DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 11

Port District 15.14 (104) def Tea Tree Gully 7.7 (49)

It was a statement game from Port District at home on Saturday, as they completely dominated a struggling Tea Tree Gully outfit by 55 points. The Gullies were competitive up until half time, trailing by just eight points, but a measly sixteen-point second half did not do them any favours as the home side piled on nine goals after the main break to win easily. Daniel Passaniti and Cooper Gaffney were the standouts for Port District, who now sit top on percentage through eleven rounds.

St Peters 10.7 (67) def by Glenunga 10.24 (84)

The Rams completed a massive upset on Saturday at St Peters, toppling the premiership contenders on their home turf by seventeen points. The margin should have been more if it weren't for Glenunga's awful kicking (10.24), but nonetheless the Rams still got the job done. The upset road win sees Glenunga move into the top four with a 6-5 record, while St Peters slipped to third with the loss. Tom Butterworth was Glenunga's best player, while Michael McMahon booted three majors for the Rams.

Brighton 15.11 (101) def Rostrevor 7.7 (49)

The Bombers have seemingly hit a purple patch of form at the right time, recording a commanding victory at home over a lowly Rostrevor squad on Saturday. The game seemed over at quarter time with Brighton jumping out an early four goal lead, but the visitors hit back to close the deficit to fifteen going into half time, making a contest of it. But a strong back half by the home side put the game to bed, with Shane Harvey (5 goals) and Nigel Osborn (2 goals) leading from the front for the Bombers. With a couple big wins in the last few weeks, Brighton moved to 5-6 and within reach of a potential finals berth.

Old Ignatians 11.11 (77) def by Prince Alfred 13.8 (86)

It was a danger game that they couldn't let slip, and yet Old Ignatians did just that, succumbing to the visiting Prince Alfred by nine points. Just three weeks ago, Old Ignatians were closing in on a finals berth, firmly sitting in a finals spot, but after eleven rounds they sit in seventh by percentage, with a 5-6 record setting them back from the contenders. Prince Alfred on the other hand have found some form, and join Old Ignatians at 5-6, but by percentage sit in fifth position. Finn Heard (6 goals) and Jack Trengove (5 votes) were integral for the visitors, who can now sniff finals.

Payneham 8.11 (59) def by Goodwood 12.12 (84)

It was first versus last, but the discrepancy between the two sides was not as big as one would have thought, as the equal-first Saints came out of Payneham with a 25-point victory. It was not all easy going for Goodwood, who were locked at 29 apiece with the struggling Falcons at half time, before a classy second half got the job done for the visitors. At just 2-9, Payneham's season is all but over, and they can look for some form and momentum to take into next season now, while Goodwood's premiership chances are as strong as ever through eleven rounds. Jakob Heitmann was voted best afield, while Will Clarke kicked four goals for the winners.

ROUND 12

Tea Tree Gully v St Peters

Both sides suffered bad losses last week, with the Gullies getting thumped by Port District and St Peters losing at home to Glenunga. This week will be a big chance for both sides to redeem themselves, with a finals spot on the line. St Peters cannot afford to drop another game as the pack is closing fast, while the Gullies must win if they are any chance of getting away from that pack.

Goodwood v Old Ignatians

The Saints come into this clash full of confidence after improving to an 8-3 record over the weekend, and they host a struggling Old Ignatians side who was once in contention for finals, before slipping to seventh with another loss in round eleven. Based on recent form, Goodwood would go in as the overwhelming favourites, but if there was ever a time for Old Ignatians to get back on track and push for finals, it would be now.

Prince Alfred v Port District

Prince Alfred just quietly have made a little run at finals, sitting fifth after eleven rounds with a 5-6 record. A chance to get back on a level record is up for grabs, and perhaps a chance to cement their spot in fifth, but it doesn't get any tougher than the equal-first Port District, who are in good form and looking to claim outright top position with a win and Goodwood loss. The visitors should take this one, but with the way Prince Alfred are playing, it wouldn't be a surprise for them to upset the ladder leaders.

Payneham v Brighton

Last placed Payneham are in a world of hurt at 2-9 and need to muster something soon to salvage a poor season. They are a big chance to do so at home but will need to overcome a surging Bombers outfit who are now within serious reach of finals footy and will need some percentage to make a realistic run at it. Brighton should win on the road, but the Falcons are no pushovers after staying competitive for a half against the top side last week.

Glenunga v Rostrevor

The Rams made a statement with a huge upset win over St Peters last round but were lucky to do so kicking 10.24. A more accurate outing this week should push them over the edge against Rostrevor who sit in ninth and are fast losing time to push for finals. The Rams, who sit fourth, could rise to level with St Peters in third if results go their way, so there is a lot to play for if you are a Rams fan.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Sacred Heart OC v Unley Mercedes Jets

Sacred Heart OC have continued their hold on a top two spot, defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 75-points at Sacred Heart Middle School Oval. Sacred Heart had the better of the first term, having seven more scoring shots but inaccuracy saw them take just a 7-point lead into quarter time. They continued their dominance in the second term, kicking four goals to one and taking a 26-point lead into the main change. Many expected Unley to show some fight in the second half but it was a Sacred Heart domination in the third term as they held the Jets scoreless in the third term while putting four goals through themselves. The floodgates continued to open in the final term as Sacred Heart gained some important percentage. Tristan Carcuro, Henry McAuliffe and Clayton Symonds all kicked three goals for Sacred Heart while Darcy Le Cornu also bobbed up with two majors. Nicholas Jordan was impressive while Seb Kerrish dominated in the win. For Unley, Bradley Rayson kicked two goals and Jack Ianniello fought hard in a disappointing loss that sees them drop three games out of the top five. The Jets face another tough task when they host PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart will expect another win when they travel to face Gaza.

PHOS Camden v Broadview

Broadview have maintained their top position on the Division Two table, getting the best of PHOS Camden in a dour 27-point win at Camden Oval. Neither team managed to kick a goal in the first term before the Tigers managed to get a break, kicking three goals to one in the second term and taking a 15-point lead into halftime. Broadview extended the lead to 20-points with a term to play before a three goal to two final term finished the deal in an important victory. Callum Flanagan, skipper Jay O'Leary and Brodie Pearce all kicked two goals for Broadview while Tyler McKenzie and Cooper O'Leary also starred in the win. For the Phantoms, Declan Grant led the way with three goals and Tom Pearce fought hard all day, but it was not enough in another loss that sees the Phantoms facing an uphill battle to play finals this season. PHOS have lost five of their last seven games and are sitting a win and percentage outside the top five. The Phantoms will be desperate to get back onto the winners list when they travel to take on Unley while Broadview will play host to an in-form Salisbury North.

North Haven v Gaza

North Haven have recorded a crucial victory, defeating Gaza by 31-points at Largs North Reserve. The Magpies shot out to an early lead after a three goal to one first term saw them take a 12-point advantage into the first change. The lead slowly grew to 19 points by halftime before a four goal to two third term saw North Haven take an unassailable 31-point lead into three quarter time. The final term turned into a shoot-out, but Gaza were unable to make any inroads into the deficit as both teams kicked five goal apiece. Tom Sandercock was the star for the Magpies with eight goals while Matthew Sharpe (Three goals) and Jamie Solly (Two goals) offered plenty of support. Ross Merret was strong while Jake Williams had the ball on a string in an impressive victory that sees the Magpies a game clear inside the top five. For Gaza, Corey Solley kicked three goals and Dylan Ridding two while Brayden Lauder gave it his all in yet another dark day in what has been a shocking season for the Eagles. Gaza face another tough assignment when they take on Sacred Heart while North Haven will come up against a strong Adelaide University side.

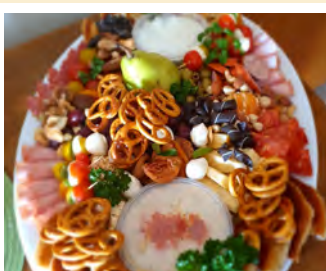

Athelstone v Salisbury North

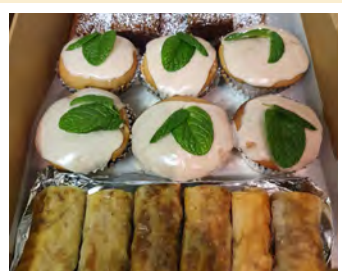

Salisbury North have finally got on the right end of a close contest, with a Travis McIntyre goal after the siren defeating Athelstone by 3 points at Blair Athol Reserve in a thrilling final quarter comeback for their second win of the season. Salisbury North went into quarter with a slender 4-point lead after some inaccurate kicking from the Raggies but a two goal to none second term saw Athelstone go into the main break with an 8-point lead. The scoring flowed in the third term and Athelstone seemed to put the game to bed with a five goal to two third term that gave the Raggies a 24-point lead into the final change. The Hawks kicked the first three goals of the final term to roar back into the contest before Athelstone steadied, Salisbury North pushed again to reduce the margin to under a goal before a free kick to Travis McIntyre moments before the siren put the game on a knives edge. McIntyre put the ball through the big sticks as the final siren sounded, sealing the Hawks second win of the year in a major upset. Matthew Claughton, Steven Wellington and Benjamin Wiles all kicked two goals for Salisbury North while Jak Kairl-Prosser and Anthony Hellebaut both dominated in the win. For Athelstone, Alex Davies kicked three goals and Jack Wood was again amongst the best. The Raggies will look to bounce back when they host Henley while Salisbury North face the toughest road trip in the division when they travel to face Broadview.

Henley v Adelaide University

Henley have strung together their third consecutive victory, defeating Adelaide University by 15 points at Henley Memorial Oval. Adelaide University got the early jump on the Sharks, kicking three goals to two to take an 8-point lead into the first change. Henley hit back in the second term, showing their class with four goals and keeping Adelaide University to just one behind as they stormed to a 29-point halftime lead. Adelaide University continued to fight hard, and despite inaccuracy were able to reduce the margin to 7-points with a term to play. From there it was Henley, kicking three goals to two in the last term to hold on for a huge victory that puts the Sharks into the crucial fifth position on the table. Brett Harland was the main target up forward for Henley with three goals while Brodie Kitto and Harris Jessen both kicked two goals in the win. James Lean gathered plenty of the football and Jack Enright was dominant in the win. For Adelaide University, Mitchell Marini kicked three goals and Will Warrick played some impressive football, but it was not enough as Adelaide University slumped to two games and a decent amount of percentage out of the top five. They will need to turn around their form quickly when they face North Haven while Henley travel to take on Athelstone in a huge matchup.

Previews

PHOS Camden v Unley Mercedes Jets

PHOS Camden travel to take on the Unley Mercedes Jets at Kingswood Oval, looking for a win that could put the Phantoms inside the top five. PHOS are coming off a tough loss to Broadview that saw them fall out of the top five by percentage, and they are desperate for a big win that will help to bridge that percentage gap. They come up against an Unley side who are also coming off a loss and are seeing their finals chances slip away as they sit two wins behind the sixth placed Phantoms. PHOS won the earlier matchup between the two by 66 points, and I expect another big win from the Phantoms as they put a nail into Unley's coffin.

PHOS Camden by 41 points.

Gaza v Sacred Heart OC

Gaza and Sacred Heart OC meet at Klemzig Reserve in a contest between two sides at completely different ends of the table. Gaza remain at the bottom of the ladder after their sixth consecutive loss, this time at the hands of North Haven. Sacred Heart on the other hand is flying, sitting second on the table and coming off a big win over Unley. Sacred Heart OC dominated the earlier contest by an even ten goals and if current form is anything to go by, I expect the margin could be even bigger this time.

Sacred Heart OC by 73 points.

Adelaide University v North Haven

North Haven travel to face Adelaide University at Park 12 University Oval, looking for a win that would help cement their spot inside the top four. They come up against an Adelaide University side that has fallen two games outside the finals race after a tough loss to Henley. It was North Haven by 43-points earlier in the season and despite this matchup being a must win for Adelaide University it is hard to see them getting over the top of the Magpies.

North Haven by 21 points.

Athelstone v Henley

Athelstone and Henley face off at Max Amber Sportsfield in an intriguing matchup between two sides who are hoping to be featuring in finals action this season. Henley are coming off a solid win over Adelaide University while Athelstone are reeling after a disappointing close loss to Salisbury North. Athelstone are sitting two games clear of fifth placed Henley and a win would go a long way to securing finals action. Athelstone got the better of the Sharks by 21 points earlier this season and I expect the same result but with a much closer margin in what should be a thrilling contest.

Athelstone by 7 points.

Broadview v Salisbury North

Salisbury North travel to take on Broadview at Broadview Oval. The Hawks have found form in the last month, but despite playing good football have suffered some tough losses. The Hawks last three matches have been decided by under a goal with them finally getting a win over Athelstone on the weekend. They come up against a Broadview team that are flying, sitting top of the table and coming off a comfortable win over PHOS Camden. Salisbury North need to start stringing wins together to have any hope of a late finals push but the ladder leading Tigers should prove too strong.

Broadview by 33 points.

DIVISION 3

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Morphettville Park v Edwardstown

Edwardstown has further consolidated its position inside the top two of the division three ladder, on the back of an impressive win on the road against Morphettville Park. The Towns were in control of the contest right from the opening bounce as they piled on five goals to one, taking a 23-point quarter-time lead. Edwardstown remained in control for the remainder of the game, extending the lead to 31 by half-time, 39 by three-quarter-time, and eventually running out winners to the tune of 35 points. Superstar forward George Cornish put in yet another standout performance with seven goals, while Ned Parr, Kane Mulvaney, and Aaron Anderson all booted two. Anderson was everywhere all afternoon, as the former Westies man showed his class, while Cameron Forbes also put in a strong showing. For the Kangaroos, Liam Mensforth proved to be the main target in the forward line, kicking three goals, while Kye Dean also stood up well with two majors. Chris Barns and Nick Hankin fought strongly to keep the Roos competitive, but it was nowhere near enough in the end to sustain a comeback.

SMOSH West Lakes v Westminster OS

SMOSH have jumped to fifth on the ladder following a one-point victory over Westminster in the game of the season so far. The match started very evenly with SMOSH taking a one-point quarter-time lead and extended this to just five by the main break. However, it was Westminster who responded strongly after the half-time break, kicking five goals to two and taking an 18-point lead at three quarter time. However, SMOSH drew on the home crowd and produced a stunning final quarter where it would kick six goals to three, including the match-winner from Ethan Abbott. Elex Day played very well with three goals for the home side, while Nathan Brown also played an important role, kicking two. Kyle Dalidowicz found plenty of the footy all game, as did youngster Darcy Ginever, while the ever-consistent Sam Fairclough proved a valuable contributor yet again. For the Dragons, Riley Wilsdon was a clear best on ground with five majors, looking dangerous everytime the ball came his way. Hamish McRae also was a headache for the opposition backs with three goals. James Craig found a lot of the football once again, as did former Rooster Mitch Clisby, both looking to hit SMOSH on the counter at every opportunity they were given.

Golden Grove v Flinders Park

Golden Grove have continued its undefeated streak, knocking off previously placed second Flinders Park to the tune of 43 points at Harpers Field. The Kookaburras started strongly on a perfect afternoon for football, kicking five opening quarter goals, but Flinders Park kicked three of their own to have the margin at just 21 points at the first change. The second quarter remained a close margin, with an inaccurate Kookaburras outfit missing opportunities and extending the lead to just 19 points. However, the third quarter was truly a sight to behold as the premiership favourites kicked eight goals to one, extending the lead to 62 points and showcasing why they're the team to beat. The Reds earned back some pride in the final term, cutting the margin back a bit, but the game was too far gone. Jacob Templeton was a strong performer with four goals, while Chad Barmby and Mitch McKelvie each kicked three. Former St. Kilda man Cameron Shenton had his best game for Golden Grove with a best afield effort, while Jake Pitman also put in a strong showing. For the visitors, Justin Hardy and Nik Seccafien proved strong forward targets with three each, while Jay Hansen and Kieran Johanson fought valiantly in defeat.

CBC OC v Seaton Ramblers

CBC have lifted themselves out of the relegation zone on the back of a massive win over Seaton. The home side dominated right from the outset, opening proceedings with a five goal to one start, taking a 27-point lead into the first break. From there, they would just flex their muscles, extending the margin to 45 by halftime, 44 at three-quarter-time, before running out deserving 65-point victors. It was a very even spread of goal-kickers for the victors, but Michael Gabrielli and Thomas Pickering led the line fantastically with three each. William McPherson and Jonty Rutai found plenty of the ball, consistently driving the home side forward at every opportunity, while Matt Raymond oozed class all afternoon. Bryan Leahy and Oliver Dosljak fought strongly all day for Seaton but didn't get enough support to mount a case of competition all afternoon.

Modbury v Scotch OC

An inaccurate Modbury side have held off a competitive Scotch side in a hard-fought win at Modbury Oval. The visitors got the jump in the opening quarter, kicking four straight goals, and making Modbury pay for missed opportunities, as they kicked just two goals five. However, the Hawks regained control in the second quarter, kicking five goals to one and taking a 19-point lead into the main break. Inaccuracy plagued the home side in the third quarter, kicking two goals seven and taking its behind tally to 16. Despite another disappointing term in front of the big sticks in the last quarter, Modbury were able to hold off a strong finishing opponent and run out 22-point winners. Liam Verity and Jayden Watson were very good up forward with three goals each, while Nathan Hearing also chipped in with two. Marcus Kightley and Corey Smith were the best for the Hawks, winning plenty of the football all afternoon. It was a tough day in front of goal for Scotch, yet Archie Morgan still booted two. Elsewhere, Charlie Morgan and Max Renfrey found the ball all afternoon, as has been the case for much of the season.

PREVIEWS

Westminster OS v Edwardstown

Second placed Edwardstown are full of confidence on the back of a strong win on the weekend and will travel to Westminster this week to face a side coming off a heartbreaking defeat. The game beckons as a genuine eight pointer, with both sides in interesting positions in the context of the overall ladder.

Prediction: Edwardstown by 50 points.

Scotch OC v Seaton Ramblers

With the ladder hotly contested, a massive clash will take place at Scotch College this week between two sides battling to avoid relegation. Scotch is coming off a tough loss against premiership contender Modbury, while Seaton suffered a shock loss to CBC. Prediction: Scotch OC by 13 points.

CBC OC v Morphettville Park

In another massive relegation clash, 7th placed Morphettville Park take on 8th placed CBC who will be full of confidence having picked up a huge win over Seaton last week. It has been a tough season for both sides, but both will be looking to avoid the relegation zone with a win this week. Prediction: Morphettville Park by 8 points.

Modbury v Golden Grove

In the match of the round, local rivals Modbury and Golden Grove will face off in what is set to be a potential finals preview, considering where the two are situated on the ladder. Modbury had plenty of the ball against Scotch, but couldn't convert, while the Kookaburras are firing on all cylinders and remain unbeaten after 11 rounds. Prediction: Golden Grove by 32 points.

SMOSH West Lakes v Flinders Park

In what is a massive clash for the business end of the ladder, SMOSH is set to host Flinders Park in a massive contest at West Lakes. Flinders are reeling after a disappointing loss to Golden Grove on the weekend, while SMOSH had a tight win over Westminster. I predict a tight contest, with Flinders Park to be too classy in the end. Prediction: Flinders Park by 19 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEW

Reviews:

Hope Valley 15.16-106 def Woodville South 12.9-81

Hope Valley have pulled through on a strong comeback win over Woodville South. It was the Cats that got out first and took the first quarter lead by 17 points, putting the pressure on early. At half time the margin was narrowed by the demons to two points with some momentum behind them. The third quarter was a stalemate with the cats still hanging onto the lead for dear life to try and get the upset. The Demons were able to break free and storm home in the last to win it by 25 points and remain in the five by percentage. Ren Miller, Benjamin Carabott, and Jamie Dowling were best for the hosts whilst Lochie Barreau, Nick Mitzithras and Ramah Ahmed were the better players for the Cats.

Plympton 14.22-106 def Pembroke OS 6.3-39

Pembroke's winning streak has been smashed emphatically by a very strong Plympton performance. It was a hard and fast start as the bulldogs got out to a six-goal lead at the first break. This was followed up with a 70-point half time lead whilst restricting the kings to one score in the first half, a remarkable defensive showing. The Bulldogs hit the 100 mark at the three-quarter time break and kicked six behinds in the last, this margin definitely could've been extended further. Pembroke improved in the second half, but the game was far gone when they started to kick goals. Jack Donkersley, Harry Phelan, and Jackson Davis were best for the dogs with Zac Peake leading goal scoring with five. Tom Evans, Jack Green, and Matthew Falzon were the better players for the kings.

Portland 15.5-95 def Kenilworth 13.16-94

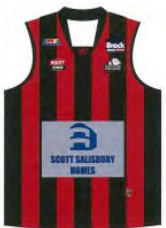

Portland have won one of the matches of the season getting up by one point at home over Kenilworth. It was Kenilworth who got out early and took the early lead by ten points. In the second there poor kicking hurt them and found themselves behind at half time, kicking two-goals-seven to Portland's seven-goal-one for the quarter. At three quarter time it was all locked up at 69 apiece, Kenilworth had plenty of chances but found themselves in a deadlock. In the end a tough and close final term had Portland win the quarter and the game by just one point. Terrance Milera, Jake Neade and Tye Treloar-starkey were best for Portland whilst Lindsay Thomas topped goal scoring with five goals. Nick Chesser, Jordan Wilson-King, and Sheldon currie were best for the visitors.

Pooraka 27.8-170 def Pulteney 9.5-59

Pooraka picked up the biggest win of the round with a huge win over the Pulteney Blues. Right from the outset it was Pooraka who came fast out of the blocks and led wire-to-wire. The Bulls who are continuing to find form on the last stretch of the home and away season have gained a boost of percentage out of this match. The Bulls for this round finish in fourth and are now only one win behind a double chance position. The Blues on the other hand have been embarrassed once again losing by over triple digits. Pulteney remain on the bottom of the ladder and are not only staring relegation in the eye but also a winless season. Luis Timpano, Ronald Rankine who led goal scoring with eight and Michael Baker were best for the victors. Jayden Fischer, Cabbot Stewart-browne and Jake Beinke were best for Pulteney.

Mitcham 19.8-122 def Walkerville 8.3-51

Mitcham have produced the upset of the season in this division beating Walkerville in convincing fashion. The Hawks led wire-to-wire and dominated one of the best teams in the division. At quarter time they got out to a 20-point lead and kept Walkerville to just two scores. Mitcham's attacking performance continued in the second as they extended the lead slightly and had full control of momentum going into the second half. In the third quarter the momentum carried over with Mitcham extending the lead to 47 points and this was continued into the last with a 71-point victory in the end. Maxwell Smyth topped the goalscoring with six and was best with Stewart Lawson, Nicholas Collins, and Harrison Pride for Mitcham. Zane Kuller, Levi Francis, and Cooper Garoni were best for the visitors.

Woodville South v Plympton

Woodville this week play hosts to the Plympton Bulldogs who are in scorching form. Plympton smashed the league leading Pembroke, putting there win streak to a screaming halt. A strong Hope Valley team outplayed Woodville South. In the reverse fixture, it was Plympton who narrowly won at home. For this match, I expect the cats to play with urgency as the Mitcham Hawks are breathing down their necks from the relegation zone. Regardless it is clear that Plympton are the better team and will do enough to get the job done.

Plympton Bulldogs by 37-48 points

Kenilworth v Pooraka

The hot Pooraka Bulls will travel south to play the Kenilworth Burra's. Last week the Bulls destroyed the Pulteney Blues, keeping them in fourth and one win outside of a double chance position. Kenilworth played in the most entertaining match of the round but were on the wrong side of the result. Portland overcame and won by a point. The Burra's remain in an awkward position, not good enough for the top five and not bad enough for relegation possibilities. In the earlier season match, Pooraka won huge and kicked poorly in front of goals. In this match I see this following the same result as earlier in the season.

Pooraka by 49-60 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND Portland v Walkerville

Portland this week face a Walkerville outfit that was embarrassed against Mitcham last week. The Cats fell behind early, and it was a slippery slope from there, in the end losing by over 11 goals. Portland played in an amazingly competitive match against Kenilworth and came out with the match of the season with the right result. They continue to put pressure on the teams in the finals and are hunting fifth spot. Walkerville are a win off top position so there is no doubt both these teams should come out eager to go. In the reverse fixture it was Walkerville easily, this time around I feel Portland will win a consecutive classic.

Portland by 1-12 points

Pulteney v Hope Valley

Pulteney this week will host Hope Valley in what is actually there first matchup for the year. Hope Valley are coming off a comfortable win against Woodville South at home whilst Pulteney were humbled harshly against Pooraka. The Blues' horror season continues as a winless season is staring them in the eyes. Even though this is there first matchup of the season, I see Hope Valley getting up comfortably and remaining in the top five. On all areas of the ground, the Demons will dominate.

Hope Valley by 61-72 points

Pembroke OS v Mitcham

This match features two teams that come into this game very differently to one another. Pembroke remain the league leaders but were smashed away from home by Plympton. Mitcham who are in the relegation zone smashed Walkerville in the upset of the season as the Cats are travelling so well. A Mitcham win can get them out of the relegation zone with fantastic form. Pembroke need to bounce back fast to remain on top of the ladder. In the reverse fixture, Pembroke got home with bad goal kicking. I believe that Pembroke will get up again and remain on top.

Pembroke OS Kings by 37-48 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Last week

Lockleys v Kilburn

All went to script in terms of Lockleys winning by 49-points, but the first half after a shocking performance the week before, the Chics come to play. They were always going to lift after such a poor performance against Gepps Cross. They stayed with the Demons until half time and only trailed by only 5-points at the long break. During the third-quarter the Demons decided enough was enough and put their foot to the pedal and slammed on 9 goals to 3 to lead by 40 points at lemon time. The final term was level with both sides having a lot of the ball, but the game was done and dusted at the break. Mark McCullum turned back the clock and kicked five goals while Ben Haren continued his dominant performances in the Demons forward half with four goals as did Henry Johnson. Sam Ferguson, Matthew McDonough and Jess Rafanelli were good for the Demons. For the Chics Macus Linsen, Jayden Davison, Cam Williams, Ray Hedland and the great man Andrew Graham were best. Young Jayden Davison, has been in scintillating form for the Chics all season and should poll exceptionally well if the umpires have any idea when picking best players.

Colonel Light Gardens v Gepps Cross

At home, and after a huge win away against Eastern Park the week before we thought that Colonel Light Gardens would overcome Gepps Cross. The Rams went into the match in great form after dismantling Kilburn the week before, however we though the Lions at home would be too strong. Colonel Light Gardens got off to a flying start and lead by 19-points at quarter time but the next two quarters no quarter was given and none asked, as both sides went head to head. Only 7-points separated the sides at half time and 1-point at three quarter time. The Lions led right until lemon time, however it was all the Rams in the final term as they booted 5 goals in the final term to win. The Lions were left ruing their poor kicking for goal during that final term. Whilst the Rams kicked 5 straight, the Lions kicked 2.5. The game was a cracker all day as Gepps won by 12-points and moved into the five at the expense of Colonel Light Gardens, who dropped to sixth. The Lions will need to win an extra game than the Rams in the last seven matches, as Gepps Cross has a massive percentage advantage over the Lions. Gepps Cross would now be eying a double chance with their recent good form.

St Pauls v Eastern Park

After a poor performance the week before we expected Eastern Park to come out firing last Saturday. But it was St Pauls OS who absorbed the pressure in the first term to hold sway at quarter time. By half time however, the Demons led the way by 15-points and most people expected Eastern Park to kick away. St Pauls however had different ideas and kept with the Demons in the third quarter and only trailed by 14-points at three quarter time. Many expected St Pauls would have too many younger and fit players and run over the top of the Demons in the final term. However Eastern Park were the ones who booted away to win by 25-points. Both teams had strong focal points up forward. For St Pauls they had Matthew Pendlington who booted 7 goals. While for Eastern Park that had the dynamic Shawn Mansell with 6 goals and the big marking Robert Kovacic with 5 goals offering a twin target. Ultimately having that extra scoring option up forward proved the difference.

Hectorville v Blackfriars OS

Hectorville were expected to redeem themselves after their loss the week before against Lockleys. The Hounds played well against the Demons but Lockleys were just a bit too strong the week before. Blackfriars OS on the other hand need a big win. Both Blackfriars and St Pauls remain locked in battle to see who is relegated with Salisbury at seasons end. Blackfriars OS whilst never looking in the game, weren't "put away" by the Hounds until after half time. At half time Hectorville led by 28-points, but in the third quarter is where they stamped their mark on the game when they kicked away to lead by 54-points at lemon time. The last quarter is when Hectorville cut loose as they booted 9 goals to 2 from Blackfriars to have a whopping 95-point win. Their huge percentage makes it impossible for Elizabeth or the chasing pack to catch them and acts as an extra one game buffer. Jak Goudman-Glasson proved the massive focal point up forward for Hectorville as he booted 7 majors. For Blackfriars, it was Callum Marchetto who booted 3 goals.

Elizabeth v Salisbury

This game between near neighbours was expected to be a one sided percentage booster for Elizabeth as they look to keep their double chance in the finals. However it was Salisbury who came out firing on all 8 cylinders in the first half. The Magpies led by 21-points at quarte time, while at half time an upset was in the making as the Magpies led by 20-points and were showing no signs of wilting. It was that third quarter however, where the Eagles made their mark and booted 4 goals to nothing as the Eagles cruised up to the Magpies and led by 6-points at the final break. It was there, that the feeling of an Eagles victory looked likely. The massive target of big Jared Clinton up forward, was the only difference between the sides. Without the big fella, we have no doubt the Magpies would have won. Big Jared booted 10 goals out of his sides 13 goals to be the most dominant player on the field. Elizabeth in the final term were storming home and went home to win by 26-points on the back of Jared Clinton. It was a much improved outing from the Magpies and another performance like that in the back half of the season will ensure they enjoy success at some point during 2022. The Magpies appear to be a side that will cause a big upset if one of the "tall poppy" sides aren't switched on playing them.

This week

Lockleys v Colonel Light Gardens

A big game for a few reasons. Lockleys will want to keep winning to keep a game plus a large percentage break over Hectorville as we head into the back half of the year. For Colonel Light Gardens, their loss last week against Gepps Cross was a four point game. This week, they must get back into the winners circle as a loss could mean losing touch with the final five. The Lions are already a long way behind both Eastern Park and Gepps Cross with percentage, so effectively they are that extra game behind both clubs. The Lions will be making the trip to Rutland Avenue with the hope of defeating the premiership favourites against the odds. Two weeks ago they travelled to Eastern Park and won well, then faltered at home against the Rams. To win they will need to stop the scoring options over the ground from Lockleys. Each week the Demons have a host of goal kickers. Ben Haren is the focal point, but they have a raft of forwards who can kick goals. We think that Lockleys will have too many avenues to goal for the Lions and will win an entertaining game. LOCKLEYS 13-24 POINTS

Salisbury v Hectorville

The Magpies last week, played well against Elizabeth however Hectorville offer many additional problems than their near neighbour. The Magpies, just don't have the scoring power to trouble the Hounds. Although at home, we think that the Hounds have too much talent all over the ground but especially up forward for the Magpies. Salisbury will take a scalp of two before the season ends, just not this week against a strong opponent. HECTORVILLE 37-48 POINTS

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Blackfriars OS v Kilburn

This game will be one that Blackfriars will think they can win. Kilburn have been in average form of late, although they stayed with the ladder leaders in Lockleys last week until half time. The week prior, they were mauled by Gepps Cross. St Dominic's Oval offers a challenge to most sides, and the Chics wont want to take the Hounds easy at home. A loss here would definitely end whatever slim finals chances that Kilburn have. For Blackfriars they will see this is a game to "pinch a win" and push them out of the relegation battle for a week or two. This is a real danger game for Matty Whelan's men. Blackfriars will have to stop three players in particular. Up forward McCullum who goes on the long leads with his strong hands in front of his body, poses a problem up forward as does Hedland around the ground. But the man they must stop is Jayden Davison who has been in brilliant touch around the ball. KILBURN 1-12 POINTS

St Pauls OS v Elizabeth

St Pauls at home would give themselves a sneaky chance of beating the third placed Eagles. And the old scholars are in desperate need of a win, as they're locked in battle with Blackfriars OS to see who joins Salisbury next season in division 6. Elizabeth aren't in the best of form, and were pushed hard last week by Salisbury. This week they leave Argana Park to St Pauls College, which is not the easiest to play on and lacks much ambience. We think the Blackfriars OS and Kilburn clash is a danger game for the Chics. However we also think that the Eagles would not want to take their eyes off the ball here against St Pauls who are desperate for a win. In what would be considered an upset, we think the old scholars will snatch an unexpected win over the Eagles. ST PAULS OS 1-12 POINTS

Gepps Cross v Eastern Park

Billed as match of the round, this should be a cracker. Eastern Park started the season well, but haven't looked as threatening of late. Gepps on the other hand were slow starters but have been in dominant form over the last few weeks. Their win against Kilburn was brilliant as they mauled the Chics. Last week, they had to travel to Mortlock Park to take on Colonel Light Gardens in what was a four point game and came away with a fantastic away win. Gepps have a good midfield and a good spread of players over the ground. Lately they've found more avenues to goal. For Eastern Park, they have Mansell and Kovacic as dual targets. Mansell the slippery small forward who's quick and can hurt Gepps. Kovacic offers a bigger marking target. The Rams will have multiple options ready to tag Mansell, but they will need to be quick and smart. Mansell is likely to play one or two out inside 50 and work his opponent back and forward to the goal line and get in behind him. Eastern Park are likely to play both Kovacic and Mansell inside the forward 50 arc and have four players as high half forwards creating a two out situation. If Gepps can counter these two players we think the Rams at home might be too strong. For us it's the Rams will keep on a winning roll. GEPPS CROSS 25-36 POINTS.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 11 REVIEWS

Brahma Lodge v West Croydon

A strong performance up at Brahma Lodge Oval this week saw The Hawks take it up to The Lions as they were able to put up a good fight and run home with a tight 12 point win.

Brahma put up a magnificent 6 goal final quarter but were unable to finish off, falling short by 3 goals.

B.Seaton was the best for The Hawks, while L.Milera was also good, booting 4 goals.

For Brahma D.Coombes and A.Tripp were the best afield, while D.Chaffey kicked 4.

Central United v Ingle Farm

Determined to get another win on the board after a tough loss to West Croydon, Central United were able to take hold of the game this week early against Ingle Farm, getting up to a 9 goal lead at half time, eventually running away 64 point winners.

J.Bain and M.Garner were the best for Central United in their dominant performance, while J.Lane and S.Webber both had a day out in front of goal booting 7 each.

The diamond in the rough for Ingle Farm was D.Payne, earning best afield and booting 3 goals.

Fitzroy v Marion

A hard fought game out at Fitzroy this week seen The Lions as the underdogs. Marion held strong all game, playing the kind of strong footy they have been playing all year, but in what turned out to be an amazing game, Fitzroy threw everything they had at The Rams and were able to keep right on their tail for the whole game.

In the end, Marion were too strong and consistent, coming away with a short 15 point win.

Z.Angel and G.Mcleod were best for Marion, helping their team get up in this arm wrestle, while P.Anthony O'Dea and W.Cavallo were good in front of goal, kicking 3 each.

For Fitzroy it was J.Rosenthal who helped lead the team to their strong performance, kicking 3 goals and earning best afield.

Trinity v Rosewater

What else can you say about this Trinity side?

Consistency is a must in a footy season, and this side has given that and then some, putting away Rosewater by 76 points.

Trinity continues to impress and put their talents to good use, and I don't see it stopping anytime soon.

D.Barilla was good in front of goal for Trinity booting 4 goals, while D.Winning and J.Smith got it done to get best afield.

It wasn't all bad for Rosewater, with D.Reardon and A.Christmann earning best afield.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 12 PREVIEWS

Ingle Farm v West Croydon

Ingle Farm take on West Croydon at home this week, hoping to get a good win against a decent side this season, The Doggies will be eager to hit this one hard from the first bounce.

West Croydon will also be pushing for a convincing win on their run home to finals and I think will be too strong for Ingle Farm despite the home ground advantage.

Tip: West Croydon by 49-60

Rosewater v Central United

A thriller of a game last time these two sides came to clashes resulted in a draw.

Both sides will be keen to get one up on the other and get a much needed win in the back end of the season.

Rosewater have proved they can perform against in form teams this year, but I think with the importance of some good wins in the later games this season, Central United won't let this chance slip away from them, and get a much needed win.

Tip: Central United by 25-36

Para Hills v Trinity

No doubt that Trinity will head into this one as major favorites, and I believe they will come into this matchup with the same mindset as every other game this season and continue their perfect season.

But I believe Para Hills have the ability to throw some changes around and give everything they have to prepare for a big 2023 season and start rebuilding. They have nothing to lose and will be looking for some new strategies and tactics to beat the better teams in the coming rounds and into next year.

Tip: Trinity by 37-48

Fitzroy Vs Brahma Lodge

A good contest between these sides last time they came to blows, Brahma Lodge running away convincing winners.

Since then both sides have had some good wins and hard losses, but Fitzroy having come off a good contest against Marion last week will be buzzing to get a good win.

This will be a good contest out at Fitzroy and I think they will be too strong for Brahma Lodge in what will be one of the games of the round.

Tip: Fitzroy by 13-24

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Flinders University
02:15 PM, Sat, 02 Jul 22 | Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale)

Well, D7 supporters we have another intriguing game with Uni taking on the Lonsdale Lions at their home ground. Uni have had a couple of good performances in the last couple of weeks, and the Lonsdale Lions have had a good game against the Machine and a disappointing game last Saturday against the Mitchell Park Lions. On paper the Lonsdale Lions have the better attacking game but the Uni side has the better defence, so it will be the forward lines of the Lonsdale Lions V the Uni defence and the winner will be the team that takes control of the other both sides need to win to have a chance at playing in this seasons finals.

Adelaide Lutheran v Greenacres
02:15 PM, Sat, 02 Jul 22 | South Parklands

Another week where 1 plays 2 and will we have another side being beaten by almost 100 points and will the Dragons further cement their intentions of them destroying the opposition in the D7 competition this season and intimidating the opposition week in and week out. This week the Dragons play the Machine and the home ground of the Machine who early on in the season, who also went about destroying the opposition to also intimidate the opposition, but the Machine has suffered some loses, whilst the Dragons have carried on their merry way this season and still remaining the only undefeated team in the competition. It is a very hard thing to remain undefeated for an entire season but not impossible, and very few teams have achieved an undefeated season and winning the grand final.

Mawson Lakes v Houghton Districts
02:15 PM, Sat, 02 Jul 22 | Mawson Lakes Oval

After the Raiders had their humiliating lose to the Dragons, they face the Lakers and I would expect that the Raiders will take that lose against the Lakers and I feel that it will not be a pretty sight or game to watch. If I know the Raiders, they will go into this game to completely destroy the Lakers. I hope the Lakers are prepared for the onslaught from the Raiders, because it will happen, I am sure. The only thing that the Lakers have on their side is that the game is being played at the Mawson Lakes Oval, that is probably the only positive that they can take out of this game. The Raiders will be rampant and angry and will take it out on the Lakers for their lose against the Dragons last Saturday.

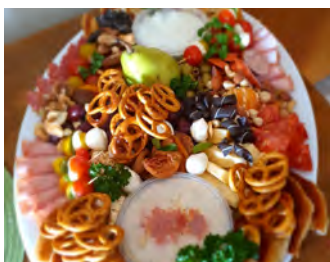

Mitchell Park v Hackham
03:45 PM, Sat, 02 Jul 22 | Mitchell Park Oval

Here is another game this week that is important in the fact that the Hackham Hawks are currently 4th and up until recently had a 3-game buffer from the teams below them and then recently a couple of teams below them are now trying to get into the top 4. Mitchell Park Lions are 1 of those teams attempting to get into the top 4, a win will see them now only 1 game behind the Hackham Hawks. The Hawks need to win this game to give themselves that 3 game buffer, so this game is important to both sides. Early in the season I felt that 1 of the teams that would contest the finals was the Mitchell Park Lions. The they had some ordinary results that saw them drop out of the top 4 and now they have had a couple of wins their confidence is up and now they are surging for the finals. Consequently, the Hawks had a good month in May which saw them surge into the top 4 but now they have had a couple of loses other teams are knocking on the door, last time the Hawks won by 63 points somehow I don't know if it will be that much again.
