Irresistible to Crabs!

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT...
HERE'S WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY!

I've used many fish oil additives in my burley mixes over the years and this one is the best by far. Irrespective of tide movement or bite times it stimulates the fish into a feeding frenzy and provides a superior catch in record time, every time. Can't recommend these products enough - I'm truly impressed!

PETER C., SOUTH AUSTRALIA

This little oil is liquid gold! Since changing from tuna oil I've been catching more and I use it for everything now, hooks, reels, sinkers & my boat trailer. ALEX M., QUEENSLAND

Just had a nice trip away, garfish went nuts using the oil, we cleaned up. Quite impressive we had them swimming around our legs using the oil they were quite keen on it! SHANE, FISHINGSA MAGAZINE

We had great results over the 2 days we bagged out on whiting on both boats on day one but also caught Travally sweep salmon and Squid which were our target species. Day 2 was a dodge tide so not best conditions for fishing, but we did get whiting and more squid on that day. We did a test and between 2 boats over same reef structure one used the oil the other didn't and both had their own berley stream and the boat using the oil in the berley and bait did get more fish in far shorter time. Great weekend lots of fish and we all say Thank you! ANTHONY & THE BOYS, PT. VIC

Carlton v Adelaide

This game is on June 26th at Marvel Stadium after bye

Adelaide stun the Saints

Riley Thilthorpe was the hero as his last-minute goal sealed an amazing come from behind victory for Adelaide over St Kilda in Cairns last Saturday night. If I had said before the game a total of 17 goals would be kicked by both teams combined it would sound like a boring encounter, but the match turned out to be anything but.

by
Liam Sheedy

After a disappointing performance against Collingwood the previous week the Crows started the game awfully and failed to register a score in the opening term. The second quarter was not much better but with the half-time margin only 30 points you felt Adelaide was still in the contest against a brittle St Kilda outfit.

The Crows showed plenty of fight after the main break and by three quarter time the margin was under three goals. The Crows dominated the final term and you felt it was a matter of when not if they would take the lead dominating contested possessions, clearances and 15 more inside 50s in the final quarter before running out six-point victors. The usual suspects for Adelaide got plenty of the ball with Ben Keys, Rory Laird and Paul Seedsman all getting over 30 touches.

Riley Thilthorpe was the pick of the forwards with three goals and this performance was rewarded with a deserved Rising Star nomination. The match again gave us a glimpse of the best and worse from Adelaide, but you can see the Crows are trending in the right direction, already with two more wins than the entire 2020 season.

The big talking point out of the game however is not the result, but the contest between David Mackay & Hunter Clark in the second quarter that saw the Saint suffer a broken jaw. The incident has been sent directly to the tribunal with the footy world split on what the punishment if anything should be for Mackay.

The head needs to be protected and dangerous tackles and king hits are not tolerated but in a collision sport you sometimes get unfortunate outcomes in a split second when two opposing players are going for the ball. A suspension will have huge ramifications on the game and will certainly have players thinking twice about attacking the ball in a contested situation.

Gold Coast v Port Adelaide

Jezza and Tommahawk too powerful

Gun Greater Western Sydney recruit Jeremy Cameron's three final quarter goals gave his Geelong Cats the impetus it needed as the 2020 Grand Finalists ran out 17.10 (112) to 14.7 (91) winners against Port Adelaide Power at Adelaide Oval. Cameron finished with five goals while his key forward teammate Tom Hawkins was equally as effective with four and Gary Rowan was another aerial threat with three majors.

by Nick Kossatch

Hosts Port twice looked like it could get a much-needed win against a top four side but turnovers and its inability to match Geelong's overall consistency haunted the Power. Connor Rozee kick-started Port with four first-quarter goals as the Power played its trademark run-and-gun style that kept the Cats' defence guessing.

Rozee ended with five goals and key forward Charlie Dixon (four goals) both found form for Port as the hosts skipped to a 21-point lead courtesy of a miracle Kane Farrell checkside early in the second quarter. This was the first opportunity that Port Adelaide had failed to capitalise.

Geelong rallied to boot the next four goals and get a narrow lead at half time. The swinging momentum continued when the hosts took a 10-point lead early in the final quarter. Ollie Wines, so good all night yet again, stood up to a tackle to snap truly and Rozee booted his fifth before the Cats started to purr. Cameron outmarked Port's defenders after reacting the quickest to a rushed Shaun Higgins kick and when Hawkins gleefully ran into an open goal, Geelong were never going to let go of this possible top-four defining match. It's a case of so close but so far when it comes to getting it done (or not) against elite opponents.

"It's the same information: we're good but we're not good enough against the best teams in the competition," Hinkley said. "We're not going to hide from that.

"Right now, we're not good enough against them. We're good enough to challenge them and get really close.

"Right here and now, we're just a little bit off those teams. It doesn't mean we'll be off them at the end but we're off them at the moment." Port meet Gold Coast Suns this Saturday in a tricky game at Metricon Stadium.

Bloods in the Doghouse

It is the battle of the wooden spoon this week as West Adelaide will travel down to the kennel to take on the Central Districts this Saturday. Both teams are fresh as they come off a weeks bye, which will make for a mouth watering contest for spectators. Although both sides have only mustered two wins in the season, they can both play challenging brands of football. As the old Cervantese proverb explains, "the proof is in the pudding", hence these sides have had their respective upsets against Norwood and North Adelaide. Therefore, despite their deceiving 2 and 7 win-loss ratio this will be the game of the round.

by
Wilson McShane

For Blood's fans the season thus far has been grim. They are yet to generate a consistent patch of form, as their last six weeks have consisted of four losses, two wins. What would be concerning for West Adelaide coach, Brad Gotch is the style in which they have lost the last 4 weeks. 68, 100 and 29. These are concerning losing margins of the Bloods in rounds 6-8. The aberration to their form in the past weeks was that of round 9, when they were narrowly defeated by South Adelaide in a blockbuster finish, losing by an agonising three points. If they are to play finals, their current win-loss ratio needs to flip. A major area of improvement which has enabled opposition teams to dominate the red and black has been uncontested marking. Through West Adelaide's key targets such as Thomas Keough, Jonothan Beech and Mitchell Duval, the Bloods have been very competitive in contested ariel situations. However, a reoccurring component of their game, has been their inability to take marks around the ground. In a recent match against Port Adelaide, the Bloods doubled the Powers contested marks fourteen to seven. Yet, they lost the collective mark count 126 to 97. This enables opposition sides to regulate the tempo and control the ball. Nevertheless, if West Adelaide can rectify this area of their game, their innate ability to dictate rebound 50's and gain control of the ball elsewhere makes them a colossal threat to the Dogs.

Conversely, Central Districts share the unwanted same win-loss ratio as West Adelaide. Similar to the Bloods, the Dogs are yet to get barking in 2021. One aspect of their game that could define the match is their astounding midfield numbers, as the Centrals midfield has not lost a clearance count since round 3. However, Dog's coach Paul Thomas will need more from this group, as this statistic has not correlated into offensive scores. Further, Paul Thomas will be hoping for his spearhead players; Aiden Grace, Kyle Presbury and Jarrod Schiller, to continue their prolific seasons. These players are respectively in the top 10 goals, disposals and clearances.

The last time these sides met in round 5 the red and black had the last laugh, cruising to a 24-point victory. During this game West Adelaide dictated the match, as they won every statistic excluding hit-outs, inside 50's and clearances. Throughout this game Centrals inaccurate kicking coupled with a poor second half saw the Bloods achieve the desired result.

In this week's match the Dog's will have the chance to redeem their misfortune. This will be an interesting battle and a defining round for both teams, as their finals hopes diminish with every loss.

In a game that could swing either way Central Districts greater consistency leans spectators in the direction of a Centrals victory, yet this game is a flip of the coin. Central Districts by 1-12

SANFL - Game Preview

Port Adelaide v Sturt

Alberton Oval - 2.10pm

Old Rivalries to produce a nail biter

When you think of Rivalries in the SANFL, you think of Norwood and Port, Norwood and Sturt or Glenelg and Port. However, there is one rivalry that can be considered underrated, and that is the rivalry between Port Adelaide and Sturt. These two sides have had their fair share of cracking matches between each other, facing off in 10 Grand finals. The height of this rivalry peaked in the mid-sixties when they played each other in four consecutive Grand Finals in that decade. The sixties were full of quality players and famous names for both sides, such as Brenton Adcock and Paul Bagshaw for the Double Blues as well as John Cahill and Geof Motley for the Magpies. Both sides also had Legends of the game coaching them, with Fos Williams the pulling the strings at Port and Jack Oatey barking instructions for Sturt. Moving to the current day, Magpies and Double Blues, they face each other this Sunday, with it being an important game for both sides.

by
Jayden Hill

The Magpies Unfortunately had their four-game winning streak broken last Saturday as the eagles defeated them by 68 points. Despite the loss, Port is fifth and even have a game in hand. Port was with the Eagles to half-time, with only one goal separating them at Half time. However, the wheels fell off the Magpies, and they only kicked one goal after half-time, where the Eagles kicked eleven. Jarrod Leinert was the best for the Magpies collecting 26 disposals and first best, pushing his claim for the AFL side. Astoundingly, The Magpies have won the hit-out count in every match this year, which is big thanks to 21-year-old Sam Hayes. Hayes has had a fantastic year so far, averaging 33.4 disposals per match and is second in the league for hit-outs with 301. Martin Frederick is also having a solid year averaging 19 disposals per match this season and has featured in the best players for three consecutive weeks. Before last weeks match, the Magpies had won every first quarter and would burst out of the blocks. Coach Matthew Lokan will be hoping is team can burst out of the blocks again this weekend and to push their claim for a finals birth with a win.

Sturt on the other hand, are coming off a close loss to the Adelaide Crows and sit eighth on the SANFL Ladder. The Double Blues couldn't put it all together on Saturday, and despite kicking the last four goals of the match, they couldn't get over the line. In sturts nine games this season, five of them have been decided by 10 points or less. Unfortunately for the Double Blues they have lost four out of those five games, but for coach Marty Mattner it's not all doom and gloom. The positive for coach Mattner is that the Double Blues have been in nearly every game this season and can compete with just about anyone. 20-Year-old Tom Lewis is second in the league for tackles with 89 and is having a great season so far. Luke Edmonds has also been a positive for the Double Blues, featuring in the best players six weeks in a row. Another positive for the Double Blues is that they have won the disposal count the last three weeks, which shows they have no trouble getting the footy. Coach Marty Mattner can produce an upset this weekend and muster up their third win of the season.

I think this will be a cracker of a match at Alberton on Sunday and will be a close affair. I think the Magpies will be too strong but don't discount the Double Blues. Magpies by 1-12

Giant Season of Mystery and Intrigue

The 2021 season seems like an extreme roller coaster ride for all teams. Some soaring unexpectedly high and some falling to great lows.

Melbourne who have in recent seasons been the 9th placed specialist until the weekend sat comfortably it appeared on the top of the table undefeated and expected to easily dispense with the out of form and lowly ranked Adelaide Crows. However, Melbourne who don't have a great interstate travel record found the young Crows too good and suffered their first defeat of the season and in so doing breathed life back into the Crows season who are now only one win out the eight. Melbourne currently look like a top four side and the Adelaide Crows possibly can sneak into the 8, Time will tell if both these sides are 2021 genuine finals contenders or not.

Fremantle who have been very inconsistent this season proved far too good for Sydney who early in the season looked like a strong contender to finish in the top 4. Both teams are improving but their unpredictable performances would raise doubts on their finals prospects.

Port Power expected to be a premiership contender only narrowly defeated a out of form under maned and wooden spoon contender in Collingwood. With that performance and failure to beat any top 8 side so far this season it would be extremely unlikely as we approach the half way point of the season will do anything more in the final series than make up a number in the top 8.

West Coast Eagles having struggled to beat the Crows convincingly two weeks ago had their wings clipped by an ever improving Giants side on the weekend. The Giants who have been a bit inconsistent this season to date again showed glimmer of hope that if they can play a consistently for the remainder of the season as they did on the weekend they may feature in September.

Geelong well what can you say they were true to form against bottom ranked sides for the first half of the game and looked like yet again the Gold Coast would be them. However, in the third quarter they brushed aside the Gold Coast and cruised to a comfortable victory and signaled that they will be a threat in September. The gold coast yet again as in many matches this season have shown what poor recruiting can do as the young playing group let again ran out of steam against a more experienced opponent. If they could recruit an experience couple of midfielders in the end of season draft they may have some home to avoid competing for the wooden spoon again in 2022 as this year they are a definite chance to win the unwanted position.

Richmond well their list isn't getting any younger and they have been a power house club in recent seasons with multiple Premierships but after another defeat on the weekend maybe they need to look at rebuilding and regrouping for 2022 season as they would appear to be on a down hill slide that all teams unfortunately go through after a period at the top.

Essendon were very impressive on the weekend and probably can sneak into the final eight and will greatly benefit from finals experience as they are a very young inexperienced but rapidly improving side. They would not however be expected to go very far into the finals this season as their young developing bodies as all young players do will start to fade out at the end of their first season at AFL level football. They look a serious contender for 2022 season.

The Western Bulldogs have been going well and had a huge win on the weekend but seriously any team that doesn't win by a margin similar to that or even greater against St Kilda is just a finals pretender and not a contender. Hawthorn and North Melbourne well they are in a competition this year with Collingwood and the Gold Coast to try to avoid the wooden spoon.

Brisbane is currently without their last season Brownlow Medalist in Lachie Neale. It has probably been a bonus for them as in the early part of the season they appeared to be to reliant on him and looking for him as a first and not necessarily the best option. Now they seem to be playing a very positive and effective style and look a genuine premiership contender. When Lachie Neale does return they will be a serious player in September

Ten rounds down and thirteen to go before the finals. The current top 8 nobody would have expected it to look anything like it does at the start of the season. There are sure to be more surprises to come as the teams improve and injuries take their toll. It would appear on exposed form so far this season that the puzzle of the predicting the final 8 and the Premiership winner of 2021 is anything but simple. However, the Giants with the return of Toby Green from injury later in the season it would be no surprise at all to see them win their first Premiership with their likely Grand Final opponent being the Brisbane Lions. Time will tell.

Costly Near Misses

The year 2005 was a new year for the crows, new coach, new system, essentially new everything. Gary Ayers had finished at the helm halfway through the 2004 season when he was told his contract would not be renewed for the following year. Neil Craig took over as caretaker for the remainder of the season and was then appointed as the next senior coach. The back-to-back premierships of 1997-1998 were long gone but weren't that long ago that they faded away into distant memory because there were still a handful of players left from those years such as Mark Ricciuto, Andrew McLeod, Simon Goodwin and Ben Hart just to name a few. 2005 saw Adelaide have their best home and away season in the history of the club, finishing 17-5 and winning the club's first ever minor premiership for finishing atop the ladder after the home-and-away season. The Crows had started promisingly after the disappointment of 2004 winning 4 of their first 6 matches, and gathered momentum as the season progressed, winning 10 matches in a row from rounds 13 to 22. The last of these was a stunning eight-point victory over premiership favourites West Coast at Subiaco Oval, in a match that saw them leapfrog the Eagles into top spot.

by
Jordan Sennett Perez

The Crows were brought crashing down to earth in their First Qualifying Final against fourth placed St Kilda at AAMI Stadium. In a tough, low-scoring contest Adelaide missed the leadership of captain Mark Ricciuto, suspended for striking Adam Selwood the previous week, and despite a late fightback they lost by 8 points. The loss set up a sudden death Semi Final against Port Adelaide, the reigning Premiers. The Crows regained Ricciuto, and in front of a crowd of 50,521 they defeated Port by a Showdown record margin of 83 points. As a result, Adelaide faced a Preliminary Final match against West Coast at Subiaco, where they had won just three weeks before. In another tough game in windy conditions, West Coast broke away with five goals to one in a decisive third quarter, and again a final-quarter comeback was in vain as the Eagles ended Adelaide's season, winning by 16 points. West Coast would then lose the Grand Final to Sydney the next week by just four points. Adelaide joined Essendon (1999) and Port Adelaide (2002 and 2003) as recent AFL minor premiers who had failed to make the Grand Final.

2006 saw the Crows start the season in dominant fashion. Narrow losses to West Coast in round 2 and Richmond in round 8 - the latter noted for Richmond's controversial but successful "keepings-off" tactics were the only blips in the radar as Adelaide stormed to a 14-2 win/loss record, with eight of those wins by 50 points or more. At this stage, their percentage of 172.38 was the best since West Coast in 1991. Adelaide then faded by losing 4 out of their next 6 matches but recovered and finished the season strongly to record 16 wins and 6 losses, thus finishing 2nd on the ladder only behind West Coast in first. They beat Fremantle comfortably at home in the qualifying final and would then face West Coast again in the preliminary final this time in Adelaide. Missing club stalwart and captain Mark Ricciuto to illness the Crows were still favoured to win and started brilliantly leading by 22 points at half-time. West Coast eventually clawed their way back largely due to their star-studded midfield led by Chris Judd, Ben Cousins, Daniel Kerr and Dean Cox and even led halfway through the last term before withstanding a late comeback to again break Adelaide hearts. The crows finishing their season disappointingly after promising so much. All in all, these two years/seasons in 2005 and 2006 was a massive chance missed for the Crows to secure their 3rd premiership. The club is still today looking to win that elusive third premiership. Whether it be bad luck, missing key players or just not turning up on the day, the Adelaide Crows have since their first two premierships seem to threaten without fully following and claiming another flag. 2017 saw the club finally make the grand final again only to go down to Richmond by 48 points. This premiership drought is an interesting and mysterious one that will continue to intrigue many people for years to come unless it is broken.

They may only sit third on the AFL ladder, still one and two games behind the Western Bulldogs and Melbourne respectively, but the Brisbane Lions are the in-form team of the competition. Seven wins in a row has more than made amends for their average 1-3 start to the season. The seven games has also come against quality opposition with Richmond, Port Adelaide and GWS all legitimate premierships contenders in 2021.

This Friday night, they meet the ladder-leading Demons in what promises to be a blockbuster match-up against the Demons this Friday, no matter where it will be played in this COVID-19 interrupted part of the season.

The Brisbane Lions are currently flying, with every part of the field well covered for. They boast one of the strongest midfields in the game, with Hugh McCluggage (25 possessions ave), Mitch Robinson (20 possessions ave), Jarryd Lyons (27 possessions ave) and Dayne Zorko (24 possessions ave) all wreaking havoc at the ball, then adding dual All-Australian and 2020 Brownlow Medallist Lachie Neale, who despite having injury and form issues in 2021, will be expected to return to full fitness comes the second half of the season, it's hard to see any midfield (including the Western Bulldogs) beating them in the middle. Their forward line is functioning superbly, currently the second highest scoring in the competition with 154 goals. The twin towers of Eric Hipwood and new-recruit Joe Daniher combining for 40 goals at the half-way point, along with another 30 between Charlie Cameron and Lincoln McCarthy. The options are aplenty for the Lions, and even if injuries in their forward-50 do occur, they have the likes of Thomas Berry, Keidan Coleman and Daniel McStay to fill the void. Their defence is also extremely tight, with Daniel Rich, Harris Andrews, Grant Birchall and Brandon Sarcevich in particular working well to concede under 85 points on seven occasions.

This is however, going to come with pressure as the Lions continue to roar into the second half of the season. Since coach Chris Fagan took the role ahead of the 2017 season, they won the wooden spoon in his first season, improved slightly to 15th in 2018 and then with the acquisition of key recruits, soared to second on the table in both 2019 and 2020. Unfortunately, though, they were unable to capitalise on home-ground advantage and lost three of four finals they have played in that time, all of which at the Gabba. With these previous two seasons of finals-failures, the pressure begins to mount. While there is certainly still plenty of time for the Lions to win a premiership, with Cameron Rayner (21), Eric Hipwood (23), Daniel McStay (25), Charlie Cameron (26), Lincoln McCarthy (27) and Lachie Neale (28), who all still have many years left in them, the issue isn't age, more-so the mental pressure to perform. The Lions are almost in the exact same position they were at the halfway point in 2019 and 2020, in the top four and looking strong.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

Let's suppose they finish in the top four come round 23, are they going to have the doubts of performing on the big stage? Will the semi and preliminary final defeats of '19 and '20 impact their ability to win a final? There are many occasions where clubs go through so-called 'periods of would-be dynasties'. Take Port Adelaide, they won the 2004 premiership, but very well could have won four in a row with failures in the 2001, 2002 and 2003 finals series. The Sydney Swans of 2012-2016 are another example, they won the big one in 2012 yet failed in creating a true dynasty. The preliminary final loss of 2013 and bridesmaids in the 2014 and 2016 Grand Finals stopped them from having a true period of overall domination.

Brisbane need reward for their on-field dominance, you make your name in the regular season, but make your fame in the finals. Brisbane are unfortunately yet to do that, but will 2021 be different?

Over-the-fence seed trading, online.

Greater choice

Refine your search and discover hard-to-source varieties.

More info, less effort

Stay on top of what's on offer in your area.

Pick your price

Compare costs, negotiate and find the best deals.

Trade with trust

Safer with independent testing and seller ratings.

Free to use

No listing fees.

There's a new way to buy and sell farm-saved wheat and barley seed.

Introducing Hannaford Farm Exchange, the platform that takes seed trading to the next level. It offers more opportunity than over-the-fence deals. With access to more farmers, you can sell and source varieties beyond your usual network. And it couldn't be easier to use – simply browse the listing in your area, or list what you have available, saving you the hassle of calling around. Plus, seed certification and other security measures ensure it's as reliable as it is straightforward.
