REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 14

Tea Tree Gully 15.9 (99) def Glenunga 13.9 (87)

The Gullies are alive and kicking in 2022, establishing a timely win streak to put them back in finals contention after their season looked done a few weeks ago. Their 12-point win over the Rams on Saturday didn't come without a last quarter fightback from Glenunga, who likewise are gunning for finals footy, as Tea Tree Gully led by as much as 25 at three quarter time and almost let it slip. Peter Persinos led all scorers with four majors for the Gullies, while Blake Penney was integral for their win. With this result, it means four teams, including Tea Tree Gully and Glenunga, are tied on seven wins with four rounds remaining.

Payneham 8.12 (60) def Port District 7.7 (49)

In one of the more unlikely wins of the season, bottom placed Payneham shakily held on to knock off first placed Port District by eleven points on Saturday. A fast start saw the Falcons register five goals to one in the opening term, before two goalless quarters in a row opened the gate for Port District to get back in the contest. At just four points the deficit at three quarter time, it seemed as though the ladder leader's class would see them overcome the early hump, but Payneham steadied to kick three goals in the last to outlast the premierships fancies. Ethan Haylock and Liam Potts, among others, helped steer the lowly Falcons to victory, and with two wins on the trot they now sit just one game behind Rostrevor and Old Ignatians.

Goodwood 11.13 (79) def St Peters 11.10 (76)

It was a heavyweight bout with two top three teams facing off, and it was the home side Goodwood that came away victorious in a tight finish, coming from behind to steal a three-point win. It was all St Peters early as the visitors jumped to a 22-point half time lead, but from there the Saints mounted the comeback, bringing the deficit to just two at three quarter time before outlasting them in the final term. The win – and Port District's surprise loss – sees the Saints tie the former for top spot with four rounds remaining, while St Peters stay in third, one win ahead of the pack and two wins behind the ladder leaders. Reece Slape and Tom Carter helped Goodwood pull off the comeback win, while Luke Mitchell kicked four for St Peters.

Prince Alfred 16.8 (104) def Rostrevor 4.4 (28)

A total second half domination from Prince Alfred saw them drop off Rostrevor by 76 points on Saturday. Down 20-6 at quarter time, the home side was in early trouble, but a good second quarter saw them level the scores by the main break. Still, the game looked like it could go either way, until Prince Alfred booted twelve unanswered goals as Rostrevor failed to register a goal for the entire second half, ultimately putting the game to bed. It was the usual suspects for Prince Alfred, with Jack Trengove among their best and Finn Heard snagging another five goals to take his tally to fifteen from just four games. The massive win was an important percentage boost for Prince Alfred, as they now sit fourth with a far better percentage than their competitors.

Old Ignatians 4.6 (30) def by Brighton 10.14 (74)

Dominant from start to finish, the Bombers ended Old Ignatians season and simultaneously boosted their own finals chances with a commanding 44-point drubbing. When you fail to score a goal for the entire first half, it is never a good recipe for success, and unfortunately for Old Ignatians, their season went from bad to worse with the home loss. Jarrod Miller (4 goals) and Tim Dickson (3 goals) split seven goals between them, while Nigel Osborn was best afield for Brighton in a pivotal game that could define their season. They sit equal fourth on seven wins, but fifth by percentage with a month of regular season footy left.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 15

Payneham v Rostrevor

The bottom two teams face off this week, but the Falcons have been playing better than a bottom team in the last two weeks and are every chance of stringing their third win in a row against the struggling Rostrevor, who were pitiful after half time last week, allowing twelve straight goals. The Falcons have built some momentum, and I expect that to continue this week.

Old Ignatians v St Peters

There may not be a team in worse form at the moment than Old Ignatians, which is disappointing because early on they looked like a sure bet for finals. This week, they host St Peters, and another big loss is pressing. St Peters need to keep winning to keep that one game buffer over the pack, so they can't afford to drop a cheap one here.

Port District v Brighton

A surprise loss to Payneham saw Port District slip up at the top and allow Goodwood back into the equation for first place. They cannot afford to slip up again or they risk losing top spot with just four rounds until finals, and this week they face a challenge with Brighton, who have picked up their game in the last month and skyrocketed back into finals contention. They took care of Old Ignatians last week and if they can knock off Port District, finals look very likely for the surging Bombers.

Goodwood v Glenunga

The Saints held on narrowly to beat St Peters last week but were not super convincing at home. This week, they host the Rams who lost by two goals to the Gullies on the weekend, with a chance to go outright top at stake (if results go their way). The Rams are tied with three other teams for fourth position, and a win here could be vital for their finals endeavours.

Prince Alfred v Tea Tree Gully

The final matchup of the round sees Prince Alfred and Tea Tree Gully collide, with both teams on equal points and a finals tilt up for grabs. With both sides coming off important wins last week, momentum won't split these two teams. It may come down to home ground advantage, where Prince Alfred was so dominant last week against Glenunga. Whatever the difference maker is, the result will go a long way to shaping the top five for finals footy in 2022.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

PHOS Camden v Henley

Henley have recorded a huge victory, defeating PHOS Camden by 30 points at Camden Oval to move a game clear of the Phantoms inside the top five. After a tight first term the Sharks broke away in the second quarter, kicking six goals to three and taking a 28-point lead into the main break. Henley continued to press their advantage in the third term opening up a 36-point lead at the final change and as the game again tightened in the final term the Phantoms never looked like coming back into the contest. Tom Pillion continued his strong form for the Sharks with four goals while Brett Harland, Dylan Simpson, Lachlan Sheffield and Cody Egel all put through two majors. Thomas Wheelen was strong while Jake Weidemann impressed in the victory. For the Phantoms, Matthew Jacquier was the main target up forward with three goals and Finn Betterman once again left it all out on the field in a disappointing loss for PHOS that leaves them a game and percentage behind the fifth placed Sharks. PHOS Camden will face another tough task when they travel to take on North Haven while Henley have a tricky matchup when they play host to a resurgent Salisbury North side.

Broadview v Gaza

Broadview have moved back to the top of the Division Two ladder after defeating Gaza by 45 points in a clinical performance at Broadview Oval. The Eagles shocked the home crowd early on, kicking four goals to three in the first term to take a 9-point lead into the first change. The Tigers fought back in the second term, retaking a 9-point advantage of their own at the halftime break. Broadview pushed the lead out to three goals in the third term as Gaza refused to go away before a dominant four goal to none final term sealed the deal for the Tigers and handed Gaza their tenth consecutive loss. Jesse White led the way up forward for Broadview, kicking four goals while Joshua Sheppard also hit the scoreboard with three majors. Cooper O'Leary gathered plenty of the football while Kobi Russell was once again amongst his sides best in the win. For Gaza, Damon Hill (Three Goals) and Josh Ralph (Two Goals) both hit the scoreboard while Scott Lewis fought hard in another tough loss that leaves the Eagles almost certainly headed for relegation. They will be looking to break their losing streak when they welcome another struggling side in the Unley Mercedes Jets while Broadview will look to continue their winning ways when they travel to take on Adelaide University.

Salisbury North v Adelaide University

Salisbury North have continued their late charge towards finals action, defeating Adelaide University by 6 points in an enthralling matchup at Salisbury North Oval. The Hawks dominated the early exchanges, kicking three goals to one and taking a 13-point lead into quarter time. The match tightened in the second term before Adelaide University got the better of the home side in the third term, kicking four goals to three and cutting the deficit down to just 5 points with a term to play. Both sides had their chances in a tense final term, but it was Salisbury North coming away with a massive victory that keeps their season alive. Nick Pape led the coring for the Hawks with three goals while young star Anthony Hellebaut, Bradley Hood and Steven Wellington all kicked two goals apiece. Paul Drimann delivered another influential performance and Jordan O'Brien was once again amongst Salisbury Norths best. For Adelaide University, Mitchell Marini kicked two goals and Russell Jensen again put his body on the line in a loss that leaves Adelaide University in an uncomfortable position, just one win clear of the relegation zone with three rounds to play. They face another tough ask when they welcome Broadview to their home deck while Salisbury North simply need to keep winning when they travel to take on Henley.

Sacred Heart OC v North Haven

North Haven have taken a massive step in securing a spot in this year's finals, defeating sacred Heart OC by 1-point at Sacred Heart Senior School Oval. After a tight first term saw the Magpies take an early lead, Sacred Heart broke away in the second stanza, kicking five goals to three and taking a 13-point lead into halftime. The contest again tightened in the third term as the margin was trimmed to nine points with a term to play. Knowing that a win could almost certainly lock in a finals spot the Magpies clawed home in the last term, kicking four goals to three and a Tom Sandercock behind with seconds remaining just getting over the top of the ladder leaders in a thrilling contest that may well define North Havens season. Jamie Solly had a day out for the Magpies with three goals while Kyran Dixon and Jack Mccafferty both put through two majors. Brett Pedersen continued his strong season and Mark Rowe was instrumental in the win. For Sacred Heart, Henry McAuliffe kicked four goals and Alex Cailotto again led from the front in a shock loss for Sacred Heart that sees them drop from first position on the table. They will look to bounce back when they host Athelstone while North Haven will travel to take on PHOS Camden.

Angus Heuer gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Athelstone v Unley Mercedes Jets

Athelstone are one win away from securing a top three finish after defeating the Unley Mercedes Jets by 73 points in a thumping victory at Max Amber Sports field. Despite being the heavy underdogs it was Unley that shot out to an early lead, kicking the only goal of the first term but inaccuracy stifled their dominance as they recorded nine behinds, and despite having eight more scoring shots the Jets only took a 13-point lead into quarter time. Athelstone came back into the contest in the second term, cutting the deficit down to just a 1-point before a seven goal to one third term from the Raggies blew the contest open, the Jets ruing their early missed chances as Athelstone stormed to a 38-point lead at the final break. The floodgates well and truly opened in the final term as Athelstone continued to dominate, again piling on seven goals to one and gaining an important percentage boost. Young star Luca Stepic continued his strong season with five goals and he recived plenty of support from a four goal Christian Elliot performance. Sam Cooke was outstanding while Sam Daniele was dominant in the win. For Unley, Luke Heaslip kicked two goals while Jake Hinkley fought hard for an Unley side that is staring down the barrel of relegation. The Jets will be desperate for a win when they travel to take on Gaza while Athelstone will welcome Sacred Heart in what should be an enthralling matchup.

Previews

Henley v Salisbury North

Salisbury North travel to take on Henley at Henley Memorial Oval, the Hawks looking to turn the tables on a Sharks outfit that gave them an 86-point drubbing the last time the two sides met. That loss sparked a change in the Hawks who have won five of their last eight games to give them an outside chance of sneaking into finals, sitting two wins behind the fifth placed Sharks. Both sides are coming off a win with Salisbury North getting the better of Adelaide University and Henley recording a huge win over PHOS Camden that leaves them a game clear inside the top five. A loss for the Hawks will end their season but despite this I expect Henley to just get over the line. Henley by 21 points.

North Haven v PHOS Camden

North Haven and PHOS Camden meet at Largs North Reserve in a matchup that will help to shape the top five. PHOS Camden are coming off a loss to Henley that leaves them percentage outside of the top five. North Haven on the other hand are flying after a 1-point win over premiership contender Sacred Heart. A win for the Magpies will secure their spot in the top five and I expect them to get the job done. North Haven by 26 points.

Athelstone v Sacred Heart OC

Athelstone and Sacred Heart OC face off at Max Amber Sportsfield in a matchup that we could see this September. Sacred Heart are coming off a 1-point loss to North Haven that saw them drop to second position on the table while Athelstone got the job done in dominant fashion against Unley that saw the Raggies secure a finals spot. Earlier this season when these two sides met Sacred Heart came out as 51-point winners and while I don't think the margin will be quite as large, I expect Sacred Heart to get back on the winners list and keep the pressure on ladder leading Broadview. Sacred Heart OC by 19 points.

Adelaide University v Broadview

Broadview travel to take on Adelaide University at Park 12 University Oval, the Tigers flying high after reclaiming top position on the ladder after their workmanlike victory over Gaza. Adelaide University on the other hand officially bowed out of the finals race after their tight loss to Salisbury North and are now playing to keep their one game advantage clear of the relegation zone. In round seven, Broadview got the job done by 82 points and it is hard not to see the in-form Tigers once again come away with a big win. Broadview by 47 points.

Gaza v Unley Mercedes Jets

Gaza and the Unley Mercedes Jets do battle at Klemzig Oval with both sides needing to secure some points to try and escape the dreaded relegation zone. Gaza are sitting at the foot of the table, having not won a game since round 5 but would take some positives out of their spirited loss to Broadview. Unley after a bright start, suffered a thumping loss to Athelstone that keeps them a game behind Adelaide University in the relegation zone. Earlier this season it was Unley recording a 58-point win and it is hard to tip Gaza against anyone on their current form, especially a team fighting to avoid relegation. Unley Mercedes Jets by 27 points.

REVIEWS

Westminster OS v Modbury

Modbury has done Westminster no favours, picking up a 19-point win on the road, keeping the Dragons languishing in last place. Modbury started solidly, taking a 17-point lead into the first change, continuing to make the most of their opportunities provided by the midfield. The second term followed a similar fashion, as the Hawks capitalised on Westminster's inaccuracy, extending the lead to 27 points. The third quarter was very entertaining with a combined 11 goals between the two clubs, with the margin at a gettable 23 points at the final change. However, it was a very professional last quarter by the Hawks, holding off their opponents and the home crowd, to take home yet another win. Mitch Slater was the main man up front for Modbury, kicking six majors, while both Bradley Rogers, and Jayden Watson each chipped in with two. As per usual, Tim Davey and Corey Smith found plenty of the football and should poll well on association night, as well as the Best and Fairest counts. From a Dragons perspective, Aaron Fielke continued his great season with four goals, while Hamish McRae and Riley Wilsdon both booted two. As per usual, Theodosi Cotsaris and Harrison Lienert both found plenty of the football, and could probably consider themselves as unlucky to have walked away empty handed.

SMOSH West Lakes v CBC OC

SMOSH have all but secured division three safety on the back of a 60-point victory over CBC at home in a very high scoring encounter. In near perfect conditions for football, it was the visitors who got the initial jump, taking a slim four-point advantage into the first break. However, the Lions found their mojo in the second quarter, kicking six goals to four to take a six-point lead into the main break, making for a very intriguing game of football. However, SMOSH oozed class in the third term, booting six goals to two, all of a sudden extending the margin to 34 points. The final quarter followed suit with an eight goal to four final term to run out big victors in front of a strong home crowd. Matthew Gates (eight), and Adam Coe (seven) kicked a remarkable 15 goals between them, tearing the CBC backline to shreds at every opportunity. Sam Fairclough found plenty of the ball as always, while Nathan Brown also had one of his best performances of the season. For the visiting side, Michael Gabrielli lead the way up front with three goals, while Sam Raymond, Thomas Pickering, and Tadhg Marchioro were all multiple goal-scorers in a tough afternoon.

Flinders Park v Scotch OC

Flinders Park have picked up a 142-point win over the struggling Scotch College, further enhancing promotion chances. It was a relatively even opening term, with the Reds taking just a 15-point advantage into the opening break. However, from there it was all the home side with a six goal to nil second term, leaving Scotch still goalless at the half. The third quarter saw Flinders kick nine goals to two and open-up a 93-point lead, though a pleasing sign for CBC saw their first two goals of the afternoon. The final term saw one of the premiership favourites extend the lead beyond triple figures, in a footballing masterclass as the afternoon was capped off with a very disappointing term for Scotch, with the Club being in danger of being relegated. Co-Captains of the side Daniel Blythe (six), and James Schwarz (five) combined for 11 goals, with Flinders having twelve individual goal-scorers in a dominant display. For the visiting side, Hugo Walter and Nick Heaslip prevented the margin from being even bigger, while Mani Draper and Jarrod King each chipped in with two goals.

Golden Grove v Edwardstown

Golden Grove has made yet another big statement, winning its 15th straight game of the 2022 season to remain undefeated. The Kookaburras got the jump in the first quarter, kicking five goals to two and taking a 17-point advantage at the first change. The second term was a relatively even contest, however, the Kookaburras still managed to gain a slight edge and took a 23-point lead at the main break. The second half was a complete domination from the home side, as they booted 10 goals to three and ran out with a 63-point victory at home, further cementing top spot. Chad Barmby was the star man up front, kicking five majors, while breakout man Joel Horskins kicked three. Elsewhere, Max Kozlik and Luke Barmby booted two majors, while Mitchell Payne and Jake Pitman both found plenty of the footy all afternoon in a beautiful day for football at Harpers Field. For the visiting side, George Cornish, and Jake Harrap both finished as multiple goal-scorers with two majors apiece, while Cameron Forbes and the ever-consistent Aaron Anderson were deserving of being named within the best players yet again.

Morphettville Park v Seaton Ramblers

Morphettville Park have secured a massive victory, lifting itself above the relegation zone on the back of a thrilling two-point victory over fellow relegation battlers Seaton. The home side made the most of their opportunities in the opening term, taking a three goal to one lead at the first break, holding a nine-point advantage. Seaton continued to waste chances throughout the second term, and the Kangaroos capitalised, with the margin at just seven points at the main break. Both sides had similar opportunities to crack the game wide open throughout the premiership quarter, yet the margin was at six points at the final change. The final quarter was very topsy-turvy and with the game in the balance, the home side held on to win by two points in front of a big crowd at home. Alex Barns was the main man up front with three majors, while Kane Godlevsky booted two. Chris Barns performed strongly, as did Brett Moriarty and Kye Dean, while Kyle Gatt and Luke Guy lead the way upfront for Seaton with two apiece.

ROUND 16 PREVIEWS

Modbury v Flinders Park

In the match of the round, a top four clash will take place at Modbury Oval when third placed Modbury take on second Flinders Park in a massive clash, with the winner all but securing a top two finish.

Prediction: Flinders Park by 15 points.

Seaton Ramblers v Westminster OS

In a massive clash in the context of relegation, eighth placed Seaton will tackle the bottom placed Westminster. The winner will all but secure safety in division three, while the task becomes tougher for the loser. Prediction: Seaton Ramblers by 11 points.

Morphettville Park v Golden Grove

In a massive clash at Kellett Reserve Oval, the undefeated Kookaburras will travel to take on relegation battlers Morphettville Park, whose confidence will be sky-high on the back of a thrilling win last weekend. Prediction: Golden Grove by 38 points.

Scotch OC v SMOSH West Lakes

In a huge clash at Scotch College Oval, Scotch will play host to SMOSH, with the winner securing safety, and the loser still in danger of being dragged into the relegation zone. I expect a high scoring game, with both sides desperate for victory. Prediction: SMOSH West Lakes by 22 points.

CBC OC v Edwardstown

With CBC needing a win to jump out of the relegation zone, they will host Edwardstown who have a top four spot secured but will still be wanting to win to keep confidence high ahead of a big push to the finals. Prediction: Edwardstown by 31 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIOUS

Reviews:

Plympton 32.15-207 def Portland 3.7-25

The league leaders have put on another masterclass performance, smashing Portland in brutal fashion. This complete annihilation of Portland was hit hard on the scoreboard, 57 to one at quarter time it was always going to be a huge mountain to climb from there. Unfortunately for Portland the onslaught continued and there was no way of stopping this freight train of momentum. The Bulldogs cracked triple figures at half time and kept Portland to just three goals for the half. What made it worse for Portland was not only the margin extending by the minute but having a goalless half. They had remained on three goals for the second half while Plympton got to over 200. Jake Seadon led goal scoring kicking ten goals and was best with Kieren Nelson, Declan Bayly and Timothy Dunkley. For Portland Bradley Traeger, Terrance Milera and Kris Karafoulidis were best.

Pembroke OS 22.10-142 def Pulteney 7.16-58

As most people would've expected this match to have gone, The Kings at home have smashed Pulteney in a match that was never close. Pembroke got out early to a 25-point lead with the Blues kicking one-goal-seven in the first quarter, one that they rued. The bad kicking continued for the Blues in the second quarter with Pembroke holding the length of their lead. The chances missed for Pulteney came to bite them hard as Pembroke kicked away in the second half. 62 points at three quarter time putting the game to bed and finishing up winning by 78 points. Patrick Levicki, Jake van der Hoek and Jack Carruthers were best for Pembroke with Alex Forster leading goal scoring with seven goals. Koby Evans, Zac Sipek and Matthew Henry were best for the Blues.

Mitcham 14.13-97 def Kenilworth 10.11-71

Mitcham's fourth quarter outbreak was enough to pick up a handy win over Kenilworth. It started a fairly low scoring match with Mitcham leading narrowly by a goal, the Hawks would go onto lead wire-to-wire. The Burra's were able to narrow the gap to just a single point but would be disappointed not to finish the half ahead. The Hawks kicked six goals in the third to extend their lead to two goals heading into the last quarter. Kenilworth were restricted to one goal in the last quarter and were unable to mount a comeback, giving the Hawks a 26-point win. Brad Warner, Lachlan Paddick and Nicholas Collins were best for Mitcham with Maxwell Smyth kicking five. Daniel Evans, Lachlan Richter and Myles Crump who also kicked five were best for Kenilworth.

Woodville South 14.16-100 def by Walkerville 19.11-125

Walkerville have claimed the Cats cup for this season with a win over the Woodville South in an exciting match. Woodville South was the team that got out early and leading at the end of the first quarter. Walkerville took the lead at half time by 13 points, but it was Woodville South with all the chances in front of goals kicking six-goals-11. Their goal kicking cleared up in the third and chances were converting which resulted in having the slight lead at three quarter time. In the end it was an overpowering last quarter from Walkerville who kicked eight goals to three and won the high scoring matchup by 25 points. Nick Mitzithras, Jonathon Schmidt and Tommy-Lee Russo who bagged seven were best for Woodville South. Brady Zwar, Jackson Richman and Lincoln Blewit were best for the victors.

Hope Valley 17.13-115 def Pooraka 12.13-85

Hope Valley have pulled through and have won a very pivotal and important matchup against Pooraka. It was a fast start for the Demons which would see them lead wire-to-wire, a 20-point lead. The half ended with the Demons remaining in the lead after a stalemate quarter where Pooraka couldn't make any ground which is a theme for the rest of the match. Hope Valley extended the third quarter lead out to 21 points which then turned into a 30-point victory for the Demons. Daniel Nobes stared again with a bag of nine and was best with Shaun Hunt, Benjamin Carabott and Jamie Dowling for Hope Valley. Tommy Millar, Luis Timpano and Michael Baker were best for the Bulls.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Previews:

Pulteney v Woodville South

The bottom of the table clash takes places as the winless Pulteney Blues face Woodville South. For the Blues it has been a season that they want to forget as quickly as possible and as mentioned are winless. This is most likely the best chance they will get to get on the board this season. Woodville South should be treating this match like a knockout final, if they lose, they will be relegated to division five next season. A win may let them live to fight another week to have a chance to stay up. Last time out it was the Cats winning comfortably at home by 50 points. Both teams come in with bad form, but I expect the result to be the same as the reverse fixture and for the Cats to win. Woodville South by 25-36 points

Pooraka v Plympton

One of the more enticing matches of this round features the Bulls hosting the Bulldogs. Plympton are in the best form of the division and there most recent performance was a 182-point victory against Portland, a complete and utter demolishing from the outset. Pooraka have been in a rollercoaster of form going two wins and two losses in their last four matches. Last week they were beaten comfortably by a surging Hope Valley team. Plympton despite their good form must continue to record wins as they are only on top of the division over Pembroke by percentage only, any loss in the next few weeks may cost them the week off. Pooraka will be looking to close the door on the top five and confirm their ticket to September football. In addition, they are looking for a home final and maybe a double chance spot. Last time out it was the Bulldogs by six goals, this one may go a little bit differently. Pooraka Bulls 1-12 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Hope Valley v Walkerville

This week's match of the round is an exciting matchup between the third place Hope Valley and the fourth placed Walkerville. Both teams have so much to play for with only a few weeks left of the home and away season. Hope Valley will be playing finals and punched that ticket against Pooraka last week, they now are looking to move to second and if they have results go there way maybe a minor premiership position. Walkerville are in a similar position, a pivotal win last week against Woodville South gave them the ability to move back to fourth with a chance to move to third should they beat Hope Valley. In the last meeting it was Hope Valley who clinched a thriller at Walkerville oval, it will be another close result again. Walkerville by 1-12 points

Kenilworth v Pembroke OS

Pembroke's hot run of form continues into Kenilworth this week. The Kings now have won their last three matches including last week for an 84-point thumping of the winless Pulteney Blues. They are continuing to put the pressure on the division leading Plympton who they only trail by percentage, the week off for the first week of the finals is much wanted. Kenilworth continue their struggles after a 26-point loss to Mitcham, a win will solidify their place in division four for next season so a win will be much wanted. In the reverse fixture it was Pembroke who won by 51 points convincingly, this match should be more or less the same. Pembroke Kings by 37-48 points

Portland v Mitcham

Portland this week will host an in-form Mitcham at home. Portland were completely smashed last week after a 182-point embarrassment against Plympton, the division leaders. Mitcham have been on fire, taking down most of the top five teams in recent weeks but it was a handy victory against Kenilworth that was the latest product of there good form. Mitcham have come from ninth not too long ago to sixth and only two games outside the top five, it's unlikely but there's a mathematical chance for fifth spot. In the reverse fixture it was a great match and Portland were victors by two points, for this match it should be another close one. Mitcham by 1-12 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Colonel Light Gardens 27.19-181 defeated Elizabeth 6.9-45

When: Saturday 23rd July, 2:15pm

Where: Streetfleet Mortlock Park, Colonel Light Gardens

Preview:

It's two teams jostling for a spot in the top 5 with Colonel Light Gardens currently holding the last finals spot while Elizabeth is scratching and clawing their way to just scrape in at the last minute and make finals. Expect this match to go down to the wire and be a harsh and gruelling affair that'll leave the players quite sore for weeks to come, Colonel Light Gardens look great, as do Elizabeth but I'm fancying Colonel Light here just that little bit more since it's at their home ground. Strap yourselves in, this is going to be a cracker.

Tip: Colonel Light Gardens by 13 points.

Review:

Well, what a rout. Colonel Light Gardens have announced themselves as an outside premiership chance after demolishing Elizabeth by 136 points. Nicholas Patterson and Paul McInerny were everywhere with 8 goals apiece, absolutely running rings around their opponents, so much so that the Elizabeth defenders will be having nightmares in the coming days. Adrian Wilson tried hard for the visitors and is probably the only one that can hold his head high after such a dismal performance by his team. Elizabeth will want a much better performance when they take on third placed Eastern Park while Colonel Light Gardens will take much confidence into next week's juicy clash with second placed Hectorville.

Gepps Cross 18.14-122 defeated Blackfriars OS 14.9-93

Where: Duncan Fraser Reserve, Northfield

When: Saturday 23rd July, 2:15pm

Preview:

It's fourth against eighth in a match where on paper doesn't look too enticing but sometimes more often than not especially in these days these sorts of matches produce great games. It's like the fact that there's not a heap of external talk going on in which everyone simply expects Gepps Cross to get the job done and look to next week before leading into finals. Blackfriars Os have produced good footy for where they're at this year and never give up, so people cannot question their work rate. Gepps Cross will be a little too strong for Blackfriars here but expect a competitive performance from the visitors. Tip: Gepps Cross by 30 points.

Review:

It was what was expected. Finals aspirants Gepps Cross have held off a competitive and gallant Blackfriars OS to triumph by 29 points in an entertaining affair on Saturday afternoon. It was a game that was pretty even up until the last quarter with Graham Hampton's 4 goals going a long way to seal a hard-fought victory. Blackfriars vice-captain Dylan Richardson almost won the game for the visitors with 5 goals but where this young side lacks is there class and polish especially through the middle that hurt but within a few years Blackfriars will be a tough team to beat especially after performances like this. Blackfriars has a massive task on their hands when they face ladder leader Lockleys. Gepps Cross will take the win and quickly look to next week's match against last placed Salisbury.

Eastern Park 36.35-251 defeated Salisbury 3.2-20

When: Saturday 23rd July, 2:15pm

Where: Dwight Reserve, Elizabeth Park

Preview:

All everyone is praying for is for Salisbury to not get thrashed again especially when they come up against a top 3 side in Eastern Park. For the home side, this is a big percentage boosting chance and further cement their place inside the top 1-3 places on the ladder as finals loom. This could get ugly, very ugly for Salisbury if they're not careful considering how strong Eastern Park's attack is. Let's hope mercy is had and Eastern Park win comfortably but not scary comfortably. We've seen plenty of pain for the struggling Salisbury.

Jordan Sennett-Pérez gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Review:

Now that was a thrashing, a proper old school put the foot down sort of thumping. Eastern Park have inflicted a hell of a lot more pain on Salisbury, dismembering them by a monstrous 231 points. Score line read. 38-0 at quarter time, 109-7 at half-time, 184-14 at three quarter time and 251-20 at full time. Such was the power, pain and sheer execution of one's strength that no pity was taken upon a Salisbury team that is on their knees. Shawn Mansell was superb with 9 goals while Robert Kovacic joined in on the fun with 6 of his own as the goals were shared around. The home side had 14 individual goalkickers. Eastern Park will enjoy their boost in percentage and look to next week's clash against sixth placed Elizabeth while Salisbury will have to search far and wide for some confidence and fight before taking on Gepps Cross in what could be another nightmare outcome, let's hope not.

St Pauls Os 6.8-44 defeated by Lockleys 25.16-166

When: Saturday 23rd July, 2:15pm

Where: St Pauls College, Gilles Plains

Preview:

It's ladder leaders Lockleys taking on a competitive but rebuilding St Pauls Os side that's been in the lower reaches of the ladder this season. Lockleys are the firm premierships favourites and deservedly so. Such has their dominance been, they've swatted away every opponent that's come their way. St Pauls look like the next side to be swatted away but let's hope they take it right up to their more fancied opponents and give their home fans something to cheer about. That's a very optimistic point of view but footy these days is so hard to predict. Lockleys are the ladder leaders by the way and will be a bit too strong for St Pauls here. Tip: Lockleys by 40 points.

Review:

Lockleys have again re-affirmed that they are the team to beat in 2022. A resounding 122-point win over St Pauls Os has given their already super healthy percentage a great boost as they remain one game clear on top of the ladder. Vice skipper Ben Haren was everywhere with a massive 10 goal display in a performance that will frighten future opponents while Henry Johnson was excellent with 6 majors of his own. Kahlin Santillo tried hard for the home side, but their opponents had all the answers and were simply far too strong all afternoon. There's not too much else about this match to read into. It was a side so well drilled and in such good form that they had control of the contest before the ball was even bounced. St Pauls Os will be licking their wounds ahead of their clash with Kilburn while Lockleys will look to continue their dominant run again when they take on Blackfriars OS.

Kilburn 7.8-50 defeated by Hectorville 17.15-117

When: Saturday 23rd July, 2:15pm

Where: Blair Athol Reserve, Blair Athol

Preview:

It's second placed Hectorville up against seventh placed Kilburn in what could be an interesting match up on Saturday afternoon. Given that Kilburn are at home and the race for the top 5 is tight they'd want to put in a strong performance and maybe even give themselves a chance of even winning. Hectorville are in form though as they hold outright second just one win behind first placed Lockleys. The result could be a blowout or a tight tussle, lets hope after other results this round that this is tight for once. Hectorville look a bit too good here though. Tip: Hectorville by 40 points.

Review:

Hectorville have continued their strong form as the second seed in the premiership race, cruising to a 67-point win over a disappointing Kilburn. Jak Goudman-Glasson was enormous for the visiting side with 7 majors while also being a bit of a playmaker by setting up his teammates with goals of their own. Lachlan Falco and captain Jake Mazzone chipped in with 3 each in a resounding display that Hectorville will take into next week's match against Colonel Light Gardens. For Kilburn it was a disappointing performance given that it was a chance for them to make a late run for the finals. They play St Pauls Os next week and should be fancied to win that, with "should" being the operative word.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 15 REVIEWS

West Croydon v Marion

A good contest at Fawk Reserve this week. Marion gave West Croydon a good contest, but it wasn't enough in the end, The Hawks coming out 41 point winners.

L.Woodcock showed his forward ability, booting 5 goals for The Hawks, while R.Johnston was the best afield, also kicking 3 of his own.

For Marion, G.Mcleod was good in front of goal, kicking 3 and also earning best on ground for The Rams.

Central United v Fitzroy

The Units had full foot on the throttle from the first bounce against The Lions, proving they are going to be a strong force come finals time.

Taking down Fitzroy by 88 points, they sailed home to a good win, J.Lane kicking 7 goals in his sides win, while D.Cook and B.Abbott were the best players for Central United.

C.Smith and L.Couzner were the best for Fitzroy and J.Rosenthal and T.Rowe booted 2 each.

Ingle Farm v Para Hills

Ingle Farm were out to get a much needed win this week, taking on Para Hills at home, they struck from the first siren and got out to an early 4 goal lead.

They dominated throughout the whole game, ending up 63 point winners.

B.Shepherd was good in front of goals for The Doggies, kicking 4 goals, while D.Tanczos was the best afield.

For Para Hills, P.Cree was good in front of goals with 3 goals, while J.Nuske was best on ground.

Brahma Lodge v Rosewater

A tough battle at Brahma Lodge Oval, with Rosewater coming to get another good win on the board.

However, it was a battle all match and The Doggies were playing catchup all game, eventually going down by 20 points.

T.Jenkins was good in front of goals in The Tigers win, kicking 6, while N.Scott and I.Bellman were best afield.

For Rosewater D.Reardon and A.Christmann were the best, D.Harris kicked 4 goals.

ROUND 16 PREVIEWS

Para Hills v Rosewater

It's no secret Para Hills have struggled this season, coming on the end of some hard losses.

Rosewater have proved they can match with the best in some tough matchups, and coming into this match will prove to get themselves higher up the ladder come finals time with a convincing win.

Tip: Rosewater by 85-96

Fitzroy v West Croydon

West Croydon have been a strong force throughout the season and sitting comfortably at second place on the ladder, I think will take care of Fitzroy on the road.

Although I don't think The Lions will go without a fight, showing in previous games they can have spurts of great play and winning some good games.

Tip: West Croydon by 25-36

Trinity v Brahma Lodge

Noone looks set to beat Trinity this season, as they continue bulldozing any team that comes their way. Coming off the bye, they will look to not slow down and take out Brahma Lodge at home, to nearly finish their perfect season.

Tip: Trinity by 49-60

Marion v Ingle Farm

Ingle Farm are coming off a good win against Para Hills, but face a challenge as they hit the road to take on The Rams this week.

Marion are playing good footy this season, and with only a few games left will want a gold percentage boost to finish as high as possible.

Tip: Marion by 49-60

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

O'Sullivan Beach Lonsdale v Mawson Lakes

02:15 AM, Sat, 30 Jul 22

Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) / Lonsdale Oval (Morphett Vale) 1

These 2 teams met a fortnight ago with the Lonsdale Lions taking the win which was played at the Lakers home ground this time the game is being played at the Lions home ground this time. I was impressed with the Lakers performance against the Mitchell Park Lions and only losing the game by only 11 points, which at this stage in the season was impressive. I am hoping that the Lakers form last Saturday will hopefully give them the confidence to achieve a 2nd win for the season.

Adelaide Lutheran v Greenacres

02:15 PM, Sat, 30 Jul 22

South Parklands / South Parklands 1

The Machine take on the Dragons at their home ground which will be interesting for both sides. It appears that the League has given the Dragons games with the other teams in the top 4, this is good for the Dragons as they will have to deal with pressure games prior to the finals, which are good for them and the problem with pressure games is that they come with injuries some serious, and some minor and no matter what the injury is it will disrupt the team for the finals. The Machines last game would give them some confidence against the Dragons especially that of the defence who only allowed the Hawks 2 points after half time which was impressive to me as the Hawks are not generally easy beats so the Dragons will need to come prepared.

Houghton Districts v Hackham

02:15 PM, Sat, 30 Jul 22

Houghton Memorial Oval / Houghton Memorial Oval 1

Both sides meet again and at the same oval as a fortnight ago, unfortunately for the Hawks is that the Raiders have come off a big loss to the Dragons again, and the Raiders will be angry, and will be out to destroy the opposition. The Hawks have also come off a bad loss to the Machine and both the Hawks and Raiders have a similar style of game kill and destroy. The game will be again a kill and destroy game which will likely involve injuries which is not what you want just before the finals, where you want sides going into the finals injury free if possible, confidence and winning games and fresh to compete in the finals, the bash and crash games are not what you want in preparation for the final series.

Mitchell Park v Flinders University

02:15 PM, Sat, 30 Jul 22

Mitchell Park Oval / Mitchell Park Oval 1

These 2 teams are only separated by percentage as the winner is likely to steal 5th spot and play in the final series. Although we don't know what happened last Saturday with Uni and Lonsdale, if Lonsdale Lions won that game, we could have 3 sides vying for that 5th spot. In any case we currently have Uni in 5th spot with 2 games to go so this game has a great deal of importance for both sides. It appears there are to numerous scenarios for this game and ultimately it is going to depend on who wants to play finals football more.
