On the right track

The Adelaide Crows have recorded consecutive victories for the first time in 2022 with a thrilling one-point win over the Western Bulldogs. The Crows now sit outside the top eight on percentage only.

It is the fourth game for Adelaide this year decided by less than a goal. If you support the Crows, then perhaps investing in a defibrillator would we be well advised.

by
Liam Sheedy

Adelaide started the game brightly in Ballarat putting the Bulldogs on the backfoot with the first two goals of the game before the Bulldogs worked themselves into the contest to take a slender seven-point lead into the quarter time break.

The second quarter did not provide much for the highlight reel in windy conditions with the Crows kicking the only goal of the term to tie scores away at the main break.

The third term saw each side kick two goals to setup an exciting final term and it was former Skipper Taylor Walker who kicked the match winning goal (his third) to clinch a dramatic one-point win.

The stats certainly suggest Adelaide were more than deserving of their victory with 15 more inside 50s, six more scoring shots and double the marks inside 50 of the Bulldogs.

The midfield battle was largely even again with Ben Keays the major ball winner on the ground for Adelaide with 33 disposals and Reilly O'Brien took advantage of the absence of Tim English in ruck with 49 hit outs and 17 disposals.

After a pump-up last week Billy Frampton continued his good form in the back half gathering another 26 disposals, nine marks and four score involvements.

Adelaide Coach Matthew Nicks rightfully delighted after the game. "To show resilience like we did today. Really pleasing"

The Crows host the struggling GWS Giants at Adelaide Oval on Saturday afternoon.

MY TIP- Adelaide 24 points

Power break hoodoo for first win

Port Adelaide Power achieved a win on two fronts. The most significant one was in opening its account for four premiership points. The second was that the Power beat West Coast Eagles for the first time at Adelaide Oval and in a big way after a tardy start in which West Coast's Jamie Cripps opened the scoring with the first goal of the game. Port returned to somewhat of its 2020-21 brand of football to win 18.9 (117) to a paltry 4.9 (33).

by
Nick Kossatch

Scores were even at quarter-time 1.2 (8) apiece before Port powered on 11 goals in a row with maligned-tall-duo of Todd Marshall and Jeremy Finlayson feasting with five goals each.

Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines returned in a big way after his heart scare three weeks ago to be instrumental in the midfield. What was refreshing to see was Connor Rozee continuing from his second-half midfield assertiveness against Carlton eight days ago to dominate at Adelaide Oval. Rozee won this Anzac Day's edition of the Peter Badcoe Medal with best afield figures of 31 disposals and eight clearances.

Wines had 33 and veteran Travis Boak 34. Comeback kid Kane Farrell impressed following nine months out with a serious knee injury. Farrell injected much-needed pace and scored a sublime goal after he intercepted a sloppy Shannon Hurn kick. Under-siege Port Adelaide coach Ken Hinkley said the win was just a small step after a shocking 0-5 start to the season.

"We just need to continue to work and stay in the moment," Hinkley said.

"We can't get distracted," Hinkley said.

"We haven't been distracted even though we've had a few opportunities to get distracted by what's going on.

"We have just got to stay in the moment and stay focused on how we can continually turn up and improve ourselves as players and coaches and staff and we'll be OK."

A massive test looms against in-form and 5-1 St Kilda in an expected wet-weather match in tropical Cairns this Saturday night.

Roosters will Crow to Victory

Welcome to Round 5 of the SANFL season. This week the Bloods return from their trip to Port Lincoln, to take on the inform Roosters.

It was fantastic to see our great game of SANFL travel to the Eyre Peninsula last week. The Bloods return without the points and will desperate to get back home and make amend for their performance. At half time the game was very much a contest. Norwood held a slender 19-point lead and the Bloods would have had belief they could win the game.

Unfortunately post the main break, Norwood took control and ran away with the game. Norwood were able to score 12 goals to the Bloods 4. Josh Gore and Mitch Maguire were able to score multiple goals for the Bloods in what was otherwise a tough day for the Bloods forwards.

Kaiden Brand was competitive with 9 marks and Charlie Allan had a game high 12 tackles. To highlight the challenge West Adelaide has with scoring is they have scored a total of 33 goals across the first four rounds and a percentage of 37.92% last in the competition.

The Roosters round 4 match was a game of two halves. Jacob Surjan's men get the Panthers scoreless in the first half and had a commanding lead at the main break (35 points).

After half time, the Roosters only managed two goals, the Panthers inaccurate kicking in the second half potentially cost them the win. The Panther scored six goals, 7 behinds.

Harrison Magor was sensational with a game high 33 possessions and 11 marks. He was ably supported by former AFL players Harrison Wigg and Andrew Moore who collected 57 possessions between them.

The Roosters currently sit fourth on the ladder (percentage behind second), and will feel if they can win on Saturday, it will keep them in touch with the ladder leaders. This is a game the Roosters would expect to win and should do comfortably.

MY TIP: Roosters by 25-36 points

Sturt

Norwood

Wigan Oval - 2.40pm (Sunday)

The Double Blues to have a blue

Norwood will make the commute to Unley this Saturday to take on in-form Sturt. Norwood currently sit fifth with a record of two wins and two losses. In contrast, Sturt are second, losing only one game in their season thus far. Both sides enter the match with wins, as Norwood defeated West Adelaide last week, while Sturt beat Port Adelaide in a tight battle. In recent times, Norwood has dominated the contest between the two sides, winning 7 of the last 8 matches. The battle of these two historic clubs will no doubt be palpable, as they both look to establish themselves as legitimate premiership contenders in season 2022.

by William McShane

The Redlegs defeated West Adelaide last week in a convincing win. Matthew Nunn starred in this match, achieving best player with a promising 35 disposals, two goals and seven clearances. Nunn has been a key ingredient in Norwood's winning formula in their past seasons. Nunn averages 27 disposals and six clearances this season and is the key component to Norwood's midfield domination. The Redlegs have not lost a clearance count this season. In the Redlegs win against West Adelaide, Norwood got first use of the ball, winning disposals for the fourth time this season. Supplementary to this, coach Jade Rawlings would be ecstatic with his sides ball use. The Redlegs went at 83 per cent on the weekend, which is incredibly high. It is rare when a side surpasses 80 per cent, let alone 83. However, this statistics domination has been a hallmark of Rawling's coaching. In the first four matches, Norwood has not lost inside 50 entries, disposals or clearances. Therefore, the Norwood outfit has managed to stay competitive losing to only the grand finalists, Glenelg and Woodville-West Torrens.

Similarly, Sturt's only loss of the year has come against Glenelg. In last weeks clash against Port Adelaide, Sturt were 13-point victors, despite lead changes during the third quarter. In a relatively even match, it was Sturt's ability to control the football which won them the match. Sturt had 111 marks. This allowed them to become more efficient when entering the forward half. They generated 18 scoring shots with 41 inside 50's. Sturt have not conceded more marks than their opposition this season. Rawlings will need to mitigate this marking control, through the application of sufficient pressure. Rawlings will call on his forwards to apply this pressure, as much of Sturt's ball control is generated from the back half. Comparatively, Double Blues coach, Martin Mattner, will want to continue his sides control of the ball, as it has prevented sides from scoring against them. Sturt have conceded 244 points against them. This equates to an average of 61 points. The typical winning margin in football is scores above 73. Norwood average 86 points.

As a result, the outcome will simply come down to the side who can defend best. If Sturt can mitigate Norwood's midfield rampage, through a contrary style of play by controlling the ball, they will limit the Redlegs scoring ability. Nonetheless, like the old football cliché goes, Norwood has the wood on Sturt. As such, the Redleg's consistent ability to win the key statistics and their recent history against Sturt suggests they will be victorious.

Norwood by 1-12.

Adelaide to continue hot start make it 4 wins from 5

Round 5 of the 2022 SANFL season is upon us and sees South Adelaide hosting Adelaide on Sunday afternoon. South Adelaide is coming off back-to-back losses, with the most recent coming against North Adelaide in a game that ended up being relatively close. Contrastingly, Adelaide came from behind to win their round 5 matchup against Central Districts.

by
Oliver Alyanak

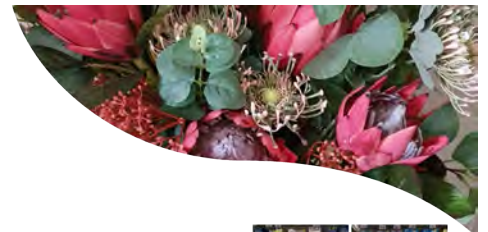

South Adelaide will be very keen to get back on the winners list after what has been a strange first month of footy for them. At first glance you may go, "2-2, not a bad start, could be worse, could be better", but looking at their results, all 4 games have been decided by 18 points or less. Unsurprisingly it has been goalkicking that has been the common denominator between their wins and losses. In their wins in rounds 1 and 2, they kicked really straight which helped get them over the line whereas they have been wayward in their last 2 games which, when the games are close is costly. Last week they went down to North by 11 points and had only had 5 behinds to their name at the main break. They managed to wrestle back the 35-point half time margin in the second half, but it was too little to late. South had more inside 50s and scoring shots were just about at breakeven so they had their chances but just couldn't capitalise. Oliver Davis was best on for the Panthers with 32 disposals and 10 inside 50s while Fraser Turner also had plenty of it with 27. Eamon Wilkinson looked the only damaging forward with 4 goals while Sam Gaden and Ryan Garthwaite were the other goal kickers with 1 each.

Adelaide on-the-other-hand have been in good form and will be looking to record their 4th win of the season this week. Adelaide beat Centrals by 25 points, however, they had to do it the hard way, trailing by 19 points at quarter time. They quickly erased that deficit in the second quarter and lead by a goal by the time three quarter time came around. The Bulldogs dominated clearances; however, Adelaide's defence was sturdy and were quick to rebound and create inside 50s of their own. Nathan Freeman was everywhere with 32 disposals and 2 goals while Luke Pedlar continues to impress with 23 disposals and 2 goals of his own. Harry Schoenberg continues to press for an AFL recall with 22 disposals and a goal while other AFL listed players Darcy Fogarty and Jimmy Rowe had over 20 disposals with Fogarty kicking 2 goals. Worryingly for Adelaide fans, Riley Thilthorpe went down with a knee injury early after kicking 2 goals, however, apparently it was only precautionary.

Battles between these two sides have long gone the way of South Adelaide, however, is the tide about to change this weekend. South Adelaide have won 6 of the last 7 encounters with that other game being a draw so clearly, they know how to get the job done against Adelaide. Last time out, South Adelaide won by 17 points in Victor Harbour. Prior to that, South Adelaide won at home by 61 points and didn't give Adelaide an inch. They are every chance to do the same this time around especially if they can kick straight, however, Adelaide have been in very good form this year and probably should be undefeated if it wasn't for a completely lapse in concentration halfway through their game against Glenelg. I'm backing Adelaide to continue their hot start in a close one.
