REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

FINALS WEEK 1

Goodwood 14.10 (94) def Glenunga 6.12 (48)

The Saints booked a date with Port District in next week's semi final after a commanding 46-point win over Glenunga in Saturday's qualifying final. The Rams led at quarter time in a low-scoring start to the game, but Goodwood came alive after quarter time to dominate third placed Glenunga, booting ten goals to three after half time. The big win sees Goodwood earn a much-deserved second consecutive double chance in week two of finals footy, one that will either see them guarantee a grand final spot or host a preliminary final. Medal favourite Nick Favretto was at his outstanding best for Goodwood, kicking a season-best four goals to add to his best-on-ground performance, while Nicholas Burgess (3 goals), Angus Rana (2 goals) and Tom Carter were equally as integral. The Rams were led by Michael McMahon, while Beau Schwarze was their only multi-goalkicker. Home ground advantage seemed to do Goodwood wonders in this one, and Glenunga will now enjoy that same advantage in next week's cutthroat semi final against reigning premiers Prince Alfred. These two sides could very well meet again in a fortnight's time in a preliminary final, if Glenunga beat P.A.C and Goodwood lose to first placed Port District in the semi finals this week.

St Peters 8.8 (56) def by Prince Alfred 13.14 (92)

The premiership pedigree was in full effect on Saturday afternoon, as the champs Prince Alfred defeated St Peters on their own turf in the elimination final by six goals to advance to a cutthroat semi final versus Glenunga this week. The home side led by three points at quarter time, before a four-goal-to-one second term by the visitors saw P.A.C take a 20-point half time lead. St Peters closed the gap to fifteen by three quarter time, giving themselves a big chance to steal a famous comeback win, but they capitulated in the last term as the reigning premiers stormed home for the 36-point victory. It was business as usual for AFL veteran Jack Tregrove, as he willed his side to the big win on the road to keep their back-to-back chances well and truly alive, while Sam Buckham and Mackenzie Slee added their prowess to help P.A.C eliminate St Peters. Finn Heard led all goalkickers with three, while Craig Pitt and Mitch Larsson added two goals apiece for the winners. Impressive seasons from James Duncan and Sam Dukalskis came to an end on Saturday, but they were once again among their side's best for the final time in the losing effort, while the league's leading goalkicker Jock McLeay kicked three to end his tally at 48 majors. St Peters will look back on this season as a 'what could have been' scenario, as their start to the season suggested they should be playing in the grand final, but their finish to the year was more than disappointing, as they probably deserved to go further than a first round exit.

WEEK 2

Glenunga V Prince Alfred

The first semi final should be a tight one, with the Rams hosting Prince Alfred in a do or die clash. The Rams were taught a lesson by Goodwood last week, as they were pumped by 46 points, but luckily with their second chance, they have the opportunity to make amends for their poor loss and meet the Saints again in next week's preliminary final, should Goodwood lose to Port District. It is imperative they get a better showing from their gun players, as a straight sets elimination is on the cards against a strong, confident Prince Alfred outfit looking to win their second consecutive premiership. D'Arcy Mitchell and Alex Haren, both of whom have found themselves listed among their best players on a regular basis in 2022, were well below par on the weekend, while Michael McMahon, who had kicked 29 goals prior to the qualifying final, could only manage one goal. These players must lift if Glenunga are any chance of winning a final this year. After a strong road win against St Peters, P.A.C will enter this week's clash full of momentum, and although they will have to play the entirety of the finals series away from home, their finals experience and premiership pedigree will for sure come into play to negate some of that disadvantage. Jack Trengove, who has previously played for AFL clubs Melbourne and Port Adelaide, will be a tough player to stop for the Rams, while Chris Curran and Hayden Jolly are also important for the visiting side. Spearhead Finn Heard has played just the five games, but his eighteen goal output has helped P.A.C tremendously in the games he has played, and they will need another healthy performance in front of goal to upset the Rams on the road. This game should go down to the wire, with both sides' best footy up there with the best in the competition, but with P.A.C's recent form and experience, it will be tough for Glenunga to make the preliminary final, even if they are at home.

Prince Alfred by two goals.

Port District V Goodwood

The league's best team throughout the home and away season enjoyed a well-deserved week off last week as the other four finalists battled it out, but will the week off be to their detriment? After all, they haven't played since their upset loss to eighth placed Old Ignatians in the final round, so surely that will be in the back of their minds heading into this week's double chance semi final against Goodwood. The Saints are coming off a strong win and will carry all the momentum into the match, so it will be interesting to see how Port District manage this coming off a loss and a week off. Still, we know what Port District are capable of, as they were first place for a reason, and boast ample talent on their list, including former Power and Swans AFL player Sam Gray, who enjoyed a very solid year. The club's two leading goalkickers, James Batty (31 goals) and Dale Pearce (28), must fire in front of goals to give the club the best chance of producing a winning total, while Cooper Gaffney and Gray, who were undeniably the club's best performing players all year, must step up also. As for Goodwood, their current form is scintillating and will be seriously tough to topple. Nick Favretto, arguably the best player in the competition this year, will be pivotal for the Saints, who are pushing for a grand final appearance, while Nicholas Burgess, who has tallied 35 goals in 2022, will be a tough matchup for Port District. Both enjoyed impressive games on the weekend, as per usual, while Tom Carter has been a great sidekick to Favretto this year and was also damaging on Saturday. Going on recent history, it is tough to split the sides. Facing twice this year, both sides have shared a win, with Port District winners of the most recent matchup. At home, Port District have been almost perfect this year, so something tells me they will book their ticket in the 2022 Division 1 grand final with an impressive win against the Saints this week.

Port District by three goals.

DIVISION 2 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

Preliminary Final

Sacred Heart OC v North Haven
Richmond Oval at 2.15pm

Preliminary Finals are arguably the most important game for “football clubs” each season. Grand Finals are the most important game for players and coaches, but preliminary finals are the game which decides whether a club is promoted to the next division. That in itself is the main aim at the start of each season. For the players and coaches however, only a premiership will do. Sacred Heart have been the hot favourites all season along with Broadview. Little separated the two at the start of the season, in terms of favouritism. During the year, it was the old scholars however who looked the best side in the competition. North Haven by contrast were new to division 2 this season, after defeating Gaza in last year’s division 3 decider. North Haven have been building for years. Their club has been well managed and they’ve had steady improvement along with a few disappointments along the way. The disappointments, have only made them stronger. They are a club hell bent on being the best team on the peninsula and in division 1. One can only admire how North Haven have come from winning a division 4 premiership against Morphetville Park only a few seasons ago, to now being a serious contender to be in division 1. Make no mistake Ryan McInerney and his men are serious contenders. They’re a club who will challenge in division 1, whether next season or the season after. The big question is whether that is in 2023? Their big obstacle is Sacred Heart, who have been superb all season. Sacred Heart with their forward power and the best defence in the league are a massive hurdle for North Haven. Up forward Sacred Heart have kicked 321 more points than North Haven for the season while conceding 463 less points. Whilst statistics at times aren’t a true and accurate reflection on two sides performances, this is a statistic that can’t be ignored. That’s a 785 point differential between the two sides, which is massive. Sacred Heart have a stream of multi goal scorers in their line-up. Tristan Carcuro leads the division 2 goal kicking with 52 goals and is a constant threat up forward. Harrison Morgan with 32 goals, Henry McAuliffe with 23 goals, Darcy Le Cornu with 21 goals along with Cameron Rankin, Clayton Symonds and Josh Koster gives the old scholars the most potent firepower for any side in the competition. North Haven by contrast also have a host of players who can kick multiple goals. Teams need that in finals. It’s far too easy shutting down 1 or 2 players and teams with the most flexibility and more avenues to goals are the ones who cause the most damage in September. Tom Sandercock, Jamie Solly, Kyran Dixon, Matthew Sharpe, Jack Foster, Ryan McInerney and Brett Pederson offer many avenues to goal. Plus they have the option of swinging Chris Lipson forward, who’s been in tremendous form of late. Alex Cailotto has been in brilliant form all season after returning from South Adelaide and he will give the Sacred Heart on-ballers first use of the ball. Jack Koster, Oscar Lovelock, Clayton Symonds, Tom McDermott, Seb Kerrish, Nick Forster and Doug Proud will get enough of the ball all day to be a threat. The North Haven side is full of talent. Mark Rowe is a champion, Brett Pederson whilst being the biggest pest in football is also a big game player and has won two medals as the best on ground in a grand final. Ryan McInerney the coach is a ball magnet. Matthew Searcy, Chris Lipson and Kyran Dixon are all super talented. North Haven are also chock full of confidence after defeating Henley at home and then in an amazing win last week against Athelstone they came from 26-points down at three quarter time, to stage a remarkable win by 7-points. It was one of the great wins of all time to see a team come from nowhere, away from home, and to run over the top of the more experienced side. Last week Sacred Heart were missing Tristan Carcuro and he will be a big loss if missing again this week. Patrick McCarthy with 5 goals and Harrison Morgan with 4 goals stepped up to the plate and provided focal points in Carcuro’s absence. This only reinforces our thoughts of the enormous goal kicking firepower that Sacred Heart OC have. The biggest difference in our opinion however, will be Alex Cailotto. He’s given the Sacred Heart on-ballers first use of the ball all season. His ruck work in the forward half is also extremely dangerous for opposition defenders, as his tap work to his forwards is brilliant. North Haven don’t have a match up for Cailotto. That’s the one area where they fall down. The lack of a big ruckman who gives their on-ballers first use. Two great sides, but there can only be one winner to advance to next week’s grand final and to division 1 in 2023.

Sacred Heart OC 13-24 points

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

FINALS WEEK TWO REVIEWS

Golden Grove v Flinders Park

Golden Grove has officially won through to the 2022 grand final and will claim promotion to division two next year. The Kookaburras picked up the history making victory in front of a big home crowd, who saw their side win its 19th straight game of the season. It was a nervous start for the home team, trailing by 10 points at the opening break, and when they still found themselves trailing by six points at the half, the team needed a boost. Thankfully for the Kookaburras, the third quarter arrived, which saw them kick four goals to one and claim the lead by 12 points. Golden Grove continued to rally in the final term and extended the margin to claim a 29-point victory, capitalising on Flinders Park's inaccuracy. Joel Horskins was yet again the main man up front, kicking three majors, while Bamby brothers Chad and Luke, and Wyatt Patterson all chipped in with two each. Mitchell Payne found plenty of the ball, and was crucial to the second half resurgence, while Cameron Shenton also performed strongly, showcasing his experience at every opportunity. Nathan Hinter was threatening up front for the Reds with four majors, while the ever-consistent Justin Hardy chipped in with two. Jay Hansen fought strongly, as did Chad Comitogianni, but it wasn't enough.

Modbury v Edwardstown

Edwardstown has delivered a stunning upset victory over Modbury on the road and won through to face Flinders Park in this Saturday's preliminary final. It was the Hawks who got off to an opening quarter lead, making Edwardstown pay for inaccurate kicking to take the lead by a singular point at the opening break. The second quarter was hotly contested, with Edwardstown getting the better of its opponent ever so slightly on the scoreboard, allowing them to take a six-point lead into the main break. The third term saw Edwardstown extend the lead to 17 points, and with the game on the line at the final break, the home crowd found life. However, this was certainly not reciprocated with the players, and it showed on the scoreboard. The home side were completely blown out of the water with Edwardstown piling on a near six goal final quarter, to a dismal two by the home side to seal the game beyond doubt, with the Towns picking up a remarkable 38-point victory. The visiting side were lead strongly by the quartet of George Cornish, Jack Horgan, Mitch Roberts, and Josh Schiller who all booted two goals, while Ryan Phillips and Jesse Tomlinson put in seasonal-best performances in the win.

PRELIMINARY FINAL – PREVIEW

Flinders Park v Edwardstown

In the preliminary final, Flinders Park is set to face Edwardstown at Maughan Thiem Kia Oval, home of the Woodville-West Torrens. Flinders Park will come into the game as heavy favourites, having finished second on the ladder, compared to fourth placed Edwardstown. Edwardstown will be full of confidence heading into the fixture, having put Modbury to the sword on the road last weekend on the road, while away form was Flinders’ kryptonite on the weekend against Golden Grove.

Prediction: Flinders Park by 17 points.

Reviews:

First Semi Final: Hope Valley 10.14-74 def Pooraka 10.13-73

The second week of this year's division four final series kicked off at Hope Valley over in what was a contender for match of the season. Everything was on the line in the third meeting between these two teams and they saved the best match of the three until last. The first meeting between the two was a Pooraka smashing by 125 points. Later on in the season, at Hope Valley, the Demons were the five goal victors, the Semi Final produced a classic. It was the Bulls who got the initial jump who were out at quarter time by two goals, leading 31-19. The Demons in the second quarter had the chunk of chances, they kicked three-goals-six for just the quarter, although they did level the scores, the Demons would like to have been further ahead. The Bulls were restricted to just two goals in the second. A stalemate at the main break set it up for an exciting second half, in the third quarter it was another display of missed chances from both teams, one-goal-four faced one-goal-eight for the third quarter. No team had the ability to separate and apply scoreboard pressure. A four-point Bulls lead at three quarter time had it all to play for in the last. After a tight and tough contest, the home team were able to do just enough to win the match and head on to a Preliminary Final. Machok Garang, Jayke Hellmanns and Joshua Hand were best for the winning Hope Valley team.

Second Semi Final: Pembroke 7.9-51 def Plympton 4.15-39

In the second semifinal, the Pembroke Kings played in there first final of 2022 and hosted Plympton. The Bulldogs were one of the few teams to have beaten Pembroke this year and they did it better than anyone else. This result unfortunately for the Bulldogs resulted in the same way that it did at Pembroke Oval in the first meeting of the season in round two. Despite not having the week off, the Bulldogs were definitely up for the challenge and carried over their form from there Qualifying Final against Hope Valley. Pembroke as they have most of the season were able to find a way to win and be the first team to make the grand final. The Kings had the jump early in this low scoring affair, getting out to a 15-1 lead, a strong defensive effort. There were no goals from either side in the second quarter, four-eight in the quarter alone with the Bulldogs having more of the chances. Plympton's wastefulness continued and it hurt them in the third, only having the one goal recorded. Pembroke were able to kick a couple goals to put the pressure on. They then did enough in the last to see the match out with Plympton narrowing the margin to two goals. Matthew Falzon, Maximilian Thring and Mitch Curnow were best for Pembroke and Declan Bayly, Nathan Caruso and Stuart Taverner were best for Plympton.

Nick Cosami gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Preliminary Final: Plympton v Hope Valley

The fourth and final meeting of 2022 between these two teams is building to be an absolute belter between Plympton and Hope Valley. The First of these four meetings happened at Hope Valley where the Demons got up by a single point, narrowly edging out the Bulldogs. The second matchup is where the Demons got the goods again at Plympton Oval and this match was only a month ago. Two weeks after that the match happened back at Plympton and the Bulldogs got the win and avoided a season sweep, winning by 38 points. This season series has had close wins, bigger wins, three meetings in five weeks and finally to top it all off, this one will be held at a neutral venue. With the Bulldogs losing the home ground advantage, does this give Hope Valley the edge? It gets the closer, but I believe they won't be close enough to ply in this year's Grand Final.

Lockleys 11.10-76 defeated Hectorville 12.3-75

Where: Lockleys Oval, Lockleys

When: Saturday 27th August, 2:15pm

Preview:

This is a huge match between two of the top teams in the competition throughout the season, Lockleys will be wanting to win this one to further cement themselves as the number one premiership favourite. Hectorville need to win this to stay in touch with the premiership race, these two were absolute powerhouses throughout the season and those traits will be on full show this weekend. Can Lockleys do this to cement themselves as one of the best and claim this year's flag or can Hectorville cause an almighty upset and march on their way through to the flag this year.

Tip: Lockleys by 3 points.

Review:

What a win. Lockleys have defeated Hectorville by 1 point to advance through to the grand final and will be one step away from claiming this year's premiership, while Hectorville will be in next week's preliminary final against Gepps Cross. Scores literally neck and neck for the whole match until Lockleys had just enough skill and energy left in the last term to claim the 1-point victory. One of the best matches/finals matches you'll see out of the last 4 or 5 years. Jak Goudman-Glasson was exceptional with 3 goals while Tom Smith and Josh Denton's 2 goals provided an excellent supporting cast. Lockleys have advanced to this year's grand final while Hectorville will play off in next week's preliminary final against Gepps Cross.

Jordan Sennett-Pérez gives his match previews for this weeks matches

Gepps Cross 13.15-93 defeated Colonel Light Gardens 12.10-82

When: Saturday 27th August, 2:15pm

Where: Duncan Fraser Reserve, Northfield

Preview:

It's semi-final number as Gepps Cross take on Colonel Light Gardens in a huge clash on Saturday afternoon. Colonel Light will be buoyed by their big elimination final win over Eastern Park while Gepps Cross will be seething after last Saturday's tough loss qualifying final loss to Hectorville. Both teams will obviously want a win, I shouldn't have to spell that out, but semi-final are very tough to win, and a lot of expectation will be on the loser of the qualifying final to simply brush aside the winner of the elimination final and just continue through to next week's penultimate stage. It isn't that easy, if only it were that easy most teams in history would've won multiple flags by now. I like Gepps Cross here they were the better team out of the two throughout the season, they had a slip up last week, so they get the second chance here but don't underestimate Colonel Light Gardens.

Tip: Hectorville by 13 points.

Review:

What a match, Gepps Cross have progressed through to next week's preliminary final against Hectorville after a resounding and hard fought 11-point win against Colonel Light Gardens. It was looking like it was going to be a comfortable win for Gepps Cross when they led by 21 points at quarter time after kicking an effective but inaccurate 4.5 to 1.2 in the opening term. Colonel Light fought back kicking 6 goals to 4 in emphatic fashion to trail by just 8 points going into the main break. Colonel Light led by 2 points thanks to Gepps Cross poor kicking, they registered 1.5 in the premiership quarter and really could've put Colonel Light away but they opponents took advantage and could smell victory with only one quarter to play out. The home side rallied however and kicked a still inaccurate 4.4 to 2.3 in the end to see them run home by 11 points. Paul McInerny was electric with 4 goals as Colonel Light came back fighting in the second term and beyond while Jarrad Clark-Rantasa's 3 goals were the sealer for the home side. It's season over for Colonel Light as they'll be spectators for the rest of the final's series.

DIVISION 6 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

FINALS WEEK 2 REVIEWS

Trinity v Marion

Trinity come off their break this week, fresh and ready to take the finals by the throat as they did with the season, coming into this first match against Marion who have already played a game and gotten some finals momentum, and it may have worked well for Marion as they saw this is a chance to get the jump on the best side of the year.

Jumping out the gates early, Marion showed the heat and managed to get out to a 10 point lead at the first break, pumping The Rams up for a hard fought game.

They continued going well in the second, but not without Trinity right on the tail, eventually tying things up at half time.

After that it was still a tough fight, Trinity managed to hit the front but they kicked into gear and were able to run away with a 29 point win and the first spot in this year's Big Dance.

C.Hankinson was the best afield, T.Eves and B.Matters were also good for The Lions.

For Marion it was G.Mcleod who was the standout, also kicking 2 goals, J.Mitchell and H.Luscombe also good.

Marion will be disappointed after a good first half, but take on a good attitude going into the next week, hoping to gain a spot in the Grand Final and try and get the best of Trinity.

West Croydon v Central United

Another hard, come from behind match this week with these two sides battling it out for a spot in the Prelim, I'm sure the West Croydon crowd was not did not disappointed after watching this one.

The first quarter saw The Doggies take full control, getting the best of the home side and running out to a 29 point lead by quarter time.

The Hawks showed a bit more fight in the second quarter. kicking 5 goals only being down by 7 points by the main break.

From then it was game on, both sides sticking it out in an arm wrestle, by the third quarter it was only 5 points the difference, setting up for a big final term.

But The Hawks showed on their home deck who's boss, booting 5 goals to none in the last term to win and advance to the Prelim.

L.Milera was good as usual for The Hawks, earning best player in the hard win, while stars like L.Wilsom and D.Garland weren't far behind.

For Central United, it was a tough day, but a few shining lights were M.Pudney earning the best, D.Steele also very good, booting 5 goals.

Good momentum for The Hawks going into the next game they'll face Marion who they lost to previously.

Lochie Evans gives his match previews for this weeks matches

PRELIMINARY FINAL PREVIEW

Marion v West Croydon

In the second to last matchup of the year, it will be a battle to see who can conquer the giant that is Trinity.

Both West Croydon and Marion have had some gold hitouts this season, none more important than this. But one side has to do it and it will be the side that is ready and determined on the day.

Marion are coming off a tough loss to the hardest team in the competition and will want a chance at one more contest to beat them and take their crown before they get it. Their leaders will have to step up in the next couple weeks if they want to get to the big stage.

While for The Hawks, they are coming off a hard fought arm wrestle win and will be eager to deny Marion of any chance at the Grand Final.

This should be a tough battle on a neutral ground, any side can win this, it just depends on who wants it more.

I think Marion will want it more, losing to Trinity in the finals already hurts considering they had played good footy, and I think this match will be their chance to gain some good momentum going into a Grand Final.

Tip: Marion by 1-12

DIVISION 7 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

GRAND FINAL

Greenacres v Adelaide Lutheran
At Kilburn Oval starting at 2.30pm

Finally, we have come to the final game of the season. Both sides play a very skilful game, the Dragons have a higher quality of players around the ground, and they have two high quality forwards in Matthew Gibson and Thomas Tacono. Adelaide Lutheran also have their own quality forwards in Rowan Miegel, Chris Scholefield, Ashley Goodall and Nicholas Sandford who also are capable of kicking goals.

Both defences are going to have to stop the opposition from scoring, which the Dragons have been able to do on their previous meetings, but Adelaide Lutheran of late has been working on their defence and has been nullifying the opposition and restricting them from scoring, the preliminary final against the Raiders was a prime example and the Dragon forwards should not have an easy game on Saturday.

Adelaide Lutheran, has been improving their game and honing their game in the last month or so and the only loses they have experienced is to the Dragons. The Dragons game style hasn't really changed from week one and they have bullied the opposition sides into submission, whereas the Adelaide Lutheran, have continued to evolve their game style and plan over the season for this big game.

They have had match practice and match conditioning whereas the Dragons have only played one finals match. The Dragons will need to stop Rowan Miegel who kicked 6 goals in the preliminary final and is on fire and confident.

There is a lot to like about Adelaide Lutheran in the back half of the year. They are playing well. But they have met 4 times this year. Three times in the minor round the Dragons defeated Lutheran and then once in the major round. In round 5 the Dragons triumphed by 3-points in their closest match of the season on Greenacres home deck. In round 12 the action moved to the South Parklands and again it was the Dragons who triumphed by 26-points. Again in round 16 the two combatants met in the South Parklands where the Dragons were victorious by 14-points. Their most recent contest was only two weeks ago at Greenacres where the Dragons walloped Adelaide Lutheran by 81-points.

Whilst grand finals have from time to time, brought about a massive upset. We just can't pick Adelaide Lutheran to win based on seasons performances, head to head meetings, the psychological advantage that Greenacres have over Adelaide Lutheran and most importantly their most recent clash only a fortnight ago where Greenacres took Adelaide Lutheran to the cleaners. We believe Greenacres hold all the cards and will be celebrating on Saturday night.

Greenacres by 37-48 points
