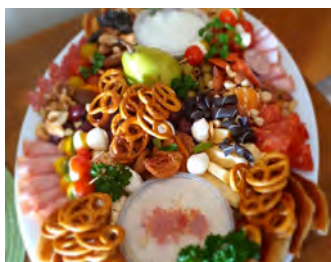

Rostrevor are coming off the upset of the season so far after knocking off a strong Gullies side on the road last week, and will be filled with confidence coming into this week's clash with Prince Alfred. The visitors haven't had the best start to 2022, winning just one from their four games, and need a lift from somewhere to get their season rolling. A road win against a confident Rostrevor would do wonders for their year, but it will be a tough ask.

Brighton v Old Ignatians

The Bombers have been unpredictable this season, winning some big games and losing others. At home, they will have the advantage, but will need to find their good form that saw them win two games, rather than last week's form where they were beaten badly by the Rams. Old Ignatians have strung some good performances together and sit in fourth place and need to win this match to gain a stronghold on a finals spot early. This should be another good match, but I have Old Ignatians just edging the home side in this one.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Henley v North Haven

North Haven have continued their unbeaten start to the season, defeating Henley by 22 points at Henley Memorial Oval. North Haven got off to a strong start, taking a three-goal lead into the first change before the Sharks stood firm in the second term, cutting the margin back to 13 points but rueing inaccuracy in front of goal that could have trimmed the lead even further. Henley's woes in front of the big sticks continued in the third term, unable to kick a goal as the Magpies piled on four of their own to take an unassailable 40-point lead into the final change. Henley tried desperately to fight back in the final term but once again goalkicking let them down as North Haven cruised to their fourth win of the year. Jamie Solly was the star up forward for North Haven, while Tom Sandercock put through three majors and Andrew Smithson was impressive in the win. For Henley, Joel Harvey-Friel and Tom Pillion both kicked two goals while Jack Enright and Ethan Miller both fought hard in a loss that leaves the Sharks two wins outside of the top five. Thing will not get any easier for Henley when they travel to face Sacred Heart OC while North Haven host Athelstone in a top of the table clash.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Salisbury North.

Unley Mercedes Jets have recorded their first win of the season, defeating Salisbury North by 26 points in front of their home fans at Kingswood Oval. After a free flowing first term saw just four points separate the two sides, the Jets broke away in the second term, kicking six goals to three and taking a 17- point lead into halftime. The Hawks cut the lead back to ten points with a term to play before a Mitchell Minns goal inside the first minute of the final term put the lead back beyond two goals. Salisbury North did respond bring the margin back to ten points but from there the match turned into a scrappy affair with neither side able to score a goal as Unley held on for a crucial win. Nick Wark starred for the Jets with four goals while Oliver Cheeseman was also huge with three of his own. Blake Harris gathered plenty of the football and Jacob Pedlar was a standout in the win. For the Hawks, Bradley Hood, Jake Wagner and Steven Wellington all kicked two goals while Paul Dreimann continued to impress in a loss that leaves Salisbury North without a win for the season. The Hawks will be looking to change this when they host Gaza while Unley face a stern task on the road against Broadview.

Gaza v PHOS Camden

PHOS Camden have sent a message to the rest of the competition, demolishing Gaza by 103 points at Klemzig Reserve. The onslaught started early as the Phantoms put on five goals to one in the first term to open up a 22-point quarter time lead. The lead blew out to 56 points by halftime as PHOS put another seven goals on the board before the Eagles showed some fight in the third term, kicking four goals and managing to cut the lead down to 45 points. Any momentum Gaza had quickly evaporated as the Phantoms once again showed their offensive firepower, kicking ten goals in a scintillating final term to record their second percentage boosting win in a row. PHOS had 11 different goalkickers with Lachlan Tredwell (five goals) and Dylan Morton (four goals) leading the way up forward. Todd Lewis also put through two majors in an impressive performance and Tom Derham was among the Phantoms best in a win that entrenches them in the top five. For Gaza, Dylan Ridding kicked three goals while Scott Lewis stood out in what was a day to forget for an Eagles outfit that have now lost three games in a row. Gaza get a golden opportunity to get back on the winners list when they travel to face the winless Salisbury North while PHOS Camden can sniff another big win when they welcome Adelaide University.

Adelaide University v Sacred Heart OC

Adelaide University sit bottom of the Division Two table after going down to Sacred Heart OC by 81 points at Park 12 University Oval. The match was competitive for the first half, Adelaide Uni showing fight to trail by 16 points at the main break. That competitive spirit was broken in the third term as Sacred Heart showed their class, kicking eight goals to one. The dominance continued in the final term as Adelaide University were held to just two points, falling to yet another demoralising defeat in what has been a dreadful start to their 2022 campaign. Tristan Carcuro was potent in front of the big sticks with four goals, and he was given plenty of support from Henry McAuliffe and Cameron Rankin who both put through three majors. Tom Mcdermott was a standout and Patrick Neal-Bullen made the contest his own in an impressive performance. For Adelaide University, Jesse Boag and Matthew Langride impressed but alarm bells are ringing after a second half that produced just one goal. Something will need to change fast for Adelaide University as they travel to face the in-form PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart OS will be full of confidence when they host Henley.

Angus Heuer gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Broadview v Athelstone

Broadview remain as just one of two unbeaten teams after a Nathan Gordon goal with just seconds to spare defeated Athelstone by six points at Broadview Oval. The match was a tight, scrappy affair from the beginning, with just one point separating the two points going into the main break. Broadview had their chances in the third term but were unable to convert on the scoreboard as Athelstone put through the only goal of the term, taking a four-point lead into the final change. Athelstone kicked the first goal of the final term and while Broadview responded quickly to cut the lead under a goal, they continued to butcher opportunities until the final minute when a pack mark and crucial finish from Broadview's spearhead sealed the win. Gordon finished with two goals for the match while Tyler McKenzie and Lewis Saint were also strong in the win. For Athelstone, Luke Rander led the way with two goals while Jackson Bos was the pick of the crop for the Raggies. Broadview will be confident they can continue their unbeaten streak when they host Unley while Athelstone face another tough road trip, this time to North Haven.

Previews

Broadview v Unley Mercedes Jets

Broadview welcome the Unley Mercedes Jets to Broadview Oval, the Tigers full of confidence and sitting second after their thrilling six-point win over previously unbeaten Athelstone. The Jets will also come into this game with momentum after a dominant final quarter helped secure their first win of the year over Salisbury North. Despite both teams coming into this clash off a win Broadview are the clear favourites and if they are able to fix up their goalkicking woes it could turn out to be a very ugly day for the Jets. Broadview by 53 points.

Sacred Heart OC v Henley

Sacred Heart take on Henley at Sacred Heart Oval in an intriguing matchup. Sacred Heart are coming off a thumping 81-point win over Adelaide University that left them in third spot on the table while Henley sit sixth, with only one win on the season. Henley had more shots than their opponent, unbeaten North Haven but bad kicking saw them once again fall short. Henley desperately need the win to stay in touch with the top five and while I still expect Sacred Heart to be too strong for the Sharks, I think the matchup will be a lot closer than many anticipate. Sacred Heart OC by 13 points.

PHOS Camden V Adelaide University.

Adelaide University travel to face PHOS Camden at Camden Oval, still looking for their first win of the year as the sit bottom of the Division Two table after yet another heavy defeat. They come up against a Phantoms side that are full of confidence after dismantling Gaza by 103 points. The Phantoms will be eyeing off a top two finish this season and another big win against a struggling Adelaide University will set them well on their way. PHOS Camden by 78 points.

Salisbury North v Gaza.

Salisbury North and Gaza face off at Salisbury North Oval in a contest between two clubs that are struggling to get their season going. Both sides hit close to rock bottom on the weekend with Gaza going down by 103 points in their third consecutive loss while Salisbury North went down to the similar struggling Unley. Salisbury North did however show fight for three quarters and in front of their home crowd I expect a big showing and for the Hawks to record their first win of the season. Salisbury North v Gaza.

North Haven v Athelstone

North Haven and Athelstone face off at Largs North Reserve in a fascinating contest between two sides who will expect to feature deep into the finals. Athelstone faced their first blip of the year, going down to Broadview while North Haven managed to fend off a valiant Henley outfit. I expect Athelstone to come out firing after their first loss of the year, but the talent of North Haven should just get them over the line in what shapes to be a cracking contest. North Haven by 9 points.

REVIEWS:

Modbury v Seaton Ramblers

Modbury have responded to last weeks defeat against Golden Grove with a 55-point thumping of Seaton at home. Modbury got themselves off to a nice start, holding a comfortable 14-point advantage at the main break. However, they put their opponents to the sword in the third quarter, kicking seven goals to two, enabling them to hold a 41-point lead at the final change. Modbury played defensively in the final term, as the sting was taken out of the contest, and the club could celebrate being back on the winners list. Modbury had an extremely varied spread of goal-kickers in the win, with Tim Davey, Daniel Kaipara and Bradley Rogers all kicking three goals, while Mitchell Slater and Liam Verity also booted two. Slater was big in the win, finding a lot of the ball, while Carlos Buccini also was a major ball winner in the victory. Jordan Kasianowicz provided some resistance up forward with two goals for Seaton, while William Burrows also performed well despite the loss.

Edwardstown v Flinders Park

Edwardstown have secured a gritty 20-point win at home against Flinders Park in a very important win in the context of their season. At the major break, the home side trailed by six points at the main break, despite having four more scoring shots, and appeared that they had blown their chances. However, they found another gear in the second half, finishing with an eight goal to four second half. Despite having a very even spread of goal-kickers, Phil Hopton starred with three goals, while George Cornish also booted two. Cameron Forbes and Josh Holyoak were also impressive in the second half comeback, finding plenty of the ball and providing their forwards with a lot of opportunity. For the visiting side, Justin Hardy kicked four goals, creating headaches for the Edwardstown backline, while Aaron Rainey and Luke Ridley also held their heads high in the loss.

CBC OC v Westminster OS

Westminster have handed an absolute hiding to relegation bound CBC, winning by 98 points away from home. Westminster started the game well, leading by 27 points at the first change, and never looked back. With an eight goal to one second quarter in favour of Westminster, the game was all but gone at half-time, with the visitors leading by 69 points. The second half followed the same path, with Westminster running out massive winners. Remarkably, Westminster recorded 41 scoring shots to 18, allowing them a huge percentage boosting victory. Aaron Fielke was the star of the show for the Dragons, kicking seven goals, while fellow forward threat Lachlan McGregor also starred with five majors. James Craig and Riley Drum also continued their impressive starts to the season, finding plenty of the ball, and continuously driving the Dragons forward at every opportunity. Sam Raymond and Daniel Shepherdson each kicked two, proving to be targets despite the massive loss.

Scotch OC v Morphettville Park

Scotch have broken through for victory number one of season 2022, holding on in a heart-stopping finish by four points in front of the home crowd at Scotch College Oval. In a topsy turvy contest, the game ebbed and flowed and had a finals like feel to it. Mark Bourne and Jonathon Lagonik were important contributors for Scotch, each kicking two, while Henry Vandenberg and Ben Legoe had their best performances of the year, constantly repelling for the away side, and defending very strongly against a dangerous Kangaroos outfit. Kye Dean attempted everything in his power to steer the away side to victory, kicking three goals, however, he didn't have enough support and it proved to be too difficult of a task to overcome for the Kangaroos, succumbing to defeat in a disappointing afternoon on the road.

Lachlan Dand gives his match previews for this weeks matches

SMOSH West Lakes v Golden Grove

Golden Grove have survived another massive test, maintaining their undefeated start to the season on the back of an impressive away win against SMOSH. The game was in the balance at the half, with the Kookaburras leading by 15 points, before an 11 goal to four second half enabled them to run out 62-point victors. Joel Horskins kicked four goals for Golden Grove, while former AFL player Lewis Johnston also made a noticeable impact with three majors. The Kookaburras forward weren't short on supply, as the midfield let by Chad Barmby and Jed Banwell found plenty of football, particularly in the second half. For the home side, gun forward Adam Mahney kicked three goals, continuing his strong form to begin the season, while Ben Nash also kicked two.

SMOSH West Lakes v Edwardstown

SMOSH will be at home for the second week in a row, this time taking on Edwardstown in a huge contest. A win could see SMOSH storm back into finals contention, and they need to make the most of their second straight game at home. Conversely, after a brilliant come from behind win, Edwardstown will be looking to cement their place in the finals series and play another strong game. Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 21 points.

Morphettville Park v Modbury

Morphettville Park will host a red-hot Modbury outfit this week in a very important match for the context of their season. Morphettville Park will be very disappointed with their loss last week against Edwardstown, while Modbury played some very impressive football in their win over Seaton. I expect Modbury to take another step towards establishing themselves as finals contenders with a strong away performance. Prediction: Modbury by 27 points.

Westminster OS v Scotch OC

After last week's utter domination of CBC on the road, the Dragons will return home and get set to face a Scotch side full of confidence. Scotch had a breakthrough win against Morphettville Park and will be looking to continue the winning feeling into the upcoming rounds. I predict Westminster to be too strong at home. Prediction: Westminster OS by 31 points.

Flinders Park v CBC OC

With both sides desperate for a win and ultimately looking to bounce back after poor losses last week, Flinders Park will host CBC at home. With Flinders Park in seemingly better form, and CBC hot favourites to get relegated, it's difficult to see them winning this one. Prediction: Flinders Park by 38 points.

Golden Grove v Seaton Ramblers

In red hot form, Golden Grove will return home to play host to Seaton at Harpers Field. Golden Grove have started the season in immense form, and will come into the match-up undefeated, while the visitors will be incredibly disappointed with last weeks loss to Modbury. Considering the form of the two sides, it's very hard to see the Kookaburras losing at home. Prediction: Golden Grove by 67 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Portland 13.11-89 def Pooraka 9.18-72

Portland have given Pooraka their first loss of the season with a 17-point victory at home. A game of missed opportunities for the bulls with poor kicking in front of goals. The first quarter was tight with the slight edge favouring the hosts and due to the inaccuracy from Pooraka. The first half was finished with the rampant bulls holding a firm two goal lead. For the first half they had kicked five-goals-12 and were able to hold Portland to just 30 points at the main break. The margin was narrowed at the last break with Portland only trailing by a single point. This momentum was carried into the last quarter where they kicked five-goals-four to end the game. Pooraka will be kicking themselves finishing the game with double the number of points then goals. The Milera's stared again up forward, Ian booted five with Terrance kicking three with Lindsay Thomas. Sean Hee, Maxwell Sanderson, and Ronald Rankine were the better players for the Bulls. Both teams have tough away matches next week as Portland play at Hope Valley and Pooraka play at Walkerville.

Woodville South 20.18-138 def Mitcham 6.13-49

The Cats had a commanding victory over Mitcham to give them breathing room away from the bottom two. Funnily enough it was the Hawks that led at the first break, although it was by a point. It was in the second where the cats kicked away kicking six-goals-six and holding Mitcham to one goal for the quarter. The second half was a continuation of the second quarter, where the lead just grew and grew. A 43-point lead at three quarter time, followed by finishing the game off winning by 89 points and kicking eight-goals-six in the last quarter. Complete domination through three quarters. Tommy-Lee Russo led the match for goals with five, Lachlan Haufe, Lochie Barreau and Jonathon Schmidt were also some of the better players for the cats. Kai Wilson, Lochie Hall and Dylan Matteucci were some of the few that were solid for Mitcham. The hawks next week have a bottom of the table clash with Pulteney in a game that neither will want to lose. Woodville South travel to Pembroke who are coming off a harsh loss.

Pulteney 6.6-42 def Plympton 24.13-157

Pulteney felt the struggles of being covid infested the week before last receiving the largest loss of the round. Right from the outset it was the Bulldogs getting out hard and fast having a five-goal lead in the first. This was then followed by a huge second quarter, completely destroying the blues at both ends and having an 80-point lead at the big break. In the second half the foot was taken off the pedal by the bulldogs by the margin did not get smaller. 81-points at three quarter time and 115-points to finish out the game with a strong last Plympton quarter. Jack Donkersley, Lonnie Hampton, and Lachie Stoddard were the victors best, Mitchell Harvey, Matthew Henry, Matthew Nielsen were the few better players for the hosts. It has been a horror start for the year for Pulteney sitting dead last, hey have a chance to move up should they beat Mitcham this week. Plympton host Kenilworth in a match they are favoured for and will want to stay in touching distance of the top three.

Kenilworth 5.7-37 def by Hope Valley 16.14-110

Kenilworth have been destroyed at home against an inform Hope Valley. The Burra's were held scoreless in the first quarter as the Demons got out early to a 23-point lead. Kenilworth were able to hold Hope Valley at bay and were lucky the demons could not convert in the second. But they could not hold them for long. A complete second half blitz from Hope Valley to surge there way to a percentage boosting win. 49-points at three quarter time and then 73-points to finish out the game in style. This win was big enough for Hope Valley to finish the round top of the division by percentage. Sam Scott, Joel Smith, and Shaun Clarke were some of Kenilworth's better players. Daniel Nobes kicked ten goals for the victors and was one of the best alongside Jamie Dowling, Joshua Hand, and Jayke Hellmanns for Hope Valley. Kenilworth will travel to Plympton this week and should be desperate to get back in form. Hope Valley host Portland who are back on the winners list.

Walkerville 21.22-148 def Pembroke 8.8-56

Walkerville made the biggest statement this week confirming themselves as the hottest team in the division. The Cats in this one led wire-to-wire and the Kings were unable to manage them particularly down back.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

The game started with a 12-point Cat lead, and this was the shortest margin going into a break. There was no movement margin wise from quarter time to half time and at this point it looked to have been quite a contest at half time. The second half was where the domination began. The margin got out to a 47-point lead at three quarter time and if it were not for inaccuracy, it could have been more. The foot stayed down, and the cats monstered home for a 92-point victory. The Kings will be disappointed with their second half, largely due to how the game ended up and a huge loss of percentage. Adam Proud topped the goal-scorers list with six on the day along with Jordan Storey, Brady Zwar and Jackson Richman being apart of the best for the hosts. Despite the huge loss, Venkhatesh Sivashanker, Harrison George and Magnus Illman were the better players for the Kings. Walkerville host Pooraka next week who will be looking to get back to winning ways. Pembroke have a struggling Woodville South who came off their first win last week.

Previews:

Pembroke v Woodville South

The Kings will host the cats this week in matchup where both teams come into this match in very different form. Pembroke last week were handed there first loss last week in a brutal second half fashion. Letting the game get out of hand where the second half was a training run for Walkerville. Woodville South on the other hand, gained there first victory in style. They completed outplayed Mitcham to jump to seventh. Although this is sixth versus seventh, Pembroke is three and one and Woodville South is one and three. I predict that Pembroke will shake last week and come through with the two points. Pembroke Kings by 25-36 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Hope Valley v Portland

I have chosen this match as this week's division match of the round over Walkerville v Pooraka as I believe this will be the closest match this week. Hope Valley have been hot since there first round loss and have not missed a beat. This was shown last week against Kenilworth, and this was after not playing the week before due to being on the winning end of a forfeit. Portland bounced back from a loss and overcame a strong Pooraka team, who was unbeaten. Back to winning ways, Portland will definitely make this a great matchup. I am going to side with the form team at home to stay on top of the division. Hope Valley Demons by 13-24 points

Plympton v Kenilworth

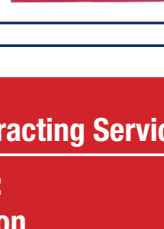

The Bulldogs will be hosting the Kookaburra's this week in what looks to be a one-sided affair early on. The bulldogs have won their last couple of games comfortably, and last week they did it by 19 goals. Kenilworth have struggled since beating Walkerville in the first round and were punished harshly by the league leaders last week. In this game, Plympton will find there way into the top three by the end of the round and do it in some style, Kenilworth will not be able to keep the Bulldogs at bay. Plympton Bulldogs by 37-48 points

Mitcham v Pulteney

As well as there are important matches at the top end of the table, there is also an important matchup towards the bottom end of the division. This bottom of the table clash is a match no team wants to walk away without the two points. Both teams are also winless and do not want to continue the season without one to get going. These two teams lost last week by a combined 204 points. There must be a winner in this game, and I believe Mitcham slightly come in not as bad as Pulteney and will leave the Blues smack bang in tenth with worrying signs. Mitcham Hawks by 13-24 points

Walkerville v Pooraka

This matchup promises to be very tasty and could be the first of potentially at least three meetings between the two. Both teas coming in with different form. The Cats have been in scorching form and have been the form team of the division, with a stellar second half performance over the Pembroke Kings. Pooraka was one of the two teams that were undefeated coming into round five and that was ended when their inaccuracy cost them dearly against Portland. In what promises to be an epic match, I believe the Cats will continue there win streak and Pooraka will have consecutive losses. Walkerville Cats by 13-24 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Elizabeth vs Hectorville 15.4-94 vs 11.7-73

The Eagles have secured another big win at home, seeing off the Hounds by 21 points at Argana Park. The opening quarter actually saw the Hounds start as the stronger side as they kicked three , to take a 8 point lead into the first break. In the second the Eagles came out flying, kicking four goals and conceding two to snatch the lead and take a 3 point difference into halftime. Elizabeth continued to dominate possession and the scoreboard in the third, kicking another four goals to extend their lead to a game high 15 points at the final break. The Hounds put up a valiant fight in the final quarter but ultimately fell short conceding five goals and only scoring four to ultimately lose the game by 21 points. J. McConnell, J Foster and J. Clinton were outstanding for the Eagles, whereas it was T. Smith, J. Goudman-Glasson, and L. Broadbent who were all solid in front of goal for the Hounds.

Lockleys vs Eastern Park 21.17-143 vs 6.8-44

Lockleys have managed another high point win this year, this time seeing off Eastern Park by 99 points. The game started in favour of the home side, who managed four goals in the opening quarter to take a commanding 22 point lead into the first break. The second is when the Demons started to turn on the gas, kicking another six goals to push their lead out to 55 points at the half time break. The game seemed to open up abit with Eastern Park able to knick a few goals on the break, but were still outscored by the Demons who scored seven goals in the third, to take their lead out to 73 points going into the final quarter. The Demons had the game wrapped up mentally and on the scoresheet as they added to their lead and conceded just two behinds in the final quarter to see the game out as 99 point winners. J. Bleby, B. Haren and Z. King who were the forerunners in this demolition, while it was C. Knapp, A. Tuckwell and A. Clements who were diamonds in the rough for the away side.

Blackfriars OS vs Colonel Light Gardens 8.7-55 vs 16.18-114

Blackfriars have fallen short at home against a strong Gardens side, going down by 59 points. The game started strongly in favour of the away side, who scored six goals in the opening quarter, to take a 26 point lead in to the first break. The home side managed to claw them selves back into the game slightly, until Gardens managed to score a couple to slightly extend their lead out to 29 points at halftime. Gardens managed to kill off the game in the third quarter, kicking four unanswered goals to push their huge lead out to 57 points going into the final quarter. With the game already killed off the two sides went blow for blow in the final quarter, both kicking two goals, but the earlier deficit was too much to overcome and Blacks ultimately fell short by 59 points. It was M. Brincat, B. Jordan and F. Marafioti who were strong for the home side, whereas it was J. Van Kempen, B. King and H. Grissold who were influential in an important away win for Gardens.

Salisbury vs Kilburn 11.9-75 vs 14.21-105

Kilburn have secured a big win away from home this week, seeing off a struggling Salisbury by 30 points. The opening quarter was a good teaser for the game in store as both sides kicking three each with just a point separating them in favour of the away side at quarter time. The second saw Kilburn slightly extend their lead, kicking three goals to take a 13 point lead into halftime. Salisbury definitely heeded the coaches message at half time as they came out flying in the third! Kicking six goals and conceding just two, to snatch the lead for the first time in the game by 7 points going into the final quarter. Unfortunately for the home team it seemed all that was left in the tank was used in the third quarter as Kilburn kicked six unanswered goals in the final quarter to see out the game as 30 point winners in this surprising thriller. It was C. Biddle, A. Byster and L. Puddy who were terrific for the home side, but it was J. Davidson, P. Mazalla and J. Sandercock who influenced their side to an important win.

Gepps Cross vs St Pauls OS

20.14-134 vs 8.10-58

The Rams have secured another good win at home, beating the Saints by 76 points. The first quarter started in favour of the home side who kicked four goals to take a 16 point lead into the first break. After the break the away side started to claw their way back into the game, kicking five goals and conceding three to bring the deficit to just 2 points at the halftime break. The rams started to charge in the third however, kicking six goals and conceding just one to take their lead out to 32 at the final break. The Rams took full control in the final quarter, kicking another seven goals to ultimately see out the game 76 point winners. It was R. Smith, J. Matthews and T. Polkinghorne who were outstanding for the home side, whereas T. Ahern, J. Lisenio and N. Papaioannou who played valiantly for the away side.

NEXT WEEK

Gepps Cross vs Lockleys

The Rams host the Demons next round, and with both sides having big wins and scoring over 100 points I can see this one being goals, goals, goals. The Rams have been very strong away this season but Lockleys are certainly not a team to take for granted. For the home ground advantage alone, I see the Rams running away as 16 point winners in this one.

Kilburn vs Elizabeth

Kilburn Host the Eagles next round as they hope to continue their form from last round, but they come up against a very stong Elizabeth side who are claiming scalps for fun, regardless of being away from home its hard to see the Eagles losing a game right now, therefore, Eagles by 35.

Colonel Light Gardens vs Salisbury

Salisbury have to travel to Mortlock Park to face an inform Gardens team to try and turn their season around. They will not have it easy next round as Gardens have the home ground advantage and the taste for winning games. Because of this, I see Gardens running away 27 point winners.

Eastern Park vs Blackfriars OS

This has the making of a decent game as Eastern Park host Blacks next round as both sides look to bounce back after suffering big losses last round. Although Blacks are yet to register a win we saw a few cracks in Eastern park last round, hopefully for their sake they can iron them out. But regardless of this, I see the home side running away 30+ point winners.

St Pauls OS vs Hectorville

The Saints play host to the Hounds next round as they look to bounce back after a disappointing loss last round. However they come up against a team who have only lost once this season and that was to very decent opponents, so it wont be easy. The Hounds are in fine form, and I expect to see them continue this, the Hounds by 42 points.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS

Para Hills v Central United

A good game over at The Paddocks, with Para Hills hosting Central United. It was a fight up until half time when The Units got off to a firing start in the second half and ran away with the win. J.Perna-Hauge stood tall for Central United as he booted 5 goals, with J.Bain and B.Abbott taking the best afield honors. L.Power was good for Para Hills while D.Weetra continued his goal kicking form with another 3 for his tally.

Ingle Farm v Brahma Lodge

In one of the biggest upsets this season, Ingle Farm were sure to not give up at home when they took on Brahma Lodge. Bringing home the win in front of their crowd to get their first win of the season. D.Payne booted 5 goals and M.Sandery was best afield to help bring home the Doggies first win. M.Allan and I.Bellman were the best for Brahma Lodge but couldn't help them bring them the win.

Rosewater v West Croydon

West Croydon came up with the narrow 9 point win on the road this week. Rosewater came hunting for a win with their home ground advantage but couldn't take it all the way. J.Deeley-Godfrey and D.Reardon were the standouts for Rosewater in their loss. For The Hawks L.Woodcock booted his 700th Career goal and put through 5 goals for his team. T.McLeod and B.Seaton helped their side to the win.

Marion v Trinity OS

Trinity once again came out ready for a win. Taking down Marion and once again proving their strength this season. D.Barilla was strong up forward for Trinity kicking 7 goals, J.Smith and D.Eves were best afield to continue their teams run. While Marion P.Anthony-O'Dea was able to put through another 3 goals, B.Reeves and Z.Angel were best on ground.

PREVIEWS

Central United v Marion

After a tough loss to the top side, Marion would be hungry to get the win on the road against a strong Central United and get their confidence up to get themselves in a good position.

TIP: Marion by 13-24

West Croydon v Para Hills

At home this week, West Croydon will take on Para Hills and will be sure to get the win. After a tight win last week, they will be sure to get on top of Para Hills from the start and get off to a good lead.

TIP: West Croydon by 49-60

Ingle Farm v Rosewater

Ingle Farm coming off a good win last week will be wanting to go again while they're full of confidence. I think the momentum from their win will take them to another win against Rosewater at home.

TIP: Ingle Farm by 1-12

Trinity OS v Fitzroy

Trinity will use this game as a major percentage boost to help with their perfect season so far. With the home ground advantage and the strength of their team, they'll take Fitzroy out with flying colors.

TIP: Trinity OS by 100+

David Hocking gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Flinders University v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

02:15 PM, Sat, 07 May 22

Flinders University / Flinders University 1

The battle for the wooden spoon occurs in this match, both have had 1 win and are separated by only percentage, with Uni 7th and Lonsdale 8th. I feel like this game may be decided by the toss of a coin. Uni certainly proved me wrong last week and won convincingly in the end, will they do it again who knows and the same applies to Lonsdale when they defeated Hackham, so on their day either team could win it will depend on which team turns up.

Hackham v Mitchell Park

02:15 PM, Sat, 07 May 22

Hackham Oval / Hackham Oval 1

This match is being played between 4th placed Mitchell Park and 5th placed Hackham both sides have shown that they are capable but they have also had some lapses in losing games I felt they should have won, but whether or not it's the travelling or other situations as sometimes good players rule themselves out when they have to travel and only make themselves available when playing at home I have played in sides like that which can be unsettling for the side but that is football. On the previous results I will have to pick Mitchell Park in I think a close one.

Greenacres v Adelaide Lutheran

EJ Smith Oval / EJ Smith Oval 1

Here we go 1 V 2 what can I say about this game the 2 best performing teams in D7 it will be a strong battle from both team, they both have strong defences, mid fields and strong attacks. So far this season they both have dominated teams and in the first 3 weeks both teams were winning convincingly and winning by about 100 points. So now we will see a very interesting game between these 2 titans of D7 this season. I feel the game will be won in the mid field as with most games the team that can get the ball out of the centre quickly and down to the forwards quickly so that they can have a 1 out I feel will win the game, I am going to stick with the Dragons in this game but only just. As it will be the first of these battles then I would suggest that spectators get down to the Dragons Lair to watch what I think will be a classic game of football.

Houghton Districts v Mawson Lakes

02:15 PM, Sat, 07 May 22

Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

At home I am sorry I can't go past the Raiders in this match especially after their performance against the Dragons last week. For me the Lakers are another team who run hot and cold and you don't know which team you will get, it is quite possible that you will get the team that could destroy the opposition or not. In my opinion I will stick with the Raiders at home and they should confirm their 3rd position on the table, so I will tip the Raiders to win this game, where at home the Raiders play a tough style of football and will pressure the Lakers in to submission.
