DIVISION 1 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 16

Tea Tree Gully 8.6 (54) def by Goodwood 17.10 (112)

In a do-or-die clash for the Gullies, they were ran off their feet in the last quarter as the Saints kept their top two spot on the ladder with a 58-point win. The game was still in the balance at three quarter time, with the Saints' 21-point lead not set in stone, but an eight-goal last term completely wiped any chances Tea Tree Gully had of winning, and now their finals chances hang by a thread with just two rounds remaining. Jakob Heitmann was best afield for the Saints, while Jack Astbury was the Gullies' best who now sit a game behind fifth spot.

Brighton 4.6 (30) def by Prince Alfred 12.13 (85)

In a pivotal game for both clubs, it was Prince Alfred who came out on top and all but secured a finals spot in emphatic fashion, dominating from start to finish to defeat the Bombers by 55 points. Brighton, who needed to win to be in the top five, were disappointing and will have to rely on other results to go their way in the final fortnight to ensure a finals spot. Chris Curran and Jordan Neal were instrumental, while Oscar Clark led all scorers with three goals. After a below average start to the year, Prince Alfred finds themselves third with a nice percentage as we hit the pointy end of the regular season.

Glenunga 11.14 (80) def Payneham 4.9 (33)

The Rams imposed their will on bottom-placed Payneham to guarantee they will be playing finals footy this year. Two games clear of sixth place, with a significantly better percentage, it is near impossible for Glenunga to miss September footy from here, and this easy win will help with momentum going into the end of the season. Although, the game was close at half time, with just a five-point lead separating the two teams, before Glenunga kicked away in the second half to register their ninth win. Will Staples and Harry Prosser led the way for the Rams.

Rostrevor 16.9 (105) def Old Ignatians 11.4 (70)

With finals out of the question for both sides entering this clash, the result was nothing but consolation, but Rostrevor will still look to this victory as some much-needed momentum as they look to end their season on a high. A nine goal second half broke the shackles for the home side, who claimed their seventh win of the year to overtake Old Ignatians in eighth spot. The 35-point win was highlighted by a five-goal haul by Nicholas Murphy, who took his season tally to 40. Daniel McCallum and James Warton were best on in the win.

St Peters 13.6 (84) def by Port District 13.9 (87)

In a nail-biting finish, ladder leading Port District narrowly escaped St Peters with a three-point win to impact the placing on the ladder after sixteen rounds. It was a dogfight for the entirety of the contest, and Port District even found themselves down at half time, as the home side looked to make a statement heading into finals. But a big second half, aided by Dale Pearce (5 goals) and captain Sean Davidson (5 votes), carried the visitors to an ever-important win to keep the one-game lead they have on second placed Goodwood. St Peters sit just one win ahead of sixth now with the loss, and are in danger of missing the finals if they keep losing.

Lachy Jones gives his match previews for this weeks matches

ROUND 17

St Peters v Brighton

It doesn't get bigger than this. Fifth versus sixth. After last week's narrow loss, St Peters fumbled the chance to get an extra game clear of its peers, and with just two games remaining, it is vital they win at least one to hold on to a finals spot. Brighton were dismal at home against Prince Alfred, producing just four goals in a disappointing performance that won't help their finals case. Had they won last week they would have been tied on eight wins with their opponent this week, but instead this is a do-or-die clash for the Bombers. St Peters by four goals.

Port District v Rostrevor

The league's best team proved once again why they are the barometer in 2022, as they fended off fellow finals' aspirants St Peters on the road to keep the one-game gap between them and Goodwood. This week, back at home, Port District will enjoy an easier matchup, with eighth placed Rostrevor visiting. Although they won convincingly last week against Old Ignatians, this is another level above, and it should be an extra bit of percentage for the team to beat. Port District by at least 30 points.

Old Ignatians v Glenunga

Once upon a time, Old Ignatians looked like a finals team, but fast forward to round 17, and they are below every other team bar one. Their decline has been nothing but disappointing, and some momentum heading into 2023 is vital for this team. Finals is out of the question, but if they can put together some full performances to round out the regular season it could go a long way to a successful 2023 campaign. However, Glenunga, their opponent, are primed to make a run at the premiership sitting in fourth and will need to take care of Old Ignatians to hold that finals spot, and gain some percentage. Rams by six goals.

Payneham v Tea Tree Gully

After a couple of surprise performances, Payneham have been brought back down to earth with a couple heavy losses, and they sit firmly on the bottom of the ladder, which is where they will unfortunately probably stay for the remainder of the year. They host the Gullies this week, who must win if they are any shot at finals. Two Gullies wins and two St Peters losses in the final fortnight will mean Tea Tree Gully play finals, so it's a necessity they take care of business here. Gullies by three goals.

Goodwood v Prince Alfred

Finally, we have another big matchup, that could be a finals preview. Second plays third here, with the Saints hosting Prince Alfred. Both sides are coming off impressive wins and have enjoyed fantastic patches of footy this year. Goodwood probably cannot lose a top two spot but will be wanting to show Prince Alfred who the better side is with finals just two weeks away. Should be a good one. Saints by no more than four goals.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Last week

Unley Mercedes Jets v Adelaide University

They were playing for high stakes at Kingswood Oval, as the loser would almost certainly have been relegated. The Jets however needed the win more, due to their draw. The loser was heading to division 3. For Adelaide University it would have been their first foray into division 3 in their long history, but for Unley Mercedes they had come through the grades steadily over the last decade before a decline has seen them falter. It was only last season they were in division 1. Sometimes the slide is hard to stop. Unley Mercedes could have been forgiven they were safe at quarter time as they flew out of the blocks and University had no idea what was happening to them. The Jets led 6.4 to 0.3 at quarter time by 37-points and it appeared how much would the Jets win by. The second term was more balanced as University came back into the match kicking 5.3 to 2.0 but the Jets still held the ascendancy at half time by 16-points. You had a sense however, that the match was beginning to turn in favour of the Blacks. It was a strong comeback from the students. The third quarter saw the Blacks take control of the game. Not on the scoreboard, but you could tell that the Jets were gone. During the third term University had most of the play in their forward half and kicked 3.5 to just 3 points from the Jets and went in 4-points in front. The last quarter University powered away and booted 5.3 to 3 points to win by 31-points. Unley had nothing to give after half time and only kicked the solitary goal while University kicked 8 goals, but showed their dominance by having 16 scoring shots to 4 after the long break. Will McGowan kicked 3, James Carter, Patrick Dolan and Nick Langridge booted 2 for the Blacks while Russell Jensen, Matthew Langridge and Will McGowan were the better players. For the Jets it was Seb Mills, Oliver Cheesman and Nick Wark who played well.

Athelstone v Gaza

It was a game that had nothing much on the line, as Athelstone had already secured third spot and the double chance and Gaza were already one of the sides to be relegated next season. For Athelstone, it was a case of getting players into form for the finals and not getting injuries. For Gaza, they were playing simply for pride. The opening half had little in the game as Athelstone held a slight 9-point lead at quarter time and then an 11-point lead at the long break. Little separated on the scoreboard, but Athelstone had control of the game. The third quarter, is where the Raggies came out and smashed the Eagles. It was an avalanche of goals to the home side as they piled on 9.3 to Gaza just the 3 points. A massive quarter for the Raggies as they put the game to bed in the space of 30 minutes. What was an 11-point margin blew out to a whopping 66-point margin by the last break. The final quarter was somewhat of an anti-climax. Athelstone put the que in the rack and coasted home, while Gaza did what they could to avoid a thumping. Both sides kicked 3 goals each as the Raggies won convincingly by 68-points. Christian Elliott and Sam Tarca booted 4 each and big Luke Rander kicked 3 for the Raggies. Aaron Stewart, Daniel Cluse, Sam Daniele and Jay Randle were the better players for the home side. For Gaza they had seven individual goal scorers. While the experienced Stephen Tahana, Todd Culley, Brett Heintze and Scott Lewis all played well.

Broadview v Henley

A big game at Broadview Oval between two former powerhouse clubs who are trying to regain their positions in the top flight division 1 competition. These two clubs have held some great battles in the past, and this shaped as another. The Sharks did all of the attacking in the opening quarter as they lead 3.1 to 1.2 at quarter time. By half time little separated the two sides as Broadview came firing back into calculations during that second term. At the long break only 4-points separated the two old combatants as the Sharks held sway. The third quarter is the premiership quarter, and Broadview although not putting the game to bed on the scoreboard did all the attacking and kicked 3.6 to 1.2 to lead by 12-points and looked the likely winner. The Tigers were again too strong in the final term and kicked 4 goals to 2 to run away winners by 24-points in an entertaining game and one that both sides needed to win. Henley need the win to cement their place in the finals while Broadview are looking for the week off in the opening round of the finals. Kobi

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Angus Heuer gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Russell booted 5 and was the stand out player on the oval. While Hamish Ralph and Jacob Rillotta booted 2 each for the Tigers. Russell was clearly best, but Jady Ryan, Jake Hodby and Jay O'Leary all played well for the home team. The Sharks also had good contributors with Tom Pillion booting 3 and key forward Brett Harland 2. Lachy Sheffield, Chris Schwarz, Harry Sibley and Ryan William were the best for the Sharks.

Salisbury North v North Haven

The Magpies ventured North to Bagster Road to take on the Hawks, who'd been in great touch over the last month. The Magpies have been inconsistent and a tad disappointing at times over recent months, although it's their first season in the higher grade and they've had a good season. Salisbury North with their win the week before had ensured their survival in division 2 next season but North Haven had much to play for. A home final was on the cards and they also needed to string some form together before September action. Havens seemed switched on from the start, while Salisbury North looked jaded. The Magpies led by 14-points at quarter time but had extended the lead to a healthy 32-points at the long break. North Haven seemed to have got their mojo back. The third quarter was highly entertaining as both sides scored at will. The Hawks were obviously given a huge rev up at half time as they came out firing and booted 6 goals in the third term. The Magpies however withstood the onslaught and booted 5 goals of their own to lead by 28-points at the last break. The Magpies again booted 5 goals in the final term. They would have been delighted with the win but also how they played and how they handled the third quarter scoreboard pressure from the Hawks. The stood tall and withstood the pressure. The Hawks didn't stop trying in the final term and booted 3 goals, but the damage was well and truly done in the first half where the Hawks didn't offer much. Steven Wellington booted 3 and Jake Wagner 2 for the Hawks. While Jake Burrows, Jordan O'Brien and Brock Fensom were their better players. For the Magpies, big Tom Sandercock booted 4 and livewire forward Kyran Dixon 3, whilst the coach Ryan McInerney booted 2. The Magpies superstar and multiple association medal king Mark Rowe was best afield, while Jamie Solly, Alexander Stidiford and Andrew Smithson were solid for the Magpies.

PHOS Camden v Sacred Heart OC

The Phantoms at home, knew they had to win against the all-conquering Sacred Heart team on Saturday to play in an elimination final. A loss here would mean an upset in the last game of the season with Henley losing to Unley Mercedes Jets. The Phantoms already have a tough assignment against the Raggies at Max Amber so a win was imperative. But the Phantoms supporters were left with a poor performance from their senior players and their chance of finals have gone. The Phantoms were lamentable after quarter time. At quarter time, only 13-ponts separated the two sides. Sacred Heart kicked 5.4 to 3.4 in the opening term and there was no signs of what was to come from the Phantoms. PHOS only kicked a single goal in the second quarter but that was it. They didn't kick at goal in the final half of the match, whilst having a number of scoring opportunities they could only muster 7 solitary points. A performance to forget, considering they were playing for a spot in the finals. Sacred Heart Old Collegians were simply too good as they run away with the game by 69-points. For PHOS they had four individual goal scorers for the game. Last year's medal winner in division 2, Henry Papatolis was the Phantoms best, while Dylan Morton, Finn Betterman and Austin Forbes were the better players. For Sacred Heart, they had Tristan Carcuro who booted 5 and was a focal point up forward, while Patrick McCarthy kicked 2. The big man Alex Cailotto was best for the old scholars, while Tom McDermott, Cameron Rankin, Doug Proud and Tristan Carcuro were the better players.

This week

Athelstone v PHOS Camden

Athelstone have the luxury of resting players in readiness for finals action. They can't host a home final whilst they can't lose third spot. They've deserved that privilege by having a good minor round. That might be the opening that PHOS Camden have. Athelstone would undoubtedly rest players who are carrying niggling injuries to get them “cherry ripe” for finals action. PHOS Camden however, would need a minor miracle after last weeks performance to overcome the Raggies, even though they are likely to rest players. The Phantoms need to win and they need Henley to lose to Unley Mercedes Jets, it’s that simple. We can’t see either happening, although PHOS winning without a full strength Raggies is more likely than Henley losing to the Jets. Athelstone by 13-24 points

Sacred Heart OC v Salisbury North

Sacred Heart host the Hawks on the senior school oval and all they have to do is win to hold the minor premiership title and the coveted week off in the opening week of the finals. Salisbury North don’t traditionally travel well, and we think Sacred Heart will have too much to lose to let this one slip. Salisbury North have nothing to play for except pride. They avoided relegation a few weeks ago on the back of good form for the month prior and possibly the Hawks might find this too tough against a side that is both at home and has too much on the line to let it slip. With a week off next week if they win, there is no reason to take the foot off the pedal for the old scholars until late in the game. SACRED HEART OC by 25-36 points

North Haven v Broadview

North Haven playing Broadview would normally have some spice to the game. But with Sacred Heart only having to beat Salisbury North and Broadview relying on the upset, they know hosting a qualifying final against Athelstone is almost a certainty. The phone will be running hot, as the Tigers try and get scores throughout the day but we can see the Tigers resting players late in the day if Sacred Heart are well in front. Similar for North Haven, as they have even less to play for. The Magpies are hosting the elimination final next week and almost certainly against Henley. They are also likely to rest players in readiness for the following week. These sides have earned the right to rest players in round 18 due to their good performances during the year. North Haven are a side that seemingly need big games to motivate themselves. We don’t see this week as being a big game to motivate North Haven and we don’t see the match as being one of high intensity as both sides have next week in mind. BROADVIEW by 1-12 points

Henley v Unley Mercedes Jets

Henley know that a win against the Jets is enough to secure the final spot in the finals and play North Haven at Largs North next week. For Unley Mercedes, their season is done. They had their grand final last week against the Blacks but faded badly in the final half and have been relegated to division 3. The Sharks have too much to play for to allow Unley Mercedes one final hurrah for the season. The Jets aren’t playing well enough, but potentially with their season done, they might find some freedom to perform without any expectation. That is the only way we can see the Jets beating Henley at Shark Park. Vinnie will have the Sharks primed to take the final spot in the finals. HENLEY by 25-36 points

REVIEWS

Edwardstown v Scotch OC

Edwardstown has kept its top two hopes alive on the back of a relatively easy victory over Scotch, despite disappointing kicking in-front of goal. Although the home side had ten scoring shots in the opening term, they registered nine behinds in blustery conditions. However, they were very strong in defence, holding Scotch scoreless. The inaccuracy continued through the second term, with a further six behinds for the Towns, although they did boot three goals, equivalent to Scotch to keep the game close at the main break. However, the home side broke the game open in the third quarter with five goals to one to extend the margin to 43 points. The final term was relatively easy for the home side yet again as they took home the victory by 69 points, putting a scare in Scotch's finals hopes. George Cornish was the only multiple goal kicker for the home side with five majors, with eight other players finding the scoreboard. Ben Homburg and Cameron Forbes were also terrific through the middle of the ground. From a Scotch point of view, Harrison Jolly led the way, while Jack Kelly never gave up all afternoon.

Golden Grove vs CBC OC

Golden Grove have delivered an absolute obliteration of CBC, further putting them in relegation danger and extended the run to 17 straight wins. The game begun relatively slowly, with the margin at just 11 points at the opening change. However, from there Golden Grove didn't look back and it started in the second quarter as they booted eight goals and held CBC scoreless which extended the lead to 10 goals. The third term followed a similar fashion with the Kookaburras kicking four goals to none, further progressing the lead to 86 points. The final quarter was an absolute masterclass from the home side with pure quality on show as they kicked nine goals to one, taking home the victory by 135 points. Jed Banwell was the star up front with six majors of his own, while regular contributors Joel Horskins and Max Kozlik popped up with three apiece. Jake Pitman and Todd Sheppard won plenty of the football, and will be contenders for the association medal, and play an important role in finals. Jonah Byrnes had his best game for CBC with a best afield performance, in what was a very disappointing day, and it will now all come down to the final game of the season.

SMOSH West Lakes vs Modbury

Modbury has kept its slim top two chances alive, dismissing of a very inaccurate SMOSH outfit who has all but blown its finals hopes. SMOSH were inaccurate from minute one, starting the game with seven behinds while Modbury capitalised with four straight goals to take a 17-point advantage into the opening break. The second quarter saw Modbury flex their muscles and show why they're a genuine premiership threat as they booted eight goals to one to extend their lead to 63 points at half time. SMOSH had a much better quarter in the third term and won the quarter which was relatively low scoring. However, Modbury upped the ante in the final term yet again to run out 54-point victors at home. The dynamic duo of Liam Verity and Jayden Watson were electric up forward with five goals each, while Izaak Allard chipped in with two. Kyle McNaughton and the ever-consistent Tim Davey were both strong performers and found plenty of the football yet again, while Carlos Buccini should poll well on best and fairest night. Sam Fairclough has been one of the main reasons why SMOSH is in finals contention, and Saturday was no exception, while Keaton Thomas performed well with four goals and was a focal point in attack all day.

Flinders Park vs Seaton Ramblers

Flinders Park have put Seaton in massive relegation danger heading into the final round on the back of an important win to ensure its top two hopes remain alive. It was a very even opening term, with just one point separating the two sides, before the game broke open in the second quarter with Flinders kicking four goals to one to lead by 21 points at half-time. Seaton attempted to wrestle back momentum in the third quarter, before a domination by the Reds saw them win by 39 points in a relatively inaccurate display by the home side. Remarkably, Seaton was extremely accurate, kicking eight goals straight and not registering a behind for the entirety of the afternoon. Justin Hardy was the main man up front yet again, booting four majors, while James Schwarz was also a strong contributor with two goals. Nick Seccaffien had his best performance of the season, as did Walter Wilson who won plenty of football. For Seaton, Luke Guy provided a strong target up forward and finished with two goals, while Luke Rochester continued his strong season and will need another massive effort to get his team over the line.

Westminster OS vs Morphettville Park

Westminster has produced a thrilling come from behind win over Morphettville Park, securing safety in the competition for another season in front of a roaring home crowd. The home side shot out of the gates with a five goal to two opening term and taking a 19-point lead into the opening break. The roles were flipped in the second term with the Dragons held goalless, and Morphettville Park getting on top with four goals of their own to claim the lead by seven points at the main break. This momentum was carried into the third quarter, however, they did not capitalise on all opportunities and would register five behinds. This left the game very much in the balance at the final change, with the margin at just four points. However, after a big final quarter charge from the home side, they would claim a thrilling three-point win and secure safety in division three for 2023.

PREVIEWS

Golden Grove vs Westminster OS

Having secured safety last weekend, Westminster will now turn full attention to Golden Grove in the hopes of keeping its slim finals chances alive if they can pull off a miraculous win and bring the Kookaburra's undefeated streak to a halt on the eve of finals. Prediction: Golden Grove by 56 points.

Morphettville Park vs Flinders Park

Hoping to secure safety, Morphettville Park has an extremely tough assignment when it hosts Flinders Park in the hopes of avoiding relegation. However, the visitors won't arrive with much sympathy with the hopes of a top two finish still on the line. Prediction: Flinders Park by 41 points.

Seaton Ramblers vs SMOSH West Lakes

In the hopes of securing safety of their own, Seaton will host SMOSH West Lakes, where a win will see them avoid relegation. Although SMOSH secured safety many weeks ago now, the visiting side still have plenty to play for with finals hopes still on the line. Prediction: Seaton Ramblers by 13 points.

Modbury vs Edwardstown

In what is the match of the round, a finals preview is set to take place at Modbury Oval between the Hawks and Edwardstown. Both sides have been in excellent form lately and will take major confidence into finals with a victory. Prediction: Modbury by 28 points.

Scotch OC vs CBC OC

In a massive game at Scotch College, finals bound Scotch is set to take on CBC who have slim hopes of avoiding relegation if it can win and other results go to plan. Meanwhile, Scotch is in charge of its own destiny if it can win and qualify for finals in what has been a topsy turvy season. Prediction: Scotch OC by 19 points.

DIVISION 4 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Reviews:

Woodville South 10.14-74 def by Kenilworth 10.16-76

Kenilworth have produced a narrow victory against Woodville South to send the Cats to division five next season. This was a tough and tight match right from the start with Kenilworth getting the slight jump at quarter time. In the second it was Woodville South who claimed the lead to head into half time by four points. This exhilarating match continued with tosses and turns throughout the match with many lead changes, the Burra's took the lead by only the single point with everything to play for with the Cats. Right down to the wire, the Cats season finished in the relegation zone with a two point loss. Jonathon Schmidt, Lochie Barreau and Nathan Lornie were best for Woodville South. Cameron van den Bos, Sheldon Currie and Isaiah Place were the best players for the victors.

Pulteney 8.12-60 def Walkerville 6.8-44

They have done it, The Pulteney Blues are on the board in 2022, their first win of the season coming against Walkerville. They were made to work for it as the Cats got out early with the Blues kicking five points to open the match. The Cats in the second were starting to pull away, converting in front of goals to make it 15 points at half time. Pulteney in the third started to climb their way back into it, only three points behind at three quarter time. In the last it was Pulteney who pulled away and carried momentum to a 16-point win. Koby Evans, Harrison Campbell and Braden Hill were best for Pulteney, and Jonty Inglis, Levi Francis and Brady Zwar were best for Walkerville.

Pembroke 17.17-119 def Portland 15.5-95

Pembroke have won against Portland to cement there spot as minor premiers for the division this season. It was a high scoring first term with the Kings taking a slight lead at quarter time. This lead extended as it was a five goal to four second quarter to give Pembroke a 15-point lead. The high scoring continued as it did the entire game in the third quarter with the Kings sustaining a 14-point lead and were ready to finish strong. This is exactly what happened as they cruised home to a four goal win to claim to position. Alex Forster kicked five and was best with Harrison George, Magnus Illman, and Matthew Falzon. Lindsay Thomas also kicked five and was best for Portland with Corey Evans, Jake Neade and Elijah Satala.

Mitcham 10.12-72 def by Pooraka 12.15-87

Pooraka have come up strong against an in-form Mitcham Hawks. A slow start to the match from both teams resulted in just one point separating the teams. This tight affair continued to round out the half, Mitcham now leading by three points with both teams kicking poorly. The third quarter, referred to as the premiership quarter was the difference in this game as they kicked six goals to take a 31-point lead at three quarter time. Mitcham were able to make some ground in the last, but the damage was already done. Maxwell Smyth kicked five and led goal scoring and was best with Moses Milsom, Stewart Lawson, and Dylan Matteucci for Mitcham. Mark Mercer, Anthony Kube and Wade Matthews were best for Pooraka.

Plympton 9.12-66 def by Hope Valley 11.12-78

Hope Valley have pulled off a stunning away victory to give Plympton there second straight loss. The Demons were fast out of the blocks where the heat could have been put on early if it were not for bad goal kicking. This rectified in the second and Hoppe Valley continued to have a strong defensive stand. Up by 32 points, this lead was slightly cut to 20 by the Bulldogs which could have been more if not or bad goal kicking, a common theme in this match. Plympton won the second half, but the low scoring affair combined with a five goal deficit far too much for a Bulldog comeback. Zac Peake topped goal scoring with five and was best with Declan Bayly, Brodie Mcleod, Stuart Taverner for Plympton. William Riddle, Jayke Hellmanns and Benjamin Carabott were best for Hope Valley.

Previews:

Plympton v Walkerville

One of the best matchups this week features Walkerville travelling to face Plympton. Both teams who had started there seasons very strong have fallen away in the last few weeks, dropping games and falling down the ladder. Plympton were handed a consecutive loss from Hope Valley as they dropped their minor premiership chances. Walkerville who remain in fifth gave Pulteney there first win of the season. Walkerville in the reverse fixture at home were the narrow victors by 17 points, this time around the match should still remain very close Plympton Bulldogs by 1-12 points

Hope Valley v Mitcham

A hot Hope Valley Demons team will host Mitcham this week in an attempt to hold onto second position to finish the home and away season. They put themselves in a great position to do so last week by beating a strong Plympton team which got them the chance to move ahead. Unlike there opponents, this week will be Mitcham's last game of 2022 as they will finish outside the top five as they started in that position for the entire season. Spending most of there time in ninth, the Hawks will be happy to be able to play division four football next season. In the reverse fixture it was Mitcham who won narrowly but this time around the stakes are higher for Hope Valley to win this match. Hope Valley by 25-36 points

MATCH OF THE ROUND: Pooraka v Pembroke

This week's match of the round is between Pooraka and Pembroke. The Kings last week cemented their minor premiership with a win last week against Portland, they will get the week off and book a place to the second semi-final, being one win away from a grand final. Pooraka most likely will not move out of fourth position taking into account percentages, they most likely will play Walkerville at home in an elimination final. Both teams do not have a whole lot to play for, but they will definitely want to put in strong performances to prepare themselves for the weeks to come. In the reverse fixture it was Pembroke winning big, it should be closer this time around. Pembroke by 13-24 points

Portland v Woodville South

Woodville South travel to face Portland this week. Both teams will play their last games of the 2022 season as they both missed the top five for finals. The only difference is that Portland will reman in division four while Woodville South will be relegated to division five. Both teams come into this in rocky form, Portland last week lost to Pembroke whilst Woodville South lost to Kenilworth by just two points. In the last match it was Woodville South by 52 points in a big win. Portland by 13-24 points

Kenilworth v Pulteney

In the last match of the home and away season Kenilworth will host Pulteney. Both teams will play their last match of the season, Kenilworth finishing outside of the top five and Pulteney will be going down to division five with one win which came last week against Walkerville. In the reverse fixture it was Kenilworth getting the job done by 33 points, this match will be interesting in the end result. Kenilworth by 25-36 points

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Division 5 Round 17 Previews & Reviews

Lockleys 31.25-211 defeated Salisbury 4.5-29

Preview:

This is going to get very ugly quickly. It's first against last in an intriguing matchup due to the fact many are speculating how much Lockleys will thrash Salisbury by. For Salisbury, the footy world just wants to see some improvement and for Lockleys to simply continue their winning ways by posting a very dominant win against the competition's bottom seed. Hopefully Salisbury put up some sort of fight against the top team but it's hard to see it, given the sheer difference between the two sides.

Tip: Lockleys by 90 points.

Review:

Well, another thumping endured by Salisbury, this time at the hands of Lockleys by a huge 182 points. Vice-Captain Ben Haren's 8 goals was the catalyst for the top team's dominance as they kicked 9 goals to a single point in the first term and certainly never looked back thereafter. Samuel Ferguson and Matt Ransom kicked 8 goals between them as they provided a brilliant supporting cast. What does Salisbury have to do in order to improve? That is the question everyone is asking. Lockleys have been the very clear premierships favourite for some time and no team is going to knock them off anytime soon. Lockleys take on Elizabeth while Salisbury face Blackfriars Os.

St Pauls Os 7.11-53 defeated by Blackfriars Os 9.11-65

Preview:

It's St Pauls Os against Blackfriars Os in a highly intriguing matchup given how even these two sides are. Even though these two are not going to play finals this season, one simply cannot question their effort and enthusiasm for the contest throughout the year. It's a real toss of the coin this one but Blackfriars have been the slightly better side and will fancy their chances even though it won't be played on their home deck. I do like St Pauls Os as well but think that Blackfriars will just be a couple of steps ahead and will take home the four points in the penultimate round of the home and away season.

Tip: Blackfriars by 22 points.

Review:

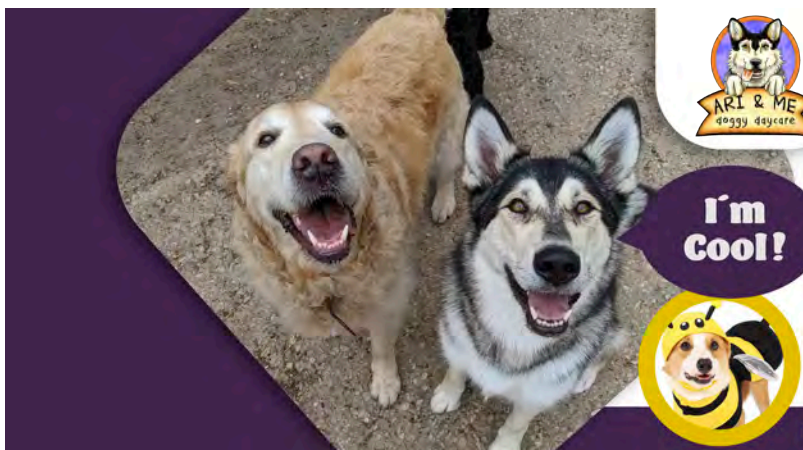

Blackfriars have prevailed by 12 points in a highly entertaining affair that excited all on Saturday afternoon. Andrew McWhirter and Callum Marchetto's 6 goals between was pivotal in the win that ensured Blackfriars go into next season with some confidence. For St Pauls Os, the opportunity was there to take but as they have been this season, their inconsistency came back to hurt them in the end. Hopefully by next year they can look to eradicate that and start to improve and progress forward. Expect Blackfriars Os to be further up the ladder next year and giving teams in and around them a ripe old challenge. Blackfriars will look to finish off season 2022 with a win when they play Salisbury while St Pauls Os play Colonel Light Gardens to round out their year.

Gepps Cross 11.13-79 defeated Elizabeth 11.6-72

Preview:

It's third placed Gepps Cross against sixth placed Elizabeth in a highly intriguing affair with both teams only separated by 2 wins across the board. Expect a super tight tussle with both sides boasting outfits with Gepps Cross being a little more consistent throughout the season. Elizabeth have had their struggles this year but find themselves in a position jostling for the last finals position. This'll be a massive match with huge ramifications for the loser and huge upside for the winner. I like Elizabeth's chances here, but Gepps Cross might just have extra bit of class and polish.

Tip: Gepps Cross by 16 points.

I'm Cool!

Jordan Sennett-Pérez gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Review:

Gepps Cross have continued their strong run of form with a solid 7-point win over Elizabeth. It was a tight match all afternoon with sides struggling for inaccuracy at times and threatening to break the game open. Graham Hampton's 4 goals was immense as the home side needed that extra bit of zing with the visitors closing and threatening to cause and upset. Kurtis Shaw's 3 goals for Elizabeth were big but you feel that he just needed that little bit extra support around the ground even though the team fought through to the very end. Gepps Cross have a massive game on against Hectorville while Elizabeth will take positives into their massive match against Lockleys.

Eastern Park 10.8-68 defeated by Hectorville 12.9-81

Preview:

It's second vs fourth in a mouth watering clash this Saturday afternoon. Both sides look good here but it's Hectorville that most people will pick due to them and Lockleys (first) being the two favourites to play out in this year's grand final. Eastern Park are right in the middle of the pack of teams jostling for positions inside this year's finals series before the season is up at the end of next week so they simply must win or it'll be very hard. Being at home for Eastern Park should spur them on more but Hectorville are in terrific and will be wise not to drop this one en route to the finals and beyond.

Tip: Hectorville by 29 points.

Review:

After a fast start, Eastern Park were eventually overrun by a barnstorming Hectorville, falling to the second placed team by 13 points in a massive opportunity missed. Hectorville were a little slow by their standards failing to register a major in the first term before finding their mojo and slowly gaining back the lead, wrestling control of the match and never looking back. It wasn't a super high scoring game, but it was one for the purists with slick ball movement and watertight defensive game styles on full show. Vice-Captain William Thwaites' 3 goals were huge as the visitors took full control full in the middle of the ground and delivering the ball into the forward line beautifully. Ian Williamson and Anthony Burgoyne kicked 6 goals between them for Eastern Park, but it wasn't enough as Hectorville's defence up the ante and restricted a lot of attacking forays. Hectorville face Gepps Cross while Eastern Park play Kilburn to round out their year.

Colonel Light Gardens 14.11-95 drew with Kilburn 14.11-95

Preview:

Another highly intriguing match up with Colonel Light Gardens (5th) and Kilburn (7th) facing off in what feels like an elimination final on Saturday afternoon. Both sides have struggled this year with inconsistency, but Colonel Light have certainly picked up the slack the last couple of weeks while Kilburn you feel are just hanging in there. It's a real toss of the coin this one, Colonel Light Gardens being at home as well are just that little bit better placed but don't count out Kilburn who want a finals place just as much as anyone. Both teams will be sore after this one, expect a cracker of a football game.

Tip: Colonel Light Gardens by 4 points.

Review:

What a match. Colonel Light Gardens and Kilburn have miraculously with each other with the match on Saturday afternoon full of twists and turns and lead changes left right and centre ultimately leaving both sides shattered. The home side led by as much as 36 points going into half-time then it was on for young and old with Kilburn winning the third term to cut the margin back to 18 points heading into the final stanza. Kilburn again one the final term kicking 5 goals to 2 but Colonel Light Gardens were able to repel many attacks going forward, their defence on full show. Emmett Wood's 3 goals was the most for Colonel Light Gardens with 5 other players kicking a goal or more. Jayden Davison and Scott Young kicked 4 and goals 5 respectively as Kilburn came out firing after half time and almost overrunning their opposition. Colonel Light Gardens are at home again taking on St Pauls Os while Kilburn are also back at home taking on Eastern Park.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

ROUND 17 REVIEWS

Central United v Trinity

A tough matchup for Central United this week, as they take on the undefeated Trinity side.

Although they had the home ground advantage there was no stopping Trinity as they surged too an easy 11 goal win with just one game to go in the season before finals.

B.Puvogel was the best afield for The Lions, J.Wormald kicked 5 in the win.

For Central United it was B.Abbott that was the best, J.Perna-Hague a close second booting 2 goals.

Rosewater v Marion

Marion started off this week firing in time for the finals, as they took on Rosewater on the road.

Up until the third break it was all The Rams way, up by 12 goals until rosewater booted 9 goals in the last quarter but just missing out by 20 points.

B.Miller and G.Mcleod were the best for Marion, while for Rosewater it was A.Christmann and B.Honson, Honson also kicking 4 goals.

Ingle Farm v Fitzroy

Fitzroy have come away with another good win on the road this week, taking on Ingle Farm at Rowe Park.

Although The Lions can't make the finals they have shown some good displays of footy this year, showing good signs for next season.

J.Rosenthal kicked 4 for Fitzroy while H.Rusby and C.Smith were the best.

D.Payne has shown consistency all year, earning another best on ground for Ingle Farm.

Brahma Lodge v Para Hills

Brahma Lodge took advantage of a struggling Para Hills side to get a needed percentage boost to keep in touch with the finals.

Despite Para Hills holding on in the first quarter, it was all Brahma Lodge from there, coming up 106 point winners.

D.Coombes was the best for Brahma Lodge, also booting a bag of 6 goals.

For Para Hills L.Power was best on, while D.Weetra kicked another 5 goals.

ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Marion v Para Hills

Marion will comfortably cruise into finals, and taking on Para Hills at home this week, they could expect to take home a big win to get some momentum going before the real competition starts.

Tip: Marion by 100+

Trinity v West Croydon

Trinity will finish minor premiers and storm home to a grand final appearance if they can keep up their form, they have had an outstanding season and although they come up against a tough competitor in West Croydon before the finals, they should take it home easy and get their week off before advancing.

Tip: Trinity by 49-60

Central United v Brahma Lodge

What a matchup before the finals, the two division 7 grand finalists from last year facing off.

Both sides will take on the finals this year, and know the pressure that comes with it.

The perfect game to set them up with a tough finals series, although despite losing the grand final last year, I think Central United will just have the edge over The Lions.

Tip: Central United by 13-24

Fitzroy v Rosewater

Tough matchup between these two sides this week, Rosewater has a slight chance to make finals if everything falls their way, however an emerging Fitzroy side stands in their way and have shown the goods against similar sides to Rosewater.

Although this will be a tough game, I think Fitzroy have what it takes to cause an upset to The Doggies and get a final win on the board before the end of the season.

Tip: Fitzroy by 1-12

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Finals - Sat 13 Aug 2022

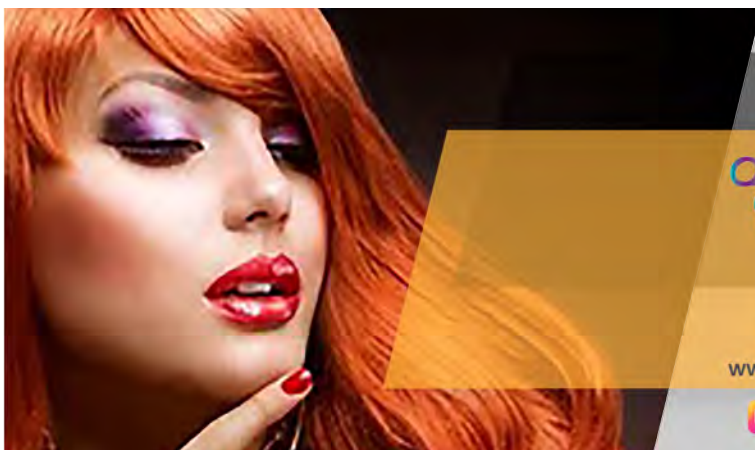

Now we enter into the finals this week and the pressure is now on the Dragons to maintain the standards that they have set during the regular season, but now the loses will mean something and there is no coming back from a loss, in finals there will be more pressure, the ovals will be neutral, and the umpires will be from higher grades and have different umpiring decisions, this will not only affect the Dragons but all the teams in the finals. The Dragons have gained the right to have the week off, and rest and get over the minor niggles and have the players at 100% fitness.

Qualifying Final

Round 2 between these 2 teams with the replay of last Saturday so it will be interesting to see what both teams learnt from their last meeting, we don't know the location of this meeting as yet, but it should be an interesting game with the Raiders having the more potent forward line and the Machine having the better defence, so it will be the forward line of the Raiders against the Machine's defence. It will be an intriguing game between the 2 teams with the winner meeting the Dragons in the following week. The Machine has been playing good football in the last month with greater confidence within the teams, whereas in the same time the Raiders have met a rampant Dragons side and suffered significant loses on both occasions which has dented their confidence. This game should be an interesting one with both sides beating each other at the oppositions home ground.

Elimination Final

These 2 sides meet with very similar statistics with the Hawks scoring has been slightly superior over the season and both defences have allowed about the same points as each other to be scored against them. This appears on paper to be a very even game and will depend on which team gets on top especially in the middle, as I feel which ever team gains control of the middle will win this game. Uni has had a more impressive last month and their results should have them with more confidence than the Hawks who have had to play teams higher on the table compared to the Uni side who have played the teams lower on the table, but you can only compete against the teams each week and win these games as they present themselves. The other thing Uni has in its favour is the damage done by the Dragons last week, that loss may have been demoralising to the Hawks, we won't know until they play on Saturday, the Uni side will have to strike hard from the start and not allow the Hawks to gain in confidence and apply the pressure from the start. The Hawks will no doubt be affected by last week and will have to handle the pressure early on from the Uni side and keep with them until they can gain confidence and play their normal game.
