DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 14

Tea Tree Gully 15.9 (99) def Glenunga 13.9 (87)

The Gullies are alive and kicking in 2022, establishing a timely win streak to put them back in finals contention after their season looked done a few weeks ago. Their 12-point win over the Rams on Saturday didn't come without a last quarter fightback from Glenunga, who likewise are gunning for finals footy, as Tea Tree Gully led by as much as 25 at three quarter time and almost let it slip. Peter Persinos led all scorers with four majors for the Gullies, while Blake Penney was integral for their win. With this result, it means four teams, including Tea Tree Gully and Glenunga, are tied on seven wins with four rounds remaining.

Payneham 8.12 (60) def Port District 7.7 (49)

In one of the more unlikely wins of the season, bottom placed Payneham shakily held on to knock off first placed Port District by eleven points on Saturday. A fast start saw the Falcons register five goals to one in the opening term, before two goalless quarters in a row opened the gate for Port District to get back in the contest. At just four points the deficit at three quarter time, it seemed as though the ladder leader's class would see them overcome the early hump, but Payneham steadied to kick three goals in the last to outlast the premiership fancies. Ethan Haylock and Liam Potts, among others, helped steer the lowly Falcons to victory, and with two wins on the trot they now sit just one game behind Rostrevor and Old Ignatians.

Goodwood 11.13 (79) def St Peters 11.10 (76)

It was a heavyweight bout with two top three teams facing off, and it was the home side Goodwood that came away victorious in a tight finish, coming from behind to steal a three-point win. It was all St Peters early as the visitors jumped to a 22-point half time lead, but from there the Saints mounted the comeback, bringing the deficit to just two at three quarter time before outlasting them in the final term. The win – and Port District's surprise loss – sees the Saints tie the former for top spot with four rounds remaining, while St Peters stay in third, one win ahead of the pack and two wins behind the ladder leaders. Reece Slape and Tom Carter helped Goodwood pull off the comeback win, while Luke Mitchell kicked four for St Peters.

Prince Alfred 16.8 (104) def Rostrevor 4.4 (28)

A total second half domination from Prince Alfred saw them drop off Rostrevor by 76 points on Saturday. Down 20-6 at quarter time, the home side was in early trouble, but a good second quarter saw them level the scores by the main break. Still, the game looked like it could go either way, until Prince Alfred booted twelve unanswered goals as Rostrevor failed to register a goal for the entire second half, ultimately putting the game to bed. It was the usual suspects for Prince Alfred, with Jack Trengove among their best and Finn Heard snagging another five goals to take his tally to fifteen from just four games. The massive win was an important percentage boost for Prince Alfred, as they now sit fourth with a far better percentage than their competitors.

Old Ignatians 4.6 (30) def by Brighton 10.14 (74)

Dominant from start to finish, the Bombers ended Old Ignatians season and simultaneously boosted their own finals chances with a commanding 44-point drubbing. When you fail to score a goal for the entire first half, it is never a good recipe for success, and unfortunately for Old Ignatians, their season went from bad to worse with the home loss. Jarrod Miller (4 goals) and Tim Dickson (3 goals) split seven goals between them, while Nigel Osborn was best afield for Brighton in a pivotal game that could define their season. They sit equal fourth on seven wins, but fifth by percentage with a month of regular season footy left.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 15

Payneham v Rostrevor

The bottom two teams face off this week, but the Falcons have been playing better than a bottom team in the last two weeks and are every chance of stringing their third win in a row against the struggling Rostrevor, who were pitiful after half time last week, allowing twelve straight goals. The Falcons have built some momentum, and I expect that to continue this week.

Old Ignatians v St Peters

There may not be a team in worse form at the moment than Old Ignatians, which is disappointing because early on they looked like a sure bet for finals. This week, they host St Peters, and another big loss is pressing. St Peters need to keep winning to keep that one game buffer over the pack, so they can't afford to drop a cheap one here.

Port District v Brighton

A surprise loss to Payneham saw Port District slip up at the top and allow Goodwood back into the equation for first place. They cannot afford to slip up again or they risk losing top spot with just four rounds until finals, and this week they face a challenge with Brighton, who have picked up their game in the last month and skyrocketed back into finals contention. They took care of Old Ignatians last week and if they can knock off Port District, finals look very likely for the surging Bombers.

Goodwood v Glenunga

The Saints held on narrowly to beat St Peters last week but were not super convincing at home. This week, they host the Rams who lost by two goals to the Gullies on the weekend, with a chance to go outright top at stake (if results go their way). The Rams are tied with three other teams for fourth position, and a win here could be vital for their finals endeavours.

Prince Alfred v Tea Tree Gully

The final matchup of the round sees Prince Alfred and Tea Tree Gully collide, with both teams on equal points and a finals tilt up for grabs. With both sides coming off important wins last week, momentum won't split these two teams. It may come down to home ground advantage, where Prince Alfred was so dominant last week against Glenunga. Whatever the difference maker is, the result will go a long way to shaping the top five for finals footy in 2022.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Broadview v Unley Mercedes Jets

Broadview have returned to their winning ways, defeating an impressive Unley Mercedes Jets side by 17 points at Kingswood Oval. Coming off just their second loss of the season the Tigers came out of the blocks strong, kicking three goals to one in the first term to open up a 13-point quarter time lead. Unley tightened the screws in the second term reducing the lead to 11 points before a three goal to two third term saw the Jets cut the deficit down to 5 points and give the underdogs hope of a major upset. The final term however belonged to Broadview as the Tigers kicked four goals to two, recording an Important fighting victory that leaves them equal top of the table. Jacob Rillotta was the star up forward for Broadview with four goals while Callum Flanagan, Campbell Mulheron and Kobi Russell all found their way on the scoring sheet with two majors each. Nick Fergusson impressed, and Kane Flanagan was dominant in the win. For Unley, Riley Faehrmann kicked three goals and Finn Murphy fought hard all day in a loss that leaves the Jets in the relegation zone, a game behind Adelaide University. Unley face another tough ask when they travel to face Athelstone while Broadview host the hapless Gaza.

Henley v Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart have produced a strong second half to defeat Henley by 38 points at Henley Memorial Oval. After a tight first term Henley broke away in the second term, the Sharks kicking three goals to one and taking a 13-point lead into the main break. From there it was all Sacred Heart as they showed why they are the top team in the competition, kicking five goals and leaving Henley scoreless to take a 21-point lead into the final term. The momentum continued in the final term as Sacred Heart cruised to a comfortable victory. Tristan Carcuro, Darcy Le Cornu and Oscar Lovelock all kicked two goals for Sacred Heart while Seb Kerrish and Clayton Symonds were both a class above in the win. For Henley, Tom Pillon hit the scoreboard with two goals while Harry Sibley battled all day in a loss that leaves the Sharks sitting in the top five just by percentage, missing a valuable opportunity to get a break on PHOS Camden. The Sharks travel to take on PHOS Camden this weekend in what should be a mouth-watering matchup while Sacred Heart will face a stern test when they play host to North Haven.

Adelaide University v PHOS Camden

PHOS Camden have missed out on a big chance to move inside the top five, going down to Adelaide University by 5 points in a thrilling matchup at Park 12 University Oval. Adelaide Uni got the early jump, kicking three goals to none in the opening term and taking an 18-point lead into quarter time. The lead was reduced to 12 points by halftime as scoring started to flow more freely before Adelaide University once again took control of the contest, kicking five goals to two in the third term and taking a 30-point lead into the final change. The Phantoms made a late charge, kicking the only four goals of the final term but it wasnt enough as they fell just short in an entertaining finish. Joshua Sims was the main man up forward for Adelaide University, kicking four goals while James Carter (Three goals) and Will McGowan (Two goals) offered plenty of support. Eddie Sims impressed, and Stefan Jankewicz continued his strong form in a win that mathematically keep their finals chances alive. For PHOS Camden, Jordan Roberts and Matthew Jacquier both kicked two goals and Finn Betterman gathered plenty of the footy in a disappointing loss. PHOS Camden have another opportunity to move into the top five when they host Henley while Adelaide University will be eyeing off a win on the road against Salisbury North.

Gaza v Salisbury North

Salisbury North have kept their unlikely finals hopes alive, defeating Gaza by 70 points at Klemzig Reserve. The Hawks were dominant from the outset, kicking seven goals to three in the first term and taking a 25-point lead into quarter time. The onslaught continued into the second term as Gaza were held goalless and the Hawks extended their lead to 46 points at the main change. Any hope of a Gaza comeback in the second half was quickly snuffed out as Salisbury North piled on another seven goals in the third term. Gaza fought back in the final term, winning the quarter but it was far too late to save themselves from another embarrassing defeat. Young star Anthony Hellebaut showed that the future is bright at Salisbury North, kicking six goals while Jake Wagner (Five goals) and Steven Wellington (Four goals) both enjoyed a day out. Jacob Russo delivered another strong performance and Jordan O'Brien led from the front in the victory. For Gaza, Dylan Ridding kicked three goals while Scott Lewis tried his heart out in yet another disappointing day for the Eagles who are now certainly headed for relegation. Gaza will be hoping for a miracle when they travel to face Broadview while Salisbury North will be hoping for another big win when they host Adelaide University.

Athelstone v North Haven

Athelstone have cemented third position on the table, defeating North Haven by 18 points at Max Amber Sports field. Athelstone got their jump early in front of their home fans, kicking four goals to two and taking a 13-point lead into quarter time. The Magpies fought back in the second term, reducing the lead to 5 points before the Raggies again regained momentum, kicking three goals and holding North Haven goalless to take a 24-point lead into the final change. North Haven did make a late push in the final term, but it was not enough to knock off a strong Athelstone side that now sits two wins clear of the fourth placed North Haven. Stephan Monda, Luke Rander and Luca Stepic all kicked two goals for the Raggies while Henry Stevens and Angus Owens both starred in the win. For North Haven, Jack Foster kicked three goals while Oliver Wood took it up to Athelstone all day in a loss that leaves the Magpies just one win inside the top five after two consecutive losses. North Haven faces another tough task when they travel to face ladder leaders Sacred Heart OC while Athelstone will expect another win when they host Unley.

Previews

PHOS Camden v Henley

PHOS Camden and Henley meet in a huge matchup at Camden Oval. Both sides sit locked in a thrilling battle for fifth position on the table, Henley currently sitting inside the top five by percentage. Both sides are coming off disappointing losses with PHOS Camden going down to Adelaide University and Henley fading in the second half against Sacred Heart. Earlier this season it was Henley with a huge 84-point victory, and I expect them to again get the job done. Henley by 23 points.

Broadview v Gaza

Broadview welcome Gaza to Broadview Oval, The Tigers looking for a big percentage boost that could help challenge Sacred Heart on the top of the table. They come up against an Eagles side who are on a nine-game losing streak and coming off a thumping 70-point loss to Salisbury North that leaves Gaza a game clear at the bottom of the table and looking certain to be relegated. Earlier this season the Eagles challenged Broadview as the Tigers ran out 16-point winners but if recent form is anything to go by expect this contest to be a lot more one-sided. Broadview by 71 points.

Salisbury North v Adelaide University

Salisbury North and Adelaide University meet at Park 12 University Oval, both sides needing a win to mathematically keep their finals chances alive. Salisbury North have found form of late, winning three of their last five games while Adelaide University are on a high after knocking off PHOS Camden. In round six Salisbury North got the job done in a 12-point victory and I expect the Hawks to once again come away with the win as they make a late surge towards the top five. Salisbury North by 23 points.

Athelstone v Unley Mercedes Jets

Athelstone welcome the Unley Mercedes Jets to Max Amber Sportsfield, the Raggies looking to further cement their position in third on the table after their strong win over North Haven. The Jets on the other hand watched any hope of finals slip away as they went down in a spirited loss to Broadview. When these two sides met earlier this season it was Athelstone by 24 points, and it is hard to see the Raggies throwing away this matchup as they start gearing up for their finals run. Athelstone by 41 points.

Sacred Heart OC v North Haven

Sacred Herat OC and North Haven face off at Sacred Heart Senior School Oval in an enticing matchup between two sides that are expected to feature in this year's finals. The Magpies have been struggling of late and are coming off a tough loss to Athelstone while Sacred Heart have been the form team of the competition, knocking off Henley on the weekend from a strong second half that sees Sacred Heart retain their spot atop the Division Two table. Sacred Heart will be looking for a win to keep this pole position while a loss for North Haven will see them slip to fifth position on the table. Sacred Heart won the earlier contest between the two sides by 14 points and with the form they are in it is hard to see any other result. Sacred Heart by 27 points.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

REVIEWS

Edwardstown v SMOSH West Lakes

Edwardstown have held on for a thrilling two-point victory over a wasteful SMOSH outfit in wet conditions. SMOSH had six more shots at goal in the opening term, however, after registering just 1.8, they would lead by just one goal. Edwardstown got into their groove in a more free-flowing manner throughout much of the second term, taking an eight-point lead into the half, and it became more apparent the game would become a genuine slog. SMOSH gained back the momentum with the assistance of the breeze in the third term, somewhat making the most of opportunities and taking a 14-point lead into the final change. But with the Towns desperate for a victory, and with the home crowd behind them, would kick four goals to one in the final term, and pull off the greatest escape. Aaron Anderson impressed as usual for Edwardstown and is the favourite for the Best and Fairest award, while Toby Case also stood up. Ryan Scovell made his presence felt up forward for the home side, booting three goals, while Jesse Tomlinson also kicked a couple of important ones. For the visiting side, many failed to find the big sticks with the side registering 19 behinds, but Sam Fairclough and Matthew Gates each managed two. Jack Foster and Rhys Lovering also put in strong performances despite defeat.

Modbury v Morphettville Park

Modbury has sent a warning message to the rest of the competition, obliterating Morphettville Park in an incredibly dominant showing. Modbury started the game on fire, kicking six goals to none in the opening term, cracking open a 39-point lead at the first break. The domination continued well into the second quarter, with the Hawks piling on five more majors while Morphettville Park also registered their first major of the afternoon. Modbury continued their ascendancy in the third quarter, piling on a further six goals to no score, extending the lead beyond triple figures by the final change of ends. It was well into party time in the last quarter, with the home side kicking eight goals to two and winning by a remarkable 142 points. Liam Verity was yet again the star of the show, kicking six goals, while Nathan Hearing and Jayden Watson also chipped in with four majors each, adding a new dimension to Modbury's attack. Tim Davey was brilliant through the middle all afternoon, racking up plenty of the footy and continuously driving the home side forward, while Sam Taylor and Izaak Allard also put in strong performances. For the Kangaroos, Alex Barns, Liam Mensforth, and Lucas Marks made up the three goals, while Liam Toohey and Brett Moriarty never gave up in the massive loss.

Scotch OC v Westminster OS

Westminster has leapfrogged out of the relegation zone on the back of a very important win over Scotch away from home. Scotch took an early lead into the first break, kicking three goals straight from the opportunities it was given. However, Westminster got back into their groove in the second term, kicking four goals to one, taking a 13-point lead into the half. Unlike the first quarter, Scotch failed to make the most of opportunities in the third term, kicking just 2.4 compared to the visitors 2.2. This would leave the margin at 11 points at the final change. With the game in the balance heading into the final quarter, it would be Westminster who settled best, kicking four goals to two, taking home a very crucial 24-point win on the road. Aaron Fielke was brilliant in the win, kicking four goals, while Bradley Eagle also chipped in with three. Harrison Lienert had his best game of the season, generating plenty of run and finding plenty of the football. As always, James Craig and Thomas Tape put in strong performances and were pivotal to the win for the visiting side in tough conditions. For Scotch, Harrison Jolly and Jack Kelly lead the way up front for much of the afternoon, each kicking two goals, while Ben Legoe and Will Coding didn't lower their colours personally, despite the loss.

CBC OC v Flinders Park

Flinders Park have joined Modbury in sending a warning sign to the rest of the competition that they are very much a flag favourite, taking care of CBC by 92 points. The game begun in relatively even fashion, and despite the tough conditions, a combined eight goal opening quarter saw the Reds take a 13-point lead into the opening break. Flinders continued to control the contest throughout the second term, extending their lead ever so slightly to lead by 22 points. However, the third quarter saw the visiting side kick seven goals to CBC's two, suddenly blowing the margin out to 52 points. This made it incredibly difficult for CBC to work their way back into the contest, and Flinders Park took full advantage of this, piling on another nine goals to two final quarter. In the 22-goal display, Mitchell Smart was the main man up front for Flinders Park, kicking seven goals, in a season best performance. Elsewhere, Adam Fazzalari provided headaches for the opposition backs, kicking four, while Daniel Blythe and Jake Marco also found plenty of the football. For CBC, Zach Butler, Aaron Marchioro, and Sam Raymond each booted two in a strong attacking team performance, while Fionn Keane, and Ethan D'Angelo fought valiantly, both playing their best games of the season from an individual perspective.

Seaton Ramblers v Golden Grove

Golden Grove have made it a perfect 14 from 14 with a strong 47-point win over Seaton, with the margin threatening to be bigger had the Kookaburras been able to kick straight. It was a relatively even start to the contest, with Golden Grove taking a slight eight-point advantage into the quarter time break. Golden Grove excelled in the back half in the second quarter, kicking two goals to none, extending the lead to 24 points at the main break. Inaccuracy plagued much of the third quarter, with the visiting side registering seven behinds, keeping Seaton in the contest who ended up winning the third term, keeping the margin at an achievable 23 points by the final change. However, the class of Golden Grove shone through in the final term, kicking six goals to two to run out with a healthy victory away from home in tough conditions. Chad Barmby had one of his best performances of the season, kicking three goals, while Joel Horskins continued his good form in front of the big sticks with two majors. Luke Barmby found plenty of the ball, while Cameron Shenton's skills were noticed on a tough day weather wise. For Seaton, it was a tough day in front of the big sticks for the entire side, with Luke Guy the only multiple goal-scorer, finishing with two, while William Burrows and Luke Rochester both fought valiantly in the loss.

ROUND 15 PREVIEWS

Westminster OS v Modbury

With the top four now settled, the attention turns to the lower end of the table for the final four rounds of the season. Westminster currently sits in 5th place but are just one point and percentage outside of the relegation zone. While it is expected Modbury will win this one, I still expect Westminster to put in a strong fight in a percentage battle. Prediction: Modbury by 28 points.

SMOSH West Lakes v CBC OC

In the match of the round, SMOSH will host CBC in what promises to be a hotly contested game with both sides coming off disappointing losses last week. SMOSH were very competitive all afternoon and were unlucky not to come away with the win, while CBC were disappointing in the second half. Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 13 points.

Flinders Park v Scotch OC

In what is somewhat of a similar clash to Westminster vs Modbury, second placed Flinders Park will take on Scotch, where they'll be looking to simply boost their confidence., while Scotch will be looking to stay above the relegation zone. Prediction: Flinders Park by 41 points.

Golden Grove v Edwardstown

In a top four clash, Golden Grove will take on Edwardstown who picked up a win on the weekend, but it was extremely unconvincing. Meanwhile, the Kookaburras will be looking to extend their winning streak to 15 wins from 15 games. Prediction: Golden Grove by 57 points.

Morphettville Park v Seaton Ramblers

In a clash between the two sides currently sitting in the relegation zone, Morphettville Park will host the Seaton Ramblers in a massive clash from Kellett Reserve. I expect a tight tussle, but the fact Seaton is in slightly better form gives them the slight advantage. Prediction: Seaton Ramblers by 14 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Reviews:

Woodville South 9.5-59 def by Pembroke 15.8-98

Pembroke have held strong to come out on top against Woodville South away from home, keeping the pressure on for top spot in the division. Pembroke came out of the blocks fast getting ahead by 25 points, which then grew to 32 points at half time. A very good defensive performance in the first half only allowing 20 cats points. The cats broke-even for just the third quarter and they would be disappointed as they started to roll in the points. In the last, the Kings were able to cruise home in the last and starting to regain form, whilst the Cats' bad run continues as they remain in the relegation zone. Joel Averay, Patrick Binnion and Lochie Barreau were best for Woodville South. Alex Forster led scoring with six and was best for Pembroke with Magnus Illman, Jack Carruthers, and Adam Zeni.

Pulteney 4.3-27 def by Mitcham 24.11-155

Mitcham's stellar run of form continues in fine fashion with a 128-point win over the struggling and winless Pulteney Blues. The Hawks in this one were able to completely dominate from start to finish and at both ends of the ground. Mitcham had only allowed 27 points for the entire day whilst at the same time almost scoring more goals than points allowed with 24. For Mitcham they are well and truly out of relegation troubles and will be staying up in this division after spending most of the season in ninth. Pulteney as we have known all season remain to struggle and remain winless, they will be going down to division five in brutal fashion. In this one Koby Evans, Elliot Ridgway and Matthew Henry were best for Pulteney whilst Maxwell Smyth almost tripled Pulteney's goals kicking 11 himself and was best for Mitcham with Oliver Pride, Dylan Matteucci and Joseph Couzner.

Kenilworth 10.5-65 def by Plympton 14.14-98

Plympton's stellar run of form continues as the division leaders grabbed a handy away win against Kenilworth. The Bulldogs are needing to win every game as they are only ahead on the ladder through percentage over Pembroke who are starting to regain form also. Kenilworth who's finals chances were already gone remain in eight positions after this tough loss. They are still two wins safe from the relegation zone, but it is not certain that Woodville South's run of form remains the same. For this match Blake Moser who led goal scoring with five, Sheldon Currie and Daniel Evans were best for the hosts. Stuart Taverner, Jamie West, Kieren Nelson, and Zac Peake who also kicked five were best for the winners.

Portland 15.5-95 def by Hope Valley 22.15-147

Hope Valley have come out on top in a high scoring affair away from home against Portland. The Demons came out fast offensively putting 40 on the board and leading by 26 points which grew to 31 points for the main break. The second half only scores were relatively close, Portland started to really put points on the board, but they still leaked far too many at the other end which in the end cost them the match. The lead for the Demons grew to 42 at three quarter time then to 52 points for the finish. Ian Milera kicked six for Portland and was best with Lindsay Thomas, Elijah Satala, and Jarryd Jackson. Jayke Hellmanns led goal scoring with a bag of nine goals and Daniel Nobes kicked a bag of six goals, both were best for Hope Valley with Jamie Dowling, Joshua Hand, and Chris Moran. Hope Valley now move into third position and may push further only being three points off top position. Portland's chance to play finals now have been put in serious doubt, they are now five points outside the five.

Pooraka 21.11-137 def Walkerville 9.10-64

Pooraka have produced one of the statement wins of the season smashing Walkerville at home. This match was important for shaping the five of this division. The Bulls pick up good percentage and moved up past Walkerville to fourth position, they would be wanting to continue this form to get a double chance position heading into the finals. For Walkerville this loss really hurts, not too long ago the Cats were fighting for top position and now they are fifth with a now much weakened percentage. Matthew Rankine, Luke McCormick-Smith who kicked eight goals and Frank Timpano were best for the Bulls. Nick Gillard, Jonty Inglis and Lincoln Blewit were best for Walkerville.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Previews:

Plympton v Portland

The league leading Plympton will host Portland who are desperate to collect wins in any attempt to finish in a finals spot. Plympton's run of form rolls on after collecting a handy win away against Kenilworth. They must win to be able to remain on top as they have the same number of wins as Pembroke who are in second. Portland is sixth and are five points outside the five and as previously mentioned they should be desperate, there chances may be mathematically gone after this weekend with a loss. In the reverse fixture it was the Bulldogs picking up an away victory by nine goals. This time around the winning team will still be Plympton but by a smaller margin. Plympton Bulldogs by 25-36 points

Pembroke v Pulteney

The winless Pulteney will travel to an inform Pembroke team who are looking to regain top spot in the division. The struggles for the Blues have been evident all season, they will finish dead last in the relegation zone and will be playing in division five next season. Now it is a question of whether they go down winless or not. For the Kings there is plenty to play for. They remain on Plympton's tail only by percentage and have the chance this week to gain a good chunk of it. In the reverse fixture it was Pembroke winning by 41 points away from home, this time around at home it may get worse for the Blues. Pembroke Kings by 61-72 points

Mitcham v Kenilworth

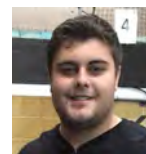

The hot Hawks will look to continue their amazing run of form at home against Kenilworth. Mitcham in some of the more recent weeks have defeated three top five teams, Pooraka and Plympton being the only losses. They have also collected a smashing win over Pulteney and after spending most of the season in ninth facing relegation, they will stay up in Division four. Kenilworth have been on a rocky run of form, there most recent outing against Plympton which has been a tough task for anyone this season. In the reverse fixture it was the home team in Kenilworth who won by two goals. This match should be worth watching. Mitcham Hawks by 13-24 points

Woodville South v Walkerville

This week features the second edition of this seasons Cats Cup. Both these teams come in with some bad form with Walkerville having a huge fall off having only won one of their last four matches or two of there last six after being the in-form team of the division for most of the first half of the season. Woodville South continue to struggle and have for long enough to find them two wins away from safety from relegation. In the reverse fixture it was Walkerville by 17 points this time around I expect the same result but by a larger margin. Walkerville Cats by 37-48 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Hope Valley v Pooraka

This week's match of the round features two teams that are punching through the last part of the home and away season to have momentum heading towards the finals. Hope Valley last week won away against Portland by 52 points whilst Pooraka won a huge game against Walkerville winning by 73 points. Third against Fourth on the ladder with so much to play for heading into the last month of the home and away season. The winner is in a double chance position by the end of the round, the loser will be fifth. In the previous meeting it was Pooraka who won by 125 points, a complete and utter demolishing. This match will be far closer. Pooraka Bulls by 13-24 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Last week

Lockleys v Gepps Cross

Lockleys hosted Gepps Cross last week, with Gepps going into the match in brilliant form. Perhaps I was hoodwinked into believing that Gepps could expose Lockleys somewhere around the ground. Well, I was horribly wrong. It was the Demons show from the opening bounce and Gepps Cross who are likely to finish third, were exposed badly as Lockleys belted the Rams by 65-points. The first term set the tempo for the game as the Demons slammed home 8.2 to 2.2 and led by 36-points at the first break. This was always going to make it nearly impossible for Gepps Cross to come back and win. Gepps came out after quarter time and held sway in the second quarter booting 5.3 to 2.3 to give them more than a glimmer of hope at the long break. The Rams went in 20-point in arrears at half time and it was down the “premiership quarter” to see who would be likely winners. It didn’t take long for us knowing who the winner would be, as Lockleys were completely dominant in the third quarter booting 6 goals to 1. The Demons lead by 51-points at three quarter time and the game was over. The final term, I expected Lockleys to completely shut off and turn into cruise control, however they wanted to show a potential grand final opponent who was boss. The Demons came out and kicked another 6 goals to 4 and completed the demolition of Gepps Cross by 65-points. Ben Haren with 10 goals is the most dominant forward in the competition and showed his class of playing at a higher level, while Josh Fazzalari, and evergreen Sean Stormonth both booted 3 each. Again Lockleys had a good spread of goal kickers over the ground with eight individual goal scorers. Nathan Batley, Haren, Fazzalari, Lachlan McDonald and Cooper Seekamp were the best players. For Gepps Cross, they would have been tremendously disappointed with their performance. Going into the game, they were billed as the team who along with Hectorville who were the only side who could potentially take the premiership cup from Lockleys in September. They left Rutland Avenue, with a lot more problems than they arrived with. Graham Hampton continued his good form up forward, as is showing his class. After last weeks 10 goals he followed up with 5 more. In a game where he didn’t get a lot of the ball, he was a brilliant contributor. Matthew Sawilksi who had been in good form leading into Saturday was the only other multiple goal kicker with 2. Steve Clark, Jude Band and Kane Tucker showed resistance for the Rams, but not many of their team mates stood up to help them.

Elizabeth v Kilburn

We have written lately of the Elizabeth lacking the ability to kick big scores. We also pointed last week, that by not kicking big scores they keep teams in the game for the duration of the match. That happened last week once again. Simply put, Elizabeth are not a chance of winning the premiership when their likely opponents all kick 20+ goals a game. It really could have been all over at half time if Kilburn had kicked accurately. At quarter time the Chics held sway by 9-points, but during the second quarter the Chics wasted opportunities to put the game away. Kilburn kicked 1.8 to Elizabeth 3 straight goals as the Chics lead by 5-points even though having 10 extra scoring shots. Kilburn were the dominant side in the third quarter, but not on the scoreboard as they still only lead by 21-point at three quarter time. It was more they had the ball inside their forward 50 for much longer periods than Elizabeth. The game was not put to bed at the last change and the Eagles were still in the clash, however Kilburn owned the final term and kicked 5 goals to 2 and run away by a decisive 36-points. The margin flattered the Eagles as the Chics had a whopping 35 scoring shot to the Eagles 19 scoring shots. Those numbers tell the real story of the game, not the final margin. Elizabeth could only manage two multiple goal scorers with Jamie Copperstone and Jacob Shepard both kicking 2. Big focal point Jarad Clinton could only manage 1 goal. Zach Clinton, evergreen Adrian Wilson and Aaron Stephenson were their better players. For the Chics again it was Jayden Davison who pocketed another 3 votes towards the end of season medal. He has been in outstanding form and is arguably the best player in the competition. While the great man and “full back of the century” Andrew Graham was in vintage form. Graham was in the form that brought thousands to the football some 15 years ago, when he was in his peak form. The 38-year old had a big day to celebrate his birthday as video evidence later in the night will prove. Cam Williams, Raymond Hedland and Ryan Wielechowski were exceptional. Scotty Young for the second week in a row kicked a bag with 6 goals, while Marcus Linsen booted 3 and Raymond Hedland kicked 2. This is a game that Elizabeth might rue losing after round 18. Elizabeth, Gepps Cross, Eastern Park and Colonel Light Gardens are locked in a 4 way battle for 3 spots in the finals and nothing is certain. Elizabeth who have looked like a top three side all season, are in danger of missing out all-together it’s that close.

Salisbury v Colonel Light Gardens

Salisbury hosted the Lions, in what shaped as a danger game. During the first quarter, Salisbury fans were left thinking that today could be the day they broke their duck in 2022 as they only trailed by 18-points at quarter time. At half time that lead had only extended by 20-points and there was genuine optimism that the Magpies could sneak home and grab the chocolates. The third quarter once again, was decisive, and Lions fans could breathe a sigh of relief at the last break as they lead by 40-points. Salisbury couldn’t capitalise on a good first half and only kicked the one goal in the second half as the Lions booted 7 to win easily by 61-points. Luke Puddy kicked 3 goals including one on his left foot that was brilliant. He was the only multiple goal kicker for the Magpies. Michael Keenihan, Joseph Williams, Adam Byster, Puddy and Nathan Schute were all good contributors for the Magpies. The Lions once again had the big trio of goal scorers up forward as Nick Patterson and Copper Schultz booted 5 each and Paul McInerney who’s been in great form booted 4 goals. Sam Lockett, Blake Dodson, Ryan Muldoon, Alec Steff and that man McInerney round out the best players for the Lions in the good away victory.

Blackfriars OS v Eastern Park

Blackfriars hosted Eastern Park at St Dominics ground and we gave Blackfriars more than a chance last week in our write up. We selected them to win. But credit where credit is due, the Demons came out with a point to prove after some average performances of late. Leading by 21-points at quarter time and 26-points at the long break. We were interested to see if the bigger bodies of Eastern Park who’d shown nothing during the last half in previous weeks could muster enough leg speed and fitness to overcome the Hounds in the final half. Well they did and a bit more. They came home with a wet sail. At three quarter time they led by a match winning 47-points and come away to win easily by 51-points. Matt Brincat was again good for the Hounds kicking 3 goals as did Matt Dennis, while Dylan Richardston kicked 2 goals. Andrew De Duonni, Richardson and Brincat were solid performers for the Hounds. We just leave the name Brincat ready to cut and paste into the best players each week, such is his consistency. Eastern Park for the first time in a while found multiple avenues to goal without relying on Shawn Mansell and Robert Kovacic to kick their entire score. Big Chris Knapp had a welcome return to form up forward with 4 goals while Nathan McIver and Alex Tuckwell booted 3 each. Mansell chipped in with 2 goals. Knapp was best afield and was ably supported by Ben McMullen, McIver, Peter Diedrichsen and Matt Glenn.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Hectorville v St Pauls OS

The Hounds welcomed St Pauls in a game they were expected to dominate. But the old scholars had other ideas and put up a valiant fight and only going down by 25-points. We say only, because it was thought the Hounds would use the game as a percentage booster. That man Jak Goudman-Glasson is Mr Consistent up forward with another 4 goals, while Josh Chapmen and Tom Smith contributed 2 each. Daniel Fairbrother, Seth Powell, Goudman-Glasson, Jordan Maio and William Twaites rounded out the best players. For those asking why Jake Mazzone wasn't in the best as usual. He didn't play. We have no results for St Pauls.

This week

Colonel Light Gardens v Elizabeth

The clear match of the day is at Mortlock Park as Colonel Light Gardens need to keep winning to play finals, while Elizabeth need to keep winning and finding a way to kick goals in an effort to keep their double chance. Both at this point of the season look unlikely. Colonel Light Gardens have the big 3 up forward, who for the last few weeks have kicked 18 and 14 goals between them. Nick Patterson, Copper Schultz and Paul McInerney have proved a focal point for the Lions. If they kick just the 14 goals this week, and get contributions from around the ground, they'll have too much fire power for Elizabeth who struggle to score more than a dozen goal a game. If you hold Jarad Clinton, then teams go a long way towards limiting the chances of Elizabeth winning. Being at home, we again think that Colonel Light Gardens will have too many goal kickers for the Eagles and will win.

COLONEL LIGHT GARDENS BY 13-24 POINTS

Gepps Cross v Blackfriars OS

Gepps Cross back at home, will want to put last weeks poor performance behind them, when towelled up by Lockleys. They will want to get back into form and find their winning ways. Graham Hampton poses as massive threat to the Hounds defence as he's been in dynamic form over the last two weeks, booting 15 goals. Blackfriars must find a way to stop Hampton and others to have any chance of winning. For Gepps Cross they have to stop Matt Brincat. He is the man who dominates week after week for the Hounds and is the man they go to each week as their saviour and the one who leads by example. Blackfriars have some handy smaller forwards which must be matched up, but Gepps will have far too much class for the old scholars and will be fuming with last week's performance and won't want a repeat of that in front of their own vocal supporters at Duncan Fraser.

GEPPS CROSS BY 61-72 POINTS.

Eastern Park v Salisbury

Eastern Park host near neighbour Salisbury at Dwight Reserve. Eastern Park found form again last week, when they took care of lowly Blackfriars OS in a game that we thought was a danger game for them. Salisbury never give in, no matter who they play. Last week at half time their supporters would have been hoping for a win in at half time, but the Lions were too strong in the last half. We know Salisbury will get a scalp this season, but it won't be this week. Eastern Park will have a spring back in their step after some poor performances of late. Also they found other avenues to goal last week, which they will be wanting to keep experimenting with in the hope of playing finals. Positions are tight in the run home to finals for Elizabeth, Gepps Cross, Eastern Park and Colonel Light Gardens. Elizabeth who have looked like a top three side all season, are in danger of missing out all-together it's that close.

Jordan Sennett-Pérez gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Eastern Park play Dwight Reserve with aplomb as their bigger bodies are better suited to the postage stamp size of the oval.

EASTERN PARK BY 61-72 POINTS

St Pauls OS v Lockleys

St Pauls who are striving to avoid relegation host the top of the ladder Lockleys at home and couldn't have asked for a worse opponent to face at the moment. Lockleys are booting big scores against the top sides and St Pauls can hardly afford to lose any further percentage as they trail Blackfriars OS by 17% now. We're predicting that Gepps Cross will do a number on Blackfriars at Duncan Fraser, so a mauling here by the Demons might be negated from a percentage perspective. We just can't find a way to see how St Pauls can win this match. None of the indicators point to anything other than a mauling. Lockleys focal point Ben Haren should have a field day and boot another big bag, while we also predict 10 individual goal scorers for the Demons who have shown their ability to share the goal kicking load.

LOCKLEYS 73-84 POINTS

Kilburn v Hectorville

The Chics after a good win against Elizabeth host the all-conquering Hounds. The Chics if they display the same form as last week, could stay in the game for a long period of the game. Their best is good enough, but they have weeks of inconsistencies. Jekyll and Hyde type performances from the Chics have let them down this season and will be a reason they won't play finals. Hectorville weren't as dominant as predicted last week against St Pauls, and wouldn't want to travel to Lionel Avenue with complacency. Jak Goudman-Glasson up forward is the man to stop, as he's been in fine touch for Hectorville kicking bags each week. The greatest full back in history, Andrew Graham, is likely to get the big job on JGG. Hectorville will be hoping to have their superstar Jake Mazzone back this week as he's a genuine match winner. Hectorville have to find a way of stopping young Jayden Davison, who's been in devastating form this season. If Mazzone plays this would be a brilliant match up. The one thing the Davison needs in his game however is to kick goals. Mazzone can move forward and bag a few. Ray Hedland is another who needs to be watched, while Scotty Young is in career best form up forward for the Chics. This is the game that could well be the upset of the round but Hectorville haven't done anything yet for us to go off them.

HECTORVILLE BY 13-24 POINTS.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 14 REVIEWS

Para Hills v West Croydon

West Croydon took on Para Hills on the road this week, and proved too strong all game. Strong from the first bounce, their third quarter was the major difference, booting 10 goals for the quarter, ending with a 122 point win.

L.Wilson and D.Doolan no were the best in The Hawks big win, D.Doolan also kicking 6 goals, S.Lazenka was also good, booting a bag of 8 goals for West Croydon.

Para Hills had some good signs, with L.Rigney and L.Power earning best afield.

Fitzroy v Trinity OS

Trinity once again continued dominating this season, taking down Fitzroy by 96 points over the weekend. Trinity had a big second half, keeping Fitzroy scoreless and running away with the win on the road.

J.Matthews and C.Matters were the best for Trinity, while O.John booted 4 goals.

N.Forby and J.Rosenthal were the best for Fitzroy, Rosenthal also being one of the only goalscorers for Fitzroy.

Marion v Central United

Marion had a big game at home this week, taking on another strong side in Central United.

Coming out strong from the first bounce, The Rams kept Central United to just one goal in the opener, ending the game with a convincing 63 point win, and a massive boost in their end of season.

P.Anthony O'Dea was good again in front of goal with 3, while G.Mcleod and A.Beaumont were the best for Marion.

Despite the loss, B.Abbott and T.Porter were the best for Central United.

Rosewater v Ingle Farm

A tough matchup at Eric Sutton Reserve, as Rosewater and Ingle Farm went to battle.

Ingle Farm had the early jump on Rosewater, holding an 11 point lead at half time, but from then on it was all Rosewater, keeping Ingle Farm goalless in the second half and coming up with a 13 point win.

D.Harris was good up forward, helping his side with 5 majors, A.Christmann and N.Murphy were the best on ground.

E.Hawksworth and D.Tanczos were best for Ingle Farm, M.Sandery also kicked 3 goals.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 15 PREVIEWS

West Croydon v Marion

A tough clash at Fawk Reserve this week, both teams coming off good wins in the last week and looking to continue rolling in the last games of the season.

Both sides are strong but West Croydon have been the standouts for me, getting some good wins on the board and at home this week I think will get another nice win.

Tip: West Croydon by 13-24

Central United v Fitzroy

Fitzroy have shown some decent form over the backend of the season so far, this week is another chance to get a good win for them against a recently down Central United side.

Although coming off some losses, Central United are not a side to give up easily, and can show up to any team if switched into gear.

Tip: Central United by 25-36

Ingle Farm v Para Hills

Two sides that have struggled this year, both have a chance to compete and get some good momentum to build into coming seasons.

Ingle Farm have shown some good bursts over the last few weeks, but still not enough to get over some of the stronger competitors in the competition, this matchup could be a chance for them to show their skills.

Tip: Ingle Farm by 37-48

Brahma Lodge v Rosewater

Back in this week after the bye, Brahma Lodge will be bursting for a hard contest at home.

Rosewater, however, have been able to get the best of stronger teams recently and have shown good form when coming into tough games.

I think Rosewater will be eager to show their form again and get a win against another decent side.

Tip: Rosewater by 13-24
