PRELIMINARY FINAL – REVIEW

Goodwood 4.4 (28) def by Prince Alfred 12.13 (85)
Hisense Stadium, Saturday 10 September, 2:15pm

Prince Alfred have punched their ticket to the 2022 Adelaide Football League Division 1 Grand Final after a scintillating last-quarter display saw P.A.C run away 57-point victors. After winning the premiership last year, P.A.C once again find themselves on the big dance, and will like their chances as their premiership pedigree has proven pivotal throughout this finals campaign. The game was tightly contested from the start, as the Saints took a narrow two-point lead into quarter time with two goals kicked by each side. The Saints then had a scoreless second term but were fortunate P.A.C could only manage eight points of their own as the latter led by a straight kick at the main change. Still, the game was in the balance, with a low scoring, tightly contested, classic game of finals footy the overwhelmingly likely outcome it seemed. 1.5 in the third by Prince Alfred kept the door ajar for Goodwood, as a ten-point lead was feasibly manageable for the second placed side. But it was the last quarter that completely tipped the game, and the season, on its head. The fifth placed Prince Alfred, who were grateful to sneak into finals after a topsy-turvy season almost saw them miss after winning the premiership last year, came out the blocks in the fourth quarter with a completely different mindset, and they finally capitalized on Goodwood's severe struggles to apply scoreboard pressure. The private school launched a goal-kicking barrage, booting 8.5 in a clinical last term, and Goodwood could only look on in disbelief, managing just the one major as the floodgates were smashed open. League medal winner Nick Favretto was quiet for the second consecutive week when his side needed him most, and Nicholas Burgess was held goal-less once again after booting 35 goals for the year prior to the contest. As for the rest of the Saints, with the stars disastrously non-factors they were led by players such as Sam Laube, Levi Elms and Aryan Sereen who did not normally find themselves among their side's best throughout the year, highlighting the disappointing efforts from some of Goodwood's household names. Grand finalists Prince Alfred were bolstered by a big game performance by Jack Trengove, boosting his squad with some much needed AFL experience with two goals and a complete match, while Will Dalwood, who has been among P.A.C's best every game this finals series, was once again instrumental. Mitch Larsson kicked three goals, while Sam Buckham and Tom Bartlett added two apiece to pace the winning side. They didn't make it easy on themselves this year by finishing fifth, but Prince Alfred have oozed class in all three finals games so far, and despite finishing four places below their opponent this week, they won't be the underdog the ladder would otherwise suggest.

GRAND FINAL – PREVIEW

Port District V Prince Alfred
Coopers Stadium, Saturday 17 September, 2:30pm

It is not an ordinary 1v2 Grand Final matchup taking place this Saturday afternoon like it should be. Sure, first placed Port District did what they needed to do a fortnight ago to secure their spot in the final match of the year, but their opponent has taken the toughest route possible to meet them. Prince Alfred, after winning it all in 2021, started the season in disarray, and it took a valiant comeback in the second half of the season to even get them into September action, finishing fifth, but once they were there, they were always a chance. Their Elimination Final against St Peters was dominant, and their Semi Final against Glenunga was classy, but it was not until the fourth quarter of last week's Preliminary Final that we truly saw a side capable of knocking off Port District to win the flag for a second consecutive season. A 53-point last quarter came out of absolutely nowhere given the low-scoring standard of footy that had previously taken place, but it was the sign we needed to know that P.A.C and their premiership experience could very well cause an upset in the Grand Final. Of course, Port District are on a different level to P.A.C's prior opponents. St Peters, Glenunga and Goodwood were all very good sides, but at the end of the day, they were not the best sides this year. Port District are though. The ladder leaders have barely had to flex a muscle in the last couple months, and have been comfortably going about their business, but will their lack of gameplay in the finals' series act to their detriment in a high-pressure, win-or-go-home Grand Final encounter? It has affected sides in all levels in the past, so it is not out of the realms of possibility. Port District enjoyed a week off in the first week of finals as a reward for finishing top, as 2v3 and 4v5 fought it out, then they followed it up with a Semi Final win against Goodwood to advance them to the Grand Final, earning them a second week off in three weeks, while Goodwood and Prince Alfred competed, bringing us to now. P.A.C, conversely, haven't had a break, building on form and momentum each week, leading up to this week – a very different story. And while Port District will have fresh legs and healthy bodies, Prince Alfred's constant gameplay, plus their premiership pedigree, almost cancels out that advantage. So when the lights shine brightest, and the game closes up, who will want it more? Ex-AFL player Jack Trengove and last year's premiers, or ex-AFL player Sam Gray and this year's powerhouse?

DIVISION 3 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

GRAND FINAL REVIEW

Golden Grove has officially capped off an undefeated season in the best way possible, overcoming Edwardstown in emphatic fashion on Saturday afternoon at X Convenience Oval. The scoreboard failed to represent what were near perfect conditions in Elizabeth with Golden Grove taking a 12-point lead into the opening change, holding Edwardstown to just two behinds and no goals. The second quarter was very even yet again, with just three goals combined between the two clubs, with the Kookaburras holding a slim 20-point advantage at the main break. In remarkable circumstances, the third quarter saw no majors put through, with Edwardstown having the only two scoring shots of the quarter which it would fail to convert, leaving the margin at 18 points at the final change. The final quarter showed exactly why Golden Grove finished the season undefeated, as it was well and truly part time. The Kookaburras kicked five goals to no score to claim a 51-point victory and win the 2022 premiership. Max Kozlik was the star of the show up front for Golden Grove, booting four majors, while Lewis Johnston and Mitch McKelvie were also valuable contributors with two each. Todd Sheppard saved his best outing for the most important fixture of the season, while Jake Pitman also was a class above from the outset. From an Edwardstown perspective, Jack Horgan would be the side's only goalscorer, while Aaron Anderson and Oliver Ebert didn't stop putting in effort to drag the side back into the contest all afternoon. However, it wasn't anywhere enough as Golden Grove romped to victory.

DIVISION 5 REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

GRAND FINAL

Hectorville 12.7-79 defeated Lockleys 8.8-56

When: Saturday 10th September, 2:15pm

Where: St Mary's Park, St Mary's

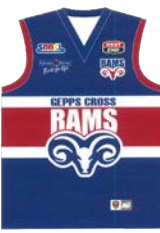

Preview:

It's the grand final with the two top seeds of the competition throughout battling it out to take home the premiership of season 2022. Lockleys finished the season as minor premiers while Hectorville finished behind very closely in second spot having essentially one hand of the premiership cup with their incredible game style while Lockleys was the firm favourite. This should be an incredible grand final as the top two teams for the whole year will face off against each other. Should is the operative word as in recent memory the top two teams haven't always produced an amazing game in the final match of the year due to the evenness of the competition in recent years giving every team a chance each week. I like Hectorville's chances here, but Lockleys finished top for a reason and will be a little bit too hard to stop here but expect a match full of twists and turns, heroic moments and downright tough contested football.

Tip: Lockleys by 5 points.

Review:

What a showing. Hectorville have upset the top seed in Lockleys by 23 points to be crowned premiers for season 2022 in a monumental effort kickstarted by a sensational first quarter. They kicked 6 goals to 1 in the first term bursting out of the blocks and shocking Lockleys with their slick ball movement and aggression at the coalface. That was the tale for the rest of the afternoon with Hectorville maintaining a handy buffer over Lockleys and the trailing team never being fully allowed to get going within the game. Lockleys tried and tried but it was Hectorville's watertight defence repelling repeated entries into their defensive 50 keeping the 2022 minor premiers at bay. Jak Goudman-Glasson was the star for Hectorville with 5 goals as his team burst out of the blocks saving their best performance for the most important match of the year. A brilliant supporting cast followed with Captain Jake Mazzone and Tom Smith kicking 2 goals each respectively. For Lockleys it was Vice-Captain Ben Haren who tried hard with 2 majors while Matthew McDonough should hold his head up high with 3 goals, but it simply wasn't enough as Lockleys were overwhelmed by their opponents for much of the day. Congratulations to Hectorville for claiming the 2022 division 5 premiership while Lockleys will be ruing a missed opportunity after dominating for much of the season.

GRAND FINAL REVIEW

Trinity v West Croydon

The Big Day arrived, with the two best teams all year going head to head in an all out fight to take home the title. West Croydon will go in as clear underdogs after Trinity not losing a single game all year. But West Croydon have worked hard to get into this spot, they would have gone into this contest with an 'anything can happen' mindset and try to rip the premiership straight out of Trinity's lap.

They have the talent and many big time players to take home the flag if they really gave their all, but they would have to take down an unstoppable Lion's side in order to do it. Now Trinity, there is nothing else to say about this side that had already been said. They have brought battle to every contest in front of them this season and came out on top every single time, proving the strength of each player in the team.

They have managed to dominate every team they have come across and got themselves in the best position to come home with a flag, and they did so with flying colours. The Lions didn't show a stripe of weakness as they took home what they truly deserved after an incredible season.

It was a good game in the first half, both sides putting up a fight, Trinity got the lead but The Hawks were right on their trail and not letting them run away. Trinity managed to get a little bit of breathing space with an 18 point lead at half time. After halftime Trinity stepped on the pedal and made sure they were coming home with a win, coming out with a 30 point lead at three quarter time.

West Croydon kept creeping up and weren't letting Trinity get a complete run away, popping up with enough goals to keep The Lions on their toes, but through the last term, Trinity stepped it to final gear and eventually running home 45 point winners and capping off an outstanding season.

The final scores were Trinity 13.15 - 93 to West Croydon 7.6 - 48

Trinity had a lineup of players that have played well all season, one of those being C.Matters who had the honors of being best afield in the Grand Final, he also booted 4 goals with his effort.

C.Hankinson and R.Hankinson were also good.

For West Croydon it may be heartbreak, but a great season that they will look back on and improve on in years to come.

L.Milera and L.Wilson were the best for The Hawks as they have been all year, while D.Doolan and L.Woodcock both kicked 2 goals each.

Well done to Trinity on an outstanding season, one they will never forget and use to take on division 5 next season.

GRAND FINAL

Greenacres v Adelaide Lutheran
At Kilburn Oval starting at 2.30pm

Finally, we have come to the final game of the season. Both sides play a very skilful game, the Dragons have a higher quality of players around the ground, and they have two high quality forwards in Matthew Gibson and Thomas Tacono. Adelaide Lutheran also have their own quality forwards in Rowan Miegel, Chris Scholefield, Ashley Goodall and Nicholas Sandford who also are capable of kicking goals.

Both defences are going to have to stop the opposition from scoring, which the Dragons have been able to do on their previous meetings, but Adelaide Lutheran of late has been working on their defence and has been nullifying the opposition and restricting them from scoring, the preliminary final against the Raiders was a prime example and the Dragon forwards should not have an easy game on Saturday.

Adelaide Lutheran, has been improving their game and honing their game in the last month or so and the only loses they have experienced is to the Dragons. The Dragons game style hasn't really changed from week one and they have bullied the opposition sides into submission, whereas the Adelaide Lutheran, have continued to evolve their game style and plan over the season for this big game.

They have had match practice and match conditioning whereas the Dragons have only played one finals match. The Dragons will need to stop Rowan Miegel who kicked 6 goals in the preliminary final and is on fire and confident.

There is a lot to like about Adelaide Lutheran in the back half of the year. They are playing well. But they have met 4 times this year. Three times in the minor round the Dragons defeated Lutheran and then once in the major round. In round 5 the Dragons triumphed by 3-points in their closest match of the season on Greenacres home deck. In round 12 the action moved to the South Parklands and again it was the Dragons who triumphed by 26-points. Again in round 16 the two combatants met in the South Parklands where the Dragons were victorious by 14-points. Their most recent contest was only two weeks ago at Greenacres where the Dragons walloped Adelaide Lutheran by 81-points.

Whilst grand finals have from time to time, brought about a massive upset. We just can't pick Adelaide Lutheran to win based on seasons performances, head to head meetings, the psychological advantage that Greenacres have over Adelaide Lutheran and most importantly their most recent clash only a fortnight ago where Greenacres took Adelaide Lutheran to the cleaners. We believe Greenacres hold all the cards and will be celebrating on Saturday night.

Greenacres by 37-48 points
