2021 GRAND FINAL

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY KAYLA VOSS

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Dees, Bulldogs to battle for podium rights

That final day in September is just around the corner as the Melbourne Demons and the Western Bulldogs prepare for Saturday night in Perth.

Melbourne and the Bulldogs held no prisoners in their respective preliminary finals to book a spot in the 2021 AFL Grand Final.

It was a preliminary final weekend that spoke of fairy-tale finishes for two teams, while two others experienced a preliminary nightmare. The Demons smashed an experienced Geelong outfit at Optus Stadium, while the Bulldogs stunned an in-form Port Adelaide side in front of their home crowd.

Both sides will enjoy the two week break before the Grand Final to hit refresh and ensure any injury concerns are dealt with prior to team selection this week. Steven May injured his hamstring in the preliminary final against Geelong, while Melbourne's Charlie Spargo is taking it easy after injuring his ankle during a training session last week.

The Western Bulldogs seem fit and ready as Cody Weightman will return from concussion and Marcus Bontempelli appeared to have no problems in the preliminary final.

Although Melbourne have some players to manage to ensure their Grand Final selection, both sides should be set to name their best 22 players.

However, team selection is a heartbreaking moment for those players who miss out on experiencing that premiership feeling. Perhaps the most heartbreaking story of this year is Nathan Jones, after the long-time Dee was told he would not be considered for selection.

It's a story eerily similar to former Bulldog Bob Murphy in 2016 as the Bulldogs pulled off an epic premiership run. Nathan Jones gave his everything to the Melbourne Football Club and led the club in their darkest days. Now, Melbourne are on track to taking home the 2021 premiership cup, but Nathan Jones will never experience premiership glory.

On the other hand, the Bulldogs will go with an almost unchangeable side from their preliminary final demolition with the exception of dynamic youngster Cody Weightman. Luke Beveridge mentioned after their one-point thriller against the Lions that Weightman is an "irreplaceable player" with his versatility on the ground and in the air. No doubt Weightman is itching to play his role on Saturday evening after being forced to stay on the sidelines for the past few weeks.

The Western Bulldogs and the Melbourne Demons are chasing different fairy-tale endings, but it will be a captivating story either way.

2021 GRAND FINAL

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY KAYLA VOSS

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Dees, Bulldogs to battle for podium rights

Luke Beveridge has cleverly sold an ‘us versus them’ approach to motivate and inspire hunger for his players. The Bulldogs have arrived at the AFL Grand Final the hard way as a fifth spot at the end of the home and away season forced them to play every week of the finals. On top of that, the Bulldogs have quarantined, travelled state to state, and overcome unlikely hurdles to book their Grand Final spot.

by
Kayla Voss

Melbourne face a different fairy-tale possibility, but the story would be magnificent. A 57-year premiership drought looms over the Melbourne Football Club, and that drought could be over in a historic Grand Final win. The potential is there, but will the pressure of ending that drought be too much for the Demons?

The coaching staff of both sides had homework to do after Melbourne and the Bulldogs did not hold back in their preliminary final win. The midfield battle will be a priority focus for both sides, as each team’s midfield line-up sets up a fierce contest. Melbourne blew Geelong’s midfield out of the water in the prelim with Geelong conceding 101 points from clearances. Clayton Oliver, Christian Petracca and Max Gawn delivered a midfield masterclass and their uncontested clearance work was unstoppable.

Similarly, the Bulldogs worked Port Adelaide’s midfield beautifully and executed their stoppage work brilliantly. Jonathan Brown mentioned On The Couch that the Bulldogs “like to chain out by hands from stoppage” to create space out the back of the contest.

Melbourne must prevent the Bulldogs from taking them too high at stoppage and centre bounce’s. Otherwise, Melbourne run the risk of conceding easy goals from space deep in the Bulldog’s forward-50. However, if Melbourne play their brand of football the Bulldogs will have a difficult time of replicating their work in the prelim. Melbourne’s closing speed and pressure against Geelong in the prelim was exceptional and forced an experience side to crumble.

Melbourne and the Bulldogs are both in terrific form as the Grand Final approaches, and they should deliver an exciting contest. With the Brownlow Medal count tonight, the lead up to the Grand Final is getting under way and will create an air of excitement for players and fans.

Optus Stadium will light up on Saturday evening and no doubt prove a worthy stage for the AFL Grand Final. It’s the most exciting week of football for players, fans and staff entrenched in the game that is Australian Rules Football. While it is an exciting week for both teams, only one will experience the overwhelming thrill of a Grand Final win.

So, who will be crowned the 2021 AFL Premiers? Don’t miss out on the action for it should be an entertaining battle.

2021 GRAND FINAL

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY NICK KOSSATCH

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Bulldogs set to bite in an epic Western duel

While most pundits predicted a Melbourne Demons and Port Adelaide Power AFL Grand Final, hindsight says it was a pie in the sky. Reality struck the Power under the Adelaide Oval lights on Saturday as the Western Bulldogs defied 'all logic' to trounce the star-struck and nervous hosts.

It was an 'anomaly' for Port, but boy, what a game to get short-circuited. Reality and fact that the two best teams are in the decider at Perth's Optus Oval. The Dees pretty much were top from go to woe while the Doggies were second for all but the final match of the home and away season.

Port Adelaide added to its 'false positive' readings after a 'last-gasp' Robbie Gray set shot that sent the Dogs out of second spot in round 23. It was the Western Bulldogs' third loss on the trot, made worse, supposedly by the Brisbane Lions snaring fourth spot and the finals double-chance that same weekend. Bullies' coach Luke Beveridge galvanised the playing group.

There's no doubt he masked his concerned look from the players but portrayed it to the media, that of a mentor grasping at straws as to how he will give the Western Bulldogs yelp, a quality it was missing in the latter stages of the season.

'Bevo' listened to Kane Cornes' comments that the side will not make the Grand Final. 'Bevo' listened to the critics of Collingwood recruit Adam Treloar. The coach instilled motivation like no other ahead of the game against Essendon in the rain in Launceston, Tasmania. Tick woof!

On that first week of the AFL finals both Melbourne and Port registered predictable, if somewhat and surprisingly lop-sided results against Brisbane Lions and Geelong Cats. The Doggies made history as the winning side in Tasmania's first AFL finals hosting. A trip to the Lions' den beckoned and the Dogs were down and out mid-way into the third quarter.

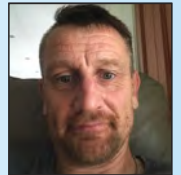

Enter the blue-eyed boy wonder with the blonde flowing mullet Bailey Smith. He pounced on a handball from another forward revelation Mitch Hannan to pierce through a left-footed goal and subsequent and iconic 'nerves of ice' pose.

While the Lions' Zak Bailey levelled scores with his own ripping goal moments later, the Western Bulldogs' 'them against us' ethos played to script when Laitham Vandermeer toe-poked a point to put his side ahead. Captain Marcus Bontempelli was injured late but Talor Duryea warded off Brisbane's dynamo Charlie Cameron and the game was won in one of the best finals games ever. Tick woof two!

'The Bont' was in some doubt for the 'mission impossible' task against the Power at Adelaide Oval.

Add to Cody Weightman's omission due to concussion he sustained when ex-Dog Marcus Adams got the young forward high. Then there was the hamstring strain at training to defensive key talisman Alex Keath in the week leading up to the preliminary final.

All the planets were lining up for the Power to qualify for the Grand Final for the first time since 2007. But someone forgot to tell Beveridge and his charges. There's no doubt he used all the South Australian pro-Port media mania to his and his team's advantage. The Western Bulldogs played with freedom against a side that had all the weight of Adelaide and the state on its shoulders.

2021 GRAND FINAL

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY NICK KOSSATCH

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Bulldogs set to bite in an epic Western duel

Just like in the first preliminary final, Melbourne Demons put Geelong to the sword by half-time. The Doggies had the Power players plagued with bite marks by the long break.

The midfields were worlds apart as Jack Macrae, Lachlan Hunter, Tom Liberatore, Smith (four goals) and company smashed Port's on-ball brigade at the coalface and on the spread.

Strategic moves by 'Bevo' included the introduction of experienced ruckman Stefan Martin into the fray. This freed up Tim English who did some nice things up forward that included the starting of the rot for the hosts when his deft handball found Smith for the opening goal.

Josh Schache was the other masterstroke by Beveridge. Schache was the roadblock that prevented Port's own defensive roadblock in Aliir Aliir from playing his intercept game. It worked a treat while Aaron 'Astro' Naughton terrorised Trent McKenzie and Port skipper Tom Jonas.

'The Bont' was always going to play and he did with 20 touches and two goals. So, hindsight says that there is justice and that's the two best teams going toe-to-toe in the west.

If the Doggies get up, it WILL be the best-ever grand final triumph by an AFL/VFL team. The Dees are hellbent to break a 57-year premiership drought.

Both teams are on one win each in their two home-and-away meetings. Keath and Weightman will return in a forward and defensive boost for the Western Bulldogs while Melbourne's key defender Steven May is expected to be fit to play after hamstring tightness saw him rested in the second half against the Cats.

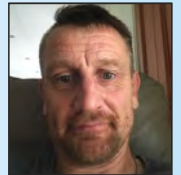

The two 'Italian Stallions' Bontempelli and Christian Petracca will face-off in a dynamic midfield duel. May may get Naughton though the unheralded Harrison Petty could get the gig on the athletic forward. It's a big game for Schache who'll be assigned to negate the Demons' defensive interceptor Jake Lever.

There's many wonderful match-ups and Duryea is likely to mind Melbourne's crafty forward Bailey Fritsch. Ed Langdon on Smith and Bulldogs Treloar on Angus Brayshaw on the wings. Martin and English will have to both play out of their skins to be on par against Max Gawn.

Gawn went the full 'Mad Max' against Geelong with five goals, four of which came in a breathtaking third quarter when Gawn was still stationed...as a ruckman!

Both teams know how to win coming from behind - the Dees against the Cats in round 23 and the Dogs against Lions in the semi-final. So who wins this one?

A draw is not out of the question and the Bullies will make most of its own fairytale ride to win it in the six-minute, split by two three-minute halves, overtime thriller. Schache to find a gap in Melbourne's defence to be at the end of a spearing Macrae pass and slot through the game-winner - point or goal. Western Bulldogs by 1-12 points

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY WILSON MCSHANE

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Dees to demolish premiership drought

The final dance has arrived this weekend in a consecutive COVID ruled season, between the Western Bulldogs and Melbourne. The battle of hunger versus experience will be something to remember, as these sides compete for silverware on Saturday. Prior to the preliminary finals Geelong and Port Adelaide supporters had one finger on the Qantas app ready to book flights to Perth. However, it was through the sheer desperation and hunger, that Melbourne and the Dogs cruised to 71- and 83-point victories, securing a deserving spot in the Grand Final. As such, the battle between these sides is poised to be scintillating as both teams enter in arguably season best form.

by
Wilson McShane

Despite lockdown in Victoria, COVID restrictions will not be enough to control the ecstasy of Doggies supporters as they will cover the streets of Footscray in red, white and blue. As the Dogs prepare for the biggest game of the year, they will be looking to defy controversial words of Kane Cornes, "they have cost themselves a premiership... it is one of the greatest chokes of all time." This will make Dees fans anxious, as the Dog's love challenging situations. In a COVID riddled season, where they were pipped out of the top 4 and lost their key forward to injury, one would think it impossible to win a grand final from such a position. Yet, this is what they thrive in. This is what coach Luke Beveridge live for... a scrap.

The Bulldogs midfield coupled with their defensive half have been the two key sources to their success. With the AFL's Rolls Royce, Bontempelli, the scrapper, Liberatore and beautiful left footer, Jack Macrae, the Dogs have swiftly transitioned the ball to their forward half. These players are in the top 10 for clearances and ranking points, and top 12 for contested possessions. Bontempelli and Macrae are also in the top 10 for inside 50s and disposals. Therefore, the contest will likely be won or lost in the middle as Melbourne's elite midfielders of Gawn, Oliver and Petracca also share very similar statistics, hence their collective Brownlow tally of 70 votes.

Moreover, Beveridge will be impressed with the strength of his defense. While the Dog's play a relatively shorter backline, they have quality ball users. In Hawthorn's peak between 2013-15, this was a major strength of theirs. Beveridge has cultivated this strategy as Daniel, Dale, Duryea and Wood are all phenomenal ball users. In the preliminary final the players collectively went at 75 per cent. In a final and the difficulty of their disposals, this is a very high number.

In contrast the Melbourne have been close to faultless this year. After winning their first 10 straight games of the season, analytics were skeptical whether they could maintain the same energy, throughout the remainder of the season. While they did lose games by the end, they are once again hitting season best form. In their finals thus far, they are yet to be challenged defeating Brisbane in a comfortable 33-point victory and Geelong by a whopping 83 points. Subsequently, this will be fascinating how Melbourne can react to a Dogs challenge.

What will be pleasing for coach Simon Goodwin is his defense. Melbourne play a consistent zone, which forces teams to kick the ball down the line. This works into their favor as Lever, May and Salem can easily shut the ball off. Subsequently, they are all in the leaderboard for intercept possessions racking up a total of 528. Similar to the Western Bulldogs, Melbourne's defensive powerhouse is coupled with their midfield strength as Oliver, Gawn and Petracca all possess a rare match winning ability. As a result, Melbourne's hunger to break a 56-year premiership drought will overwhelm a fighting Dogs outfit, despite a close game. Melbourne by 13-24 points

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY NICK BLEWETT

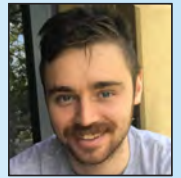

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Dogs to extend the Demons drought

I'm siding with the Dogs. Should they turn up on the day, they will make Melbourne's day hell. If Melbourne's Prelim Final was an arm wrestle, well fought and won, then the dogs' prelim was a sprint, and they were home at the half. They looked dangerous 10m either side of the 50-metre arc. 10 metres outside of it, and they'd centre the ball to athletic Naughton, bounding on a lead like a gazelle.

by
Nick Blewett

10 metres inside the 50, each time they broke the arc, the bulldogs backed themselves to kick for goal, and kick truly they did. Bailey Smith exemplified this with the minute match opener, plus a 55-metre bomb and a 25-metre soccer, both in the final quarter for the runaway winners. And they had a couple of beers afterwards. I saw a flareup of this in the press, with a short video of a boozy toast going viral earlier this fortnight. This was, I'm sure, a distraction for the team, and the fewer distractions they face, the better.

Melbourne have spent a month steadily brewing in their hotel room in WA, for a total of one match leading into their final. They were fresher for it against Geelong, and they will likely prepare well for the clubs second chance this millennium. The fact is that the Bulldogs have done it the hard way, slipping out of the top four after sitting pretty for the bulk of the season. While the Bombers were no match for the Bulldogs, and their electric start halted Port Adelaide, it's the match against Brisbane that earned the Western Bulldogs their twilight Grand Final in the West. The Lions had fifteen extra cracks at it inside fifty, and yet the Bulldogs prevailed by a behind. They chipped it forward, they shepherded it forward and they tapped it forward, the forward pockets proving a prolific scoring zone.

Adam Treloar and even Tim English ran the ball up the wings to get them there, Treloar involved in an incredible 13 score assists against the power. Thirteen. Melbourne went farther past the cats in their booming win the night before. Can they get their noses in front and hold steady at Optus Stadium? These teams have met twice this season, both games decided by four-to-five goals, and on both occasions, the victor jumped to top of the table. It's a podium they'll jump on this time. Two months ago, the Bulldogs' fast start allowed them to hold off a fast-finishing Melbourne. It was pissing down with rain that day; the forecast for Saturday's final calls for 'glorious sunshine'. Josh Schache was a surprise inclusion that game, cleverly deployed down back to defend everyone from Luke Jackson to Tom McDonald and Ben Brown, before becoming a nuisance for Port up forward last week. Jackson is chipping in well as shadow ruck, each of his twelve hitouts one less for the gargantuan Gawn to get while roving his incredible five goal haul.

Martin and English share the ruck duties evenly and the Bulldogs will need the duo to produce David against the Goliath that is Captain Max Gawn. Captain Bontempelli, club champion in Premiership year 2016, enjoyed a rare night at the Brownlow Medal count last night, runner up with a stack of votes some 50% bigger than previously (in 2019). The umpires think 'the bont' is at his best and I must agree. Many of the Dogs are at their premiership-winning best, and 2016 accounts for half of last week's starters. Melbourne's rise has been unheralded for a decade however, and they could just as easily be crowned the winners. The Dogs by a whisker. Western Bulldogs by 1-12 points

2021 GRAND FINAL

MELBOURNE v WESTERN BULLDOGS

BY WILLIAM CLEMENTE

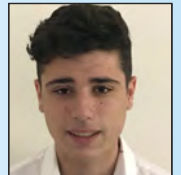

Melbourne v Western Bulldogs

Optus Stadium - 5.15pm (Saturday)

Dees to break their long premiership drought

It has been another AFL season that has been consistently interrupted by the realities of a pandemic. However, nevertheless; this season has been filled with non-stop entertainment and quality football from all 18 outfits in the competition. It has come to an encapsulating climax as the two best clubs of this season's competition will battle it out for the premiership at Perth's Optus Stadium, which will inaugurally host footy's biggest day. The Melbourne Demons will clash against the Western Bulldogs under lights in what will be one of the finest Grand Final's of the modern era.

by
William Clemente

The Dee's will be playing in their first Grand Final in 21 years when they played the Bombers in 2000 which led to a demoralising defeat. The past couple of decades for them has most definitely been soul searching, as the club have been trying to build a culture and a brand of footy. In 2018, it seemed as it was all prevailing as they conjured ground-breaking from which saw them appear in the Preliminary Final. However, in the last couple of seasons they have failed to replicate this form. They failed to finish in the top eight and qualify for the finals in 2020, and they called for head coach Simon Goodwin's head to be placed on the chopping block. Goodwin and his men have replied to their critics in the best possible fashion as they finished the home and away season as minor premiers. Dominant performances against Brisbane and Port Adelaide in the Qualifying and Preliminary Finals has led to their first Grand Final appearance that they faithful has been dreaming of.

The Bulldogs played nobly through the home and away season and were seen as one of the front runners of the competition. However, towards the conclusion, the wheels began to fall off as they were defeated in the last two rounds by the Hawks and the Power and relinquished a top four finish. Port great and commentator Kane Cornes famously called it the 'greatest choke' and the Bulldogs terrific resilience has made him eat his words. The Doggies won the flag from outside the eight in 2016 and they have proven that they could potentially do it again, only the Dee's stand in their way. They steam-rolled the Bombers in the Elimination Final as the Bulldogs continued their finals curse. They played valiantly against the Lions in the Semi-Final in what was one of the games of the season, defeating them by a solitary point. Finally, in the Preliminary Final they unplugged the Power in Adelaide defeating them by 71-points.

In the Preliminary Final, the Demons also won comfortably as the Cats were walloped by 82-points. It was one of the best performances the club has produced in the modern era as their stars in Oliver, Petracca and Gawn were in full flight. Max Gawn produced one of the great ruckman performances kicking five goals, notching 19 disposals and achieving over 30 hit-outs. He continues to revolutionise the ruckman position which has become an important position on the footy field in recent years.

The stars of the Western Bulldogs of Marcus Bontempelli, Jack Mcrae, and Bailey Smith were also in fine form against the Power. The Bulldogs will be encouraged by inclusions of Alex Keath and Cody Weightman on Saturday night. It will be a cracker and it is certain to be a nail-biter; however, the Demons will prevail and end their long premiership drought which has been well awaited by the Melbourne Football Club and their passionate faithful. Melbourne 13-24 points

Eagles v Glenelg

GRAND FINAL Adelaide Oval - 3.00pm

Glenelg to win premiership in Centenary Season

What a great Grand Final we have. The two best teams all season have progressed through to the biggest game of the season. The Eagles have had the week off and will be refreshed after defeating the tigers in the second semi-final. The teams have played three times this season, and all three matches have been a close contest. As we saw last Friday night, Glenelg were able to end South Adelaide's premiership dreams and book a rematch with the Eagles.

Glenelg despite falling 10 points behind in the second quarter, always looked in control against the panthers. Glenelg started strongly despite not converting on the scoreboard. Luke Partington in his first game back from injury kicked a crucial opening quarter goal and continues to get better as the game progressed.

The tigers will feel the pressure this week. After completing a wonderful home and away season, and losing the second Semi, they will be desperate to return the favour on the eagles and claim the clubs sixth premiership. It will take a mighty effort to stop the Eagles dangerous forward line. Tyson Stengle is always dangerous, and Martini will likely get the job on him again.

Matthew Goldsworthy has a hamstring complaint, he will be doubtful for the clash so the eagles coaching staff will need to consider a replacement. The eagle's ability to close down Glenelg's run in the second semi-final was impressive. The Eagles outplayed the tigers for three quarters and Glenelg sprang to life in the last quarter. This was on the back of Brett Turner's hard running through the midfield.

The Eagles will be full of confidence and will no doubt employ the same defensive tactics on Sunday to try and nullify any momentum the tigers can create. The tigers were much better defensively against the Panthers, with both Max Proud and Sam Durdin strong across half back.

Former West Coast Eagle Matt Allen was solid and took 10 marks for the match. He also snuck forward to kick an important goal. Dylan Landt had 33 disposals (32 kicks & 1 handball). Landt took most of the kick ins and was able to penetrate the defensive 50 on many occasions.

Glenelg would have expected a Grand Final place after finishing minor premiers. They have had to qualify via the Preliminary final which worked for them in 2019. Can it work again in 2021? In his first season as senior coach, Brett Hand has done an amazing job to lift his players. Jade Sheedy has been exceptional for the Eagles and the reigning premiers will be keen to go back-to-back.

This promises to be a wonderful celebration of South Australian football and a very close encounter.

GRAND FINAL Adelaide Oval - 3.00pm

Bays Premiers in a Grand Final for the Ages

The SANFL Grand Final is finally here and features the two best sides throughout the season. These two sides just faced off two weeks ago in a preliminary final where Woodville-West Torrens ran out 4-point winners. This put the Eagles straight through to the Grand Final, whilst Glenelg had to do it the hard way, but did it well and booked their ticket to try and get redemption on the biggest stage of all.

by
Oliver Alyanak

Woodville-West Torrens are coming off two close final wins, with the first being against Norwood in the qualifying final by 7 points. Their win last time out, however, against Glenelg would give them a lot of confidence heading into the big dance. They got off to a flyer and managed to hold a 20–30-point lead for most of the game until the Bays made their comeback in the last quarter, however, the Eagles held their nerve and held on for a great win. On that day, Glenelg dominated possession and played a kick-mark style of game to try and break down the Eagles, but largely this didn't work. The Eagles had more clearances and inside 50s which was crucial in building up their score early to ensure that when Glenelg did make their charge that they would still be able to hold on. Daniel Menzel was huge up forward with 4 goals while Tyson Stengle and Troy Menzel chipped in with multiple goals as well. On the disposal front, it was an even spread with only James Tsitias (26), Riley Knight (24) and Joseph Sinor (21) collective 20 or more possessions. These guys are going to have to be at their best again to try and combat Glenelg's strong midfield and are going to need to win the clearance battle again to give themselves the best chance.

Glenelg on-the-other-hand obviously had to do it the hard way after going down to the Eagles. This meant that they took on South Adelaide in the preliminary final and won by 28-points. The Panthers held a 10-point lead halfway through the 2nd quarter, however, apart from that Glenelg looked comfortable in front. Similar to their game against the Eagles, Glenelg played their possession brand of footy and chipped their way through South's defence. Also, very similar to Eagles game was the fact that they got smashed in clearances and lost in inside 50s, albeit just about breaking even. This shows that they don't need to win the ball from the stoppages, however, if they can't get their slow game going then that could be very troublesome considering what the Eagles were able to do to them last time out. Dylan Landt was the best for the Bays with 33 disposals while Andrew Bradley was also handy with 25. In the forward line, Liam McBean, Marlon Motlop, Luke Reynolds and Billy Stretch all chipped in with 2 goals which shows that they have multiple forwards than can be damaging.

Clearly Woodville-West Torrens won their last and most important encounter, however, before that, Glenelg won the two other games this year by comfortable margins which will provide some sort of confidence even though the most recent game didn't go their way. In the two games Glenelg won, they won the clearances and inside 50s which provides a clear blueprint as to what they need to do this time around. If their midfield can get on top, they win, if not, a similar result to what happened 2 weeks ago may happen. This game is way too close to call, however, Glenelg seemingly have more match winners and have a couple of different modes to go into if their initial plans don't work which has me leaning toward them in a tight one.

SAM'S SPORTS TALK

Downfield

This past weekend we found our two grand finalists for the AFL 2021 season. Throughout the year many had hoped it would be the two dominators, Melbourne and Western Bulldogs, who would come up against each other and there's not much more to say on this matchup except that it should be a cracker. However, as with every year, two have come agonisingly close to getting a shot at the premiership. This year those two are Geelong and Port Adelaide, both of whom are no strangers to this disappointment.

by
Samantha Field

Year after year Geelong have been dominate in the minor season, and year after year they fail to deliver come finals. They have made the finals every year but one (2015) since Chris Scott has taken over, but from this they have had only two Grand Final appearances and won only one premiership (In Scott's first year after taking over a very strong team from Bomber Thompson). His regular season winning percentage is 71.6%, above the AFL average. In finals it drops to 40%. This year they were terrible against Port Adelaide, and after fighting off a weakened GWS, they once more collapsed when facing Melbourne in the Prelim.

Since the 2007 grand final defeat, Port Adelaide have gone through a massive rebuild. Not only in players but also the coaching staff and the corporate figures. When Ken Hinkley signed on at the end of 2012 he was hailed as the saviour that would deliver Port their second AFL premiership. Since his takeover Port have made 5 finals series and were in the hunt for the other 4. But despite high praise for superb recruitment and off field developments (such as playing in China) the Power still have not returned to the big stage. Three times, including twice in the past two years, they have faltered at the Preliminary final. This year was particularly disappointing.

On paper, both of these teams should have won a premiership in recent years. Neither have. Geelong with their big names of Selwood, Dangerfield, Hawkins, and now the addition of Cameron. Port Adelaide with the magic of Gray, Boak, Wines, and new star Aliir Aliir for 2021.

And the fans are looking for someone to blame. There have been many calls for both Scott and Hinkley to be moved on and for new people to take the reins. They are the two longest serving head coaches without a premiership. It may be harsh, but the buck stops with the head coach. Scott and Hinkley are good coaches, that much can't be disputed, but it is appearing more and more doubtful that they can be great. Football moves fast, and after a while a coach can become stuck in old ways. It's clear that both teams have the skills and now the experience needed for a premiership, perhaps what they are lacking is the innovation.

Both coaches have had enough time to prove themselves, they have not delivered. Perhaps they would do better with a fresh start in a new team, but all that can be said is that Port Adelaide and Geelong are increasingly unlikely to taste ultimate success in the AFL with their current coaches at the helm.

SHEEDY SAYS

From the exit door to a Grand Final appearance

Every year the Grand Final provides plenty of good news stories and one such story this year is that of Tom McDonald.

The 29-year-old will have an important role to play for the Demons in their first Grand Final appearance since 2000 against the Western Bulldogs.

Last year was a disappointing year for Melbourne as they missed finals for the second consecutive season.

McDonald personally had an underwhelming season, playing only nine games and finishing the year with seven goals.

Despite being under contract both player and club thought it was best for McDonald to explore fresh opportunities elsewhere, Melbourne also preparing for the pending arrival of Ben Brown.

The forward would eventually remain at the Demons and was brutally honest in what transpired during the trade period "Yeah (I was) looking elsewhere, no one wanted me"

The tale of the tape

The response from Tom McDonald in 2021 has been impressive. 31 goals from 22 games and averaging 14.3 disposals per match.

This output has been rewarded with a new contract that will see McDonald remain at the club until the end of 2024 and likely finish his career a one club player.

When penning the new deal, the 29-year-old delighted with what has transpired this year to date. "It's been an awesome season for the team and I'm pretty excited to be able to do this"

Drafted with pick 53 in the 2010 draft Tom McDonald has been there for all the ups and downs at Melbourne and a Grand Final appearance must have seemed a million miles away at various stages.

A reward for perseverance and hard work that may very well finish with a premierships medallion would be a fairy tale result with the Demons chasing their first Premiership since 1964.

TEAM TALK with JORDAN

The Cattery

2007 was the year that Geelong became the powerhouse that they are known as today. After years of underachieving failing to become that powerful team that they always threatened to be they finally turned it around by not only having developed an ominous high attacking game style that wielded three premierships in five years, but they made their home ground Kardinia Park (it has had many different names over the years) the unbreakable fortress that many a team have now come to fear when they play there. In modern day football, every little bit counts, and the Cats have known that better than most teams. We all talk about fortresses when dominant teams seem even more powerful and even invincible on their home decks, but no team has ever had as pronounced a home ground advantage as Geelong has had at Kardinia Park. Footy pundits and critics have long since given up quoting the numbers, they've just accepted the fact that it's near on impossible to win there.

by
Jordan Sennett Perez

Before Geelong turned their fortunes around some 14 years ago, they famously lost a match to North Melbourne at Kardinia Park in what became the "line in the sand" moment for them. Not only was the playing group called into question but the club as a whole, culture administration, coaches all of it. They then destroyed an abysmal Richmond by 157 points at the Telstra Dome (now called Marvel Stadium) and from then have never ever looked back. As mentioned above, since then Geelong entered a golden era yielding three flags, playing in 5 grand finals and further 10 preliminary finals which is incredibly impressive. None of those games have been played at their home ground which is affectionately called "The Cattery" but it sure has played a major part in the club's consistent dominance over the competition. Since that loss to the Kangaroos in 2007 and as of the 2021 season, Geelong has played a total of 108 games at Kardinia Park. They've won an astonishing 97 of those, 97! Only 11 losses which is incredible, and their winning strike rate is 89.9%. The sheer key factors in the dominance that Geelong has there are teams that have relative unfamiliarity in which no visiting team ever playing there more than once per season and some of the bigger drawing Victorian clubs such as Hawthorn, Carlton and Richmond only playing there very occasionally, like once or twice in 12 years. The unique dimensions of the ground in my opinion play the biggest part.

Kardinia Park is only just the longest ground of any of the current AFL stadiums at 167 metres only a metre longer than Adelaide Oval, two metres more than Optus Stadium in Perth and five metres more than the MCG. It is significantly narrower than any of the other grounds however which is the most unique aspect of the grounds landscape. At just a measly 112 metres wing-to-wing, it is 27 metres skinnier than the MCG and that near 30 metres difference to the MCG is as good as one less kick for sides trying to switch the play side to side and make the ground bigger. It's no wonder teams have struggled and often have found themselves kicking the ball out on the full more than usual when they play at the cat's home ground. It's also Geelong's incredible defensive qualities that really shine through effectively smothering the opposition into turning it over and having all defensive lines covered effectively roadblocking half the ground. Considering how many teams have struggled there over the years, there are a few sides that boast somewhat of a half decent record there in recent times. Sydney has taken the cat scalp there 4 times in the last few years and had a 3-game winning streak there and Fremantle famously beat the cats in the first and only to date final played at the ground, the 2013 qualifying final, the dockers also beat them there again in 2015. For every other team it is the dreaded travel across there to face impending death. Of the 97 wins, 31 of those has been by a minimum of 10 goals and a further 8 has been by 100 points or more. Now that is some sort of dominance and it doesn't look like diminishing any time soon.

Thinking into results

The power of our mind, creates our future!

You become what you think!

Have you ever stopped to think why we do the things we do?

We become so focused on working, that we forget about our dreams we forget to create a life.

For a long time I thought, working hard, pleasing everyone around me, listening to what everyone else wanted for me, was the right thing to do, (after all it was what I was taught to do).

I thought I was happy, then came the realisation, I was making everyone around me happy (but me). I was always tired, didn't take care of my own needs, it was the way I was taught, not to dream!

I've worked as a Zookeeper, Vet nurse, Personal trainer, Nutrition coach, & without a doubt I loved it all, but I felt like something was missing....

I wanted more, I wanted to leave MY mark on the world a LEGACY!

My heart desired a life of nature, animals, abundance, joy, fun, traveling family & freedom, but I wanted to look after myself too.

I didn't want to just be going through the same motions everyday, I was done, but I was terrified to take a leap...

Everyday I'd see others living out their dreams, their desires, traveling to beautiful places working all over the world, loving the life they lead....

The only thing that was stopping me was me. I had to get out of my own negative mindset....SO I did!

We have been programmed to think a certain way, from ideas & thoughts from previous generations, our environment, that we have lived in our whole lives.

Stop living the life you don't want & start living the life you do want, we are powerful human beings, we were put on this earth to grow to create.

I will show you how to catapult your life & live your wildest dreams, reset your mind. I will guide you through a simple 12 step process, that will literally change your life, in every way.

I know because I have been there & it has changed my life. I now live the life I have always dreamed.

Let's do the same for you. You will look back on your life & won't recognise yourself. Your beliefs, your thoughts & desires will change.

Allow your mind to be set free! Change the way think, change your life!

So what are you waiting for, let's together kick start you life. I believe in you, it's time you did too. LET'S GO!

Together we can breathe & let go of anything.

Welcome to your new life!

Offer: A free 15 minute strategy consult to find out the why's of what is holding you back.

ANXIETY

Anxiety is a business that is built around building awareness and support to people living with anxiety. Having anxiety himself, CJ knows what it is like to live with the unknown of when anxiety is going to creep up on you. He wanted to let people know that its not something to be afraid of and it is ok to talk about. Whether you're on the lookout for a new hoodie, t-shirt or hat stop by the store and browse our latest collections. 10% of profits go to support Beyond Blue.
