Close, but no Cigar

The agony and ecstasy of sport. A week after the famous Showdown victory Adelaide has gone down to Essendon by four points in a highly entertaining clash at Marvel Stadium.

The last time the Crows played Essendon at Marvel they finished with two goals for the entire game, that tally was matched at the 19-minute mark of the first quarter.

The game was tight all day with both teams trading goals that saw the Bombers hold a slender lead of seven points at quarter time, eight points at half time and five points at three quarter time.

Every time Essendon threatened to kick away the Crows would hit back. High work rate and endeavour something that Adelaide fans will take heart from.

When Lachlan Gollant kicked his first goal of the game to put Adelaide within a kick in the dying minutes the nerves would have been jangling for the Bombers faithful, but they held on to secure their first win of the season.

The returning Taylor Walker from suspension got some boos as expected but was the pick of the key forwards booting four goals.

Ben Keays deserves a special shoutout for his 27 disposals, 12 tackles, five clearances and a goal. To demonstrate what an important and consistent contributor he has become, the former Lion has not had less than 20 disposals in a match since 2020.

Without putting too much pressure on the kid, Josh Rachele will be a star. The 18-year-old gathered 19 disposals and kicked three goals; this performance rightly rewarded with the round four Rising Star nomination.

Matthew Nicks was positive after the game in his post-match interview despite not quite getting the job done in a couple of key moments "We have to execute when it is our turn"

Adelaide face Richmond at Adelaide Oval on Saturday afternoon. Expect another tight contest!

Wallpaper cracks become Grand Canyon Chasms

by Nick Kossatch

It gets uglier for Port Adelaide Power. For every minute that Steven May and Max Gawn intercepted everything that came their way - courtesy of the Power's wayward forward entries - at each moment the besieged and injury-riddled Port's confidence was eaten away. Power coach Ken Hinkley, sadly for him and perhaps most of the coaching staff, are on tenterhooks on the back of reigning premier Melbourne Demons' 10.8 (68) to 4.12 (36) win at Adelaide Oval on Thursday night. Gawn and young superstar prodigy Luke Jackson dominated. Luke Jackson. He's 20. He will be the best player in the AFL before 2025, if not sooner.

Despite the best efforts of returning defender Tom Clurey (14 marks), Willem Drew's sterling tagging job on Demon gun Christian Petracca, the tireless Travis Boak, youngster Miles Bergman and some nice midfield moments in the second half by Zak Butters, there wasn't much else for the hosts. Port's Hinkley took an optimistic view of what is ahead for his team. Add to the fact that the hosts could not produce a goal in the first half in a half that yielded its lowest score in the first hour. Ever.

"Absolutely (we're optimistic). Why not? We haven't had everything the way we want, it's a long season. I get that people are going to question my belief, but I'm strong in it. I think we can absolutely move forward and improve quickly," Hinkley said.

A shoulder injury to Scott Lycett didn't help Port's cause and Gawn and Jackson feasted. Port's first-ever Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines suffered a heart scare and remained the night in hospital. At least the Power won the second half.

However, again, that was just wallpaper over cracks and now potholes in the Power's now road to nowhere. Hinkley however assured the suffering Power fans that the theme is to work hard and that the rewards will come.

"Our whole football club will stick together and work really hard to make sure we quickly get back on track somewhere close to what they would love us to be playing like," he said.

"No one wants it more than the people that are working inside the club, we're desperate for it to turn around.

"We know what we're trying to get right and we're working really hard to get it right."

Premiers to continue to soar.

What a round of SANFL footy we were all able to view last week. Many games were not decided until very late which is the way we like it.

This week, the Eagles will look to continue that winning form as they take on the improved Bloods in Good Friday twilight footy. The Eagles faced and passed a massive test last Friday night with a nail biting two-point win over Norwood at the Parade. Their win was highlighted by the Menzel brothers who combined for five of the Eagles goals. (Troy scored three and Daniel finished with two).

This match was close all night with the Eagles taking a two-point lead into the last quarter. Norwood finished with 11.15 for the night whilst the reigning premiers were more accurate with 12.11.

For the Eagles, Kai Pudney with 29 disposals and Dylan Clarke managed a game high 14 tackles. Pudney managed five clearances to go with his 29 disposals a game high for the Eagles.

The Eagles sit just outside the top five on percentage. Their season is away and they will be looking to continue their winning form against the Bloods who came off a disappointing loss against Central District.

The Bloods looked in complete control against the Bulldogs. They took a 37-point lead into half time and were well on the way to recording their first win of the season. After half time the game changed dramatically with the Bulldogs kicking eleven goals to the Bloods two. Brad Gotch would be very disappointed with the final result as his side had played so well in the first half away from home. Captain Tom Keough bottled four goals straight and was ably supported by Harry Lemmey who kicked 2 goals.

This game is really season defining for the Bloods, another loss and they sit 0-3 with a visit to Port Lincoln in round four against Norwood.

Whilst the Bloods were fantastic for the first half last week, the Eagles were brilliant for four quarters and will win and consign the Bloods to a 0-3 start.

The Crows to spread their wings at The Bay

It is anticipated to be a very Good Friday of footy being played in what will be the third round of the 2022 SANFL season. Five games will be played on Good Friday and Glenelg's clash against Adelaide at ACH Group Stadium is expected to be the prime fixture of the day. The Tigers and The Crows are the only two sides in the competition who haven't so far registered losses, but ones clean season record will be broken.

by William Clemente

Unlike their AFL counterparts, The Crows have valiantly commenced the season by playing an excellent brand of football, claiming two comfortable victories. In the opening round they steamrolled the Power in the all-mighty rivalry at the Adelaide Oval. The Crows continued their form in the second round by defeating North Adelaide comfortably by a margin of 38 points away from home. Thus far The Crows have not been seriously challenged on the field and equalled, but their upcoming Good Friday contest against Glenelg at The Bay is certainly their biggest challenge of the season. Friday's result could determine the tempo of their season, judging that their opponent is one of the competition's front runners.

It is a season of redemption for The Tigers as they want to rectify their confidence after their horrid performance or lack of performance in last season's grand final defeat. It seems that they are done licking their wounds as they (like The Crows) have commenced the season dominantly. The Tigers have displayed their quality, wits, and resilience as they've emerged victorious in nail-biting contests against quality opposition. They defeated the Redlegs by 15 points at the Bay in what was an arm-wrestle of a contest, and they continued their form into next round, overcoming The Double Blues away from home by eight points. Like The Crows this rounds will also define their season and how they'll progress as the season continues on.

At Prospect Oval last Saturday afternoon, The Crows simply outplayed North Adelaide, demonstrating too much class as perhaps the experience of their list who have played a lot of AFL football overwhelmed a hungry Roosters outfit. In their 38-point victory Adelaide had many contributors to the scoreboard with Matthew Wright (four goals, one behind) being their prime goalkicker. Young gun and highly anticipated AFL prospect, Riley Thilthorpe (three goals) played impressively and emanating himself into Matthew Nicks' mind for future AFL selection. Jackson Hately (35 disposals, one goal) notched best on ground honours and Sam Berry (26 disposals, one goal, four clearances) outmuscled the North Adelaide midfield, also pushing for AFL selection.

Glenelg's eight-point victory against Sturt proved to be the most memorable game of last round, and it proved that The Tigers are still prepared to grind and perform, asserting themselves as early premiership contenders. Liam McBean (four goals), and Lachlan Hosie (three goals) were again their usual scoreboard contributors, dominating and parading the forward line, overwhelming Sturt's organised defence. Luke Partington was their dominant ball winner, notching 26 disposals and Matthew Allen played gloriously, collecting 25 possessions, kicking a goal, and taking a game-high of 10 marks.

One sides perfect start of the season will be penetrated with a dent after Friday's clash, and it will prove to be much more than a mere result, it will be a tone setter for the season as it progresses. Both outfits will be competitive, bringing their sublime brands of football; however, The Crows' quality will be superior in what is to be a nail biter. The Crows to spread their wings at The Bay.

Adelaide 10-21 points

Panthers roar past Sturt to make it 3-0

Round 3 of the 2022 SANFL Season brings us an Easter special, with all 5 games being played on Good Friday. One of the more intriguing games will be happening at Flinders University Stadium in Noarlunga with a clash between South Adelaide and Sturt. Obviously, it's very early on, however, it is 3rd vs 4th and is set up to be a close one. South Adelaide come into it having won their first 2 games while Sturt are 1-1 after a narrow loss in round 2 to Glenelg.

by
Oliver Alyanak

South Adelaide is coming off a very narrow win at Alberton against a wayward Port Adelaide side. A lot of people would probably consider the Panthers lucky to have walked away with the 2 points given the fact that they gave up 31 scoring shots to the Magpies. Port kicked 14.17 compared to South's 17.9 and ultimately it was Port's inaccuracy, or South's accuracy depending on how you look at it that was the deciding factor. The Panthers dominated the midfield, winning over 20 more clearances, however, Port were able to rebound well and just about evened out the inside 50 count which is where they were able to generate so many chances. Bryce Gibbs was sensational as always, racking up 39 disposals and kicking a goal while also having 10 clearances. Mitch O'Neill had 29 disposals, a goal and a team high, 11 inside 50s. Up forward, Jye Menzie kicked 6 goals and looked unstoppable for much of the day, while Ryan Garthwaite kicked 3 of his own. On the other side of the field, Jeremy Finlayson showed why Port brought him over from GWS and kicked 6, keeping Port in it for most of the game.

Sturt, on the other hand, had a tough loss at the hands of Glenelg at home. Sturt will be disappointed with this one given they let a 35-point lead slip from halfway through the 3rd quarter. After Sturt got out to this lead Glenelg piled on the 9 out of the next 11 goals to win end up with an 8-point win. Liam McBean was one that turned it around kicking 3 of his 4 goals during this run, getting his side over the line as he often does. Sturt dominated in the ruck; however, they couldn't translate this into clearances, which shows that if they can tidy that up, they will be a much better chance to win as they did in round 1. James Battersby was very good with 30 disposals; however, Patrick Wilson was best on for the Double Blues with 24 disposals, 2 goals and 7 tackles. Josh Shute and James Richards also chipped in with 2 goals, however, the Double Blues couldn't keep Lachie Hosie and Liam McBean quiet as they did what they do and kept the goals coming for Glenelg.

In 2021 these two faced off twice with both teams getting a win. In their most recent matchup Sturt won by 11 points, however, similar to South's game against Port Adelaide, the Panthers kicked 5.14 and were their own worst enemy. Sturt got out to a near 30-point lead halfway through the 3rd quarter and nearly lost it, however, they kicked away and saved what could have been a loss very similar to their one against Glenelg this year. Bryce Gibbs was again influential with 24 disposals, while Abe Davis kicked 3 goals from 18 disposals for Sturt. This game has the making to go down to the wire again, however, if the Panthers can continue their good form in front of the big sticks, then expect them to get over the line at home.

Robust Redlegs to get win one

Norwood will host Port Adelaide this week at Coopers Stadium, after both sides suffered close losses in Round 2. The Redlegs lost by two points to the reigning premiers, Woodville West Torrens. While the Power lost to South Adelaide by 10-points, despite leading for almost the entire last half. As such, this match is poised to be an intriguing battle. Although, Port Adelaide have arguably a depleted list in season 2022, they demonstrated last week, against a quality South Adelaide side they could challenge top sides, such as Norwood. Conversely, red and blue fans will be hoping the Redlegs can get early wins, so they can make an assault for September and go two steps further than last year.

by
William McShane

Despite losing last week, Norwood showed they will be competitive once again. Like most years, Norwood have an Eyre peninsula focus, as this is their selection zone. However, this focus has been accentuated this season, with the likes of Ben Jarvis, Cameron Taheny and Lochlan Charlton coming into the side. This complements the other EP players in that of Jacob Kennerly, Tristan Binder and Henry Nelligan, who played last season. While Norwood highlighted their competitiveness on the weekend, it has not been the dream start coach Jade Rawlings was dreaming of. Evidence suggests clubs who lose their first two games, rarely win premierships. I am willing to accept Norwood are an aberration to this, as they have been narrowly defeated by the two grand finalists last year.

Much of Norwood's success last year must be attributed to Rawlings. He has continually demonstrated his competency at SANFL level. This can be seen through the opening two rounds of this season as the Redlegs have won the key statistics (clearances, inside 50's and disposals). While Norwood lost marks and tackles against Glenelg, they rectified this last week. Rawlings has the ground covered. All areas... but the forward line. In the past two weeks scoring accuracy has been 38 and 42 per cent. Additionally, Norwood have conceded more than 90 rebound 50's the past two weeks. This suggests there has been a lack of pressure from Norwood's small forwards. Against the Eagles, Norwood had 59 inside 50's (20 more than the Eagles), yet they scored only 11 goals. If the Redleg's are to defeat Port Adelaide and become legitimate premiership contenders, they will need to rectify this area.

In contrast, Port Adelaide are contenders for the dreaded wooden spoon. I know... early days, but if things do not shift soon, a losing momentum can be difficult to adjust. In their loss to the Panthers last week, experienced AFL players, Jeremy Finlayson and Trent Dumont were shining lights for the Power. Finlayson kicking 6 goals, while Dumont had 21 disposals and 12 tackles. They were comfortably beaten around the contest losing clearances by 21 and disposals by 42. However, Port used the ball smartly, efficiently and possessively. They were able to spread from the contest and apply scoreboard pressure. From their 47 inside 50's, Port was able to produce 31 scoring shots. On Friday this is a necessity if they are to win, as Norwood's inaccuracy and limited forward line may enable scores from turnovers.

Despite this, I think Norwood will dismantle Port Adelaide's midfield and comfortably win. However, if the Redleg's cannot improve the most underrated skill in the game... goal kicking, they may provide an opportunity for Port Adelaide to get into the contest. Unfortunately for Port fans, this is unlikely to manifest, and Norwood will win their first game of the year.

Norwood by 44-56.
