Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 6

Payneham 4.11 (35) def by St Peters 6.15 (51)

St Peters continued their successful start to the season, taking care of Payneham in an abysmal goalkicking display for both sides. The visitors hold equal top spot with a 4-2 record through six games, while the home side slumped to 1-5, the only side with less than two wins. The tone was set at quarter time when there were a combined eleven scoring shots, with just one goal kicked between the two sides (1.4 to 0.6). But it was the second quarter where St Peters were able to pull away, kicking four goals in the period to sustain a 22-point half time lead, one that was never really challenged from there on out. Spearhead Jock McLeay once again led all goal scorers with three majors, while Toby Schulz picked up best on ground honours.

Prince Alfred 10.13 (73) def Glenunga 3.13 (31)

The home side pulled off a big upset on the weekend, picking up their second win of the season and subsequently halting Glenunga's scintillating run of form dead in its tracks. Albeit the Rams were appalling in front of goal with thirteen behinds and just the three goals, but the fact that it took them a half to kick their first goal did not do them any favours either. The game was over by half time, with Prince Alfred's 43-point lead at the main break proving too much for the in-form Rams. The winning side shared their goalkickers, while Chris Curran and Hayden Jolly were their best.

Goodwood 11.18 (84) def Rostrevor 11.8 (74)

The Saints added another scalp to their winning streak on Saturday, coming from behind to fend off a valiant Rostrevor outfit by ten points. Goodwood had ten more scoring shots than their opponent, so the winning margin perhaps should have been larger, yet it still took the home side three quarters to take the lead. Nicholas Burgess (4 goals) and Nick Favretto (5 votes) willed their side to victory, the Saints' fourth of the season, while Nick Murphy (4 goals) and James Buttersworth did all they could for Rostrevor, with the loss moving them to 3-3 and in seventh spot.

Tea Tree Gully 15.11 (101) def Brighton Bombers 13.14 (92)

After two consecutive losses, the Gullies got back on track on Saturday, holding off the Bombers by just nine points at home. Another upset was looming at half time when Brighton led by a point, but the home side gained control in the premierships quarter and never looked back, sustaining their narrow lead throughout the second half to seal their fourth win. Brodie Latham booted three goals for the Gullies, while Dylan Schoenmakers was best on ground. As for Brighton, this was their big chance to get back in touch with the rest of the competitive sides, with the loss leaving them two wins from the top four. Harrison Boyle kicked three for the Bombers and was ultimately their best performing player in the loss.

Old Ignatians 8.6 (54) def by Port District 9.14 (68)

Port District got a vital win on the road to bolster their finals chances against a strong Old Ignatians side, with the fourteen-point win leaving the winners equal top through six rounds. It was a hard-fought game, with the lower scoring affair a testament to how competitive both sides are, and it wasn't until a mini-surge in the second half by Port District that the game opened up after the scores were level at half time. It was familiar faces on the best players list for both sides, with Jason Nyskohus the best for Port District, and Will Abbott Old Ignatians' best.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 7

Rostrevor v Payneham

After a tough loss last week to Goodwood, Rostrevor will be happy to be home, especially against bottom placed Payneham. Although they were fairly competitive against a strong St Peters outfit, Payneham have severely struggled this season and this week shouldn't be any easier on the road against a team looking to avenge round six's loss. Rostrevor should hold strong at home.

St Peters v Old Ignatians

This could be one of the games of the round with two sides who look like they will play finals matching up against each other. At home, the advantage is all St Peter's, and they will be looking to continue their winning streak, while Old Ignatians are coming off a fourteen-point loss at home last week and must win to regain that top four spot. Lots to play for in round seven, but I'm backing St Peter's purely off home ground advantage.

Brighton v Port District

The Bombers were very close to pulling off a big upset on the road against Tea Tree Gully last week and would be very pleased with their improvement. Still, this week will be just as tough against the ladder-leading Port District, who pulled off a big road win against Old Ignatians last week to cement top spot. At home anything can happen, but it will take a season-best performance from Brighton to knock off Port District at this point.

Glenunga v Goodwood

The Rams will be hoping to completely forget about last week's performance, as they only managed three goals against Prince Alfred who at the time had won just one game. This week for sure seems like a great chance for a bounce back game at home, but it won't come easy against Goodwood who got a big home win last week and sit equal first with a 4-2 record. Could go either way, as both sides must win to not lose track of the top sides.

Tea Tree Gully v Prince Alfred

After the Gullies started 3-0, it looked like they were going to be very hard to beat. Shockingly, they lost their next two and slumped to 3-2, but after last week's home win, it looks as though they may be back on track. Fortunately for them, they are back at home again this week and host a 2-4 Prince Alfred, who although got a big upset win against Glenunga last week, should be easy to take care of for the Gullies.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Henley v PHOS Camden

Henley have broken through for their second win of the year, defeating PHOS Camden by 84 points at Henley Memorial Oval. After a scrappy first term the Sharks took control, kicking five goals to one and taking a 29-point lead into halftime. The onslaught continued into the second term as Henley played some of their best football of the season, kicking nine goals to one and taking an insurmountable 75-point lead into the final change. Tom Pillion was the star up forward with seven goals and he received support from Joel Harvey-Friel and Jack Pillion who both put through two majors. Lachlan Sheffield was strong and Jack Enright a standout in a much-needed win that puts the Sharks season back on track. For PHOS Camden, Will Thomas kicked two goals and Dylan Morton was impressive in the Phantoms second disappointing loss in a row, dropping them to fifth on the table. They face another tough assignment next weekend when they travel to face North Haven while Henley will look to continue their winning ways when they also hit the road to take on Salisbury North.

Gaza v Broadview

Broadview have held off a gallant Gaza outfit, moving to the top of the table after defeating the Eagles by 16 points at Klemzig Reserve. The Tigers were heavy favourites coming into this matchup and they followed the script early, kicking five goals to one in the opening stanza to take a 26-point lead into the first change. Gaza hit back in the second term, reducing the deficit to 12 points at the half before Broadview once again clicked into gear, kicking four goals to one and taking a 34-point lead into the final change. Gaza tried once again to fight back but were just not strong enough to run over the Tigers who held on for their sixth straight win. Brodie Pearce and Lewis Saint both kicked two goals for the Tigers while Xavier Gotch, Chol Anyang and Jake Hodby were all a class above in the win. For Gaza, Todd Culley, Brent Heintze, Damon Hill and Angus Rowntree all kicked two goals while Todd Culley fought hard in the loss. Gaza will have an excellent chance to bounce back when they travel to take on the Unley Mercedes Jets while Broadview play host to Adelaide University.

Adelaide University v Salisbury North

Salisbury North have recorded their first victory of the season, defeating Adelaide University by 12 points at Park 12 University Oval. Salisbury North were hot early, the Hawks kicking three goals to one and taking a 15-point lead into the first change. Adelaide University managed to cut the deficit in the second quarter before the Hawks extended the lead again in the third term with only bad kicking in front of goal preventing them from taking more than an 18-point lead into the final change. Both sides traded goals in a tight final quarter, but it was Salisbury North that did enough to hold on for their first win of the year. Steven Wellington kicked three goals for the Hawks with Bradley Hood also getting on the scoreboard with two goals of his own. Jordan O'Brien was strong, and Brock Fensom gathered plenty of the footy in the win. For Adelaide University, John Noonan impressed with four goals and Nicholas Langridge also put through two majors while Samuel Warrick delivered another impressive performance in a disappointing loss for an Adelaide University side who were looking to back up their first win of the season. They face one of the toughest road trips in the division next week when they travel to face Broadview while Salisbury North are at home against Henley.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Athelstone

Athelstone have snapped a two-game losing streak, defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 24 points at Kingswood Oval. The Raggies fired early, taking an eight-point lead into quarter time before Unley hit back, kicking four goals to take a two-point lead of their own into the main break. The third quarter belonged to Athelstone, the Raggies kicking six goals to two on their way to setting up a crucial victory that puts their season back on track. Luke Rander led the way up forward for Athelstone with four goals while Luca Stepic, Aaron Stewart and Sam Tarca all kicked two goals apiece. Jack Wood delivered another impressive performance while Sam Cooke was the standout in the win. For Unley, Nick Wark kicked four goals while Riley Faehmann put through two majors. Matthew Adams and Jacob Earl fought hard in yet another disappointing loss for the Jets that sees them sit equal bottom on the table. The Jets will look to get back on the winners list when they host Gaza while Athelstone travel to face Sacred Heart OC in what should be an enthralling matchup.

Angus Heuer gives his match previews for this weeks matches

North Haven v Sacred Heart OC

Sacred Heart OC have moved into the top two of the ladder, ending North Haven's unbeaten start to the season in 14-point victory at Largs North Reserve. After a tight first term Sacred Heart managed to get a break on the Magpies, kicking four goals and keeping North Haven to take a 20-point lead into halftime. The Magpies fought back in the third term, closing the gap to eight points but were unable to do enough in the last term as the two sides traded goals, Sacred Heart eventually running out with a huge win on the road. Josh Koster and Patrick McCarthy put on a show up forward for Sacred Heart with four goals each while Bradley Noble also hit the scoreboard with a three-goal performance. Patrick Neal-Bullen found plenty of the football and Doug Proud was a class above in the win. For North Haven, Josh Smithson put through four majors while Jack Foster and Ryan McInerney both bobbed up with two goals each. Ed Curnow battled hard as well as Josh Smithson in a loss that drops the Magpies from first to third on the table. They will have the perfect opportunity to get back on the winners list when they travel to face the struggling PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart OC play host to Athelstone in what should be a quality matchup.

Previews

Salisbury North v Henley

Salisbury North and Henley face off at Salisbury North Oval with both outfits coming off important victories. The Hawks saw off Adelaide University to record their first win of the season while the Sharks dismantled PHOS Camden to stay in touch with the top five. Henley showed what they are capable of on the weekend and if they come anywhere close to that performance, they will be back on the winners list and another step closer to moving into the top five. Henley by 31 points.

PHOS Camden v North Haven

PHOS Camden welcome North Haven to Camden Oval, the Phantoms desperate to get their season back after two disappointing defeats in a row, the most recent an 84-point thumping at the hands of Henley. They come up against a North Haven side also looking to get back to winning ways after the Magpies suffered their first loss of the season against Broadview. Going off recent form it is hard to see North Haven being defeated as the Magpies should cruise to an easy victory. North Haven by 32 points.

Sacred Heart OC v Athelstone

Sacred Heart OC and Athelstone meet at Sacred Heart Middle School Oval in an enthralling matchup between two teams trying to cement their spots around the top end of the ladder. Sacred Heart are one of the form teams of the competition, fresh off a big win against the previously unbeaten North Haven while Athelstone snapped a two-game losing streak in their win over Unley. In what should be a cracking contest I expect the momentum of Sacred Heart in front of their home fans to be enough to get the win. Sacred Heart by 18 points.

Broadview v Adelaide University

Adelaide University travel to face Broadview at Broadview Oval in what looks to be aa one-sided contest. Adelaide University are coming off a loss against the previously winless Salisbury North that leaves them sitting on the bottom of the table. They come up against a Broadview outfit that are sitting top of the table, the only side yet to suffer a loss this season. It would take a miracle from Adelaide University for this to change this weekend as the Tigers should record a percentage boosting victory. Broadview by 67 points.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Gaza

Unley Mercedes Jets welcome Gaza to Kingswood Oval, with both teams looking for a win to generate some momentum into their season. Unley were gallant in their defeat to Broadview while Unley also showed plenty of fight in a tough loss at the hands of Athelstone. A win for Gaza would have them knocking on the door of the top five and I think the Eagles showed enough last week to prove they have the talent to get the job done in what should be a cracking contest between the two sides. Gaza by 13 points.

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS:

Modbury v Westminster OS

Modbury have produced a stirring comeback win at home over Westminster, running out 11-point winners. The Hawks got off to a slow start on their home turf, and trailed by 11 points at the first change, before a six-goal quarter allowed them to be leading by two points at the final change. With the game in the balance at three quarter time, both sides needed a big lift in the final term if they wanted to win the match, and to Modbury's credit they responded the best with a three goal to two quarter, allowing them to win 112-101. Liam Verity single handily won Modbury the match, kicking a remarkable ten goals in a wonderful display of individual brilliance. Corey Smith also proved handy with three goals, while Bradley Rogers also booted two. Tim David and Kyle Naughton found plenty of the football and were named in the best while youngster Connor Wood also was composed in his A grade debut for the club. From a Westminster perspective, key forward Lachlan McGregor was brilliant with five goals, while Riley Drum, Aaron Fielke and Brock McFarlane all caused headaches for the Hawks backline with three apiece.

CBC OC v SMOSH West Lakes

SMOSH West Lakes have picked up a very important win on the road against CBC, running out winners to the tune of 43 points. SMOSH burst out of the blocks and led by four goals at the opening break, and despite a seven goal to three quarter in the second term, SMOSH held strong and weathered to have the margin level at the main break. SMOSH once again found their groove in the third quarter, piling on seven goals to two and followed it up with a five goal to two quarter in the last quarter. Adam Mahney was brilliant for SMOSH, kicking eight goals and proving to be the difference as he continues his strong season. Sam Fairclough, and Matt Harper also proved valuable, finding plenty of the football for the visitors. For CBC, in what was a tough day out yet again, Will Strange and Oliver Stenchiik played very strongly and didn't lower their colours despite going down.

Scotch OC v Flinders Park

Flinders Park have skyrocketed themselves into the top three on the back of a hard fought ten-point win at Scotch College Oval. The reds started the match well, kicking four unanswered goals to kick off proceedings and never really looked back. Scotch fought back into the match and kicked four of their own in the second quarter to have the margin at just three points at the main break. The Reds however responded well in the third quarter, kicking three goals to two and leading by 20 points at the final break, before the margin was cut back to ten points as the final siren sounded. Mitch Smart was the most dangerous forward on the ground for the Reds, kicking three majors, while Scott Bedford and Clay Muirhead each played well with two goals each. Tom Schwarz and Dakota Nixon were the major ball winners on the ground for the victors, proving extremely vital in the win for the Reds. Elsewhere, Jed Obst starred up forward for Scotch, kicking six goals, while Louis Heard and Matthew Dixon also performed strongly, gaining votes for the visitors.

Edwardstown v Golden Grove

Golden Grove have delivered a significant reality check to previously third placed Edwardstown and proved why they are they the deserving premiership favourites, running out 93-point winners away from home. With the Kookaburras trailing at the opening break after a very contested start to the match, the visitors showed their class and responded in fantastic fashion, kicking ten goals to one, extending their lead to 44 points at the main break. The third quarter was very even, with both sides only able to find one goal each, before Golden Grove kicked themselves into gear once again with an eight goal to nil final quarter, running out 131-38-point winners on the road. Superstar forward Joel Horskins continued his brilliant season with another bag of six goals, while Wyatt Patterson and Brayden Shaw also played very well once again with three apiece. Nick Preston continued his fine season, finding plenty of the football, while Aidan Thatcher and Lewis Johnston also proved to be valuable contributors in the win. For the home side, Jess Watchman continued his good season, finding plenty of the footy and booting a goal. Elsewhere, Josh Holyoak and Ben Homburg also contributed strongly, finding plenty of the footy and proving valiant in the defeat.

Seaton Ramblers v Morphettville Park

Seaton have gotten their season back on track with a 40-point thumping of Morphettville Park at home. The game was never really in doubt for the home side, turning it on from the get go and putting in a strong performance in front of the home crowd at Links Hotel Reserve. Jordan Kasianowicz was electric from minute one, and proved far too strong for the Kangaroos backline, kicking three goals. Elsewhere, Bryan Leahy and Sean Coard were dominant and were deserving recipients of being involved in the best players. For the visitors, Liam Toohey was valuable up forward with two goals, while Nick Hankin and Michael Smith found a lot of the ball despite defeat.

PREVIEWS:

Flinders Park v Modbury

In what is the match of the round, third placed Flinders Park host the second placed Modbury Hawks in a massive clash. Both sides have been in good form and were involved in physical, tight contests last weekend so it will all come down to who prepares best. It's hard to tip against Modbury who should assert themselves as a genuine promotion contender come the end of the weekend. Prediction: Modbury by 28 points.

Westminster OS v Seaton Ramblers

Westminster will return home this week to face off against Seaton in a big clash considering where the two sides find themselves situated on the ladder. Westminster fell in a tight match with Modbury on the road last week and will be desperate to respond after a poor second half. Elsewhere, Seaton made light work of Morphettville Park on the weekend, and will need to be at their best once again. Prediction: Westminster OS by 14 points.

Golden Grove v Morphettville Park

Golden Grove is set to return home this week to continue its charge towards finals, standing in their way this week is Morphettville Park. The Kangaroos have been in very poor form recently and will need to be at their best if they've even got a remote chance at slowing this frantic Kookaburras train down. Prediction: Golden Grove by 96 points.

Smosh West Lakes v Scotch OC

SMOSH will be back at West Lakes this week to face Scotch, who are in much better form than they were at the beginning of the season. I expect SMOSH to be far too strong as they look to assert themselves firmly in the top four race. Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 45 points.

Edwardstown v CBC OC

Edwardstown will play at home for the second straight week, this time facing the opposite end of the ladder in CBC. After a disappointing effort against Golden Grove last week, Edwardstown need to get themselves back on track and there is no better excuse than this week to do so. I expect them to bounce back in a strong way. Prediction: Edwardstown by 67 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Reviews:

Pulteney 6.0-36 def Pembroke 15.7-97

Pembroke have recorded consecutive wins once again with comfortable win over the Blues. The Kings were able to hold Pulteney to just 12 points in the first half, extending their main break lead out to seven goals. The third quarter went against the status quo where it was Pulteney who made ground on the leaders and keeping them scoreless. Unfortunately for the blues not enough ground was covered and they did not show up in the last quarter. Pembroke were able to power home and get a 61-point victory and finish in the top three at the end of the round. Matthew Nielsen, Cabbot Stewart-Browne, and Mitchell Harvey were the better players for the Blues. Maximilian Thring, Harrison George, and Patrick Levicki were the best players from the victors. Pembroke next week face Kenilworth in what looks to be another win on the trot, Pulteney travel to Woodville South, desperate to get that first win.

Portland 8.7-55 def by Plympton 16.13-109

Plympton have caused a big upset and a statement win away against Portland. The Bulldogs came fast out of the blocks and got out to a 32-point victory. This fast start was slowed down when the hosts clawed back to a 13-point deficit at half time and were coming at the bulldogs with momentum. Unfortunately for the hosts, the main break completely removed their momentum. Only one point recorded in the third whilst Plympton extended there lead out to eight goals. From here, the bulldogs cruised home with a comfortable demanding victory. Jake Neade, Max Buckley, and Lindsay Thomas were the best for Portland, Stuart Taverner, Lonnie Hampton, and Brett Connor were the biggest factors in getting the Bulldogs a big win. Plympton have a huge matchup next week as the host Pooraka, Portland travel to Mitcham and will be up and about for a huge response.

Kenilworth 11.10-76 def Mitcham 9.10-64

Kenilworth have come away with an important and big victory against Mitcham to climb away from the relegation zone. A large part of this victory was due to the fast start from the Burra's getting out to a 25-point lead at the first break. Mitcham were able to do some catching up but not enough to take the lead, they did remain on the tails of the Burra's. This continued into the next quarter where the Hawks got closer again, only a three-point lead going into the last quarter. Kenilworth in the last were able to do enough to extend the lead just enough to get over the line by two goals. Giuseppe Nirta kicked five and was apart of the best alongside Joel Smith, Nick Chesser and Sam Scott. For Mitcham, there best players were Harrison Pride, Lochie Hall and Patrick Newman. Kenilworth will need this run of form as they travel to Pembroke who are in good form. Mitcham will need to recover fast as they host, what is expected to be a determined Portland outfit.

Walkerville 17.16-118 def Woodville South 15.11-101

In the most unexpected entertaining match for the round, it was a high scoring affair in which the inform team in the division produced the goods. Walkerville led the Cat's cup early on and they went wire to wire with the lead. It was an opening quarter where Walkerville led by 13 points which was then doubled for the main break. Walkerville's ability to hit the scoreboard this season has been exceptional and so has their defence, but in this match, Woodville South were able to find ways to stay in touching distance. The high scoring half remained and so did the margin on the scoreboard with Walkerville winning the Cats cup by 17 points. Adam Proud topped Walkerville's scoring with a bag of six, Jack McKenzie, Brady Zwar and Jackson Richman were also standouts for the winners. Patrick Binnion, Jamie Coff and Tommy-Lee Russo who also kicked six were best for Woodville South. Walkerville next week host Hope Valley which will be an interesting matchup, Woodville South have a chance to get a result when they are playing hosts to Pulteney.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Pooraka 26.12-168 def Hope Valley 6.7-43

Pooraka has recorded the most eye-opening result in the division to date, with a complete and utter smashing of Hope Valley. Pooraka after a few rocky weeks and being on the wrong side of results, really stormed past the Demons on the opening bounce. The Demons were coming off the season's first draw are now two games without a victory and are awfully close to being on the wrong side of the five. Ronald Rankine was a monster for the Bulls, booting nine goals, effectively beating the Demons off his own boot. Pooraka next week travel to the league leaders and will have to work harder for this one. Hope Valley have a long road back, after this thrashing they now face the in-form team in the competition, travelling to Walkerville.

Previews:

Mitcham v Portland

Mitcham host an incredibly determined Portland team who are winless in there last two outings. After a strong first month, Portland have dropped a couple of games and now find themselves outside of the top five. They will be determined to get back in with form. Mitcham lost narrowly to a struggling Kenilworth team and have lost quite a few close games now. In this matchup, I believe the firepower Portland have up forward will prove too much for the Hawks. Portland by 37-48 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND Plympton V Pooraka

This week's match of the round is between Plympton and Pooraka which could be the first of three or more matchups this season. Both teams collected the best wins of the most recent round. Plympton held off a strong Portland team away from home to go straight to the top of the division. Pooraka had the biggest win of the season, shooting back into the five with a 125-point victory over Hope Valley. This match features the best defensive team against the second-best scoring team. In this match I am going an upset and picking the visitors to continue from last week and roll in on fire to take out this one. Pooraka Bulls by 13-24 points

Walkerville v Hope Valley

Walkerville will play hosts to Hope Valley who had two different results. Walkerville were made to work hard in the Cats cup and won by only three goals against an inferior Woodville South. Hope Valley were completely blown off the park against Pooraka which was the most shocking result in the division to date. Currently, it is hard to tip anyone to beat Walkerville, they have been in great form and their goal scoring is by far better than anyone else's. Walkerville Cats by 13-24 points

Pembroke v Kenilworth

Pembroke will be looking to continue there run of form as they host Kenilworth. The Kings picked up consecutive wins against Woodville South and last week Pulteney. Kenilworth broke a long losing streak by beating Mitcham to give them some breathing room away from the relegation zone. As it would suggest by the ladder, the Kings should not have much pushback in this game. I will be picking them to win this one quite comfortably and be a top two team at the end of the division. Pembroke Kings by 49-61 points

Woodville South v Pulteney

This matchup features two teams that really have not gotten onto the right foot this season. Woodville South have only recorded the single win this season and Pulteney are yet to record one at all. Both teams will be desperate to claim this one. Who needs it more? Pulteney with a loss in this match means they are two wins plus a large amount of percentage from safety and it well and truly could be massive trouble. Unfortunately for the Blues I do not think they will pull this one out, but I do believe they will make a game out of it.

Woodville South Cats by 1-12 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Last week

Elizabeth v Colonel Light Gardens

Colonel Light Gardens travelled to Elizabeth as the underdog. An Eagles win would have established a 2 game buffer between them and the travelling Lions. After a good opening term by Elizabeth, where they established a 13-point lead, it was Colonel Light Gardens in the second quarter who piled on the pain, kicking 6 goals to 1 and leading by 22-points at the long break. After half time, Elizabeth couldn't match the Lions in the third term as the Lions sealed the deal holding a commanding 42-point lead at the last change. The final quarter was even but Elizabeth needed something extraordinary and couldn't deliver. In the end, it was Colonel Light Gardens who run out winners by a 33-points, which was a brilliant away win. Paul McInerney with 4 goals along with Adam Brugioni and Will Hutchings with 3 apiece were dominant up forward for the Lions. While big man Jarad Clinton was a solo target up forward for Elizabeth with his 3 goals. Better players for Colonel Light Gardens were Harrison Lang, Sam Vivian and Tom Groutsch. While for the Eagles it was Jayden Alderson, Joel Foster and Anthony Bullock who were good all day.

Blackfriars OS v Gepps Cross

Gepps Cross travelled down the road to St Doms Oval to take on the Hounds. Gepps went into the game as favourite, although their form had been patchy so far in 2022. It was a game that the Rams needed to win, to keep in touch with the final five. And the Rams put the game to bed before half time. In the opening quarter they slammed home 7 goals and a further 5 in the second quarter to lead by 57-points at the long break. Blackfriars outscored the Rams in the final half, when the sting was out of the game but it was too little, too late for the home side. Ricky Smith, Daniel Mason and Scott Blundell were best for the Rams. While Giuseppe Vellotti, Brendan Dunn and the evergreen Matthew Brincat were best for the Hounds. Gepps winning by 46-ponts.

Salisbury v Eastern Park

Salisbury took on the might of their northern neighbours Eastern Park with the Demons going in as the hottest of favourites. Salisbury had been struggling all season and Saturday only compounded their woes. It was all Eastern Park as they slammed home 5 goals in the opening three quarters and 3 goals in the final term to run out comprehensive winners by 114-points. Eastern Park had a string of 10 goal kickers, with Shawn Mansell kicking 3 the leading goal scorer on the ground. Robert Kovacic, Peter Diedrichsen and big Chris Knapp the Demons best. For the Magpies, Richard Decrea kicked their only goal. While Aeddán Hull, Cohen Biddle and Jai Taylor were their better players.

Lockleys v St Pauls OS

Lockleys hosted St Pauls OS and it was predicted to be an easy win for the Demons. But in the opening quarter, the game was anything but going to plan. The old scholars were extremely good. Lockleys led 6.3 to 5.0 by 9-points in an entertaining opening quarter. But that was the end of the resistance from St Pauls as Lockleys slammed on 10 goals in the second term to lead by 67-points at the long break. The last half was more pain for St Pauls, as Lockley continued on their merry way booting a further 15 goals to 2. Final scores were Lockleys 31.20 (206) to St Pauls Old Scholars 8.1 (49) to win by 157-points. Ben Haren new to the club from South Adelaide in 2022, kicked 10 goals. While whippet Matt Ransom kicked 7 goals and Kevin Raison 5, as the Demons crushed St Pauls. Benito Catinari, Matthew Fregona and Ben Haren were the best players. For the vanquished, it was Conor Gray and Kahlin Santillo with 2 goals each as their only multiple goal scorers. Jordan Liseno, Conor Gray and Jordan Wurfel were the better players in a disappointing day for St Pauls.

Hectorville v Kilburn

Hectorville hosted the Chics at Daly Reserve in a game that the Hounds were expected to win. The Chics have been disappointing this season after coming down from division 4 and this was another day of disappointment for the Kilburn faithful. The Hounds led from start to finish and won comfortably by 70-points. Its time now for Kilburn to start winning, or they could yet be relegated to division 6. The once famous club needs to start winning and winning well. For Hectorville, it was Jak Goudman-Glasson with 8, along with Jake Mazzone and Tom Smith with 2 each. For Kilburn only Ray Hedland kicked multiple goals with 2. Angus Turner was best for the Hounds in a dominant display while Goudman-Glasson with his 8 goals and the superstar Jake Mazzone rounded out their better players. For the Chics it was Jason Sandercock, young Jayden Davison and Ryan Wielechowski who led the way.

THIS WEEK

Eastern Park v Elizabeth

The big clash of the northern neighbours, as Eastern Park take on Elizabeth at Dwight Reserve. This should be a cracker, with two sides that aren't fond of each other locking horns. Both sides have been in terrific form, only losing one game each. The game that Eastern Park lost however they had COVID issues at the club and a line could be drawn through that game. Elizabeth lost last week in a big test for them. At Dwight Reserve and with an adoring Demons faithful on hand to see their hero's it will be an Eastern Park victory. For me, it will be the Demons by over 7 goals as they appear to have too much fire power up forward for the Eagles.

Colonel Light Gardens v Hectorville

Colonel Light Gardens and Hectorville is another massive game between two heavyweights of the competition. Hectorville have been in tremendous form as have the Lions. Last week was a huge win for the Lions away from home and on such a long road trip. To win by a commanding margin at Argana Park against Elizabeth was a brilliant performance. Hectorville have done nothing wrong, and easily took care of Kilburn. We think this game will be the closest of the round and will be another test for Colonel Light Gardens. Another win here for the Lions would have them on equal footing with the top sides. A loss would have more questions than answers. For me, I think the Lions will cause what might be a considered a minor upset at Mortlock Park and get up by 1-12 points.

St Pauls OS v Kilburn

St Pauls OS and Kilburn do battle, in a game where both sides are desperate for the points. St Pauls were good in division 6 last season and big things were expected in 2022. The same with Kilburn who were relegated from division 4 last year. The Chics were expected to come out firing in 2022. Unfortunately, for both sides, they've not had a great start to the season. For Kilburn a win would mean they stay in touch with the finals. A loss would put them in dangerous territory of being relegated to division 6. For St Pauls, they must win as this is a four point game for them. A loss here would ensure they, Blackfriars and Salisbury are fighting out who gets relegated. A win here and they are 2 games clear of the relegation battle. For me, I think Kilburn will get the chocolates but only after a dour struggle. Kilburn 13-24 points.

Gepps Cross v Salisbury

Gepps Cross and Salisbury at Duncan Fraser Reserve appears on paper to be a percentage booster for the Rams. A big win here for the Rams and a loss to Colonel Light Gardens would mean the Rams sat inside the final 5 on Saturday night. Gepps have been disappointing this year after being relegated and we expected them to be amongst the competition leaders. So far, their form has been patchy. A big win here after their big win last week against Blackfriars OS would give the Rams confidence and would give them belief that they can compete with the better sides. We think the Rams will win comfortably on Saturday by over 90 points. Salisbury will need to grit the teeth and battle hard to stay in the contest. The Magpies are known for their fantastic club culture and their ability to overcome adversity. On Saturday they will need all of those qualities and more to force a win against the Rams.

Lockleys v Blackfriars OS

Lockleys and Blackfriars OS at Lockleys. We can't really put it any other way than "this will get ugly for the Hounds". Last week the Demons slaughtered St Pauls OS by 157-points at home while the Hounds were dismissed with ease by Gepps Cross. Blackfriars and St Pauls are on similar footing at the bottom of the ladder with little separating the two in ability. Ben Haren will be licking his lips at the thought of kicking another 10 goal bag for two weeks in a row. And its highly likely. He will have too much height, size and ability for the Hounds defensive unit. The Demons midfield will give their forwards first use of the ball all day. Not a great day to be a Hounds defender, as they won't get much rest. Lockleys by 100+ points.

Have an NDIS Plan and need assistance?

Inclusion Management is the disability service that puts you first and aims to create opportunity, promote independence and progression in a safe, non-discriminative environment. Our direction is led by your choice, needs and goals by providing key disability services to those who seek support.

• Psychosocial Recovery Coaches

A recovery coach is an NDIS funded worker that has mental health knowledge and will support you to live life well. They will help you understand and support you with the NDIS.

• Support Coordination

A support coordinator will work with you to ensure a mix of supports are used to increase your capacity to maintain relationships, manage service delivery tasks, live more independently and be included in your community.

• Support Services

Support workers can assist you with social and community outings and inclusion, daily living assistance, shopping, cooking, cleaning and gardening.

• SLES (School Leaver Employment Support)

SLES is designed to support you to become prepared for work. This means you are ready to enter the world of work. Being prepared gives you the best chance of success in finding a job, learning a job, and keeping a job.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

PREVIEWS

Fitzroy v Central United

Fitzroy were out to make a statement this week, causing one of the upsets of the season and taking down Central United.

J.Beveridge and J.Rosenthal were the best for The Lions, Rosenthal was instrumental up forward, booting 5 goals in the big win for his side.

Central United may have taken the loss, but never gave up the fight, S.Webber was good up forward for United, kicking 3 goals, while D.Cook and D.Steele were best afield.

Marion v West Croydon

Marion proved too good at home against The Hawks, from the first bounce taking control of the game.

A 9 goal to 3 lead at half time saw Marion run home with the win and continue their dominant season.

A.Beaumont and W.Cavallo were the best in The Rams win, while for West Croydon, B.Seaton and R.Johnston were good for their side.

Rosewater v Brahma Lodge

Rosewater were prepared for the matchup against Brahma Lodge this week, taking control for most of the game and held a 15 point lead at the last break.

But from there, it was The Tigers who went on to have a dominant 5 goal quarter and take home the win by 23 points.

P. Hure was the best for Rosewater, while the reliable J.Hay was amongst the best, also booting 2 goals.

Brahma Lodge worked hard all day to keep up and bring on the comeback, but it was J.Thompson and M.Hobbs that were the best for the Tigers.

Para Hills v Ingle Farm

Ingle Farm came out hot against Para Hills at The Paddocks, and never looked like letting down the fight. They started off well and had a 17 point lead at the half, but from there went on to kick another 7 goals and put the game away by 50 points, a big win in their season so far.

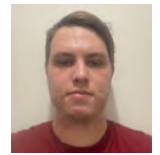

M.Sandery was the best for the Bulldogs, but it was D.Payne and J.Pfeiffer that were good up forward and kicked 5 each.

For Para Hills, D.Weetra once again showed his skills in front of goals with 4 for his side and D.Veprek was the best afield

PREVIEWS

Brahma Lodge v Trinity OS

Trinity come off the bye this week, and after a perfect start to the season will be eager to continue their streak and get a win on the road.

Brahma Lodge have been looking good this season and have shown some good form but will it be enough to get them the win against an undefeated Lions outfit? I think Trinity will be fresh having no game last week, and will be too strong for Brahma Lodge.

Tip: Trinity by 37-48

West Croydon v Fitzroy

After an incredible upset last match against Central United, Fitzroy will be buzzing to back it up this week on the road.

Coming up against another good side this season in West Croydon at Fawk Reserve, it will be an interesting match, although The Lions will have their heads high after last week's win, West Croydon will be looking to bounce back at home and put another win on the board.

Tip: West Croydon by 49-60

Rosewater v Para Hills

Para Hills make the trip to Eric Sutton Reserve this week and take on Rosewater. Both teams coming off losses last week and sitting low on the ladder will be looking for a win to boost their chances this season. Rosewater always looks good when playing at home, and I think we have the better edge when they come up against Para Hills this week.

Tip: Rosewater by 37-48

Ingle Farm v Marion

Ingle Farm hosts Marion this week at Rowe Park and will be on the jump after a big win in the last match.

Marion have proved themselves as a competitor so far this season have put on some big wins, I think this week will be no exception, closing in on the middle of the year, Marion will be looking for a big performance and start their run to finals.

Tip: Marion by 85-96

David Hocking gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Greenacres v Mitchell Park
02:15 PM, Sat, 21 May 22
EJ Smith Oval

Not much luck for the Lions last week the Lutheran Machine and this week the Dragons which has been a hard couple of weeks for the Lions, and both weeks they have had to travel to play the both of them. So I don't hold much hope for the Lions this week unless they can perform a miracle and somehow win the game, perhaps the Dragons may forget that they have a game this week, or the team comes down with Covid, which may necessitate the Dragons forfeiting. Other than that it appears to be another huge loss for the Lions.

Flinders University v Adelaide Lutheran
02:15 PM, Sat, 21 May 22
Flinders University / Flinders University 1

Uni is hosting the Lutheran Machine and it would appear that this is another game where I can't see the home side winning this game. The same thing would appear in the last preview that unless some act of god there is little chance that I can see Uni winning this game. Which as this stage I can't see happening, so this is another game where there will be a huge win for the Lutheran Machine.

Houghton Districts v Hackham
02:15 PM, Sat, 21 May 22
Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

This will be the match of the round 3rd playing 4th which is being played at Houghton which is probably going to possibly be the difference between the 2 sides. Both have shown a bit of form over the last few weeks with good wins and have been dominate in their matches recently and both sides appear to be gaining in confidence. For those reasons I see this as the game of the round, and both group of supporters will need to make sure that they take their heart medication and I would suggest that Houghton have medical staff on standby just in case, as I think that this will be a close match and probably won't be decided until the last quarter.

Mawson Lakess v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale
02:15 PM, Sat, 21 May 22
Mawson Lakes Oval / Mawson Lakes Oval.

The Lions are starting to improve their form in the race towards the finals and I can't see the Lakers on their current form will be able to stop the Lions. The Lions will continue on their merry way and will win the game and continue their rise for a chance to compete in this years finals race.
