Port Adelaide v Adelaide Crows

Adelaide Oval - 7.10pm (Saturday)

Struggling Crows no match for Giants

The Adelaide Crows suffered their worst defeat of the season going down to GWS by 67 points in the round seven clash at Adelaide Oval. Less than a minute into the game Taylor Walker kicked the opening goal of the match but it was one way traffic from here on it with little for Adelaide fans to crow about for the rest of the day.

by
Liam Shеды

Adelaide fortunate that wayward kicking from the Giants saw the Crows only trail by seven points at quarter time. By half time the Giants dominance began to show on the scoreboard as the margin stretched beyond five goals and by the end of the game the margin had blown out to 11 goals.

GWS dominated all key performance indicators. Clearances, contested possessions, inside 50s, marks inside 50 and finished with 13 more scoring shots. The Giants had multiple avenues to goal with Jesse Hogan, Harry Himmelberg, Tom Green and Sam Reid all kicking multiple goals. For Adelaide Taylor Walker kicked 50 percent of Adelaide's goals with two.

A 41-17 clearance count in the Giants favour will be of massive concern for the Adelaide coaching staff. The Crows will be hoping to regain skipper Rory Sloane for the upcoming Showdown against Port Adelaide, who are also coming off a disappointing performance. Matthew Nicks was rightfully disappointed in his post-match interview and time will tell if a statement is made this week at the selection table.

"Today we were comprehensively beaten. We did not come to compete. Too many mistakes with the ball. A big step backwards"

Port Adelaide v Adelaide Crows

Adelaide Oval - 7.10pm (Saturday)

Listless Port powerless against Lions

by
Nick Kossatch

Port Adelaide Power were 7-6 up and with all the momentum as Charlie Dixon marked from a centreing kick from the returning Sam Powell-Pepper. However, Hamish Hartlett thought it best to remonstrate and the free kick was reversed and rewarded to the hosts. From that moment on, it was all the Brisbane Lions as the club registered a fourth-straight win over Port 13.15 (93) to 5.14 (44).

Amid from centre half back Aliir Aliir, midfield bull Ollie Wines and the emerging Willem Drew, there were no other winners for the Power. The Lions were magnificently served by Harris Andrews who thrashed Charlie Dixon while Charlie Cameron went on his motorbike motion best with four goals and Joe Daniher (two goals) was a presence working well in tandem with Eric Hipwood. The notion that Port Adelaide Power is a contender may need to be reconsidered and maybe, just maybe, some players read the media spoof and believed that the team was a premiership fancy. The way the players approached and played during Saturday night's letdown indicated that the side was anything but.

Port's coach Ken Hinkley was left frustrated after the game. "We couldn't handle some of the contest stuff," Hinkley said on the afl.com.au site. "Whether that was in front, or behind or in the middle - it was all over the ground. "We were nowhere near our best and the opposition was at their very best at what they were trying to do. "We go back to work, we learn, we take the lesson. We don't like the lesson, we don't like the taste of it, but we deserved it."

In-form Wines was superb with 37 possessions and Hinkley praised the midfielder. "Ollie I thought was amazing. He gave what he had. I think a few others could have jumped on with 'OI'", he said. The Power missed Travis Boak (quad strain), but Brisbane missed Brownlow Medallist Lachie Neale. "It wouldn't have mattered if you had 22 Travis' out there tonight, we needed some support," the coach said.

Boak is expected to return for this weekend's Showdown against the Adelaide Crows - a team also eager to respond to an equally soft effort against improving Greatest Western Sydney Giants.

Eagles v South Adelaide

Maughan Thiem Kia Oval - 2.10pm

Eagles to break South's Heart

Rarely over the past few seasons would both the Eagles be playing the Panthers, a week after both teams coming of losses.

The Panthers were brave against a resurgent Norwood at the Parade last Friday night. Norwood who were staring down the barrel of three straight losses, wouldn't let this opportunity slip.

The Panthers fell nine points short despite keeping Norwood to three behinds in the last quarter. South Adelaide could only manage six goals for the game. For the first time in season 2021, there were no multiple goal scorers on the night.

This was clearly their lowest score across the first five rounds. No doubt Jarred Wright will review their goal scoring opportunities as twelve scores from 35 Inside 50 entries isn't enough. The one key statistic that South did win, was the clearances (+3) which is a positive sign for their midfield. The second quarter didn't help South with Norwood scoring five goals to one in which gave the Redlegs, a match high 26 point half time lead.

Some of South's better players were Joel Cross and former Crow Bryce Gibbs continues his impressive form back at SANFL level.

This is a huge game for South. If they can regroup and win, they will maintain their top two spot on the ladder and then have two home games to follow against Glenelg and Central District.

The Eagles travelled to Alberton Oval last Sunday and met a rampaging Magpies. Unusually the Eagles just could get going and left with a 60 point hiding. Prior to the game starting, the Eagles would have been full of confidence after winning on ANZAC Day and with a real chance of being in the top two at the close of round 5.

Like their upcoming opponents, the Eagles second quarter wasn't one which will feature in the highlight reel. The Eagles conceded seven goals, whilst only scoring one themselves. At least after half time, the Magpies only scored five goals with Eagles closing the second half with three of their own.

Troy Menzel continues to lead on the scoreboard with three goals. Apart from Menzel, there wasn't a lot of support from the other forwards.

The Eagles just didn't win enough of the ball as Port racked up over 400 possessions for the match. The ruck was a challenge for the Eagles with Port Adelaide's ruckman winning Hit Outs (33 - 18). The Eagles did well to nullify the effectiveness of these Hit Outs by losing clearances by one.

If the Eagles can find the form they showed against Adelaide and North Adelaide, they can pick up the two premiership points against South, which will connect them back with the top two teams, with matches against The Bloods away, and Norwood at home to follow.

I'm tipping the Eagles to bounce back in a close one. Eagles 1-12 points

Central District v Norwood

X Convenience Oval - 3.05pm

Redlegs to Muzzle Dogs

This week is set to see another blockbuster between Norwood and Central Districts as the SANFL season continues to heat up. The Redlegs travel down to the kennel at X Convenience Oval this Saturday afternoon. After leading at half time, Centrals were defeated by a Bloods outfit last week, whereas Norwood corralled the Panthers to their first loss of the season. Just when the season appears to become predictable and the disparity between good and bad teams clear, there has been defining upsets. Therefore, while Norwood are clear favorites against the bottom sitting Dogs, the season has shown that it would be unwise to write the Dogs off.

by
Wilson McShane

As it sits, Centrals are 1-4. This is a record that Central Districts coach, Paul Thomas, will want to hurriedly change if they are to taste success in 2021. However, there are some fundamental issues facing the club this season, which are preventing them from winning games. The most glaring being their inability to run out games. During their last five matches they have lost four of five last halves. The collective score being 8 goals 25 behinds, to the oppositions 23 goals 21 behinds. In an aberration against the Crows where they won the last half, they still lost the last quarter 3 goals 2 behinds to 5 goals 4 behinds. Whether the cause is fitness related or brain errors is unknown, however what is obvious, is that if they are unable to play a consistent four quarter brand of football, it will be a very bleak year for Doggies fans.

Nevertheless, what is promising for Dogs' supporters is that they are getting enough look at the ball, as they have been competitive with all teams in areas of clearances, inside 50's and disposals. This has been led by the usual suspects including Kyle Presbury and Travis Schiller, who both average above 23 disposals, at more than 75 per cent by foot. Further, what has put a smile on supporter's faces has been the blossoming of young gun Harry Grant who is averaging 21.2 disposals, at 88 per cent after playing only 5 games. For Centrals to win this week, they will also rely on big performances from their key players up forward, such as Aiden Grace and Justin Hoskin who collectively have kicked 20 goals for the Dogs this season.

However, if Centrals want to pull off an upset they will have to perform well, as Norwood are coming off their most satisfying win of the season. After defeating South Adelaide last round, Norwood will look to make it two in a row. During the match last week, Norwood were able to get their hands on the ball regularly beating the Panthers in disposals 319 to 262. This enabled the Redlegs to get the footy into their prolific ball users such as Nelligan, Douglas and McKenzie. Through this quality ball use at 77 percent Norwood muscled 10 more inside 50's than the opposition.

One of the greatest concerns for Central Districts is the pressure Norwood were able to apply. Led by their midfield spearhead Matthew Nunn who acquired an unfathomable 16 tackles, the Redlegs won the tackle count and brought the heat. They no doubt look to replicate this which will make for a fascinating contest.

I believe Norwood will get the desired result, as they have shown that when they perform at their best, they are one of the most dangerous teams in the competition. Yet, as it is always the case after a satisfying win, clubs can become complacent and overconfident, which may leave the Doggy door ajar. Therefore, if Centrals can piece together a four-quarter performance for the first time this year, fans should not be surprised if an upset is to occur. Despite this, the red and blue have shown they are the better side this year and therefore I think they will win in a tight battle. Norwood by 1-12 points

Port Adelaide v Adelaide

Adelaide Oval - 3.35pm

Port to set the tone for a day of Showdown's

Round 6 of the 2021 SANFL season sees the first Showdown at SANFL level for over a year between the Port Adelaide Magpies and Adelaide at Adelaide Oval. The fixture has been altered to ensure that this match acts as the curtain raiser for the AFL Showdown which will take place shortly after. Port Adelaide currently sit just inside the top 5 with a 2-3 record, whilst Adelaide is in 8th position with the same record but a slightly worse percentage.

Oliver Alyanak

The Magpies are coming off a commanding victory against Woodville-West Torrens in which they won by 60 points. The first quarter was tight and there was only one goal in it at quarter time, however, after that the flood gates opened and Port kicked 12 goals to the Eagles' 4 for the rest of the game. The inside 50 count was too uneven with the Magpies only having 9 more entries, but it was what they did with those entries that made the difference. They managed to score off over half of their inside 50s compared the Eagles who scored off only 29% of theirs. This meant that they were able to score with ease and their forward line was clearly too much for the Eagles' defence to handle which allowed them to keep running the scoreboard up. Peter Ladhams showed his class with 1.3 along with 23 disposals and 15 hit outs whilst Tom Rockliff (34 disposals), Kane Farrell (31 disposals) and Jarrod Lienert (27 disposals) continue to push their case for AFL selection. Ben Edwards was the standout in front of goals kicking 4 with Cam Sutcliffe and Dylan Williams kicking 3 each.

Adelaide on the other hand lost by 1 point in a thrilling encounter at Peter Motley Oval against Sturt. For much of the final term they looked like they were going to win with late goals to James Matthews and Mitchell Marini almost sealing the deal. In the end it took a set shot from Sturt's Ashley Johnson to steal the victory from a very tight angle to break Adelaide's hearts. In a one-point loss there wasn't much Adelaide did wrong, apart from the fact that they allowed Sturt to score from over half of their inside 50s. Their defence could handle the likes of Ashley Johnson (4 goals) and Mark Evans (3 goals) and it could have been a larger margin if Sturt had kicked straighter than they did. This could cause trouble for this upcoming Showdown as this is exactly what Port Adelaide were able to do well in their previous game. Matthew Wright continues to hit the scoreboard, ending with 4 goals, while their highest disposal winner was Josh Worrell with 22. Disappointingly, none of their players fighting for AFL selection stood up, with Billy Frampton and Darcy Fogarty only managing 1 goal each and Chayce Jones who had 15 touches in the first half, drifted out of the game in the second half, finishing with 20.

This Showdown has been a long time coming with neither side able to participate in the SANFL last year. Port currently leads the Showdown tally 8-5, however, as with all Showdowns previous results don't matter at all. Last time they played the Magpies ran out 30-point victors at Alberton Oval. Sam Mayes kicked 3.2 and Tobin Cox could have had a day out with 2.5. Andy Otten and Lachie Sholl had 24 disposals each for Adelaide while Willem Drew lead the way for Port with 32. This upcoming game should be a great one, Port look to be getting their season rolling now so expect them to secure the win. Port Adelaide by 13-24 points

Glenelg v Sturt

Ach Group Stadium - 2.10pm

Double Blues to roll undefeated Tigers

An interesting game coming up. Whilst Glenelg are undefeated, Sturt have just come from a rousing win at home that has kept them in touch with the top five. I wrote last week about how the forwards of Glenelg look like they can emulate the forwards of last year's Woodville-West Torrens's winning team.

Their chemistry is electric, and last week the familiar trio of Liam, Luke and Lachie were at it again. Marlon Motlop wanted in on the action too, and 60 seconds in to the fourth quarter he kicked what was a defining goal for the match. It shut the gate on North Adelaide, who had none of the next nine shots on goal, and it swung wide open for Glenelg.

Liam McBean soon bagged his last two of five goals: returning to pole position for the Ken Farmer medal. But Lachie Hosie had other ideas, and he kicked his 14th goal from five games to go one clear at the top of the goalkicking leaderboard. Luke Partington is clear at the top of the Shearman Medal tally too, as voted by the coaches. He had another 35 touches and 7 clearances to put the afterburners on North in the final quarter. They are also top of the ladder; in case you were wondering. Can Sturt knock them off?

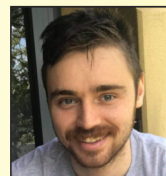

Sturt's two wins this season have come when they have dominated their opponents in possession, but they would be chuffed with the hard work that went in to stopping Matty Wright and the Adelaide Reserves last week. They had a third more scoring shots from fewer inside fifties, which nearly proved too few, before Ashley Johnson made his tight set shot count for one goal and two premiership points. It is a timely momentum boost if Sturt want to catch up to the top five. They missed out last season, which will not be lost on the playing group nor the fans.

They are within one big win of Woodville-West Torrens in third place and Norwood in fourth, two teams that gave Sturt a fortnight's handicap to start the season. When they take on the best in Glenelg, at Glenelg, the Double Blues should remember what went wrong against the next best in South, down South, who ran Sturt off their legs and kicked the last six goals unanswered. It looked like happening again at home to the Crows before Mark Evans interjected with a crucial goal.

Sturt's defence held on tightly after Johnson put them back in front, and they will need to do it again this week. If they can hold any of the three Glenelg forwards goalless, that will be more than any other back six has done this season. Both teams had their fair share of clearances in recent weeks, both teams mark well in the air.

Both teams rotate players through the ruck, and so Sturt must find a pinch hitter to replace Dan Fahey-Sparks, having pulled a hamstring. Sturt have tackled their opponents well, but they will need a few extra to stick when they are chasing the footy at Glenelg. Every team has come at Glenelg in the fourth quarter and the Tigers have fended them all off.

Conversely, Sturt have evidently lost their way in the fourth against the toughest of their opponents. I still think Sturt can win this match, but they will need to stick close to the Bays all day and tighten their goalkicking – they will not have many to waste against the competition's best. But as they proved last week, they can fend off their opponents when they earn the lead. Sturt by 1-12 points

North Adelaide v West Adelaide

Prospect Oval - 2.10pm

Roosters to get their season back on track

Round five again was another great round of SANFL football, including upsets, close finishes as well as thrashings. It is the battle of North and West of the town this week when Roosters host the Bloods at Prospect this Sunday. The Last time these two clubs met, the Roosters won by a single point at Richmond Oval in a Friday night thriller.

by
Jayden Hill

The Roosters were admirable in defeat in round five, going down to the undefeated Bays by 31 points at Prospect. West Adelaide, on the other hand, got their second consecutive win with a four-goal victory against the Bulldogs.

It is hard to believe last year's grand finalists in the roosters are second to last on the ladder. North Adelaide has had some close losses, with three of their four losses by 11 points or less, including that heart-breaking three-point loss. They would have been hoping to redeem themselves last weekend against the undefeated Bays. North Adelaide got off to a sluggish start and was down by 24 points at quarter-time. After four consecutive goals just, the main break made it a 10-point ball game, and the momentum was with the Roosters at half-time. The game was up for grabs at three-quarter-time, with only two points separating the two teams. Unfortunately for North Adelaide, the Bays ran away with the game to win by five goals. Thomas Schwarz led the goalkicking for the Roosters kicking three goals. Alexander Spina collected 22 disposals and was first best for the Roosters meaning he has featured in the best players for four consecutive games. In every game this season, the highlight for Roosters has been their pressure around the contest and when they don't have the ball. North Adelaide has won the tackle count three of the five games this season by an average of 16 tackles.

On the other side of the coin, the Bloods are on a roll, stringing together two impressive victories to get their season back on track. After an unlucky and slow start to the season, the Bloods were too good for the Redlegs at Hisense Stadium, winning by 18 points. The Bloods thrashed the Redlegs in the disposal count, as well as having 20 more tackles, even with having more of the ball. Saturdays match against the Bulldogs was an arm-wrestle, with the Bloods kicking four goals to zero in the last quarter to run away with the victory. Thomas Keough was the best player on the ground, kicking four goals and collecting 17 disposals. Joshua Gore was also very good for the Bloods, claiming second best with 22 possessions and two goals. Jono Beech also found the sticks kicking three goals. The Bloods have lost the clearances in nearly every game this season, but that hasn't stopped them from getting the ball, winning the disposal count in four out of the five games. Their willingness to still hunt for the footy and their effort to grind to victory has been the key to their success in the last two weeks.

I am intrigued to see how West Adelaide go against North Adelaide's Campbell Combe, who is second in the league for clearances. It is going to be a matter of who can keep the pressure up and continue to strive and win the footy will claim the four points on Sunday.

The Last time West Adelaide defeated North at Prospect was way back in Round 12 in 2016 and will be looking to break that drought. I think the Roosters will be too good however and will be back on the winner list with a three-goal win.

North Adelaide by 13-24 points.

Has Port Power Lost Belief in itself?

Port are not called Port Collingwood or Collingwood Power their name is Port Power. There has been a lot of fuss made in the past week about a prison bar guernsey design. The Port club song has the words "silver teal and black and white" in it so why would a successful club like Port Power want to wear another clubs guernsey. Love the team or hate the team it really doesn't matter either way you can ignore the fact that they have been a success story. Port in their 24 years in the competition already have won 1 premierships and been minor premiers 3 times.

by
Matthew Anderson

Collingwood is a highly successful club and lots of their fans wear their club guernsey to show their support for a club they look up to and admire. Port Power wants to wear the Collingwood guernsey for when they play the Adelaide Crows. The question needs to be asked why.

Firstly lets clarify one thing when Port entered the Afl they agreed on colour of the guernsey at the time and that was not the "prison bar" colours and design of Collingwood Therefore it seems strange that when they play their home state rival they don't want to wear their guernsey remembering they have won a premierships in it instead they want to wear one from another club. Maybe it is because Collingwood have a far better head to head record against Adelaide Crows than Port does?

Then there is Collingwood it seems strange the way they reacted when Port requested to use their guernsey. There is really no reason for a request like that to upset Collingwood in anyway for two reasons The first obviously the AFL wont allow it and rightly so. The second is by Port basically wanting to copy the guernsey of another club for the showdown it could be seen as Port Power paying Collingwood a compliment by choosing to wear that guernsey instead of their own.

The guernsey doesn't make the club the players do and the question could be asked did Port Power wanting to wear the "prison bar" guernsey for showdown this week and the Afl saying no cause them to loose focus on the weekend when they were comprehensively outplayed by Brisbane in every aspect of the game.

The players make the club proud strong and successful and the guernsey they wear just helps pay the bills through the sponsorship logos they wear on it.

It really is time to move on and all clubs should wear their own guernsey and be proud to wear it and represent their club in it. There have been some amazing games of football this season so far some incredible marks and goals. That's what the game is all about isn't it? That should be the headline and picture in the paper and in the news and not what guernsey a club does or doesn't want to wear for a particular match.

It really is a bit of a sad inditement, on the game of football that an disagreement between 2 clubs over a guernsey makes headlines instead of the game itself. It is time for Port to stop getting distracted and regain it's focus and work on what the game is really all about Winning Premierships

Buddy May Be The Final AFL Player To Kick 1000 Goals... Ever

Five players in VFL/AFL history have ever kicked 1000 goals, they are Tony Locket (1360), Gordon Coventry (1299), Jason Dunstall (1254) and Doug Wade (1057). There is only one man who can realistically add to the list, Lance Franklin who currently sits on 955 goals since his debut in 2005, is just 45 away from that rare four-figure. 'Buddy' is certainly the only player who can realistically reach 1000, with Richmond's Jack Reiwoldt (684), West Coast's Josh Kennedy (661) and Tom Hawkins (617) all in the twilights of their careers.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

After playing just ten games in 2019 and missing the entire of the 2020 season, many were questioning whether the 34 year old would run out his enormous nine-year $10 million contract, which expires at the end of next season. Returning to Sydney's senior side in Round 2, he has shown he still has that goal-sense that has made him the greatest forward of the modern generation. Scoring three against Adelaide, three against Essendon and then his first big return to form with five majors and the Brett Kirk medal in a close loss to arch-rivals Greater Western Sydney. Unfortunately, though, he has missed the past two games with bone bruising on his right knee sustained in the Sydney Derby, but has trained well since and despite being expected to miss several weeks, is even a chance to play this week against the undefeated Melbourne.

With 14 games (plus potentially finals) to come for the Swans (and Buddy), he would need to average three goals this season (with the assumption he plays all 14 games) to reach that special 1000 mark in 2021, which is certainly achievable if his body is kind to him. If not, he still has next year to get there, even at 35 years of age. The new standing on the mark rule has led to more attacking gameplay, higher scores, and a chance for forwards to make more of an impact in a scoring sense. This will assist Lance Franklin, who can kick from long distances off one or two steps, his biggest strength has always been just that, putting the ball through the big sticks and find scoring opportunities for others.

If he does get there, it is highly possible he will be the final player in Australian football history to do it. The game is now becoming more about stamina, endurance, and athleticism. Gone are the days where full forwards are there to simply take marks and score, they are expected to run up the ground to draw key defenders out of the 50-metre arc and at times, even act as a second-ruck option. If a player hypothetically plays 300 games, they will need to average at least 3-4 goals every game as a minimum to reach 1000 by that stage... a tough ask indeed.

Lance Franklin has had the unique ability to play both roles, his selfless acts in the 2008 and 2013 Grand Finals for Hawthorn to push up the ground, confuse opposition defences and draw himself out of the game to produce the overall result of premiership success shows not only is he the elite goal kicker of the 21st century, but a team man too. While he may not have achieved the ultimate success from two attempts in Sydney, he has left nothing in the tank.

45 goals may be hard for some, but Buddy has scored more than that in 12 of his 16 seasons in the competition, so unless a horrible set of circumstances including freak injury or extreme suspension... the football world will see its sixth and possibly final 1000 goal scorer.

TEAM TALK with JORDAN

That Elusive Flag

Over the past number of years, intrigue has increased around Lance “Buddy” Franklin’s huge move from Hawthorn to Sydney on a record 9-year deal worth roughly a million a year. Many would say that Franklin’s career at Sydney has been a failure due to the fact that he hasn’t won a flag with them. Many others have said that he’s only gotten better, and his individual resume has propelled him well into the conversation of one of if not the game’s greatest player. Franklin however, still one won two premierships with his old club so measuring his success at Sydney can only go so far because will always say “well at least he’s won a flag”. There have been many players who have been hailed as some of the greatest players of all time but have never won a premiership. Players such as Nick Riewoldt, Patrick Dangerfield, Nathan Buckley, Matthew Pavlich and Robert Harvey just to name a few. All of these players have an amazing list of accolades with multiple times All-Australians, Brownlow’s and even Norm Smith’s with Nathan Buckley famously winning the award in the 2002 Grand Final where he captained Collingwood to a heartbreaking loss to Brisbane.

Jordan Sennett Perez

There is often the conclusion that these players are almost underrated in a way when comparing them to a player who might not be as gifted as a footballer but is incomparable when it comes to winning premierships. Take Luke Hodge for example, a stalwart of the Hawthorn Football Club one of the best players the game has seen especially when it comes to finals. His resume speaks for itself, 2 Norm Smith medals, 4 premierships and 3 of them as captain. That aside and looking at him as just a pure footballer, Hodge does not come close to someone like Robert Harvey. Harvey, with back-to-back Brownlow’s, 8 All-Australians and a number of other individual awards, but no premierships, not a single one. The only time Harvey came close to winning a flag was in 1997 against the Adelaide Crows in which his team (St Kilda) lost after leading for most of the afternoon. He then came agonisingly close in 3 losing preliminary finals before retiring at the conclusion of the 2008 season. Nathan Buckley and Nick Riewoldt both played in successive losing Grand Finals and both were captains of their respective teams. Both were phenomenal players in their own right but at times get overlooked when in the conversation of the game’s greatest players that of course includes premierships. Luck does play a part too like a player such as Joel Selwood who has evolved into a fine player and one of the best of the modern era but has also been fortunate to play in a team which has regularly challenged for the premiership and by just his fourth year of playing, he had already played in 3 consecutive grand finals winning 2. The question mark will forever hang over players listed above as the big zero in the list of premierships won unfortunately outweighs all of their individual achievements. Many of them have said that they would trade all of their awards for a flag just one, just to experience what it’s like actually winning a premiership. That being said premierships should not be the only way to measure if a player is good or not. Footy is a cruel and tough game though and winning premierships is that much harder.

The power of youth

Currently in the AFL, we are witnessing a significant change, a change in the classical players that have had all of us footy enthusiasts/spectators stranded on our couches and glued to our television screens. The great players of the last 10-15 AFL seasons are unfortunately becoming seasoned in age and gained wisdom as they are passing on the torch to young guns who have risen.

by
William Clemente

It is an exciting time for football as we are weathering a transitional phase, we are getting a small taste and preview into what our great game could look like in the future. The past couple of seasons have seen the empathic entrances and births of exciting young talents; for example, Matt Rowell, Max King, Zak Butters, Sam Walsh and Bailey Smith, to name a few.

The past 10-15 seasons has seen the AFL be dominated by some of the greatest players to step on a football field such as Gary Ablett Jnr, Lance Franklin, Patrick Dangerfield, Scott Pendlebury, Dustin Martin and Nat Fyfe. Players such as Ablett Jnr have hung up their boots, but the other great veterans mentioned are entering the twilight periods of their illustrious careers. These players are still considered the peak level that are currently existing in the game as they are still inputting great influence for their teams. However, they are playing the roles of veterans as they are taking a back seat, guiding the kids and letting them lead the way

Many clubs in the AFL are beginning transitional phases in their squad developments and some clubs are extremely benefiting but others are yet to reap rewards. Port Adelaide are a prime example of a current top performing club who are embracing the power of youth. They possess great young talents such as Zak Butters, Conor Rozee and Xavier Duursma as they are fielding 12 players between the ages of 18-21. Port Adelaide are certainly one of the favourites to conquer the flag and their embracement of young talents, nursed by star veterans such as Travis Boak and Robbie Gray is benefitting the club in the present and will continue to benefit them in the future.

The Gold Coast Suns, who are still young to the competition are continuing their approach of grooming young players. The Suns contain several young talents in their camp such as Matt Rowell, Izak Rankine, Ben King and Jack Lakosius; 18 players listed between the ages of 18-21 and the youngest squad age average of 23.7 years. The Adelaide Crows who are currently conducting a rebuild are looking to the stars of tomorrow with the youngest squad age average also of 23.7. Adelaide's emerging players such as Lachie Scholl, Jordan Butts and newly introduced Riley Thilthorpe are being mentored by Adelaide veterans Taylor Walker, Rory Sloane and Daniel Tahlia.

All clubs in the AFL are possessing young exciting talents who will bring our great game forward, and clubs such as Port Adelaide, Gold Coast and Adelaide are primarily forming their squads with youth who are being guided by senior veterans. Geelong has the oldest list in the AFL with the average squad age of 25.3 are not embracing youth to build a future legacy. With pre-season recruits of Jeremy Cameroon, Isaac Smith and Shaun Higgins, it illustrates that Geelong are preparing for the present and not the future. They must bring a flag to Kadinia Park in the next couple of seasons to make it worthwhile.

It is a transitional phase for the AFL. We are beginning to farewell some of the great footy entertainers of the past decade. Several clubs are loading their squads with youthful talent and their senior veterans are guiding them in the right direction. Without a shred of doubt, the young talents we are currently witnessing will birth a new and exciting era of Australia's game.
