DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT... HERE'S WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY!

I've used many fish oil additives in my burley mixes over the years and this one is the best by far. Irrespective of tide movement or bite times it stimulates the fish into a feeding frenzy and provides a superior catch in record time, every time. Can't recommend these products enough - I'm truly impressed!

PETER C., SOUTH AUSTRALIA

This little oil is liquid gold! Since changing from tuna oil I've been catching more and I use it for everything now, hooks, reels, sinkers & my boat trailer. ALEX M., QUEENSLAND

We had great results over the 2 days we bagged out on whiting on both boats on day one but also caught Travally sweep salmon and Squid which were our target species. Day 2 was a dodge tide so not best conditions for fishing, but we did get whiting and more squid on that day. We did a test and between 2 boats over same reef structure one used the oil the other didn't and both had their own berley stream and the boat using the oil in the berley and bait did get more fish in far shorter time. Great weekend lots of fish and we all say Thank you! ANTHONY & THE BOYS, PT. VIC

Just had a nice trip away, garfish went nuts using the oil, we cleaned up. Quite impressive we had them swimming around our legs using the oil they were quite keen on it! SHANE, FISHINGSA MAGAZINE

Slick Dees too hot to handle

by
Liam Sheedy

After a spirited display against Port Adelaide the previous week the Adelaide Crows were faced with another tough task when they travelled to the MCG to take on Melbourne. The Demons had plenty to play for, a win would see them go top of the table while the Crows are looking to finish the 2021 season on a high note.

During the week it was announced club stalwarts Daniel Talia and Tom Lynch would not be offered new deals to play beyond this season. Talia has not featured at AFL level this year, but Tom Lynch has been an important contributor since his return to the senior side and was one of the best again on the weekend.

The Crows started the game impressively and had plenty of opportunities in the first quarter to put more scoreboard pressure on the Demons, but wayward kicking 1.6 to 3.3 saw Melbourne take a 9-point quarter time lead. Paul Seedsman was the star of the first quarter and was best for Adelaide finishing the game with a career high 36 touches and must surely come into All-Australian calculations.

By half time Melbourne had taken control of the game to lead by 21 points, but to Adelaide's credit they kicked four of the next five goals to bridge the margin to three points during the third term. From this moment on Melbourne re-established their dominance with Max Gawn and Christian Petracca in midfield while Bayley Fritsch finished with a career high seven goals as the Demons ran out 41-point victors.

Along with Seedsman and Lynch, Ben Keays, Rory Laird & Rory Sloane all got plenty of the ball and Darcy Fogarty finished with three goals, his best return since round 11. Matthew Nicks was positive after the game but felt like Déjà vu again with his team on the wrong side of the result.

"Unfortunately, we're not quite there at this point, we don't quite have the polish in our game and the ability to put scoreboard pressure on our opposition"

Yes Carlton were depleted and Port Adelaide Power were a Trent McKenzie (hamstring) off a full strength team but no-one could guess what was to come after the Blues skipped to a 23-point lead early in the second quarter at Adelaide Oval. After Hawthorn had upset the Western Bulldogs earlier in the day, it was like that message was sent to the Power players and that a top four spot could be locked in and even a top-two position up for grabs in the final home and away game. That incentive had hit the spot.

Port Adelaide kicked the next 19 goals to give Carlton the blues and more than likely coach David Teague the coaches' exit door sadly. The Power romped to a 95-win, 21.14 (140) to 5.15 (45), with Charlie Dixon (four goals) after an absorbing battle against Jacob Weitering, Robbie Gray with three, Mitch Georgiades, Todd Marshall, Orazio Fantasia and the classy Miles Bergman, all with two goals each. Marshall's brilliant left foot snap from deep in the forward pocket at the northern end of Adelaide Oval started the first of 19 majors in succession.

Carlton simply had no answers in club stalwart Marc Murphy's 300th and final game for the club. What had started so promising after the speedy and promising Josh Honey (two goals) snapped truly that gave Carlton that 23-point lead, had a nightmare finish for Murphy and most likely coach Teague. Fantasia, Gray, Connor Rozee, Zak Butters and Xavier Duursma are all hitting form at the right time as the Power prepare in a top-two defining clash against the Western Bulldogs this weekend.

Aliir Aliir was again brilliant as the intercepting defender he is making his own and 2020 All Australian Darcy Byrne-Jones is hitting his straps after an indifferent year thus far while Travis Boak and Ollie Wines, along with Karl Amon and Willem Drew all had plenty of the ball in midfield. The only blight to a superb twilight Saturday was a knee injury to ruckman Scott Lycett and Port coach Ken Hinkley took no chances.

"He was a bit sore and we were very mindful of that," Hinkley said. "At three-quarter time, we had that conversation. He said it wasn't perfect, but that it would be best if he didn't have to (play on). We took that out of his hands, to be fair to him. "It wasn't worth the risk and we didn't want to make him any sorer. We need to see how he pulls up tomorrow before we make any decisions around next week. When you're in that position, we didn't abuse the sub rule because he was certainly sore enough. "It was just the right thing to do at that time for us."

The Power mentor said it's a take it as it comes approach as Port negotiates in what will be a stern test against a Bulldogs side that has struggled of late but banked enough wins to be in the top-two running as well. "Whether it's top-two, top-one ... at the end of round 23, I'll look at the ladder and decide how we've gone through the year and recognise what the next challenge looks like," Hinkley said.

SANFL - Game Preview

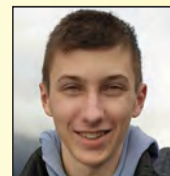

Port Adelaide v South Adelaide

Alberton Oval - 2.10pm

South secure finals with tight win at Alberton

Round 18 of the SANFL season kicks off at Alberton Oval with a clash between Port Adelaide and South Adelaide. Port is still a slight chance to make finals but are just about going to need a miracle to get there whereas a win for South will just about secure the Panthers a finals spot. Both sides are coming off losses and will be keen to bounce back.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Port Adelaide are coming off a 24-point loss to Sturt at Unley in a game that was almost over from half-way through the first quarter. Sturt kicked 4 goals to 1 in the first which set them up from the outset and ended up with a 40-point lead at half time. Port managed to come back somewhat in the last quarter but ultimately it was too much of a deficit to reel back so late in the game. Interestingly, Port was dominate in all the key indicators and the game probably should have been closer than it was. Port lead the clearances and inside 50s but couldn't convert as efficiently as the Double Blues which was costly. After being dropped to the SANFL to find form, Sam Powell-Pepper was massive recording 30 disposals, 1 goal and 10 clearances which will put him in the frame to play finals footy for the AFL side. Steven Motlop was also solid in his return to footy with 20 disposals. Jarrod Lienert was very good again with 33 disposals while Joel Garner continues to enjoy his move up forward with another 3-goal performance. For the second time this year, Jed McEntee played against the side that he started the season at and was good with 19 touches and 2 goals.

South Adelaide on-the-other-hand had an opportunity to lock up a top 5 spot and beat another contender in the process, however, they failed to do so and went down to North Adelaide by 58 points. The first half of the game was tight with only 8 points in it at half time. After that, however, North piled on the goals and kicked 10 to Souths 2 for the second half. One of the key indicators of the game was the fact that North had both more disposals and more tackles which shows that even though they had the lead they were still hungry for more and didn't want to let their foot off the gas. The inside 50s were very close but South just couldn't capitalise on their opportunities, especially in the second half. Joseph Haines and Bryce Gibbs put the Panthers on their backs for much of the game with Haines recording 40 disposals and Gibbs racking up 33 touches, 10 tackles and 2 goals.

Over the past few years these two sides have played in some blowouts with South managing to win 4 of the last 5 encounters. The most recent game was the closest and was played in round 3 where South got up by 9 points. Port lead on that day for the first 3 quarters until South turned up the gears in the last quarter and ran out winners. Tom Rockliff, who won't be a factor this week, played a great game with 41 disposals while Cam Sutcliffe had 29 disposals and 3 goals. For the Panthers, the usual suspects were among the votes with Bryce Gibbs and Matthew Broadbent having 25 and 28 disposals respectively. Both sides will be looking to bounce back after disappointing round 17 performances but expect South to have the edge and win a tight one.

Central District v Adelaide

X Convenience Oval - 2.10pm

Crows in the Dog House

by
Wilson McShane

Adelaide will take on Central Districts at X Convenience oval this weekend for round 18s clash between the two sides. As this season closes, neither teams will get to make a finals berth, as their inconsistent form has meant they have only won a collective 8 games between them. In a lackluster season, Central Districts sit one spot below Adelaide on the ladder in ninth. For the dogs their past 2 months have been something of a travesty, losing six straight games. In contrast, the Crows have won three of their last seven games. Although the Crows take superior form into the match, the SANFL season has taught viewers that it would be ill minded to ever dismiss a team, particularly the Dogs, who despite a poor year have been a premier team for quite some time. As a result, the match is poised to be a spectacle of two teams fighting to restore their status.

Central Districts will look to break their run of six straight losses this weekend. However, if they are to achieve this feat, Dogs coach Paul Thomas will need to rectify several fundamental areas which are of concern. One of the most alarming issues which the Dogs face is the number of inside 50's they concede. Since round 13 Central Districts have not won an inside 50 count. This has enabled opposition teams to stay in games, often despite Central's dominance around the ground, as the lack of quality inside 50's impedes their ability to score. Instead, opposition teams in these last 5 weeks have registered 52 more inside 50's, hence Central's have conceded 67 goals in this time. For Thomas to improve this area he will need to fix arguably the Dogs greatest weakness... the midfield. Over this five-week block, the Dogs have only had more clearances than the opposition once. This has correlated to a lack of inside 50's and ultimately an inability to apply scoreboard pressure.

These two concerning areas have also combined with Centrals poor marking. Since round 13 they have not had more marks than the opposition, at an alarming 154-mark differential. Subsequently, opposition teams have been able to control the play and spread the Dogs penetrable defense. In the Crows most recent loss, Woodville were able to out mark Adelaide. If Centrals can win this area and nullify the Crows marking, they will take a major stride to winning the game as this is a major strength of Adelaide.

While Adelaide are above Central Districts on the ladder, their form has also been very inconsistent. It has not been until Adelaide's past 7 games that they have generated quality form and been very competitive with premiership contenders. In Adelaide's loss to the Eagles last weekend, they were bullied in all areas of the ground, as they had only 24 inside 50's compared to Woodville's 62. If Centrals can win the ball in the middle through clearances, which neither side has been able to consistently achieve this season, they will likely win this game. Despite minor success over the past six matches, the Crows have had a relatively low inside 50 entry rate. This suggests that the Dogs back six will be challenged, as Crows forwards are making use of limited opportunities.

The last time these sides met, Adelaide had the last laugh boasting a 23-point victory on a home stage. Unfortunately for Crows fans, Central Districts will be very difficult to defeat in the kennel, however if they are able to reciprocate their last style of play by taking excessive marks they will win. Therefore, in a bottom of the table clash, Adelaide's superior form indicates they will achieve the desired result. Adelaide by 1-12 points

Amato's 5th Quarter

Who Will Be The Sixth 400-Gamer?

In what has been a difficult time for the game in the previous two weeks, with COVID-19 once again causing havoc on the AFL Season, it was a weekend of celebration for the great Shaun Burgoyne. On Saturday night, 'Silk' became the fifth player in the game's 163-year history to reach the 400-game milestone, and the first Indigenous player to notch the quadruple century.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

For just five players to reach this incredible achievement in almost two centuries goes to show what is required; a strong work ethic, dedication, resilience and a hint of good luck with health and injury along the way.

There are many players currently in the league who are somewhat within striking distance of the 400 game mark. However, with form issues, injury concerns and the possibilities of game-time and/or positions on lists being compromised in the future due to rebuilding and money-saving, some are more likely than others.

I have identified three players who are the most likely to reach that elusive 400 game milestone;

1. David Mundy

Current Games Played: 347

Games Required: 53

For so long many out of Perth would barely give David Mundy a mention, but now the Victorian-born midfielder is certainly up there as one of the finest footballers to ever come out of a Western Australian club. From his first season in 2005, Mundy has held an unquestionable position in Fremantle's best 22 and has rarely disappointed. A best and fairest in 2010 and All Australian in 2015, and a selection in Fremantle's 2013 Grand Final are among his greatest achievements on field. At the age of 35, the former captain is playing as well as ever, averaging 25 possessions, five clearances and four tackles, all of which are considered above average for AFL standard. For David Mundy to reach 400 games, he would need to play majority of this season's remaining games at least two more full seasons, a final or two would help boost those games up. It seems far-fetched, but if he continues at the rate he is now... why couldn't he?

Only seven games away from over taking Matthew Pavlich's club record for most games played.

2. Joel Selwood

Current Games Played: 325

Games Remaining: 75

The captain of the Geelong Football Club has been the epitome of hard work, dedication, and an unbelievable success rate. Since debuting in 2007, where he won the NAB Rising Star award, he has played in five Grand

Amato's 5th Quarter

Who Will Be The Sixth 400-Gamer?

Finals, won four Premierships, three best and fairest awards, six All Australians and four times the most courageous player, he has also only ever missed the finals on one occasion in 2015. Only once in his fifteen seasons has he played less than 20 games a year, he has been able to escape serious injury for so much of his career and has never been dropped.

by
Daniel Emilio Amato

However, Selwood's courage to go back with the flight of the ball and unflinchingly dive into packs has resulted in concussions and head injuries. His biggest strength is also his biggest weakness, and this is the only concern in not reaching 400. With Geelong's premiership window wide-open for the next few seasons and with Selwood form still certainly apt to remain in the side, he would certainly be expected to at least get very close.

For Joel Selwood to reach 400 games, he would need to play until at least another three seasons, playing at least 20 games every campaign. By that stage he would be 36 years old, if he stays injury free and avoids anymore concussion issues, there is absolutely no reason it cannot happen.

3. Dustin Martin

Games Played: 258

Games Remaining: 142

This one may, but should not, come as a surprise. While Dustin Martin still has at least six seasons plus a few finals required to reach 400, he has proven to be one of the most consistent and durable players we have seen... possibly ever.

Since debuting for the Tigers in 2010, Martin has never played less than 20 games in a season. From round one 2010, he has always been one of Richmond's most important players and a main stay in the midfield. He has avoided injury through most of his career and become one of the greatest players in the game's history. Three premierships, three Norm Smith Medals and a Brownlow Medal put him in the elite category in every sense. Football is his life, he loves the game of there does not seem to be any obvious reason why he would give the game up until he exhausts everything he has, and he still has many years to come with a lengthy contract not expiring until 2024, which would be expected to be extended.

For Dustin Martin to reach 400 games, he would need to play until at least 2027. At this stage he would be 36 years of age and I cannot see any reason why this is an unrealistic prospect. He is arguable in career best form, tearing up the midfield with his strength, ability to shake players of and that powerful, penetrating kick.

TEAM TALK with JORDAN

The Cattery

2007 was the year that Geelong became the powerhouse that they are known as today. After years of underachieving failing to become that powerful team that they always threatened to be they finally turned it around by not only having developed an ominous high attacking game style that wielded three premierships in five years, but they made their home ground Kardinia Park (it has had many different names over the years) the unbreakable fortress that many a team have now come to fear when they play there. In modern day football, every little bit counts, and the Cats have known that better than most teams. We all talk about fortresses when dominant teams seem even more powerful and even invincible on their home decks, but no team has ever had as pronounced a home ground advantage as Geelong has had at Kardinia Park. Footy pundits and critics have long since given up quoting the numbers, they've just accepted the fact that it's near on impossible to win there.

by
Jordan Sennett Perez

Before Geelong turned their fortunes around some 14 years ago, they famously lost a match to North Melbourne at Kardinia Park in what became the "line in the sand" moment for them. Not only was the playing group called into question but the club as a whole, culture administration, coaches all of it. They then destroyed an abysmal Richmond by 157 points at the Telstra Dome (now called Marvel Stadium) and from then have never ever looked back. As mentioned above, since then Geelong entered a golden era yielding three flags, playing in 5 grand finals and further 10 preliminary finals which is incredibly impressive. None of those games have been played at their home ground which is affectionately called "The Cattery" but it sure has played a major part in the club's consistent dominance over the competition. Since that loss to the Kangaroos in 2007 and as of the 2021 season, Geelong has played a total of 108 games at Kardinia Park. They've won an astonishing 97 of those, 97! Only 11 losses which is incredible, and their winning strike rate is 89.9%. The sheer key factors in the dominance that Geelong has there are teams that have relative unfamiliarity in which no visiting team ever playing there more than once per season and some of the bigger drawing Victorian clubs such as Hawthorn, Carlton and Richmond only playing there very occasionally, like once or twice in 12 years. The unique dimensions of the ground in my opinion play the biggest part.

Kardinia Park is only just the longest ground of any of the current AFL stadiums at 167 metres only a metre longer than Adelaide Oval, two metres more than Optus Stadium in Perth and five metres more than the MCG. It is significantly narrower than any of the other grounds however which is the most unique aspect of the grounds landscape. At just a measly 112 metres wing-to-wing, it is 27 metres skinnier than the MCG and that near 30 metres difference to the MCG is as good as one less kick for sides trying to switch the play side to side and make the ground bigger. It's no wonder teams have struggled and often have found themselves kicking the ball out on the full more than usual when they play at the cat's home ground. It's also Geelong's incredible defensive qualities that really shine through effectively smothering the opposition into turning it over and having all defensive lines covered effectively roadblocking half the ground. Considering how many teams have struggled there over the years, there are a few sides that boast somewhat of a half decent record there in recent times. Sydney has taken the cat scalp there 4 times in the last few years and had a 3-game winning streak there and Fremantle famously beat the cats in the first and only to date final played at the ground, the 2013 qualifying final, the dockers also beat them there again in 2015. For every other team it is the dreaded travel across there to face impending death. Of the 97 wins, 31 of those has been by a minimum of 10 goals and a further 8 has been by 100 points or more. Now that is some sort of dominance and it doesn't look like diminishing any time soon.

ANXIETY

Anxiety is a business that is built around building awareness and support to people living with anxiety. Having anxiety himself, CJ knows what it is like to live with the unknown of when anxiety is going to creep up on you. He wanted to let people know that its not something to be afraid of and it is ok to talk about. Whether you're on the lookout for a new hoodie, t-shirt or hat stop by the store and browse our latest collections. 10% of profits go to support Beyond Blue.
