DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Glenunga 11.6 (72) def Tea Tree Gully 8.9 (57)

Tea Tree Gully suffered their second loss on the trot after starting 3-0, going down to a resurgent Glenunga outfit on Saturday by 15 points. The Gullies started the game accurately, kicking five goals before a miss, but after half time they managed just three goals with nine behinds as the home side held on. The Rams can perhaps thank their lucky stars Tea Tree Gully were inaccurate, otherwise their 16-point half time lead might have been cut into. Zac Smith and Nicholas Egarr were pivotal in the Glenunga win, their third straight which puts them equal first on points, while Zak and Alex McKay were both among the visitors' best.

Port District 10.12 (72) def Payneham 4.4 (28)

The home side used a dominant second half performance to clean up their opponent Payneham on the weekend, winning comfortably by 44 points to claim top spot by percentage. It was a slow, inaccurate start for Port District, leading by just five with a 3.6 score line at the main break, but a 7.6 to 1.3 second half put the game to rest quickly. Gavin Shephard (3 goals) and Sam Gray were instrumental for the ladder leaders, while Payneham, who are one of two teams left on just one win, were led by Harrison Viney, who kicked three of their four goals, and Jack O'Leary.

St Peters 9.10 (64) def by Goodwood 12.14 (86)

A big upset took place at St Peters College on Saturday afternoon, with the visiting Goodwood Saints outplaying the in-form St Peters in a commanding 22-point victory. Kyle Kirk was best afield for the Saints, who like five other teams moved to 3-2, equal top, after five rounds. The visitors led at every change and could have stretched the margin further if they converted in front of goal, as the once ladder leading St Peters squad have been brought down to earth at 3-2. Jake Sutcliffe was the home side's best amidst the loss.

Rostrevor 11.15 (81) def Prince Alfred 9.7 (61)

Like many teams after five rounds, Rostrevor are starting to find their groove in 2022 and moved to a positive win-loss record to join their peers atop the ladder, after taking care of Prince Alfred at home. The 20-point win was bolstered mostly by a seven goal second half where they outscored the visitors 50-15, after Prince Alfred led by as much as 15 at half time. Lewis McCormack booted three majors for the winning side, with Tim Baccanello and Matthew Dnistriansky also strong performers. Prince Alfred are dwindling at the bottom with a 1-4 record and their chances at finals footy are slipping by the week.

Brighton 7.13 (55) def by Old Ignatians 10.11 (71)

It was a big game for both sides with a chance to level the pack with three wins, and the visiting Old Ignatians took it with both hands, stealing a win on the road by 16 points against an inconsistent Brighton side. The Bombers took a quarter to wake up, going scoreless until quarter time, before they kicked into gear with ten scoring shots in the second term. It was too little, too late by then, as the away side was able to fend off any runs the Bombers could produce to hold the lead. Brayden De Prinse is always in the game notes for Old Ignatians and again was among his side's best, while Blake Higgins led the charge in a losing effort.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 6

Payneham V St Peters

The struggling Payneham host St Peters this week in a game that may be closer than first thought. Compared to the start of the year, St Peters are in poor form at the moment and if there was ever a chance for an upset, it would be this week for Payneham. Home ground advantage will also be vital, but will it be enough for the upset of the year or will St Peters bounce back in clinical fashion and right the ship at 4-2?

Prince Alfred V Glenunga

The other team struggling at 1-4, Prince Alfred, are back at home this week after falling to Rostrevor by 20 points on the road. However, they won't feel too comfortable on their home deck this week as they come up against perhaps the form team of the competition, the Rams. Glenunga have won three straight and have knocked off good teams in that span, and unfortunately for the home side, I think this week will be no different.

Goodwood V Rostrevor

The Saints are back to playing good footy and it has come at a good time, as they have caught up to the pack and are equal first on points. They host another team sitting at 3-2, Rostrevor, who enjoyed a cruisy 20-point home win last week, so this match could be a good one. Whoever wins will prove to be the real deal and move to a commanding 4-2 record, one that could go a long way to winning a finals spot later this year.

Tea Tree Gully V Brighton

After starting the season red hot with three straight wins, the Gullies have significantly fallen in the last fortnight with two bad losses, and their 3-2 record doesn't look as dominant as their previous 3-0 record. Brighton have played very inconsistently thus far, with their best matching it with the top teams, but their worst disappointingly poor. The Bombers will be hoping for the former this week on the road, but it will be a tough ask as Tea Tree Gully cannot afford to drop another one, especially at home.

Old Ignatians V Port District

Our last matchup should be the game of the round, with two in-form teams facing off with a chance at equal top spot up for grabs. The visitors this week, Port District, are coming off a dominant home win, while the hosting Old Ignatians also got the job done in round five against Brighton. It could go either way, but I'm backing the home side to get the win and sit pretty with the top sides through six rounds.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Broadview v Unley Mercedes Jets

Broadview have moved to 5-0 on the season, defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 61 points at Broadview Oval. After a tight first term saw the Tigers take a 7-point lead into the first change Broadview extended the margin in the second term, kicking seven goals to three and taking a 28-point lead into half time. The Jets managed to stay in touch during the third term before a six goal to none final term from Broadview sealed yet another big win for the Tigers. Nathan Gordon backed up his heroics from last week with a five-goal performance for Broadview while Callum Flanagan, Cooper O'Leary, Lewis Saint and Joshua Sheppard all kicked two goals. Rigby Barnes was strong, and Jack Fergus dominated in an important percentage boost that leave the Tigers just 2% behind ladder leaders North Haven. For the Jets, Nick Wark and Luke Heaslip both kicked two goals while Gabriel Luksich stood tall in a loss that leaves Unley two wins and percentage outside the top five. The Jets will struggle to get back on the winners list when they host Athelstone while Broadview will expect another big win when they travel to face Gaza.

Sacred Heart OC v Henley

Sacred Heart OC have continued their strong form, thumping Henley by 76 points at Sacred Heart Oval. Sacred Heart were electric early, kicking six goals to three in the first term to take a 19-point lead into quarter time. Henley were kept goalless in the second term as the lead grew to 34 points before a six goal to one third term from Sacred Heart blew the lead out to 64 points. Henley were again kept goalless in the third term, meaning they were only able to kick one goal in the final three quarters in what will be a real worrying sign to the supporters. Tristan Carcuro once again made his presence felt up forwards with five goals and he received plenty of support from a four-goal performance by Oscar Lovelock. Seb Kerrish was impressive, and Nick Forster gathered plenty of the football in a win that leaves Sacred Heart one win outside the top two. For Henley, Lachlan Sheffield kicked two goals while Tim Broadbent battled hard in another disappointing loss for the Sharks. Henley will be desperate to get back on the winners list when they host PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart will get their opportunity to move into the top two when they travel to face the unbeaten North Haven.

Salisbury North v Gaza

Salisbury North are the only team still yet to record a win this season after going down to Gaza by 50 points at Salisbury North Oval. After a fairly even first half saw the Eagles take a ten-point lead into halftime Gaza took control in the third term, kicking five goals to none and taking a commanding 46-point lead into the final change. Gaza again showed capitalized on the Hawks struggling defence in the final term, kicking five goals in a term for the third time in the match to secure an important victory that snaps a three-game losing streak. Todd Culley and Stephe Tahana both kicked four goals for the Eagles while Damon Hill bobbed up with three majors. Scott Lewis was dominant and Benjamin Bronner also impressive in a win that sparks some life into Gaza's season. For Salisbury North, Steven Wellington was the standout while Jake Burrows and Benjamin Wiles tried hard in another dirty day for the Hawks. Salisbury North will again try to go for their first victory of the season when they travel to face Adelaide University while Gaza face a stern task when they play host to the unbeaten Broadview.

PHOS Camden v Adelaide University

Adelaide University have pulled off a massive upset, breaking through for their first win of the in a thrilling 8-point win over PHOS Camden. Adelaide Uni got out to the perfect start, kicking four goals to one in the first term to take a 17-point lead into quarter time before the Phantoms came roaring back, responding with a five goal to one second term and taking a 7-point lead of their own into halftime. Just when it looked like the Phantoms had taken control of the contest Adelaide University clicked up a gear, kicking three goals to one and taking a 3-point lead into the final change. In a tense final term both sides had their chances before a Matthew Landridge goal with minutes remaining sealed Adelaide University's first win of the season. Will McGowan, Samuel Warrick and Braden Robinson all kicked two goals for Adelaide Uni while Ryan Marini and Ryan Sammut both stood out in the win. For the Phantoms, Finn Betterman kicked three goals and Aiden Lock battled valiantly in what was a very disappointing day for a PHOS team who was trying to keep in touch with the top two. The Phantoms will look to find form when they travel to face Henley while Adelaide University will hope they can keep their momentum going when they host a struggling Salisbury North.

North Haven v Athelstone.

North Haven remains atop of the Division Two table after a thrilling 4-point win over Athelstone at Largs North Reserve. The contest was predicted to be a tight tussle and the first half lived up to the script with just three points separating the sides at the main break in favour of North Haven. The Magpies broke away in the third term, kicking three goals to two and taking a 12-point lead into the final change. The Raggies kicked the first goal of the final term and again cut the lead back to 3 points but ran out of time as North Haven held on for their 5th straight win of the year. Jack Forster kicked three goals for the Magpies, and he received plenty of support from a two goal Matthew Sharpe performance. Kyran Dixon was strong, and Alexander Stidiford stood out in the win. For Athelstone, Luca Stepic, Aaron Stewart and Sam Tarca all kicked two goals while Callum Camp fought hard in the Raggies second straight loss. Athelstone have a perfect opportunity to turn their fortunes around when they travel to Unley while North Haven will face another test in the form of Sacred Heart OC.

Round 6

Henley v PHOS Camden

Henley and PHOS Camden meet at Henley Memorial Oval, both teams coming off of disappointing losses and looking to bounce back. The Phantoms were stunned by Adelaide University in a huge boilover while Henley were thumped by Sacred Heart OC, their fourth loss of the season. The Sharks will be desperate for their second win of the year and will show some fight in front of their home fans, but it is hard to see PHOS being upset two weeks in a row. PHOS Camden by 37 points.

Gaza v Broadview.

Gaza welcome Broadview to Klemzig Reserve with the Eagles full of confidence after their 50-point win over Salisbury North, breaking their three-game losing streak. They come up against a red-hot Broadview who are undefeated after a big win against Unley. Both sides are coming into this clash off a win but with the Tigers eyeing off top spot on the ladder I think it could be a long day for the Gaza faithful. Broadview by 47 points.

Adelaide University v Salisbury North

Adelaide University and Salisbury North face off at Park 12 in what will be an intriguing matchup between two of the bottom sides this year. Adelaide University come into this clash with all the momentum, stunning PHOS Camden to record their first win of the year. Salisbury North on the other hand suffered another humiliating loss, this time at the hands of Gaza to be the only team still searching for a win. They should come close this week but if Adelaide University bring their form from last week into this contest, they should get the job done. Adelaide University by 21 points.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Athelstone

Athelstone travel to Kingswood Oval to take on the Unley Mercedes Jets, looking to turn their fortunes around after two straight losses. Both losses for the Raggies have been by a goal or less but they will still be desperate to get back on the winners list. They come up against an Unley team with just one win for the season and coming off a thumping loss to Broadview. Athelstone are clearly the better team and it is very hard to see the Jets puling off an upset. Athelstone by 47 points.

North Haven v Sacred Heart OC

North Haven and Sacred Heart OC meet at Largs North Reserve in what should be a cracking contest. North Haven are sitting top of the ladder, undefeated after seeing off a stern Athelstone test. Sacred Heart have lost just one game for the season and are coming off yet another huge win, this time a 76-point domination of Henley. A win for Sacred Heart will put them in the top two and I expect them to give North Haven their first loss of the year in what should be a thrilling matchup. Sacred Heart OC by 11 points.

REVIEWS:

SMOSH West Lakes v Edwardstown

Edwardstown have held on in a thrilling win over SMOSH on the road. In a low-scoring, inaccurate affair, Edwardstown got the jump, taking a 23-point lead into the main break. The inaccuracy from both sides would continue in the third quarter, with the home side missing several opportunities to hit the front. With the margin at 20 points at the final change, SMOSH needed something big in the final term, and failed to make their chances count, recording six behinds from their eight scoring shots in the final quarter. Edwardstown also had the chance to put the game on ice, but also were inaccurate. Phil Hopton was massive in the win for the visitors, booting three goals, while Josh Schiller and Mitch Neumann also provided valuable contributions. Adam Mahney was the only dual goal-scorer for the home side, with two. James Tripodi and Dalton Tucker also proved valiant in the loss, winning plenty of the ball as SMOSH attempted to mount a comeback.

Morphettville Park v Modbury

Modbury have recorded a thumping away win over Morphettville Park, sending them spiralling further down the ladder. Modbury were rather sluggish to begin the match, trailing at the quarter time, as the Kangaroos missed numerous opportunities to be further ahead. However, Modbury kicked themselves into gear in the next two quarters, piling on seven goals per quarter, and taking a 56-point lead into the final quarter. The final term appeared to be much more even, as Modbury won the final term, kicking five goals to three and taking home a 70-point win. Jake Phillips lead the way with six majors, while Bradley Rogers continued his good season with five goals. Both Phillips and Mitch Slater found plenty of the ball and were worthy recipients of being named in the best players. For the Kangaroos, superstar forward Alex Barns kicked six goals and caused problems all afternoon, while Liam Toohey and Jesse Martin also found plenty of the ball throughout the afternoon.

Westminster OS v Scotch OC

In a thrilling encounter, Westminster have held on in a narrow victory over Scotch, winning by just three points. The game was close all afternoon; however, the match was ultimately won in the third quarter. It was in this quarter that Westminster kicked eight goals to two, scoring 50 points in the quarter to Scotch's 13. Aaron Fielke was terrific for the home side, kicking four goals, with Riley Wilsdon also booting two. James Craig continued his strong season, finding plenty of the ball, with Theodosi Cotsaris also proving valuable in the win. For the visitors, Jed Obst kicked two goals, while Mark Bourne and Tom McKenzie also each kicked two. Harrison Jolly and Max Renfrey also dominated despite the loss, proving valiant in the loss.

Flinders Park v CBC OC

Flinders Park have rocketed into 4th position on the ladder, following a monstrous 86-point win over CBC at home. The game was relatively even throughout the opening two quarters, as Flinders Park held a 15-point lead into the main break. However, the home side took their game to a whole new level in the third quarter, kicking eight unanswered goals, allowing them to hold a 65-point win at the final break. The final term followed the same trend, with the home side kicking four goals to one, running out victorious by 86 points. Justin Hardy kicked six goals for the home side and was far too much for the CBC defenders to handle, while James Schwarz also performed very well with three goals. Nic Schwarz and Scott Bedford also dominated the midfield in the victory over CBC, racking up possessions. Meanwhile, Nathan Byrnes played very well for the visitors, kicking two goals.

Lachlan Dand gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Golden Grove v Seaton Ramblers

Golden Grove have maintained their spot at the top of the ladder with a thumping 92-point victory over Seaton at Harpers Field. The Kookaburras set the tone for the match in the opening quarter, kicking seven goals to nil and taking a 43-point lead. Seaton wrestled back some momentum in the second quarter, kicking six goals to two and bringing the margin back to 20 points. However, with the wind behind them in the third quarter, Golden Grove dominated once again with seven unanswered goals, and followed up with a five goal to one quarter in the final term to run out 92-point winners. Joel Horskins was brilliant for the Kookaburras, booting six goals, while Wyatt Patterson and Brayden Shaw also proved valuable contributors with three apiece. Experienced stars Cam Shenton and Lewis Johnston also showed their class, sending Seaton to the cleaners in the impressive victory.

PREVIEWS:

Modbury v Westminster OS

Modbury are set to return home this week and will take on somewhat of a struggling Westminster outfit. Modbury will be full of confidence coming into the match, following there enormous win over Morphettville Park on the road. Westminster held on last week against Scotch, and in a bruising encounter, had a lot of players cop a knock. I expect Modbury to be far too good in this one at home.

Prediction: Modbury by 65 points.

CBC OC v SMOSH West Lakes

On the back of two home defeats in a row, SMOSH will be back on the road this week to take on a struggling CBC side. Both sides are very much out of form, however, both pose dangerous threats across the ground.

Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 28 points.

Scotch OC v Flinders Park

Flinders Park will be on the road at Scotch College Oval this weekend and will take on a Scotch side who will be heartbroken after their loss last week. Flinders Park will be fired up coming into the contest, following their 86-point win last weekend. I expect a similar trend to follow this week.

Prediction: Flinders Park by 51 points.

Edwardstown v Golden Grove

In what is the match of the round, the third placed Edwardstown will face the toughest test in the competition, facing the Kookaburras. Edwardstown will be at home, and therefore, will also have the home fans on their side to hopefully will them over the line. I predict the Kookaburras to be too strong and continue their undefeated start to season 2022.

Prediction: Golden Grove by 33 points.

Seaton Ramblers v Morphettville Park

With both sides desperately needing a response after very disappointing efforts last week, Seaton will host Morphettville Park at Links Hotel Reserve. With both clubs coming off 92, and 70 point defeats respectively, the game is expected to be a fiery encounter to begin with. I expect Seaton to be too strong at home, making Morphettville Park's problems continue by the week.

Prediction: Seaton by 19 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Reviews:

Pembroke 16.9-105 def Woodville South 6.10-46

Pembroke are back on track and are back inside the top 3 with a comfortable win over Woodville South. The Kings got off to a fast start with a 17-point lead which was pulled back slightly to 11 points at the main break. The second half is where the lead grew for the Kings, a 28-point lead at three quarter time. The last quarter was a defensive masterclass from Pembroke, allowing no points to the cats and extending the lead out to 59 points to win with a good percentage boost. Forster topped goalscoring for the match once again with five. Henry Read, Adam Zeni and Harry Roberts were great for the home side. Patrick Binnion, Cameron Bell and Jamie Coff were some of the better players for the Cats. Pembroke have a chance to extend their form next week against Pulteney. The Cats will have their work cut out as they face Walkerville.

Hope Valley 15.14-104 drew Portland 16.8-104

Division four has its first draw for the season as Hope Valley drew with Portland. It was a fast start for the hosts as they got out to four goal lead. The following quarter remained much the same with the Demons having a steady and comfortable lead. The second half is where the margin slowly deteriorated, only ten points going into the last quarter. In the last quarter, Portland won the quarter by ten points and ended the match even at 104 a piece. Daniel Nobes and Matthew Min both kicked bags for the hosts and were some of the best along with Machok Garang, Jayke Hellmanns and Josh Schilling. Some of the visitor's better players were Dale Laslett, Bradley Traeger and Lindsay Thomas, who kicked seven goals. Portland next week host Plympton whilst Hope Valley visit Pooraka, which will be a tough match.

Plympton 13.17-95 def Kenilworth 5.7-37

Plympton has continued there impressive for with there time in this division with a comfortable win over Kenilworth. Although an inaccurate start, it was a fast one for the bulldogs, getting out to a 25-point start. This steadied through to the end of the first half as the lead maintained and Kenilworth had there best quarter. In the second half though for the Kookaburra's, they had only recorded the one major. The Bulldogs struggled to really gain on the lead in the third but did so in the last. A 38-point lead turned into a 58-ppoint victory for Plympton, to place them in the top two in the division. Lachie Stoddard, Jesse Colley and Lonnie Hampton were best from the winners. Joel Smith, Sam Scott and Nick Chesser were the better players for the Kookaburra's. Plympton face a really tough matchup away at Portland next week. Kenilworth face a crucial matchup with Mitcham.

Mitcham 19.14-128 def Pulteney 8.9-57

Mitcham have cruised home in a big win over Pulteney. It was a massive win for the hawks to be lifted out of the relegation zone. Unfortunately for the Blues this means they remain the only team that is yet to record a victory this season. The Hawks finished very strong to this game with a 61-point last quarter. Maxwell Smyth kicked seven goals to lead in the game and he was best along with Oliver Pride, Patrick Newman and Harrison Pride. Matthew Nielsen, Mitchell Harvey and James Ledgard were the better players from the visitors. Mitcham have a tough match against Kenilworth which will be crucial at the bottom end of the ladder. Pulteney will host Pembroke in a tough match and have to be desperate to record a win.

Walkerville 17.10-112 def Pooraka 10.13-73

Walkerville have continued there terrific form of games and remain the team with the longest win streak in the division. Pooraka came into this match with there first loss which happened narrowly and came out and held Walkerville at bay. This happened only for the first quarter where they had the early lead which could have been larger, if not for inaccuracy. From the second quarter onwards, the Cats gained firm control of this game. A 23-point half time lead set the Cats up to dominate the remainder of the game. This lead doubled in the third quarter but once again was aided from bad Bulls goalkicking. Pooraka rectified there kicking in front of goals but it was a case of too little too late, Walkerville were 39 point victors. Adam Proud topped the division for this weeks goalscoring with eight and he was best along with Sean Kuerschner, Jack Mckenzie, Michael Makris and Jordan Smith. Maxwell Sanderson, Sean Hee and Michael Baker were good for the visitors.

Previews:

Pulteney v Pembroke

Pulteney remain the lone winless team and will have their work cut out against Pembroke. The Kings had a comfortable win last week against Woodville South to get back onto the winners list. This will no doubt be a tough match for the Blues as will most matches this season. Pembroke have not been a very strong offensive team, if the Blues can tighten up defensively, it will be there best chance. As it would seem, I believe Pembroke will be the easy victors in this match. Pembroke Kings by 61-72 points

Portland v Plympton

One of the best matches of the sixth round is when these two teams face off. Portland participated in the divisions first draw of the season against Hope Valley but remain in such good form. Plympton had a nice and comfortable win against Kenilworth at home. This will be a battle of two of the top three scoring teams in this division. Although Plympton are currently better defensively, I'm backing in the hosts to take the win and climb further up the division. Portland by 13-24 Points

Kenilworth v Mitcham

At the opposite end of the division holds an important game that can shape the season for both of these teams. Kenilworth are on the second longest losing streak in the division following Pulteney. Mitcham had there first win last week in convincing fashion. The loser of this match will remain in the relegation zone with Pulteney and may find it hard to pickup games from here. For this match, I believe the hosts will come out on top narrowly. Kenilworth by 1-12 points

Walkerville v Woodville South

The cat's cup is certainly shaping up to be a lop-sided affair. Walkerville come into this match as the hottest team in the division, completely destroying everyone since the first round. Woodville South came of a tough loss to Pembroke and are very close to the bottom end of the division. In this match I'm tipping the expected Walkerville win. Walkerville Cats by 85-96 points

GAME OF THE ROUND

Pooraka v Hope Valley

This weeks match of the round funnily enough features two teams that both didn't record a win last week. Hope valley drew away at Portland whilst Pooraka couldn't keep a strong Walkerville side at bay. A loss for either can send them on the outside of the top five, alternatively a win can put someone in a double chance position on the ladder. With the run of form that they're in, I believe that Hope Valley will come out victorious only slightly as Pooraka are in a slight slump. Hope Valley by 1-12 points

ROUND 5

Gepps Cross 8.15 (63) def by Lockleys 14.14 (98)

It was a match Lockleys needed to win to stay in the finals race, and they did just that on the road on Saturday, defeating a valiant Gepps Cross outfit by 15 points to cruise to 4-1 on the season. The visitors led at all changes and after quarter time were able to create a large enough buffer that the home side were never really in it, despite having 23 scoring shots of their own. Nathan Batley was best afield for Lockleys, while Ben Haren and Sean Stormonth both kicked three goals for the Demons. The Rams sit in sixth spot, at 2-3, after the loss.

Kilburn 5.15 (45) def by Elizabeth 11.8 (74)

Elizabeth stayed undefeated on the weekend, but it wasn't as convincing as the visitors would have hoped, winning by 29 points to move to 5-0. The hosting Kilburn had more scoring shots (20 to 19) than the Eagles, but could not convert in front of goal, managing just five goals and fifteen behinds in the five-goal loss. The difference in accuracy was most noticeable in the first half, with Kilburn kicking 3.11 to Elizabeth's 7.2 by half time, a score line that easily could have been in the home side's favour had they kicked straight. Riley Mitchell (4 goals) and Michael Vidal were instrumental for the winning side, while Kilburn will be left to rue what could have been.

Colonel Light Gardens 21.19 (145) def Salisbury 8.2 (50)

It was an old-fashioned rout on Saturday, as the home side Colonel Light Gardens absolutely obliterated the winless Magpies by 95 points. The near triple figure win will give the winners plenty of momentum going forward, and they played far better than their 3-2 record might suggest. The game was well and truly over by half time, with CLG leading by 61 points at the main break. From there it got worse, as the margin toppled into three figures before narrowly falling short by the final siren. The home team had eleven different goalkickers, with Paul McInerney leading the lot with five majors, while Jock van Kempen was voted best afield. The season keeps getting worse for Salisbury, and the output from here onwards looks bleak.

Eastern Park 15.8 (98) def Blackfriars 13.12 (90)

It was almost the upset of the season on Saturday as the winless Blackfriars were so close to pulling off a remarkable road win at Eastern Park, narrowly going down by just eight points in a high scoring affair. Accuracy can cost you games, and it was the case yet again for the visitors, as they had more scoring shots than the 4-1 Demons, but it was not to be as the home side held on. Although they led by fourteen points at half time and it looked like they would break away, Eastern Park could never get any breathing room as the valiant Blackfriars outfit stuck around for four full quarters. Anthony Burgoyne (5) and Shawn Mansell (4) shared nine goals between them, while Chris Lewis was best afield for Eastern Park, who will need to be better than that to beat the top teams going forward. Andrew de Duonni gave it his all in a losing performance, but this effort will surely spark some confidence in the 0-5 Blackfriars, proving they can match it with the best teams.

St Pauls 6.6 (42) def by Hectorville 14.18 (102)

The difference between the top four and bottom four was on full display on Saturday, with the in-from Hectorville dismantling the 1-4 St Pauls by ten goals. At home or on the road, Heccies look hard to beat, while the home side were very disappointing and are fast slipping away from playing finals footy. Peter Minervini (5 votes) and Jak Goudman-Glasson (4 goals) played a key part in the road win, and the margin could have been even larger had the Hounds kicked straight. St Pauls had just one multi-goalkicker, Ben Lennon (2 goals), while Thomas Ahern was the lone shining light in an all-around forgettable performance.

ROUND 6

Elizabeth v Colonel Light Gardens

The Eagles will be looking to keep their unbeaten streak going at home this week, but it won't come easy as their opponent is fresh off a 95-point drubbing last round. Colonel Light Gardens had 40 scoring shots in round 5 and will be hoping to keep that momentum running, with the chance of a road upset on the cards, especially with how unconvincing Elizabeth were against Kilburn last week. Still, back at home, the Eagles should take care of business and move to 6-0.

Blackfriars v Gepps Cross

The improvement has been visible for this struggling Blackfriars squad, with the narrow eight-point loss to Eastern Park proving they are close to their first win of 2022. At home, against a Rams side that is fresh off a loss, they are every chance of registering win number one, but if Gepps Cross want to play finals, then this is absolutely a game they need to be winning. Lots to play for this week.

Salisbury v Eastern Park

The Magpies are in serious trouble, after their 95-point loss saw them slump to a 37.7%. The only thing going for them this week is that they are at home, but fans might want to look away if last week is anything to by. The Demons were challenged hard by the other winless team, Blackfriars, but should bounce back and beat up on a lowly Salisbury side this week to get their momentum back where they want it.

Lockleys v St Pauls

This matchup could prove to be another drubbing, with the in-form Demons hosting a St Pauls outfit that was smashed by Hectorville last week. At home, the sky is the limit for Lockleys, with the 1-4 St Pauls hoping for a miracle to have any chance at creating an upset this week. The Demons should comfortably move to 5-1 with the win, and hopefully start to lock down a finals spot.

Hectorville v Kilburn

The last matchup on paper looks lopsided but based on the amount of scoring shots Kilburn had against a strong opponent last week, anything is possible heading into this round six clash. The Hounds are a very good outfit, with their 60-point victory last week an example of that, and at home, a 5-1 record looks very likely. But Kilburn were very competitive against the unbeaten Eagles last week, and will be coming in as the clear underdogs, so don't be surprised if this is closer than what it should be.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS

Central United v Marion

Despite Marion getting off to a good start against The Units this week, it wasn't enough to hold on in the end. Central United trailed all game only to put on a 6 goal to 1 final quarter to seal a good win against The Rams and prove themselves as a competitor this year.

D. Steele and P. Pudney were amongst the best for Central United, while D. McIntyre and T. Hamilton booted 3 goals each in their win.

T. Stewart kicked 4 goals for Marion and B. Bird was their best afield.

West Croydon v Marion

Right from the first bounce, The Hawks were ready to go when they took on Para Hills this week. Getting up to a 9 goal lead at half time, they went on to run all over Para Hills and walked away 101 point winners.

P. Cree was best afield for Para Hills, while D. Weetra's kicking boots were on again with another 4 goals.

But it was The Hawks who had their goal kicking sorted with F. Agius, D. Doolan and L. Woodcock all booting 5 goals each.

L. Milera was best on ground to help The Hawks to their win, also booting 2 goals of his own.

Ingle Farm v Rosewater

Determined for a win on the road, Rosewater came out firing as they got off to a 7 goal lead early in the game at Rowe Park, and put up the fight all game to end up 81 point victors.

J. Moody and D. Lockwood were the best for Rosewater, and S. Catterall kicked 3 for his side.

D. Tanczos and J. Delchau were shining lights for Ingle Farm and earned best afield honors.

Trinity OS v Fitzroy

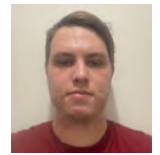

Once again, Trinity came out and made sure to secure a big win in their surge this season.

Coming up against Fitzroy at home, they never looked short and came up 71 point winners, with J. Smith and C. Matters the best afield and D. Barilla booted 4 for The Lions, while for Fitzroy, H. Rusby and J. Smart were their best.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

PREVIEWS

Fitzroy v Central United

Central United will look towards this game as an opportunity to continue their streak of the last few weeks and get a win on the road.

I think The Units will be too strong for Fitzroy and come up convincing winners.

TIP: Central United by 49-60

Marion v West Croydon

A tough matchup at Marion this week as they take on West Croydon at home. Both sides are reasonably strong so far this season, I believe it will be an arm wrestle all game but may lead with Marion scraping past.

TIP: Marion by 1-12

Rosewater v Brahma Lodge

Coming off the bye, Brahma Lodge will look fresh in their matchup against Rosewater at Eric Sutton Reserve this week.

Despite Rosewater's strong play in the last few weeks, I think The Tigers will be too much for them this week.

TIP: Brahma Lodge by 37-48

Para Hills v Ingle Farm

Two teams coming off losses, this will be a game neither side wants to lose.

In a fight all game, this will be one of the games of the round and I don't think there will be much separating these two sides.

However, I think the home ground advantage, and the hunger for a win will suit The Reds more, and Para Hills will come home narrow winners.

TIP: Para Hills by 1-12

Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) / Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) 1

Both sides coming off good wins last week, but the Raiders seem to be the form team at the moment, and consequently it would be hard to pick against them to lose this game, even though they are the travelling team with their confidence sky high all over the ground they should win this game easily and show that they are now a team to be feared the rest to the competition.

Mawson Lakes v Greenacres

02:15 PM, Sat, 14 May 22

Mawson Lakes Oval / Mawson Lakes Oval 1

Green acres should continue on their merry way, they are the only unbeaten side at the moment, and that fact should continue against the Lakers, but funnier things have happened in football. Over confidence will be the Dragons undoing this season, especially after a win against Adelaide Lutheran, which may have them feeling they are invincible and only have to turn up and for them to win. It will be tough for the coaching staff to keep the Dragons focused each week. This week I cant see the Dragons losing this game and should continue on their merry way.

Hackham v Flinders University

02:15 PM, Sat, 14 May 22

Hackham Oval / Hackham Oval 1

The Hawks take on Flinders Uni on their home deck, confidence should be riding high after their strong performance against Mitchell Park. With Flinders Uni having trouble in front of goal last week, it is hard to pick against Hackham at home, although the last time I picked another side against Uni they made me eat my words, hopefully that doesn't happen again and that the Hawks protect my choice and win for this reporter whose tips over the season are not looking good.

Adelaide Lutheran v Mitchell Park

02:15 PM, Sat, 14 May 22

South Parklands / South Parklands 1

I would think that this week Adelaide Lutheran get back to the winners circle this week and with the performance of the Lions last Saturday, unfortunately I can't see anything else that would change my opinion that the Lutheran machine will destroy Mitchell Park and have a much-needed confidence win. To win this game Mitchell Park will need to get back to their early season form, showing other teams how well they could finish off the opposition after half time. That is the only way that they can give the supporters hope that they will continue to show fight and determination for the rest of the season.
