REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 9

Brighton 8.11 (59) def St Peters 4.10 (34)

In a massive upset, the Bombers defeated the top placed St Peters by 25 points to register their third win of the season. Alarmingly, it took the visitors until the fourth quarter to kick a goal, managing just ten behinds until three quarter time, while by that point Brighton had kicked eight majors of their own. A four goal to zero last quarter by St Peters made the end result seem better than it was, but in all this was a good old fashioned reality check for the ladder leaders. Nigel Osborn was best on ground for the Bombers, and they will be hoping to kickstart their season with this upset victory.

Rostrevor 5.5 (35) def by Port District 12.10 (82)

The fast-starting Rostrevor ran out of legs in the second half, as the visiting Port District ran over the top of the home side to win by 47 points. Rostrevor got out to an eleven point quarter-time lead, but that was quickly evaporated as Port District dominated from there on out. They outscored the home side eleven goals to two after quarter time to run away with the win, leaving them third on the ladder after nine rounds. Tom Gray booted six goals for the winners, while Sam of the same namesake was also pivotal.

Glenunga 8.9 (57) def Old Ignatians 7.14 (56)

The Rams held on in an absolute nailbiter to win by one point against an inaccurate Old Ignatians side on Saturday to re-enter the top four. This game was tight the whole way through, with six points the largest quarter break deficit. The visitors led by six points at the final change and looked primed to cause the upset, but a six behind last quarter cost them this match as Glenunga kicked two goals to steal the win. Jack Matchett and Michael McMahon were the Rams' best in the vital win.

Tea Tree Gully 11.13 (79) def by Payneham 12.9 (81)

The bottom placed Payneham have completed perhaps the biggest upset of the season, holding on after a furious second-half comeback by the home side Tea Tree Gully to win by two points. The game seemed over by half time, with the Magpies cruising to a 31-point half-time lead, but the Gullies weren't going away easily, mounting a massive fight back that fell just short as Payneham scraped through for their second win of the year. This will surely lift the spirits at Payneham's camp, as they have struggled mightily this season, while oppositely the Gullies confidence has been shattered. After starting the season on fire, Tea Tree Gully now sit in fifth place, while Ethan Haylock (5 votes) and the Magpies finally have something to cheer about.

Prince Alfred 7.10 (52) def by Goodwood 12.9 (81)

The Goodwood Saints broke away late on Saturday to win comfortably on the road, claiming outright top spot after nine rounds. The 29-point win was aided by a four goal to one last term after the game was within reach for the home side still at three quarter time. With just three wins on the season, Prince Alfred desperately needed a victory here to get them back on track, but the Saints proved far too good once again and are suddenly a real contender to win it all come September. Goodwood shared their goalkickers nicely, while Reece Slape and Nick Favretto were among their best performed.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 10

Prince Alfred v Payneham

This lower-end matchup sees Prince Alfred (3-6) host Payneham (2-7) in round ten, with the potential for this match to go either way. The long weekend will give both sides a chance for a break, after mixed results in round nine saw Prince Alfred lose to the ladder leading Goodwood and Payneham upsetting Tea Tree Gully by two points in an epic win. At home, Prince Alfred will probably be the favourite, but going off last week, the Magpies are every chance of stealing a road win again.

Goodwood v Brighton

First placed Goodwood will enjoy a home game in round ten after winning on the road last round. A game clear on top, the 7-2 Saints have claimed a stronghold on a finals spot, and it will take a lot to upset that momentum now. Although the Bombers were very good in round nine, upsetting St Peters at home, I cannot see them repeating that feat against a well-oiled Goodwood side.

Old Ignatians v Tea Tree Gully

With both sides coming off a loss, the long weekend break might be the best-case scenario for the two clubs. Old Ignatians were heartbroken by Glenunga in a one-point loss, while the Gullies were outplayed at home by the bottom placed Magpies, so a win in round ten would do wonders for both sides' confidence as they slowly start to slip away from finals contention.

Glenunga v Port District

The Rams escaped at home with a one-point win against Old Ignatians last round and will host for the second straight week. Their opponent in round ten, however, is a much stronger outfit in Port District, who were clinical in their round nine victory against Rostrevor and will be looking to pick up another win to stamp their mark in the top four. At home, the Rams are every chance, but I think Port District are too strong at the moment.

Rostrevor v St Peters

The last matchup of round ten sees the two worst performing sides from round nine battle it out. Rostrevor kicked just five goals while St Peters managed just four in their respective losses, so a long weekend break will hopefully replenish both sides' momentum. St Peters are a chance to reclaim top spot with a win and a Goodwood loss, so they will be playing with a chip on their shoulder, while Rostrevor must win to stay in touch with finals. Lots to play for in this one.

PHOS Camden v Athelstone

Athelstone have recorded another important victory, defeating PHOS Camden by 9 points at Camden Oval. The Raggies took the lead early, kicking three goals to two in the first term to take a seven-point lead into quarter time. PHOS Camden hit back in the second term, reducing the lead to a solitary point before another scrappy third term saw Athelstone extend the lead back out to a goal at the final change. The Phantoms pushed hard late but in the end, it was the Raggies, with a two goal to one final term that did enough to get a win that moves them into third position on the table. Alex Davies and Luca Stepic were both the go to targets up forward with three goals apiece while Christopher Lodovici and Jack Wood were both strong in the win. For PHOS Camden, Henry Papatolis kicked two goals and Finn Betterman tried hard in a loss that leaves the Phantoms just percentage inside the top five. They face another tough ask when they travel to face a resurgent Salisbury North while Athelstone will look to build on the win when they welcome Adelaide University.

Salisbury North v Sacred Heart OC

Salisbury North have fallen just short of another stunning upset, going down to Sacred Heart OC by just one point in front of their home crowd at Salisbury North Oval. The Hawks had the better of the first half, taking a five-point lead into quarter time before a five goal to three second term saw the lead extend to 16-points by the main break. Sacred Heart roared back into action in the third term, kicking seven goals to three and reclaiming a ten-point advantage with a term to play. Sacred Heart kicked the first goal of the final term before the Hawks hit back with two of their own. Salisbury North had their opportunities and had the ball deep inside their forward 50 when the siren sounded but it wasn't enough to as Sacred Heart managed to hold on. For Sacred Heart OC, Tristan Carcuro and Harrison Morgan kicked three goals apiece while Patrick McCarthy put through two majors. Alex Cailotto saw plenty of the football and Seb Kerrish was again a standout as Sacred Heart kept their spot secured inside the top two. For Salisbury North, Steven Wellington kicked five goals and Matthew Claughton was dominant in yet another improved performance by the Hawks. Salisbury North face another tough task when they host PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart travel to Broadview in what should be a cracking contest.

Broadview v North Haven

Broadview have proven that they are clearly the team to beat in the 2022 season, defeating North Haven by 50 points in front of their home crowd at Broadview Oval. The tone was set early with the Tigers dominant in the first term, kicking five goals to two and opening a 23-point quarter time lead. The lead pushed out to 40 points by halftime before the Magpies finally showed some fight, with a four goal to three quarter reducing the lead back to 34 points at three quarter time. Any hope North Haven had of a miracle comeback was quickly squashed as Broadview put their foot down with a three goal to one final term that continues their unbeaten streak and keeps them two games clear atop the Division Two table. Nathan Gordon and Cooper O'Leary both kicked three goals for the Tigers while Kobi Russel bobbed up with two of his own. Tyler McKenzie was impressive and Joshua Sheppard a class above in the win. For the Magpies, Jamie Solly (Three goals) and Tom Sandercock (Two goals) led the way up forward while Matthew Sharpe fought hard in a disappointing loss that drops North Haven to third on the table. The Magpies will be hoping to bounce back when they travel to Unley while Broadview face another tough task when they play host to Sacred Heart OC.

Unley Mercedes Jets v Henley

Henley sit just percentage out of the top five after defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 31 points at Kingswood Oval. The Sharks got off to the perfect start with a four goal to two first term setting them up with an 11-point quarter time lead. The match tightened in the second term before Henley unleashed in the third term with a seven to two goal third term giving the Sharks an unassailable 44-point lead at the final change. The Jets showed some fight in the final term, holding Henley goalless but were only able to generate two goals themselves in a disappointing loss that leaves them two wins outside the top five. Tom Pillion once again starred for Henley with four goals while Jack Enright and Nathan Bowles both dominated in the win. For Henley, Nick Wark continued his strong goalkicking form with four goals but once again lacked support. Jack Ianniello found plenty of the footy and Matthew Adams stood out in what was otherwise a dour day for the Jets. They will need to bounce back quickly when they host North Haven while Henley travel to face Gaza.

Previews

Gaza v Henley

Gaza welcome Henley to Klemzig Reserve, The Eagles desperate to get a win on the board after slumping to bottom of the table after their loss to Adelaide University. Henley on the other hand are searching for a win that could potentially see the Sharks move into the top five. Henley looked composed in their win over Unley and a similar performance should see them get the job done. In round one this season Gaza got the win in a two-point thriller but expect the tables to be turned as Henley cruise to an easy win. Henley by 37 points.

Athelstone v Adelaide University

Athelstone and Adelaide University meet at Max Amber Sportsfield, both sides coming off important victories. The Raggies got the job done against PHOS Camden to move two games clear of the 5th placed Phantoms while Adelaide University moved to just one win outside the top five with a solid win over Gaza. Athelstone got the job done by 73 points in the opening round of the season and while I still think the Raggies come away with the points expect it to be a much close matchup. Athelstone by 27 points.

Unley Mercedes Jets v North Haven

North Haven travel to face the Unley Mercedes Jets at Kingswood Oval, looking to bounce back after two straight losses that have seen the Magpies fall to 4th on the table. They come up against an Unley team that is also coming off a disappointing loss against Henley. North Haven came away with a 50-point win and despite their form slump I'm confident they can repeat the dose. North Haven by 31 points.

Broadview v Sacred Heart OC.

Broadview and Sacred Heart OC square off at Broadview Oval with the Tigers looking for their tenth consecutive win to start the season. They are coming off a statement win against North Haven where they completely obliterated the Magpies. They come up against a Sacred Heart team sitting two wins behind them on the ladder but in a form slump after a loss to PHOS and a one-point win over the lowly Salisbury North. Sacred Heart the team that has come closest to Broadview this year, going down by two points despite having nine more scoring shots but if they play like they have the last fortnight Broadview should secure a comfortable victory. Broadview by 27 points.

Salisbury North v PHOS Camden.

Salisbury North take on PHOS Camden at Salisbury North Oval, the Hawks playing some of their best football of the season. They came within one-point of Sacred Heart which would have been their second upset of a top four team in as many weeks. They come up against a PHOS Camden that are sitting in fifth position after pushing Athelstone but not doing enough to get the job done. The Phantoms need the win to stay inside the top five, but I think the Hawks can ride the momentum in front of their home crowd in a thriller. Salisbury North by 7 points.

Reviews

Westminster OS v Golden Grove

Golden Grove has maintained its unbeaten start to season 2022 with a 61-point win on the road against Westminster. The Kookaburras got the jump in the opening stages, taking a 12-point lead into the opening break. From there, they never looked back. Golden Grove's dominance mainly came in the third quarter where they kicked five goals to one, cementing their mark on the game and taking a 41-point advantage into the final change. The final quarter followed much of the same trend, with Golden Grove piling on the goals and running out big winners in the end. The dynamic duo of Joel Horskins and Max Kozlik proved dominant in the game, with both players kicking four goals. Elsewhere, Chad Barmby and Wyatt Patterson put together strong performances, each kicking three. Mitch McKelvie played very well, putting together his best effort of the season, while veteran Todd Sheppard also stood strong in the big away win. Aaron Fielke and Matthew Weckert played very well for Westminster, both providing targets up forward with two goals apiece, while James Craig and Ben Grima also played well despite defeat.

SMOSH West Lakes v Seaton Ramblers

SMOSH have produced a massive comeback win against Seaton on Saturday afternoon, producing a 40-point turnaround to win by 22 points. Seaton shot out of the gates impressively on the road, kicking seven first-quarter goals, taking an 18-point lead into the opening break. However, from there, SMOSH got the game back on their terms, erasing the quarter time deficit to have the scores level at the main break. Both sides were wasteful for lengthy periods in the third quarter, but it was SMOSH who created more opportunities and took a six-point lead into the final change. With the support of the home crowd willing them on, the boys from West Lakes gained control of the game once again, kicking three goals to one and returning to the winners list. Adam Mahney has had a very consistent season and proved to be the difference in this fixture with five majors, while Gareth Smith provided a handy contribution, kicking three goals. Sam Fairclough was impressive once again, finding plenty of the football, while Josh Critchley also played very well in the victory. For Seaton, Jordan Kasianowicz kicked two goals, continuing his strong season, but it was Luke Rochester and Luke Thompson who fought valiantly in defeat.

Edwardstown v Modbury

Edwardstown have secured a comeback win over Modbury in impressive fashion and moved to third on the ladder in the process. Modbury got the jump in the opening quarter, taking an 18-point lead into the quarter time break. Edwardstown wasted a lot of chances in the second term, missing several shots at goal, but they still did enough to wrestle back the lead and take a two-point lead into the half. The third quarter was a very tight tussle, with the margin at just one point at the final break, and the match well and truly up for grabs for both sides. However, with the home fans willing them on, it was Edwardstown who recorded the win, kicking four goals to one in the final term and taking home a 14-point victory. Jack Horgan was everywhere for the home side and kicked five goals, while Josh Holyoak and Phil Hopton each booted two. Josh Schiller and Ben Homburg played very well in the win for the home side, winning plenty of possession, and continually driving the Towns forward at every opportunity they found. For the Hawks, Liam Verity played very well, kicking four goals, while Nathan Hearing also stood up strong with three majors. Veteran Hawk Tim Davey fought valiantly in the loss, winning plenty of the football, as did Corey Smith who continued his strong season.

CBC OC v Scotch OC

CBC have recorded a very important win number two of 2022 with a stirring 16-point win over fellow relegation battlers, Scotch. CBC, who handled the conditions far better than a wasteful Scotch side kicked five straight leading into quarter time, and ultimately held a 13-point lead as the quarter-time siren sounded. Scotch had more goal-scoring opportunities in the second quarter, missing several chances to claim the lead, and it reflected on the scoreboard with CBC taking a 15-point lead into the half. CBC used the wind to their advantage in the third quarter, kicking four goals and holding a 22-point advantage into the final break. Despite a late charge from the visitors, CBC did enough to hold on and pick up a very important win for the context of their season. Matt Raymond was terrific for CBC, kicking five goals, while Taylor Sarunic was also impressive with three goals in the win. Sam Raymond and Jonty Rutai performed well in the win and were pivotal to victory as they found plenty of the football once again. For Scotch, while not many bought their accuracy with them, Sean King certainly did, kicking three goals. Elsewhere, Angus Kitto and Louis Heard performed very well, despite the defeat finding plenty of the football and fighting hard at every contest right from the start of the match.

Flinders Park v Morphettville Park

Flinders Park have risen to second place on the ladder with a dominant 67-point win over Morphettville Park at home. While the game was low-scoring in the opening stages, Flinders got themselves going in the second quarter, kicking five goals to one and taking a 36-point lead into the half. The third quarter followed much of the same trend, however, the Reds got themselves going in the final term once again. Piling on five goals to one, the Reds dominated the Kangaroos and were far too tough, signalling a big win for the home side. One of the most pleasing aspects of Flinders Park's win was their even contribution of goal-kickers. Flinders had 12 individual goal-kickers with just Anthony Laudato, and James Schwarz both proving to be the most dominant with two apiece. Nic Schwarz and Jay Hansen were very impressive for the Reds, finding plenty of the football and providing a lot of run in the victory. For Morphettville Park, Edward Doak was the biggest contributor with two majors, while Nick Hankin and Liam Toohey fought valiantly despite the massive loss.

Previews

CBC OC v Modbury

Full of confidence after securing win number two of the season, CBC's task doesn't get much easier with a visit from Modbury on the cards. The Hawks have been in very poor form lately and have lost two in a row. They're desperate for victory to ensure they stay in contention with the top of the ladder, and there is no better way to regain confidence than to pick up an important away win. Prediction: Modbury by 48 points.

Scotch OC v Golden Grove

On the back of a very disappointing loss to CBC, Scotch return home to face the best side in the competition, who also currently remain undefeated, Golden Grove. The Kookaburras have been in very good form all-season long and will be looking to keep the undefeated streak alive as they storm towards the minor premiership. Prediction: Golden Grove by 66 points.

Edwardstown v Seaton Ramblers

Edwardstown are playing some of the best football the competition has seen all season at the moment, and they'll be looking to continue that fashion against Seaton. Currently sitting equal second, only trailing on percentage, Edwardstown will be looking to continue their momentum against a Seaton side who let the lead slip against SMOSH on the weekend. Prediction: Edwardstown by 57 points.

SMOSH West Lakes v Morphettville Park

SMOSH will stay at home once again this week when they take on Morphettville Park in a very important fixture for both sides. Morphettville Park are looking to pick up a victory to remain clear of the relegation zone, while SMOSH will be looking to charge into the run home with a big win. Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 39 points.

Flinders Park v Westminster OS

Looking to hold their place in the top two, Flinders Park will be at home for the second week in a row, this time facing off against Westminster. The Reds have been playing fantastic football as of late, and it is widely expected that they continue this hot streak against the Dragons who will be looking to bounce back following a disappointing afternoon against the top of the table Kookaburras. Westminster is also looking to keep their finals hopes alive, and there is no better way to stake their claims than with a win on the road against a top two side. Prediction: Flinders Park by 60 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Reviews:

Walkerville 10.12-72 def Plympton 8.7-55

Walkerville have come out on top with a strong win against the Plympton Bulldogs. This was a game that tossed and turned with multiple lead changes. The cats were the first to take advantage of this leading the quarter time break by seven points. The game was then flipped after a strong defensive quarter from the bulldogs leading into the main break narrowly. The second half is where the cats took the lead and full control. Getting out to an eight-point lead which was then doubled to finish the game and finish in the top 2. Cooper Garoni, Nick Gillard and Lincoln Blewit were best for the victors while Brett Connor, Lachie Stoddard, Declan Bayly were the better players for the Bulldogs.

Mitcham 9.13-67 def Hope Valley 7.12-54

Mitcham have come out with the upset of the round beating an inform Hope Valley team at home. The Hawks were able to lead this one for most of the match and were out in front narrowly at quarter time. This lead was held ever so slightly again to retain the half time lead in the wet conditions. Hope Valley in the second quarter were able to wrestle back a short three-point lead heading into the last change in what looked like a runaway. This was not the case, the Demons were overrun and a strong Hawks quarter got them there second win of the season. Oliver Pride, Harrison Pride and Daniel Cross were best for Mitcham while Jaggah Lambropoulos, Jamie Dowling, Machok Garang were the better players in Hope Valley's best efforts.

Pembroke OS 19.15-129 def Pooraka 9.12-66

Pembroke had a statement win against Pooraka to keep themselves atop of the division. The Kings got out to an early five goal lead and didn't look back from this point. This lead grew to a 43 point lead for the half time break. Pooraka in the third quarter shot themselves in the foot when not being able to convert in the third quarter and the lead was extended further for the Kings. The Bulls were unable to make any ground on there deficit and the Kings were able to cruise home. Alex Forster kicked eight to lead all goal scorers and was best with Jack Green, Jake van der Hoek and Tom Evans for Pembroke. Ronald Rankine, Tommy Millar and Michael Baker were the better players for the Bulls.

Woodville South 18.10-118 def Portland 9.12-66

Another huge upset in this round was Woodville South getting a victory over Portland. This was a huge win for the cats to try and make ground on the top five as we reach the halfway point in the season. They came quick out of the blocks taking a four-goal lead. This lead grew after a poor goal kicking quarter from Portland, now finding themselves 28 points behind. The bad kicking hurt Portland and full momentum was in favor of the Cats who won the quarter 45 to no score, the match was won. Woodville South were able to cruise home by 52 points. Tommy-Lee Russo was best on ground with eight goals and was best for the Cats with Nick Mitzithras, Ramah Ahmed and Dylan Gaylard. Tyson Friend booted five, but this was not enough for Portland along with the efforts of Jake Neade, Terrance Milera and Dylan Frank.

Pulteney 7.7-49 def Kenilworth 12.10-82

Kenilworth have come out as comfortable victors by beating the winless Pulteney Blues away from home. The Burra's were able to lead wire-to-wire and remain in touch with the top five. There first quarter lead was only at 11 points and from here they did a great job keeping the Blues away. The half time lead got out to 29 points and the momentum went all of the way of Kenilworth. efforts of the Blues in the second half, they were not able to shorten the deficit, with relegation looking more and more imminent every week. Joshua Giddings had another good week in front of goals kicking five for the Blues and was there best with Elliot Ridgway, Zac Sipek and Cameron Smith. Sam Scott, Lachlan Richter and Matt Johns were the best for the victors.

Previews:

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Pembroke v Hope Valley

This week's match of the round features two top four teams meeting for the second of possibly at least three times. In the reverse fixture, it was Hope Valley's horrible kicking that cost them against a Pembroke team that wasn't at their best. Since this matchup, both teams have been in relatively good form, the Kings are the league leaders and have won their last five matches. Hope Valley despite beating Plympton and Walkerville were stunned by Mitcham last week by 13 points. In this match I believe Hope Valley wont kick as bad as they did in Round one and will be furious with last week's match, they will be out to win this one. Hope Valley by 13-24 points

Pulteney v Portland

Portland will travel to Pulteney to look to stay in touch with the top five. They will be looking to replicate the result earlier in the season where they were 57-point victors at home. Pulteney this season have yet to record a win and relegation is looming large. Portland started fast before they hit a slump, only winning one of there last five matches. Last week they were heavily upset by Woodville South away from home. It is very hard in this game to see Pulteney putting up a huge fight, it should be a relatively smooth victory for Portland. Portland by 37-48 points

Kenilworth v Walkerville

Kenilworth this week host a Walkerville team in very good form. Back in round one, the Burra's came up with the upset of the round and got the victory. This in the long run, was the kick Walkerville needed. They have since only lost one match and are in second place whilst Kenilworth sit seventh. There is no doubt Walkerville will have the earlier result in the back of there minds and will be determined to rectify that result. Walkerville Cats by 49-60 points

Woodville South v Pooraka

Woodville South host Pooraka this week in a match both need to try and get a run of consistent form going. Both teams have had rollercoaster seasons, Pooraka started the season really hot but In there last six games they have only won two of them. Woodville South started slow but have won two of their last three, this incudes a huge win against Portland last week. The cats are trying to stay in touch with the top five. In this match though, I see Pooraka getting the victory likewise to round one but by a smaller margin. Pooraka Bulls by 25-36 points

Mitcham v Plympton

Mitcham face a determined Plympton side who are looking at getting back on the winners list. In round one, it was a tight affair the whole way and Plympton were able to hold their nerves and get across the line. Last week it was the opposite against Walkerville, despite their best efforts, there wasn't enough to get across the line against a tough cats team. Mitcham were able to hold on and beat a very competitive Hope Valley team at home, they will be looking to continue their form. For this one, Plympton will be too strong again like they were in round one. Plympton Bulldogs 25-36 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

St Pauls Os 9.10 defeated by Colonel Light Gardens 17.14-166

When: Saturday June 4th, 2:15pm

Where: St Pauls College, Gilles Plains

Preview:

The result in this should be pretty straight forward but that's an "on the surface level" look at it, expect this match up to be an intriguing one due to St Pauls Os being reasonably competitive in each of their games this year bar a couple of heavy defeats. They'll give their fans some hope and push the more fancied opposition right to the end. Colonel Light Gardens will hope for a rather straight up and down rudimentary win here but it's not that simple. Modern footy is so unpredictable as seen very evidently at AFL level, any team on their day can beat anyone, regardless of ladder position and win-loss record. Expect a tight tussle but Colonel Light Gardens should be a little too strong here.

Prediction: Colonel Light Gardens by 39 points.

Review:

Colonel Light Gardens have continued to rise up the ladder with an impressive 52-point win against a gallant St Pauls Os. It was looking like it was going to be a shellacking when the visitors led by 22 points at the first change. That lead could've been much greater given the visitors had 10 scoring shots but only converted four times. It left the door open for the home side as they fought back kicking 4 goals to Colonel Light's 5 but the away side still had too much of a comfortable buffer between them and St Pauls. Colonel Light effectively ended any chance of an upset by kicking away in the third term and then cruising home for a comfortable win. Adam Brugioni was terrific with 4 goals while Paul McInerney, Blake Dodson and Emmett Wood each kicked 3 majors as the forward had a day out enjoying great service from the midfield. Both teams enjoy a bye this coming week but the following week, Colonel Light Gardens face Eastern Park while St Pauls Os takes on Salisbury.

Eastern Park 14.11-95 defeated by Kilburn 16.11-107

When: Saturday June 4th, 2:15pm

Where: Dwight Reserve, Elizabeth Park

Preview:

This match is going to be extremely exciting as it sees two teams in Eastern Park and Kilburn face off for a spot inside the top 5 and further give themselves a chance at claiming this year's flag. Eastern Park is firmly in third position but if they lose this one, they would have to rely on other results going their way to maintain third place. They have been shown up too now succumbing to two tough losses but their list is still packed with talent and will want to have a strong showing regain some momentum that's caused to slip up at times. For Kilburn this is a test but facing Eastern Park won't be as daunting as it looked like at the start of the year. That will give them hope to cause an upset. Kilburn have been playing some decent footy lately so expect this one to go right down to the wire. Given that it's at home for Eastern Park, most people are expecting them to win but I like Kilburn chances in this one.

Prediction: Kilburn by 7 points.

Review:

Now that was a match and a half. Kilburn have pulled off a tight upset in a very impressive display, downing the more fancied Eastern Park by 12 points on their home deck. Kilburn looked the goods from the get go kicking 5.2 to the home side's 3.4 to take a handy 10-point lead into the first change. Eastern Park fought back well outscoring Kilburn kicking 5 goals to 3 to take a 1-point lead into half-time therefore setting up a huge second half of football. Kilburn regained the lead with a massive third term kicking 6 goals to 3 and giving them a big chance to seal the win in the last quarter. Eastern Park didn't lie down and fought back the visitors held on for a historic win, one that will carry some momentum come the pointy end of the season. Kyle Parks and Raymond Hedland were huge for Kilburn with 6 goals between as they played a fast attacking game style. Shawn Mansell almost single-handedly dragged Eastern Park over the line with a massive 7 goal showing but it wasn't enough as they missed crucial shots towards the end of the game. Both teams have a bye as well this weekend but the following week, Eastern Park will look to make amends when they play Colonel Light Gardens while Kilburn will take some great winning form into their match with Gepps Cross.

Gepps Cross 5.15-45 defeated by Hectorville 8.10-58

Where: Duncan Fraser Reserve, Northfield

When: Saturday June 4th, 2:15pm

Preview:

This is a highly intriguing match-up as second placed Hectorville take on seventh placed Gepps Cross. Given just how good Hectorville have been this season, most pundits expect them to comfortably atone for Gepps Cross. There's an air of confidence coming out of the Gepps Cross camp as they'll use this match as a great test and see if they can take it up to second seed of the competition. Hectorville are in some kind of form though and appear just a little too strong here but Gepps Cross will want to make a statement and look to cause a huge upset.

Prediction: Hectorville by 25 points.

Review:

What a way to burn the chances of winning. The footy gods were with Hectorville who survived a very late surge albeit a highly inaccurate surge from Gepps Cross to win by 13 points in a low scoring and tight affair on Saturday afternoon. The first half was a relatively low-scoring tussle with both sides trading blows and Gepps Cross spurred on by their home crowd taking it right up to the one of the leading premiership contenders. The visitors held a narrow 8-point lead heading into the main break and fans could tell that the game was about break open in a big way. A tough in and under third term saw only 3 goals scored between the two sides set up a huge last quarter which Gepps Cross won't want to be watching back anytime soon. The home side kicked themselves out of it in every literal way. They kicked 0.8 in the last term as Hectorville only mustered 1.1 but were saved by Gepps Cross' insanely errant shots for goal. The Hounds should consider themselves lucky had Gepps Cross even kicked half of that they would've won the game but these are the things that happen when opportunities are taken advantage of. Gepps Cross only has themselves to blame and Hectorville got out of jail free there. Gepps Cross will certainly want to kick straighter when they face the rejuvenated Kilburn while Hectorville have a mouth-watering top of the table clash against Lockleys.

Lockleys 22.8-140 defeated Elizabeth 8.6-54

Where: Lockleys Oval, Lockleys

When: Saturday June 4th, 2:15pm

Preview:

It's another highly intriguing matchup between fellow premiership contenders in first placed Lockleys taking on fourth placed Elizabeth on Saturday afternoon. Lockleys high octane attack will test Elizabeth in every which way but expect Elizabeth's defence (which has been pretty good thus far this season) to withhold all that forward pressure but the question is just how long they can hold that wall before the dam busts wide open. Both teams are coming off strong wins so this could be one of the matches of the year hopefully that is because every time a said match is predicted to be one of the matches of the year it too often fails to do so. Elizabeth will hope a bit of luck goes their way but top of the table Lockleys at home appear just a little too strong.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Prediction: Lockleys by 29 points.

Review:

Certainly didn't see that one coming. Lockleys have again dispatched another premiership contender in ominous fashion, dismembering Elizabeth by 86 points. It was essentially all over by quarter time with Lockleys bursting out of the gate, kicking 8 goals to a solitary behind quelling any chance of Elizabeth pulling off a miraculous upset. The Demons continued to kick away taking a 67-point lead into the last change and well and truly in control of the contest. Elizabeth barely gave a yelp in this one while Lockleys continued to cement themselves as the outright premiership favourite. Ben Haren took full advantage of the Demons' midfield terrific ball use kicking 10 goals in a scarily good display while Bowen Hosking and Cameron Bosman provided a solid supporting cast with 4 goals between them. Lockleys see off another challenger and will take on another, this time second placed Hectorville is next in what is a huge match. Elizabeth will be ruing their poor performance ahead of next week's match against Blackfriars Os.

Blackfriars OS 14.17-101 defeated Salisbury 6.7-43

When: Saturday June 4th, 2:15pm

Where: Park 2 St Dominic's Oval, North Adelaide

Preview:

It's Blackfriars Os taking on Salisbury in which the result could go either way given the context. Salisbury have been uncompetitive in pretty much every game they've played in this year suffering heavy defeat after heavy defeat and are still yet register their first win of the season whilst Blackfriars Os have been far more competitive and have not only gotten a win but have pushed other teams they weren't expected to push right till the end. That's the sign of progression in a rebuilding team not regression as it appears that's what Salisbury is doing. Blackfriars go into this as favourites so expect them to take care of their struggling opponents. Salisbury simply must show more fight and competitiveness if they are to cause any sort of stir but the way they've been playing, it's hard to see if they actually can.

Prediction: Blackfriars Os by 38 points.

Review:

Blackfriars has seen off Salisbury in scintillating fashion, downing the struggling last placed team by 58 points in an impressive display on Saturday afternoon. Salisbury was again non-competitive as they trailed by 31 at the first break and then by 44 points at half-time. They did show some sort of form in the third term which they won outscoring Blackfriars 5 goals to 2 but it was all too little too late as Blackfriars had a firm hold of the game for its entirety. Goals were spread even across the board with 9 individual goal kickers as Blackfriars Os will take momentum into the middle part of the season. It was a solid albeit against poor opposition but in the way that they won it will give them great confidence and they'll certainly need that when they take on Elizabeth in what will be a very tough affair. Salisbury takes on St Pauls Os in what could be the battle of the wooden spoon.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Rosewater v Fitzroy

Back at home this week, Rosewater made sure to get the jump on Fitzroy early in the game, and their efforts paid off, getting an early lead and keeping it up for the entire match. Fitzroy stayed with The Dogs but it wasn't enough to get over the top, Rosewater eventually coming up 37 point winners.

S.Catterall was good in front of goal with 4 goals for Rosewater, while D.Reardon and B.Pawluk were the best afield for The Doggies.

For Fitzroy H.Rusby and H.Gardner provided some fight but it wasn't enough to bring their side over the line.

West Croydon v Trinity OS

It's hard to fault anything Trinity have done so far this season, and this week was no exception.

Coming up on the road against a decent West Croydon side coming fresh off the bye, it was looking like a tough game, but Trinity in their terrific form took no prisoners and made sure to secure yet another win for the season, jumping to a good lead and finishing 76 point winners,

D.Barilla for Trinity continued his fine kicking form so far this year, booting 5 goals in their win, B.Cameron and C.Matters were the best for the victors.

Despite the loss there were some shining lights for The Hawks, with L.Milera earning best afield honors, R.Johnston was also good, booting 3 goals.

Brahma Lodge v Central United

There's never a dull moment when Brahma Lodge and Central United go to battle and this week was no different.

Out at Brahma Lodge this week, Brahma were out to a quick start and held strong to take control in the first half. But after a massive fight back from The Dogs after half time they took the lead and sailed away to a solid 50 point victory on the road.

T.Porter was the best for Central United, also booting 3 goals in the win, while J.Ritzema was also good for The Dogs.

For Brahma, A.Shelly and J.Scott were both good all day in a tough day in the end for the Tigers.

Para Hills v Marion

In a massive show of strength, Marion was able to take to the field against Para Hills on the road this week, making fine work of The Reds early on, getting out to an astonishing 10 goal lead at the end of the first break.

From there they never looked like slowing down and eventuated 141 point winners, making for a convincing win and a good percentage boost going into the mid season bye.

P.Anthony O'Dea was good up forward as usual for Marion, kicking 5 goals, while G.McLeod and W.Cavallo were the best in the win.

D.Weetra kicked 2 for Para Hills, M.Riley and L.Rigney were the best.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 10 PREVIEWS

Trinity v Ingle Farm

Destined to continue their streak, Trinity continue their roll and will be looking ahead to the next match against Ingle Farm as a potential big percentage boost and a chance to make their perfect season even better.

No doubt the boys from Ingle Farm will give their best but nothing is looking as strong as Trinity so far this season.

Tip: Trinity by 85-96

Marion v Brahma Lodge

After a tough fight and a hard loss against Central United, Brahma Lodge hit the road in a big matchup against Marion.

This is sure to shape up to be a hard fought match between both sides and will sure to be a good watch for those over at Marion Oval.

Despite the home ground advantage, I think Brahma Lodge will want redemption from losing last week and take that energy into this match against The Rams.

Tip: Brahma Lodge by 13-24

West Croydon v Central United

West Croydon will be hunting for a win after a big loss last week to Trinity.

Getting a boost mid season for both West Croydon and Central United will be crucial in their run to finals, with both sides sitting inside the top 4 and looking to hold their spots.

With the home ground advantage and eager to win a game, I think The Hawks will be too strong for The Doggies this match.

Tip: West Croydon by 25-36

Para Hills v Fitzroy

Another home game for Para Hills this match and a good chance for them to snag a well needed win.

Fitzroy will also be looking for a win, despite both teams not having their greatest seasons, this will be sure to be a good matchup between the two sides and will help the victors heavily for the rest of the season.

Tip: Para Hills by 1-13

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Houghton Districts v Flinders University

02:15 PM, Sat, 18 Jun 22

Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

Uni aren't having much luck this season, but they have 2 weeks to prepare themselves for the trip to Houghton the home of the Raiders, who will be looking to inflict another massive win over the Uni side. The Raiders at home will be looking to beat the Uni side by 100+ to show they are just as good as the Dragons and will use the game as a barometer as to the difference between them and the Dragons, but they won't have long to find that out as they will be playing them in a couple of matches' time. I would hope Uni can bounce back and not allow the Raiders to have complete dominance over them. The Uni defence is going to have to hold out the Raiders forwards and provide there forwards with an opportunity to score.

Mitchell Park v Mawson Lakes

02:15 PM, Sat, 18 Jun 22

Mitchell Park Oval / Mitchell Park Oval 1

Here we have the battle for the wooden spoon, 7th playing 8th and this should be closest game of the round, they are playing at Mitchell Parks home ground. The Lakers attack is a little superior and both defences are about the same in strength, so who will win this game it will depend on the centre line players who wins the middle of the ground will win this game. The Lakers mid field will need to lift and get it to their forwards who have kicked more goals then the opposition, I feel that the Lakers if they can win the middle and get the ball forward and lock it in to the forward lines may win this game but only just.

Hackham v Greenacres

02:15 PM, Sat, 18 Jun 22

Hackham Oval / Hackham Oval 1

1st versus 4th which is being played at the Hawks home ground. The Dragons are going on there merry way this season and they will be competing against an inform team since the last time they met and now playing at the Hawks home ground they will have to come switched on and not expect to win this game. The Hawks I am expecting will challenge the Dragons all over the ground but eventually the Dragons overall strength over the whole ground will eventually win this game but not win by as much as they did the last time they met.

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Adelaide Lutheran

02:30 PM, Sat, 18 Jun 22

Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) / Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) 1

Another game where I expect the Lutheran Machine to continue on their winning way and they travel to the Lions home ground at Morphett Vale. The Lions have improved since the last time these 2 sides last met and I am expecting the Lions to put up a much better showing than they did on the last occasion. The Lutheran Machine has also had 3 loses since the last meeting and they have lost form since that last meeting. I would expect that the Lutheran Machine will win this game but I feel that it will be a lot closer.
