DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 12

Tea Tree Gully 8.12 (60) def by St Peters 13.13 (91)

The downward spiral of Tea Tree Gully's season continued on Saturday as they were handled at home by contenders St Peters by 31 points. Trailing by just eleven heading into the final quarter, the Gullies conceded four final quarter goals while kicking just one themselves as the game got out of reach, and due to other results Tea Tree Gully now sit eighth after being first after three rounds, with finals a distant thought currently. As for St Peters, the road win was crucial for the shaping of their season, as they sit third with an 8-4 record, just one game from top spot. Spearhead Jock McLeay continued his fine form in front of goals, adding another five goals to his tally, while Sam Dukalskis was best afield for the winning team.

Goodwood 10.14 (74) def Old Ignatians 7.8 (50)

The Saints kept their spectacular season going at home on Saturday, beating Old Ignatians by four goals to equal Port District once again on top of the ladder. The home side kept a nice buffer heading into each break, with the smallest lead being thirteen at quarter time, and that breathing room was too much for the visitors to overcome in the 24-point loss. With the loss, Old Ignatians have fallen right out of finals contention, sitting at 5-7 after twelve rounds and in need of a turn around soon, while Goodwood are firmly perched atop the ladder at 9-3, building some momentum for a finals tilt later in the year. Nick Favretto has become a household name this season, being amongst the best players afield in eleven of Goodwood's twelve games, and was once again prominent on the weekend, while Brayden de Prinse gave it his all in a losing effort.

Prince Alfred 7.11 (53) def by Port District 8.8 (56)

It was an uphill battle, but the visiting Port District survived and kept their place on top of the ladder after twelve rounds, holding off a valiant Prince Alfred outfit by just three points. The biggest lead at any change was a mere six points, with the tightly contested clash easily staking its claim for game of the round. The home side, who desperately needed to win to draw level with its fellow finals' aspirants Glenunga and Brighton, could not convert in front of goal early, and a 4.11 score through three quarters ultimately cost them this game. Thomas Carter had himself a game for the winning side, booting three goals and amongst the team's best, while ex-AFL player Sam Gray was just as pivotal.

Payneham 5.7 (37) def by Brighton 12.10 (82)

It was a bloodbath at Payneham on Saturday as the Falcons took three quarters to get going, ultimately falling to a surging Bombers squad by 45 points. At three quarter time the Falcons had registered just 1.4, as opposed to Brighton's 11.9, before a four-goal final quarter lessened the damage slightly. Suddenly, the Bombers are sitting pretty inside the top four after a month ago being a long way out of finals contention, and off the back of Harrison Boyle (3 goals) and Blake Higgins (5 votes), this week was no different. The lowly Falcons are the only team with less than five wins after twelve rounds, sitting on a 2-10 record, and are well and truly out of finals contention.

Glenunga 9.16 (70) def by Rostrevor 13.6 (84)

Rostrevor completed one of the biggest comebacks of the season on the road, overcoming a seemingly unassailable 23-point three quarter time to run over the contending Glenunga by fourteen points. The game seemed over at the last change, with the Rams holding a comfortable four goal lead, but a goalless last quarter for the home side, as opposed to a seven-goal barrage by the visitors, meant the tables were completely turned. Rostrevor needed the win to just stay in the hunt for finals at 5-7, while Glenunga fell to fifth with the loss and are just one win ahead of the pack at 6-6. Nicholas Murphy was near perfect for Rostrevor, kicking an outrageous eight goals of his side's thirteen, while Daniel McCallum and Peter Vorrasi helped the fightback as well.

Old Ignatians V Payneham

After a poor month of footy, Old Ignatians should enjoy a home game against the bottom-of-the-ladder Payneham to boost their spirits and get their season back on track. At their best they are a finals side, but have failed to show that of late, and will need some momentum for the run home, so for their sake, a big win this week could do wonders.

Rostrevor V Tea Tree Gully

Both sides enter this contest at 5-7, and a finals spot is not too farfetched for the winning side. The Gullies have lost all momentum and form as the season has progressed, while Rostrevor have found some form and are coming off the back of an epic road comeback win against a strong Glenunga side. At home, Rostrevor should hold strong and continue to rub salt in the wound for the Gullies.

St Peters V Prince Alfred

One game outside top spot at 8-4, St Peters are within sniffing distance of making a serious premierships push and will need to win strong this week at home against Prince Alfred. The visitors were one kick away from upsetting Port District last week, so they have shown they can match it with the best sides and are every chance of stealing a road win this week. St Peters should win at home, but don't count out Prince Alfred.

Port District V Goodwood

Equal-first Port District escaped with a narrow win last week against Prince Alfred to hold strong at the top, and are back at home this week in what should be the game of the round against their fellow 9-3 contender Goodwood, who won easily at home last week.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Broadview v Salisbury North

Broadview have recorded another impressive victory, defeating Salisbury North by 66 points at Broadview Oval. Salisbury North have been in form of late and the Hawks seemed like they were going to continue their strong form, kicking four goals to one in the first term to jump out to a shock 20-point quarter time lead over the ladder leaders. From there the Tigers dominated, keeping Salisbury North goalless and kicking three goals from 12 scoring shots to retake a 3-point lead heading into halftime. The Broadview onslaught continued in the third term with a four goal to none quarter giving the Tigers a 20-point lead. Salisbury North were again unable to find a goal in the final term, adding just a single behind to their tally of five points after quarter time as Broadview plied on another five goals to seal a big win, which could have been even larger if not for the 22 behinds the Tigers kicked. Brodie Pearce and Jacob Rillotta both kicked three goals for Broadview while ex-AFL player Jesse White also bobbed up with two majors in his Broadview debut. Brodie Pearce was dominant, and Nick Liddle also starred in the win. For Salisbury North, Travis McIntyre kicked two goals and Domenico Constanzo tried hard in a loss that almost completely snuffs out any faint finals hopes that the Hawks had. Salisbury North will be looking to bounce back when they host Unley while Broadview will look to keep the wins rolling when they hit the road to take on Athelstone.

Athelstone v Henley

Athelstone have shown why there are considered one of the premierships contenders this season, defeating finals hopeful Henley by 59 points at Max Amber Sportsfield. The Raggies got the best of the opening stanza, kicking four goals to two and taking a 13-point lead into quarter time. The lead grew out to four goals by the main change as Athelstone took control of the contest before a six goal to two third term blew the lead out to an unassailable 49 points in an important victory for Athelstone that puts them two wins and a healthy percentage ahead of the fifth placed Sharks. Luke Rander and Luca Stepic both starred up forward for Athelstone with four majors each and Nick Delaet also made his presence felt with three goals. Sam Tarca delivered another strong performance for the Raggies, and Sam Daniele put forward an impressive performance. For Henley, Brett Harland put through four goals and Tom Pillion was once again amongst the Sharks best in a loss that leaves Henley only percentage inside the top five and looking like they will be locked in a tight battle with PHOS Camden for that final spot in the finals. The Sharks face another tough task when they travel to take on North Haven while Athelstone welcome the ladder leading Broadview in a mouth-watering matchup.

Gaza v Sacred Hart OC.

Sacred Heart OC have continued their winning ways, defeating Gaza by a thumping 91 points at Klemzig Reserve. The onslaught started early as Sacred Heart came out of the blocks firing, kicking four goals to none and taking a 29-point lead into quarter time. The lead swelled to 46 points by the half and another emphatic six goal to two third term saw Sacred Heart take a 68-point lead into the final change. There was no letup for the struggling Eagles as Sacred Heart continued to push in the final term, kicking four goals to one and gaining some percentage that may prove crucial come the end of the year. Harrison Morgan kicked four goals for Sacred Heart while Oscar Lovelock managed three majors. Taylor Angel found plenty of the footy and Cooper Brinkworth was influential in a victory that keeps Sacred Heart within striking distance of ladder leading Broadview. For Gaza, Nick Fahey and Jayden Carrigg stood out but it was not enough to stop the Eagle's seventh consecutive loss in a season that has gone from bad to worse for a side that sits at the bottom of the Division two table. Gaza face another tough opponent when they travel to face PHOS Camden while Sacred Heart will fancy their chance when they play host to Adelaide University.

Adelaide University v North Haven

North Haven have moved two games clear inside the top five, defeating Adelaide University by 1-point in a thrilling matchup at Park 12 University Oval. Adelaide University got the jump in the first term, kicking four goals to two and taking a 14-point lead into the first change. The momentum quickly swung in the second term as the Magpies took control of the second term, kicking five goals to one and retaking a 12-point lead into the main change. The Magpies pushed the lead out to 20 points at three quarter time and kicking the first goal of the final term before Adelaide University stormed back into the contest, kicking six of the last eight goals to reduce the margin to under a goal. Adelaide University had their chances to take the lead but just couldn't do enough to get over the line as the siren sounded deep in their forward 50. Tom Sandercock was the main target for the Magpies with five goals and Matthew Sharpe also managed to put three goals on the board. Mark Rowe was dominant in the victory and Ryan McInerney continued his strong form with another impressive performance. For Adelaide University, James Carter kicked five goals and Braden Robinson four, while Will Warrick fought hard in a tough loss that leaves Adelaide University's finals chances on life support. Adelaide University will have to pull a major upset when they travel to face Sacred Heart OC while North Haven host Henley.

Unley Mercedes Jets v PHOS Camden

PHOS Camden have seen off a valiant Unley Mercedes Jets outfit, securing a crucial 8-point win at Kingswood Oval. The match was close from the beginning with the scores locked at 21 points apiece after a high pressure first half. The Phantoms pushed out to a one goal lead at three quarter time after a four goal to three third term and with both sides managing three goals apiece in the final stanza the Phantoms were able to do enough to hold onto a massive victory that leaves them just percentage outside of the top five. Declan Grant was the main man up forward for the Phantoms with four goals while Justin Whitford also contributed with three majors. Dylan Morton was strong and Todd Lewis had the footy on a string in yet another impressive performance. For the Jets, Luke Heaslip, Ben Ianniello and Hugo Lauder all kicked two goals and Jacob Pedler was a class above in a disappointing loss that leaves Unley three games out of finals contention. The Jets will look to bounce back when they travel to take on Salisbury North in a huge matchup that could end the finals hopes for the loser while PHOS Camden will be hoping for a big win when they host bottom placed Gaza.

Previews

North Haven v Henley

Henley travel to face North Haven at Largs North Reserve, the Sharks desperate for a win that will keep them in the top five after their big loss to Sacred Heart leaves them just percentage above PHOS Camden in fifth position. They come up against a North Haven side that is full of confidence after a thrilling victory over Adelaide University, their second win in a row that leaves them two games clear of Henley. Despite having less scoring shots North Haven were 22-point victors earlier this season and I expect the Magpies to again come out on top. North Haven by 23 points.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Salisbury North v Unley Mercedes Jets

Salisbury North and Unley Mercedes Jets meet at Salisbury North Oval, both sides needing a win to have any chance at a late season finals push. Unley are coming off a close loss to PHOS Camden while Salisbury North, after a strong first term, was unable to kick a goal after quarter time, going down by 66-points in a thumping loss to Broadview. Earlier in the season it was Unley getting up by 26 points but despite their loss on the weekend Salisbury North have been in solid form of late and should get the job done at home. Salisbury North by 13 points.

PHOS Camden v Gaza

PHOS Camden welcome Gaza to Camden Oval, the Phantoms looking for a win that could push them into the top five. They are just percentage behind fifth placed Henley after their tough win over Unley. They come up against a Gaza side who are on a seven-game losing streak and are sitting at the bottom of the table after a 92-point loss to Sacred Heart. PHOS Camden won the earlier matchup between the two sides by 103 points and with the Phantoms looking for a percentage boost this matchup could also be a blowout.

Sacred Heart OC v Adelaide University

Sacred Heart OC are looking to continue their winning form when they welcome Adelaide University to Sacred Heart Middle School Oval. Sacred Heart are on a four-game winning streak and are breathing down the neck of ladder leading Broadview. The come up against an Adelaide University side who is coming off a devastating 1-point loss to North Haven that has almost completely ended their finals chances. Earlier this season it was Sacred Heart coming away with a huge 81-point victory and with the form they are in I would not be surprised if another big win is on the cards. Sacred Heart OC by 41 points.

Athelstone v Broadview

Athelstone and Broadview face off in what should be the match of the round at Max Amber Sports field. Both sides are coming off impressive victories with Broadview demolishing Salisbury North and Athelstone showing their might against Henley. A win for the Raggies will entrench them deeper inside the top four while a win for the Tigers will keep the top spot that they have held all season. The contest lived up to expectation earlier this season with Broadview coming out on top by 6 points and it is hard to go against the top team in the competition to get the job done yet again. Broadview by 17 points.

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS

Westminster OS v Edwardstown

Edwardstown have held off a dangerous Westminster outfit, with a dominating final quarter, enabling them to run out 43-point winners. The game was very even throughout the entirety of the contest, and with the home side cutting the margin back to 10-points by three-quarter-time, it was anyone's game. However, Edwardstown flexed their muscles in the final quarter with a five goal to no score quarter and ran out big winners on the road in the end. George Cornish and Jess Watchman both provided strong threats for the visiting side with three goals each, but it was a very even spread with eight individual goal-kickers. Josh Holyoak found plenty of the ball afternoon and was a clear best afield as he also booted two goals. Meanwhile, for Westminster, Riley Wilsdon provided a target all afternoon with three majors, and former North Adelaide man Mitch Clisby fought valiantly yet again.

Scotch OC V Seaton Ramblers

Scotch have picked up two vital points with a come from behind win over Seaton, registering an eight-point victory. It was a very low scoring affair all afternoon, and the home side led by just one straight kick at the half. However, Seaton clicked into gear in the third quarter, making Scotch pay for inaccuracy in front of goal and would take a 12-point lead into the final change. However, a four goal to one final term from the home side allowed them to pick up a very unexpected win in front of a roaring home crowd. Harrison Chaplin, Mani Draper, and Sean King all proved valuable threats up forward with two majors, whilst Harrison Jolly, and Charlie Morgan once again put together strong performances. For the visiting side, both Zeke Scott, and Jacob Sumner kicked two goals, while Cameron Buchannan and Luke Thompson further staked their claims for Best and Fairest nominations with strong individual performances.

CBC OC v Morphettville Park

CBC have picked up an important 25-point win on the road over Morphettville Park on the back of a massive second half. Despite trailing at quarter time, the home side wrestled back some momentum in the second quarter and would lead by just a solitary point at the half. However, a three goal to nil third term had CBC leading by 20 points, and another strong final quarter enabled them to run out comfortable winners. Thomas Pickering was an important contributor to the win with three majors, while Aaron Marchioro also popped up with two. Jonty Rutai and Oliver Stenchlik were fantastic for the home side, proving crucial to the win, while Will McPherson also played an important role throughout the afternoon. Chris Barns further pushed his claims for the leading goalkicker award for the Kangaroos, kicking three majors, while Lucas Marks and Liam Mensforth continued their good form throughout the middle of the ground all afternoon long.

Modbury v Golden Grove

Golden Grove has survived a monumental scare against local rivals Modbury, but still managed to run out 37-point winners. Despite trailing by 11 points at quarter time, the Hawks put together a very strong display in the second term, kicking five goals to two and taking a seven-point lead into the half. This momentum would only continue in the third quarter, and they would hold a two-point advantage at the final change. However, Golden Grove proved why they're on top of the ladder with an astounding seven goal to nil final quarter, enabling them to run out considerable victors on the road. One of the most pleasing aspects about the Kookaburras win was their even spread of goalkickers with seven individual players finding the big sticks, and six kicking two. Usual suspects Joel Horskins and Wyatt Patterson were amongst the goal-scorers once again, further staking their claims for the leading goalkicker award. Experienced players Josh Ingram and Dan Lepka were instrumental in the win, keeping the youngsters cool under pressure, while Josh Dobie didn't look out of place on debut. For the Hawks, Liam Verity was once again the star man up forward with four goals, while Jayden Watson also bobbed up with two, keeping the Golden Grove backline under pressure.

SMOSH West Lakes v Flinders Park

Flinders Park have bounced back in emphatic fashion with a remarkable 79-point shellacking of SMOSH on the road. The game begun as somewhat of an even contest, with Flinders Park struggling to convert opportunities that they were presented with, and this had the margin at 25 points at the half time break. However, a 15 goal second half gave Flinders a huge percentage boost and keeps them in touch for a top two spot on the ladder with a relatively easy run home. The win could've quite easily have been triple figures, with the visitors registering 21 behinds, letting their opponents off the hook in considerable fashion. Justin Hardy was the main man up forward with five goals, while James Schwarz also kicked three. For SMOSH, Keaton Thomas put together his best performance of the season with four majors, while Ryan Foster bagged two.

PREVIEWS

Seaton Ramblers v Modbury

Seaton is set to return home in desperate need of a win after a disappointing loss to Scotch on the road last week, where they let a lead slip. Modbury did pick up a loss against Golden Grove but came very close to handing the ladder leaders a loss and will take great confidence from the game. Prediction: Modbury by 45 points.

Flinders Park v Edwardstown

In the match of the round, third placed Flinders Park will take on second placed Edwardstown in an absolutely massive clash at Flinders Park Oval. Prediction: Flinders Park by 23 points.

Westminster OS v CBC OC

Desperate for a victory, bottom placed Westminster will take on fellow relegation battlers CBC in a must win game for both sides. Westminster had a poor final quarter against Edwardstown, while CBC put in a very mature performance, enabling them to pick up a victory. Prediction: CBC OC by 9 points.

Morphettville Park v Scotch OC

In an important clash for the bottom of the ladder, Morphettville Park will host Scotch in a must win clash. Morphettville Park were very disappointing against CBC in what was a very winnable game, while Scotch will be full of confidence after the big win over Seaton. Prediction: Morphettville Park by 11 points.

Golden Grove v SMOSH West Lakes

Reviews:

Woodville South 3.5-23 def by Plympton 20.12-132

Plympton were the biggest winners of the round grabbing a smashing away win over Woodville South. The match was looking to be one sided from the outset as the Bulldogs took a 40-point lead at quarter time. This grew by three goals at half time, and it was Plympton's impressive defence that was leading the way as it has all season. 94 points was the three-quarter time margin, this game was well and truly over as the Bulldogs had the luxury of cruising home in the last quarter to reclaim top position in the division. Liam Wood, Tommy-Lee Russo, and Jonathon Schmidt were best for the hosts whilst Brodie McLeod who led goal scoring with five, Declan Bayly and William Greenshields were best for Plympton.

Kenilworth 9.6-60 def Pooraka 7.9-51

Kenilworth have pulled off a big upset at home against Pooraka. The Burra's had come out hard and fast to get the early jump and lead at quarter time by 25 points. In this low scoring affair, Pooraka slowly worked their way back into it by halving the deficit going into the main break. The Bulls in the third quarter cut the deficit to just a single point and had full control of momentum. The last quarter was not what was expected, the hosts held their nerves and came away with a nine-point victory for one of the upsets of the round. Daniel Evans, Charlie Quick and Lachlan Richter were best for Kenilworth whilst Ben Prater, James Chakiris and Kaide smith were best for the visitors.

Portland 9.8-62 def by Walkerville 9.13-67

Walkerville have come through narrowly away against Portland to move into the top two. It was tight at quarter time, only one point separated the two teams. Walkerville at half time took a slightly bigger lead by nine points which could've been more if not for bad kicking at goals. The lead was cut right down to two points as Portland swung the momentum going into the last. In this low scoring contest, the last quarter was the lowest scoring and Walkerville were on the victors side of the ledger. Elijah Satala, Corey Evans, and Bradley Traeger were best for Portland. Michael Makris, Sean Kuerschner, and James Searles were best for Walkerville.

Pulteney 13.17-95 def by Hope Valley 26.8-164

Hope Valley have put on a goal kicking clinic away at Pulteney to move up to fourth position. The Demons came out with much energy and flair scoring 57 points in the first quarter. The second quarter was big again as they ended the half with 94 points, and they led the Blues by 56 points. Pulteney in the third started to really hit the scoreboard but it was all too late in the end. An eight-goal last quarter put 164 on the board for the Demons as they climb the ladder, something Pulteney would desperately love to do. Tyson Currie, Scott Barabas and Daniel Nielsen were best for Pulteney as Jesse Whinnen kicked five. For Hope Valley Benjamin Carabott and Jayke Hellmanns both kicked five whilst Daniel Nobes topped goal scoring with ten.

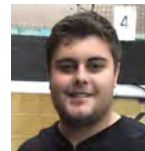

Pembroke OS 10.8-68 def by Mitcham 12.4-76

Mitcham continues there roll of excellent performances with another huge upset, this time around against Pembroke. The Hawks this season have been on the wrong side of close results, but they finally broken that duck. The first quarter they led by a single goal before the Kings overtook them and the lead going into the main break. Mitcham reversed the lead from trailing by two to leading by two points going into the last quarter. In this tight and tough affair, the Mitcham Hawks who have struggled most of this season came up with the goods against one of the best teams in the division. Jack Green, Patrick Levicki and Jack Carruthers were best for Pembroke and Zach Sutherland, Nicholas Collins and Oliver Pride were the best players for the visitors.

Previews:

Pooraka v Portland

This game was extremely close to be chosen as this week's match of the round, but it was pipped by Pembroke and Walkerville. Nevertheless, this promises to be an enticing match and definitely a must win for both sides. Fifth against sixth with one point separating. Pooraka last week were upset away from home against Kenilworth and couldn't overcome in a low scoring affair. Portland was also on the wrong end of a low scoring affair against Walkerville. Last time out it was Portland coming away with the victory after Pooraka kicked nine-goals-18. Both these teams have been in awkward form but with six weeks to go it is a perfect time to get rolling towards September. Pooraka Bulls by 13-24 points

Mitcham v Woodville South

For most of this season it has been Mitcham who have been in the relegation zone and couldn't manufacture anything to get up out of there. Out of nowhere they managed to beat Walkerville and Pembroke in the last fortnight, both were the upsets of the division. They now face a weaker Woodville South team but the dangers of losing this one could mean there two upset wins could be nullified as they might be sent back to ninth. Woodville South are due for another big performance; they've now lost six of their last seven and most matches were done so in cruel fashion. Despite all this, Woodville South won the reverse fixture by 89 points, this margin shouldn't reach that one this time around. Mitcham Hawks by 25-36 points

Plympton v Pulteney

First will host last this week in what will look to be the blowout of the round. Plympton have won their last three games on the trot including two smashing's against Pembroke and Woodville South. Pulteney remain winless and a loss this week and a Mitcham win will mean they mathematically will be relegated. Last time out it was Plympton by 115 points, this time around it maybe a similar result. For the Blues they would hate to go down without recording a win. Plympton have a chance to start to separate away from the rest of the league if they can really show out in this one. Plympton Bulldogs by 96+ points

Hope Valley v Kenilworth

This match has so much greater significance then it seems at pure face value. At face value its fourth against seventh with both teams looking to grab a top five spot. Hope Valley right now are wanting to break into the top three to get a double chance spot, Walkerville plays Pembroke, so they have the chance to move within a point of this happening with a win. Kenilworth on the other hand is looking at getting to fifth spot, Pooraka plays Portland so Kenilworth with a win has a chance to move within two wins of that fifth spot. Both teams had big wins last week, Kenilworth upset Pooraka while Hope Valley smashed Pulteney. In the reverse fixture it was Hope Valley winning huge and the Demons should get the win again but by not as much. Hope Valley Demons by 37-48 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Pembroke v Walkerville

This week's match of the round features a second versus third matchup. The winner of this match will get to keep pace with Plympton for the top position in the division. The loser will be a win behind both and will have Hope Valley breathing down their necks for the double chance position. Both these teams lost to Mitcham in the last fortnight, they are both looking to hold their nerves on the run home to the finals. Last time out it was Walkerville who smashed Pembroke by 92 points, this time around it is expected to be far closer. Pembroke Kings by 13-24 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Last week

Lockleys v Colonel Light Gardens

Another week, and another Demons victory. While most people thought a Lockleys win was almost a certainty. Nobody saw the carnage that took place at Lockleys Oval happening. It was nothing more than a training drill for Lockleys and Colonel Light Gardens were the witches hats. The game was over at quarter time, when Colonel Light Gardens had the aid of a good breeze and were 11-points down at the break. The second quarter turned into a procession as Lockleys piled on 9 goals to 1 and led by a whopping 57-points at the long break. There was no coming back from here for the Lions. Again in the third quarter, Lockleys held sway against the breeze kicking 4 goals to nil and took a massive 74-point lead into the last change. Whatever chances the Lions had during the third term, the Lions squandered in front of goal kicking 9 straight points without registering a major. The final term was another slaughter as Lockleys did as they wanted, kicking a further 8 goals to 2, and in turn marching away to a whopping 112-point victory. For the Demons it was their amazing goal scoring power that is destroying teams. No one forward or on-baller can be contained, although Ben Haren proves a focal point. Matt Ransom with his pace is always good around the goals and regularly contributes. Henry Johnson kicked 7, while Ben Haren booted 5 to lead the charge from the Demons eleven individual goal scorers. The Lions percentage took a belting, meaning they're an extra game away from taking fifth spot. Although it could be argued they would be making up the numbers in September if they played finals.

Salisbury v Hectorville

It was always going to be far too much and a bridge too far for Salisbury to overcome Hectorville even after improved performances over the last 3 weeks. The Magpies tried hard, as they always do. But they simply were outgunned by a far better outfit. Hectorville in our opinion is the only club who can challenge Lockleys in September, so it was of no surprise to see the Hounds destroy the Magpies. As Lockleys did, the Hounds had eleven different scoring contributors thus lessening the load. Josh Brooks, Jak Goudman-Glasson and Tom Smith all contributed 3 majors while there were a host of single goal scorers. The game never reached any great heights as the Hounds did enough to get them the points and didn't exactly extend themselves in the big 97-point win.

Blackfriars OS v Kilburn

As we predicted last week, Blackfriars OS would have seen Kilburn as a scalp they could take at home and did exactly that. In turn Blackfriars gave themselves a little breathing space from the relegation battle. For Kilburn, that was the end of the road for 2022 in terms of playing finals. They are now playing for experience and for the 2023 season. Matty Whelan must be bitterly disappointed with the Chics as they were expected at the beginning of the season to push for promotion back to division 4. But they didn't appear fit all season and last Saturday was no exception. The game was tight all day, with Blackfriars holding a 20-point lead at quarter time and then by just 2-points at the long break. By three quarter time the Chics, had hit the lead by 4-points and the Kilburn faithful were up and about, thinking a win was on the cards. However it was a final term to forget, as Blackfriars finished with far too much run in their legs. The Hounds powered home over an unfit looking Chics, to kick 5.7 to just 2.2 in the final term to win by 19-points. Giuseppe Vellotti kicked 6 goals for the Hounds and was a strong focal point while evergreen champion Matt Brincat, Callum Marchetto and Andrew McWhirter all booted 2 each. Brincat, was brilliant yet again for the old scholars. Jayden Davison again was best afield and if not for the Chics not winning enough games, he could have been a hot favourite for the medal. Ryan Wielechwski and Raymond Hedland were also good. Hedland has had yet another stellar season.

St Pauls OS v Elizabeth

We thought the St Pauls and Elizabeth clash also had the makings of a boil over. And the old scholars were right in the hunt early as they led the Eagles by 11-points at quarter time. By half time however, the Eagles had turned the tide somewhat and led by 11-points and by three quarter time, resistance from St Pauls OS had vanished as Elizabeth were now comfortably in front by 31-points. It was a game that failed to reach any great heights as a spectacle or from a skill perspective. But the Eagles got the job done and came away with the two points to win by 40-points. The Eagles will face a stiff test in the run to round 18 as Gepps Cross are in good form and appear capable of snatching the double chance from them.

Gepps Cross v Eastern Park

Gepps Cross have been in fantastic form in recent times, while Eastern Park have been patchy. They were playing for a spot in the finals with the winner having a chance of displacing Elizabeth from their double chance spot. The loser would almost certainly be playing in an elimination final. Whilst we tipped the Rams to win, we didn't anticipate how easy the win would be. Eastern Park didn't give a yelp after half time and once again appeared to lack fitness and leg power. Gepps Cross held sway at quarter time by 1-point, and at half time the margin was still tight with the Rams still holding sway by 5-points. The third quarter is when the game opened up and Gepps Cross put their foot on the accelerator and led by 24-points at the last change. The final term was more of the same with Gepps Cross booting 4 goals to nil to run away by 52-points. What was most damning for Eastern Park, and raises questions over their fitness and leg power, was not kicking a goal in the final half and only 3 solitary points in the last 60 minutes of the game. Robert Kovacic with 3 goals and Chris Knapp with 1 goal were the only goal scorers for the Demons. Whilst Eastern Park could win an elimination final, they just don't have the firepower to beat at Lockleys, Hectorville or Gepps Cross. For Gepps Cross they had far more avenues to goal. Grahma Hampton kicked 5, while James Clark-Rantasa and Matthew Sawilski booted 2 each. Daniel Mason continued his good form.

This week

Hectorville v Elizabeth

Hectorville are definitely a major player in the run to the last Saturday in September. Elizabeth however have stumbled in recent times and the jury is still out, whether than can challenge for the premiership. At this point in time, Elizabeth don't appear to have the goal kicking power unless big Jared Clinton kicks a bag. Hectorville have match winners all over the oval and of course a swag of goal kicking options. Hectorville will flex their muscles and impose themselves over a fellow finalist. A loss here by Elizabeth will have them looking over their shoulders as Gepps Cross are coming home in a flurry and want their double chance come September. HECTORVILLE 37-48 POINTS

Eastern Park v Lockleys

Eastern Park are in desperate need of recapturing some of their early season form. They certainly play much better at the smaller Dwight Reserve when their fitness and leg power isn't called into question on the much smaller oval. But unless the Eastern Park can find some avenues to goal they simply won't have enough scoring options to trouble Lockleys. Their coaching staff, will have to swing the moves with the magnets on Thursday night in a quest to find a more potent looking forward line. But that's not their only problem facing Lockleys, as the lads from Rutland Avenue have multiple avenues to goal and score almost at will each week. Henry Johnson, Ben Haren and Matt Ransom are just three players that pose a huge problem for the Eastern Park defence. But the midfielders pushing forward also give goal kicking potency to the ladder leaders. We can't push a case for Eastern Park and think the Lockleys will win easily. LOCKLEYS 37-48 POINTS

Colonel Light Gardens v Blackfriars OS

The Lions have had multiple chances to press for September action and have fallen short at each occasion. With Eastern Park likely to fall well short of Lockleys at Dwight Reserve, this will be their last chance to push for a finals spot. A win here over lowly Blackfriars will mean they are level on points with Eastern Park, with only percentage separating them. Blackfriars however had a great win over Kilburn last week. They will know the Lions are struggling to secure a finals spot and they will see this another real chance of pulling further away from the relegation battle. For us, with the Lions playing at home and with a real chance of playing finals if they win we will stick with the Lions. A loss here to the Lions and they don't deserve to be playing in September. COLONEL LIGHT GARDENS BY 13-24 POINTS

Kilburn v Salisbury

Two sides who are playing for pride. Kilburn are resigned to not playing finals again this season, while Salisbury know their fate awaits in division 6 next season. It will be a matter of playing for pride for both sides. Salisbury at times have looked like taking a scalp before the season ends. Kilburn are just too hit and miss. One week they come out firing and then go missing for the next 3 weeks. Jayden Davison again is the key as is Raymond Hedland to the Chics chances of winning. If both players fire then the Chics win at home. If the Magpies can find a way of stopping both, but especially Davison they are right in the match. KILBURN 25-36 POINTS

St Pauls OS v Gepps Cross

St Pauls OS have troubled sides for periods of times in matches, but can't sustain that form for long enough to beat the good sides. Gepps Cross are in rare form of late and are flying home. At the moment, they look the only challengers to Lockleys and Hectorville playing off for the flag. A win here for Gepps will give them real hope of a qualifying final and the all important double chance by displacing Elizabeth. We can't mount a case for St Pauls to beat Gepps who have far too much to play for. They also have far too many good players and far too many avenues to goal. GEPPS CROSS 61-72 POINTS

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 12 REVIEWS

Ingle Farm v West Croydon

Ingle Farm started this week on fire, getting out to a 3 goal lead at the end of the first quarter.

But from then on it was all but West Croydon kicking 5 in the next quarter and despite The Doggies efforts to work back, kept holding strong to get out to a 41 point win.

N.Symons and L.Milera were the best for The Hawks, D.Doolan and S.Lazenka both kicking 3 each.

While for Ingle Farm, E.Hawksworth was the best, and D.Payne was also good, booting 3 goals.

Rosewater v Central United

Rosewater came to prove they can match it with the best this week, in a game that was a back and forth arm wrestle all game.

Rosewater had the first edge, coming out with a tight 2 point lead at the first break, before The Units came back, but not without Rosewater putting up a fight, and eventually coming up with the chocolates.

B.George and D.Reardon were the best for Rosewater, B.George also kicking 4 goals in the win.

B.Olszewski and D.Steele were the best for Central United.

Para Hills v Trinity OS

A determined Trinity were taking no prisoners this week, on the road against a struggling Para Hills side, Trinity were out to a 12 goal lead at the first break, and didn't hold back from there, ending up with a massive 241 point win.

S.Peters and C.Matters were the best for Trinity, but it was D.Barilla up forward all day working hard, booting a monstrous 14 goals.

R.Beck-Faraonio and D.Veprek were the best for Para Hills.

Fitzroy v Brahma Lodge

Fitzroy were comfortable at home this week, jumping out the gates from the first bounce and grabbing hold of this contest, securing a convincing 65 point win over last year's premiers.

J.Ellis was the best for Fitzroy, also booting 6 goals, while H.Dallimore was also good.

For Brahma Lodge D.Chaffey and E.Hem-Mendes were the best afield.

ROUND 13 PREVIEWS

Brahma Lodge v Ingle Farm

After a tough loss to Fitzroy on the road, Brahma Lodge will want some momentum back at home this week, taking on a struggling Ingle Farm outfit.

I think The Lions will put up a good performance in front of their home crowd and get a much needed win.

Tip: Brahma Lodge by 37-48

West Croydon v Rosewater

West Croydon are back at home this week and itching for another win.

Rosewater has proved in the last few weeks they can compete, and this week will be another challenge for them.

Although I think The Hawks will be too strong at home, and will come away with a good win.

Tip: West Croydon by 25-36

Trinity v Marion

After their biggest win of the year, Trinity have shown they will not back down to anyone and are full throttle for the whole season.

Back at home, The Lions will be sure to put up a good performance against Marion and prove they are going to bring home the competition.

Trinity by 61-72

Central United v Para Hills

A tough loss against Rosewater last week will see Central United back at home again and hoping for a win to bring back the buzz.

A struggling Para Hills have nothing to lose after coming off at 241 point loss to the undefeated team in the comp, and will throw everything they have at the hopes of getting something out of this season.

Tip: Central United by 85-96

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Houghton Districts v O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale

02:15 PM, Sat, 09 Jul 22

Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

The Lonsdale Lions will have to travel to Houghton to face a still angry Raiders team who were humiliated by the Dragons a fortnight ago and will still be taking it out on the opposition sides to prove that they are not that bad a side. The Lions will have to face their anger and it wont be pretty I think and it will be a 100+ point lose will be on the cards, anything less will be a bonus for the Lions side and they will have to bring their very best team to avoid such a loss. The Raiders will be looking for blood, the blood of the Lions this week.

Greenacres v Mawson Lakes

EJ Smith Oval / EJ Smith Oval 1

Number 1 plays the number 8 side this week and each week doesn't seem to get any better for the Lakers, their supporters will be hoping for the mercy rule to be used this week, as I don't think the Dragons will be showing any mercy as they continue on their merry way towards the finals. I have a feeling that the Dragons with 3 games clear at top spot and with a huge percentage break on the rest of the competition will be looking at honing their skills for the finals, the Dragons will no doubt be thinking will they rest players and give fringe players more game time leading up to the finals these questions will cause a conundrum for the coaches of the Dragons and how they manage their players for the rest of the season.

Flinders University v Hackham

02:15 PM, Sat, 09 Jul 22

Flinders University / Flinders University 1

This prelude to the elimination final when I checked the games coming up it now appears we will have a top 5 with an elimination final and a qualifying final the first week of the finals, so there will be teams challenging for that 5th spot play in the finals. These 2 teams are both playing good footy at the moment with the Uni side winning in the last couple of weeks to put themselves in 5th spot at the moment and only percentage above Mitchell Park. The Hawks are also playing good footy and playing with plenty of confidence, so this aims to be the game of the round with both teams need to win and both teams will be working each other out in case they meet each other in the 1st week of the finals.

Mitchell Park v Adelaide Lutheran

02:15 PM, Sat, 09 Jul 22

Mitchell Park Oval / Mitchell Park Oval 1

If Mitchell Park want to play in the finals, then they will need to win this game to give themselves a chance to play in the finals. I don't expect the Adelaide Lutheran Machine to make it easy for the Lions, and they will have to work hard for the win. There is still 4 games remaining before we start the finals. The Lions have it in their favour this round playing the Machine at their home ground. I suspect that the Lions will hope that the Machine get lost and don't turn up for this important game for the Lions.
