Adelaide Crows v Brisbane

Adelaide Oval - 12.00pm (Saturday)

Carlton gives Adelaide the Blues

by
Liam Sheedy

Carlton has given under siege David Teague a one-week reprieve from the media blowtorch with a 10- point victory over Adelaide at Marvel Stadium. The Crows started the game brightly but failed to capitalise on their early dominance kicking 2.6 to zip before two late goals to Carlton reduced the margin to six points at quarter time.

Darcy Fogarty kicked two goals in the opening term but disappointingly failed to register another score or have any impact after this. The second quarter could best be described as a disaster for Adelaide with Carlton kicking eight goals to take a commanding 28-point lead into the main break. Footy fans do not generally like to see opposition players performing well but an exception can be made for Eddie Betts.

The former Crow kicked three goals and was close to pulling off one of the marks of the year in the second term. Adelaide battled away in the second half and despite some late chances were not able to peg the margin back. The Blues will also feel they failed to make the most of their opportunities in the final term, booting five behinds with many of them very manageable shots but they did enough to hold on.

The Crows dominated clearances 38-22 but butchered the ball inside 50. Despite a mixed bag in front of goal Taylor Walker was the pick of the Adelaide forwards with three goals and nine score involvements. It seems a regular trend with Laird, Keys and Seedsman the major ball winners for Adelaide, but Sam Walsh was the dominant midfielder on the ground. This reflected in the Coaches' votes with the 20-year-old receiving a perfect ten. Matthew Nicks was able to take some positives out of the game but again lamented a poor quarter of footy that ultimately proved costly.

"It is pretty clear we lost our way in the second quarter. Our opponents were too good for that period of time and we weren't able to change the momentum of the game. "It's been a reasonably consistent issue for us throughout this year... our ability to limit damage when an opposition has their tails up"

Hawthorn v Port Adelaide

Marvel Stadium - 12.00pm (Saturday)

Amayesing win by Port

Travis Boak had seven touches to half-time and was well-tagged by Sydney Swans' stopper George Hewitt. But gun Port Adelaide Power midfielder Boak finished with 30 touches while medical sub Sam Mayes effectively booted the winning goal after the brilliant Lance Buddy Franklin had put the Swans ahead at a damp Adelaide Oval on Saturday night. Hauling Power ruckman Scott Lycett slotted the final goal of the game from a standing start as the hosts leapfrogged Geelong Cats into fourth spot in a thrilling 12.9 (81) to 10.11 (71) win. Port Adelaide did lead by 15 points at three-quarter-time and looked home and hosed. However, enter Buddy. He booted three goals which included a superb sliding goal when he warded off ex-team-mate Aliir Aliir to put the Swans in it.

by
Nick Kossatch

Emerging Todd Marshall marked strongly to give Port some breathing space before Buddy's brace of majors made the home crowd nervous with anxiety. The Power then showed the fabric in which coach Ken Hinkley wants his team to build on from to become a great one. Dan Houston marked in 'unknown territory' that led to the Mayes major and the Port side had several who starred in the fierce contest against a side that will feature in the finals. Ollie Wines did his Brownlow Medal chances no harm with another dominant display in midfield and Charlie Dixon played further up the field to take some strong marks. His two goals were crucial as well. Willem Drew was arguably Port's most consistent four-quarter player and he had eight tackles and clearances. Miles Bergman impressed again with his clean ball handling on a wing and Karl Amon continued his great season. There are a couple of injury concerns with Trent McKenzie who damaged a shoulder after he and impressive Will Hayward collided both going for the ball. Dixon also was hobbling after hurting an ankle but both players will be assessed during the week. Boak said the side showed character and that it was 'about time' that Port beat a quality and likely finals-bound team.

"We haven't beaten a top eight side this year I don't think," he told Fox Footy post-game. "We knew the pressure was on us and that it was going to be a great battle." Boak had 12 possessions in the championship quarter, the third, and he kicked a crucial goal. His efforts earned the praise of Melbourne Demon great Garry Lyon. "Champion. That's what champions do," he said. "They're never down for a whole game. They look at a disappointing half and go right I'll fix it ... that's why he's one of the most admired players in the competition." Hinkley commended his team's ability to stick to the process when challenged by a Buddy-inspired Swans. "There's no doubt it was slipping away a little and that was the quality of the opposition... but I thought our resilience was remarkable," Hinkley said after the game. "We've had an attitude to a squad mentality and right now we're stretching and testing that out a bit. "There was an opportunity out there to not keep at it but to our boys' credit they did keep at it. "We're 10-4 and I'm remarkably proud of the resilience of the team and the group that got tested all the way through and got the job done. "When they got a bit of momentum in the last quarter, our blokes found a way to get back to the front and win the game, and that was important." Port meet Hawthorn at the MCG this Saturday night that will also mark 400 AFL games (for Hawthorn and Port) for ex-Power premiership player Sean Burgoyne.

Norwood v Sturt

Coopers Stadium - 7:40pm

Redlegs to edge out Double Blues

Friday night football return to the parade this weekend, and what a match that is on offer. Norwood v Sturt promises to be a real finals shaping game with both sides coming off impressive wins last weekend.

Norwood were too strong for Central District. The Redlegs were always in control and ran out 30 point winners. The key to Norwood's victory was a five-goal opening quarter. Contrasting that was for the second week in a row, the bulldogs failed score a goal in the first quarter.

Cam Shenton and Xavier Tranfa kicked two goals each to be the only multiple goal scorers for the match. Magarey Medallist Mitch Grigg helped himself to 20 disposals in tricky conditions. Declan Hamilton's tackling was a highlight with seven.

It was an important win for Norwood who have put together back to back victories and helps cement their place in the final five. With seven minor round matches remaining, Norwood are equal on points with second and third placed Eagles and Panthers. And four points ahead of fifth placed North Adelaide and Port Adelaide.

Looking ahead at Norwood's draw, after this week's game against Sturt, Norwood will travel to Alberton to play Port and will then face the Eagles at Coopers Stadium.

Sturt upset the highly fancied Panthers at Unley last round. A very strong performance from the double blues keeps them in touch with the final five.

Despite conceding more scoring shots, Sturt's accuracy in front of goal was a real highlight in difficult conditions. To restrict the Panthers to two goals in the first half whilst kicking six of their own was very impressive. Abe Davis and Adam Trenorden were the only multiple goal scorers.

Casey Voss (son of former Brisbane Lions hero Michael) was busy all day with 21 touches. Despite South Adelaide having more possessions overall, Sturt were more efficient when moving the ball forward.

It was a great way to say goodbye to premiership forward Mark Evans who announced his retirement.

If Sturt at to make the final five, is starts with a win against the Redlegs. They are then due to face league leaders Glenelg and Central District in the next fortnight. There are no easy games and if Sturt can win two of their next three and gain momentum, they may scrape into finals Action.

Both sides last met back in round two and it was Norwood who managed the victory on that occasion. The margin was 21 points with Barry and Wagner both kicking two goals each for Norwood.

I am really looking forward to this game, it will be a real spectacle, I am tipping Norwood at home in a close one.

Tip: Norwood 1-12 points

SANFL - Game Preview

Glenelg v Adelaide

Ach Group Stadium - 1:10pm

Tiger Time

Adelaide will take on the undefeated Glenelg this weekend at ACH stadium. Glenelg come into this match as clear favorites as they have not put a foot wrong in season 2021, winning 11 games straight. Contrastingly, Adelaide have only mustered 4 wins from their 11 matches. It is therefore crucial that the crows defeat teams above them, if they wish to feature in the finals. Currently, Adelaide sits one win outside the top 5. However, for the Crows to make finals, they will likely need to generate a one-win buffer between them and the bottom 5, as they have the second worst percentage. This means this game is essential for Adelaide's path to September. Yet, Glenelg's sheer dominance of the SANFL this year indicates that they will not drop games against lesser sides.

by
Wilson McShane

As Adelaide approach the mammoth battle this week, the playing group will be quietly confident as they are arguably in their best form of the season, winning their last two matches. In these last two matches the Crows respectively defeated West Adelaide and Sturt. In Adelaide's most recent match against the Bloods, Adelaide visibly lost the statistics aspect. However, through their direct ball use they were the superior side. Further, Adelaide's intent to win the contested 50-50 ball was evident in this match. This was seen by their domination of contested marks 16-6, which ultimately enabled them to rebound out of defensive 50 and have several set shots, as opposed to goals on the run. This has been a staple of their game for quite some time, as their key targets in that of Frampton, Strachan and Worrell are regularly taking a high number of contested marks and providing targets across the ground. Thus, they have not lost a contest mark count since round seven.

Unfortunately for Crows fans, their last two matches have been an aberration to a dismal season. In Adelaide's previous four matches they have had lower disposals, marks, efficiency and clearances than the opposition. The most alarming of these statistics for coach Mick Godden, is arguably their lack of marks and disposals. This is largely because, they they can gain control through their contested marking ability, yet they are playing an easily defendable brand of football by kicking to contests as opposed to controlling the ball for large periods of time and spreading the ground. Moreover, their lack of disposals is concerning, as they cannot get their hands on the ball. This is pivotal against Glenelg as they are a high-pressure side, which means quick disposals are crucial in navigating through congestion.

In contrast, Glenelg have been a model of consistency. Arguably much of their dominance stems from their ascendancy in lower grades, as they are top in both reserves and U18's. This provides coach Brett Hand with a plethora of capable players at his disposal. While Adelaide is in good form, Glenelg have maintained an 11-game hot streak. This is largely attributed to their consistent performers of the three-pronged L attack consisting of Liam McBean, Luke Reynolds and Lachie Hosie, who have collectively kicked 74 goals between them. Such goal kicking power mixed with Brett Turner and Luke Partington's midfield efforts, have correlated to a successful Glenelg side.

Yet, it is important to recognise few teams can go undefeated in a season. As we delve through history, the 1972 Miama Dolphins or 1929 Collingwood sides, spring to mind. However, these teams are in isolation as most competitive sides cannot perform perfect seasons. Therefore, history indicates Glenelg are likely to lose before the end of the season. Unfortunately, for Adelaide fans, it will not be this week as Glenelg's cleanliness, coupled with their innate desire to win the football will likely overcome any Adelaide counterattack. Glenelg by 36-48.

SANFL - Game Preview

West Adelaide v North Adelaide

Hisense Stadium - 1:10pm

Roosters to have Blood(s) on their hands

Well, I spoke about how much of a danger game it was for Port Adelaide in their trip to Prospect Oval to face North. After an even first quarter, the onslaught began. The Roosters kicked 10 goals in a row, and it was near-on a half of footy played before Port could register just their fifth goal.

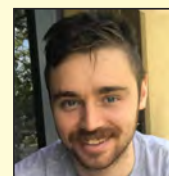

North dominated possession, taking fifty more marks over their opponent and cruising to a twelve-goal win with ruthless efficiency and accuracy. Defenders hit their rebounds, debutants hit their stride, and a dozen players hit the scoreboard. Young, old, and sundry got the job done for North Adelaide, with Andrew Moore and Aaron Young racking them up against their old side, as well as Harrison Wigg returning to the fore. Last season the Roosters had just four losses across the season before becoming runners-up. This season they had four losses by Round 5. I am sure they have a point to prove before they are neglected from September in 2021, and they sure as shit made that point last week. Their emphatic win reinstates them to the top five. They have the benefit of an easy run home, which, like it or not, starts with the Bloods this Saturday at Hisense Stadium.

North Adelaide will for the next month of footy play every team beneath them on the SANFL ladder, before playing Woodville-West, South and Norwood* in the final three rounds. Their win against West Adelaide at home back in Round 6 was only their second; at that point in time, the Bloods were above them on the ladder. It has been a tough two months since for West Adelaide.

Last week's game was a spirited fightback to lose by an eventual six goals to Adelaide. But they conceded five-and-a-half goals in a scoreless first quarter and had one goal to half time. They won enough of the ball, thereafter, did West Adelaide, with young Elliot Dunkin taking ten more touches than any of his crow opponents. They came closest to erasing their deficit at three quarter time, before four goals on-the-trot to the Crows iced the game once more. As is often the case, it has been a season of missed opportunities for the Bloods. They travelled to face Central Districts, failing to win that game before last, after the Bloods kept the Dogs scoreless themselves in the first quarter.

Before their week off, they got within a kick of second-placed South Adelaide, where Connor Fairlie could have been the hero for the Bloods in a rampant fourth quarter. He has not hit the big sticks since. Not many teammates have. They had 50% more clearances than the crows on the weekend, and ended up with fewer inside fifties, so their ball movement just ain't working. But in the weeks before last, the Bloods have had enough chances to score. If the Roosters let them have any, they've gotta take 'em. Otherwise, the Roosters will close their two-game deficit to the *best-of-the-rest, in the space of a month, just you watch.

I do not know where Stuart Taverner went last week in the ruck, after three games of increasingly good footy. The Bloods need to sort out their ruck selection, because fifteen hitouts will not win you a game of league footy. Not to mention that the Roosters are often well suited in that category. These two teams faced each other in the Reserves last week incidentally, and North Adelaide lead from start to finish. I predict the same result this weekend. North by 37-48 points

South Adelaide v Eagles

Flinders University Stadium - 1:35pm

Eagles to continue Noarlunga winning streak on Saturday

by
Jayden Hill

Last weekend of SANFL footy was another fascinating one with many walking points coming out of round 12. There were upsets and convincing wins, resulting in the unsettlement of the ladder. With six rounds of the minor-round season still to be played out, it is fair to say there could still be some shifting around on the ladder.

One team that was on the wrong end of an upset was South Adelaide who went down to the Double Blues at Peter Motley Oval Saturday afternoon. The third-placed Panthers fell 11 points short to the seventh-placed sturt in a match where many people would have expected them to win. If they had won that match, they would have been second and match in front of other teams. One of those teams they would have been in front of is the Eagles, and the Panthers host them this Saturday at Noarlunga.

South Adelaide is sitting third, with only a percentage separating them and the Eagles, an example of how tight the ladder is. Unfortunately, the Panthers are coming off a two-game losing streak as they lost to the Redlegs by nine points before the bye. Even though they are coming off two consecutive losses, they are still an impressive outfit and have played some great footy this season. Former Blue and Crow Bryce Gibbs is having a great season, averaging 27.5 disposals were march and is second in the league for disposals with 302. Bryce has had nine clearances the last two matches and is equal first in the league for clearances with 74. Joseph Haines is also having a great season so far, averaging 24.8 disposals per match and leading the league in the kicking count with 208 kicks. Haines has also featured in the best players for the last five matches. A positive for coach Jarrad wright is that they have won the disposal count the last two weeks, and they have no issues finding the football it is just making the most of it and converting to the scoreboard has been their downfall. In three of their last four matches, they have had more scoring shots than the opposition, and they will be looking to hit the scoreboard this weekend against the Eagles.

The Eagles are also coming off a loss as they went down to the undefeated Glenelg on Sunday at Maughan Thiem Kia oval. The Eagles were in the contest from the beginning and lead at half-time, and three-quarter time, being the only second team for the season to do so. They unfortunately could not withstand the Glenelg pressure, and the Bays overran them in the last quarter, kicking five goals to two. The Eagles won the disposal, hit out and clearance count on the weekend have won the disposal account for now sic consecutive weeks. Much like the Panthers, a positive for the Eagles is that they have been able to win the ball, it is just about making the most of it on the scoreboard. Talking about ball winners, James Tstias continued his fantastic season, collecting 34 disposals on the weekend. Tstias averages 29.4 disposals per match and leads the league in disposals with 323. Former AFL player Riley Knight is having a solid season averaging 25.5 disposals per match.

The last time these two clubs met was in a thriller where the panthers got up by eight points at Woodville. South Adelaide have not beaten the Eagles at Flinders University stadium for almost four years, with Eagles winning the last three matches there. I am looking forward to the battle of the leagues two best ball winners in Tstias and Gibbs go at it. I think the Eagles will bounce back and win a close one. Eagles by 1-12 points.

Central District v Port Adelaide

X Convenience Oval - 2:10pm

Dogs to bounce back against a bruised Port

Round 13 of the SANFL season heads to X Convenience Oval for a clash between Central District and Port Adelaide. Both sides sit outside of the top 5, however, a win for either side could see them very close to a finals position. Centrals are sitting in 9th and are coming off a disappointing loss to a quality Norwood side while Port Adelaide are 6th and had an even more disappointing loss to similarly matched North Adelaide.

by
Oliver Alyanak

The Bulldogs are coming off a 30-point loss to Norwood at Coopers Stadium in a game that was just about won in the first quarter. Norwood started very well and at quarter time had held Centrals to just 1 point and had kicked 5.2 themselves. The margin was under 3 goals at 3-quarter time, but again, Centrals were goalless for the quarter and Norwood kicked away to secure a quality win. The Bulldogs really should have been in this game for much longer and beat themselves for much of the game. They got the ball inside 50 ten more times than Norwood but just couldn't hit the scoreboard enough, and when they did, they couldn't find the goals. They ended up kicking 5.12 which didn't help their cause at all. Norwood dominated the clearances so it was a good effort to be able to generate the number of inside 50s that they did but they just couldn't deliver the ball to their forwards efficiently enough. It was a low disposal game with Travis Schiller leading the disposals for the game with just 22 and he was by far the best for Centrals as he racked up 8 tackles and 7 clearances as well. There were several forwards with one goal, however, Aiden Grace was the best and could have had a very good day, kicking 1.3.

Port Adelaide on the other hand were very poor against North Adelaide at Prospect Oval. North ran out 76-point winners against an undermanned Port Adelaide which had troubles across the ground. Strangely, Sam Mayes was pulled from the game in the second quarter and had to drive to Adelaide Oval to be the AFL medical sub after Hamish Hartlett came up sore in the warmup. With or without Mayes, however, Port were struggling and it was looking like a big North win from the outset. North dominated all the key areas and especially aurally where they had almost double the number of marks that Port had which allowed them to chip their way through Port's defence and create good looks inside 50. Due to Port's growing injury list, they only had 8 AFL listed players on the field and of those Riley Bonner and Boyd Woodcock were the best. Bonner had 34 touches across half-back and will be looking for an AFL recall while Boyd Woodcock had 29 touches in a midfield role as he vies for that small forward position in the AFL side to replace Robbie Gray. Ethan Moore topped the Port goal kickers with 2 goals while Ollie Lord continues to improve with 1.2.

In recent years Port have had the wood over Centrals, winning 4 of the last 5 encounters. They last met in round 2 with Port winning by 17 points after a great comeback. Port went goalless in the first quarter and at half time were down by nearly 30 points, however, they held Centrals to one single behind for the entire second half and ran out comfortable winners in the end. Centrals may still have some bad memories from that performance, however, with Port's growing injury list and Centrals being back at home I sense a bit of an upset may be on the cards in this one.

Ando's Weekly Banter

There is no I in team

Carlton kept their finals hopes slim as they are alive on the weekend due mainly to a second quarter goal blitz. However, we Carlton impressive in their win over Adelaide Crows the answer is quite simple no they weren't. If anything they were very disappointing in their performance in the second half of the match.

by
Matthew Anderson

Adelaide lacked. Intensity, intent, they have lost by far greater margins this year but at least on those occasions you could not question their intent throughout the game. However, Sunday game was different their appeared flat.

Carlton had several great performances on the day and Eddie Betts performance in the first half was a major influence on the result of the match. Watching the game it was hard to determine what defender for Adelaide was meant to be standing Betts as he seemed to have plenty of space to work in and move around the forward line basically unchecked.

Time and time again whether it was an Adelaide free kick or a kick in after a Carlton score they Adelaide player having the kick had very limited options to pass to as there was rarely an Adelaide player moving or making a lead they were more like statues fixed in place making it easy for the Carlton players to intercept the pass.

Adelaide had three tall forwards and it could be said that they that combination didn't work and they they were too tall. However, when the deliver to the forward line was poor as they were more like half shots for goal and half an pass than a genuine attempt at either. There were lots of blind kicks and players trying to do too much rather than looking for the best team option.

Adelaide appeared to have no run, no system, they were out positioned and generally outplayed all over the ground. Carlton in the last 10 minutes of the second quarter owned the centre square as they turned on a goal blitz with very little pressure from the crows midfield they easily and quickly got the ball from the centre bounce to their forwards and scored far too easily.

Adelaide did have patches in the second half where they looked like they could have a chance but at boundary throw ins or bounces at stoppage if they did manage to win the tap there was rarely an Adelaide player at the fall of the ball.

It is one thing to have a bad day all teams do that but when it is lack of effort that beats you and not skill errors then there is a serious questions to be answered as to what went wrong and why

It would appear that Adelaide has a lot of work to do on team structure and playing effectively as a team before the weekend if they any hope of being competitive against Brisbane.

TEAM TALK with JORDAN

The Apple Isle Bid

Australian rules football has been played in Tasmania as long as the mainland states with the first clubs formed in the early 1860s. The state hosted the national football carnival in 1924, 1947 and 1966. In 1960, the Tasmanian state side defeated a Victorian state side made up from some of the best players from the Victorian Football League.

by
Jordan Sennett Perez

On 24 June 1990, Tasmania's state team defeated the Victorian state team in front of a full house at North Hobart Oval fuelling the first calls for the state to house its own AFL team. Colin Alexander kicked 4 goals for Tasmania during the match. In 1991, Fitzroy played three games in Tasmania.

In 1992 Roger Curtis, then president of successful Tasmanian State League side Clarence, flagged the inevitable decline of Tasmanian football without the presence of its own AFL side. Curtis said that "The only way to get the kids playing football here is to give them access to the best product available and that, of course, is AFL football... You would have to call the side 'Tasmania' as fans simply won't follow a relocated side with its traditional name, even if it was Collingwood". In April 1994 the Tasmanian Sports Minister, Peter Hodgman, spoke to the AFL about the possible introduction of a local team to the league and had raised the possibility of state funding.

Between 1994 and 1997 the bid was prepared for a Tasmanian team that involved the construction of a 30,000-capacity stadium at the Hobart Showgrounds in Glenorchy, at the cost of approximately $30 million. The AFL's continued rejection of the Tasmanian AFL team has raised significant controversy, with the Government of Australia launching a Senate inquiry in 2008 which AFL Commission CEO Andrew Demetriou and chairman Mike Fitzpatrick both declined to attend. At the enquiry, Tasmanian senator Kerry O'Brien brought into question the AFL's commitment to the game in Tasmania, and stated that he believed that with continued neglect, the popularity of soccer could overtake Australian rules football in Tasmania. There are already more children playing soccer than Australian rules football in Tasmania.

The AFL argued that the New South Wales based participation numbers were in excess of that in Tasmania, furthering their argument that a team in Western Sydney was a higher priority. The Senate enquiry found that insurmountable cultural barriers would make such a move non-viable. Several media commentators have strongly speculated that the AFL Tasmania as somewhat of a soft target for relocation of struggling clubs particularly for Melbourne. Clubs such as North Melbourne and Gold Coast in recent years have been flagged to relocate but this would be quite disrespectful to the footy mad state of Tasmania as they deserve their own team as they have been playing football for as long as anyone else in the country. With the recent Covid 19 crisis significantly affecting the AFL financially, new Tasmanian premier Peter Gutwein has adopted a noticeably more aggressive stance on the need for an AFL club based in Tasmania and has said that now is the best opportunity for the state to be granted a license and that will not only help the AFL monetary wise but further make the competition truly national. This is long overdue; Tasmania arguably should've had a team in the AFL ages ago but the AFL have continuously poured money into non-traditional football states to varying degrees of success. They must reward a state that is as footy mad as anyone with their own team, the time is now.

Gray Powers On

Robbie Gray a true Champion of the game. Debuting for Port Power in 2007 on the weekend he played game number 250. Unfortunately although his team did the right thing in his milestone game and won convincingly his day was soured by a knee injury that will see him spend possibly the remainder of the home and away season watching from the stands.

by
Matthew Anderson

However, that in no way takes away anything from his incredible career. There are not a large number of players that reach 250 games in their career let alone all for the one club.

Reality is a play like Gray is every coaches dream a versatile forward that has a record that speaks for itself.

Club Best and fairest on 3 times
All Australian 4 times
Club leading goal kicker 2 times.
Coaches award winner

In the history of the Afl only 256 players have played 250 games or more for the one club and all on the list are some Great past and presents Champions of the game.

One of the greatest strength is his accuracy at kicking for goal and his ability to do that time and again when under huge pressure. There is more that one occasion when Gray has been in the unenviable position of lining up for goal when the final siren has sounded knowing that whether his team would win or loose the game depended on his kick. There is no player a team would rather have take the other the siren kick to win a match that Robbie Gray as he has done that now on more that one occasion to pull of remarkable victories for Port Power. This is a great testament to the his ability not only as a footballer but the manner in which he conducts himself when his team needs him the most.

Port Power v Crows showdowns have played 42 times and Gray has one the Showdown medal for best on ground no less that 5 times and 2 more than any other Showdown medal winner.

There is really only one thing missing from his outstanding career achievements and that is a Premiership medal and with the current form the Power is in by season end he could well be adding one to his already impressive medal collection. The thirty three year old is contracted until the end of the season but you would expect that it is merely a formality that he will play on for Port Power next season.

He is a great crowd draw card and every defenders who has the job of standing him worst nightmare. A truly outstanding player of AFL Football as he is one of those rare players that regardless of which team you support when you seem him in action you can be nothing but impressed by the way he plays.

ANXIETY

Anxiety is a business that is built around building awareness and support to people living with anxiety. Having anxiety himself, CJ knows what it is like to live with the unknown of when anxiety is going to creep up on you. He wanted to let people know that its not something to be afraid of and it is ok to talk about. Whether you're on the lookout for a new hoodie, t-shirt or hat stop by the store and browse our latest collections. 10% of profits go to support Beyond Blue.
