Reality check

The Adelaide Crows put in their worst performance of the season going down to GWS by 59 points last Saturday afternoon at Adelaide Oval.

The Giants dominated the game from the outset with the first three goals of the game and at quarter time led five goals to one.

The Crows could not get a foothold in the match and the margin was extended to 59 points at the main break.

The contest was over with the Giants midfield running riot and the GWS forward line led by Toby Greene causing massive headaches.

The third quarter saw more of the same with the lead blowing out to 72 points. Adelaide battled away to kick five goals in the final term, but it was simply too little, too late.

Not surprisingly GWS dominated most key statistics and amassed 17 marks inside 50 while Adelaide managed just three.

Taylor Walker was the only multiple goal scorer for Adelaide with two goals. GWS had multiple goals kicked by Toby Greene, Jesse Hogan, Stephen Coniglio and Harry Himmelberg who combined for 15.

On the injury front Adelaide lost Brodie Smith to concussion in the third term as well as Ned McHenry who will be monitored during the week after coming off the ground after a heavy collision.

Several Crows players are currently performing well at the SANFL level and James Rowe must be one close to a recall after a strong performance against South Adelaide with 24 disposals and goal.

Matthew Nicks was obviously disappointed after the game but is backing in his players to respond "Today mirrored the last time we played them unfortunately, so that's disturbing, but I still believe in our group"

Next up the Crows travel to Marvel Stadium to take on Carlton.

Rozee outlook in midfield

It comes as no coincidence that the move of Connor Rozee and Zak Butters to playing more significant roles in midfield has mirrored Port Adelaide Power's mini-resurgence from the second half against Carlton on Easter Sunday and to a demolition job on the hapless West Coast Eagles.

by
Nick Kossatch

The pair then played crucial roles in the Power's come-from-behind one-point win against a likely finals-bound St Kilda which was gunning for its sixth-straight win in a humid tropical and wet Saturday night at Cazaly Stadium in Cairns' .

Robbie Gray, ever the big moment player, kicked the winning point for Port Adelaide in an energy-draining 5.13 (43) to 4.18 (42) win.

Both teams were inaccurate and the Saints looked the goods early with a 14-point lead at half-time.

However, two goals to Gray in a four-goal to nil third term brought Port right back into the contest and it was basically an arm wrestle on the heavy and rain-soaked turf.

Aliir Aliir was magnificent as he returned to his 2021 form as an All Australian centre half back and his sidekick Ryan Burton was equally as effective.

Brownlow Medallist Ollie Wines was in and under all night while Sam Powell-Pepper bulldozed his way through packs to propel the ball forward at every opportunity.

Powell-Pepper also gave impressive young ruckman Sam Hayes the chop throughout the game with cameo efforts against star St Kilda and ex-Port ruckman Paddy Ryder.

St Kilda were left to rue missed opportunities in a game that may well decide in what part of the top-eight that the Saints are likely to be positioned in.

For Port Adelaide, there's still much work to be done after a horror 0-5 start.

Power coach Ken Hinkley said perseverance was key for his team.

"It was a grinding game for everyone," Hinkley said post game.

"Someone is unlucky to lose at the end, so pleased for our boys they showed enough to fight keep going.

"After the first quarter where St Kilda got an advantage, we played some pretty strong, ugly footy I'd call it but that's what you have to play at this time up here."

Aliir handled the ball as though it was dry weather and Hinkley said he welcomed the athletic defender back into form after his return from injury against Carlton.

"We're a better team when Aliir is in our team," Hinkley said.

"When we defend as a group, we defended as a group tonight, Aliir gets to mop up.

"I'm sure he'll be thanking his teammates."

The Power take on the Western Bulldogs at Adelaide Oval this Friday night.

Eagles to fly high in battle of the birds

Can you believe that we are a third of the way through the SANFL season? The top four teams sit at 4 wins and 1 loss, we couldn't ask for anymore.

Both the Eagles and Magpies had impressive wins last weekend and will both head into Saturday's game with plenty of confidence.

The Magpies broke through for their first victory of the season with a hard fought 3-point win against the Tigers at Glenelg Oval. The Magpies accurate goal kicking was a clear difference between the two sides. Key forward Dylan Williams finished not just with 3 goals, but mark of the day in the final quarter.

Ollie Lord continued his impressive early season form with 2 goals of his own and Taj Schofield also hit the scoreboard with 2 majors. Sam Mayes was a strong contributor with an impressive 33 disposals. The Magpies lead all day and importantly had first opportunity at stoppages with Luke Surman recording 36 Hit Outs and 5 clearances. It was the best four quarters of Port Adelaide's season.

The Eagles recorded a straight forward 50-point victory over the Bulldogs. The game was effectively in the Eagles keeping at Half Time. Daniel Menzel continues to be a bright light in the forward line with 2 goals to extend his lead in the Ken Farmer race. (He has 18 goals for the season, four goals clear of Lachie Hosie).

Riley Knight continues to be a key midfielder for the Eagles with 31 disposals with a good balance between kicks and handballs. Team mate Connor Ballenden continued his impressive form with four contested marks to be the equal league leader with 12 overall. Ballenden also had an impressive 26 Hit Outs.

This is an important game for both the sides. If the Eagles can record back-to-back victories, it will keep them in touch with the top 5 and a huge clash against the red-hot Crows in Round 7.

For the Magpies, if they can defeat last year's premiers, they start to chase the top 5, with a very winnable game in round 7 against the Bloods.

For sale: Adidas footy boots. Used once.

Find that listing on gumtree sometime soon – I turned up for the Unley Jets for a Round 2 clash at Camden Oval against the PHOS, and it's not likely to happen again.

We lost by about 200 points, and personally I could neither stem the tide from half back, nor turn it, from in the ruck, after twelve years a slave to volleyball on a Saturday. I'm heading right back there.

I've not watched enough footy in the last month to comment truthfully on who will bag out this weekend, in the opening game of round six, though I suspect it'll come from West Lakes sooner than West Adelaide.

It's The Bloods against the Crows Reserves; West Adelaide, winless, the SANFL Crows, shy of top spot by less than one quarter of one percentage point.

In the AFL round just gone, the Power found something from nothing, and the Crows were themselves in need of the tarps at half-time.

I am hardly suggesting this change of fortunes will happen on Saturday at Hisense Stadium. West Adelaide took a toweling from North, largely occurring after half time as the Roosters became steadily more accurate in attack.

Consequently, North Adelaide sit pretty at the top of the ladder. This is a good thing, as I've already mentioned, because their fadeout to 2021 was heaps bitter.

We are still waiting for West Adelaide to fade in. Three goalkickers on the weekend was all they could muster, from a clearance count they lost by 20 and an inside-50 count they lost by 35. It was however only two (long) weekends ago that they went toe-to-toe with their inner-west rivals, reeling in the wayward Eagles on several important occasions, forcing a contest from a well-earned share of the footy.

Four minutes of Menzel au début was all that came between them.

That match is a rare recent highlight and should be kept close to heart. Football games aren't won on paper, but the sheet of paper with injuries on it is glaring for West Adelaide, with several players exposed to COVID for awful measure.

Quads, knees, 'strings, heads, and broken bones are all plaguing the Bloods.

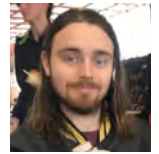

Adelaide are by contrast fresh and firing at Reserves level and shrugged off South Adelaide in a fantastic contest down south on the weekend. The Panthers only led in the second half, kicking four straight goals, across the big break, in what was a deserved momentum swing for the home team.

However, the Crows held firm, and then the Fog put them back in front. He was joined by another now-familiar AFL name in James Rowe, who had 25 touches, five inside-50s and a goal to be named the Coles valuable player in what was certainly a valuable win.

West Adelaide were on the mark two weeks ago, and only truly off it for one scoreless second-quarter this weekend just gone. I trust they enjoyed their trip to Port Lincoln despite the result, and after a week's break for everyone next week, they're off to Loxton again, to face a faltering Port Adelaide.

Should they get through this weekend's matchup with the Crows Reserves relatively unscathed, having provided a contest for the home fans to enjoy, there ain't no reason they can't draw blood against Port in a couple weeks' time, and sing that song we've not heard often enough.

Crows by 30-40, cheers.

Glenelg get back to winning ways with a trip to Prospect

Round 6 of the SANFL season sees a blockbuster game taking place between two of the best sides in the competition, North Adelaide and Glenelg from Prospect Oval. North Adelaide is coming off a commanding few weeks, most recently dismantling West Adelaide away. Glenelg won their first 4 games of the season, however, like last year, it was the old foe Port Adelaide that ended their unbeaten run.

by
Oliver Alyanak

The scoreboard reads a 70-point victory to North Adelaide, however, most of this came after quarter time, with West Adelaide actually leading at the first break. This was largely due to North's inaccuracy, kicking 1.6, but they soon tidied that up and ran away with a convincing win. North ended with double the clearances and inside 50s than that of the Bloods which shows just how dominant they were. West Adelaide only managed to score 35 points which shows how North's efficiency offensively wasn't the only reason they won. It was also a very even performance by all players with only 3 players getting under 10 disposals. Campbell Combe was the best, however, with 30 disposals, 12 clearances and a goal while Harrison Elbrow had 23 touches and kicked 2 goals. Jacob Bauer led the way in the forward line with 3 goals, while Will Combe and Nigel Lockyer joined Elbrow with 2 goals.

Glenelg, on-the-other-hand, are coming off a thrilling 3-point loss to Port Adelaide after a flying first month of the season. Not many would have seen this coming considering both sides were at the opposite ends of the ladder, with Port yet to register a win prior to this game which will make it even more disappointing for Glenelg. Port got the early jump on Glenelg leading by 19 points at quarter time. Glenelg then trailed by more or less a goal for the rest of the match before getting within a point at three quarter time. The margin stayed like this for the whole last quarter before Hugh Stagg missed a late shot to ensure a 3-point win for Port Adelaide. What will make the loss more disappointing is the fact that Glenelg dominated clearances but couldn't translate that into inside 50s with that stat just about being breakeven. The usual suspects were great again for Glenelg with Luke Partington racking up 35 disposals, 10 tackles and 9 clearances. Max Proud and Matthew Snook were also good with 25 disposals each. As usual, Lachie Hosie was in fine form, kicking 5 goals, with 3 of them coming late in the game when it was on the line.

Over the past few years these two sides have faced off in some great games with Glenelg winning 4 of the last 5, with the other game being a draw. Last year Glenelg won both encounters and won by 31 points at their meeting at Prospect Oval. On that day Glenelg got out of the blocks fast, leading by 4 goals at quarter time before North Adelaide stormed until three quarter time, where Glenelg ran away with it. On that day Liam McBean kicked 5 goals and Luke Partington had 35 disposals, while Aaron Young and Campbell Combe were the best for North Adelaide with 24 and 26 disposals respectively. I expect Glenelg to bounce back after a disappointing result last weekend with a win away from home in North Adelaide.

Norwood to ruin Panther Parade at the Parade

South Adelaide will travel to The Parade this week to play Norwood in a middle of the table clash. Both clubs currently sit outside the top 5 with a record of two wins and three losses. After both sides made finals last season, they are yet to find their form this year. Norwood have beaten the teams they have needed to (West Adelaide and Port Adelaide), while the Panthers have beaten Central Districts and Port Adelaide. The last time these two sides met was in a semi-final last season, where the Panthers were 19-point victors. As such, this game is poised to be close as both teams enter with similar sides and the same record.

by William McShane

After making the preliminary final last year, South Adelaide have been disappointing the past three weeks. They have lost to North Adelaide, Sturt and Adelaide. However, they have arguably been disappointing all season, as they only narrowly beat Central districts and Port Adelaide. In these wins it was their greater accuracy which enabled them to win, as both Centrals and Port had more scoring shots than the Panthers. Nevertheless, they come into this weeks clash on the same record as their opposition.

While they have lost, the Panthers have executed much of their game plan during the past three weeks. They have produced a total of 151 inside 50's. Former Hawthorn coach, Alastair Clarkson, regularly made a note that teams with 50 or more inside 50's rarely lose games. Unfortunately, these inside 50 entries have been poorly executed. The panthers have only kicked 26 goals from these inside 50's. This is reflected through the club's disposal efficiency in rounds 3-5, which is at 78 per cent. While this is a relatively efficient, it is not elite. Surprisingly, the Panthers have also lost clearances the past two weeks. With Magarey medallist, Bryce Gibbs alongside, Mitch O'Neill and Hayden Sampson, this would be of great disappointment to Panther fans. If they are to win, they will need to rectify these elements this week.

Conversely, Norwood are yet to impose themselves on the competition. While being competitive with Glenelg and Woodville, the Redlegs have ultimately not been able to beat sides above them. On the weekends loss to Sturt, Norwood looked a formidable team. They conceded more clearances, inside 50's and hit outs than the opposition. Norwood's ball use was also relatively ineffective. They had 323 disposals for only 42 inside 50's. Although the Panthers have not been in terrific form, these areas will need to be rectified, otherwise they could be staring down the barrel of a 2-4 start. Norwood coach, Jade Rawlings will call on his experienced players this week to win the midfield battle against South Adelaide. The normal culprits in that of Rokahr, Nunn and Kennerly will all have to be influential if Norwood are to win.

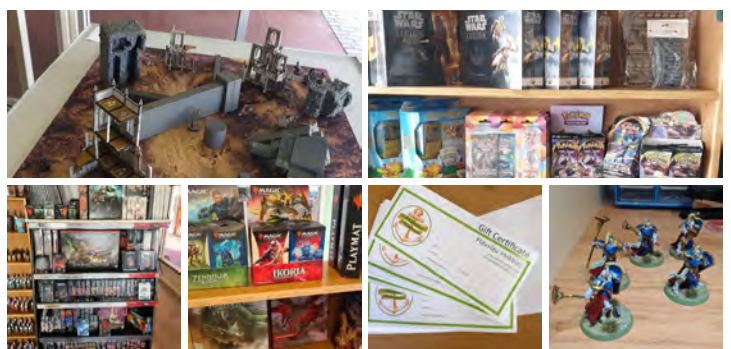

Neither side has demonstrated they are genuine premiership threats. However, this game will likely be match of the round. Two teams with the same record. One looking for vengeance from the semi-final last year, while the other trying to get their season on track after three consecutive losses, this match will have everything a football fan wants. There is very little which separates these two sides, but it will ultimately come down to the team that shows greater endeavour that will win. While either team can win, Norwood's constant ability to influence a game and the key statistics will ultimately hold them in better stead come the final siren.

Norwood by 1-12.

The Double Blues to continue their winning run

In what is anticipated to be a riveting sixth round of football in the SANFL season Sturt will be hosting Central Districts Wigan Oval on Sunday, the final contest of the round. Every clash of footy in the SANFL has become renowned for its unpredictability but judging on the current track records of both outfits, The Double Blues are expected to comfortably get over the line.

by William Clemente

It has thus far been a season to forget for Central Districts as they are currently sitting in second to last on the table. They have only achieved the one victory which was right at the birth of the new season in round two, and it now feels like a distant memory, a memory that The Dogs are eager to relive.

Sturt have had a sublime start to the season and have emerged as one of the front-runners in the quest of claiming the 2022 SANFL Premiership. They are currently placed in second position on the ladder due to a lower percentage in comparison to the team sitting on top (North Adelaide). However, they are equal on points with Glenelg, North Adelaide, and The Crows and it has proven to be an entertaining grudge match for who will claim top position with breathing space. It is only a matter for who will slip up first and relinquish their points; perhaps The Double Blues will upsettingly slip this weekend at the hands of Centrals.

While Centrals notched their first and only victory of the season in the second round, The Double Blue suffered their first and only loss. Since then, they have basked in supreme form, nabbing three wins on the trot, and they would be very confident on extending their winning streak on Sunday afternoon against The Dogs.

The results of last round is a good indication of how the morale of both sides will be when they enter this Sunday's clash.

For The Dogs, the morale is low as they were walloped by Woodville West Torrens by 50-points on their home turf. With the exception of a brief arm-wrestle in the opening minutes of the match, The Dogs were never in contention and The Eagles cruised towards victory. They only kicked five goals in the four quarters which is extremely alarming and their faithful will not be feeling optimistic. However, forward, Aiden Grace kicked three of the goals which is a positive sign for Centrals, and he will be a forward target on Sunday. And Kyle Presbury was their greatest ball winner in midfield, notching 32 disposals.

Sturt nabbed a gutsy three-goal victory last round against a lively Redlegs side at Wigan Oval, and they'll be feeling good when they hit the park on Sunday. Abe Davis proved to be the ultimate difference as he had a day to remember, kicking a miraculous six goals. James Battersby was they dominated with the ball, notching 27 disposals, and contributing to the scoreboard with a goal.

It will be intriguing contest at Wigan Oval to conclude the sixth round, but the early-season woes of Central Districts will tarnish their chances to claim victory against a Sturt side who will extend their run of victories.
