DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 7

Rostrevor 13.16 (94) def Payneham 8.8 (56)

Rostrevor took care of the lowly Payneham on the weekend, putting together a full four-quarter performance to win by 38 points and edge closer to the top four. Aided by a seven goal second half, the home side was able to claim their fourth win of the season and move into fifth spot, while the Magpies remain on just the one win. Paul Fantasia and Nicholas Murphy both snagged four goals, while Will Mead was named best afield for the winning side.

St Peters 18.11 (119) def Old Ignatians 7.9 (51)

It was an old fashioned bludgeoning at St Peters on Saturday, with the home side dominating Old Ignatians by 68 points. The visitors were leading at half time, and only trailed by 20 points at the main break, but a six goal to zero third term blew the game wide open, and from there the home team never looked back. Jock McLeay led the charge in front of goal with four majors, and James Hargreaves put on a best-on-ground performance. The win sees St Peters sit equal first with a 5-2 record, while Old Ignatians continue to fall down the ladder with a 3-4 record.

Brighton 6.8 (44) def by Port District 10.7 (67)

The Bombers struggled yet again at home on the weekend at the hands of a well-oiled Port District side that continue to sit pretty atop the ladder. It took Brighton a quarter to register a goal and by then it was too late as the visitors ran away with it after half time. Sitting second on percentage, Port District have looked clinical in their 5-2 start, and should be poised for a finals berth at this rate. Jason Nyskohus (3 goals, 5 votes) was pivotal for the winning side.

Glenunga 10.8 (68) def by Goodwood 11.13 (79)

The Rams were shocked on their home deck on Saturday, as the Saints continued their excellent form of late to claim a massive road win that could go a long way to settling a finals berth. The game was knotted for much of the contest, before a late burst saw Goodwood pull away just enough to hold on by eleven points. Tom Anderson (4 goals, 5 votes) was the difference maker for Goodwood, as they moved to a commanding 5-2 record through seven rounds. The Rams, after their good start, have dropped a couple recently to fall to 3-4, and will need to lift soon to get their season back on track.

Tea Tree Gully 14.10 (94) def Prince Alfred 12.12 (84)

The Gullies left it late to pull away from a valiant visiting Prince Alfred outfit, holding off the latter by ten points on Saturday. The home win saw the Gullies move to 5-2, a record that equals them with three other clubs in first place. It was close the whole way through, with three points the biggest margin at any quarter break until the final siren, and with both sides having the same coring shots, the result could have gone either way had Prince Alfred been a bit more accurate. Ryan Splittle booted five goals and was named best on ground in the vital win for Tea Tree Gully, while Prince Alfred will be ruing what could have been an important upset win that would have helped turned their year around.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 8

Goodwood v Tea Tree Gully

This could be the game of the round, with a chance to cement a top spot up for grabs. With both sides knotted at 5-2, this game will be telling to see where both teams sit, with this top of the table clash taking place at Goodwood on Saturday. Home ground advantage is always massive, but can the Saints capitalise on this, or will the Gullies claim a huge scalp on the road.

Prince Alfred v Brighton

As opposed to the prior match, this one will be competitive for a different reason. Eighth plays ninth, with both sides sitting on a 2-5 record, and a win here could be crucial for turning a season around. At home, Prince Alfred would be favourites, especially after their near upset win against Tea Tree Gully last week, but Brighton at their best can compete with any team, so don't write them off just yet.

Payneham v Glenunga

The bottom-placed Payneham struggled yet again on the weekend and are on the brink of writing off their season entirely at 1-6, so they need to find something soon. Glenunga have hit a dry spell, losing two straight to fall to 3-4, and if there was ever a time for Payneham to pounce on an out-of-form opponent, it would be now. The Magpies will enjoy home ground advantage this week, but the Rams should prove to be too strong, even in poor form, for this lowly Payneham outfit.

Old Ignatians v Rostrevor

These two teams share completely opposite stories of form heading into this week's clash; Old Ignatians started the season on fire but have tailed off of late and have completely fallen out of finals contention, while the visiting Rostrevor have sparked a winning streak and sit just one game out of top position after seven rounds. Back at home, Old Ignatians are every chance of ending their cold spell and getting their season back on track, but with the form Rostrevor are in, it will take a mighty effort from Old Ignatians to action that.

Port District v St Peters

Like the Goodwood-Tea Tree Gully clash, this matchup should also be a classic. Two top four teams in Port District and St Peters will battle it out on Saturday, with Port District the hosts. The two 5-2 teams sit first and second on percentage, and both enjoyed comfortable round seven wins. Port District have been formidable at home, but St Peters are the real deal, and it is almost impossible to pick a winner. Could this be a way-too-early finals preview?

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Salisbury North v Henley

Salisbury North have slumped to their most embarrassing loss of the season, kicking just one goal en route to a 86-point drubbing at then hand of Henley at Salisbury North Oval. After a sloppy first quarter saw just one Henley goal between the two sides the Sharks moved clear in the second term, kicking four goals to one and taking a 32-point lead into quarter time. That goal was the Hawks only major for the day as Henley put on nine second half goals to just six behinds to secure a percentage boosting victory. Joshua Pierson was the main target up forward for the Sharks with three goals while Dylan Simpson, Charlie Blair and Brett Dobson all put through two goals apiece. Harry Sibley was strong, and Harris Jessen also impressed in the win that leaves the Sharks in fifth spot on the table. For Salisbury North, Brandon McBride was the only goal scorer while Jordan O'Brien tried hard in the humiliating defeat. Salisbury North face an even tougher task when they travel to take on North Haven while Henley will look to carry their momentum into this weekend when they host Broadview.

PHOS Camden v North Haven

North Haven have kept in eye level with the top two after defeating a gallant PHOS Camden outfit by 18 points at Camden Oval. The Phantoms had the majority of play in the first term but rued inaccuracy as they could only take a ten-point lead into the first term. The inaccuracy continued in the second term as the Magpies kicked three goals to none to take a ten-point lead of their own into the main break, despite two less scoring shots. PHOS managed to fight back to take a two-point lead into the final change before North Haven showed their class, kicking five goals to two in a dominant final term that secures an important victory for the Magpies. Jack Foster led the way for North Haven with four goals while Jake Williams also put through two majors. Matt Rowe gathered plenty of the football while Brett Pederson was best afield in the win. For PHOS Camden, Tom Derham kicked three goals and Declan Grant bobbed up for two goals of his own. Dylan Morton and Tom Pearce both hard in another loss for the Phantoms who have slipped to three losses in a row. PHOS will be desperate to stop their losing skid when they travel to face Sacred Heart while North Haven will like their chances when they play host to Salisbury North.

Sacred Heart OC v Athelstone

Sacred Heart OC have continued their strong run of form, defeating Athelstone by 51 points at Sacred Heart Middle School Oval. Sacred Heart started the contest strongly, kicking four goals to two and taking a 14-point lead into quarter time. Sacred Heart extended the lead to 27 points by the half before the Raggies fought back in the third term, kicking four goals to two to cut the lead back to 18 points heading into the final change before Sacred Heart completely blew Athelstone away in the final term, kicking six goals to one and securing their sixth win in a row. Tristan Carcuro and Harrison Morgan both hit the scoreboard for Sacred Heart with three goals each while Henry McAuliffe also kicked two goals. Rupert Peake was impressive while Seb Kerrish stood out in the win. For Athelstone, Luca Stepic kicked three goals for the Raggies while Daniel Cluse fought hard in his sides third loss in four games. Athelstone will look to get back on the winners list when they travel to face Gaza while Sacred Heart will look to extend their win streak to seven games when they host PHOS Camden.

Broadview v Adelaide University

Broadview have continued their unbeaten run, defeating Adelaide University by 82 points in front of their home crowd at Broadview Oval. After a tight first term the Tigers roared into action, kicking five goals to one in the second term to take a 36-point lead into halftime. The dominance continued in the second half as Broadview piled on nine goals to one in the second half to record a dominant victory, keeping them top of the Division Two table. Jarrad Petrenko kicked four goals for the Tigers, while Nathan Gordon and Joshua Sheppard both kicked three goals in a dominant display up forward. For Adelaide University, Nicholas Langridge, Isaac Newberry and Branden Robinson all kicked a goal while Eddie Sims tried his heart out in yet another disappointing defeat for Adelaide University, who sit bottom of the table with just one win. They will have an excellent chance to get their second win of the season when they play host to Adelaide University while Broadview will look to extend their stay at the top of the table when they hit the road to take on Henley.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Gaza

The Unley Mercedes Jets have recorded their second win of the year in dominant fashion, defeating Gaza by 58 points at Kingswood Oval. After a tightly fought first term the Jets got a break in the second term, kicking four goals to two and taking a 15-point lead into the main break. Unley extended the lead to 27 points in the third term before a dominant six goal to one final term secured the win, snapping Unley's three game losing streak. Oliver Cheeseman was the star up forward for Unley with four goals while Nick Wark played a great supporting role with three majors of his own. Joshua Mounter was everywhere, and Alistair Salt had the football on a string in the impressive victory. For Gaza, Benjamin Beiolu (Three goals) and Brett Heintze (Two goals) were the main targets up forward while Scott Lewis stood out in a disappointing loss for Eagles who slip to game outside the top five. Gaza face a tough task when they welcome Athelstone while Unley will look to carry their momentum onto the road against Adelaide University.

Previews

Adelaide University v Unley Mercedes Jets

Unley Mercedes Jets will be looking to record their second win of the row when they get on the road to on Adelaide University at Park 12 University Oval. The Jets are coming off a strong 58-point win against Gaza while Adelaide University are coming off another disappointing loss, this time at the hands of Broadview. A win for Unley could see them sniffing around the top five and I don't think they will give up that opportunity easily against a struggling University side. Unley Mercedes Jets by 31 points.

Gaza v Athelstone

Gaza and Athelstone meet at Klemzig Reserve with both sides coming off disappointing losses. Gaza are coming off a big loss to the struggling Unley Mercedes Jets while Athelstone lost their third game in a month when they went down to Sacred Heart OC. A win for Gaza will put them back into touch with the top five while a win for Athelstone will help cement them into the top four. Athelstone have been out of form lately, but I expect the Raggies to bounce back with a big victory. Athelstone by 41 points.

Henley v Broadview.

Broadview travel to take on Henley at Henley Memorial Oval, the Tigers looking to extend their unbeaten start to the season. They are coming against a Henley side full of confidence after defeating Salisbury North by 86 points in a win that put the Sharks into fifth spot on the table. Henley will fight hard in front of their home fans, but it is hard to see Broadview dropping their first game of the season. Broadview by 34 points.

North Haven v Salisbury North.

North Haven and Salisbury North face off at Largs North Reserve with both teams having very different starts to the season. North Haven is sitting third on the table and are coming off a gutsy victory over PHOS Camden while Salisbury North have just one win for the season and are coming off a demoralising loss to Henley where the Hawks only managed one goal. It is hard to see Salisbury North getting any form going at the moment and I expect the Magpies to cruise to a percentage boosting victory. Salisbury North by 67 points.

Sacred Heart OC v PHOS Camden.

Sacred Heart OC welcome PHOS Camden to Sacred Heart Middle School Oval, with Sacred Heart looking to extend their winning streak to seven games after a dominant win over Athelstone. They come up against a PHOS Camden side that has lost three games on the trot, their last loss coming against North Haven in what was an improved performance but just not enough to get the win. Sacred Heart haven't lost since round one and I expect this to continue in what should be a quality matchup. Sacred Heart OC by 32 points.

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Flinders Park v Modbury

Flinders Park have claimed their biggest scalp of the season so far, recording a 44-point upset win over Modbury, and rocketing into equal second place in the process. Flinders burst out of the gates with a seven goal to one opening quarter, leading by 38 points. Modbury wrestled back some momentum in the second quarter and trimmed the margin ever so slightly to 36 points at the man break. However, Flinders Park took control in the third quarter with the wind behind them, kicking five goals to two and extending their lead to 58 points at the final change. While Modbury did take a minor consolation prize, winning the final quarter, it wasn't anywhere near enough as they felt the impacts of a disappointing afternoon. Flinders Park's only concern would be scoreboard accuracy as they only converted 50% of their shots at goal. Justin Hardy put together one of the standout performances in the win for Flinders, kicking eight goals, while Daniel Blythe and Anthony Laudato also proved handy contributors with two apiece. Luke Ridley and Dakota Nixon also provided a lot of run throughout the afternoon and were worthy recipients of being named in the top five. In what was a tough day for the Hawks, Liam Verity stood tall, continuing his strong season with four majors, while Bradley Rogers also booted three. Tim Davey and Mitchell Slater were also valiant contributors in what was a tough afternoon for Modbury.

Westminster OS v Seaton Ramblers

Seaton have lifted themselves into the competition's top five with a stunning seven-point win on the road against Westminster. The Ramblers burst out of the blocks, silencing the home fans with a nine goal to three opening term, leading by 38 points at the first change. Despite the Dragons slightly winning the second quarter, the visitors still took a 30-point lead into the first change. The match played out much the same in the third term, however, the Dragons mounted a significant comeback in the final quarter. With the margin at 28 points at the final break, Westminster would go on to kick six goals to two and bring it back to seven points, but it wasn't enough. Seaton had several different goal-kickers in the win, but Kyle Gatt was the standout with three majors. Cameron Buchanan was sensational out of the middle for the Ramblers, finding plenty of the footy and kicking two goals. Elsewhere, Bryan Leahy and Zeke Scott also played very well for the visitors and were deserving of finding themselves within the best players. For the Dragons, Aaron Fielke tried everything he could and spearheaded the comeback with six goals. Zane Sard also put together his best effort of the year with two goals, along with many disposals. Riley Wilsdon and Mitch Clisby also continued upon their fantastic seasons and found themselves within Westminster's best.

Golden Grove v Morphettville Park

Golden Grove has taken another step towards promotion with a comfortable 66-point win over Morphettville Park, who have fallen into the relegation zone. The inaccurate Kookaburras had their chances throughout the whole afternoon to make the margin much bigger than it was yet struggled to find the big sticks. This was particularly prevalent in the opening quarter with the 'Burras registering nine behinds, and only holding an 11-point lead at the first change. The Kangaroos stuck around for much of the third quarter, as the margin was extended to just 18 points, but Golden Grove turned up the heat in the third quarter to take a 45-point three quarter time lead. The match followed a similar trend in the final term with Golden Grove kicking four goals to one and extending their lead, enabling them to ultimately run out 11-goal victors. Joel Horskins was at his prolific best for Golden Grove with another five-goal effort, while several Kookaburras also kicked three in what was an even spread of contributors. Wyatt Patterson led the way for the home side, finding a lot of the ball and kicking three goals as he continues his strong season. Jake Pitman and Aidan Thatcher have also had strong seasons at the top level and are making Golden Grove a dangerous outfit all over the ground. For the Kangaroos, Kye Dean and Dane Thompson each booted two goals, as Dean particularly, continues his good form.

SMOSH West Lakes v Scotch OC

Scotch have produced one of the upsets of the season, and more importantly, lifted themselves out of the relegation zone with a stunning 14-point victory over SMOSH. The game started in very low-scoring fashion with a two goal to nil quarter, in favour of the home side, but it was all Scotch since then. Producing a four goal to two second term, Scotch would remarkably take a slight two-point lead into the main break. The third quarter followed the same trend, with the visitors slamming home four goals to two and ultimately taking a 13-point lead into the final break. In a scrappy final term, both sides fought to gain control of the match, but Scotch did enough to hand SMOSH yet another loss, and ultimately win by 14 points. Angus Kitto was the star of the show up forward for Scotch, kicking three goals, while Riley Bowles and Jack Kelly also each kicked two. Harrison Jolly and Henry Vandenberg played very well for Scotch, finding plenty of the ball, and should find themselves with plenty of votes come the end of the season. Nathan Brown and Adam Mahney each kicked two of the eight SMOSH goals and will keep themselves at the top end of the leading goal-kicker race, while Sam Fairclough also found plenty of the ball and continues to put together a fantastic season.

Edwardstown v CBC OC

Edwardstown have lifted themselves into the top four with a 38-point win over CBC, conversely leaving them rotting at the bottom of the ladder, and in serious relegation threat. Edwardstown were on top from the opening bounce and took a handy 20-point lead into the first break and would continue this into the second quarter. The second quarter saw the Towns take full control on their home turf, piling on six goals and taking a 33-point lead into the half. CBC wrestled back some momentum in the third quarter, kicking three goals to one, putting together their best football of the afternoon. However, the Towns responded in the final quarter, kicking away, and securing a vital win to well and truly establish themselves as finals contenders. Jess Watchman and Jack Horgan were the difference in the win for Edwardstown, kicking 11 goals between them and ripping the game apart from the word go. The theme has been recurring all season long for CBC, as they continue to give up big hauls to opposition forwards. One of the main reasons for this is opposition midfields getting on top, and this week was no exception. Joshua Holyoak and Aaron Anderson were fantastic for the home side and were deserving of being named within the best players for their side. For CBC, Taylor Sarunic kicked three goals with Cail Harris, and Aaron Marchioro also proved valuable with two each. Jonty Rutai and Sam Raymond also played very well for their side, finding plenty of the ball and didn't lower their colours despite another disappointing defeat.

PREVIEWS

Scotch OC v Edwardstown

On the back of a big win on the road last week, Scotch return home for a massive test against Edwardstown. Scotch had a breakthrough win last week against SMOSH, lifting themselves out of the relegation zone, and they're desperate to stay afloat. Standing in their way is Edwardstown who claimed a massive scalp in Modbury last week, so confidence will be sky high. I'd assume a high scoring; free flowing game will take place. Prediction: Edwardstown by 33 points.

CBC OC v Golden Grove

In what is a clash with two sides at complete opposite ends of the ladder, Golden Grove will travel to CBC Oval this weekend, hoping to keep its undefeated streak alive. CBC have been competitive at times this year, but its unlikely they will be able to topple the rampaging Kookaburras in this one. Prediction: Golden Grove by 97 points.

Modbury v SMOSH West Lakes

Modbury will host SMOSH this week, desperate to get back on the winners list after a very disappointing day last week. Also coming off a few disappointing weeks themselves is SMOSH, falling to Scotch last week in one of the upsets of the season. SMOSH failed to make the most of their consecutive home fixtures, and their task won't be easy this week as they take on the third placed Hawks. Prediction: Modbury by 45 points.

Seaton Ramblers v Flinders Park

Seaton will take on Flinders Park in what is the match of the round, with both sides coming off excellent victories last week. Seaton recorded an upset win over the Dragons, while Flinders asserted themselves as a genuine finals contender with a statement win over Modbury. I think Flinders will be too strong in this one once again. Prediction: Flinders Park by 28 points.

Morphettville Park v Westminster OS

Desperate for a win after last weekend's shock loss to Seaton, Westminster will travel to Morphettville Park this week to take on relegation battlers Morphettville Park in a season defining fixture. Westminster had been in good form prior to the previous week's loss and will need to show the competition that they should be considered as a genuine finals chance. Prediction: Westminster OS by 61 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Mitcham 13.18-96 def by Portland 14.14-98

Portland overcame a determined Mitcham team who lead for most of the game. It started a low scoring game where the hosts were able to narrowly lead 15-13 at the end of the first. This lead extended slightly, and it was lucky to not have been extended further, the hawks kicked five-goals-eight for the quarter to Portland's three-goals-two. Portland in the third quarter gained ground slightly kicking five-goals-six and getting the game to within a three-goal margin. The last quarter was the resurgence of Portland who left their momentum for the right time. After leading for most of the match, the Hawks were pipped at the post by two points, narrowly losing in a match that will hurt. Maxwell Smyth equally topped the match scoring with six and was best along with Lucas Spiniello, Bailey Griffiths, and Kai Wilson. Lindsay Thomas also topped scoring with six goals for Portland again and was part of the best along with Corey Evans, Terrance Milera and Bradley Traeger. Portland will host an inform Pembroke and will be desperate to stay in the five. Mitcham travel to Pooraka for another tough game in the attempt to climb out of the relegation zone.

Plympton 10.17-77 def Pooraka 5.11-41

The league leaders came out strong against the bulls to remain on top of division four. The first quarter finished 36-2 in favour of the hosts and the league could have been extended further. This dominance continued in the second, keeping the Bulls to only one goal to finish the half. The second half was quite a cruise for the hosts and Pooraka could not capitalise at all, leaving the Bulldogs to win quite comfortably in the end by six goals. Jake Seadon topped the goal scorers with four for the hosts and was best alongside Lonnie Hampton, Jamie West, and Jackson Davis. Pooraka better efforts came from Frank Timpano, Anthony Kube and Joel Harrison. Pooraka now sit on the unfortunate side of the top five and must be determined to put out a powerful performance against Mitcham. Plympton remain on top and will be tested for that top spot against an in form Hope Valley.

Walkerville 10.10-70 def by Hope Valley 10.13-73

Walkerville's winning streak has been snapped from a late comeback from Hope Valley. The hosts started out with an early lead of 11 points in a low scoring first quarter. Hope Valley still found themselves behind going into the main break, but after kicking three-goals-seven the opportunities were certainly there. Walkerville were able to extend this lead out to 22 points and held firm heading into the last quarter. This was not the case, likewise with the Mitcham and Portland game, the team that trailed most of the game were able to fight back and win pipping the leaders at the post. In this case it was Hope Valley beating Walkerville. A three-point victory was enough to end Walkerville's long streak. Nick Gillard, Stephen Sochacki and Cooper Garoni were some of the bests for the hosts while William Riddle, Benjamin Carabott and Machok Garang were key for Hope Valley's victory. Hope Valley will need to continue their good form when they host the league leading Bulldogs, Walkerville will host the struggling Pulteney to boost their percentage.

Pembroke OS 16.13-109 def Kenilworth 8.10-58

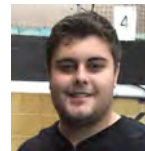

Pembroke has continued their good run of form beating Kenilworth at home with one of the biggest wins of the round. A strong start was exactly what Pembroke needed to set this game up to dominate, a 20-point lead to open the game. This lead doubled as the Kings were putting this game to bed early on. The third quarter was much of the same where Pembroke continued to dominate this match, extending their lead past eight goals. The game ended on a 51-point victory for the kings, finishing the round in the top two. Alex Forster topped scoring again with six goals and was best along with Harrison George, Jack Carruthers, and Thomas Lawrie. For Kenilworth, Sam Scott, Matt Johns, and Myles Crump were the better players. Pembroke next week travel to a determined Portland team looking to regain form, they will make it tough for the kings to continue their good form. Kenilworth host Woodville South which should be a tight matchup.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Woodville South 20.6-126 def Pulteney 11.10-76

Woodville South have continued Pulteney's losing streak with a comfortable victory, moving themselves away from the relegation zone. After giving Walkerville a real run for their money, the Cats were determined to get a win. This happened against the struggling Pulteney Blues who continue their losing streak and remain winless. The Cats came out 50-point victors at home, they will be looking to carry forward this form and get closer to the top five. Tommy-Lee Russo led goal scoring with seven goals and Cameron Bell kicked five to give Woodville South some firepower on the scoreboard. Some of Pulteney's best were Alex Forbes, James Ledgard, and Mitchell Harvey.

Previews:

Kenilworth v Woodville South

Kenilworth host Woodville South this week for an intriguing matchup. Both teams have had wobbly starts to their seasons, sitting outside the top five but above the relegation zone. Both teams come in with different results last round. Woodville South won comfortably against Pulteney whilst Kenilworth were humbled against Pembroke. Both teams are quite similar statistically in points conceded but Woodville's scoring has been significantly better. For these reasons and being in the better form currently, I believe the visitors will come away with this one. Woodville South by 13-24 points

Walkerville v Pulteney

Walkerville host Pulteney this round in what could be an ugly outcome from the first bounce. Of course, this most likely will not be ugly for Walkerville who've started well but last week fell short against a really good Hope Valley team. Pulteney on the other hand are yet to record their first victory and relegation is looking more imminent every week. There is not much into this match other than it could be a really cruel outcome for the Blues. Walkerville by 100+ points

Portland v Pembroke

Portland host Pembroke in what will look to be an exciting matchup. Both teams have had noticeable start to there seasons. Portland recently have been in some rocky form after a fast start to the season, last week they had only just beaten Mitcham after being winless in there two previous matches. Pembroke have been consistent this season, only losing the single match finding themselves only percentage behind of being on top of the division. This is a hard game to pick a winner, but I am going to back in the visitors. Pembroke Kings 1-12 points

Pooraka v Mitcham

Mitcham travel to Pooraka, after a huge, missed opportunity last week gone begging. The Hawks were at home against Portland and led for most of the match until the last quarter, they will be feeling it after that one. Pooraka were beaten comfortably against the league leading Plympton and will be hurting after bad goal kicking. For this match, both teams are coming in with shaky form, but I am going to tip Pooraka for this game who have been far better over the course of the whole season, along with being better at both ends. Pooraka Bulls by 37-48 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Hope Valley V Plympton

This week's match of the round features Hope Valley hosting Plympton. Hope Valley look to be back on track after being thumped a fortnight ago, they recovered by beating the in-form team of the competition Walkerville. Plympton right now sit on top of the division over Pembroke by percentage and have the longest win streak in the league, winning there last five games. This is the hardest game of the round to pick, two very good teams that may well play each other three or more times this season. I am going the upset and picking the home side to take this on. Hope Valley Demons by 1-12 points

Jordan Sennett-Pérez gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Eastern Park 20.24-144 defeated Elizabeth 7.12-54

When: Saturday 21st of May, 2:15pm

Where: Dwight Reserve/Dwight Reserve 1, Elizabeth Park

Preview:

This is a huge game for both teams after a tale of two different results for each side last week. Eastern Park are up and about and are thrashing Salisbury while Elizabeth are still rearing from a disappointing loss to Colonel Light Gardens, given they've one of the more consistent teams this year. Eastern Park have a super potent attack which might be a little too much for Elizabeth's defence but expect the visiting side to respond better and prove to the rest of the competition that they'll be there right at the pointy end of the season. Here is hoping that this contest will be close but Eastern Park appears a little too strong for Elizabeth. Prediction: Eastern Park by 37 points.

Review:

Well, certainly didn't expect that. Eastern Park has reassured the rest of the competition that are a force to be reckoned with, dispatching fellow finals aspirant Elizabeth by 90 points in an ominous showing. The home side were dominant but inaccurate in the first stanza kicking 3.11 to Elizabeth's measly 0.2 to take a 27-point lead into the second quarter. Eastern Park really should have lead by much more but were just wayward in front of the big sticks. Such was the dominance of Eastern Park their inaccuracy didn't put a dent in their confidence for the rest of the afternoon. A relatively even second quarter saw the visitors chip away at the margin a little bit but it wasn't enough as Eastern Park got on a roll kicking 13 goals to 2 in the second half to come out dominant winners. Maurice Freeman, Shawn Mansell and Alex Tuckwell were electric with 9 goals between them while Ben McMullen was dominant with 4 of his own as the home side started to really dominate after half-time and put some serious scoreboard pressure on. Eastern Park will look to continue on with their strong form when they take on Hectorville while Elizabeth will look to respond quickly when they face Gepps Cross.

Colonel Light Gardens 6.6-42 defeated by Hectorville 9.12-66

When: Saturday 21st of May, 2:15pm

Where: Streetfleet (Mortlock) Park/Mortlock Park 1, Colonel Light Gardens

Preview:

This is a very intriguing matchup. Second placed Hectorville are in some really good form at the moment and will look to continue their winning ways against the sixth placed Colonel Light Gardens. Being at Colonel Light Gardens' home ground it gives them a little more hope to cause an upset given that they've had some real dogged performances throughout this year. Expect the contest to tighter than expected with Colonel Light Gardens' defence being one of their strongest assets as are their midfield. The game will be won and lost in the middle with both teams boasting strong on-ball brigades. The home side will have a crack right to the end but Hectorville won't want to drop this game so expect to see them prevail in a tight one. Prediction: Hectorville by 10 points.

Review:

Now that was a contest. It was Hectorville's class in the end that saw them prevail by 24-points keeping the home side scoreless in the last term. It was neck and neck up until that point as Colonel Light Gardens had an air of dogged determination about them taking it up to their more fancied opponents at every contest and refusing to lie down. A 3.1 to 1.3 first term saw the visitors take an early lead looking to set up a comfortable win but Colonel Light had other ideas, Kicking 3 goals to just 3 points to take a confidence boosting 6-point lead into the main break. Hectorville fought back brilliantly with 4 goals to take back the lead by 5 points heading into a huge last quarter. The visitors defence was super stingy refusing to let any ball in from the middle holding Colonel Light at bay as they piled on the last 2 goals of the game. Hectorville could of kicked away had they not been so inaccurate registering 2.7 in fourth stanza but took complete control in the last to dispel any concerns going forward. Josh Denton and Tom Smith were the joint highest goal kickers for the visitors with 2 goals apiece as it was a low scoring game it was in the midfield were the contest was predominantly played. Hectorville will quickly look to next week as their up against Eastern Park in a mouth watering clash top of the table clash. Colonel Light will take a lot of confidence into next week's clash against Kilburn.

St Pauls Os 15.6-96 defeated by Kilburn 19.14-128

When: Saturday 21st of May, 2:15pm

Where: St Pauls College/St Pauls College 1, Gilles Plains

Preview:

This one's a little more straightforward, in what will be a rather dour affair between two lowly ranked sides expect this clash to be tight and fiercely competitive as these two sides look to show some improvement after both having tough starts to the year. Kilburn look a little better in this given that they've won two more games than St Pauls but other than that the field looks relatively even. Given that it's at St Pauls' home ground it should give them a better chance to notch up their second win of the year and give their fans something to cheer about. Again, expect a tight clash right to the end but Kilburn look a little too strong for St Pauls. Prediction: Kilburn by 5 points.

Review:

Kilburn has prevailed by 32 points against a gallant St Pauls Os side in a super entertaining match on Saturday afternoon. The visitors never held a tremendously big lead as the home side refused to go away but often lacked that little extra class and polish to peg the margin back further. Marcus Linsen was brilliant for Kilburn with 6 majors to his name whilst Mark McCallum's 5 goals were instrumental in icing the game. Ben Lennon was brilliant for the home side with 6 goals with Sean Gibbs providing a solid supporting cast with 3 of his own but the contributors were few and far between as they were really the only two targets going forward. It was a gutsy and tenacious effort by St Pauls as they'll take some confidence into next week's match against Blackfriars Os. Kilburn should feel inspired and take confidence into their clash against a more evenly placed side in Colonel Light Gardens.

Gepps Cross 18.29-137 defeated Salisbury 5.6-36

When: Saturday 21st of May, 2:15pm

Where: Duncan Fraser Reserve/Duncan Fraser Reserve 1, Northfield

Preview:

This could get ugly again for Salisbury as they take on fifth placed Gepps Cross who will use this game to find some more consistency and improve their percentage heading into the middle part of the season. Salisbury were nothing short of dismal last week getting smashed from pillar to post by Eastern Park and need to respond in some sort of way otherwise it could be a very long season. Gepps Cross found some more consistency comfortably taking care of second to last ranked Blackfriars Os and now come up against last placed Salisbury. They should comfortably take care of their lowly ranked opponents but should not go into this game thinking that they'll simply walk all over them. Salisbury simply must be competitive and show something for their fans but it might not be enough against Gepps Cross who are looking at a statement like win. Prediction: Gepps Cross by 80 points.

Review:

Another mauling Salisbury has endured, this time by 101 points by Gepps Cross who played with a ruthless edge to them, taking no mercy on their lowly ranked opponents. Salisbury showed a little fight at the start but that was little spark was quickly extinguished as Gepps Cross put their foot on the gas and kicked away leaving Salisbury in a pile of dust. Jarrad Clark-Rantasa was superb with 5 goals but it was spread evenly across the board with 10 individual goal kickers further proving that they're not a one paced side. For Salisbury, effort must be the priority for the rest of the season as they simply do not have the cavalry to run with sides for a full four quarters. Salisbury need to quickly put their disappointing performance behind as it doesn't get any easier taking on top of the table Lockleys next weekend in what could be another nightmare result. Gepps Cross will be given a proper test by Elizabeth next week in what looks to be a huge game with only 1 win separating the two sides.

Lockleys 12.15-87 defeated Blackfriars Os 8.10-58

When: Saturday 21st May, 2:15pm

Where: Lockleys Oval/Lockleys Oval 1, Lockleys

Preview:

Looking at this game from afar you'd think that Lockleys will simply run over the top of Blackfriars Os but think again, even though Blackfriars are equal last they've shown resilience and determination not simply lie down and let oppositions walk all over them. That being said, that's looking at it from a very glass half full point of view. Lockleys are the top side for a reason, dispatching every team that has come before them bar a round loss to second placed Hectorville in what most people looked as the grand final preview. Lockleys should continue their 5 match winning streak but must be wary of a Blackfriars outfit looking to cause one of the season's biggest upset victories. Lockleys are a mature and experienced side though and have been in this situation before and expect to run out winners in should be an exciting and tough affair. Prediction: Lockleys by 30 points.

Review:

Looking at the ladder positions of these two sides, many pundits were expecting a very one-sided affair. That was not the case, Lockleys have come away bruised and battered to win by 29 points over a determined and resolute Blackfriars side that had a never say attitude throughout that almost over the line. Blackfriars jumped the ladder leading home side in the first term, kicking 3.3 to 1.4 to lead by 11 points with the Lockleys looking a little stunned and surprised that a team that is equal last with Salisbury was taking it right up to them. Lockleys reaffirmed who were the better side kicking 5 goals to Blackfriars' 2 but the visitors didn't go away staying in the contest to trail by just 9 points at half-time. A tough and bruising third quarter saw the home side take a scratchy 13-point lead into the final quarter but could've lead by less had Blackfriars kicked a little straighter. Lockleys put Blackfriars away in the last but only by a little and simply had more class and composure going forward but Blackfriars should take great confidence out of this game. They pushed the top team right until the very end proving that when a team is up and firing regardless of form and ladder position they can produce some very good football. Giuseppe Vellotti was solid again for Blackfriars with 3 goals willing his side as they took on Lockleys while Matt Ransom's 4 goals were too much as the home side did enough to get home in the last quarter. Blackfriars Os take on St Pauls Os next Saturday afternoon in an intriguing matchup while Lockleys have a massive game against the team that poses their biggest threat in Eastern Park also on Saturday afternoon.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS

Brahma Lodge v Trinity

Brahma Lodge looked like they were ready to fight at the start of this matchup, kicking 5 goals in the opening quarter.

Trinity's inaccurate goalkicking kept Brahma a chance, kicking 0.6 in the first quarter. But after quarter time, they kicked into gear and kept Brahma to only 3 goals for the rest of the game.

C.Hankinson and D.Coleman were best afield for Trinity and O.John was the best goalkicker booting 4 goals for Trinity.

For Brahma, it was hard to go past J.Scott getting best afield and kicking 4 goals for his side.

West Croydon v Fitzroy

West Croydon saw the chance to take a percentage boost against Fitzroy at home, and took their chance well.

They hurried out to a big lead, coming up 10 goal leaders at the main break, and only continuing from there, finishing 117 point winners.

L.Woodcock was his usual self for The Hawks, kicking 6 goals in his side's win. R.Johnston and L.Milera were best on ground For West Croydon.

For Fitzroy, the shining lights are K.Hope and C.Smith getting best afield, K.Hope also being the only multiple goal scorer for the Lions.

Rosewater v Para Hills

A big win at home for the Doggies this week as Rosewater hosted Para Hills, and despite an early fight from Para Hills, were able to blow them out the park, coming up with a massive 128 point victory.

There were many goal kickers in this match for Rosewater, the most coming from S.Catterall with 6, and A.Birch with 5, while the best for The Dogs were D.Janson and K.O'Toole

D.Weetra and P.Cree booted 3 goals each for Para Hills, while B.Spackman and L.Rigney were their best afield.

Ingle Farm v Marion

Ingle Farm have come to prove their strength in the last few weeks with some good performances, but none maybe as impressive as the matchup against Marion this week.

Despite losing by 38 points, Ingle Farm kept up with The Rams, leading at the end of the first and second quarter. But a 6 goal last quarter from Marion was enough to put The Dogs away and secure the win in a hard fought match.

A.O'Dea had a day out in front of goals for Marion, booting 5 goals, while A.Beaumont was best afield, also kicking 2 goals.

For Ingle Farm J.Pfeiffer kicked 3, and B.Sandery and A.Mcaleer were best on ground.

Trinity v Central United

Coming off the bye last week, this will be the biggest test this season for Central United, taking on undefeated Trinity who are unstoppable so far this season.

Trinity will put up their usual fight, and play good footy, especially playing on their home deck, but I don't think that will stop The Units from giving it a good effort in this one.

Tip: Trinity by 25-36

Para Hills v Brahma Lodge

Back at The Paddocks this week, Para Hills take on Brahma Lodge who are in decent form. A disappointing loss last week against the top side, Brahma will be eager for a win and make sure to build from it and keep their form rolling.

I think Brahma will get a convincing win on the road this week and get a good percentage boost coming into mid season.

Tip: Brahma Lodge by 100+

Fitzroy v Ingle Farm

After putting up a convincing performance last week against a strong team this season, Ingle Farm will be buzzing to make sure to secure the win this week.

Fitzroy coming off a big loss will also be eager for a win, but I don't think it will be enough if Ingle Farm can bring another performance like last week.

Tip: Ingle Farm by 49-60

Marion v Rosewater

Both sides coming off wins last week, and Rosewater makes the trek to Marion to take on The Rams.

A couple of good wins for Marion in the last few weeks will see them wanting to continue the streak of good footy, and at home will be wanting to keep the run going.

Rosewater coming off a big win last week will also be up and about for this matchup and will come to make this one an arm wrestle on the road.

Tip: Marion by 37-48

Mawson Lakes v Hackham
02:15 PM, Sat, 28 May 22
Mawson Lakes Oval / Mawson Lakes Oval 1

The last time these 2 teams met the Hackham Hawks were victorious by 32 points and the game was played at Hackham, this time the Hawks travel to the Lakers oval and it will be interesting to see how the travel affects the Hawks. Both teams come off a lose last Saturday, but both teams showed heart and form in their loses and both teams will be looking for a win. The Lakers will be looking to avenge their 1st round lose. I am leaning towards the Hawks to win this game although the Lakers have shown they can win at home, in the past and have started to show improved form in the last couple of weeks. But the Hawks have shown improved form has been improving for few more weeks than the Lakers, and I feel this improved form of the Hawks makes me feel that they will win this game.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Greenacres
02:15 PM, Sat, 28 May 22
Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) / Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) 1

In the 1st game of the season was where the Dragons started their dominance in this division winning by 89 points, even though they are travelling to Lonsdale Lions den I can't see them losing this game, they have handled the travelling well and have continued to win against the other teams. What I hope is that the Lions whose form has improved over the last few weeks, and I hope that this continues and that they can show the Dragons they have improved and make a genuine game of it.

Houghton Districts v Adelaide Lutheran
02:15 PM, Sat, 28 May 22
Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

I am expecting this game to be a high light of this round with the Raiders out to prove that they are a team to be feared especially at home, I feel that I am going to tip an upset victory to the Raiders at home where they play good footy. They lost to the Lutheran machine by 30 points in the 1st game, but since then the Raiders have improved and this should be one hell of a game.

Flinders University v Mitchell Park
02:15 PM, Sat, 28 May 22
Flinders University / Flinders University 1

The last time only 5 points separated these 2 teams at the end of the game with Mitchell Park Lions winning the 1st game of the season coming from 19 points down at 3rd quarter time and running over the Uni side. This time the game will be played at the Uni home ground, and over the last few weeks the form of the Lions has not been very impressive as their first 4 games. I had a lot of hope for the Lions early in the season but lately they have been disappointing, and their first four games were good and now we have a reversal of form in the last 3 weeks. At home the of Uni I will be tipping Uni I will be expecting Uni to win only because they are playing at home and for no other reason.
